Is it important to take a person's past into account pre-relationship? Cupid's Advice:

When entering into a new relationship, many of us try to look at it as a fresh start and let the past be the past. But, is it even possible to change? Cupid has some things to think about when looking into your partner's old flings:

1. How it ended: Sometimes things just don't work out, but it's important to look at why they didn't. If your partner and his or her ex ended amicably, then there may not be much to inquire about. But, if there's bad blood, you might consider finding out more details.

2. Did he learn from it?: Of course people make mistakes, and every mistake is a learning experience. One of the important things to look at when asking about a prior relationship that ended badly, is if he exhibits the same behavior that was previously an issue.

3. Level of commitment: Did your partner have a few serious relationships, or did he just jump around? Gauging his/her's level of commitment from their previous partner(s) allows you a glimpse at what to expect.

What are some ways to show your support in the face of a partner’s illness?

Cupid’s Advice:

If there’s one key to having a successful relationship, it’s to be supportive of one another. A partner’s illness is a painful experience to go through and is often a test to a relationship. Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Don’t let the stress get to you: It’s very important not to let the illness turn you negative. It’s important to stay positive no matter what the circumstances, because having doubts won't help your partner stay brave.

2. Have faith in each other: Believe in each other and support each other. If you believe your partner will get through this difficult time, that faith alone may help.

3. Don't worry about what others have to say: Don't let what others, whether it be family, friends or doctors, say get to you and your partner. Those people aren't in your relationship and aren't going through the same situation.

Do your parents know best when it comes to your relationships?

Cupid's Advice:

As frustrating as our parents can be sometimes, they are the people that have known us the longest. Cupid has some advice on why our parents may know what's best when it comes to our relationships:

1. Your best interests in mind: As much as we all love our friends, the only people who we can be positive only want what's best for us are our parents.

2. They've been there: It may be strange to think of your parents as young and dating, but they were in your shoes once before. So, don't be quick to rule out their advice. It comes from a place of experience.

3. They know you the best: The only people who know us better than we know ourselves are the people who have known us the longest – our parents. This means that they probably also know what you need in a relationship.

Rob Pattinson and Kristen Stewart Double Date with Reese Witherspoon and Jim Toth

The whole Water For

Elephants cast, including stars Reese Witherspoon and Robert Pattinson and their significant others Jim Toth and Kristen Stewart respectively, celebrated the film's premiere with a dinner at NYC hot spot Le Cirque, according to HollywoodLife.

Stewart and Pattinson headed to the circus-themed dinner soon after being spotted smooching in their SUV following the red carpet premiere. However, the pair wasn't the only cute couple in attendance. Newlyweds Witherspoon and Toth were spotted smiling, laughing and having a great time at the party as well. Both couples have been making headlines lately with their hectic careers in the public eye, but it's great to see they still have time for romantic getaways, PDA and some fun!

What are the benefits of a double date?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes a double date has more going for it than a one-on-one outing. Cupid has some ideas as to why that may be:

1. They're less intimidating: Double dates takes the pressure off. They reduce the pressure to be entertaining and interesting, because there's always another couple to pick up the slack. No awkward silences!

2. They're fun: Sometimes it's great to go out with a group of people and forget you're even on a date. Dates are a way to get to know one another, after all, and seeing how your potential significant other acts in a group is a big part of who he or she is as a person.

3. They help form friendships: Going on a double date helps lay down the foundation for future friendships. One-on-one dates are a good time in their own way, but it's important to have friends as a couple as well.

Kate Hudson Discusses Why She Fell In Love with Matthew Bellamy

Kate Hudson has finally opened up about her new beau and soon-to-be father of her child, Matthew Bellamy, 32. People reports Hudson, 31, told InStyle that what made her fall in love with her British rock star boyfriend was his kindness. “Matthew was polite and immediately protective, which for somebody like me who’s all over the place – one minute I’m over here and the next I’m over there – is important.. He is just an amazing person.”

Is it important for your partner to be protective of you?

Cupid’s Advice:

Being protective is wonderful, but it’s easy to cross the line into being overprotective. Cupid has some tips on how much your mate should defend you:

- 1. The good: It’s extremely important that your mate at least feels protective of you. That way you know that someone’s always got your back no matter what.
- 2. The bad: Sometimes a partner can use being protective as an excuse to be possessive and keep you from doing things you want to do. Make sure your significant other isn’t crossing the line.
- 3. The ugly: Being watchful over you can sometimes result from jealousy. If your significant other won't let you see certain people, talk to him or her about the real reason for their sheltering.

Rob Pattinson and Kristen Stewart Smooch In New York

PDA alert! Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart were caught smooching in NYC Sunday after the premiere of Pattinson's new movie, Water For Elephants. The couple isn't usually a big fan of public displays of affection, but People reports that Sunday, Stewart was all smiles while getting cozy in a car with Pattinson before eventually speeding off. Although Stewart didn't hit the red carpet with her beau for the premiere, she certainly showed her support with some PDA afterward.

What are ways to show PDA without making other people uncomfortable?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes couples engaging in PDA can make the general public uncomfortable. Here are some guidelines:

1. Be subtle: When in a public place, you never know who may be watching. Your safest bet is to be subtle by not having an all out "romp" in the middle of a restaurant. A little "footsy" under the table will do.

2. Draw the line: When it comes to PDA, you and your significant other should discuss what you feel is appropriate and what's not. Some couples don't mind kissing in public (like Kristen Stewart and Robert Pattinson), while other may be totally fine with it.

3. Hold it in: If you and your partner have the urge for some serious affection while in public, your best wait until you're somewhere a little more private. This way, no one will stare at you like you're an exhibit at a museum or zoo.

Cupid's Advice:

When you have a problem with your mate's BFF, you have to walk a fine line and make sure you don't offend your partner or break up their friendship. Cupid has some tips:

2. Be careful: When you have an issue with your significant other's buddy, bring it up delicately. To avoid starting a conflict, don't accuse the friend of anything until you know all of the facts.

3. Have a talk: If there's some bad blood between you and your partner's best bud, talk to him or her to clear things up, and figure out how to improve the relationship for the sake of your significant other.

Cupid's Advice:

Your significant other always needs your support, including for their career choices. Cupid has some ideas on how to show you care about your mate's job:

3. Learn about work: We all know what our significant other does for a living, but sometimes we don't know the details about their workplace because we don't ask. Listen to your partner talk about his or her day, and ask questions to show you care.

Carrie Underwood Discusses What Bugs Her About Husband Mike Fisher

Soul Surfer actress Carrie Underwood recently dished to E! Online about her relationship with husband Mike Fisher. First on the list to discuss were Underwood's pet peeves. "[Fisher] loves the UFC fighting and he will DVR the fights and watch them like five times!" said Underwood. "He'll watch them and then I'll get up for breakfast the next morning and he's watching them again. Then someone will come over and they have to watch it together! I'm like, 'Really?'" Although, Underwood admits she's nearly as guilty. "I think I nag a little more than I would like to, more than he would like me to," she explained. How do you deal with habits that bug you about your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Most couples can attest to the fact that dealing with your partner's quirks can be difficult, even if the two of you aren't living together. Here are a few ways you can deal with those pet peeves:

- 1. Tough it out: While your partner's habits may be irksome at first, if you will yourself to cope for a short while, you may eventually find that the habits no longer bother you. Be patient, and hopefully you can adjust.
- 2. Get some space: When your mate's quirks become too much to handle, be sure to get some space. Allowing yourself some 'you' time will make being with your partner all the more enjoyable (and less bothersome) when the two of you are together again.
- 3. Point out the issue: If you're still annoyed after trying to adjust to your partner's habits, bring the issue to your his or her attention. Instead of making him stop, ask him politely if he'll consider toning down his habit.

How do you overcome your partner's judgment?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Stay confident: If you feel good, chances are your partner will think you look good. After all, your attitude reflects on the outlook of your day.

2. Listen to feedback: Your lover may criticize if you change your look randomly, but try not to just blow it off. Listen carefully to their point so you fully understand.

3. Make your case: What's most important is that you clearly explain that how you look now is very important to you, and it makes you feel happy. Your partner will come around.

"I don't think Kris knows what he's getting into," Kardashain told People. She says that this summer Humphries will get the opportunity to spend some time with the whole family and get initiated into the Kardashian group ... if he can manage.

What do you do if your partner doesn't get along with your family?

Cupid's Advice:

There is no one more influential in your choice of mate other than the members of your family. It may work in movies, but if your boo and your family butt heads, something needs to be done:

1. Talk it out: Discuss things separately first and then together if need be. Why does your partner not get along with your family and vice versa? As soon as you figure out where the conflict begins, you can start to mend the situation.

2. Figure out the reason: Is there a good reason for conflict between your partner and your family? Perhaps your family is concerned about your well-being when you're with your partner. Consider these objections for what they're worth and if they hold any value.

3. Blood is thicker: than water. Just like when your parents would weed out the good-for-nothing friends you brought home from school, you're family is still (and always will be) your family. If this boyfriend is just a passing phase, consider moving on.

Fergie Wants to Spend More Time with Husband Josh Duhamel

Now that Fergie finally has a break from touring, the first thing on her

How can you carve out more time with your significant other? Cupid's Advice:

Between work and kids, quality time with your partner is pretty hard to come by. Here are some tips on how to create more time with your significant other:

- 1. Date night: Set aside one night a week that you two have committed to each other. For that one night, every other responsibility must fall to the waist side, no matter what.
- 2. Breakfast: No matter what time each of you has work, make a set time to have breakfast with one another. It's the only meal that is guaranteed.
- 3. Take a trip: As hard as it may be to take time off from work, whether its two days or five, make sure that at least once a year you are able to get away together as a couple.

Khloe Kardashian and Lamar Odom Talk Reality Show

Another Kardashian, another reality show! Access Hollywood reports Khloe Kardashian and hubby Lamar Odom are currently promoting their new E! show, Khloe & Lamar. However, Kardashian insists that the show has actually strengthened her family's bond. "This show has made [my family] closer and stronger, because it does make you spend time with each other, and also, this show is therapy to us." Can a relationship in the public eye last?

Cupid's Advice:

While celebrities aren't known for having long-lasting relationships, there are some exceptions. Cupid has some ideas on whether a public relationship can work:

1. Use it to your advantage: In rare cases, being in the public eye can actually improve a relationship. If you can make it work for you like the Kardashians do, then celebrity can make your bond stronger.

2. Just the two of us: Sharing your personal life with the rest of the world can make a relationship seem a bit crowded. If you just focus on the two of you and tune out all the naysayers, your union can thrive in the spotlight.

3. Avoid it: In general, being in the public eye puts stress on a relationship and exaggerates problems. Unless your job requires it, try to avoid public life if you want your love to last.

Does age matter when it comes to marriage?

Cupid’s Advice:

Cupid tends to think that age in itself doesn’t matter, but there are some things to consider before entering into a relationship with someone significantly older or younger than yourself:

- 1. Different generations: If you and your partner were born in different generations, you grew up with different commonly held beliefs. Make sure you’re on the same wavelength morally before you get too serious.
- 2. Think longterm: Think about whether you want to have kids and what your age difference means in that situation. Will your spouse have enough energy to put into raising a child?

3. Energy levels: Someone younger might have a lot more energy for activities and outings than someone older. If your partner is much older than you, are you willing to deal with those limitations?

have to say now?" The couple was spotted kissing in the Caribbean in January and a month later, they attended the Vanity Fair Oscar party together. However, the Disney star still refuses to confirm they're dating, telling Ellen, "He's just sweet."

How do you stay quiet about a relationship without lying?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you just need some privacy in a relationship, but it's hard to keep it a secret without hurting people's feelings or lying. Cupid has some ideas on what to do in this kind of situation:

1. Change the subject: When someone asks about your relationship, casually change the subject. They should get the hint and stop asking about your significant other.

2. Avoid nosy people: You know that friend that can't keep a secret? You might want to avoid telling them about you and your mate if you want to keep it quiet. And not telling them is not the same as lying.

3. No PDA... for now: If you don't want to get into a situation where people ask you about who you're dating and you have to lie, avoid it all together by keeping PDA to a minimum. Once you're ready to tell the world about your significant other, you can get back to being affectionate in public.

Cameron Diaz and A-Rod Are

Happy Family with His Kids

In honor of their on-again romance, Cameron Diaz and Alex Rodriguez took A-Rod's two children to Busch Gardens amusement park in Tampa, Florida. According to UsMagazine.com, the actress looked incredibly motherly holding hands with the baseball star's two daughters Natasha, 6, and Ella, 2, from his previous marriage to Cynthia Rodriguez. It looks like this couple may have hit a home run in the kid department after they rekindled their romance in November. Cameron Diaz was also seen bonding with the girls late last year on a family trip to Mexico.

How can you bond with your new partner's kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Bonding with a new partner's children can be one of the most magical and most difficult parts of a new romance. Here are some tips:

1. Show respect: Though you may be very excited about getting to know your new partner's children, it's always important to respect their boundaries and their previous relationships with both of their parents. The last thing you want to do is trash your partner's ex in front of the children or get in the way when your partner wants to spend quality time alone with his or her children.

2. Come bearing gifts: It's never a good idea to try to buy someone's love. However, kids love getting gifts. It makes them feel important that you thought of them. Also, getting them a little something you knew they have been wanting or would like shows that you are making an effort to get to know them.

3. Go on a date with the kids: Cameron Diaz and A-Rod had the right idea when they took the kids to an amusement park. Dating someone with children is a completely different playing field, so expect a mix of sophisticated dinners and dates with the kids at Chuck E Cheese.

Rob Pattinson and Kristen Stewart's Date Gets Crashed By Fans

It's tough to get a private date these days, especially for Rob Pattinson and Kristen Stewart. The date was not so private as fans crashed the scene and posted the sighting on Twitter. "They were alone. [Pattinson] was nice. [Stewart] was just awkward. Didn't really wanna take photos."

How do you ensure a romantic date alone?

Cupid's Advice:

It isn't easy to get away for a private date with your significant other. Cupid has a few pointers that may help:

- 1. Avoid cliché dates: This time, pass on dinner and a movie. Think of something a little different because it will be unpredictable, plus it'll give your relationship a new spark.
- 2. Pick different times: Instead of 7 p.m. on Saturday night, perhaps a lunch date Tuesday will throw people off!
- 3. Location, location, location: Although we enjoy familiarity, going to a place where everyone knows your name can get old. Try a new restaurant if you do choose to head out to get a bite to eat.

Selena Gomez Talks Justin Bieber with David Letterman

Disney star Selena Gomez has still not confirmed her relationship with Justin Bieber. In fact, when asked about the rumored romance on Late Night with David Letterman, she quickly changed the subject by saying, "It was like a little prom night, wasn't it?" in reference to a picture of them together at the Vanity Fair Oscar party. According to People, however, David Letterman did manage to get some information out of the teen actress. She has known the singer for two years now and they met through their agents. "He's been in my life for so long, and it's just nice to have someone that understands what you're going through," she said.

Is it important that your partner understand you all the time?

Cupid's Advice:

Though no one can ever understand another person 100% of the time, if you listen to and love your partner, you should be able to come close:

1. Listen: The more you listen to your partner the more you will understand them.

2. Know their likes and dislikes: Once you know what your partner likes and dislikes, you should be able to predict how they will react in certain situations.

3. Be understanding: In the event that you don't understand each other, don't make a big deal about it. Just decide if it's something you're willing to live with, and go from there.

How do you make your partner's birthday special?

Cupid's Advice:

Birthdays are the one holiday a year where you and you alone get to feel special. So, it's important to honor your partner the best way you know how on his or her big day. Cupid's got some tips:

1. Throw a surprise party: It may seem generic, but if you can really pull it off, a surprise party will make your partner feel all sorts of special. Just the fact that you went to the trouble says a lot!

2. Plan a vacation: If you want to go all out, plan a trip for two to somewhere tropical. If you're married, consider it a second honeymoon. There's so much thought that goes into planning a vacation, and your partner will surely appreciate it.
