Cupid's Advice:

When you develop a crush on someone, it's important to let them know you're interested without being too obvious. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Be yourself: Although you may be feeling shy at first, which is completely understandable, make sure to just be yourself. 2. Body language: Your body language and facial expressions are both ways to communicate, therefore; it's important to pay attention to these aspects when interacting with your new crush. Smile, look engaging, be confident, laugh and look like you want to be in their presence. Don't look timid, bored or nervous. If it's evident that you're interested in being there, they will pick up on that. Try not to text or email on your phone too much. Pay attention to them and your surroundings.

3. Get in touch with your feelings: The most imperative thing to do is get in touch with your inner feelings. Determine how you feel about the people in your life and your situations. Once you are sure you have a crush on someone, pursue it and let them know. It can be a little scary but you will be glad afterwards because you will know if the feelings are reciprocated. If they feel the same way about you then great! If they just want to be friends, then take their friendship and be glad you found out when you did so that you can pursue someone who is meant for you. It's a win, win situation!

‘The Bachelor’ Season 19 Contestant Britt Nilsson Faces Her Fear For Chris Soules

By

Emma L. Wells

“The sky’s the limit...,” read Britt Nilsson’s one-on-one date card on last night’s episode of The Bachelor season 19. That’s when the 27-year-old waitress started to cry in panic due to her debilitating phobia of heights. Still, she pulled it together before their one-on-one date. People.com reported Chris Soules saying that she was “just as beautiful first thing in the morning as when she’s all dolled up for the rose ceremony. It’s pretty incredible.” Turns out, she gets all dolled up for bed too, but oh well! The reality TV lovebirds soon arrived in the New Mexico desert to find a hot air balloon waiting for them, and Nilsson’s fears quickly disappeared with Soules’ arms around her.

This Bachelor season 19 contestant overcame her fear to get closer to Chris Soules. What are some ways you can beat your phobias when looking for a relationship and love?

Cupid’s Advice:

Whether you fear heights, spiders, darkness, or commitment, you shouldn’t let it stand in your way when you’re looking for a relationship and love. It’s completely possible to overcome your distress, no matter how big it may seem. Cupid has some dating advice for you:

1. Switch your focus: On The Bachelor season 19, Nilsson was able get over her fear because being close to Soules was more important to her. If you’re afraid of flying but have to take a trip, focus on the destination to help you get through the flight. Paying attention to your fear will only make the situation harder. That's why having a hunky farmer by your side is always a benefit!

2. Get your facts straight: Most fears – like the fear of sharks, for instance – aren't based on actual statistics. Our imaginations make our phobias much worse than they should be. Do you really live in an area where you need to be worried about giant, poisonous spiders getting you in the dark, or is it just in your mind? Do some research to calm your nerves.

Keep going until you can interact with a large dog in an enclosed setting. There's no need to rush!

The latest celebrity gossip is that celebrity exes Katy Perry and John Mayer may be our favorite celebrity couple again. How do you know whether or not to rekindle things with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Have you ever been in an on again off again relationship? If so, then you know what celebrity exes Perry and Mayer are going through right now. If you don't know if it's time to rekindle the flame, here's some dating advice to help you figure it out:

1. Either one or both of you has changed: Whether he's finally decided to commit or you learned how to handle your inner control freak, the circumstances that led to the break-up can no longer exist in order for it to work out. There's no point in entering the same relationship only for it to end again, so make sure that if you do reconnect with your ex, your issues from the past are gone.

Related Link: Katy Perry And John Mayer Call It Quits

2. You can talk about what went wrong: It's very important in relationships and love to be able to communicate about what's working and what's not. If you get back together with an ex, discuss what led to the break up so you can avoid it the next time around.

Related Link: Source Says John Mayer Is Ready to Propose to Katy Perry

3. You're willing to go slow: Don't pick up right where you left off. Take it slow, and treat the relationship with the same respect you would a new one. For example, date like you just met and share the same sweet gestures you would if you had never known one another before. Starting fresh is key to making things last the second time around.

By

Katie Gray

Cupid has the latest celebrity relationship news about celebrity couple Kanye West and Kim Kardashian. The rapper and mogul, West, recently spoke out on The Ellen DeGeneres Show, saying, "I've definitely learned how to compromise more. Which is something you have to understand when you partner with people in business." He believes that he is a better person because of his celebrity love, Kardashian, and baby daughter, North West. According to UsMagazine.com, he continued, saying, "And I've learned how to shut up more. Yeah, I think I'm a better human being because of her, and because of my daughter."

Kanye's celebrity love affair has definitely taught him a lesson or two. What lessons can we all learn from our relationships and love life?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to celebrity love, it's in the public eye for us all to see and learn from. Cupid has some love lessons to take note of:

1. Talking helps: Communication is key for every relationship in our lives. Whether it's an interpersonal romantic relationship or the relationship we have with our family and friends, conflict is inevitable and is a part of life. In fact, it can be healthy. If you don't care enough to sometimes argue with your partner, maybe you're settling with being content instead of having a passionate relationship. Life isn't all diamonds and roses, and working through conflict with your partner makes you both grow stronger together. Talking always helps, so no matter what you and your partner are experiencing – talk it out!

2. If it isn't broke don't fix it: Why try fixing something that isn't broken? When you're in a relationship, you and your partner should always work on evolving together to be the best people that you can be. It's great to learn from each other, get one another to try new things and achieve mutual goals. That being said, don't start causing problems when there isn't an issue. If something is bothering you, address it with your partner right away. Don't dwell on things that are fine. Instead explore your happiness in your relationship!

3. What goes around comes around: It's obvious that when you show love, you often receive it in return. Use this to your advantage by being the best partner that you can be. Treat your partner like a king/queen, and they will reciprocate. It all starts with loving yourself as an individual first, and then you can truly love someone else fully.!

By

Whitney Johnson

Online](#), a source close to the singer says, "Everything is going great with him. She is really happy, and they are having fun." Unfortunately, some of Gomez's loved ones are unsure about the new celebrity couple and where their relationship is headed. "Selena's friends are a little bit wary while remaining hopeful," the source adds. "Right now, he is making Selena happy, and he's not Justin Bieber, so that's a good thing."

This celebrity couple is facing some doubt from the pop star's friends. How do you handle criticism about a new relationship and love?

Cupid's Advice:

The beginning of a new relationship and love should be filled with joy and bliss. However, when your pals are unsupportive of your new partner, it can put a damper on your happiness. If you're facing criticism like this celebrity couple, Cupid has some tips:

1. Introduce them: If your buddies haven't met your significant other yet, ask them to be open-minded until they get to know each other. If they've already been introduced and had a negative first impression, tell your buddies that it'd really mean a lot if they would give your beau a second chance. Encourage them to set judgments aside until they spend some quality time together.

2. Listen to their concerns: It may seem counterproductive, but it's important to ask your friends to explain their doubt to you. As much as you may want to ignore their criticism, giving them the chance to share their worries will go a long way. It'll help you understand where they're coming from, and it'll allow your pals to feel like they're being heard. Getting everything out in the open will help you all move forward in a graceful way.

3. Be honest: If all else fails, you need to have a heart-to-heart with your loved ones and open up about your new relationship. To help them understand how you feel, share the reasons why you want to be with your significant other and how they make you feel. If they truly love you (and they should!), seeing you so happy should be enough for them.

Celebrity Couple Gabrielle Union & Dwayne Wade Signed Prenup

By

Rebecca White

Looking for some solid relationship advice from a celebrity couple? Well, you're in luck, because Gabrielle Union and Dwayne Wade have just stated that they swear by getting a prenup before marriage. According to UsMagazine.com, Union and Wade signed a prenup prior to their celebrity wedding in August 2014. "Now that it's time to get married to a man who happens to play basketball and has done well for himself, I want to make it clear that I have in no way hitched my wagon to his star," Union said. "I have my own wagon and star."

Many celebrity couples need to put a prenup in place prior to getting married. What are three reasons why prenups can help your relationship and love life?

Cupid's Advice:

While we aren't all celebrity couples with our 'wagon and star,' we do need to protect our assets and openly communicate with our partners. Remember to keep in mind that while this agreement is binding, it is not necessarily planning for divorce. It's simply having a backup plan:

1. Upfront and honest communication: Relationships require upfront and honest communication. Now that Union and Wade have discussed and planned for the future, there will be no need for arguments pertaining to power issues later on.

2. Separating debt: Debts pile up, regardless of whether you're a celebrity couple or not. It may be wise to separate debt obligations like student loans, child support and/or credit cards. Discussing which income will pay for each debt and what impact that will have on future purchases is very important. Keep in mind that prenups are open to amendment with a postnup, in case circumstances change.

3. Make sure your partner is marriage material: Many of the issues discussed during a prenup agreement are things that you would actually want to know before getting married. ‘The Bachelor’ Chris Soules Says That Men “Don’t Work Well with Subtlety”

By

Emma L. Wells

Poor Chris Soules had a lot to handle on last night's jam-packed episode of the hit reality TV show The Bachelor. His hands were full with two group dates, two one-on-ones, a visit from his sisters, a shameless Cinderella promotion, and one big confession. The first group date brought seven girls to the lake for a day of beach fun and night of camping. Ashley I. was, in her own words, a camping virgin and a virgin camping, and after fretting over it, she decided to tell Soules the truth about her sexual history – or lack thereof. She snuck into The Bachelor star's tent in the middle of night to wake him up and was clearly nervous as she danced around the point of the conversation without actually saying it. In his blog on People.com, the Iowa farmer writes, "Here's a little lesson for you ladies: Men are pretty simple when it comes to words... Spell it out for us. Maybe even write it down so we don't forget it. We don't work well with subtlety." Later in the episode, she bravely tried again, and this time, she came right out with her confession.

The Bachelor* contestant Ashley I. was in need of some dating advice before she confronted Chris Soules with her big reveal on last night's episode. What are some ways to successfully open up to a guy?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting to know someone at the start of a relationship is both fun and scary. Once you get through basic background information, you have to open up about the good, the bad, and the emotional – and that's not always easy. It's worth it, though: Sharing yourself with a new guy leads to a deeper connection and a stronger relationship. Cupid has some dating advice to help you successfully open up:

1. Pick the right time and place: Ashley I. should've waited for a better opportunity to reveal her big secret to Soules. If you're ready to share something personal, it's important that your partner be in the right mindset. Make sure you have an appropriate amount of time, their undivided attention, and a bit of privacy. You should be somewhere where you feel comfortable expressing your emotions and talking freely without interruptions or distractions.

Related Link: 'The Bachelor' Season 19 Contestants Deal with Jealousy – Chris Soules Can't Stop Kissing Them!

2. Be straightforward: Like The Bachelor said, "Spell it out." Don't beat around the bush; your significant other probably won't understand what you're trying to say, and you won't get the response you're looking for. It can be hard, but say it as plainly as possible. You may still have answer some follow-up questions though, so be prepared to have a conversation and not just make a confession.

3. Let it happen naturally: Reaching the point in a relationship where you two can really be honest with each other can't be forced. If it's meant to be, it will be. There's no need to rush to pull the skeletons out of your closet in the first few weeks of a knowing each other. When the timing is right, you'll feel it. That being said, if you think this person can't really get to know you while you're keeping a secret, then it's time to reveal it.

1. Interest is shown: If your partner never asks about your kid(s) and seems to always want to get a babysitter, these may be signs that things aren't headed in the right direction. 'The Bachelor' Season 19 Contestants Deal with Jealousy – Chris Soules Can't Stop Kissing Them!

By

Emma L. Wells

Chris Soules certainly seemed to be enjoying himself during last night's episode of The Bachelor season 19! Reality TV fans got to see multiple makeout sessions and enjoy a lot of laughs, thanks to a guest appearance by Jimmy Kimmel. According to People.com, Soules kissed eight different women, claiming that it was simply part of the process of finding love. When asked by Mackenzie why he was macking with so many different honeys, he answered nervously that that's just how he gets to know people. Becca was the only girl to deny his attempt at a smooch; instead, the two shared a sweet hug.

What are some ways to deal with jealousy when, like the contestants on The Bachelor season 19, you aren't exclusive yet?

Cupid's Advice:

It's easy to get jealous during the beginning stages of relationships and love. On The Bachelor season 19, the contestants are forced to watch the man they're all falling for go after multiple women at once. While a little jealousy can add heat to your romance, letting it consume you can have consequences. Whether you're on reality TV or dating in real life, Cupid has some dating advice to help you handle your jealousy:

1. Honesty is key: Soules doesn't – and can't – hide his dalliances from the women on The Bachelor season 19. You should be honest with your partner too, no matter how hard it may be to tell him that you're ready to go all in and stop dating other people. Besides, don't you want to know if he's seeing someone else? The only way to truly know for sure is to ask.

Related Link: ‘The Bachelor’ Chris Soules on First Night Jitters

2. It's not a competition: Cut down on your jealousy by focusing on your relationship. You could drive yourself crazy comparing yourself to other people in your date's life. Your relationship, even if it's not exclusive yet, should be about just the two of you. Focus on the amazing time you have together and all the positive aspects of your partnership so far.

3. Take the power back: Jealousy in relationships often stems from a lack of power. This doesn't mean you need to control your partner's actions, but you should assert your right to make your own decisions. For instance, don't feel the need to match every move of your beau. Even if you've agreed that you're not ready to be exclusive, you don't have to date other people just because he is. You should do what feels right for you! Take a tip from Mackenzie and Becca and clarify what your boundaries are for the relationship.

Olivia Munn Supports Boyfriend Aaron Rodgers at Every Green Bay Packers Home Game

By

Katie Gray

Go green and gold! Green Bay Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers has the support of girlfriend Olivia Munn at every home game. Relationships and love go hand in hand...or in the football stand, in this case. According to UsMagazine.com, the actress explained, "Every home game, I am there. When there's an away game, that's when I leave to do my work." She went on to say, "I think I'm a good fan. I'm there, and I'm screaming a lot. I think it's really important to scream, and my acupuncturist told me energy follows thought. That was a very Hollywood sentence for you guys." The Packers played a great season and were the division champs. On Sunday, Jan. 18, they sadly lost 22 to 28 against the Seattle Seahawks. We hope this celebrity couple makes it to next season!

Relationships and love require a solid foundation, which includes supporting each others' interests. What are some ways to support your partner's hobbies?

Cupid's Advice:

Supporting the things your partner loves is important when it comes to solidifying your relationship. Check out Cupid's love advice below:

1. Show interest: When you're dealing with relationships and love, it's really important to show interest in whatever they like to do. If they're into sports, pay attention to the games and scores. It can be as easy as setting up ESPN alerts on your phone. You don't have to be obsessed with their favorite team, but keeping updated on them will make your significant other happy.

2. Take initiative: This piece of love advice isn't just for celebrity couples like Munn and Rodgers. To show your partner that you truly care, it really is all about the little things. If they are into Mexican food, make them homemade chicken enchiladas as a surprise. If they are wine connoisseurs or beer lovers, take them to a wine tasting or on a brewery tour. If they are into horror movies, suggest going to see one when it comes to theaters. Grab the bull by the horns and let them know that you pay attention to their likes and dislikes.

3. New experiences: Life is all about adventures. If your partner has a hobby or activity that they enjoy, try it out yourself! Whether that means playing tennis or going fishing, give it a shot. You don't have to be super into these activities, but actually doing them together will bring you closer. Plus, you will most likely really enjoy yourself. Feel free to invite them along with you to your hobbies too!

Hollywood Couple: Diane Kruger Adorably Freaks Out Over Longtime Boyfriend Joshua Jackson's Golden

Globes Win

By

Rebecca White

Happy celebrity couple alert! According to UsMagazine.com, the latest celebrity news took place at the Golden Globes when Diane Kruger showed her support for longtime boyfriend Joshua Jackson. When his show, The Affair, won Best Television Series – Drama, Kruger appeared more excited than anyone by jumping to her feet and kissing Jackson. One way to build a strong relationship is to show support for your partner's career. Even famous couples have to do this to keep their relationships strong, like Kruger did at the Golden Globes.

What are three ways to support your partner in their career like this Hollywood couple does?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, partnerships can be tricky, but one of the best ways to enhance your relationship and love for your significant other is to support their career in the best way you can. Always remember that a happy work life makes for a happy home life! Cupid has some advice on how to support your partner's career:

1. Be there when it counts: Just showing up to work functions, such as parties, ceremonies, speeches, retreats, or even concerts, will show your support and love for your partner. Being present in the many aspects of their life is important to any relationship.

2. Make sacrifices: The pressure for excellence has increased in the workplace. With technology comes more accessibility which can add stress to our everyday lives. Sometimes your partner will need to stay late for a meeting, or go on a sudden business trip. You may not be a famous Hollywood couple, but life can still be busy and it takes a strong partner to respect and understand.

3. Lend a hand: If your partner asks for your help, lend a hand with their workload as much as you can. However, if they don't ask for the help, it may be best to leave criticism out of the conversation. These minor actions will show your partner that you support them in whatever way they need!

Kim Kardashian Takes Fashion Advice from Husband Kanye West

By

Sarah Batcheller

In today's celebrity news, UsMagazine.com reveals that reality star Kim Kardashian is enlisting the help of husband Kanye West to revamp her wardrobe for 2015. The famous couple stayed "up all night" to refine looks ready for the new year. The middle sister cites her Givenchy gown that she wore at Paris Fashion Week as her favorite 2014 get-up. Being that the ensemble was slinky and fierce to boot, fans can't wait to see what fashion advice West gave his wife for the new year!

How can you share fashion advice with your partner without being pushy?

Cupid's Advice:

Even if we say we don't, we all have an opinion on what our partner wears. Take a cue from this celebrity relationship, and learn how to influence your partner's style without being overbearing:

1. Change your style, too: Make it a team effort – something fun for the both of you to explore and create. That way, it won't come off as you telling them what they can and cannot wear. Maybe you want to channel a glamorous famous couple like Kardashian and West, or perhaps a more laid-back wardrobe is better suited for your lifestyle.

2. Tell them when they look good: Everyone loves a compliment! Saying something nice about your partner's go-to date night dress will help you come off as supportive instead of bossy. It'll show your partner that you're genuinely interested in their style and love seeing them rock their look. Offer genuine, helpful tips like, "This accentuates your waistline," or "Indigo brings out your eye color."

3. Share constructive fashion advice: Don't just tell them that what they've picked out is tacky. Explain why you feel the way you do about that old sweater or those distressed blue jeans. Help them stay up-to-date on trends while maintaining who they are. It's all about creating a look that speaks to their personality!

'The Bachelor' Season 19 Premiere: Chris Soules Meets 30 Bachelorettes

By

Sarah Batcheller, Lori Bizzoco, and Whitney Johnson

If you watched the season 19 premiere of The Bachelor last night, you know that Chris Soules is in for quite a ride. The Arlington, Iowa native clearly has his hands full with this group of women! After getting booted by Andi Dorfman, there's no telling which dynamic lady will steal his heart – and when we say dynamic, we mean it. His contestants range from a ballet instructor and a flight attendant (a profession that hasn't reigned superior in Bachelor past) to a WWE Diva-in-Training and a former NFL Cheerleader. Some are hotties with big personalities, while others are more bashful and low-key. And then there's the girl who depends a little too heavily on the bottle. Of course, they have one thing in common: They all want the same man. Ahh, aren't you so glad to have season 19 of The Bachelor to start off the new year?

To help you keep up with the 30 bachelorettes vying for Prince Farming's heart, we developed a “cheat sheet” with identifying details and our personal opinion of the women. Who will be sent home in tears? Who will embarrass themselves on national television? And, most importantly, who will get that final rose and prove to be the lady of Soules's dreams? Read on to find out what we think. (Spoilers ahead!)

Which Bachelorette Will Win Chris Soules's Heart on Season 19 of 'The Bachelor'?

Top Contender

Britt, Waitress, Hollywood, CA

After only one night, we think Britt could easily win the single hunk's heart with her sweet composure and warm personality. Her “free hug” idea was a perfect way to capture his attention. It gave him the chance to show his vulnerability, and she got him to open up and trust her. She even got the first impression rose and the first kiss! Nice job! A+ for how to win a man. Still, we have to wonder: What would an L.A. girl do on a farm?

Most Likely to Make Babies

Whitney, Fertility Nurse, Chicago, IL

Whitney is an adorable girl, and Soules said he is excited about her. How could he not be? The girl is smiling from ear to ear and living on cloud nine with her positivity. She sees possibility in everything, including the fact that, because she is a fertility specialist, she could help him raise baby hogs. Not sure her high-pitched, fast-talking, bubbly voice would be a good fit for the laid-back environment of the farm though. She would need to slow down...way down!

Winner of the Bachelorette Look-alike Contest

Kelsey, Guidance Counselor, Austin, TX

We had to do a double-take when we saw Kelsey exit the limo. For a moment, it looked like Molly Maloney (now Mesnick) had stepped back into the scene! This short-haired widow would win the former Bachelor contestant look-alike contest if there was such a thing, but what she is really hoping for is to win Soules's heart. Only time will tell!

Award for Turning The Bachelor on During the Limo Introduction

Megan, Makeup Artist, Nashville, TN

"Blondie." "You're gorgeous." "Blue eyes." "I am nervous." "This is crazy." We thought for a moment that the farmer was going to run away with Megan right then and there! It was obvious that he was extremely attracted to her. One thing though: We were shocked that she was the only one, aside from Tara, who looked like she wasn't wearing makeup.

Best Dressed and Best Eyelashes

Ashley I., Freelance Journalist, Wayne, NJ

This East Coaster gets two awards: One for being absolutely stunning in her formal dress and the other for her long and just as stunning eyelashes. The girl is drop-dead gorgeous, but we need to see if her inside is as pretty as her outside. So far, she is nervous about the other girls, which really makes no sense. Confidence is key, Ashley!

Hardest to Figure Out

Trina, Special Education Teacher, San Clemente, CA

Hello, Farmer Chris! Trina's expression and facial reactions didn't really match her words. There is something somewhat phony about her...but we haven't quite figured it out yet. Stay tuned for more.

Craziest Profession

Reegan, Donated Tissue Specialist, Manhattan Beach, CA

It's a toss-up between embalmer Shawntel Newton and this donated tissue specialist for the craziest profession. Reegan brought biohazard waste to meet a man she's trying impress. Really? Fake heart or not, there are some things that are just too much, too soon!

Official Train Wreck

Tara, Sport Fishing Enthusiast, Ft. Lauderdale, FL

The girl was probably the first in Bachelor history to show up dressed casually. She exited the limo with Daisy Dukes and cowboy boots to show Soules her "real" side. She later changed into a little black dress, climbed into an empty limo, and reintroduced herself as a lady. Unfortunately, she threw down so much Jameson, Jack, and Johnnie (her BFFs, as she mentioned) that she couldn't pull off the classy lady for longer than 30 seconds. Still, the man of the hour (surprisingly) gave her a rose. We can't wait to see what she does next!

Biggest Baby

Amber, Bartender, Chicago, IL

We're not sure what to say here. A 29-year-old woman who still needs her teddy bear for comfort? She definitely doesn't scream "marriage material" to us, but at least she made a memorable impression!

Related Link: The First Official Look at Chris Soules on 'The Bachelor'

Worst Stolen Moment

Nikki, Former NFL Cheerleader, New York, NY

We couldn't help but be disappointed that this beautiful brunette's first moment with Soules was interrupted by Tara's dramatic second hello. Lucky for us, Prince Farming got to know her a bit better at the cocktail party and decided to keep her around!

Wackiest Secret Admirer

Amanda, Ballet Teacher, Lake in the Hills, IL

The idea was good, but the girl is a bit off. As Britt put it, she has big eyes that are almost as scary big as those of Ashley S. As beautifully graceful and sincere as ballet is, Amanda is a little awkward. She even admitted in the confessional booth that she was single because she is crazy!

Most Likely to Bench Press The Bachelor

Jillian, New Producer, Washington, D.C.

Jillian has to be the girl most likely to beat the crap out of you! She's pretty but needs to tone down the testosterone and up her femininity if she wants to make it far in this competition. As of now, she doesn't seem like much of a match for small town guy.

Simplest Single Mom

Mackenzie, Dental Assistant, Maple Valley, VA

This young mom has a cute little boy and is looking for a husband. She asked Chris about his farm and did some watercolor painting with him. He gave her an education on Alfalfa, and the rest is history. Mackenzie is much simpler than the other women, so that may make it hard for her to compete.

Most Awkward Limo Exit (among other things)

Ashley S., Hairstylist, Brooklyn, NY

This was one of the most awkward limo exits we've ever seen. Why it wasn't edited is beyond us, but this girl didn't even look at Soules. She got out and looked around, as if she were high, lost, or confused. Maybe she tried out for the wrong show? During the cocktail party, she spoke in metaphor about being like an onion. Enough said!

Worst Sense of Humor—Ever!

Kaitlyn, Dance Instructor, Vancouver, BC

This girl had a great presence when she exited the limo. But as soon as she opened her mouth, it was all over. She introduced herself by telling an inappropriate joke that didn't seem all that funny. Soules later shut her down when she offered to tell yet another corny joke. Despite her awkwardness, the Bachelor was impressed with how down-to-earth she is.

After the farmer enjoyed some time with the first 15 ladies, the next group of women showed up. The first four to arrive – Samantha, Michelle, Juelia, and Becca – were a bit...boring. They were all gorgeous (no surprise there) but didn't offer much in terms of exciting introductions.

Hottest Introduction

Tandra, Executive Assistant, Sandy, UT

There's no doubt that this girl made an entrance: She drove in on motorcycle in a beautiful dress. It was graceful, and she was showing Soules that they had something immediately in common (he rides a motorcycle too). She also revealed that, as much as she could be a lady, she could let her hair down too. Even the other women thought it was an amazing way to say hello!

Related Link: Chris Harrison Jokingly Slaps Chris Soules in 'Bachelor' Promo

Lamest Prop

Alissa, Flight Attendant, Hamilton, NJ

Alissa is adorable but may be a little immature for Soules. We're still on the fence. For her introduction, she took an airplane seatbelt and put it around his waist. It was a nice technique to get close to him, but she'll need to step it up in order to compete with the other ladies in the house.

Best Ice Breaker

Jordan, Student, Windsor, CO

We didn't get to see much of Jordan tonight, but from what we did see, we like her. She was smart enough to bring the nervous Bachelor two mini-sized bottles of whiskey, which they proceeded to drink together. Something to keep in mind, ladies: Figure out what he likes and do that!

Worst Miss Piggy Impersonation

Nicole, Real Estate Agent, Scottsdale, AZ

Nicole walked out of the limo with what looked like a handmade pig nose that was secured with elastic around her head. It was a cute idea, but it didn't really go over as well as she had hoped. She was sent on her way.

Worst Way to Wear a Doily

Brittany, WWE Diva-in-Training, Orlando, FL

Two strikes for Brittany, thanks to her horrendous outfit (and we mean horrendous) and tacky "Soulesmate" poster. She looked like she was wearing a gigantic doily. If this was a hand-me-down from her great, great grandmother, we apologize, but it wasn't even nice enough for the dining room furniture.

Worst Serenade

Carly, Cruise Ship Singer, Arlington, TX

Carly took her pink, girly karaoke machine and serenaded Soules with a song that she wrote for him. Interestingly, she did this while wearing a fluffy-looking chiffon dress. Carly is a cruise ship singer, which somewhat explains the cheese factor in her gimmick. She was sent back to the ship, her singing was not enough to get her a rose!

Most Adorable Introduction

Tracy, Fourth Grade Teacher, Wellington, FL

Too cute for words. She read a note to the handsome farmer from one of her students, basically telling him to take care of her teacher and that she thinks he's cute and that she likes roses. What's not to like?

Of course, there were other contestants – Jade, Kara, Kimberly, and Bo – but they didn't make a memorable enough impression for us to include them on our list. Unfortunately, at the end of last night's episode, Soules sent home eight women: Nicole, Amanda, Kara, Kimberly, Bo, Brittany, Michelle, and Reegan. Kimberly went back inside for the rose she didn't get...and we were left with another Bachelor cliffhanger.

The Bachelor airs on ABC on Mondays at 8/7c. Check back next week for our recap!

Kim Kardashian Denies Having Marriage Problems and Claims She's Not Pregnant

By

Katie Gray

Everybody's favorite reality star addressed some rumors before ringing in the new year. According to UsMagazine.com, Kim Kardashian took to Twitter on New Year's Eve and wrote, "Lets clear up some rumors before the new year.... I'm bored looking online and seriously don't know where they come up with this stuff!" She went on to share, "No I'm not pregnant. Kanye & I are not having marriage problems. Were literally obsessed with each other!" She also mentioned her favorite Kanye West song with her followers: "Only One." The rapper released it on January 1st as a tribute to their daughter, North West. Kardashian explained, "I cry every time I hear this song."

How do you handle rumors when you're in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors can destroy your relationship if you don't rid yourselves of them soon after they arrive. Cupid has some tips:

1. Address it: When there are rumors surrounding your relationship, it can be very frustrating. The key is to address them straight on. Whether you're in the public eye or not, saying things like "no comment" just adds fuel to the fire. You and your partner can make a statement about what is being said. On the other hand, you don't owe anybody an explanation if you don't want to give one. That being said, it's good to discuss it with your partner so you are both on the same page.

2. Bond with your partner: When things are being said about your relationship, they can certainly take their toll. Don't allow that to happen. All that matters is what you and your partner believe and feel. This is why it's important to connect with your partner and bond more than ever during tough times. Remind each other how committed you are and realize that it doesn't matter what other people say.

3. Shake it off: Just like Taylor Swift sings in her hit song, shake it off! Ignore whatever negative things are being said about your relationship. Rumors are irrelevant, and you shouldn't let them affect your life. If people are talking about you, it's because they have nothing better to do. Only surround yourself with positive and uplifting individuals!

Miley Cyrus Meets Boyfriend

Patrick's Dad Arnold Schwarzenegger

By

Maggie Manfredi

Talk about meeting the parents! According to UsMagazine.com, celebrities united for one of the most coveted relationship milestones on Dec. 29 when Patrick Schwarzenegger introduced Miley Cyrus to his father Arnold Schwarzenegger, former governor and actor. They all did dinner in Idaho, and Cyrus dressed conservative (compared to her recent wigs and nipple pasties) for the occasion. An insider stated, "Arnold knows his place as father. He's happy for Patrick and was thrilled that Patrick introduced him to Miley."

How do you know when it's time to introduce your partner to your parents?

Cupid's Advice:

Meeting the parents is a big step, so how do you know when you're ready? Cupid has some tips:

1. Timing is important: If you are in a monogamous relationship that means a great deal to you, then you may be ready to meet your beau's family. Make sure it feels right and seems like the appropriate next step. Remember that you shouldn't involve your loved ones until things are serious.

2. Keep it simple: Don't add too much pressure to your relationship by springing this special event on your partner at the last minute or having a super fancy dinner. Make sure both your significant other and your parents are comfortable.

3. It's a commitment: You should only take this step for long-term relationships. Your parents don't need to meet every person you date, just the ones you love and are fully committed to (for your sake and theirs).

I'll usually cook a meal for everyone, help them with homework, that's usually our date night. Otherwise, he's an amazing husband."

What are three ways to inspire your partner to be successful in his/her career?

Cupid's Advice:

For a couple to be successful, you have to each follow your individual dreams while also setting goals together. Cupid has some tips:

Alleged Abuse

By

Maggie Manfredi

If you wanna be my lover, you gotta get with my fans! According to UsMagazine.com, Melanie Brown, better known as Mel B., finally addressed the public on the rumors that her husband has been abusing her. The Spice Girls alum recently shared on Instagram, "This is for my fans havin problems with my Twitter will be back soon! I'm very good was very polly but much better now and for the record my hubby never would lay a hand on me sorry took so long but any response fuels rumors #lovemyfamily #lovemyfans."

What are some ways to keep rumors about your relationship to a minimum?

Cupid's Advice:

The rumor mill can be a dark place for relationships, so Cupid has some tips on how to survive it:

1. Stay off social media: If you're having a bad day or a silly fight, don't post about it. It can be easy to feel the urge to vent to your friends, but often times, it does more damage than good. Things live on in social media history, so take a deep breath and really think before posting your feelings on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram.

2. Your problems are your problems: If you don't want rumors to spread, don't give people anything to share. It's as simple as that. If you do feel the need to address them (like Mel B.), keep it simple and to the point. Don't write a novel or go into too much detail.

3. Don't sweat the small stuff: If there are silly rumors out there that are false, don't let them tear you and your partner apart. Just laugh it off because giving the rumors attention only heightens them. Remember to keep the truth in the back of your mind, no matter what lies are floating around.
