

Celebrity News: Lindsay Lohan Acts Casual Over the Rumors Surrounding Fiancé Egor Tarabasov

By Stephanie Sacco

Lindsay Lohan has been constantly making celebrity news ever since she was a kid. Now, she's making headlines again due to rumors involving her fiancé Egor Taraba and a potential celebrity baby on the way. Lohan's taking all of the celebrity gossip in and letting all the negativity out. According to UsMagazine.com, she was seen on a luxury yacht in Italy with her friend Hofit Golan, smoking cigarettes and drinking beer. She's been scattered on social media about what's going on in her personal life, but told fans through Instagram that she is “good and well” and taking time for herself.

This celebrity news has us wondering what’s really up with this pair. How do you get back at your partner without going too far?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes anger fuels bad decisions. In Lohan’s case to combat pregnancy rumors, she went on a mini vacation. No harm, no foul here, but it’s not always so simple. Cupid is here to help:

1. Jealousy: A little bit of jealousy doesn’t hurt when keeping your partner in check, but don’t take it too far. Never cheat on your partner or flirt too much with another guy to make him jealous. You might end up losing more than you gain.

2. Banter: Having conversations about how you’re feeling is important in a relationship. You can joke around and pretend you’re angrier than you are or upset just to get him to react, but it’s not always going to work. Guys can be smart even when they’re being dumb. Don’t push your luck.

3. Ignoring: When your man pisses you off, give him the cold shoulder. If you mean something to him, he’ll come crawling back for a little more of your time. You’ll see the real him come out when he's not getting everything he wants.

Celebrity News: Keshia Knight Pulliam Announces Pregnancy At Same Time Her Husband Files For Divorce

By Stephanie Sacco

Keshia Knight Pulliam is the center of two big pieces of celebrity news. If it wasn't enough to find out she's pregnant, she is now also dealing with a celebrity divorce. According to People.com, the pair had only been married for six months before Pulliam's husband Ed Hartwell filed for divorce. The celebrity couple got engaged on New Years and were married at Pulliam's house. She said their wedding was her dream. "We did it literally in our living room in our home. We invited people. They had no clue they were coming to a wedding," she shares. It's a shame it didn't work out.

This celebrity news is devastating for a soon-to-be mom. How can you tell if your partner isn't in it for the long haul?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a big decision to have a baby with your partner. But this celebrity news is devastating because Pulliam will have to do it alone with little support. Cupid is here with some relationship advice on how to tell if your partner isn't fully committed to you:

1. He's pulling away: If you're seeing your partner less and less or if he's not calling you back, he's distancing himself from you. Maybe he wants to slow down or maybe he wants less from you, but it's definitely not a good sign. Talk to him before jumping to any conclusions, but pay attention to his actions.

2. He's M.I.A: When your partner is ghosting and not paying enough attention to you, he's not in it for the long haul. If he's hanging around other girls or choosing his friends over you, it's not a good place to be in. Keep an eye on your man and make sure he's not running for the hills.

3. He says he doesn't want anything serious: Flings and casual relations is an option, but it's not for everybody. If you want a steady boyfriend, you have to know where they stand. You can't change people's minds so if your man isn't in it, don't waste your time.

This celebrity news has our hearts hurting. How do you fall out of love with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Falling in love can be new and exciting, but it doesn't always end well. In the end, sometimes half of the couple has a harder time finding their way out than the other, just like with this celebrity news. Cupid is here to help:

1. Find someone new: It doesn't always work wonders and it isn't instantaneous, but sometimes a distraction can help you move on. Whether it's a fling or a new boyfriend, it's something different. This is the way out of the maze of your feelings.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Guy Cut by JoJo Fletcher in Fantasy Suite

By Nicole Caico

At the beginning of this week's episode of The Bachelorette it seemed like all three guys still had a fair shot at a celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher, but by the end, one of them was sent packing. Jordan, Robby, and Chase were the three lucky men who made it to the fantasy suite. It turns out that Chase was the one unlucky man to be sent home. UsMagazine.com reports that Chase proclaimed his love for JoJo, and she responded with, "When you said that to me, in my heart and in my gut, I don't think I felt what I thought I was gonna feel. I don't know if I'm in the same place as you. I don't know if spending this night together would change that feeling, and I almost feel like it would be unfair." Chase, rightly upset, left the show. JoJo made it clear that she is not interested in becoming a celebrity couple with Chase.

This celebrity news has us cringing a bit! What are some ways to let someone who is interested in you go?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always endearing to know that someone is interested in you. As flattering as it may be, there comes a time when you've got to let the person know that the feeling isn't mutual. No use putting it off. Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Remain unavailable: Before jumping into the full on "it's not you, it's me" convo, see if the person crushing on you can take a hint. When they text you, don't answer right away—and sometimes don't answer at all. Answering immediately and consistently usually conveys that you're interested, so doing the opposite may allow the person to catch on to your lukewarm feelings.

2. The other man: If the person pursuing you is someone you're friendly with or talk to regularly, get on the topic of relationships and try to casually mention another guy you're interested in. If you make it seem like you're confiding in this friend for advice on another guy or girl, they'll have to understand that your interest is elsewhere.

3. Be honest: As awkward as the conversation might be, being honest is the best way to go about it. Just telling the person, “Hey, it seems like you’re interested in me, but I’m not looking to date anyone” will clear up the whole situation. Being honest is also the best way to avoid hurting someone. Be honest, and remember—don’t apologize—you’re just not interested.

Johnny Depp Files to Keep Celebrity Divorce Proceedings Private

By Cortney Moore

Johnny Depp is making celebrity news once more with his motion for privacy in his celebrity divorce against Amber Heard. The couple surprised everyone when they ended their celebrity relationship back in May, and since then, there have been rocky court hearings. According to UsMagazine.com, Depp filed for confidentiality on July 15, with papers that state, "All documents produced by [Depp] in this action and/or any third parties subpoenaed in this action ... shall be designated as 'Confidential Information' herein." Sources close to Depp say his desire for privacy comes after Heard's request to obtain personal and financial documentation. "Amber has inexplicably refused to sign any agreement to maintain confidentiality in this action," Depp's filing claims. "Johnny is therefore asking the Court to issue a protective order." Despite Heard's claims that their celebrity relationship was abusive, Depp seems to be handling the divorce proceedings well.

This celebrity divorce is definitely going to be one for the books. What are some ways to keep the details of your divorce private?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorces are never fun, especially with the court proceedings that are required for a legal separation. At times, people will ask how you're holding up and may want to know the details of your divorce. At no point are you obligated to provide an explanation. Let Cupid help you keep the details of your divorce private:

1. Privacy lawyers: The best way to ensure that details of your divorce will not leave the courtroom is by hiring a lawyer who takes confidentiality seriously. Find a lawyer who is good at what they do, and will put your needs first. You don't want a lawyer who will use your case to bolster their public profile.

2. Spousal collaboration: Another great way to keep your divorce private is to communicate this desire with your spouse. Working together to maintain privacy will help keep sensitive details from escaping into the public. Even if your relationship ended on bad terms, privacy may be a top priority you both can agree on.

3. Loose lips sink ships: The absolute best way to make sure that details of your divorce remain private is by keeping it all to yourself. Though you may want to talk to close friends, family, or even coworkers about what you're going through, don't let them know sensitive information. Sharing details opens the chance for rumors and changed opinions that could hurt your case, which is the exact opposite of what you want.

By Stephanie Sacco

This celebrity couple is on the edge of heartbreak. Lady Gaga and Taylor Kinney have been taking a break from their relationship, but it might not be forever. According to UsMagazine.com, the pair is on the same page on this one. In celebrity couple news, Gaga says that she and Kinney are “on a break.” What are some factors to consider before going on a break from a relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Couples break-up all of the time and half the time they get back together. Being ‘on a break’ is common even if it’s only temporary. Cupid is here to help with some dating advice:

1. If he’s driving you crazy: Sometimes couples are too close for comfort and that causes every little thing to annoy you. Space is key when it comes to not overdoing it. Make sure your partner is aware that you need a break and why.

2. If he needs a time out: When your partner takes it too far or steps over the line, take a break. As long as he’s not being mean or cruel and it’s not the end of the world, a break isn’t going to kill the relationship. But occasionally he might need to get put in the dog house.

years, that's about as bad as it gets. Making your divorce as swift a possible subsequently makes it as painless as possible. Cupid has some tips:

This celebrity news spells d-r-a-m-a! What are some ways to keep drama to a minimum post-split?

Cupid’s Advice:

Break-ups can be messy, and nobody wants to deal with the drama. The aftermath is almost always tragic, but there are ways to minimize it. Cupid is here to help:

1. Walk away: You don’t have to shake hands or hug it out in the final stages of your break-up, but it doesn’t hurt to walk away. Instead of prolonging a fight, just get up and leave. Forget about closure, and worry more about your mental health.

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups are rough. At some point you'll get over the split and will go on with your life. Your ex may not be as fortunate and may try to cling onto the past. Let Cupid help you get rid of your obsessive ex:

1. Tell the truth: Be honest with your ex and let them know that you no longer see a future with them. Telling the truth might be hard, but it's unfair to mislead and string them along. Your ex may finally let you go in peace if they understand there's no hope for a relationship.

Cupid's Advice:

Getting divorced is a huge decision, one you might regret. There's no shame in getting back together after a break-up, but sometimes it just isn't working out. Cupid is here to help:

1. You're fighting: When your partner is causing you to throw stuff at him or hit him where it hurts, there's no going back. It's not worth trying to fix it if it's just going to result in another fight. If it's getting loud and out of control, the best thing for both of you is to steer clear.

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups can be messy and awkward, or both. The backlash can be even worse so it's important to have somebody in your corner. Cupid is here to help you cope:

1. The truth: When asked a specific question about the break-up, answer honestly and hope that your family and friends will understand. If they're supportive, they'll show you compassion and give you the space you need to move on. Being vulnerable isn't easy, but with the right people on your side you'll be just fine.

Celebrity News: Iggy Azalea Sets Record Straight About Moving Out of Nick Young's House

By Nicole Caico

Iggy Azalea used Twitter as her platform to shut down rumors about the end of her celebrity relationship with NBA player Nick Young. The celebrity couple had gotten engaged in June 2015, but, as UsMagazine.com reports, an alleged cheating scandal exposed by Young's NBA teammate D'Angelo Russell earlier this year has driven them apart. Recently, pictures of the L.A. home Azalea lives in have shown a car being towed and locks being changed. On Twitter, Azalea made it clear that she was not behind this, saying, "I never had anyone's car towed nor did I kick nick out of 'my' house. The home belongs to nick, I am the one moving. Thanks."

This celebrity news has us holding our breath a bit. What are three ways to completely detach yourself from your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

After a messy split, two people want nothing to do with each other. The most important thing to do after getting out of a long relationship is to distance yourself from the other person. Detaching yourself from your ex may be difficult, but it's necessary. Cupid has some tips:

1. Social media detox: In this day and age, you can do everything to cut ties with an ex, but if you don't remove them on social media, they'll be popping up forever. Delete traces of the relationship from your own pages and unfriend them on all of your accounts.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Taylor Swift Caught Kissing Tom Hiddleston Two Weeks After Split

2. Cut off communication: If you're finding yourself wanting to text your ex, take the extra step to delete the contact in your phone. If you don't have your ex's number, you can't contact them—simple, yet effective. Then if they contact you at some point, you'll seem totally over it when you reply, "Who's this?"

3. Material things: Whether you live in your ex's house or have photos and gifts all over your apartment, make a change. If you lived together you'll definitely have to move out, and if you live on your own, take some time to find things from your ex and clean them out of your space. If you're a very sentimental person and can't bear to throw the items away, at least pack up the gifts and photos into a box and stow them away. Out of sight, out of mind.

This celebrity couple is no more. What are some ways to re-establish trust when it's lost?

Cupid's Advice:

Trusting a person is hard enough, but when they break that trust, it's a long road to trusting them again. Cheating especially causes a rift in a relationship. Cupid is here to help:

1. Honesty: If you aren't being loyal, the least you can do is admit your faults and come clean. Even if you do something wrong or hurt your partner, there has to be open and honest communication. When you lose that kind of connection, there's no going back.

2. Slowly let them back in: Don't go telling them your secrets and true feelings until you feel like they've earned it. Backtrack into the relationship as if you're starting fresh. Never forgive and forget.

3. Don't gloss over it: It's a big deal if your partner is unfaithful or has done something untrustworthy. You can't just ignore the fact that the trust between you is gone. Tell them how it really made you feel and that they're walking on thin ice, if that.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Villain Chad Johnson Defends Bad Behavior

By Stephanie Sacco

One of the biggest villains in the history of The Bachelorette came from JoJo Fletcher's season. Chad Johnson, the luxury realtor and nobody's favorite housemate, had something mean to say about just about everyone in the house. He also threatened one or two of them. However, according to UsMagazine.com he told Jimmy Kimmel post-elimination, "At the end of the day, it is a show so things are amplified. We try to be ourselves and we try to be who we are, but at the same time, whoever you are is amplified up about a million times." In celebrity news and gossip, Johnson has been seen with an ex of one of his fellow competitors, Robby Hayes. He'll be sure to start some trouble this August when he appears on Bachelor in Paradise. We'll have to wait and see.

This celebrity news has us skeptical about Chad's sincerity. What are some benefits to avoiding the bad boy?

Cupid's Advice:

The idea of a bad boy is always better than the reality. You see them in movies and books and believe that deep down they have a soft spot. Cupid is here to set the record straight:

1. Nice guys finish first: Bad boys might look nice (think James Dean), but deep down they may not always be the right guy. If you're looking for fun and no commitment, maybe you'll find that in a bad boy. However, most of the time it's just trouble. A nice guy will always treat you well.

2. Less heartbreak: A bad boy doesn't always stick around, and you need somebody who isn't going to break your heart (at least not on purpose). Find a guy who is all about you and who won't let you down. Don't settle for anything less than the best.

3. They're immature: Wearing a leather jacket or riding a motorbike isn't cool forever. After a while, it just gets old. There's nothing cool about being treated badly, and if your bad boy isn't respecting you, kick him to the curb.

Cupid's Advice:

Staying friendly after a divorce is not an easy feat, but if you have children, it's ideal. Co-parenting makes everyone's lives easier, parents' and children' alike. There are many ways to show appreciation for the parent of your child:

1. Hold up your end: Some divorces result in more rules and regulations than others. However it plays out, be sure to fulfill your responsibilities. Contribute the money you're supposed to, and follow the schedule to a tee. Strictly sticking to the conditions of your divorce will show respect to the parent of your child, and prevent additional issues.

2. Do a favor: Parenting is difficult; that is a universal fact. If you see the parent of your child struggling with something and you're in a position where you can help out, do it. Doing a favor for the parent of your child will help everyone involved in the long run. Just because you're no longer married doesn't mean it is right to sit back and watch your ex flounder when you can help.

Heard claims that the celebrity relationship had been violent. According to People.com, the alleged text exchange between Amber Heard and Depp's assistant, Stephen Deuters, was analyzed by tech specialist, Kevin Cohen, who confirmed the authenticity, "On Sunday, June 5, 2016, I was asked to examine iPhone backups of Amber Heard," he said. "It was her normal routine to sync her iPhone on the computer. I forensically imaged and examined the device containing Ms. Heard's iPhone backups, and I conclude that the backups are authentic."

In celebrity news, Johnny Depp is under fire for assaulting Amber Heard. What are some ways to seek help in a violent relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Domestic violence is extremely serious. Hollywood couples are not isolated from the reality of abuse, and neither are normal couples. Domestic violence is to be treated seriously and stopped as soon as possible in any situation:

1. Tell someone you know: A good place to start when seeking help in a violent relationship is to tell someone close to you, that you trust, what is happening. Talking about the violence that you have been dealing with alone can help you come to terms with the situation, and allow the person you tell to support you.

2. Call a hotline: There are several domestic violence hotlines, both state and national. Either search for the hotline you would like to call, or have someone make the search and the call for you. How you choose to go about this is a personal choice varies case by case. If you or someone you know is a victim of domestic violence, here is one national hotline that you can call: <http://www.thehotline.org>, 1-800-799-7233.
