These celebrity exes have nothing but kind words for one another. How do you keep things amicable with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Break up and make up! Moving on from an ex doesn't necessarily mean you never see or hear from them again, it is possible to eventually become friends:

1. Exit gracefully: When the break up comes, make sure that you go out as peacefully as possible. Creating extra drama or arguments will only make the post break up more stressful. The aftermath can be a time of coexistence and growth, be sure that you are not the one to hinder that.

Going through a break-up is emotionally hard; feelings are hurt and the relationship and love is over. If that person meant a lot to you, you may still want them in your life some way. Here are some ways to know if you are ready to build a friendship with an ex:

1. You have forgiven: A great sign that lets you know you're still not bitter about the ending of the relationship is if you have forgiven your partner. If you are able to recognize that whatever they did to cause the break-up or to hurt you is in the past, then you are ready to reach out to your ex.

Sofia Vergara Breaks Silence on Frozen Embryo Saga with Celebrity Ex Nick Loeb

By Maggie Manfredi

Let's hear it, Sofia! According to UsMagazine.com, Sofia Vergara finally came forward about her frozen embryo drama with celebrity ex Nick Loeb. Vergara and Loeb broke off their celebrity engagement a year ago, and with that came a contractual agreement on what to do with the frozen embryos the celebrity exes produced. The founder of Crunchy Condiment Company wrote an Op-Ed in the New York Times about his strong feelings that these embryos should be thawed. The Modern Family star, who is happily engaged to Joe Manganiello, spoke on the matter with Howard Stern on his radio show. Vergara stated, "Joe and I try not to even talk about it," she said. "We have lawyers. We're having so much fun right now. We just moved into a new house. We're planning a wedding. We try not to think about this, we can't do anything. It's signed, it's done, and that's it."

These celebrity exes are still fighting! What are some ways to keep the drama at a minimum post break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all break-ups end amicably. Dealing with the backlash can be a little stressful, but Cupid has some tips on how to keep the drama to a minimum:

- 1. Avoid commentary: Don't go sharing every thought and feeling about your ex with the world, especially if the wounds are still fresh. Sofia waited it out and commented when it was appropriate, so you can exude patience, too.

The celebrity exes seem to have had an amicable celebrity break-up, with Vonn saying she will always "admire and respect" Woods and that she will always hold him and his family in her heart.

Famous couple no more! What are some ways to minimize gossip surrounding a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether it's between a pair of celebrity exes, or you and your ex flame, breaking up can be a tough thing in terms of rumors coming from numerous "sources." But don't worry! Cupid has some tips to reduce or avoid the gossip completely:

1. Don't post things on social media: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and other forms of social media are the last places you want to turn after a break-up, because you never know who's lurking on your pages. Instead of writing long, sappy posts about how you miss your ex or re-Tweeting break-up Tweets, refrain from posting your relationship details on social media completely. Posting things on social media will only add fuel to the gossip fire.

2. Delete toxic people: Despite your best efforts, word may still get out about your break-up. Then the next thing you know, your frenemy from college is posting subliminal Tweets about how your ex “can do better.” If toxic people are posting things they have no knowledge about, delete them from your social media outlets to keep gossip and drama to a minimum.

3. Talk to family and close friends: To make sure that people know your side of the break-up story, talk to your family and close friends about it. If you and your ex have been in a longterm relationship, the people close to you might be inclined to talk about the cause of the break-up. Setting the record straight for them, or even letting them know to respect your break-up by not talking about it will help stave off any rumors.

Bruce Jenner's Ex-Celebrity Wife Reacts to ABC Special

By Jessica DeRubbo

Bruce Jenner left it all on the table in the recent ABC special where he confirmed the truth about his gender identity. In the highly anticipated 20/20 episode with Diane Sawyer, the Olympic athlete discussed his transition from male to female. According to UsMagazine.com, his ex-celebrity wife, Chrystie Crownover, was by his side during the airing of the special. Crownover spoke to Good Morning America on April 27th about her thoughts on his transition, saying, "It was just kind of surreal. It was great because the family was together and that's what I'm most proud of." Jenner told Sawyer that Crownover was the first to know about his gender identity issues. "Understandably, I was speechless. I didn't really know what to say. I was really pleased that he shared that intimacy with me, that he trusted me with his deepest darkest secret."

Bruce Jenner kept his gender identity a secret from celebrity ex-wife Chrystie Crownover for quite some time. What are some reasons to keep a secret from your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes keeping a secret is good in a relationship and love, while other times it can destroy a good thing. Cupid has some reasons to keep a secret from your partner:

1. It would unnecessarily hurt them: If by keeping a secret, you're avoiding hurting your partner, sometimes it's okay to do so ... of course depending on what that secret is. For instance, if your partner asks if she looks heavy in a white pair of skinny jeans, it's probably in your best interest to avoid affirming the concern. This type of secret doesn't hurt your partner; whereas telling her may hurt her feelings.

2. It has nothing to do with them: If you have a secret that does not affect your partner, then you may want to simply keep it. Perhaps a secret pertaining to your family comes out; it's not your responsibility to enlighten your partner unless you want to do so.

3. It's someone else's secret: If a friend tells you something in confidence, you're not obligated to tell your partner. In fact, it's probably best not to do so, as things like that easily spread. If the secret doesn't affect them and is someone else's secret to tell, don't feel bad about keeping your partner in the dark.

The drama in Ashton's former celebrity love life just intensified! What are some signs that your partner isn't being faithful?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the worst things that can happen to you when you're in a relationship and love is if your partner isn't being faithful to you. The feelings of sadness and betrayal are hard to bare. Sometimes these situations do arise, so it's good to look for the signs. Cupid has some tips:

1. Distant: When your partner starts to grow distant, that is potential sign that he or she is growing closer to someone else. Try and spend quality time together and focus on communicating. Plan a date night! Rekindle the spark and romance in your relationship.

If they are defensive when you ask questions, they may be lying to you. The important thing is to find out what is going on and addressing it!

3. Negative: Relationships and love go through good times and bad times. It's not always a honeymoon phase in a healthy relationship, so you can't expect your partner to be happy and positive 24/7. If this is becoming a pattern and they are insulting you, something is definitely going on in their lives and you should figure out what it is. They may just be going through some issues. The star of The Real Housewives of New York City appeared on Watch What Happens Next in a half-hour special with Andy Cohen. Money can affect your relationship like it did for these celebrity exes, especially if you don't know how to properly manage it. But Cupid has some great advice for how not to let money get in the way of your relationship with your partner:

1. Learn to budget: Budgeting finances is one of the most fiscally responsible things that couples can do. Setting aside specific amounts for utilities, groceries, electricity, and other essentials will ensure that you won't be taking cold showers in the dark on a winter morning. Keeping track of the money that you use each month can also help you and your partner see how much money you have to spare – maybe for that couple's trip to Paris?

It's important to remind yourself that all that matters is how you feel and what the people you love think. Cupid has some love advice on ways to cope with gossip surrounding your relationship:

- 1. Let it roll off your back: People are always going to talk, so give them something to talk about. Who cares what people say about you and your relationship? heart and keep on keepin' on!

Celebrity love can get sticky when the paparazzi capture infidelity. What are some signs that your partner is being unfaithful?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to infidelity there isn't always hard and fast evidence to back up the cheating. But Cupid wants you to be aware of the signs of a partner who might be looking elsewhere for love:

- 1. Random schedule changes: Is your partner coming home a lot later or leaving suddenly with vague explanations? This could be a sign that they are meeting someone else or up to something suspicious. Don't be afraid to have honest conversations if you are feeling confused by these changes, communication is key to trust.

2. Phone is on lock and key: Do you notice your partner being extra protective or secretive about their phone? This can be a big red flag. Affairs can be much harder to track with apps, messaging tools and numerous outlets for your partner to be in communication with someone else. Should you hack into your partner's phone...absolutely not, but be aware of any changes they make when it comes to their personal technologies.

3. Personality shift: Is your partner having intense mood swings or becoming cold and distant? Careful here, you might be looking at a cheater. They might be defensive or angry towards you for what seems like no reason, but the reality is that it is stemming from guilt and fear of you finding out. Again you want to always be in direct communication with your partner about their feelings and your relationship. If you are suspicious, call your partner out!

Famous Couple Sean Lowe and Catherine Giudici Speak Out Against the New 'Bachelorette' Twist

By Meranda Yslas

The latest celebrity news is that two women, Katilyn Bristowe and Britt Nilsson, will be on the upcoming season of The Bachelorette. This announcement has left a lot of people puzzled and some even angry. According to UsMagazine.com, famous couple Sean Lowe and Catherine Giudici, who met on season 17 of The Bachelor, are not happy about this change. Lowe wrote on his personal blog that this decision is “downright degrading for the women” because it “transfers the power back to the men on the show specifically designed for the women.” He feels that the contestants on The Bachelorette shouldn't be given the authority to choose which woman will stay and which will go.

Sean Lowe is against shifting the power back to the men on The Bachelorette. What are some ways that couples can have equal say in their relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

An important part of any relationship and love is maintaining a balance of power between the couple. One person cannot be over controlling so that their partner resents them and one person cannot be too submissive where they get walked on. Cupid offers some relationship advice on how to find a middle ground:

1. Sharing the bills : Without a doubt, the idea of gender roles are constantly being challenged in our modern generation. No longer is it a 'wife duty' to clean the house, while the husband is the bread giver. Having one partner in charge of the bills will definitely cause some imbalance of power in the relationship. Splitting the bills in half will make sure one person doesn't feel too dependent on the other.

2. Create an open environment: Sometimes an unequal say in a relationship stems from one person in the couple being too scared or nervous to speak their mind about something. Instead, he/she will keep their mouth close while their mate continues doing something they don't like. Make sure the relationship fosters an open and honest environment so that both people are free to speak their mind.

3. Make decisions together: Making important decisions in a relationship should be the job of both partners, not just one. When deciding on something, like what school to send your kids or what car to buy, make sure this task isn't in one person's hands, but is considered by both people in the relationship.

The celebrity exes are making it work and have got their co-parenting down to a science. Federline said, "I had to work this weekend and go to Orange County...so they went to Vegas, and when she has to do something and I need to keep the kids, it just works out well." Federline and Spears had a short but, dramatic relationship and love life, from a surprise wedding to two baby boys and even a reality television show. Early on, there were intense custody issues between the celebrity exes, which culminated in Britney's breakdown in 2007. But, the former famous couple are on track now and have a good system where their children always come first.

Celebrity ex or not, it can be tough to look back on your past relationship and love life with fond memories. What three memories are hard to let go when you break up with someone?

Cupid's Advice:

Cupid knows it can be tricky to cope with a break-up, and sometimes that has to do with lingering memories. Cupid has memories that are particularly hard to let go of post-break-up:

1. Intimacy: Of course, the first thing that comes to mind is letting go of your memories surrounding the intimacy in your past relationship. If you were with someone for a long time, it probably means you were very much attracted to them. Those flashbacks can be tough to release.

2. Special dates: Whether it was an anniversary extravaganza or a surprise birthday bash made for the tabloids, you'll be hard pressed to forget those good times. They will always remind you of your ex. That being said, don't let them become tainted. Just because you aren't with you ex now, doesn't mean you should regret the whole relationship.

3. Pets: If you and your former partner got a pet together, and you ended up getting to keep said pet, it's going to be difficult to move on from all memories pertaining to your former "family." As they say, "Time heals all wounds." This may or may not be true, but hang in there, because things are bound to get better! Memories fade.

Is Wiz Khalifa Bashing
Celebrity Ex Amber Rose in New Song?

By Meranda Yslas

Amber Rose has been in the center of the latest celebrity news, especially in the social media world, and now it seems she's caught the attention of her celebrity ex Wiz Khalifa. According to UsMagazine.com, Khalifa's verse in Juicy J's new song "For Everybody" seems to reference Rose and her previous job as a stripper. Rose filed for a celebrity divorce claiming that Khalifa had cheated on her when they were together. Khalifa denied these claims.

Khalifa and celebrity ex Rose have been going through a heated break-up. What are some ways to use music to cope with your split?

Cupid's Advice:

Although not all break-ups are as bad as the split between celebrity exes Khalifa and Roses, they are still never fun and can leave you feeling down. Thankfully there are some remedies to make this heartache a little easier to handle:

1. Create a playlist that makes you want to dance: Find your favorite upbeat, happy songs that you cannot help but nod your head to or shake your foot when they come on. Putting this playlist on shuffle when you're going about your daily routine like cleaning the house or going to work will help change your mood.

2. Listen to sad break-up songs, but with a friend: Studies have showed that although wallowing in self-pity won't speed up the recovery process, talking about the break-up does.

Jamming out to Taylor Swift classics while venting to a friend can lessen the initial sting of the split.

‘The Bachelor’ Season 19 Contestants Rehash Old Feuds During “The Women Tell All” Episode

By Emma L. Wells

The Bachelor season 19 “The Women Tell All” special brought all the women back together to reminisce about their time on the reality TV show and clear the air. They had many grievances with each other – and many more with The Bachelor himself, Chris Soules. Kelsey came under attack from all the contestants (yet again) for being conniving and fake. After taking the hot seat, Britt Nilsson immediately called out Carly for being a bad friend. Additionally, both Jade Roper and Kaitlyn Bristowe confronted Soules about why he rejected a relationship and love with them. He assured Roper that it was not because of her Playboy spread. Bristol, unfortunately, received a less clear answer. USAToday.com reported that Soules said, “I apologize...In that moment, I did the best I could and that’s all I know.” We can’t wait to see how The Bachelor season 19 will end next week!

When it comes to past relationships and love, how can you get over old disputes and move forward? The ladies from The Bachelor season 19 need to listen to this dating advice!

Cupid’s Advice:

Holding on to old grievances isn’t good for you. Why should you dwell on the past when you can move on and find happiness again? This dating advice applies to friendships as well as relationships and love:

1. Reach an understanding: Kaitlyn made the right choice to confront Soules about her hurt feelings. It’s hard to move on when you don't understand what really happened. The best way to do so is to have an open conversation – preferably not on reality TV! – with the person without being accusatory. Let them explain their actions in their own words. You might not get a satisfying answer, but it will help you to talk it through.

2. Look inward: In most cases, while you may be hurt, you're probably not blameless. It's equally important to understand what you did wrong and could have done better. Ask your ex about your behavior or just put yourself in their shoes and examine the situation. Either action will help you ensure that the same mistakes aren't made again.

3. Forgive and forget: Just because you're at a place where you're ready to move on doesn't mean the other person is, so don't expect an apology or forgiveness. The best thing you can do is say your peace, move on, and hope that, someday soon, they will be able to do the same.
