There's no specific time that applies to every person, so you'll simply have to go with how you feel. When you aren't upset and pining for your ex, it's safe to consider dating someone else. There may have been trouble in paradise for famous couple Bobbi Kristina Brown and Nick Gordon. New information has surfaced from UsMagazine.com accusing Brown's celebrity love of foul play within their relationship. Gordon has been accused of dragging Brown by her hair, knocking her teeth out, and stealing money from her just hours before she was found unresponsive in her home this January. A lawsuit for $10 million has been filed against Gordon. Within the lawsuit,

Brown allegedly said that Gordon was “not the man she thought he was.”

This celebrity love may have been fizzling all along. How do you know if your partner is in your relationship for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

Problems arise in many relationships as it did for this famous couple. One person may discover that the other was in the relationship for money, loneliness, or a number of other reasons. To avoid this issue, Cupid has some advice for how you can tell if your partner is in your relationship for the right reasons:

1. Money doesn't phase them: Whether you're dealing with financial issues or have some extra money in the bank, their attitude toward you doesn't change along with your finances. A person who is in your relationship for love won't care about how much money you make.

2. They show you they love you: Words don't mean much without strong action to back them up. So if your partner says that they love you all the time but their actions don't match, their words may not be very true. Look for the partner that says and shows that they love you, whether it's cooking your favorite meal after a hard day or surprising you with a thoughtful visit at your job.

3. There are no secrets: Honestly is the best policy in life and relationships. If you find that your significant other is the secretive type – i.e. acting defensive if you ask him questions about certain things, he may not be the right one for you. Confront your partner about their dishonesty.

Not all relationships and love are meant to last forever. How do you know when it's right to call off an engagement? Cupid has some tips:

1. Give them their space: While in a relationship, it isn't uncommon to want to know what your partner is up to throughout the day. However, after a break-up you no longer need to know what your ex is doing all the time. Constantly checking in on them may cause some unnecessary tension.

Celebrity wedding no more! What are some reasons to call off your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

While the celebrity engagement between Bristol Palin and Dakota Meyer didn't work out as planned, it's important to note that this isn't uncommon. Unfortunately, many relationships take a turn for the worst before the big day.

2. You're hoping they'll change: If you think that your partner will "settle down" or "become more mature" because they're married, think again. Someone's personality isn't going to change overnight just because they have a ring on their finger. Reevaluate what you expect from your partner.

3. You haven't discussed the details: Sure, no one likes an awkward or heated conversation. But, you have to talk about children, religion, politics, where you're going to live, etc. if you want any chance of sticking together. What if one person wants kids and the other one doesn't? Kenya Moore's Celebrity Ex from 'Millionaire Matchmaker'

Is Married

By Katie Gray

Bravo star Kenya Moore is an alum of Patti Stanger's show Millionaire Matchmaker. She found a match, but along the way, he married someone else. Clearly, that now makes him her celebrity ex. According to UsMagazine.com, "Kenya Moore just revealed that her boyfriend, James Freeman, whom she met on the Bravo show Millionaire Matchmaker wasn't as unattached as he seemed. The Real Housewives of Atlanta star just revealed she found out he married someone else behind her back while they were dating." That being said, she has an optimistic attitude and took to Instagram to say, "Unfortunately, I just learned today that the man I met and fell in love with from Millionaire Matchmaker was married a week after the show aired. I am astounded and devastated to have learned this news

VIA social media as opposed to from him directly. However, I still believe in love and my heart remains open to the man God has for me. I wish him well.”

These celebrity exes probably won't be reconciling anytime soon. How do you know if you are dating someone who is monogamous?

Cupid's Advice:

Above all else, you need to be on the same page when it comes to exclusivity in a relationship and love. If you want to be monogamous, but your partner still wants to date around, that's an issue. Cupid has some tips:

1. Ask: The best way to know if you are dating someone who is monogamous or not is by flat out asking. It's efficient and straight to the point. If you are dating this person, it's not prying to ask about it because you are involved, and you have the right to know.

2. Read their personality: You can tell a lot about a person by reading their actions and behaviors. Feel out what kind of personality they have. If they are honest and trustworthy, then you can believe them when they say they aren't seeing other people in addition to you. Sometimes it is obvious if a guy is very flirty and seeing multiple people, but other times it can be discreet. Figure out the type of person he is and go from there.

3. Learn their goals: If the person you are seeing has goals of marriage and starting a family, it's obvious he is probably on the path to settling down. If someone is just having fun and doesn't want to be serious with anyone, that will also be evident. Discuss what outcomes you both want from the relationship and love life and go from there in determining if you want to continue seeing one another!
