

Lindsey Vonn is Close Friends with Tiger Woods' Ex Elin Nordegren

By Louisa Gonzales

Tiger Woods' current girlfriend Lindsey Vonn and ex-wife Elin Nordegren have formed an unlikely friendship. According to UsMagazine.com, sources say this friendship came about because Nordegren originally wanted to get to know the woman who would be spending numerous amounts of time in her children's lives. The model, 34, has two kids a daughter Sam, 6, and son Charlie, 5, with her famous golfer ex-husband, 38. The whole group recently went on a vacation together and sources say the two women in Woods' life get along quite well, respect one another and seem to have a lot in common. Vonn and the super star athlete first went public with their relationship back in March 2013, and she has reportedly said that they "relate really well to one another."

Will Arnett Files for Divorce from Amy Poehler 19 Months After Separation

By Sanetra Richards

Another one bites the dust! Will Arnett is ready to sign the papers (divorce ones, that is) and [legally] move on with his life. According UsMagazine.com, the 43-year-old The Millers actor has filed for divorce from his estranged wife, Amy Poehler, after 19 months of separation. The couple has two boys together, 5-year-old Archie and 3-year-old Abel, in which the Arrested Development star is asking for joint legal and physical custody, along with visitation rights.

How do you know when to give up on your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage takes tons of work and effort that should be forth without hesitation. You and your partner are struggling to keep the marriage alive and are losing hope. Well, sometimes it is best to let it go because there is nothing there anymore that is worth fighting for. Cupid has some signs to recognize when knowing whether to give up on your marriage:

1. Increase in arguments: There is constant bickering between the two of you and by the end of it, nothing has been resolved. You cannot even start a simple conversation without tension and anger eventually coming about. Asking for favors is completely out of the question because you are expecting backlash or complaints. These are a few examples that your marriage has fallen to the rocks and you should possibly consider separation. A marriage is made up of many key components to keep it going: understanding, communication, and giving. Being at each other's throats on a daily basis is not healthy and will not improve without those components.

2. No love in the air: So long to the romantic dates, gestures, and getaways! You kissed that goodbye once bickering became a daily ritual in your marriage. You are no longer looking at your significant other the same, with the eyes that see nothing but love. Instead, resentment fills them and you would rather not look at your partner at all. These are clear signs to be wary of and you should consider separation for the best.

3. Eyes begin to wander: You begin to notice your partner not the only one who can catch or keep your attention anymore. Thoughts and envisions of being somewhere or with someone else start to form. Do not ignore this or think it is minor. If you or your partner wishes to engage in other affairs, divorce should be considered.

Johnny Weir's Estranged Husband Blames 'Meddling' Mother-in-Law

By Sanetra Richards

If it is not one thing, it is definitely another for Johnny Weir and Victor Voronov. According to UsMagazine.com, there is no reconciling happening between the estranged couple: “The divorce is 100 percent still happening,” says Weir to Us, “Johnny’s meddling mother [Pamela] was definitely the source of the breakdown of our marriage.” A source close to the couple also added that the famed figure skater is indeed “heartbroken” from the separation and wants to “live his life” and continue forth. “Victor is doing okay,” the insider went onto say. “Victor and Johnny spoke two days ago. When this first started, Victor didn’t think it was really over. Victor was duped, and now he feels like an idiot.”

What do you do if your partner’s parent is interfering in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having your partner’s parent constantly making their way into your relationship is nothing short of a headache. Whether your significant other realizes it or not, this interference is just a set up for trouble and possible failure. Do not fret, Cupid has some tips to help if you are in this situation:

1. Talk with your partner: The first thing you want to do is let your love know you are uncomfortable with their parent being a part of your relationship. There is a possibility your partner will be a bit defensive because it is their parent, but as long as you express your genuine concern, their guard will ease down and they will begin to understand what you are saying. Maybe suggest they speak with their parent as well.

Related: Johnny Weir and Ex Victor Voronov Fight Over Family Dog

2. Inform the parent: Invite the interferer over or spend some one-on-one time with them. Start off with a soft conversation. Why is this? Well, if you jump right into telling them they need to quit butting into your relationship, they will without a doubt be offended. Once things are comfortable between the two of you, then it is acceptable to break the good/bad news. Of course they will pretend to be unaware of their actions, but thoroughly explain their behavior (with examples).

3. Issue boundaries: If there are no limits set up, the interference will only continue and worsen. Let your partner and their parent know that there are going to be some changes made between all of you. Your partner must stop telling his or her parent everything that happens between the two of you. Their parent must stop feeling entitled to know every detail and want to be involved all of the time.

By Sanetra Richards

Progress is being made! The Bachelor Juan Pablo Galavis posted an affectionate photo with girlfriend Nikki Ferrell earlier this week, where he made sure the word “love” was loud and clear in the caption. The 26-year-old pediatric nurse’s back is facing the camera, showing off a shirt that reads, “Pediatrics... our patients are cuter than your patients.” The caption said, “Mi Catira @nikki_ferrell LOVES her JOB and thats ONE of the things I LOVE about her... #NikkiTheNurse.” According to UsMagazine.com, the post is just a few days after it was reported that 32-year-old Galavis finally voiced his love to Ferrell. An insider told Us that the reality TV star

“has told her, ‘I love you,’” and that the two “Skype and text every day and are in constant contact.”

The Bachelor* Juan Pablo Galavis flaunts his celebrity love on social media. What are some ways to show your love for your partner in public?

Cupid's Advice:

Professing your love is just the first step to showing your partner affection. So, what's the next? Doing it publicly! It may be challenging, but with Cupid's love advice, you will be an affection expert in no time:

1. Be physical: Take a cue from Galavis and don't be afraid to show your significant other how much you love them. A simple kiss on the cheek or a hug will do. If you are walking or standing beside each other, hold their hand. Small gestures like these will not only let others know you are happily in love, but they'll also give reassurance to your partner.

Demi Moore and Bruce Willis Barely Interact at Rumer Willis' Performance

By Sanetra Richards

Keep the peace! And that is exactly what Demi Moore and Bruce Willis seemed to do. The ex-couple of 13 years remained cordial at their daughter's, Rumer Willis, musical performance at West Hollywood's DBA on Saturday, April 5th. According to UsMagazine.com, although the two both attended, they sat at different tables: "They stayed after to congratulate her and chat for a bit," the eyewitness also said, "Bruce and Demi did not interact with each other." One male and two female friends joined the 50-year-old actress for the event, whilst the 59-year-old actor was accompanied by his pregnant wife Emma Heming-Willis.

What are some ways to keep things civil with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Every breakup comes with a list of things to consider after the split. One of them is occasionally seeing each other (even if not intentionally) after the split. Nevertheless, there are a few ways to maintain your composure and be cordial with your ex. Cupid has some tips:

1. Inhale, exhale: The first time you may see your ex will possibly catch you completely off guard (although you probably had a heads up). Remain poised and content. You will make it through the awkward moment.

Actor Andrew Dice Clay Files for Divorce

By Louisa Gonzales

Andrew Dice Clay and his wife, Valerie Silverstein have decided to end their marriage after four years. According to People, the legally named Andrew Silverstein, actor filed for divorce in Los Angeles Superior Court and have been separated since March 18. Dice Clay, reportedly said in a statement the divorce not only ended amicably, but was also the best thing for their relationship. He went on to say the term “marriage” was only adding unnecessary pressure to their relationship and now the two have more “love” and “respect” for each other than ever before, they even celebrated their divorce at the restaurant Craig’s in West Hollywood.

How do you keep unneeded pressure out of your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

There’s no question all relationships need work, but they should also be fun and not that hard. When you want to make someone happy, especially your partner it can be easy to get lost in unnecessary drama or let yourself freak out about something more than what you should. Cupid has some advice on how to keep unneeded pressure out of your relationship:

1. Don’t focus too much on trying to please them: It’s true every couple has to each put in time and energy to make a relationship work, but that doesn’t mean you have to devote all your time and energy to them. Focus less on trying to please them, because it will just force situations and that can make your significant other feel uncomfortable or it can come off as desperate. Just relax and focus on being yourself around them, after all they already fell for the ‘real’ you.

2. Don’t Hold onto resentment: If you’re mad or have issues don’t keep them bottled up inside, because if you do it will just continue to build and build until you explode. Talk out your problems right away so you can avoid having a big fight. If you’re not fine don’t say you are, the only way for your honey to help you out or for you to work out your problems is by letting them know you have an issue.

3. Don't put them on a pedestal: It can be hard to live up to people's expectations enough as it is, and you especially don't need it from your lover. We shouldn't have to change to please our sweethearts, nor should you think your other half is perfect or can do no wrong because the truth is no one is. Don't put too much pressure on the person you are with, it will only make things harder for the both of you.

What are some ways to grow a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

After a break up it can be hard sometimes to put yourself back out there, especially if your last relationship ended badly. Part of life is accepting sometimes you have to move on, life always keeps moving forward. So, why not be open to finding someone new and trying your hand at love again? Cupid has some advice on some ways to grow a new relationship:

1. Be open to love: The only way to be able to get back in the game, is to let yourself be open to playing and in this case in the game of love. Don't let past failed relationships weigh you down, because if you don't let them go you won't be able to move on. Remember, the end of one thing is the start of something new and the same can be said for love.

Spelling, 40, has been married to her husband for seven years and they have four children together.

What are some ways to confront issues in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Every relationship has problems, its normal. When you and your partner are having issues in your relationship it is better to face them than ignore them, but what's the best way to go about it? Cupid has some advice on ways to confront issues in your relationship.

1. Practice Beforehand: Before you confront your significant with your relationship woes, take the time to prepare what you are going to say, open with, end with, etc. Practicing on what you're going to say can help calm your nerves and help you focus on what exactly you want to discuss. Make sure you remember the purpose of your confrontation and that you're trying to resolve your issues not create new ones.

Related: Tori Spelling Slams Rumors That She Is Divorcing Dean McDermott

2. Make private time to talk: Take the time to sit down in private and discuss all the relationship problems you may be having with your lovebird. The issues you are having with your partner won't resolve themselves, which is why you both have to schedule a time to talk with each other. Also, be willing to listen to your lovers' side and then sit and think on it before making any rash decisions.

Related: Nikki Reed and Paul McDonald Split After 2 Years of Marriage

3. Make a list or write out your thoughts: Sometimes talking isn't enough, so why not write a letter of your feelings to your sweetheart. If that is not something you're good at you can still write out a list of the issues in your relationship to help prepare you for your 'talk'. Writing is a good form of expression and writing could help you face your issues.

Nikki Reed and Paul McDonald Split After 2 Years of Marriage

By Louisa Gonzales

It's official. Nikki Reed and Paul McDonald have decided to call it quits. According to UsMagazine.com a rep confirmed the ex-couple are over, but even though they have decided to go their separate ways, their marriage is ending on good terms. Reed, 25. And McDonald, 29 will continue to share a love of music and their collaborative debut album, "I'm Not Falling" releasing in 2014, is still in the works. The duo first met in March 2011 at the premiere of Little Red Riding Hood in L.A., while McDonald was garnering attention as a contestant on Season 10 of American Idol and after seven months of dating they walked down the aisle in a private ceremony in Malibu, California back in October 2011.

How do you know when to call it quits on your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

In life not everything works out and the same goes for relationships. A break-up is hard no matter what the circumstance, but when a relationship is not working out sometimes there is no other choice but to end it. Cupid has some advice on how to decide if it's time to call it quits on your marriage.

1. You're no longer happy: One of the major signs your marriage is not working out is if you are no longer smiling. Happiness is key to every good, healthy and long-lasting relationship. If you and your partner are no longer making each other happy it may be time to move on.

2. You're fighting all the time: Every couple have arguments and fights every once in a while and studies show it can sometime be healthy for a relationship, but if you are fighting all the time that isn't a good sign. If you find yourselves fighting and arguing over even the smallest things it could be because you are not the same people you use to be. Too much of anything isn't good and the same goes with fighting.

3. Stop spending time together: If you find that you're no longer spending that much time together and are okay with it, that's be a big clue something is wrong. You and your honey should want to spend time in each other's company or at least put in the effort to. If you find yourselves distancing yourselves from each other it could be because you're both going on different paths.

Gwyneth Paltrow and Chris Martin Separate

By Sanetra Richards

Another one bites the dust! Gwyneth Paltrow and husband Chris Martin have decided to part marital ways after 10 years. The couple announced the split earlier this week. According to People, Paltrow (PEOPLE's 2013 Most Beautiful Woman) and Martin stated they were "working hard for well over a year" – both as a couple and individually – "to make their relationship work."

The pair released the following statement on the GOOP website under the heading "Conscious Uncoupling": "It is with hearts full of sadness that we have decided to separate.” The parents of a 9½-year-old daughter Apple and a 7½-year-old son Moses went onto say, “We have come to the conclusion that, while we love each other very much, we will remain separate.”

Although the marriage is ending, co-parenting is not out of the question. “We are, however, and always will be a family, and in many ways, we are closer than we have ever been. We have always conducted our relationship privately, and we hope that as we consciously uncouple and co-parent, we will be able to continue in the same manner.”

How do you know when it's time to go your separate ways?

Cupid's Advice:

Every relationship is not salvageable, and it's best to know when you should part ways before it's too late. Here are some things Cupid thinks will help you come to the realization:

Related Link: Gwyneth Paltrow Speaks Out About Miscarriage

1. Bickering daily: Is the time you spend together consumed by arguments? You and your partner cannot seem to agree on anything and compromise just does not exist. Pay attention to the disputes revolving around some of the smallest issues and if there is constant finger pointing. Yes, proper communication may repair the relationship, but it is not a guarantee.

2. Blurred vision: Your significant other starts off as a good time, but eventually, you realize that you do not see them in your future. There is no sight of making a home, having a family, etc. You begin to nitpick and dislike the little things about them. Maybe you thought their style of mismatching outfits was cute and artistic at first, but now, it's just plain tacky.

Kate Hudson and Matthew Bellamy Have 'Bumps in the Road Like Anyone Else'

By Louisa Gonzales

Kate Hudson may be happily engaged to her fiancé Matthew Bellamy, but that doesn't mean the couple doesn't face relationship woes from time to time. According to People, they're working through a rough patch. The lovers face "bumps in the road" just like any other couple, but the source says it's not as big of a deal as fans seem to think. With their busy careers, they just have to put in extra work to make time for each other. The lovebirds got engaged back in 2011 and have a two-year-old son but have shown no signs of rushing to the altar.

What are some ways to strengthen your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Nothing good ever comes easy, and if you really want something, you have to work for it. These ideas hold true for couples too! Here is some advice on ways to strengthen your relationship.

1. Dedication: Every relationship requires both you and your partner to put in equal time and energy. If both parties don't put in the same amount of effort, it will make it seem like one is pulling more weight than the other, and the relationship can quickly fall apart.

2. Communication: You know what they say: Communication is key. You should feel comfortable enough to share your deepest thoughts and fears with your significant other. It's also vital to talk about any problems or issues. Be open with each other, and you'll quickly notice improvements in your partnership.

By Louisa Gonzales

Johnny Weir and soon-to-be ex-husband Victor Voronov recently settled their custody battle over their family dog. According to TMZ, during their divorce proceedings, Voronov filed papers to request that their dog TÃ«ma be returned to him. The Olympic figure skater believed that the dog rightfully belongs with him because he was allegedly a “make-up gift.” He says he was also the one who trained and took care of the dog. For now, they have agreed to joint custody. Additionally, Voronov is seeking financial support from Weir because, according to his attorney, he gave up everything to be with him, including his career.

How do you compromise during a breakup when you’re upset?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes, without warning, relationships fizzle out, and no matter what, it’s never easy. Cupid has some advice on how you can make compromises during a breakup, even when you’re upset.

Related Link: Figure Skater Johnny Weir Splits from Husband Victor Voronov

1. Be reasonable: Keep in mind that you’re both going through the split, so you’re both experiencing a rough and difficult time. Clear your head and try to keep calm before you start dividing up your shared assets. It’s best to go into a difficult situation with a sensible mind because it will make things run more smoothly and help make the breakup easier.

2. Ask yourself what’s really best for you: As you make major decisions, ask yourself what you really want. If you’re only doing certain things because you want to hurt your ex, know that it’ll only make you feel better temporarily. In the long run, remember what is truly important to you. Do you want to move on and find happiness with someone new or continue arguing over the past?

By Sanetra Richards

The Sochi Olympian Jonny Weir and lawyer husband Victor

Voronov are splitting after two+ years of marriage. According to UsMagazine.com, the fashionable figure skater announced the separation on March 19 through Twitter saying, “It is with great sadness that I announce that my husband and I are no longer together,” he tweeted. “My heart hurts, and I wish him well.” In a February 2014 interview with Access Hollywood, Weir talked about his husband and their married life: “My husband was actually in the closet until about a month before we were married. He comes from a very strict and judgmental world.” Weir went on to say, “Being married is an adjustment, and I’m such an OCD, solitary, confined person that it was very hard to open my life and my home and in some ways my closet to somebody else,” he continued. “We both are constantly fighting to wear the pants in the relationship.”

How do you know when to put an end to your marriage?

Cupid’s Advice:

Every marriage is not salvageable, and sometimes you have to find the guts to tell your spouse “it is over.” Nevertheless, whether you ignore it or give it some thought, there will always be a warning before destruction. So, how will you know your marriage is about to fall off of the cliff? Cupid has the answer:

1. More distance than ever: This can range from sleeping in separate bedrooms to not doing mutual activities. If this is occurring in your marriage, be cautious. You have probably been noticing all of your time is consumed by work and all of his/her is spent with friends – chances are you are trying to stay away from your spouse as much as possible. This sign is as clear as daylight, the marriage is deteriorating.

Related: Katy Perry And John Mayer Call It Quits

2. Nonstop bickering: Every conversation is beginning to end with an argument and you all cannot agree on the simplest things, like what to eat for dinner or who is taking the kids to soccer practice. All of this could very well be stemming from other issues that have not been discussed. If you cannot compromise on wants and needs (after multiple attempts) without being on the verge of ripping each other's heads off, it may be time to call it quits.

3. One-sided effort: You have realized there is no such thing as give and take in your marriage and that your spouse is more of a take and take kind of person – do not ignore this. As a team, work should be put in on both ends. Think about that the next time you feel like you are the only one in the marriage.

Nikki Ferrell's Ex Says She 'Normally Wouldn't Take That' from a Guy

By Sanetra Richards

Playing it cool seems to be what Nikki Ferrell is doing. The Bachelor season 18 winner is not letting the outside opinions bother her relationship with Juan Pablo Galavis. According to UsMagazine.com, the 26-year-old's ex, Ryan Dill, spoke of her unusual actions in a recent issue: "Knowing her like I do, I'm surprised Nikki acted like everything was fine during After the Final Rose." Dill went onto refer to the post-finale show when Ferrell informed host Chris Harrison that Galavis has not professed his love, saying, "She normally wouldn't take that s-t from a guy. The Nikki I know would have slapped him and walked out."

What are some ways to know you're being yourself in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Your relationship is going well; everything is all hugs and kisses . . . except there is one problem. You are questioning whether you are still the same person you once were. Cupid is here to give you a few tips on how to maintain yourself in a relationship:

1. Doing what you love: Whether this is a hobby like reading or painting, if you are doing it because you thoroughly enjoy it, a sense of you still remains. The chances of you and your partner having all of the exact same interests are slim to none. So, why not do something that is just for you? A relationship is about union, not about consumption.

Jason Aldean Is Dating Mistress Brittany Kerr Post-

Divorce

By Louisa Gonzales

Jason Aldean is dating whom? That would be Brittany Kerr, the woman he cheated on his wife, Jessica Ussery, with back in September 2012. UsMagazine.com confirmed that the pair has been dating since Aldean filed for divorce from his wife back in April 2013. It was in 2012 that the country singer got caught with the American Idol alum, to which the music artist admitted and publicly apologized shortly after via a Facebook post. Aldean was with his wife Ussery for almost 12 years and the ex-couple have two children together. After the scandal, the ex-lovers tried to work things out, but eventually parted ways. Aldean and his new lover Kerr were spotted on Friday, March 14, at Aldean's performance at Amphitheater at The Wharf in Orange Beach, Alabama.

What are some ways to avoid drama in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how good your relationship is, it won't be easy all the time. It's okay for couples to fight sometimes, but if you're doing it all the time it's not healthy for your relationship. Which is why you have to find ways to avoid pointless arguments or fights, but how do you do that? Cupid has some advice on ways to avoid drama in your relationship:

1. Agree to disagree: Every one is their own person and has their own preferences, goals and wants. The truth is no couple will agree on everything, but just because you don't it doesn't mean you should start a fight about it. In a relationship you have to learn how to make compromises and sacrifices, especially if you want to avoid an argument.

2. Communicate: To avoid any misunderstanding you need to talk to each other. A lot of arguments or fights happen because people don't let someone know what's going on. With your partner don't just assume some they will understand or won't take it as a big deal, without talking to them first. A relationship is between two people, it's a partnership you have to keep that in mind when making decisions.

3. Accept all of them: Loving someone is about accepting and appreciating all of them, the good and the bad. Over stressing about all the things that bug you or get on your nerves about your significant other, will just increase the chances of adding unnecessary drama to your relationship. Focus on all the good and positive things about your lover.

Cupid's Advice:

Outsiders aren't always your best friends. They will nitpick and find every single way to taint the connection between you and your partner. Consider this relationship advice from Cupid:

1. Maintain a sense of mystery: Nowadays, many couples share their most intimate moments to complete strangers without even realizing it. From happy times to the occasional arguments, Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram make it easy to reveal all. Instead, keep your feelings to yourself and let others think what they want about your relationship and love.

2. Focus on the positives: You may feel the urge to air your dirty laundry to family and friends, but be careful. Yes, it can be pretty tempting to vent about something your partner did or didn't do, but if you continuously tell your loved ones the negatives, they'll soon forget the positives. Remember to highlight the good times as well as the bad times.

Justin Bieber Dedicates Song to 'My Baby' Selena Gomez at SXSW Show

By Louisa Gonzales

Could former lovebirds Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez have reunited? That's the question on everyone's mind after Bieber's surprise performance at Scooter Braun Projects Sunday Funday Showcase during 2014 SXSW in Texas on Sunday, March 9, with Gomez in attendance. According to UsMagazine.com the 20-year-old singer dedicated one of his songs just for Gomez on stage on Banger's Sausage House and Beer Garden. Fans captured Bieber telling the crowd his next song, 2012 hit, "As Long As You Love Me” was for his “baby”. The on-again, off-again couple, according to insiders didn’t stop at showing their affection during the concert, afterwards they hung out together in the beer hall, being very friendly and affectionate with each other.

What are some ways to show you love your partner publicly?

Cupid’s Advice:

Everyone shows affection in a different way. Couples who express their love toward their partner have stronger relationships. It can be hard to show or share your feeling, especially in front of other people, but it is important to give your lover the reassurance that you are into them and care about them. Cupid has some advice on ways to show you love your partner publicly:

1. Show physical affection in public: The number one way to show your love is through physical affection. Next time you see your significant other give them a big hug or a quick kiss on the cheek or lips even when they’re with their family or friends: Hold their hand walking down the street or wrap your arms around their waist. It doesn’t matter what you do just doing little physical gestures now and then is nice way to show you are with them and aren’t ashamed of being with them. Both parties in a relationship need that reassurance from their lover and indulging in PDA from time to time can’t hurt you.

2. Perform a grand gesture in public: There are many cool ways to publicly show you love someone. Be creative or do something you haven’t done before. Sing a song for them at Karaoke or dedicate a song for them next time you go out to a club or restaurant. Go to a sports game and make arrangement to be on the kiss cam, sky write, the possibilities are endless. Being able to openly show your love shows them you are happy and comfortable with your relationship.

3. Make it online official: These days there are many social media's. One way to tell the world that you are off the market or love someone is by making it online official. Post something about your love or mentioning them on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram or whatever else you may have, it doesn't matter. It's nice for couple's to share their love with family and friends, you don't have to share all the intimate details about your relationship, a simple compliment toward your honey or a couply picture is enough to show your sweetheart you appreciate them.

How do you know whether to get back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes when a relationship ends, the connection doesn't go away. Deciding whether you should get back together with someone is hard, especially if you don't know what the best choice to make is. Cupid has some advice on how to know if you should get back together with your ex:

1. You've worked past issues out: The first major thing you need to think about before even considering on rekindling the flames with an ex is if the two of you have talked and worked on past relationship mistakes. It's not good to bury issues, because they will come back to haunt you. There was probably a reason you broke up in the first place. Unless you've worked out the problems or have come to a mutual understanding, you might just end up breaking up again for the same reasons.

2. The attraction is still there: If you still get butterflies in your stomach every time you see or speak with them, chances are you're not over them. If you feel like you will regret not giving your ex lover another chance, especially if you still have the hots for them, take the plunge and get back together. Make sure you are still attracted to them emotionally and physically before dating again however, because a solid relationship foundation needs both.

3. You're not ready to let them go: If you or your ex can't move on chances are you're both not over each other. After all, no one knows what's in your heart better than you, and if you feel like the best thing for you and your ex to do is to be sweethearts again, than go for it. Giving your relationship another go might give you the closure you both need, or could be the beginning to a long-lasting union.

Richie Sambora Says Ex-Wife Heather Locklear Is 'Still

Hot ’

By Louisa Gonzales

Richie Sambora proves just because you're no longer with former partner, doesn't mean you stop being attracted to them. According to People, Sambora raved about his ex-wife Heather Locklear, while he attended friend, Ray Parker Jr's, ceremony for his star on the Walk of Fame on Thursday in Hollywood. The rocker reportedly couldn't stop complimenting her, and even said, "...she looks better than ever." The ex-couple divorced back in 2007, but Locklear, 52 and Sambora are still close friends. Even though it took years for them to get to a good place, the Bon Jovi guitarist said focusing their efforts on their 16-year-old daughter Ava, helped them to let go and move on to where they are now.

What are some ways to remain civil with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is never easy. Actually, relationships are a hard period. After a breakup, the best thing to do is to let go and move on, but sometimes your ex will remain a part of your life. Cupid has advice on some ways to remain cordial with an ex:

1. Respect their boundaries: Once you are no longer with your ex-beau, things will change between the two of you. Some things that were okay when you were in relationship won't be okay anymore. If you want to keep the peace between the both of you, you'll need to give them some space and don't cross any lines you shouldn't.

2. Don't judge his or her new partner choices: Eventually, your ex will most likely move on with someone new. It's not easy to see your ex with someone, but that doesn't give you the right to judge his or her new choice of significant other. If you want to remain cordial with them, you'll have to respect their choices and keep any opinions you have about them to yourself, at least during the beginning.

How do you explain a breakup to your child(ren)?

Cupid's Advice:

A breakup can be tougher on a child than it is for the adults involved. Don't just assume your child(ren) understand your situation. When you decide you and your partner are no longer a perfect match, you need to let the rest of your family know what's going on. Cupid is here to help:

1. Be patient: After you break the news to your child(ren), you need to make sure they know it's OK to express how they feel to you. Be patient with them. Ask them to share any questions or comments with you. Listen to what they have to say. Try to give them some positive responses and reassure them the breakup was for the best.

Katy Perry And John Mayer Call It Quits

By Sanetra Richards

Just when we thought things were going well for the two, Katy Perry and John Mayer have landed in Splitsville. Despite ending their on-again-off-again relationship, the two shared a mutually agreed to part ways and are remaining close friends. According to UsMagazine.com, a source previously said Perry's tour schedule played a part in the breakup and the former couple "made the mature decision that it was the right time."

How do you know when it's time to call it quits on your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

The end of a relationship is a bittersweet feeling, to say the least. You go back and forth with yourself wondering if the right decision will be/was made (most of the time it was). The signs are always there and it is up to you to pay close attention. Cupid has some advice for you to see the signs:

1. Tones and attitudes: Do not ignore the tension in the room that is thick enough you could cut it with a knife. If you begin to notice more aggression between you and your partner, address it. If the problem repeatedly continues, consider calling it quits.

3. Disappearing emotions: There should always be some sort of heartfelt emotion involved in your relationship. A glance at your love gives you butterflies, or maybe even you see stars – whatever the feeling, it should remain. Let your significant other know of the issues you are having. If the butterflies are stuck as caterpillars or the stars are not glowing, consider calling it quits.

What are some things to consider before dating a coworker?

Cupid's Advice:

There are both positive and negatives to dating a coworker. Getting into a relationship with someone you work with can be tricky, but sometimes you can't help who you have a love connection with and you can only fight it for so long. Cupid shares some advice on things to consider before you start-up something romantic with a coworker:

1. Be ready for gossip: Once you get involved with someone you work with, be prepared to have people talk about it, especially if you're an actor like Josh Brolin. There is going to be gossip and rumors surrounding the two of you and some of it may or not be true, so you have to decide if this is something you're okay with. If you don't like people knowing about your personal life dating a coworker might be tricky. Even if you try to keep it a secret there is no guarantee it won't get out and eventually spread around the workplace.

2. You will see them a lot: The next thing you will have to consider is how will you handle seeing this person daily for a lot of hours at a time. You will potentially be spending a lot of time with them not just at the work place, but outside as well. Think about how being in relationship with a fellow employee will affect your job and work ethics. Will getting involved with a coworker cause any distractions or get in the way of you achieving your goals? If you're both professionals and are able to handle juggling both your personal and work lives separately and together you should be fine.

3. Are they worth the risk: One of the first things you will have to look into before dating a coworker are the work rules, policies or restrictions. Whether it is or isn't allowed you have to ask yourself if you are willing to risk your job to date the person. Another important thing to think about is if things go sour between the two of you are you able to handle still working with them? If you really want to be with the person make sure you both really want to be in a relationship and are willing to potentially sacrifice your jobs.

How do you remain civil with an ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Maintaining a positive relationship with an ex can be hard. Sometimes, you have to remain friends for the sake of children, or any other loved ones who may be involved. Cupid is here to help:

1. Communicate when necessary: You and your ex don’t need to communicate with each other everyday. You shouldn’t know what’s going on in their love life unless they disclose that information to you themselves. If you have children together, let meeting together be strictly about your family.

How do you break the news of a separation to a child?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you and your partner have come to an agreement in regards to divorce, the next course of action would be to tell the child/children the two of you have together. This step in the process of your breakup might be the toughest to go through, especially if your child may be too young to understand. Cupid has some tips:

1. Private setting: When you decide to break the tough news to your child/children, make sure to discuss it in a place where he/she will feel the most comfortable. The worst decision you could make is to tell your child about you and your partner’s split in a public environment.

2. Allow them to ask questions: Once you get the “hard” part out of the way, allow your loved one to ask as many questions as necessary. Your child/children will need some time to process the thought of not having both parents under the same roof. Don’t get frustrated. Instead, practice your patience and try your best to explain the situation.
