

Celebrity News: Taylor Swift Reportedly Wanted a 'Future' with Calvin Harris

By Nicole Caico

Another celebrity relationship has come to an end. Taylor Swift and Calvin Harris' celebrity break-up comes after over a year of dating, and according to UsMagazine.com, "Taylor Swift thought Calvin Harris was the one." The celebrity couple celebrated their one year anniversary this past March. Reportedly, they have grown apart and decided to end things for that reason. Calvin Harris tweeted about the break-up saying, "The only truth here is that a relationship came to an end & what remains is a huge amount of love and respect."

This celebrity news still has us down in the dumps. What are some signs things are headed toward the end in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No one could have foreseen this celebrity relationship coming to an end, but it is important to know what signs to look for in your own relationship that could mean you're headed for a break up:

1. Last place: If you are repeatedly put at the bottom of your significant other's list of priorities, prepare for the worst. Having your S.O. choose friends or work over you every time means that he/she doesn't consider your relationship a top priority. You deserve first place, don't settle. This shows a serious lack of effort.

2. At a loss for words: When you realize that you two are having less and less to talk about it's a sign that you're growing apart. If conversations are becoming boring, or draining, it's time to rethink your relationship status. Hanging out shouldn't feel like a chore.

3. Not the time or place: Sometimes it can be as simple as this—you're not at the same place in your lives. If you are both trying to pursue a career, or need to be close to your family, things can get in the way. Life gets complicated and if you are both dedicated to something that is pulling you away, it may be time to decide as a couple not to be a couple anymore.

Celebrity News: Demi Lovato & Wilmer Valderrama Break Up

By Nicole Caico

In the latest celebrity couple news, after six years together, Demi Lovato and Wilmer Valderrama's celebrity relationship has come to an end. According to UsMagazine.com, on Friday, June 3, both stars posted a joint statement on their Instagram accounts that read, "After almost 6 loving and wonderful years together, we have decided to end our relationship. This was an incredibly difficult decision for both of us, but we have realized more than anything that we are better as friends. We will always be supportive of one another. Thank you to everyone who has offered us kindness and support over the years." This is a celebrity break-up no one saw coming.

In celebrity news, another celebrity couple bites the dust! What are some ways to know you are better off as friends with someone?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you are a Hollywood star or not, love comes and goes just the same—and sometimes it's for the better. It's not always easy to see that a break-up is beneficial when it's happening, but often times it ends up as a good thing. The love you shared as a couple has the potential to turn into a stable friendship if things go correctly:

1. Identity thief: This doesn't necessarily mean a significant other stealing your credit card number. It could mean losing yourself in your relationship. If you get to a point where you feel you've taken on so much of your significant other's qualities and interest over the course of your relationship, it may be time for a break or break-up. Choosing to step back from your relationship to be friends instead will allow you to rekindle your own interests before you forget what they were to begin with.

2. No spark: At the beginning of a relationship, the butterflies come easily because everything is new, but if you're a few months in and it feels more like a few years, it may be time to turn this romantic relationship into a friendship. You two may enjoy each other's company, but without a real spark, you're headed for friendship bracelets rather than wedding bands.

3. Fundamental differences: In order to have a long lasting romantic relationship, certain things need to line up. You should like each other's families, have similar priorities, want to live in the same region—basic, necessary things like that. If you want to lead an expensive lifestyle and your significant other pinches pennies at every turn, or you need to live in a city and your significant other wants to live in the country—those may be an early indicators that you two will be better as friends in the future.

1. Values: In order to make a relationship last, you need to know what your partner values. Sometimes you can tell if a relationship has an expiration date if you both value different things. 1. Don’t force it: If you’re arguing all the time and the friendship is toxic, cut it off. It’s no use trying to be friends if you guys aren’t on the same page. Only hold onto the friendship if it’s working for both of you.
