

Report: Kim Kardashian and Brandon Jenner Kissed 'Back in the Day'

By

Shannon Seibert

Shots fired! On the latest episode of Keeping Up With the Kardashians, Brody Jenner revealed to viewers that his brother Brandon had done some smooching with Kim Kardashian back in the day. The accusation came out after Brody Jenner had walked in on Kardashian staging a photo shoot in a barely-there outfit for her new husband Kanye West. Kris Jenner had accused Brody Jenner of being turned on by seeing her daughter in provocative clothing, but Brody quickly deflected and turned all eyes to his big brother. According to UsMagazine.com, Kim Kardashian has always had good relationship with both Brody and Brandon Jenner, so this small incident will probably be swept under the rug.

What are some things to consider about revealing your past to your new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

The past is supposed to be in the past, but that doesn't mean you can't learn from it. Bringing up your past to your partner can be difficult, and at times, slightly awkward. There is no reason to relive it, but there are some things that have contributed to the person you are today that your man should know about.

1. The people who have shaped you: There are monumental people in everyone's lives that make a difference on how they live it. For example, certain exs may have left you with a couple of battle scars, your man has the right to know what they are. Also, if you have had any family members that have shaped you in either a positive or a negative light, this could be something worth sharing. By opening a channel of honesty you can funnel your deepest feelings to your partner. In return, he should do the same for you.

2. Where you've come from: Over time, circumstances change. Your starting point will never match your end point in your journey of life. You may have started from the bottom of the food chain and have impressively worked your way up. Or maybe you and a difficult home life or trouble in school. Each factor has helped contribute to who you are as a person, and there is no reason to shy away from that.

3. What you have accomplished: The past doesn't have to entail things that you're ashamed of, it can also hold some of your happiest memories. Give your man a peak inside your world and share with him some of your fondest moments from your childhood, your teenage years, and beyond. Show him the world through your eyes, he may find your viewpoint more beautiful than he'd ever imagine.

Behati Prinsloo Has 'Definite' Plans to Have Kids with Adam Levine

By

Shannon Seibert

Newlyweds Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo may be celebrating their honeymoon in South Africa but the happy couple has even bigger plans for when they return. After a fun and extravagant wedding, what more could there be? Well, the Victoria's Secret model revealed in a recent interview with Net-a-Porter that she and the Maroon 5 singer had "definite" plans for kickstarting a family together. According to UsMagazine.com, Prinsloo told Net-a-Porter: "I have no expectations. Not in a bad way, but I've learned that you can't plan ahead. I live day by day and see what happens."

What are some ways to decide when to have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

In theory, first comes love, marriage, and then, presumably, a baby carriage. After the dust settles after getting married, couples' thoughts jump to "Now what?" Marriage and babies have always gone hand in hand, but you want to make sure that you're fully prepared to take the next step towards starting a family. Consider these three criteria when your baby fever starts showing symptoms, you want to be ready for the moment that a little heart beat on the monitor that will change everything:

1. You're financially stable: According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, parents will spend an average of $235,000 to raise a child born in 2011 to the age of 17. Now imagine if you want 3 children. Although seemingly expensive, the experiences of children are ultimately priceless. You'll never find a bond stronger than the bond between parent and child. But to get there, you want to make sure you'll be able to meet all of your child's needs when necessary. Take some time to budget your finances and prioritize what is important and what is needed to start your beautiful family.

Related: Daniel Radcliffe Says He Loves the 'Idea of Lots of Kids'

2. You've been able to enjoy being married, first: The minute you bring your first little miracle into the world is the minute that it isn't just you and your man anymore. Take it a day at a time like Behati Prinsloo and Adam Levine. There will never again be a time where all you have to do is provide for you and your husband. Take this time before children and enjoy each other's company. Go on trips together, go on as many dates as you can, and focus on the endless love that your relationship has brought each other. This period of happiness will bring you many fond memories down the road, and even greater stories to tell your future children.

3. There is no more room for doubt: Being a parent is the most rewarding, frightening, and strenuous unpaid job. You ultimately become responsible for the life of another human being until they can manage on their own. You may accumulate a few grey hairs throughout the process, but it's worth it. When you're young you may feel like having children is what you're supposed to do, when in reality it should be a choice of whether or not you want to. Make sure you're in a place where you are ready to accept your role as a parent and that you're definitely ready to build a family.

In addition, she shared with fans a photo of herself and Gaga, saying, “Gracias JM gracias NM Sorry Manolo,” apologizing to her son and thanking Nick and Joe, who were invited by Gaga to attend the show.

What are three fun activities for double dates?

Cupid’s Advice:

What comes to mind when you think of double dates? Probably endless stories from when you tried it as a teenager, and maybe even a few adult ones. Although single dates can be intimate and romantic, there’s nothing wrong with switching it up every now and again. Invite your mutual friends out for a little double date fun! Cupid has some activity ideas to consider when you want to add some company in the mix:

1. Amusement park: Rollercoasters, funnel cakes, cotton candy, games & attractions . . . the list goes on and on. You are destined to have a good time while at an amusement park. Plus, this is the perfect chance to channel your inner child. A group of friends screaming at the top of their lungs on a ride that overlooks the city. Sounds like nothing short of a good time!

2. Concert: Have a favorite artist in common with your coupled friends? Purchase tickets for the artist’s able that may be coming to town. If it is outdoors, grab a blanket, some food/drinks, and call it a picnic at a concert!

3. Random activity: Find a class that may be going on for the day, such as a dance or art session, and sign you all up for it. The date will revolve more so around the participation, and less around the conversation. Maybe even make it a challenge for each couple (the losing pair owes the winners dinner?).

How do you have fun with your partner on vacation?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're on vacation with your partner, you're bound to have fun no matter what you're doing. However, there are some ways to have fun on vacation that you may not have thought about! Here are some great activities to make your romantic getaway even better:

1. Get out of the tourist area and see the local shops. If you're feeling adventurous and have a reliable map, look around the more local places that most vacationers don't see. Visit that cozy little café, or explore the rustic antique shop outside the city. There are plenty of great places that so many tourists pass up just because they aren't in the travel brochure.

2. Take lessons for something you've never done before. Try out surfing, scuba diving, or something completely crazy like hang gliding. It's an experience you'll never forget, and learning to do something with your partner is a great way to build teamwork.

3. Spend a day just relaxing. Many people think that when you're on vacation you have to get going and do everything you can in the time you're there. But you're there to have fun! You can't have as much fun if you're exhausted. Sometime in the middle of your getaway, just spend a day relaxing at the hotel. Spend some time at the pool, watching movies while snuggling in bed, and just take the day to enjoy your down time together.

By Laura

Jessica Simpson was showing off her figure as she Instagrammed a photo of herself during her honeymoon with Eric Johnson. The couple enjoyed their honeymoon together at the Four Season Punta Mita Resort in Mexico. A source tells UsMagazine.com that "They had an amazing time and looked so in love during the entire visit."

What are some fashion must-brings for your honeymoon?

Cupid's Advice:

You might not be single and looking to impress anymore, but that doesn't mean you can't look drop-dead gorgeous on your honeymoon. If anything it gives you more of a reason to look stunning and show your man just how lucky he is to have you as his own. Here are some ways to look amazing on your honeymoon:

1. Bring a new, body-flattering bikini. If you're going somewhere tropical for your honeymoon, you can bet that you'll want to spend some time at the beach or by the pool. Show off your beach body with a bikini that flatters your shape and lets everyone know that just because you're married doesn't mean you're boring.

2. Bring some comfy, yet stylish jeans or shorts. This is your honeymoon, and you're meant to relax and enjoy it. After all the stress of planning a wedding and trying to find the perfect dress, you need to have some clothes that let you just breathe and have fun.

3. Bring your cheesy 'just married' clothes. It might seem silly at first, but this might be the only time you can ever pull off wearing these little 'just married' styles. It can be something as simple as a bracelet or all-out with matching shirts for you and your husband. Not only are they adorable for the honeymoon, but you can keep them for the memories and show them to your kids in the future.

Sarah Hyland Says Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello Would Make 'Hot Babies'

By

Shannon Seibert

'Modern Family' star Sofia Vergara is in all of the latest headlines for her new, sizzling relationship with Joe Manganiello. Her costar, Sarah Hyland, plays her niece Haley on the show, and she recently opened up to UsMagazine.com about Vergara's relationship. Hyland said Vergara and Manganiello looked really hot together. "They'd make really hot babies," added Hyland.

How do you know if steamy attraction is blinding your good judgment?

Cupid's Advice:

When a woman is asked to describe their perfect man the words "handsome" or "attractive" are usually some of the first words to come to mind. Looks are a vital point in chemistry between two people, but they aren't everything. When in a relationship with an extremely attractive partner, be sure to not let his steamy appearance cloud your judgement. Ask yourself these three questions to ensure you aren't allowing your vision to be skewed.

1. What else do you like about him? If your first thoughts on your man jump to the way his abs are chiseled, you may have to take a step back and get ahold of yourself. Yes, we all love a good washboard but what about your man's heart? If it isn't in the right place this relationship may just remain stagnant until one or both of you find someone to move forward with.

Related: 'Bachelorette' Andi Dorfman Brings Two Men to Fantasy Suite

2. Do you let him get away with more than you should? Say you're out on a date and as you're ordering your chicken marsala he starts talking up your waitress. Normally this isn't okay by any standard. You're starving but he can't help it, right? It's not his fault that he's so attractive. So you let him get away with it. This is an example of thinking with organs other than your brain, it's not just men who do it. Be sure to keep yourself from letting him walk all over you, or lead you to want to walk away.

3. You find your insecurities becoming more present: When you're dating an extremely attractive person, it's normal to feel insecure. In relationships, couples become hyper-aware of interactions between their mate and the opposite sex. You may fear that he will cross the line but remember that he chose you to be with. You're just as much of a goddess as he appears to be a god to you. Simmer down and cage the jealous green monster.

Jennifer Aniston Gushes About 'Handsome' Fiance Justin Theroux

By

Sanetra Richards

The cat is definitely out of the bag! Jennifer Aniston has remained mute about her relationship with fiance Justin Theroux for some time, but now the actress is showing her admiration for her handsome future hubs. According to UsMagazine.com, the Horrible Bosses 2 star was not afraid to get a little googly eyed when talking about her longtime love at a bash hosted by Details magazine on Tuesday, July 15th in West Hollywood: "He's so graceful and utterly kind and golden," told the 45-year-old to Women's Wear Daily. It is amazing. He's just so beautiful and handsome to me, and I love that his eyeballs are so beautifully captured because those eyes just knock me out every day," Aniston continued, gushing about the Leftovers actor landing the cover of the magazine's August issue. "He just gets better every year." In complete awe of her beau, she noted him as a "lost gem" in the sand. He's just always been there and been brilliant, and now this is just in a different light," she said.

What are three factors to consider before getting engaged?

Cupid's Advice:

“Here comes the bride...” Not yet! You have wedding bells on your mind, but are not quite sure if it is the right time. After all, timing is truly everything. You and your partner have discussed taking the relationship further. Unfortunately, hesitation gets the best of both of you for various reasons. Cupid has some things to think about before agreeing to become one:

1. Compatibility: Can you see yourself with this person until the end of time? The attraction should be apparent and undeniable. After all, if you do indeed say “yes” or your partner does, you are planning to spend every day with them through the good and the bad. If you cannot envision yourself with anyone else, and they are your soul mate . . . it may be time for that life changing step.

2. Finances (of course): Not to say it all revolves around money, but it is a key factor to consider before making marriage plans. The two of you should keep in mind your financial stability. Avoid depending on each other for that security. Marriage comes with expenses.

3: Family: Be sure to talk with your significant other about building a family and the connection each of you have with each others’ families. Do you want kids? Jessica Simpson Posts Daring Pic of Eric Johnson

By

Sanetra Richards

These newlyweds are still on Honeymoon Avenue! Jessica Simpson and husband Eric Johnson are certainly enjoying their lives together and the romance is exuding. According to UsMagazine.com, the singer and actress uploaded a photo on Instagram of her love having a little fun in the sunset. The caption simply stated, "Hallelujah," with her new husband showing his flexibility while posing with one foot on the balcony edge and the other on the roof. The 34-year-old athlete was dressed in shorts and T-shirt, and wore a smile as an accessory while standing still for his wife to capture the moment.

What are some ways to capture romantic memories outside of pictures?

Cupid's Advice:

For decades, pictures have been one of the most common ways to have an actual tangible memory. Lately, you have been wanting to think outside of the box when it comes to capturing those special times with your partner, but nothing is coming to mind. Well, Cupid has some romantic ways to capture those sweet, precious memories other than by using photographs:

1. Love letters: Express your affection through a letter. May seem old-fashioned, but it takes time and thought to actually compose a few sentences in which you are telling your inner most feeling, AKA pouring your heart out on a piece of paper that can last a lifetime. Those words will leave an everlasting memory on your partner.

2. Video footage: Use the camera for something else, like capturing a video. Your love can be shown for seconds, minutes, even hours if need be. Your significant other will also have this to look back at if they are ever missing your face AND voice. Record one of your silly moments together, for those times when they may need a good laugh. Record a time during one of your weekend dates, for those times when you want to reminisce. Cute idea, right?

3. Small tokens: Give your partner a gift that will spark a memory you shared together, such as, a chocolate they may have fallen in love with while you two were at a candy factory. It does not have to be an extravagant gift, just something to let them know you haven't forgotten the little things. . . and neither will they.

Source Says Ryan Gosling Cooks for Eva Mendes and Baby

By Laura Seaman

Yet another celebrity baby is on the way, and father Ryan Gosling is ready. The handsome Notebook actor has been caring for pregnant girlfriend Eva Mendes by both shopping and cooking for her. The couple first met in 2011, back when Gosling was quoted about wanting to have children. Now that it's happening, he seems just as excited. A source tells UsMagazine.com, "Ryan has already stepped into the role of caring father-to-be."

What are some ways to support your pregnant partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy is a unique, magical experience. However, sometimes it can feel less than magical to the mother. Some tasks are harder and everything seems to drain your energy a little faster than usual. That's why it's so important to have a supportive partner around! Here are some ways to support your partner during their pregnancy:

1. Take the time to be there. If you want to show that you'll be a supportive parent after the child is born, show your support for your partner by being there here and now. Take some days off work, put your phone aside, and spend quality time with your partner. Talk about what they're feeling, what you're feeling, and what you can do to help them out on a day to day basis.

2. Read the books and go to the classes. Preparing for a child, especially if it's your first, can mean reading a lot of pregnancy and parenting books or going to birthing and parenting classes. It shows dedication if you actively take part in these prepping activities and your efforts won't go unnoticed.

3. Do some extra work around the house. Even if it's the seemingly small task of dusting a room, cooking a meal, or getting some beautiful flowers to put on the kitchen table, these are small things your partner doesn't have to do and will thank you for noticing. Parenting means teamwork, and this is an amazing start for you.

Penn Badgley and Domino Kirke Sport Jorts on NYC Date Night

Seaman

By Laura

Penn Badgley and girlfriend Domino Kirke had a date night in New York City with both wearing casual jean shorts. The couple went for an evening walk around the city and grabbed a bite to eat while just sitting on a city bench. The two have been an item for a while, according to UsMagazine.com and have quite a few mutual friends.

What are some ways to influence your partner's style?

Cupid's Advice:

Nothing says 'cute couple' like coordinating outfits. As Badgley and Kirke have shown, even the most casual of matching outfits can look adorable. If you want your partner to start showing how stylish they can be, here are some tips to let them know without being obvious:

1. Go shopping with them and lend your opinion. If you're with your partner at the mall or at the store, point out pieces of clothing that you like and encourage them to try it on. Tell them how great certain clothes would look on them and encourage them to let you buy it for them, or to buy it themselves.

2. Give them clothes as gifts. Even if your partner isn't with you when you see that perfect shirt or amazing pair of pants, that doesn't mean you can't buy them. Just give it to them as a gift! Say you were thinking of them when you saw it, and you just had to get it for them. Just remember to keep the receipt!

How can pets bring you closer as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting a pet is a huge decision to make as a couple. It's a living, breathing creature that needs your dedication and teamwork to be happy. It needs love, attention, and basic caretaking. It's not a child, but after a while you might come to love it like one. Here are some ways a pet can make you fall in love and make your love for your partner even stronger:

1. A pet is a shared interest. At this point it should be clear that you both want a pet, and that's one thing on a long list of traits you most likely share. However, this interest is more than a hobby. It's the desire to take care of an animal, and that's a very strong common trait to have. Not only does it mean you love animals, but it means you're willing to be responsible.

Related: Dating with Dogs: Pet Responsibilities

2. Your teamwork will be stronger. As long as you both put in the work, this pet will bring you closer as a team. Maybe you haven't worked on many projects together, but this pet is a project that you're responsible for. As it grows and becomes a part of the family, you and your partner can see just how great your work together can be.

Related: Dating with Dogs: What to Discuss Before Getting a Pet

3. It's a step in commitment. A pet is usually one of the first steps in creating a family. It's sort of a pre-child test. After all, if you can't take care of a dog, how can you take care of a person? This pet adds a sense of permanence to the relationship as well. The pet is something you both own and can call 'yours' not just 'his' or 'hers'.

Justin Theroux Says He Fell in Love in a “Real, Legit Fashion”

By

Sanetra Richards

Believe it or not, according to UsMagazine.com, Justin Theroux says he fell in love in a “real, legit fashion” with Jennifer Aniston. They have a normal, romantic relationship. In the August issue of Details, the 42-year-old Leftovers actor revealed they connected immediately just by reminiscing on a few memories of the “Waldorf grade-schooling they both received.” The two met back in 2007, when mutual friend Robert Downey Jr. introduced them to one another: “He and Jen fell in a real, legit fashion,” the actor told Details, “and he was willing from the jump to make sacrifices.” Since then, Theroux has been sure not to let the attention influence his ego or his relationship. “It doesn’t feel like a hardship; it doesn’t feel difficult,” he explained. “It can be an annoyance, but it’s not the end of the world. You have to center on what its core thing is, which is that you met someone you fell in love with. “

How do you know that you’re truly in love?

Cupid’s Advice: Finding love is one of the greatest feelings of all time. You’ve had your fair share of admirers in the past, but now, you think this special someone is here to stay. And guess what? You may actually be in love! Cupid has some ways to tell if you’re feelings are real:

1. Nothing feels better: Your head is up in the clouds; your heart flutters every time you see them; and you can’t stop daydreaming about the future – all of these feelings are undeniable. A relationship has never felt so great before. So what truly makes this time different? Ask yourself a few questions to see if you have indeed been shot by Cupid: What will I sacrifice for my partner? Do I see a future together? Is commitment an issue? Your responses will let you know if you’re in love or not.

What are some ways to help your friend find a mate?

Cupid's Advice:

There are plenty of reasons to set up your single friend. You could go out on double dates! It also might make them happier, get them out of the house more, or maybe just stop them from moping about being single. No matter the reason, Cupid is here to help you help your friend by finding them a mate:

1. Help them set up an online profile. It might take some convincing, but if you can get them to agree to it, setting up a profile on a dating website is a great way to get your friend to meet potential partners. After all, that's what the sites are for. And who better to help them list all their little quirks and charms than their friend?

2. Set them up with another friend. If you trust someone enough to be their friend, you can probably trust them enough to treat your other friend well. You already know how amazing these two people are, so setting them up together might seem like a no-brainer. Just be careful, because there's always the chance that it won't end well and the two friends ask you to pick sides.

3. Be an amazing wingman (or wingwoman). If your friend is shy, they might need an extra push to go socialize on a night out. You can scope out the place for someone who is attractive and seems like their type, then cook up a plan to get them talking. Make sure your friend is okay with this! Otherwise you might have a pretty awkward encounter on your hands.

Cameron Diaz and Benji Madden Visit Her Parents in Florida

By Laura

Seaman

Benji Madden and Cameron Diaz are enjoying the sun and surf in Orlando, Florida, while also taking another step in their relationship. Over the Fourth of July weekend, not only did Madden enjoy the beach with Diaz, but met her family as well. “She goes there every summer and spends time hanging out on the beach with her aunt and her mom,” a source tells UsMagazine.com. “She is super laid back and didn’t hesitate for a second to introduce him to her family.”

What are some unique ways to introduce your partner to your parents?

Cupid’s Advice:

It can be awkward and nerve-racking to take the step of introducing your partner to your parents. These are the people who raised you, and to some parents, nobody will ever be good enough for their baby. Instead of going with the classic approach of having your partner over for a family dinner, try some of these unique introductions:

1. Go on a family trip. A trip to the beach seemed to go well for Diaz and Madden, so maybe it could work for you, too. A nice relaxing trip to the lake or beach is a great way for everyone to unwind and make the welcoming process go much smoother. A day off makes everyone happy, and happy parents are a great start.

2. Go to a party together. If there's a birthday party or other family event coming up, it might be a good idea to bring your partner along. Parties are fun and help people unwind, so it's the perfect way to relieve the tension of a first meeting. It's also a great way for the entire family to meet your partner instead of just hearing about them from your parents.

With one of the most unique fairytales, newlyweds Jill Duggar and Derick Dillard shared a romantic evening on the town to celebrate two official weeks of marriage. The 19 Kids and Counting star Instagrammed a photo of her and her new hubby at the dinner table, grinning from ear to ear. The pair shared their first kiss together on the day of their wedding and have seemed elated ever since, according to UsMagazine.com

What are some unique milestones to celebrate as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone knows the first year anniversary, the 25, and 50 year markers are traditionally significant to a marriage, but each couple can celebrate relationship markers that are significant to them individually. When celebrating your time with your beloved, take into account these special dates that we've pulled together for you and your hubby.

1. 100 day anniversary: The lucky 100! You and your honey have spent 100 days together as husband and wife, and hopefully there are many more to come. 100 is a traditionally lucky number so celebrate this day with all things 100. Come up with 100 things you love about each other, 100 things you want to do together as a couple, and maybe 100 places you want to go together.

2. The anniversary of your first kiss: For some this is the same as the first date, but for others this can be something different entirely. The first kiss became the first of many, and it's a relevant milestone to celebrate. Kissing is highly romantic and a first kiss is usually greatly anticipated. Couples such as Duggar and Dillard who waited until their wedding day for their first kiss, this occasion can seem more monumental. Marvel in your past anticipation and be thankful that you'll have many more kisses to anticipate.

3. The anniversary of the day you first met: Some couples met when they were five years-old, for others they met a little over a year ago. Every couple has a story and this occasion is perfect for reminiscing in yours. Utilize this day as a time for seeing how much you've changed as a couple from the beginning. Chances are, you aren't the same people you were. In fact, there's an even greater chance that you've made each other even better than you used to be.

Brody Jenner Says He 'Never' Dated Lauren Conrad

By

Sanetra Richards

Brody Jenner is letting the cat out of the bag! According to UsMagazine.com, the former Hills star is letting it all be known in his latest podcast, The Brody Jenner Podcast with Dr. Mike Dow. In addition to revealing he dated his brother Brandon's wife Leah at one point in time, Brody Jenner and Lauren Conrad never dated, despite what the show may have portrayed. As Dow began to name a few of Jenner's past lovers, such as Avril Lavigne, Kristin Cavallari, Lauren Conrad, and Nicole Richie, Jenner stopped him in his tracks, saying, "That's false. Lauren Conrad and I never dated. Lauren and I have always been just friends," the Bromance stud went on to say. "We worked together on a show called The Hills where we had to pretend like we were dating, but we never dated." After clearing up the L.C. rumors, the 30-year-old was also asked about his other “relationship” with cast mate Kristin Cavallari and if that too was staged. “I dated Kristin when we were very young ... when she was on Laguna Beach and I was on a show called Princes of Malibu with Spencer Pratt ... we met at a party in Hollywood ... but during [The Hills] when we filmed, Kristin and I did not date, we were not hooking up.”

What are some ways to squelch rumors about your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Have you come across a situation similar to Brody Jenner’s and Lauren Conrad’s? Ever heard a bizarre rumor about something that happened (or didn’t happen) in your personal life and wondered, “Where do people come up with these kinds of things?” But you never knew how to put an end to all the crazy talk. Cupid had some tips for the next time someone spreads inaccurate information about your relationship:

1. Clear the air: The best way to probably put an end to all the madness is to state the facts. Without a doubt, the speculations will continue if something is not said. Let it be known that whatever has been disclosed is untrue. Feel free to reveal any other information that may provide evidence on why it is false.

2. Ignore the nonsense: Not constantly feeding into rumors can also be used as method in helping them die down. Try not to pay it too much mind and all of the gossip will gradually disappear once people notice you are not giving in.

3. Talk it over with the person it’s affected: You are certainly not the only one the craziness of a relationship rumor has affected. Be sure to discuss its impact with your partner (or speculated one). They probably want it to come to an end just as bad as you do – and are willing to do whatever it may take to make this happen.

Jessica DeRubbo

‘Duck Dynasty’ star Uncle Si explains why wife, Christine

Robertson, isn't on TV. "Sometimes we film 12 hours a day, and she's just not healthy enough to go through the rigors of that," said Si Robertson, according to UsMagazine.com.

What are some ways to help your partner through health issues?

Cupid's Advice:

Although it's not a good thing to pretend to be a doctor, there are other things you can do to support your partner through health scares like Uncle Si does to support his wife. Cupid has some advice:

1. Be there: It seems obvious, but being there when your partner goes to doctor's appointments and takes medicine can really show you care.

Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck Celebrate 9th Wedding Anniversary

By

Shannon Seibert

America's sweethearts Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck celebrated their 9th wedding anniversary this past weekend. The stars married back in 2005 and are now the proud parents of three beautiful children. According to UsMagazine.com, the lovebirds enjoyed a romantic low-key dinner with red wine at Bistro 82 in Detroit, Michigan, where Affleck is currently filming Batman v. Superman: Dawn of Justice.

What are some ways to spice up a long-term marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a partnership, a love story, and, most importantly, a long-term commitment. To keep a marriage happy and healthy, it requires a lot of work on both ends. After a while, routine becomes inevitable, and couples can get too comfortable with one another. Sometimes, to get back on track, you have to make yourself uncomfortable and try new things. We've pulled together three ideas to keep your marriage feeling fresh and new.

1. Go on adventures: In many marriages, taking care of the kids, paying the bills, and going to work become the top priorities. Avoid neglecting your relationship by going out on spontaneous excursions together. Spending a weekend at a nearby bed and breakfast or going out for date night in another town can help rekindle those feelings from when you started dating.

2. Flirt with each other: When you're married, you have to keep dating your spouse. The stolen glances, the suggestive comments, and the subtle hints may seem trivial at this point, but they are all key factors in keeping the spark alive. Men like feeling wanted as much as women do, so send a little wink his way every now and then! By courting your spouse, it reminds them that you still want them in the same way you did when you first got together.

3. Make plans without the kids: Yes, they are your pride and joy, but you and your man were together before children were even a thought. Splurge on that tropical vacay that you've been saving for. It doesn't make you any less of a parent by spending a weekend on a cruise ship without them. If anything, by keeping your marriage healthy, you're setting an excellent example for the standards of your children's future relationships.

Keith Urban Serenades Nicole Kidman on Stage for 8th Anniversary

By

Sanetra Richards

Want to show your love? Try singing it! According to UsMagazine.com, that is exactly what Keith Urban did for his wife, Nicole Kidman, at his concert in Melbourne, Australia on Wednesday, June 25th. The country star made their eighth wedding anniversary special by performing his self-written 2006 song "Once in a Lifetime" for his love (and rest of the audience). "A couple of months before the wedding, we were in our hotel, and we were talking about the future, and Nic was getting very nervous about marrying me," Urban told fans. "She was saying things like 'It's a long shot,' but I knew she loved me and was just nervous. I did everything I could to remind her that I was going to be her man forever," he continued before performing his sultry ballad. Urban didn't stop there – he went on to sing "Making Memories of Us." "This is a song a lot of people have at their wedding," Urban said. "We had it at ours. I sung it. I was too cheap to get anybody else, " he joked. "Eight years, baby girl. This song is for you." He then expressed his adoration to his wife, who was sitting in the VIP box. "I love you so much."

What are some ways music can make your anniversary special?

Cupid's Advice:

Your special day is coming up, and you have no idea what to do for your partner of X amount of years. Of course, you want to make it memorable and nothing like before. What better way than to incorporate music into your planning? Cupid has three ways that a sweet melody will sweep your sweetheart off their feet:

1. Music is symbolic: Do you and your partner have "a song"? If so, include that tune in your anniversary planning. Maybe it's the song you both heard for the first time on a date and fell in love with it (and each other) instantly. Or perhaps it's a song that describes your relationship perfectly. If you're looking for a new song to bring into your relationship, listen to Taylor Swift's "Our Song."

2. It says something that you've been thinking: Want to tell your significant other something you have been dying to get off of your chest but can't quite put it into words? Well, try playing a song for them and showing how much you love and adore their presence in your life. Best way to go!

3. It sets the perfect mood: Your partner will be on cloud nine or higher to know that you were thoughtful enough to come up with a song in honor of your anniversary. The lyrics or tempo will have significance to them for years to come.

Daniel Radcliffe New Girlfriend Erin Darke Have
'Great Chemistry'

By

Shannon Seibert

Not only is their magic on screen but there is magic in the air. Star of the wizarding world Daniel Radcliffe is happily in love with his new girlfriend Erin Darke. The pair made their first red carpet appearance together at the Tony Awards. The couple met while filming Kill Your Darlings in 2012, but took their love-filled relationship into the spotlight just this past month, according UsMagazine.com.

How do you determine if the chemistry in your relationship is strong enough?

Cupid's Advice:

When you've been in a relationship for quite a while, you'll notice the "new" feeling begins to wear off. You're used to each other and each other's routines. Eventually you both create your own routine together. In order to keep the chemistry alive you have to find out whether or not the relationship will be worthwhile. Check for these three signs to see if your couple chemistry is going strong:

1. You get the traditional butterflies: When you catch their eye you feel your stomach dip, or your heart flutter. Even if it is only a little bit, your brain is telling you that you are happy to see them. You recognize their presence as a signal for love and happiness. If you still catch him looking at you like they way he looked at you when you first started dating, you know the chemistry is still sizzling strong.

2. You talk about him all the time: When people love someone the person they love always seems to surface as a topic of conversation. You may get comments from your friends saying that they have already heard all about your inside jokes with your man. Though silly, it's reassuring that your partner is still a focal point for what you're passionate about. So what if you talk about him all the time? He's all yours to brag about.

3. You looked forward to alone time: Not only do you love going out and showing off your man, but you constantly find yourself impatiently waiting to get him all to yourself. When there is a lot of chemistry between two people they're always in each other's thoughts, although some of these thoughts are definitely more private than others. A good romantic relationship with a good sexual relationship leads to a strong and healthy relationship for a couple.

Channing Tatum Divorce Rumors Untrue

By

Shannon Seibert

The world almost collapsed under the rumors of Channing Tatum and Jenna Dewan's divorce. Rumors could not be more false, rest assured. The couple could not be happier since their wedding in 2009. The Step Up stars have recently been seen glowing in each other's arms, according to UsMagazine.com.

How do you keep outside pressures from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult not to listen to the opinions of your loved ones since they mean so much to you, but this is your relationship. Your relationship is between you and your partner so therefore you should focus the energy between you and your partner alone. Check out these tips for handling external pressures that may be weighing on your relationship:

1. Filter what you hear: It's definitely important to listen to what people are saying about your relationship, because there is usually an underlying truth. But people are people and they tend to exaggerate the details of most stories and conjure some pretty extensive rumors. Don't let the words of others get a rise out of you when you know your partner probably better than most anyone else. Stay strong and listen to what is said, but only do what your heart says is right.

2. Talk about it: Talking with your partner is key to a healthy relationship. Whether it's financial struggles, social issues, or any other problems, an open communication line is the best tool to have under your belt. By talking to your love about what is on your mind the both of you can work together to diminish the issues that may be surfacing. It's important to set boundaries and fully understand each other's opinions to come to a conclusion that you agree on. Together you'll emerge stronger than ever as a united front.

3. Don't stress over little messes: The more you talk about a problem, the bigger the problem gets. If you find yourself constantly bringing up a past issue it won't stay in the past. By making it relevant again you invite the stress back into your life. Also, by making a huge deal out of a little situation, such as not walking the dog two days in a row, you'll begin to pick fights with your partner. Destress by learning to sort the big pressures from the little ones, and you'll find yourself in a stronger and happier relationship.

Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher Are 'Meant to Be' Says Twin Brother

By Laura Seaman

In a recent interview with UsMagazine.com, Ashton Kutcher's twin brother Michael talked about the relationship between his brother and Mila Kunis. "They reunited after 14 years, and I think they were meant to be," he said. "They make such a great couple. I'm so happy for them, I really am. Ashton is in a really great place right now." The couple first met when working as costars on That '70s Show, which aired from 1998 to 2006.

What are some advantages to becoming romantic with a long-time friend?

Cupid's Advice:

There is a lot of risk that comes with asking out a friend. You could be 'friend-zoned' or the relationship might crash and burn, taking your friendship down with it. But not to fear! Sometimes these friendships-turned-relationships work out, and they become some of the best romances you could imagine. Here are some of the advantages to turning a friend into something more:

1. You can skip the awkward first date process. When you're friends with someone, chances are you've gone out to dinner or had a movie night together at some point. Usually these types of dating activities can be awkward ice-breakers at first, but with friends there's no need to make attempts at weird small talk or get-to-know-you games.

2. Their family already knows you. In most cases, you already know your friend's family to a point. True, this will completely change the way they see you, but now your friend's family already knows how great you are and how you've stuck by their little boy or girl over the years. This scores some points that a random stranger wouldn't get.

3. You know that this person already makes you happy. Yes, you'll have to explore the physical and romantic aspects more, but when it comes to whether or not this person can make you happy on an emotional level, you know your friend already qualifies. When two strangers date, they have to build up both the romance and the friendship. But when you're dating your friend, you're already halfway there!

Benji Madden Says He's 'Lucky' to be Dating Cameron Diaz

Seaman

By Laura

In an interview with the Nova FM radio station, Benji Madden said that him and his brother were “lucky guys.” The rock star was recently spotted holding hands while getting coffee in New York City on June 3. A source tells UsMagazine.com that the couple met through Nicole Richie, Madden’s sister in-law, who “thought they’d click.”

What are some unique ways to make your partner feel special?

Cupid’s Advice:

There are the obvious ways to let your partner you care, like kisses and hand-holding, but sometimes you want your efforts to stand out. Your relationship is special, and your partner deserves a unique way of being told they’re special. Here are some tips from Cupid on how to be extra creative when letting your partner know you care:

1. Get crafty! Get out your paintbrushes and scissors, because nothing says “I Love You” like a hand-made gift. If you’re artistically challenged, this could be something as simple as painting a picture frame or making a small scrapbook of your relationship. There’s a reason your parents kept those crappy stick drawings you gave them; they’re cute, and you made them yourself. It’s the effort that counts, and your partner will appreciate it.

2. Make a public gesture. If your partner isn’t afraid of the spotlight, a grand public gesture is an unforgettable way to show them you care. You might choose the classic skywriting option, or try serenading them in the park. Engrave your initials in a special place, or plan a romantic flash-mob surprise. Be creative, but make sure it won’t make your partner uncomfortable.

3. Show them your family traditions. This is for more serious relationships, but if you think your partner might become part of the family someday, a great romantic gesture would be to include them in your traditions. Bring them to the secret fishing spot your grandfather used, or take them to a special family dinner. This will show your partner that they're special enough to be included in your personal family life, and it won't go unnoticed.

Nicole Sherzinger and Lewis Hamilton Share 6th Anniversary Pics

By Laura

Seaman

Pictures are worth a thousand words, and the photos of Nicole Scherzinger and Lewis Hamilton in Venice, Italy tell us that they had a wonderful trip to celebrate their sixth anniversary. According to UsMagazine.com the couple has been on and off multiple times in their six-year relationship, but they seem to be enjoying themselves this summer with a trip to the Hamptons following their international anniversary celebration.

What are some ways to make your anniversary special?

Cupid's Advice:

Anniversaries can mean something different to every couple. Some may just acknowledge it as another year spent together while others may wish to celebrate the fact that their relationship is yet another year stronger with many more to hopefully come. Here are Cupid's tips for any couple hoping to make their anniversary something special.

1. Make it unique and intimate. Some couples have little inside jokes, shared favorite things, or special rituals. This is a day about you two, so make it unique to your relationship. Share your favorite foods, go to the place where you first met, or make a CD of all your favorite songs while you just enjoy each others' company.

2. Try something different. On the other hand, maybe it's time to add a new memory to the relationship. Maybe you could take a cooking or painting class together, or take a road trip to a place you've never been. After years of being together, maybe it's time to spice things up, and this is a perfect chance to do just that.

3. Give them your full attention. This day is about you and your partner, so make a point to show them that you take this day seriously. If it's a weekend, put away your phone and don't check your email. If it's a workday, call them during lunch or send them a small gift at the office. Show your partner that you know just how special this day is and how amazing the year has been.
