

Celebrity Break-Up? Nina Dobrev & Glen Powell Taking Time Apart Amid Busy Schedules

By

Karley Kemble

Uh oh, it looks like Nina Dobrev and her boyfriend Glen Powell could soon face an upsetting celebrity break-up. According to EOnline.com, the celebrity couple are taking a break from their relationship. Though they've not officially called it quits, a source close to the duo says that Dobrev has been quite busy with various projects, which has caused a rift in the relationship. While there hasn't been any explosive fights between or bad blood, sources are saying they are not as close as they had been earlier this year. We hope things work out for this celebrity couple!

Though this may not be classified as a celebrity break-up yet, it seems busy schedules are getting in the way of this relationship. What are some ways to keep a busy schedule from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, life gets in the way and it's challenging to balance your professional life with your personal life. Check out some ways to manage your busy schedule, without feeling as though you're neglecting your relationship or your job:

1. Set boundaries: Make it a point to keep your work at work. When you constantly blur the lines between your relationship and your career, it's inevitable that one will take up more of your time. Being present with your partner without checking your phone for work updates when you're off the clock really means a lot! Set boundaries and make sure you keep yourself accountable.

2. Communicate: A strong relationship needs strong communication to survive. If you or your partner conceal your feelings of neglect, then it's likely an explosive argument will occur somewhere along the line. If you need to work late, and reschedule date night, make sure your partner knows you still care for them, and aren't choosing your job because you love it more than them!

3. Include them in your plans: If it's possible, you can try merging your two worlds. This doesn't mean you have to find your partner a job at your workplace, but perhaps you two can form your own business together (given that you two mesh well on a professional level, that is!) Alternatively, invite your partner into your "work world," and bring them to social events outside of work. That way, they can meet the people you spend your working hours with, and they can get a first-hand look into another area of your life that is kind of unknown.

Celebrity News: Matt Lauer Fired from NBC News for 'Inappropriate Sexual Behavior'

By

Rachel Sparks

The latest celebrity news is another sex scandal, and it breaks our hearts. After Harvey Weinstein, Hollywood has been under scrutiny for its sexual misconduct. Matt Lauer of NBC was fired overnight Wednesday, November 29 for “inappropriate sexual behavior.” UsMagazine.com reported the many celebrities who reacted to this news. Andy Cohen reacted to President Donald Trump's tweets, calling him a hypocrite. Both Rose McGowan and Kathy Griffin, who spoke out against Weinstein, stated they had been keeping an eye on Lauer.

This celebrity news seems to be more of the same lately, unfortunately. What are some ways to get up the courage to speak out when you feel sexually harassed or have been assaulted?

Cupid's Advice:

Speaking out when you feel victimized is terrifying, but being stuck in a situation you feel like you can't get out of is worse. Finding the courage to speak up and protect yourself will feel near impossible. Cupid has relationship advice to help a friend, or yourself, make it through this situation:

1. Indirect confrontation: A lot of times you want to take action, but you're terrified of the repercussions of a direct confrontation. Oftentimes a direct approach isn't the best answer. If you don't feel like you have support, fighting a situation alone could backfire. Instead, if you're being sexually harassed, find a way to distract from the sexual intentions. Spill a drink, take a phone call, fake an emergency. Find a way to get out of the situation and divert attention.

2. Have a partner: The buddy system from grade school is still relevant, especially in today's world where we are finding out more and more stories of sexual harassment. If you're going to be with someone you don't trust, find a way to have a partner. It's not always possible, but if you can avoid being alone the likelihood of being targeted goes down.

Find a way to connect with others who have been through similar situations. Build a community where you feel safe and supported.

Celebrity News: Selena Gomez's Family Is 'Still Getting Comfortable' With Her Justin Bieber Romance

By

Karley Kemble

Though Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber have recently reunited, it appears those close to Gomez are hesitant to accept Bieber back into the family. According to EOnline.com, Gomez's family "is still getting comfortable with the idea of them back together." The celebrity couple spent Thanksgiving apart and both agreed to be with their families, because Gomez felt it was too soon to bring him home for the holidays. A source close to the couple says Bieber is hoping to be included in Gomez's Christmas plans, but knows that her family is hesitant. Hopefully they'll come around soon!

In the latest celebrity news, Selena's family is taking a while to come around to her rekindled romance with Justin Bieber. What are some ways to foster a positive relationship between your partner and your family?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be troubling when your family doesn't approve of your partner. Check out Cupid's advice on how to deal with these tough situations:

1. Start small: If your family is hesitant to accept your partner, it's probably a good idea to start small. Having them come home for the holidays is traditionally a big deal, and it can get super awkward. Instead, try gradually making your partner a part of your family's life. Some people just take longer to warm up to than others, so it doesn't mean all hope is lost!

2. Don't force it: No matter how hard you try, you can't force people to get along. In fact, forcing a positive relationship upon people often works in reverse. If the relationship between your partner and your family is not what you hoped it'd be, give it some time and don't meddle! Things will pan out, in due time.

In celebrity news, it seems lots of celebs are getting back with their exes! What are some benefits to getting back together with someone who you've dated before?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating somebody you've dated before isn't always a bad idea, contrary to what you may have heard. If you are thinking of getting back together with a former fling, here are some advantages to consider:

1. No awkward small-talk: Let's face it – small talk is pointless, but a staple of any new relationship. (Do you actually care about the weather?) When you jump back into a relationship with somebody from the past, you've already gotten to know them and can skip the boring norms. You can move forward faster and get to the more serious stuff.

Gomez and Bieber caused quite a stir in celebrity news just weeks ago. Following Gomez's breakup with The Weeknd, it was revealed that she was dating Bieber again. We're happy to see that they are going strong!

This celebrity news proves that Selena and Justin are still rekindling their romance. What are some ways to rebuild trust in a broken relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not impossible to rebuild a broken relationship. While it may take a lot of work, if you are wanting to move on from past occurrences, Cupid has some tips you can implement into your lives:

1. Act lovingly: Within the tougher times when emotions are high, it will be more challenging to respond kindly. Even in the toughest of times, it is critical to keep love in the forefront. If your partner sets you off, instead of putting your guard up and acting defensively, take a step away from the situation. Then, think of an appropriate way to respond lovingly.

2. Follow through: Remaining consistent is very important. You must follow through on your word, and your partner must follow suit. An already rocky relationship will be impossible to mend if one person thinks they are more reliable than the other. If life gets in the way of you staying true to your word, make sure you maintain an open line of communication to show that you respect your partner.

3. Maintain patience: Trusting someone is a gradual process. It's certainly more challenging to rebuild trust after a serious situation occurs. Be patient and know that you cannot magically trust someone overnight. If the relationship is worth it, it will happen, though.

No matter what people say, getting back with an ex isn't always a bad idea. Like Gomez says – the heart wants what it wants, right? However, it is important to be cautious when you jump back into a relationship with someone. Cupid has the scoop:

1. Think about their motives: While this might be unsettling, you need to consider your ex's feelings. Are they genuinely wanting to give it another go, or are they just using you to fill a void? There may have been a celebrity break-up in Hollywood, but we're not quite sure. What are some reasons to avoid being wishy washy about your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Not knowing what you want or where you want to be in your relationship can cause a lot of issues within yourself and your relationship. Here are a few more reasons to avoid being wishy washy in your relationship:

1. It can be confusing: If you are on the fence about your relationship, your partner could easily get confused. If there are at a certain level in the relationship that you're not at yet, they may not understand what is going on. They may begin to wonder if you are as committed as they are or if you really want to be with them. It is best to make up your mind about them and communicate it clearly.

2. Feelings are at risk: If your partner feels that you both are on the same page when it comes to your romance but you are really several steps behind them, their entire world will apart when they figure it out. When you are wishy washy about your relationship, you are easily leading on your partner unless you make it clear that you are unsure. This way, they will not be blind sided by your feelings and they can adjust their expectations in the relationship.

3. You might settle: Sometimes, when we are unsure about something, we settle with what we have instead of making a hard choice. If this happens in a relationship, you will regret always. Instead of being comfortable with your indifference, make the decision. If you think that this relationship is the one you want, go for it. If you can't see yourself with your partner in the future, end it now.
