

Celebrity News: Danica Patrick Crashes After Boyfriend Forces Her Car Into Wreck

By Marisa Spano

In car racing, car crashing is just a part of the sport, but things get complicated when it's your boyfriend who makes you bite the dust. Danica Patrick was involved in a car crash during the Coca-Cola 600 race in Concord, North Carolina this past weekend, according to UsMagazine.com. Her boyfriend, Ricky Stenhouse, Jr. may be responsible for the incident. The Associated Press says Patrick was on lap 319 of the race when Stenhouse Jr. bumped into her, sending her car into the back of Brad Keselowski's car. Both Patrick and Keselowski had significant damage and had to take their cars back for repairs.

How can competition help your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Although competition can sometimes lead to fights in a relationship, it can also be a good thing if used correctly. Cupid has some advice:

1. Share each other's good points: When competing with your partner you are able to recognize and enjoy each other's talents. Make sure to highlight how your individual gifts shine positively on each other. Your partner will feel appreciated by you.

2. You can help each other: If you make this promise to each other it will decrease the level of competition and also squelch the need to be better than the other person. You can encourage each other to become a better person.

3. Shared interests: Competition in some form is a good thing. It means that you two have something in common. A common interest can bring you together; you can share the fun in whatever you both like to compete in.

What ways do you think competition can help your relationship? Let us know below.

Celebrity News: Exes John Mayer and Katy Perry Are

Spotted Flirting at Memorial Day Party

By Kerri Sheehan

Ex flames and singers John Mayer and Katy Perry were spotted canoodling at a Memorial Day Party two months after their second breakup. UsMagazine.com confirms that Mayer was in attendance of the barbeque held at Perry's home in the Hollywood Hills. One fellow attendee said, "They seem to be back together – or back together-ish, they were very flirty and having a really good time together. They have good chemistry."

How do you decide whether to get back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes the guy that you count as down in out can turn out to be your Prince Charming. Cupid has some advice on how to tell if you dud has transformed into a keeper:

1. Make it your decision: A lot of women can fall into the trap of following what other think as opposed to listening to their own hearts. If you're really going to reunite with an ex it has to be your decision and no one else's. There's a difference between people giving you advice and full on telling you what to do.

2. Forgiving is easier than forgetting: If the reason for the original breakup was a transgression committed by your ex you have to acknowledge that it may not be as easy to forget as you think. If you still store pent-up hate for an ex's wrongdoing then there's no way you can move beyond that and reconcile in a healthy manner.

3. Do a Mental Rewind: Go back to the beginning of your relationship and figure out what originally attracted you to your partner. Are those traits still present in your ex? If he has changed for the worse then it may not be worth it to take your ex from the bench to the field.

Celebrity Couple: Mila Kunis Introduces Ashton Kutcher to Her Parents in London

By April Littleton

According to UsMagazine.com, Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher were spotted hanging around the streets of London with two unexpected visitors – Kunis’ parents! On Saturday, May 18th, the foursome enjoyed Billy Elliott: The Musical followed by dinner at Duck & Waffle the next day. Before meeting Kunis’ parents, the couple spent the holidays with Kutcher’s family in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The lovebirds have been publicly dating since last March.

How do you know when it’s time to introduce your partner to your parents?

Cupid’s Advice:

Introducing your significant other to your family is a big step. As a couple, the two of you are headed toward a solid, committed relationship. Before you make the decision to show your special boo off to your parents, Cupid has some tips you should take into consideration first:

1. Define your relationship: Do you think the relationship has the potential to be long-term? If you’re the type of person who breaks up with a partner if a family member doesn’t approve, you should introduce your love to your parents as soon as you get that, “Maybe this is really going to be something serious” feeling, but there’s no sense in urging a guy to meet your parents when you know in your heart he will end up just being a friend.

2. Discuss it with your partner: You might be ready to take the relationship to the next level, but your significant other may feel differently. Talk to your man about the possibility of him meeting your family and see how he reacts. If he’s a little hesitant, you may be moving too fast for him. If you rush him into something he isn’t ready for, be prepared to call it quits sooner than you would like.

3. You’re thinking about marriage: If you can hear wedding bells ring in the near future, or you already have a ring on your finger, it’s definitely time to introduce your beau to your family. Your parents may freak out if they have to witness a wedding between you and a stranger!

Celebrity Couple: Keira Knightley and James Righton Return to London Post-Honeymoon in Corsica

By April Littleton

After tying the knot May 4 in Mazan, France, People reports Keira Knightley and her new hubby James Righton, a keyboardist for The Klaxons, returning to London after spending their honeymoon in Corsica. The couple met after being introduced by fashion correspondent Alexa Chung. A year after being spotted together, Knightley and Righton got engaged in May 2012.

How do you decide as a couple where to honeymoon?

Cupid's Advice:

Your honeymoon is one of the most important trips you will go on. After all, it is the first of many trips you and your partner will take together as man and wife. After all of the stress of planning a wedding, the honeymoon is the time to relax and unwind with your beau. Many couples have a hard time deciding on the destination of their honeymoon, but not to worry – Cupid has some tips:

1. Set a budget: The first thing you should do as a couple is work out a budget. Both of you should agree on how much money you're willing to spend on the honeymoon. Can you afford that dream honeymoon in Fiji, or should you be looking at locations closer to home? Whatever the case, don't be discouraged if you can't go all out for the honeymoon. There are dozens of locations within an affordable price range just for newlyweds.

2. Research: You and your significant other should think about what kind of honeymoon you want. Do you want to spend most of the time relaxing by the pool and drinking cocktails, or do you want to live on the adventurous side? Once you figure out what kind of setting you both will enjoy, then you can narrow down your location search.

3. Get some help: Discuss some of your options with a couple who's been in your situation before, or get in touch with a travel agent. Mention your budget and what you're expecting out of the honeymoon. Not only will you get some valuable feedback, but you might also get information on other possible destinations you and your partner didn't think of!

Jones, 43, entered treatment for the second time in April and has just returned home to her husband, actor Michael Douglas, 68. “She’s doing a really good job of getting balanced. I’m proud of her,” said Douglas.

What are three ways to support your partner through treatment or rehab?

Cupid’s Advice:

Marriage is hard enough as it is, let alone adding in a partner in treatment. Cupid is here to show you the way:

1. Bring in the family: Encourage your loved one to continue with their treatment program, knowing the family cares. Support goes a long way when it comes to recovering from both physical and mental ailments.

2. Take care of you: It may sound weird advice, but you have been giving this person most of your attention and in order to help your significant other you must be the best you that you can be.

3. Ask what they need: This may sound basic, but it can be challenging. Treatment or rehab can be one of the most difficult things your partner has ever been through. You need to know what you can and cannot discuss about the process with your partner. You need to be aware of when they need you close or when they need space.

Celebrity Couple: Jessica Alba and Cash Warren Celebrate Five-Year Anniversary

By Kerri Sheehan

Jessica Alba and husband Cash Warren are still happy in love five years after walking down the aisle! The two met on the set of Fantastic Four and have two daughters together, Honor, 5, and Haven, 3. According to UsMagazine.com Alba dished to iVillage, “Making time for our relationship in our daily routine – even though it’s surprisingly predictable and may not seem as spicy as our spontaneous pre-kiddo days – [it] really helps keep the romance alive.”

What are some little romantic things you can do to make your anniversary special?

Cupid’s Advice:

There are many ways to make your anniversary special. Here are some suggestions from Cupid:

1. Hidden envelopes: After being married for five years the honey moon phase tends to dull down a bit. Take this day to remind your partner of the reasons why you love them by stashing hidden messages around the house. Their morning cereal box, their brief case, and taped to their shampoo bottle are some clever places to hid them!

2. Make a mixed CD: Almost everyone uses music to express their feelings and mark special times in their life. Include songs that remind you of your partner and songs that define your relationship.

3. Do a scavenger hunt: Leave clues where your spouse will see them and bring them to all of the places where your “firsts” happened, ex. First date, first kiss etc. Be sure to be waiting at the end of the hunt with flowers and big smile.

The ring represents the significance of their relationship. She rocks his world!"

What are some ways to make your anniversary special?

Cupid's Advice:

Anniversaries are all about celebrating the commitment you made to your significant other and proving to each other that the love you share together is still as strong as ever. Every couple wants their anniversaries to be one-of-a-kind. Here are some ways to make that one day out of the year one to treasure forever:

1. Write a love letter: In today's world, lives are overrun by the usage of text messages and emails. Do something different by writing your partner a love letter the old-fashioned way. Pour your feelings out on paper and let your significant other know just how lucky you feel to have somebody like them in your life!

2. Plan a getaway: Plan a romantic getaway just for you and your boo. Travel to the Bahamas and have some fun in the sun together, or maybe a quiet weekend in the country side would be more your style. Wherever you decide to go, make sure it's somewhere you and your partner will be able to spend some quality time alone. This is the time to enjoy each other's company without any distractions.

3. Stay in: Decorate your living room with rose petals, pick out a bottle of wine and prepare a home-cooked meal. Pick some of your partner's favorite movies to watch and anticipate a night full of romance, snuggling and whispering sweet nothing's in each other's ears. What could be better than that?

Celebrity Couple Blake
Shelton and Miranda Lambert
Celebrate Second Wedding Anniversary

By Kerri Sheehan

Country superstar couple Blake Shelton and Miranda Lambert are getting ready to celebrate their two year anniversary since they said, "I Do." According to UsMagazine.com Shelton wants to make sure that Lambert is, "Nothing but smiles on their special day." It seems this couple is in it for the long haul as Lambert told reporters at the 2013 Academy of Country Music Awards, "We really love each other and have a real marriage outside of all of this. When this is all said and done, we will be drinking a beer together on a front porch somewhere, reminiscing about the good old days. That's what I'm happy about."

What are three ways to make your anniversary special?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how many years together it's celebrating, an anniversary is always a special time for a couple. Cupid has some advice about how to make that day an exceptionally good one:

1. Remember why you married them: Marriage is tricky. His or her less than perfect aspects can often crowd the real reasons why you love a person. So, it's important to remember what brought you two together in the first place. Reminiscing a bit on the past will help you two come closer in the future.

2. Go away: An anniversary celebration is the perfect time to take a few days off and have a breather. Going somewhere new will help you create new memories that you will remember for years to come. If going somewhere on location will break the bank too much for you then consider planning a staycation! There are bound to be activities in your area that you've always wanted to do, but never had the time.

3. Bond: Whether it's recreating your first date, or just taking a mental stroll down memory lane together bonding on your anniversary is vital. It not only shows that you appreciate the past you had together, but also that you want to create a strong future.

What are some things to be cautious of when remaining friends with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It is necessary to be cautious if you are going to remain friends with an ex. You will never feel the same about someone after you've dated them. Cupid has some tips:

1. Relationship analysis: When it comes to being friends with your ex, you should be cautious of analyzing your relationship. You do not need to hash out all the reasons why you didn't work, and why you two are no longer together. Friends do not talk like that. So don't. Stick as much as possible to your typical friend conversation.

2. Current partners: If you allowed your ex to remain in your life, be careful if you're currently in a relationship. When your ex starts to ask questions about your partner, what they're like, your current affairs with them – beware. It is not in any way necessary for your ex to ask you about the small details of your current relationship. That is for you and your mate only.

3. Feelings: Be super careful of developing feelings back for your ex. If they remain in your life after a breakup, feelings are most likely still fresh. If you know feelings are going to arise if you keep them in your life, reconsider. It's not worth falling for the person you swore you were never going to fall for again. If you think your ex is developing feelings again, be careful.

Celebrity Couple: Brad Pitt Supports Angelina Jolie During Her Surgery

By Meghan Fitzgerald

People reports that Angelina Jolie has undergone a double mastectomy due to a high risk of breast cancer. Jolie wrote a article titled “My Medical Choice” on NYTimes.com and explained, “My chances of developing breast cancer have dropped from 87 percent to under 5 percent. I can tell my children that they don’t need to fear they will lose me to breast cancer.” Although Jolie was the one who had the surgery, the procedure did have an affect on both partners in this celebrity couple. According to the actress, her celebrity love Brad Pitt was there at every step of the way.

This celebrity couple supports each other no matter what. What are some ways to help your partner through a serious health condition?

Cupid’s Advice:

If your partner is truly sick, it is sometimes hard for them to help themselves. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to follow in celebrity couple Pitt and Jolie’s footsteps and create a support system for your partner:

1. Take them to doctor's appointments: If your mate has a serious health condition, it is probable that they will need to attend numerous doctor appointments. Doctors' offices can be scary, especially if you are ill. To make your partner feel comfortable, go with them to their appointments. You will be there every step of the way, and it will show your beau how much you care.

2. Communicate with their family: With a serious health condition, family is usually wondering how the person is doing. Instead of your partner returning phone calls, e-mails, texts, and more, you can take care of it. It takes stress off of your mate when they don't have to reach back to someone every twenty minutes.

3. Make them comfortable: When people are feeling sick, they may want certain things to make them feel better. It can be soup, cheesy 80's movies, a snuggle bug, a chocolate cake, or a back rub. Try to accommodate your partner with what they want. Whether it be a massage or caviar, try to fulfill that wish and attempt to make them the slightest bit happier.

How do you make your partner's birthday special?

Cupid's Advice:

Your partner's birthday is coming up and you want to make the occasion one they will always remember. Cupid is here to show you how to make the night special for them:

1. Get down on one knee: You and your love have been dating for almost 2 years and have discussed the possibility of marriage. With your partner's birthday on the way, it's the perfect time to buy the ring. Surprise her in front of all her friends by proposing on her birthday. She will love the romantic gesture—and will especially love sharing the moment with the people closest to her.

2. Meaningful gift: For your partner's birthday is coming up and you are rattling around gift ideas. Get him/her a big present they will always cherish. Buy concert tickets to their favorite band—get them a smaller present to throw them off at first. Wait a few minutes before giving them the tickets. They will love the anticipation—and of course the tickets as well.

3. Surprise Vacation: What better way to celebrate a birthday than on a beach with your love? Throw you partner a small surprise party a week early and reveal to him then that you planned a week long trip to The Bahamas for their big day. He will love the thoughtful gesture and appreciate your efforts.

What are some ways to support your partner's take on fashion?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a strong possibility that your partner could have a different fashion sense than you do. Being in a relationship means you need to be supportive. This being said, there are numerous ways to support your partner when it comes to their take on fashion. Check it out:

1. Embrace: With any hobby, trait or characteristic your mate may have, it is essential that you embrace it no matter what. If your partner loves wearing sweatpants and converse, embrace that. Tell them how much you love their take on fashion. Express your feelings by complimenting them on their day to day outfits.

2. Gifts: It is easy to support your partner's take on fashion – buy them the clothes and accessories they enjoy. The new Michael Kors taupe bag that just came out, go out and buy it for them. If they like wearing $400 shoes, splurge and buy a pair for your mate. It will not only show them how much you care about them. However, they will realize that you support them in their fashion sense.

3. Participate: Supporting your partner's fashion sense is easy if you dress the way they do. It may not be anything you would ever wear. However, if you do dress up like your mate, they will see how much you care. So pick a random day, or a weekend at home, a grocery store trip – and dress exactly like your partner.

‘The Bachelor’ Sean Lowe went all out for celebrity love Catherine Giudici’s birthday. How do you make your partner’s birthday special?

Cupid’s Advice:

A significant other’s birthday is always a prime time to show them that you care. How do you show your partner how much they mean to you? Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Keep it specific: Does your other half have a certain band they love? Is there a restaurant that tickles their fancy? Maybe a favorite author is doing a book signing nearby? You can never go wrong with a heartfelt gift that shows you're listening to their likes.

2. Spoil them: A birthday is the one-day of the year that should be all about your partner. Pull out all of the stops and make that day one they are sure to remember! Relationships and love is all about being there for the other person and showing them how much you care. Their birthday is the perfect opportunity to showcase that.

3. Do something out of the ordinary: This tip is especially helpful to those who are in a long-term relationship. Keep the excitement alive by doing something totally crazy that your partner wouldn't expect. Skydiving, parasailing, or even throwing a surprise party are all in the realm of possibility.

What are some little ways to show your partner you care?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the essentials to being in a relationship is to show your partner how much you care about them. There are numerous little ways you can do this with. Bringing home their favorite Thai food for dinner, doing the laundry, taking out the garbage, surprise them with flowers. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Mixed CD: Making a mix CD for your significant other is one of the best ways to show your partner you care. Include "your" song, their favorite songs, songs that have meaning between the two of you, or songs that remind you of your mate. Put the mixed CD in a handcrafted case, and express how much you love them through the descriptions and title.

2. Cook dinner: An easy way to show your partner how much you care for them is to make them a home cooked dinner. Surprise them with a romantic dinner of their favorites. Include a fine wine, appetizers, a full meal, and a dessert. Play the mixed CD you made for them and enjoy a low key dinner for two. Put in that extra effort to create a meal for your mate.

3. Cute texts: Surprise your partner with cute texts throughout the day. Text them in the morning wishing them a great day. Text them goodnight love. Send over a quick text of how much you love and care for them. Text them how you feel about them, and express your emotions through text messages. Your partner will realize how much you care for them by the texts they send over.

How do you keep rumors at bay in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Rumors can endanger even the strongest relationships. How do you keep your relationship above water in a sea of gossip? Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Comment: When a rumor is being spread about your love life, comment on the rumor if someone asks you. Let them know the truth. If you choose not to comment, the lies will spread and no one will know what is real and what isn't.

2. Closeness: You and your sweetie need to have a tight bond and trust each other. This way when rumors are being spread, neither of you will be insecure enough to fall for it.

3. Verbalize: Put the rumor out there for people to see. By acknowledging it in public, people will see that it is clearly just a rumor. Talk about the rumor with your partner so they know that the rumor is floating around so they can help publicly debunk it.

How do you surprise your partner on his or her birthday?

Cupid's Advice:

Your partner's birthday is coming up and you want to make the occasion special for them. Cupid is here to show you how:

1. Pop the question: You and your love have been dating for almost two years and have begun talking about marriage. With your partner's birthday coming up, now's the time to buy that ring. Surprise her in front of all her friends by proposing on her birthday. She will love the romantic gesture—and will especially love sharing the moment with the people closest to her.

2. Special gift: For your partner's birthday, get him/her a big present they are sure to squeal about in excitement. Buy concert tickets to their favorite band—get them a smaller present to throw them off at first. Wait a few minutes before giving them the tickets. They will love the anticipation—and of course the present as well.

3. Vacation: What better way to celebrate a birthday than on a beach with your love? Throw your partner a small surprise party a week early and reveal to him then that you planned a week long trip to The Bahamas for the actual day. He will love the big gesture and appreciate your efforts.

What are some ways to support your partner's style choices?

Cupid's Advice:

Your boyfriend has a very distinctive style and is proud of it. You want to show him how much you love his unique taste in clothing. Cupid is here to show you how:

1. Embrace their style: Your boyfriend has always loved wearing denim jackets and tight jeans. Now that he is working a lot, that style isn't exactly an option anymore. Encourage your man to wear the clothes he likes on the weekends. This way, he doesn't feel like he had to give up his own style for his job.

2. Compliment them: After your partner gets a new haircut, he is unsure if he likes the way it looks or not. Let him know your opinion. If you like the way it came out, reassure him of that. Your love will value your opinion over everybody else's.

3. Tell your friends: You're out with some friends and your partner is wearing a new outfit that you just love. Rave to your friends about it—your man will love hearing you compliment him to your friends. By doing so, you are letting him know how attracted you are to him—which will make him feel even more loved.

What are some surprises you can plan for your anniversary?

Cupid's Advice:

Planning for any anniversary can be pressure-filled situation. Throwing a surprise in there does not make it any easier. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Dinner date: Does your partner love to get dressed up in their favorite Ralph Lauren dress and hit the trendy bar down the street? Or the Swedish night club three blocks down? If they enjoy these things, they will enjoy going out to dinner for your anniversary. Surprise your mate with a romantic dinner on your anniversary and top it off with a trip to their favorite night spot.

2. Bubble bath: Who doesn't enjoy a soothing bubble bath with the love of their life? For your anniversary, plan a romantic champagne filled bubble bath with your partner. Leave a trail of rose petals from the door to the bedroom, to the bath. Have two bottles of champagne by the side of the tub. Add soothing music, or your mate's favorite music as they walk in the door.

3. First date: Recreate your first date with your partner for a surprise anniversary. It will show your mate how much you care and love them. It will show your beau that you fully remember your first date and are willing to recreate it for an anniversary. Do everything you did on the first date and sit back for the results.

What are some reasons to put off getting married?

Cupid’s Advice:

In some relationships, people are simply not ready for marriage. It could be personal reasons, financial reasons, family reasons, any reason they may seem important to put off a marriage. It is in no sense shameful to put off a marriage. Some couples are just not ready. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Finances: In certain cases, especially with younger couples, money is a large problem of their lives. Most women begin to plan their wedding at an extremely young age, and think about it everyday after a ring was put on to their finger. If it is not possible to have your dream wedding, or even your Plan B wedding-putting off your wedding and possibly even your marriage.

2. Age: Youth really is as important and valuable as people say. Getting married at a young age is extremely common in people these days. Wait it out ladies and gentleman. You are young, go and enjoy it. Do not become tied down with the person you “love” at the age of 22. You have an entire world unseen in your eyes, put off your marriage and go see it. Explore the world, before you’re no longer able to.

3. Social pressure: Societies pressures on relationships have grown immensely throughout the years. Do not think you have to get married because you’ve been engaged for two years and your friends and family are telling you it’s not the norm. Who cares about the norm, if society is pressuring you to get married. Realize that it is not what you want, and put off the marriage.

What are some ways to utilize the support your partner provides?

Cupid's Advice:

If your partner is supplying you with support, you should utilize it. Not that your mate won't always provide you with support. However, if it is available, you should make use out of it. Depending on your relationship, the support you are given is varied. But there are always ways to utilize them in your relationship. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Further understand: Using the support your partner provides you with allows you to further understand your mate. It gives you insight on themselves and the way they feel about you.

Your partner wouldn't provide you with help if they didn't truly mean it. Take in this embrace and contemplate how your partner ticks. And how you can further your relationship.

2. Get closer: Realizing that your mate provides you with such support is an opportunity for you two to grow closer. You know they care about you deeply if they are supporting your life and everything you do with it. This allows you to learn more about your partner. How they function, how they treat you, what they're like in times of crisis. You and your partner will get closer if you utilize the support your partner provides.

3. Lean on it: We all need help once in a while, and if you're in in trouble, the important thing is to take that help where it's given. Your partner is no doubt there for you because he or she cares, so don't hesitate to lean on that support when necessary.
