

Reunited Celebrity Couple? Exes Nick Viall & Andi Dorfman Spotted Running Together

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelor alums Nick Viall and Andi Dorfman were spotted on a run together in Santa Monica, according to UsMagazine.com. The celebrity exes were seen two days after Viall revealed he was dating someone on his podcast, the Viall Files. While the reality TV star didn't give any details, he discussed "a conversation with someone that [he's] dating." A few weeks prior, Dorfman joked about reaching out to her exes during quarantine, sharing a post that read, "I'm about two days and/or three martinis away from texting all of my exes." She included a screenshot of a blank group text to Viall and Chris Soules, who were both contestants on her season of The Bachelorette.

Exes Nick Viall and Andi Dorfman are starting celebrity couple rumors after they were spotted running together. What are some ways to know if you should reunite with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Your relationship ended for a reason, but you can't stop thinking about your ex. How do you know if you should really give it another chance with your ex? Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Time has passed: You and your ex have spent time apart. Maybe, you've both grown. Maybe, you can't remember what fight broke you up. You may be able to start again with a clean slate. If extended time apart helped you realize you still want to be with your ex, why wait any longer?

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Becca Kufrin Doesn't Know Relationship Status with Garrett Yrigoyen After His Pro-Cop Remarks

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Becca Kufirin reveals fiancé Garrett Yrigoyen's controversial Instagram post may be the end of their celebrity relationship. In a recent episode of the Bachelor Happy Hour podcast, Kufirin said, "All I can say right now is that I don't know ... about my relationship with Garrett at this point." The reality TV star initially spoke out about Yrigoyen's post, which included a lengthy statement that said he "couldn't sit back and not support" his "many friends and family in law enforcement." Kufirin initially condemned the post, but she didn't think it was "meant in a malicious way." On the podcast, she apologizes to Rachel Lindsay, the franchise's only black Bachelorette, for her initial response, saying, "That conversation deserved my complete, undivided attention. It deserved much more care and thoughtfulness on my end."

In celebrity news, Bachelorette couple Becca and Garrett may not be living happily ever after. What do you do if you discover a difference in morals between yourself and your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

You and your partner won't always see eye-to-eye, but there are some things that are harder to compromise on. If you've recently realized you and your partner have different moral values and don't know how to approach that, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Understand where they're coming from: It's easier to understand your partner's opinions if you understand why they think that way. Consider how they grew up: heir family, their neighborhood, their education. Have productive conversations with your partner to better understand their values.

2. Find common ground: Even if you and your partner are disagreeing about a topic overall, there is bound to be something you agree on. Try to focus on these agreements and don't force each other to change. You're likely trying to both educate each other, but that doesn't mean it will change how either of you think.

3. Know your boundaries: It's important to communicate, but there's only so much you can compromise on. If you feel like you and your partner are disagreeing on something that's fundamentally important to you, you'll need to think about how this will affect your future relationship. If this disagreement is really a deal-breaker, it isn't going to go away.

New Celebrity Couple Megan Fox & Machine Gun Kelly Confirm Relationship With a Kiss

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Megan Fox and Machine Gun Kelly confirmed their relationship with a kiss after Fox's split from Brian Austin Green. According to UsMagazine.com, the new celebrity couple was spotted holding hands and kissing for the first time in the public eye.

In celebrity couple news, Megan Fox has moved on from Brian Austin Green with Machine Gun Kelly. What are some ways to keep hurting your ex to a minimum when you move on with someone new?

Cupid's Advice:

Once you break up with someone. it can take your ex a little bit longer to get over the relationship than it did for you.

If you've moved on with someone else after a break-up, but you don't want to hurt your ex, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Just tell them: Although this may seem like a hurtful tactic, letting your ex know before they find out from social media or a mutual friend is going to work out in their favor. This way they have time to adjust to your new relationship and when someone else brings it up to them, they won't be surprised at all.

2. Don't be spiteful: Your ex may still be going through a rough time getting over you while your in this new relationship, so don't do or say anything that you know would make them upset. Even though you may not be doing anything intentionally to hurt your ex, you could still be hurting them. Take a broader scope to all of your actions and do your best to be considerate of their feelings.

Celebrity News: Dua Lipa & Anwar Hadid Celebrate First Anniversary

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Dua Lipa and Anwar Hadid are celebrating their first anniversary as a couple. The pair made headlines last year as they were spotted kissing at a music festival. According to UsMagazine.com, Lipa and Hadid have been quarantined together in the U.K. during the pandemic. We love to see this kind of news!

In celebrity couple news, Dua Lipa and Anwar Hadid are celebrating one year together. What are some ways to make your anniversary special as the nation reopens?

Cupid's Advice:

After a long few months, we bet so many people out there are excited to take back their dating lives. Whether it's your first date or your engagement, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Get outdoors: After a few long months stuck inside, you're both probably dying to get outside and spend some time with Mother Nature. Take a look at your calendar and if your anniversary is coming up like Dua and Anwar, then find a way to make it special. If your significant other loves to hike or hit the beach, then plan out a day for the two of you to explore and spend time together. This anniversary will definitely be one for the books, so think of what will make your partner really happy.

2. Go for a bite: Many places around the country have reopened their restaurants with the opportunity for outdoor seating. If your favorite spot has opened back up, then plan an anniversary meal! Surprise your partner with a day full of food and fun, it's definitely something many people have been missing. Maybe after your morning walk or hike you can head over to enjoy a delicious brunch. If you're both still not quite comfortable going that far, then take it to-go and head back home. Quiet time indoors with some great food works too!

3. Stay cautious: Just because things are starting to open up and become semi-normal again, doesn't mean that you should stop social distancing or wearing your face mask. Be cautious of your surroundings and make sure you are a safe distance from others. While you know where you and your loved one have been, you can't say the same for someone else! Don't rush out anywhere that you think may be overcrowded or highly populated. Be smart and continue checking in on your county's guidelines.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Becca Kufrin Speaks Out About Garrett Yrigoyen's Controversial Police Support

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Becca Kufrin disagrees with fiancé Garrett Yrigoyen's recent Instagram post. Yrigoyen posted a photo of the "Thin Blue Line," a symbol showing support for police officers. "With so many friends and family in law enforcement, I couldn't sit back and not support them," said Yrigoyen on the post. On a recent episode of the Bachelor Happy Hour podcast, the reality TV star spoke out: "I believe that he is a good person... I do think [the post] was tone-deaf, and it was the wrong time and message and sentiment." Kufrin's co-host, Rachel Lindsay, was more critical of his silence about the Black Lives Matter movement: "I don't think Garrett is malicious, but Garrett is what the problem is."

In celebrity news, Becca Kufrin opened up about her fiancé

Garrett's recent social media posts supporting the police during the Black Lives Matter movement. What do you do if you disagree with your partner's social views?

Cupid's Advice:

It's impossible to agree with your partner on everything. However, differences in political and social beliefs can feel harder to find a compromise. If you're not sure how to talk to your partner when you disagree on these views, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Acknowledge each other's views: You don't have to agree, but you both need to understand where the other is coming from. Acknowledging and understand your partner's views will let you understand their thought process. Being able to have healthy conversations will prevent misunderstanding their views.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: 'Bachelorette' Becca Kufirin Is Engaged to Garrett

2. Be specific: Focus on the issues you're discussing. Don't diminish each other's beliefs to political parties or candidates. Even if you're registered to different parties, there are still issues you might have similar views about. Having pointed discussions about the issues you care about will prevent you or your partner from generalizing.

3. Agree to disagree: It's almost impossible to change people's beliefs. You need to decide when it's time to give yourselves space to disagree about topics. Some topics can easily be left alone. Other topics that you're passionate about may be harder. If you're unable to comfortably leave these disagreements with your partner, it may be time to consider how these disagreements affect you and your relationship.

Celebrity Couple News: Pregnant Sophie Turner & Joe Jonas Attend Black Lives Matter Protest

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Sophie Turner and her husband, Joe Jonas, protested police brutality and racial inequality at a Black Lives Matter demonstration. According to UsMagazine.com, while their celebrity baby is on the way, this celebrity couple posted photos and a video of them protesting in California. They included a photo of protesters lying face down in the grass, and in another, Turner holds a sign that reads, "White silence is violence."

In celebrity couple news, pregnancy isn't keeping Sophie Turner from protesting racism with her hubby, Joe Jonas. How do you know you've found a partner with values that align with your own?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding "The One" is always going to be a long process, but finding someone who shares similar values as yours is especially difficult to find. If you're wondering if you and your partner have similar beliefs and ethics, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Just simply ask: Don't be afraid to ask your partner how they feel about current events, politics, and social issues. It shouldn't be an interrogation session, but just you just casually asking your partner a question. This is so much easier than trying to figure out on your own, and you're bound to get a more real and authentic answer.

2. Are they just as excited as you are?: Whatever makes you excited when it comes to your values, whether it's protesting, donating, or a post on Instagram, should make your partner feel the same way. Typically, if you both feel the same way about something, you'll both want to help. On the side, the things that make you angry or upset in society, should make them feel the same way.

Celebrity Couple News: Kim Kardashian & Kanye West Are on 'Different Pages' Amid Quarantine

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, things between Kim Kardashian and Kanye West are rocky during quarantine. A source told UsMagazine.com that the celebrity couple has different routines: “Kim is working out nonstop and doing her thing. Kanye is having a harder time because he does not have a regimented routine like Kim.” Despite their opposing schedules, the duo is “doing well” and trying to get back on the same page.

In celebrity couple news, Kim and Kanye aren't seeing eye to eye during quarantine. What are some ways to adapt to quarantine with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Being stuck at home can cause a strain on your relationship, but it doesn't have to! Turn quarantine into a time to strengthen your relationship with your partner. Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Have alone time: Being unable to leave your house means you're spending 100% of your time with your partner. It's healthy to have time for yourself. Plan for you and your partner to have time without the other. It doesn't matter what you do as long as you focus on yourself.

Celebrity News: Ben Affleck & GF Ana De Armas Join California Black Lives Matter Protests

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Ben Affleck and Ana De Armas participated in the #BlackLivesMatter protests in Venice, Calif. last Tuesday. The celebrity couple was spotted holding signs that read “Black Lives Matter” and “Save First Baptist Church of Venice.” Affleck and De Armas showed their support of the historic black church built in 1910 that faces the possibility of demolition. The famous couple are only two of the many Hollywood stars who are speaking out against the recent death of George Floyd.

In celebrity news, Ben Affleck and his new girlfriend are joining forces to protest racism. What are some ways to support a worthy cause with your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Activism is important and there are countless causes that need your support. Find out what topics you're passionate about! If you're not sure where to start or how to support these causes with your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Protest in your city: No matter what cause is close to your heart, there's sure to be an upcoming demonstration for it. You and your partner can attend these together. You two can also spend the day before preparing for them together: making signs and packing the necessary supplies.

Celebrity News: Blake Lively & Ryan Reynolds Donate $200,000 to NAACP Legal Defense Fund

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, actress Blake Lively and husband Ryan Reynolds donated to the NAACP. According to EOnline.com, the celebrity couple donated $200,000 to NAACP Legal Defense Fund. Recently, police brutality videos have been surfacing all over the media, most of the videos resulting in the death of a person of color. This has sparked massive protesting all around America, causing many people to get arrested. Reynolds and Lively were quick to show their support by taking to social media and explaining that they don't know what it's like to live in fear of the police, and neither will their kids. The post ended with them stating, "We're ashamed that in the past we've allowed ourselves to be uninformed about how deeply rooted systemic racism is."

In celebrity news, Blake and Ryan are showing their support for the #BlackLivesMatter movement by making a substantial donation. What are some ways supporting a worthy cause can bring you closer as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Having similar beliefs and views in a relationship can really help unify you guys as a couple. Standing together on important issues in the world no matter what your opinion is, will strengthen your relationship. If you are wondering how standing together can bring you closer as a couple, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. It builds a foundation for your relationship: Standing together during social crisis is just one of the first steps of always sticking by your partner's side. As your relationship progresses, you'll need to stand together and support each other in a lot of different situations even if you don't agree. Standing by each others' beliefs and feelings will build a foundation to further your relationship.

Celebrity News: Nikki Bella Offered to Take a Break in Relationship with Artem Chigvintsev

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Total Bellas star Nikki Bella reveals she offered to take a break with fiancé Artem Chigvintsev at the beginning of their relationship. The celebrity couple started dating only six months after Bella called off her engagement and ended her six-year relationship with John Cena. According to UsMagazine.com, Bella divulged she was initially worried about falling into a new relationship so quickly. “I was still in the process of healing, but yet I was falling in love so fast with [Chigvintsev],” Bella said on the latest episode of “The Bellas Podcast.”

In celebrity news, Nikki offered to take a pause on her relationship with Artem early on as she was healing from her past celebrity break-up. How do you know you're ready to move on from a past relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding a new partner is exciting, but it can be hard to tell if you're ready to take the jump into a new relationship. If you're unsure if you're ready to put yourself out there again, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You've learned from the past: You need to learn from your past relationships to have healthy ones moving forward. It's important to acknowledge what didn't work in your last relationship (yes—even in your own actions!), but it's even more important to learn from it and prevent yourself from falling into those same patterns in your new relationship.

Celebrity Baby News: Elon Musk & Grimes Change Newborn Son's Name to Comply with California Law

By: Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Elon Musk and Grimes changed the name of their newborn celebrity baby to abide by the California Law. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple welcomed their son on May 4, and originally named him X Æ A-12. Once the name was revealed, many were quick to point out that according to the California State Constitution, names can only use the 26 alphabetical characters of the English language. The couple then changed their son's name to X Æ A-Xii. When questioned on social media about the name change, Grimes replied, "Roman numerals looks better."

In celebrity baby news, Elon Musk and Grimes were forced to slightly change their baby's name. What are some ways to compromise with your partner about baby names?

Cupid's Advice:

Expecting a baby is one of the most joyous feelings in life, but picking the baby's name can sometimes be a battle. It will be one of the first decisions that you and your partner make together as parents. For some ways to compromise with your partner about baby names, Cupid has some advice below:

1. Hear each other out: In any relationship, it's so important that you listen to each other. You should both come up with suggestions for the baby's name and then listen to what you both came up with and why. Although you may be head over heels in love with the names that you picked, you may find that your partner came up with something that you like better.

Related link: Celebrity Baby News: Kylie Jenner Reveals the Name of Her Daughter, and Twitter Reacts

2. Narrow it down: Before you start throwing names at each other, figure out what kind of names you both are interested in. It can be long or short names, modern or old-fashioned names, or maybe even unisex names. Whatever it is, come to an agreement and go down that path together to look for names.

3. Take your time: Finding the perfect name for your baby won't be easy, but luckily you have nine long months to narrow it down. Although you're eager to have a name for the baby, understand that you may like one name today and then like another a few months later. Sometimes naming your baby after you meet them can be more efficient because the name you picked out beforehand may not match your baby's look or personality. Understanding that nothing is final until the name is on the birth certificate is key!

In celebrity news, Matthew Perry gets back on dating apps after his break-up with Molly Hurwitz. What are some benefits to online dating during the pandemic?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating online can be really nerve racking. There are perks to online dating during the pandemic, and Cupid has some advice for you:

1. There's already something to talk about: When talking to someone new, it can be difficult to find something to talk about, which just makes things awkward. Since new developments are happening every day with the pandemic, this can be used as something you know you have in common. You can both talk about how the pandemic is affecting you, which can lead to great conversation.

Celebrity Couple News: Kim Kardashian Needs Space From Kanye West

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Kim Kardashian has reportedly had enough of quarantine with husband, Kanye West! According to UsMagazine.com, Kardashian desperately needs space from her man as he is more focused on work rather than helping her with their three children. After six years of marriage, we hope West can compromise some of his time for the sake of his leading lady!

In this celebrity couple news, Kim Kardashian feels like she needs some space from husband, Kanye West while in quarantine. What are some things to do when feeling suffocated by your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Feeling like you need a little break from your partner is normal. If you're curious about what to do when you're feeling like this, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Let them know: Your partner may not understand that they are making you feel suffocated, so letting them know should definitely be your first step. Sit them down and express how you're feeling so they understand how their actions are affecting you. People show love in different ways, so be honest with them about what makes you feel comfortable and supported. If you are requesting changes from your partner that they don't feel they can make, it's time to move on. Staying in a relationship that is emotionally suffocating will not benefit either of you or your mental health.

2. Make a change: Similar to Kim K, maybe you just need some space from your partner. Try taking a break by spending time with your friends and family, rather than just your significant other. Have a girls night or grab dinner with your parents! By minimizing the annoyance and anxiety you're feeling at home, you'll start to feel better about your partner. Encourage them to do the same by hanging out with their friends or loved ones. It's healthy for any relationship to take time away from each other to focus on the other people in your lives that you care about.

3. Practice self-care: Focus on yourself! Take time every day to give your mental health some attention. If you're feeling trapped and suffocated by your partner, then spending time alone can be a great refresher. Whether you are into meditation, face masks, or a bath with a glass of wine, you need to find something that makes you feel happy and relaxed.

Celebrity Couple News: Hilary Duff Shares Heartfelt Tribute to Matthew Koma on Engagement Anniversary

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Hilary Duff posted a series of Instagram photos honoring her husband, Matthew Koma, to celebrate the anniversary of their engagement. The pair had been dating three years prior to the engagement and share a daughter together. According to UsMagazine.com, the happy couple met back in 2015 while Koma was producing one of Duff's music albums.

In this celebrity couple news, Hilary and Matthew are reflecting on the day they got engaged. What are some ways to make your engagement personal and memorable?

Cupid's Advice:

Aside from your wedding day and the birth of your child, getting engaged is one of the most special days of your adult life. If you're curious about how to make it memorable, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Capture the moments: Whether you are the one proposing, or you've just been proposed to, capturing this special moment is so important. Hire a photographer or enlist a friend to help make this time extra special and something you both can always look back on. If you've just been proposed to, take pictures of the ring and the two of you, so this day can last forever. You can show the pictures at your wedding, and take a page out of Hilary Duff's playbook and reminisce on social media!

2. Share the news: One of the beauties of social media is its ability to quickly spread information. Family and friends from all over the world can be reached at the click of a button. Share the news of your engagement across your platforms, only when you're ready of course, so everyone you love can celebrate with you! Call your friends and family as their excitement for you will be out of this world. Years from now you will all be able to reminisce on the happiness of this occasion.

New Celebrity Couple: Is Victoria Fuller Quarantining with Former 'Bachelor' Chris Soules in Iowa?

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelor Nation's Victoria Fuller is rumored to be quarantined with her new man, former Bachelor Chris Soules in his hometown in Iowa. According to UsMagazine.com, the speculation intensified when the pair posted similar photos of a plowed field to their Instagram accounts on April 21. We love to see new relationships blossom during this uncertain time!

Bachelor* fans are really trying to figure out what's happening with Chris Soules and Victoria Fuller. What are some reasons to keep your relationship under wraps at first?

Cupid's Advice:

Navigating the rocky waters of the dating scene can definitely be challenging and once you've found someone, you won't want to let go! If you're debating whether or not to go public with your new relationship, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Listen to your partner: There are two people in your relationship and you always have to remember that. Even though you may have strong feelings towards a certain subject, your partner's opinions should be taken into account as well. Allow them to share their thoughts on publicizing your relationship or keeping it under wraps so the two of you are on the same page. If you are still exploring each other and your emotions, that's definitely a reason to keep it private.

2. Think about the family: Take a new relationship slowly and move at your own pace. If you're not ready to share your relationship with your family, that is okay! Maybe they weren't too fond of your ex and that's left you wary of introducing them to someone new. Or they can be a bit overprotective and might scare off a new partner. Whatever the case may be, remember this is your life and you make the decisions.

3. Not ready for the friends: Aside from family, your friends are probably the most important people in your life. Introducing them to someone new is a big step step for everyone! At the end of the day, all they want is for you to be happy and feeling loved, but sometimes gaining their approval is quite the feat. Avoiding judgement or potentially disapproving friends are definitely reasons to keep your relationship a secret for a while.

Celebrity Couple News: Kate Beckinsale Defends New Relationship with Goody Grace

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Kate Beckinsale had to defend her new relationship with singer, Goody Grace from internet hate this past weekend. According to UsMagazine.com, an Instagram user tried to throw shade at Beckinsale and her rumored new beau, but she clapped back and stood up for her man. Beckinsale's dating choices have been a cause for controversy because of her past dating much younger men. We love to see a strong woman taking charge of her relationships!

In celebrity news, Kate Beckinsale isn't afraid to stand up for her relationship. What are some ways you can stand up for your partner in situations that call for it?

Cupid's Advice:

Just as it's important to stand up for yourself, you should feel confident protecting your partner as well. If you're wondering how to do that, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. To the family: If your family has a lot of critiques for your significant other or hasn't always been fond of your relationship, it's time to change their mind. Instances related to family are definitely one of the leading situations where you would need to stand up for your boyfriend or girlfriend. Don't be afraid to take charge of the situation and explain that this conversation will not continue unless you can be on the same respectful page. Explain to them how your partner makes you feel and the love you have for them. It might just take standing your ground for them to back down and understand your boundaries.

2. With your friends: Just because you joke around or vent about your relationship doesn't make it okay for your friends to do the same. If you feel like they are continuously crossing the line with their comments about your partner, then you need to have a conversation about it. Your friends just want the best for you so they may be coming from a place of worry or ignorance to their actions. Reassure them that their love for you is validated, but their behaviors have gone too far. Open and honest conversations are the best solution.

Celebrity Marriage: Michael Buble's Wife Luisana Lopilato Defends Their Marriage After Fans Slam Him for Elbowing Her

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Michael Buble's wife, actress Luisana Lopalito, defends the singer after a video of him appearing to elbow her creates a stir on social media. According to UsMagazine.com, the actress took to Instagram to address the claims and deny any sort of marital abuse had taken place. The pair met in 2009 and share three children together.

This celebrity marriage is strong, despite fan speculation. What are some ways to keep rumors about your relationship from affecting it?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors spread quickly and inaccurately all the time. If they are factoring into your current relationship, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Address it with your partner: Sit down with your partner and openly talk about what's going on. Maintaining transparent and honest communication is crucial for any successful relationship. If the rumors that are hearing about your relationship are completely false, then talk them through with your partner and then brush it off. Unsubstantiated claims and falsehoods should not come between you two.

2. Ignore it: If you and your partner have determined that the rumors are false and have no basis, then just start ignoring the hate! If you don't give something the power to affect you, it won't. Trust your partner and continue having conversations about your feelings to ensure you're both on the same page. Nothing can stand in the way of a happy and healthy relationship unless you let it.

3. Talk to those spreading them: If you know who has been saying these things and spreading misinformation around about your relationship, definitely confront them. Have an open and honest conversation with them about what's been happening and why. Enter the chat level-headed and calm as this doesn't need to become a screaming match! Hopefully you will both find closure and answers to why this has been a part of your lives.

Celebrity News: Former 'Bachelor' Peter Weber Breaks Silence on Kelley Flanagan Dating Rumors

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, former Bachelor Peter Weber and Kelley Flanagan have sparked dating rumors after the pair were spotted together in her hometown, Chicago. Speaking openly on Nick Viall's podcast, "The Viall Files," Weber explained that while they are not currently dating, he would love for it to happen in the future. According to UsMagazine.com, the pair have been quarantined together in her apartment along with Bachelorette alum Dustin Kendrick.

In celebrity news, Peter and Kelley aren't dating, but they may be on their way to dating! What are some ways to get to know someone well before jumping into dating them?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting to know someone before you dive into a relationship is crucial. If you're looking for ways to get to know a potential partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Explore your feelings: If this is a potential partner that you've met on a dating app, try keeping it virtual for a while. Continue talking via texting and phone calls to build a layer of trust before you jump into a relationship. By getting to know each other on this level, you can be open and honest without it getting physical or too much too soon. Be aware of your emotions and move forward when you are ready.

Celebrity Couple News: Ben Affleck Is 'Very Supportive' of Girlfriend Ana De Armas

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity couple news, Ben Affleck and Ana de Armas are still going strong! Their new relationship took off after costarring in their upcoming psychological thriller, Deep Water. According to UsMagazine.com, these two are quarantined together and enjoying exploring their feelings for each other. We hope to continue to see more of this blossoming relationship!

In celebrity couple news, this new duo is happy and quarantining together. What are some ways to know you're ready for a serious relationship with your new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes finding the one can be a challenging journey. If you're unsure about seriously committing to a new partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You see a future: If you look at your new partner and can envision a life together, this person is worth making a commitment to. Building a future with someone is a special part of life that every couple wants to commit to, but finding the right person can be a challenge. Be sure you are moving at your own pace and taking things slow, as these next steps will be huge for your relationship.

3. You've got babies on the brain: If you have baby fever like never before, and keep viewing this person as a potential father for your child, maybe that's a sign he is worth committing to. Seeing this person in that light should speak a lot to their values, morals, and what they care about in life. If you are both on the same page with your feelings towards each other, take this next step and commit. You never know where it can lead, so go into it confidently and put your best foot forward.

Celebrity News: Ben Affleck Had Breakdown While Filming Scene About Broken Marriage

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Ben Affleck was caught in a deeply emotional moment while filming his latest flick, The Way Back. According to UsMagazine.com, the actor felt parallels between his character's struggles with addiction and his own personal life. Affleck has openly acknowledged his battles with sobriety and how they have affected his career, children, and life with ex-wife Jennifer Garner.

In celebrity news, Ben Affleck is experienced some emotions about his past personal trauma while at work. What are some ways to function at work when you're going through tough times in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Every relationship goes through challenges and each person will handle them differently. But when you start to feel those struggles affect your work life, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Separate the two: Take time in the morning to reflect on your relationship and the struggles you are currently facing. Give yourself a few moments to really think about the problems you are having with your partner. Once you are finished, channel your energy solely into your work for the day and do your best to keep your focus locked in on it. By separating the two, you are distracting yourself and productively redirecting your efforts.
