How can you tell if your partner is keeping secrets from you?

Cupid's Advice:

Paranoia is not the most welcome approach to uncovering your partner's secrets. Here are a few more rational ways to find the truth:

1. Notice his behavior: Pay attention to your partner's behavior. If he ever appears uncharacteristically jumpy, anxious or nervous, it may be because he's keeping something from you.

2. Observe his friends: If your partner has shared his secrets with his friends, you will most likely be able to learn something from them. No matter the strength of the friendship, your partner's friends will not keep his secrets as closely guarded as he will.

3. Ask him: If you've tried to covertly uncover secrets and nothing has come of it, then he's probably not keeping anything from you. However, if you still feel worried, politely ask your partner. He will not be expecting such a calm approach, and will most likely give you the truth.

When your ex-partner won't let your relationship go, the results can be painful. Here are a few ways to deal with your hurting ex:

1. Resolve past issues: If your partner is hurt and angry after your relationship ended, then there are probably some unresolved issues between the two of you. Take some time to negotiate and settle these issues.

2. Ignore him: It may be that your ex is simply reacting childishly to petty problems. If this is the case, then ignore him. His antics are only a plea for attention.

Charlie Sheen's Goddess Dumps Him

Charlie Sheen no longer has two goddesses on his arm, reports RadarOnline. At his “My Violent Torpedo of Truth” tour stop in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Sheen revealed that one of his ‘goddesses,’ Bree Olson, has left the household. Sheen said that Olson sent her goodbyes via text message, and though hurt, he wished her well.

Is too much texting in a relationship impersonal?

Cupid’s Advice:

Texting has become one of the most popular forms of communication. However, is it okay to text in a relationship? Here are a few things to consider:

1. Your texts: Sending heartfelt messages like, “I hope you have a great day,” or “Good luck!” is perfectly acceptable. Messages like “c u l8r” and “kk” can put a strain on your relationship. Texting is useful because it’s quick and efficient, but be sure to spend a little more time typing your sincere messages.

2. Your reasons for texting: Having a quick conversation with your partner via text messaging is fine. However, if texting has come to replace more serious phone calls or face-to-face bonding time with your partner, then you should be wary.

3. Your relationship's strength: If you and your partner text constantly, and your relationship doesn't suffer because of it, then all the more power to you. Find a balance that works for your relationship.

Halle Berry Speaks Out About Custody Battle with Gabriel Aubry

The rumored custody battle between Halle Berry and Gabriel Aubry might be coming to a close, reports People. The duo, who split last April, have been recently engaging the court's help to solve their issues revolving around their daughter, Nahla, 3. "When there's a child involved, it's a relief when you can resolve things in a good way," says Berry, who also mentioned that the court proceedings have gone well. "Our issues were never about fighting for her. We both know a child needs both her parents. But what I want to say about it is sometimes, as a couple, you reach an impasse. We needed a court and a judge to help us work out some of the delicate issues, and I'm so happy we've arrived at that place – because for her sake, this is the best way. We both love her more than life."

What things should you consider when deciding on custody issues after a divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorces are tough enough without the added turmoil revolving around kids from the relationship. Cupid has some things to consider about custody after a split:

1. What the child wants: Perhaps the most important thing to think about in the midst of a separation is how the child is thinking and feeling. Before fighting over the best interests of the child, make sure to listen to what your children have to say about the situation. They might shed some much-needed light.

2. The child's best interests: Try to think about who is best equipped to have a child in his or her life post-split. If you're both completely willing and able, consider joint custody and split the time with your child down the middle. If one of you has a demanding career, perhaps full custody should go to the parent with a less time-consuming job ... with visiting rights for the other of course.

3. What's best for you: Although it's true that your child's interests should most likely come first, don't ignore what would be best for you in your situation. If raising a child will prove difficult for you, perhaps you should consider giving up custody. If you can't imagine your life without your child, voice that opinion, too.

Please for our families' sake stop the hate now and let us live our lives."

What changes do you have to make to put jealousy in the past?

Cupid's Advice:

There comes a time in all of our lives where we have to move on and put certain things behind us. Cupid has some advice on changes to make in your life to put the green-eyed monster in the past:

1. Live in the moment: As hard as it is to forgive and forget, the only way for you to move along with your life is to live for today, and let go of things in the past.

2. Focus on the good: Jealousy comes from our constant need to look at what others in our lives have that we don't. Start focusing on what you do have, and you'll begin to see that there's more to be thankful for than you originally thought.

3. Avoid questions: If you know that you have a tendency to be an envious person, try not to ask about past relationships or things that other people have that may trigger your jealousy.

Charlie Sheen Seeks Temporary Custody While Brooke Mueller Goes to Rehab

Charlie Sheen may just be “winning” temporary custody of his two boys while Brooke Mueller enters rehab. RadarOnline reports that Sheen’s soon-to-be ex-wife checked in to a facility over the weekend following a crack-cocaine bender, where she sought out drug-free urine as well as refusing to take a court-ordered drug test. “Charlie Sheen has had enough with her excuses, period,” said a source in Sheen’s posse.

“Brooke refused to take a random drug test. Charlie’s attorney will use that as evidence that the boys are better off with him than with Brooke.” Mueller’s attorney is expected to argue that the boys should be with their grandmother, a socialite in Palm Beach. Her lawyer added the boys haven’t seen the former star of Two and a Half Men, since he left for his Tornado of Truth tour.

How do you decide if you should give up custody of your kids?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s tough to know when to let go of your children to settle personal matters. Cupid has a few checkpoints to peruse when deciding who gets custody after a separation or divorce:

1. Say “no” to drugs: It’s safe to say that kids should be avoiding illicit things while they’re young, so make sure there isn’t anything morally unfit in your house before welcoming your offspring into it.

2. A foot on the career path: Perhaps after your split you’d like to focus your life on your career, and having children around would only make things more stressful. Consider giving up custody to a more committed parent.

3. A necessary and proper home: The biggest part of your self-test is whether you can provide a proper home and lifestyle for your children to grow. Your child’s welfare needs to be the top priority.

What do you think are other factors necessary to consider when it comes to custody? Comment below.

How do you know when your relationship is over for good?

Cupid's Advice:

The more in love we are, the more we try not to see the flaws in our relationships. But how do you know when it's really time to call it quits? Cupid has some guidelines:

1. Nothing to talk about: If you find yourself scrounging for good conversation with your boyfriend/girlfriend, there may just be nothing left there for the two of you to discuss.

2. Butterflies: Of course every couple has their good and bad days, but if you don't feel in love at least every once in a while, that's a bad sign. If that happy/excited feeling is no longer there, it may be time to reevaluate your relationship.

3. Fighting: It's human nature to disagree with people at times, but if the two of you not getting along is happening more often than not, it may be time to let it go.

Michael Douglas' Ex Is Still Going After His Money

Michael Douglas has a lot to be happy about these days, what with beating cancer and enjoying time with his beautiful wife Catherine Zeta-Jones. It seems the only drama plaguing the actor these days is his ex-wife, Diandra, according to E! Online. It seems that she is still going after his money, which in this case means half of his profits from Wall Street: Money Never Sleeps. How is she justifying her case, you ask?

Well, apparently Douglas became Gordon Gekko while they were still married, which entitles her to part of the earnings. What won't Diandra do for money?

How do you tell if your partner is only after your money?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the worst things is to fall in love with someone and then realize they're only with you for your bank account.

Cupid's got some advice on how to tell before it's too late:

1. You pay every time: One of the easiest ways to tell if your partner is overly interested in your funds is to pay attention to his or her offers to pay. Do you pay for everything or does your partner share in the expenses?

2. Expensive suggestions: If your partner never seems content just hanging out and always wants to do extravagant things on your dime, that's probably a bad sign. Pay attention to your activities as a couple.

3. Quality time alone: If your mate seems reluctant to hang out with you one-on-one and just doesn't seem too "into" quality time together, it may mean that he or she is interested in something besides your personality ... perhaps your money.

Cupid's Advice:

In today's age, people are not only obsessed with their careers, but also with finding love. With busy schedules taking over lives, it can be difficult to make a relationship work. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make time: Being a workaholic can ruin a relationship, not to mention your life in general. Spare some time out of your busy schedule every day to be with your significant other, no matter what it takes.

2. Phone calls: Spending quality time might not be an option for many, so make phone calls or text each day during your breaks. This will let them know that although you're busy, you're thinking about them.

Should you be friends with your ex-partner's ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be awkward meeting your ex's ex because you know you've both been in the same place. Cupid has some tips on whether to befriend your ex-partner's ex:

- 1. When it's complicated: It depends on both of your relationships with the ex. If either of you had a nasty breakup, or heard bad things about the other, it may be difficult to strike up a friendship.
- 2. When there are still feelings: If one or both of you still have feelings for the ex-flame, it's better not to get close because you'll probably end up resenting each other if one of you reunites with the ex.

3. When you're over it: Sometimes, when a relationship is in the past, it stays there. If you feel like you've gotten over your ex, then why not make a new friend, even if it is your ex-partner's ex?

What are the benefits of meeting your partner online?

Cupid's Advice:

Of course meeting someone face-to-face has its own perks, but there are certain benefits to meeting your partner online as well. Cupid has a few:

1. Looks aren't as much of a factor: Sometimes people let physical attraction get in the way of getting to know someone personally. Although you may see a photo here and there, by meeting online you get to know the person before judging his or her appearance.

2. It's easier to be honest: When you're having a conversation with someone in person, it can be difficult to say what you really mean. If your potential partner asks a difficult question, your first inclination may be to lie. When you're typing out your answers, it's simply easier to be 100% truthful.

3. You can go slow: In person, it can be easy to get caught up in the moment. If you meet online, you can take things as slowly as you need to without feeling as pressured to move forward.

2. Over the line: Does your partner's ex continuously step over the line? If the ex in question continues to make themselves known in an unwanted situation, speak up and tell him or her how you feel.

3. You're naïve: If your partner's ex is still around because your partner is keeping them around, perhaps you should look into this. Is your partner being 100% honest with you about letting his ex down slowly and carefully? A breakup takes one conversation, not three weeks.

If you and your mate are headed toward a breakup, it's not too late to try to save the relationship. Cupid has some ideas on how to work on a troubled relationship:

- 1. Make the grand gesture: When you or your partner just can't get what you want from the other person, it's time to make the grand gesture. For example, if your mate thinks you're afraid of commitment, maybe it's time to ask him to move in.
- 2. Communicate: Lack of communication is one of the most common reasons for a breakup. Make sure you are both comfortable sharing your thoughts and feelings with each other.
- 3. Do little things: Sure, the big things are important, but a little goes a long way. Try doing small things like cooking dinner or buying your mate flowers. They'll appreciate it more than you know.

Bradley Cooper and Renee Zellweger Split

She'll be writing about this one in her diary. Reports from RadarOnline say that Bridget Jones star Renee Zellweger and Bradley Cooper, the star of The Hangover and Limitless, have broken up after two years together. Neither have commented on the split, but sources have told UsMagazine.com that things ended following the release of photos which depict Cooper with another woman. "I just don't want to talk about that," Cooper told Howard Stern while on the shock jock's radio show. Star Magazine revealed Cooper was sneaking around with Hollywood girls such as Sandra Bullock and Jessica Biel.

What are signs that you should move on from a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No relationship is limitless. Cupid has some signals that things have reached their breaking points:

1. No more sparks: If you can't remember why you initially became attracted to your lover, then chances are it's time to end things.

2. Feelings for someone else: An old rule of dating goes, "If you have time to cheat, you have time to break up." There's no reason to cheat when all it takes is a talk with your partner, explaining to them that you have feelings for someone else.

3. 'Happiness is a warm gun': Although not every minute of dating is fun, if you and your significant other are not generally happy, then it may be time to take a break or say goodbye for good.

Bradley Cooper Explains Brief Marriage to Jennifer Esposito

Hangover 2 hottie Bradley Cooper came clean last week about his four month marriage to Jennifer Esposito during a Howard Stern interview, reports UsMagazine.com. Cooper, who has been linked most recently with Renee Zellweger, tied the knot with Esposito back in December 2006 and, according to Cooper, the two decided amicably to divorce in March of 2007. Cooper told Stern, "The good thing is, we both realized it...Sometimes you just realize it."

Why does a marriage sometimes not work out the first time?

Cupid's Advice:

Unlike getting a license to drive or taking the SATs to get into college, getting married does not require a well thought out plan of action:

1. You were young: If your first marriage followed a quick engagement and an even quicker courtship, you may have never gotten the chance to think things through rationally.

2. You didn't understand: In today's society with TV shows rushing everyone to the alter and Las Vegas offering one-stop shops for weddings, the actuality and sanctity of marriage can be easily forgotten.

3. You didn't know yourself: Before a relationship with someone else will work, you need to be in a good relationship with yourself.
