According to UsMagazine.com, Watts posted a photo of Scheiber holding their two kids with the caption, "Happy birthday to this one!!" The couple announced they were separating after 11 years together on September 26, and have agreed to try to keep their split friendly.

These celebrity exes are keeping the good vibes. What are some ways to support your ex in a healthy way post-split?

Cupid's Advice:

It's rare to be civil with an ex after a break-up. However, sometimes you split with your partner because you both realize you're better off as friends, and that's a great realization! What if you really want to support your ex post-split? Cupid is here with some advice:

1. Don't talk badly about them: When you go through a break-up, it only feels natural to throw some negative comments their way. However, if you want to remain civil and support them, it is better off to keep those comments aside and speak more positively about them.

2. Hang out with your kids: At the end of the day, you realize that you have children together, and you do not want to risk your child's emotions for the sake of your own. You want everyone to be happy. Even if it's less than once a week, find time to bond as a "family" again. Post a picture on Instagram, just like Watts did, and show that your ex is still appreciated for being a parent.

3. Talk about why this is for the best: If you knew your relationship couldn't last any longer, it would be good to talk it out and remember that you're doing this for everyone's best interests. Talk and make sure that you two would be better off as friends and could make the split work to your advantage as opposed to leaving it at a bad ending.

Celebrity Divorce: Brad Pitt & Angelina Jolie's Lawyers Are Trying to Hash Out Custody Agreement

By Kayla Garritano

It's slow progress. Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie's lawyers are currently trying to hash out a custody agreement of their six children in their celebrity divorce. According to UsMagazine.com, a source says Pitt is waiting to file a divorce response until the agreement is in place. "Brad has a month to respond to the initial filing, so there is no rush," another source includes. "The fact that things have quieted down so much is a good indicator that discussions are moving forward and are productive. The main issue is custody."

Celebrity divorce is not an easy or pleasant task. What are some ways to make negotiations during a divorce easier?

Cupid's Advice:

No one likes the process of a divorce, as it takes a lot out of you. Cupid is here to help you try and make the process a little easier:

1. Talk it out before the lawyers: Lawyers are very helpful when it comes to a divorce, but only you and your ex-partner can talk it out before you take it further. You shouldn't expect to go into a divorce without any idea of what the other person wants. You'd be in for possibly a very big shock.

2. Make a list: Both of you write out a list of what you want in the divorce. Of course, you can't list your kids if you have them. So instead, write out what you believe is a fair way to get custody of your children. You can exchange and have your lawyers start to negotiate.

3. Ease the fighting: Yelling and screaming at each other is not the way to negotiate, and it tends to make things even worse. Try to resist the fighting. If you want the divorce to run smoothly, it's better off to put the arguing aside.

Celebrity Divorce: Brad Pitt Will Fight Angelina Jolie for Custody of Kids

By Kayla Garritano

Love for your kids will never fade. In the latest celebrity

divorce, Brad Pitt will be fighting for custody of his six kids from his soon to be ex-wife, Angelina Jolie. According to UsMagazine.com, it can be confirmed that Pitt hired divorce attorney Lance Spiegel. But, despite the problems he and Jolie are having, he still has his children's best interests in mind. "He wants to have a significant role in his kids' lives, and he wants to be with them consistently, but he also wants them to be in the most protected and proper environment," said a source.

This celebrity divorce could get ugly. What are some ways to shield your children from your divorce drama?

Cupid's Advice:

If there's one thing that's most important in a divorce, it's to make sure that you protect your kids from the "ugly." Cupid is here to help:

1. Remind them that you love them: A problem with parents divorcing is that the child may feel like it's their fault, or that you don't love them anymore and that's why you're getting the divorce. Reassure them that it is not their fault, and that they are what's most important.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Angelina Jolie Files for Divorce from Brad Pitt

2. Keep it private: Sometimes, divorcing involves a lot of fighting. If you do end up arguing, make sure it's not around your children. Your child will get upset from hearing mom and dad fight and yell at each other. Try to move away from your kids to ensure that they won't be emotionally affected by your argument.

3. Don't talk trash: You don't like your soon-to-be ex if you're divorcing them; that's a fact. But that doesn't mean you're allowed to go around and talk poorly about them, especially in front of the kids. In order to keep your kid happy, you have to make sure that both of their parents are in their lives. No good will come from talking badly about the other parent. Your child shouldn't have to choose sides.

1. Changed for the worse: You know it's really time to call it quits on your relationship when you've had discussions with your partner and they make no change—or change for the worse. Every person is annoying in their own special way, and in a relationship you learn to deal with the other person. But when you have already had a few heart to hearts about needing more communication or wanting more support, and your other half makes no effort to give that to you, that's a big red flag. It's time to walk away.

2. Timing: It may sound like an excuse, but if the timing is not right, you may have to call things off. If you have to sacrifice opportunities or move somewhere, you don't want to or can't afford it may be time to call it quits.

3. Fizzling out: If the thought of spending time with your partner no longer gets you excited, or if you both don't miss each other while you're apart, it could be a sign that your relationship is fizzling out. A dip in chemistry may be no fault of either person involved, but may be a reason to walk away from the relationship to find a new flame somewhere else.
