Cupid's Advice:

Miscommunications between you and your partner like the one Kramer and Caussin had can happen between couples occasionally. Cupid has some advice on how to clear up any misunderstandings:

1. Avoid always having to be "right": In a situation where you've had a misunderstanding with your partner, things can escalate quickly if you try to stand your ground and say you're right. The "always right" mentality stonewalls any farther communication. Be willing to admit that you might not have understood your partner so the situation does not get worse.

2. Listen: Listening to your partner not only shows them you are willing to work together but it will also that you value their opinion. It's easy to misword something when you speak so if one of you misunderstands what the other says, don't immediately get angry with your partner.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Scarlett Johansson & 'SNL' Star Colin Jost Are Engaged

3. Take a break if the situation escalates: Sometimes it's better to just walk away and cool down. Take this time to reflect on what was said between you and your partner. Once you've both calmed down, give each other both a chance to speak so both sides have a chance to explain what happened.

1. You feel at ease being your true self with your partner: Everyone is on their best behavior when dating someone new, but once you have been together a while and have reached the point you are considering your relationship becoming long-term you should be comfortable around your partner. ## Cupid's Advice:

Social media is a powerful tool, but it can also cause irreparable damage to a relationship if used unwisely. Cupid has some advice on how to be careful with social media:

1. Beware of screenshots: Screenshots can be taken on both a computer and a phone now without much effort. Choose your words carefully when sending a text message. Sometimes it is better to have a phone conversation to settle differences with your partner or friend if there is a disagreement. Do not say something that can be used against you later.

2. Not EVERYTHING has to go public: Keeping parts of your relationship between you and your partner will benefit your relationship more than you think. Cupid's Advice:

1. Nothing has changed: What was the reason you broke up with your partner? Is that still an issue between you two? If nothing has changed since you broke up, then there's no reason to get back together. The issue will only re-emerge and cause a future break up.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Adele & Simon Koneckis Call It Quits

2. The reason you're returning isn't a good one: Why are you getting back together with your ex? Is it because you genuinely have a connection, or is it because you want closure? Never return to an ex because you don't understand the break up. If you broke up, there must have been a reason. If that reason still stands, so should the break up.
