

Stacy Keibler Says George Clooney Keeps Her 'Locked Up'

George Clooney knows a good girl when he's got one. The actor jokingly told reporters that he doesn't let girlfriend Stacy Keibler go out. According to UsMagazine.com, the former WWE star played along with the reporters saying, "George keeps me locked up." They have much more in common than not wanting to go out on the town, however. The duo also have similar taste in fashion, according to Keibler. "Whatever I end up liking, he likes it, too. So it works out good because if he didn't, then I don't know what I would do!"

What do you do if your partner begins to hold you back?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all relationships are like Clooney and Keibler's. Sometimes a partner can stop you from doing things you want to do. Cupid has some tips:

- 1. Support: Ask for support. Sit down with your partner and let them know that you need them to be a friend to you first and foremost. Friendship means supporting you in whatever you choose to be passionate about.
- 2. Trust: Some partners keep their loved ones from going out due to a lack of trust. Not believing in your partner can be a huge mistake. If your partner doesn't trust you, or vice versa, think about what is causing this mistrust and fix it if possible.
- 3. Moving on: Ultimately, if your guy or girl refuses to be there for you, it may be time to find someone who isn't going to hold you back, but rather, will push you forward.

How do you take control of your love life?

Cupid's Advice:

Being in a relationship is a 50/50 commitment, but that doesn't mean that you have to lose control of who you are.

When dating, you have to be able to have the courage to say "no" to what you don't want and say "yes" to new experiences:

- 1. Date on your terms: Date when you're ready, and date who you want to. Don't necessarily rule out blind dates, but don't force yourself to look for love where it isn't a chance of it happening.

2. Know when to say “no”: Sometimes we get comfortable with a partner and are scared to let go when we feel that the relationship is not going right. If you’re not happy, the relationship will fail.

3. Say “yes”: Don’t turn down the chance to go on a date with someone you probably wouldn’t have thought of getting to know. If you’re in a relationship, don’t be afraid to say “yes” to trying new things to keep your love life fresh.

Brandi Glanville Has Quickie Wedding in Las Vegas

Brandi Glanville rang in the new year by getting a new husband...temporarily that is. The 38-year-old star of The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills married a mixed martial arts manager, Darin Harvey this past weekend. However, according to UsMagazine.com: Glanville, the former wife of Eddie Cibrian, tweeted of the marriage "We're not gonna stay married. But it was a fun way to start out the new year!"

According to a source, they got drunk and became hitched for publicity. The two have never been linked romantically and think of each other as brother and sister.

Why is it important to think things through before getting married?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is not a step to be taken lightly. Cupid's Pulse has some reasons why one should truly think about their relationship before saying "I do."

1. Responsibility: Marriage is a big responsibility and when people walk down the aisle it should be for better or worse.

Kim Kardashian took on a lifelong and very public commitment when she wed Kris Humphries. And, when she separated from her husband, she took away the maturity that this type of union entails, showing that one doesn't truly have to take on that duty for life.

2. It's not a joke: When Britney got married in Vegas, and annulled it less than 3 days later, she illustrated to young people that marriage was disposable. A commitment of marriage should be based on proper planning and true love.

3. Issues will arise: For those who wed on a whim, they will experience added pressure when problems arise. Being with someone isn't easy and being with a partner you aren't 100 percent sure about is even worse. Some people do make mistakes and don't realize it, until it's too late. But, there should be an added fight and marriage counseling before calling it quits.

How do you decide what gifts to get your partner for special occasions?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be a challenge to find the right gift for your lover, whether it's for a holiday, birthday or anniversary. Cupid has some suggestions:

- 1. Hobbies: Similar to Stewart, try to find a present that shows your support for your love's passions or interests.
- 2. Special meaning: Perhaps you'd like to give your partner something that reflects a special moment in your relationship. For example, if you both enjoy music, then perhaps tickets to see one of their favorite artists is a good idea.

3. A reflection: Whatever you choose to get, the right gift shows your appreciation for your lover and their commitment to you.

2. Hit the beach: You may not be able to ring in the New Year in Las Vegas or New York, but you can always take a quick getaway trip to a nearby beach that will allow you and your significant other to spend some quality time together. What are three creative ways to show your partner you care?

Cupid's Advice:

It can become routine to simply say the words "I love you" every day. It's important to go out of your way periodically to actually show your partner you care, as well. Cupid has some ways:

1. Present them with love coupons: Make or buy some coupons good for things like a massage, a home cooked meal or a viewing of their favorite movie. It'll show that you're willing to go to certain lengths to please them.

2. Get a makeover: Sometimes when you've been in a relationship for a long time, you don't pay as much attention to the way you look around your partner. As a special treat, bring them out to dinner and show up as pretty or handsome as possible.

3. Write a love letter: It may sound corny, but often times a written letter that spells out your feelings for someone can be incredibly touching.

What do you do if your partner holds some qualities that you don't like?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone has flaws, and you're never going to find someone about whom you like absolutely everything. Here are some tips:

1. Think about why you want them to change: If you don't like something about your partner, make sure that the qualities you dislike aren't a major problem. If you're an impatient person, for example, you may be less likely to accept a partner who is perpetually late.

2. Have patience: It's important to note how necessary patience is in a relationship. Nobody can change overnight, and it can be very difficult to break a habit. Support your partner when they try to change something about themselves.

3. Compromise: Is there something about yourself that bothers your partner? You can suggest that you and your partner both try to change some negative aspects of yourselves that may be affecting the relationship. If you change together, you're more likely to grow together.

2. Speak up: If your partner says or does something you don't like, tell them from the beginning that their behavior is unacceptable.

3. Be their best friend: A perfect partner isn't just a lover, but also a best friend.
