Celebrity News: Robin Thicke & Paula Patton End Custody Battle Amidst News of His GF's Pregnancy

By Marissa Donovan

These celebrity parents have finally come to an agreement over the custody of their son Julian. According to UsMagazine.com, Robin Thicke and Paula Patton will each have equal time with their son and share expenses such as tuition for private school. Patton filed for a celebrity divorce from Thicke back in 2014. There has been family drama that has caused custody problems in the past, including allegations of domestic and child abuse that has teared the family apart over the years. In a twist of events, Thicke and girlfriend April Love Geary recently announced they are expecting a celebrity baby soon, which may have caused the former celebrity couple to make amends.

There's no lack of drama in this celebrity news, although maybe some of it has been put on the back burner now. What are some ways to keep personal drama from affecting your children?

Cupid's Advice:

Don't let personal drama that you are experiencing affect your children. Here are some ways to keep your kids drama-free:

1. Let them know what's happening without biases: Try giving your child an over view of what's happening without using language that allows them to pick a side. Biases will only cause them to turn on other, which will only cause more drama.

Celebrity Break-Up: Anna Faris Opens Up About Split from Chris Pratt

By Melissa Lee

Earlier in the week, former Hollywood celebrity couple Anna Faris and Chris Pratt announced that they were separating from one another. Though the news was revealed via social media, Faris finally broke her silence after opening up on her podcast, Unqualified. She offered relationship advice to one heartbroken listener, eventually hinting at her own situation with Pratt. People.com reported that Faris found herself feeling lost in relationships, explaining that one should always know their worth and independence.

This celebrity break-up has left Hollywood shocked and sad. What are some factors to consider when it comes to independence in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

After eight years of marriage, coming to terms with divorce must have been a hard pill to swallow for both Anna and Chris. It seems like a lot of the issues stemmed from Anna's struggle to understand her independence in the relationship. If this situation sounds familiar to you, head below to read some of Cupid's tips:

1. Try not to lose yourself: In serious relationships, it can become increasingly difficult not to lose sight of the person you are at heart. At times, we may find ourselves changing our likes and dislikes (among other things) simply due to our partner. While there's nothing wrong with change, you should always remember who you are. You should know your boundaries, in addition to knowing when you've changed too much. At the end of the day, you should always recognize the person you are.

2. Do things on your own: Going out to eat, trips to the super market, and walks in the park are always fun to do with your sweetheart, but that doesn't mean you should do everything with them. If you are constantly performing tasks and going places with your partner – and find yourself having difficulty doing the same things by yourself – you may be losing your independence as a human being. While it's enjoyable to have company when doing mundane tasks, you should still be taking the time to embrace your independence by doing things on your own as well.

3. Never stop working on yourself: A common misconception is that it's harder to grow as a person when you are in a relationship. This can be true at times, but that's usually because you're not putting the work in. Regardless of the relationship you find yourself in, you should never stop working on yourself. You should always take the time to do beneficial things for yourself, along with putting yourself first every now and then.

Celebrity News: 'Newlyweds' Producer Reveals The Truth Behind Jessica Simpson and Nick Lachey Failed Marriage

By Marissa Donovan

Fourteen years ago, Jessica Simpson and Nick Lachey were happily married and had their own show on MTV. In an interview with Complex.com, producer Sue Kolinsky of Newlyweds spoke out about how the celebrity exes functioned as a newly married couple. The producer shared that their maturity levels contrasted and felt a sense of tension between the former celebrity couple. Kolinsky also added the only thing the couple seemed to have in common was their music careers. The couple split after the show's third season and are now happy in their new marriages.

This reality Tv show exposed the differences between this celebrity couple. How can you maintain a happy relationship when you and your partner are opposite from one another?

Cupid's Advice:

Opposites can attract one another, but sometime couples who are very different from each other run into more problems than those who are alike. Here's how you can keep the spark when you and your partner are total opposites:

1. Keep finding common ground: Keep trying to find similarities in activities and special interests. If you both enjoy golfing, play a game together. Also try new activities and see if you both can enjoy it as a couple!

Celebrity Divorce: 'Vanderpump Rules' Star Sheana Shay Finalizes Divorce from Mike Shay

By Noelle Downey

Former celebrity couple Scheana Shay and Mike Shay have officially split, with UsMagazine.com reporting that their celebrity divorce has recently been finalized. The former spouses are settling their affairs now, with reality TV star Scheana paying Mike 50,000 dollars in order to make sure that their assets remain balanced and equitable. While Scheana once accused Mike of cheating on the hit reality show, Vanderpump Rules, the celebrity exes seem to have buried the hatchet for now, with both claiming that, “While we have made the difficult decision to move forward separately, our story will continue on through the love and mutual respect that we have cultivated throughout our 15-year friendship.” Their joint statement on their celebrity break-up went on to state that they will continue to, “support each other’s personal happiness and professional success” despite the fact that they both admitted they had “failed at [their] marriage.”

This much-talked-about split has ended up in celebrity divorce. What are some ways you know your relationship cannot be fixed?

Cupid’s Advice:

When it comes to break-ups, there’s no easy way to know just when you and your partner should call it quits. However, Cupid is here with some sure signs you should look for that your relationship may be going belly-up:

1. You no longer enjoy spending time together: Every couple, no matter how strong, goes through rough patches. However, if you can’t think of the last time that you and your partner spent time together and you parted ways feeling happy and satisfied, that’s something to take seriously. If you two aren’t that happy to see each other even on your best days, that’s a huge red flag signaling that it may be time to say goodbye.

2. You argue and never seem to really make-up: Healthy debate and arguments are not bad signs in a relationship; in fact, it's good if you're able to disagree with your partner and recognize that conflict is a natural part of any relationship. On the other hand, if you two seem to be having the same fight over and over again that never really gets resolved, you should take a long, hard look at how you're functioning as a couple. If arguments always end with slammed doors and the silent treatment instead of a long talk and reconciliation, that's not a good sign. It may be time to consider that the best thing for both of you is to say goodbye.

3. You're the only one compromising: Relationships are all about compromise, the push and pull of two human beings trying to work together to create something beautiful. If you feel as if you're always the one who is changing themselves to fit your partner's standards, ask yourself if they're really holding up their end of the bargain when it comes to the relationship. Do you feel like you are in an equitable partnership? Do you both compromise regularly or does one or the other of you always bend to the other one's way? If you feel as though they're never willing to sacrifice what they want for the good of the relationship, this might be a sign that the relationship has run its course.

By Mallory McDonald

Eonline! learned that Grey's Anatomy star Jesse Williams (Avery) is heading toward a celebrity divorce. The pair had their celebrity wedding in September of 2012. In 2010, before the pair was married, Williams shared this about Aryn, “I was a teacher when I met her, so she’s been with me through all different facets of my career. She’s stuck with me through thick and thick and thick and thin. We know each other in and out, and she was very happy to move out here,” Jesse added, referencing their relocation to Los Angeles. “She loves California and was tired of the weather on the East Coast.” The pair has two celebrity kids together and will have to work together to help raise the kids. We can’t believe these two couldn’t make it work!

There are a lot of women who aren’t necessarily sad about this celebrity divorce. What are some ways to keep jealousy from destroying your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Jealousy can be extremely detrimental to a relationship. With these tips you can make sure you or your partner’s jealousy doesn’t get in the way of the relationship:

1. Reassure: Jealousy often stems from feeling insecure and just not getting enough confirmation for your feelings. Once a day telling your partner how much you mean to them can really help relieve some of the jealousy.

Celebrity Exes: Harry Styles Talks Past Romance with Taylor Swift

By Whitney Johnson

According to UsMagazine.com, Harry Styles recently opened up to Rolling Stone about his romance with Taylor Swift – and he had nothing but nice things to say about his celebrity ex. Addressing the photos of them together in Central Park on their second date, he shares, “When I see photos from that day, I think: Relationships are hard, at any age. And adding in that you don’t really understand exactly how it works when you’re 18, trying to navigate all that stuff didn’t make it easier. He elaborates further by saying, “I mean, you’re a little bit awkward to begin with. You’re on a date with someone you really like. It should be that simple, right? It was a learning experience for sure. But at the heart of it – I just wanted it to be a normal date.” He even appreciates that Swift penned numerous songs about their former celebrity relationship and says, “I like tipping a hat to the time together.”

Harry Styles thinks his romance with celebrity ex Taylor Swift was a learning experience. What are some ways past relationships can help you with future relationships?

Cupid's Advice:

Taking a cue from these celebrity exes, every failed relationship can teach us something when it comes to future love. So what can you learn from your former partners? Consider this dating advice below:

1. You realize what you want: When you're single, it's hard to know what you want and need from a partner. However, a relationship – even one that ultimately doesn't last – will show you just what you're looking for when it comes to love. Look at what worked and what didn't and apply those insights to your next relationship.

Jennifer Garner & Ben Affleck Attend Church After Celebrity Divorce Filing

By Noelle Downey

Celebrity exes Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck were spotted smiling serenely as they exited a church service they attended together on Easter Sunday with their three children, according to UsMagazine.com. Garner filed for divorce from Affleck on April 13th, with both of them deciding to pursue a joint custody agreement of their three children, Violet, Seraphina and Samuel. Although Affleck had been living in the guest house since the couple separated in June 2015, he will now be making the move to a new home as the celebrity divorce moves forward. A source close to Affleck reported it's important to him to find a place near Garner's house so they can both successfully "continue to co-parent as they have been" adding that Affleck is expected to move out "when he finds the right place."

Talk about being amicable during a celebrity divorce! What are some ways to keep life normal for your kids during a split?

Cupid's Advice:

While a divorce is enough to threaten the future of any family dynamic, Garner and Affleck seem to be able to put aside their differences to lend their kid's lives some normality during this transitional period. Here are Cupid's top tips on how to emulate these sensible celebs and keep your kids secure during your separation:

- 1. Present a united front: Just like this former celebrity couple, it's important to focus on presenting a united front and creating a viable co-parenting experience for your children. Whether that means attending church together, having a family dinner once a week or a monthly family movie night, remind your kids that you can still function as a family unit and that you and your ex are still capable of coming together for their benefit and security.

Celebrity Divorce: Mel B's Sister Slams Her Ex Stephen Belafonte After Abuse Claims

By Noelle Downey

One dramatic celebrity divorce took a turn for the disastrous recently when Danielle Brown, former Spice Girl Mel B's sister, lashed out at her past brother-in-law, Stephen Belafonte, amid allegations that Belafonte had emotionally and physically abused her sister during their almost ten years of marriage. According to People.com, in spite of the sister's eight years of estrangement, Brown took to Instagram to defend sister Mel B., writing to Belafonte, "you are a sorry excuse of a man" and telling the world that she hopes Belafonte and the celebrity couple's former nanny, whom Belafonte allegedly impregnated, would "go to jail and rot in hell!" She ended the post with a series of hashtags, calling Belafonte everything from a "wife beater" and a "psychopath" to an "animal killer" and a "devil man." Belafonte, meanwhile, remains adamant that no such abuse occurred, maintaining that the allegations "shocked" him, despite Mel B.'s attempts to file a restraining order against him.

This celebrity divorce has drama written all over it. What are some ways to cope with negativity during your divorce proceedings?

Cupid's Advice:

In this celebrity break-up, things are heating up in a noticeably nasty way! While every divorce comes with its own set of problems to be resolved, some are far more complicated than others. If you're experiencing a difficult divorce, never fear! Cupid is here with the top tips on how to cope with conflict during your divorce proceedings:

1. Rely on your close friends and family: Despite the fact that these celebrity siblings haven't spoken in years, Danielle Brown is still clearly rooting for her sister. If you're going through a difficult time with your divorce, reach out to friends and family that you trust and let them know how they can help you. Chances are they are dying to assist you in dealing with your drama in any way they can because they care so much about you!

Celebrity Exes: Scarlett Johansson Attends Event with Romain Dauriac Amid Divorce

By Noelle Downey

Former celebrity couple Scarlett Johansson and Romain Dauriac were spotted out together on April 5th, less than a month after Johansson had officially filed for divorce from Dauriac. While there's no doubt this must be a troublesome time for both of them, according to UsMagazine.com, these celebrity exes seem at peace with their decision to separate, and remained amicable throughout the night as they sipped on cocktails and admired the art at 53W53 Gallery in NYC. Despite Dauriac's lawyer recently stating that there would be a custody battle in this celebrity divorce over the couple's now two year old daughter, Rose, both Johansson and Dauriac seem determined to remain civil, even posing for photographs together throughout the night despite their conspicuously bare ring fingers.

It seems these celebrity exes are absolutely amicable! What are some ways to keep the drama out of your divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

In a celebrity break-up, just like any other, there's bound to be some conflict and crushed feelings. But just like these sensible stars, there's no need to bring that angst into the public eye. Here are Cupid's top three tips for keeping your divorce cordial and calm:

1. Define your boundaries: In an early statement to the press about her impending divorce, Johansson clarified, "I would only like to say that I will never, ever be commenting on the dissolution of my marriage. Out of respect for my desires as a parent and out of respect for all working moms, it is with kindness that I ask other parties involved... to do the same." Just like this celebrity parent, be careful who you choose to divulge the dirty details of your divorce to. While confiding in close friends and confidants is healthy, don't be afraid to tell someone when they're prying into your personal business – and let them know, firmly and kindly, that your divorce is between you, your family and your lawyers.

2. Form a friendly truce with your ex: Just like Johansson and former flame Dauriac, it's possible to be able to associate casually with your ex even when tensions are high. By forming a working friendship, these celebrity co-parents are presenting a united front to the world despite their recent separation, which will help them in future negotiations, especially over their daughter, Rose. Try doing the same with your ex to ease the stress of separation.

3. Focus on what really matters: Whether that's your child's happiness, your own personal mental and physical health or making sure that you and your ex can remain on friendly terms even after the divorce is finalized, prioritize what really matters, and try not to get caught up in petty squabbles over things that don't. While it can be tempting to lash out at your ex for hurting you, remember that in the end, focusing on the most important things will help you heal faster and adjust more quickly to this life change.

Celebrity Couple News: Jennifer Garner Still Not Wearing Wedding Ring After Ben Affleck Reconciliation Reports

By Delaney Gilbride

In latest celebrity news, we're still totally and completely unsure about the status of celebrity couple Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck's marriage. Despite multiple claims that their celebrity divorce had been called off for the time being, the 44 year-old actress and film producer was seen walking about Los Angeles on Thursday, March 9, without her wedding ring. An insider close to Garner told UsMagazine.com that she's still considering going through with the divorce when the time is right, while a different insider close to Affleck, 44, told the magazine that the two are putting their divorce on hold because they've been getting along pretty well. The Daredevil co-stars are reportedly still living under the same roof for the sake of their three children since their split back in June 2015. Although the news of their rocky marriage is still relatively new, the duo has been going to couples therapy for years now.

We can't quite seem to keep up with this celebrity couple. How do you know when it's time to end a longtime marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is hard as it is, but what if it's ending a longtime marriage with someone you thought you'd spend the rest of your life with? How do you know when enough is enough? Cupid's here to help with some relationship advice:

1. You're too tired to keep fighting the truth: When all the negative signs you've been ignoring keep adding up, it will become completely overwhelming. If your sex life is a daily frustration, your loved one won't fight for you, and it's impossible to open up to them anymore it's time to take a minute and realize that you can't keep fighting the truth. Ask yourself, is this worth fighting for?

Celebrity Break-Up: Scarlett Johansson Reportedly Files for Divorce From Romain Dauriac

By Delaney Gilbride

In latest celebrity news, it looks like this is the end of the road for actress Scarlett Johansson and Romain Dauriac. Page Six reports that Johansson has officially filed for divorce after two years of marriage with her French husband. EOnline.com publicized that the news comes only two months after the celebrity couple had split, although the two had been spotted together on multiple occasions supposedly on good terms. The two are parents to their daughter, Rose Dorothy Dauriac, and the couple has kept their family life under wraps following her birth in Fall 2014. Dauriac's attorney Harold Mayerson released a statement explaining that Dauriac "would like to move to France with his daughter and Ms. Johansson does a lot of traveling." This will be Scarlett Johansson's second divorce as she split with Ryan Reynolds in 2010 after two years of marriage.

This celebrity break-up will definitely be hard on the whole family. What are some ways to make your divorce easier for your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Although getting a divorce is undoubtably difficult for you and your spouse, it's only that much harder for your kids. So, how can you make the transition easier for your children? Cupid's here with relationship advice that both you and your partner will need during the divorce process:

1. Keep yourself together around your kids: Everyone goes through the process of divorce differently. If your divorce is hitting you hard you have to make sure you don't show it around your children. Your emotions will rub off on your kids when they're looking to you on how to cope; keep your emotions in check so you can help them in the best way possible.

3. Let them know this isn't their fault: It's extremely important to remind your children that what's happening is between you and your spouse and that they are not at fault. You and your spouse need to remind your kids time after time that nothing they did had to do with the divorce and that you will continue to love them unconditionally no matter what.

Celebrity Break-Up: Jennifer Lopez and Drake End Their Whirlwind Romance

By Whitney Johnson

And just like that, it's over. Jennifer Lopez and Drake, who first sparked dating rumors in December when the rapper was spotted at her Las Vegas show (twice!), have called it quits. According to People.com, the celebrity relationship was "never very serious." Prior to their celebrity break-up, the pair collaborated together in the studio and were just "having fun." As a source explained late last year, "They are spending a lot of time together and really enjoying each other, but right now, it's about the music." That's not to say things didn't get serious fast: The former celebrity couple spent New Year's Eve together, and the pop star even introduced her rapper beau to her kids, Max and Emme. Reports of a celebrity break-up first appeared earlier this month.

Although we're saddened by another celebrity break-up, it sounds like this celebrity relationship was never very serious. What are some signs that it's time to call it quits with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

As soon as the fun stopped, this celebrity couple decided to go their separate ways. But for many pairs, knowing it's time to end a relationship isn't that easy. Here are three signs that it's time to call it quits:

1. The annoyances are piling up: It's normal to have a pet peeve or two, but if everything your partner does is bothersome to you, you shouldn't ignore your feelings. It's one thing to be annoyed by the way he chews his food; it's another to be bothered by how he's always late, the way he never fixes his hair, the way he throws his dirty clothes on the floor...

2. Your lives don't mesh: You're always busy with work and your girlfriends. He never wants to spend his free time with you. You can't compromise about what movie to see or what to cook for dinner. You should want to be together. If life keeps getting in the way of that, it's a clear sign that your relationship is over.

3. You can't see a future together: You want your relationship to have staying power. If you start to feel like you're only living in the now and have no chance at a future life together, it's time to say good-bye. Don't waste your time with the wrong guy; instead, go searching for Mr. Right!

Celebrity Break-Up: Paris Jackson & BF Michael Snoddy Call it Quits

By Whitney Johnson

It looks like Paris Jackson is back on the market...for now. As confirmed by UsMagazine.com, the aspiring actress, who is set to appear in Fox's new series Star, recently split from her boyfriend of less than a year Michael Snoddy. Speaking about the celebrity break-up, an insider said, "It appears that Paris and Michael have parted ways for now, but their future is uncertain. She is doing well, enjoying being on set and focusing her energy on the opportunities ahead." Just last month, the former celebrity couple enjoyed a romantic trip to Paris, France. Only time will tell what the future holds for this celebrity relationship!

Paris Jackson is focusing on her career following her celebrity break-up. What are some ways to cope right after a hurtful split?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Work, work, work: The worst thing you can do is sit around and mope about your split. Take a cue from Jackson and throw yourself into your career instead. Accept an extra project or two. Offer to work overtime. Who knows – your efforts may even pay off with a promotion or raise!

3. Plan a trip: Sometimes, the best way to get over heartbreak is to distance yourself from it. Get out of town – literally! Escape the winter blues, and head to somewhere sandy and sunny. It's impossible to be sad while you're wearing a new bathing suit and sipping a strawberry daiquiri on the beach.

David Foster Talks Life After Celebrity Divorce from Yolanda Hadid

By Whitney Johnson

Music producer David Foster recently opened up about his celebrity divorce from Real Housewives of Beverly Hills alum Yolanda Hadid and revealed that being single in his sixties is better than expected. According to UsMagazine.com, in a recent interview with Vanity Fair, Foster candidly said, “I tend to go from marriage to marriage – leaving one wife for another. This is the first time in my adult life that I’ve been single.

It's a very powerful feeling, but I'm not used to it." The former celebrity couple first announced their split in December 2015, and Hadid officially filed for divorce the next month.

This celebrity divorce proves that being single is a “powerful feeling.” What are some ways to embrace being single?

Cupid's Advice:

For many people, it's tempting to jump from relationship to relationship, but sometimes, the best thing is just to focus on yourself. Take time to get to know who you are and what you want out of life. Whether you're recovering from heartbreak or happily enjoying your alone time, check out this love advice for three ways to embrace being single:

1. Be selfish: When you're in a relationship, it's important to compromise, but when you're single, it's okay to make it all about you. Watch your favorite movies. Read your favorite books. Spend your time however you want to spend it – and don't feel bad about it! Do whatever makes you happy.

2. Focus on your non-romantic relationships: It's easy to let your friendships fall to the wayside when you're in love and wanting to be with your boyfriend 24/7. Now is the time to rebuild those relationships. Make an effort to grab coffee with an old college friend or throw a dinner party for your best girlfriends.

3. Set new goals: Instead of wallowing in self-pity and loneliness, use this opportunity to better yourself. Professionally, go after that promotion at work, or if you're unhappy in your current job, look for a new one. Personally, train for a half-marathon, paint your bedroom a cheery yellow, or start writing that book. Just because you don't have someone by your side doesn't mean your life can't be happy and fulfilled.

Celebrity Break-Up: Scarlett Johansson & Husband Romain Dauriac Split After Two Years of Marriage

By Whitney Johnson

Scarlett Johansson is starting the year off on a rough note: UsMagazine.com reported that the actress is splitting from French journalist Romain Dauriac, her husband of two years. The celebrity couple went public with their relationship in November 2012 and announced their engagement in September 2013. They welcomed their daughter Rose the following year and wed in a secret celebrity wedding in October 2014. Unfortunately, this divorce isn't the first celebrity break-up for Johansson. The Captain America: Civil War star split from Ryan Reynolds in 2011 after three years of marriage.

It's unfortunate that this celebrity break-up has become a reality. What are some things you can do in your relationship before resorting to divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

With news of this celebrity break-up, another famous couple is calling it quits, but before you and your partner resort to divorce, know that there are ways to determine whether or not your relationship is worth saving. Check out our love advice below:

1. Talk to a therapist: Sometimes, it's nice to have a neutral third-party listening when you're discussing your biggest problems. They may be able to help you see a situation in a new light, encouraging you to give your partner another chance.

2. Date your partner again: It's common for longtime couples to get caught up in the hustle and bustle of everyday life and forget what brought them together in the first place. Instead, make an effort to date your spouse again. Leave your phone at home, forget about your work or family troubles, and just focus on each other.

3. Think about what you want: It's time to define what you want from your marriage and your partner. Talk to each other about your hopes for your relationship and see if you can truly make things work. Filing for divorce is a big step, and you want to be sure it's the only option before you move in that direction.

Former Celebrity Couple Angelina Jolie & Brad Pitt Agree to Seal Divorce Documents

By Justin Thomas

Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie, popularly known as “Brangelina,” galvanized fans when news of Jolie filing for divorce hit the tabloids back in September. The celebrity couple had been together since 2005, although they’ve been married for only two years. The split has been publicly scandalous, with the couple going back and forth with serious allegations against one another. Pitt was investigated and cleared of child abuse by the FBI and the L.A. County Department of Children and Family Services in November after allegations came up in reference to an alleged incident with son Maddox. In December, a judge denied Pitt's request to seal documents in his custody battle, but the new arrangement came last week after reports of Jolie agreeing to seal the court documents were issued by TMZ. The story of this celebrity divorce will no longer be the gift that keeps on giving.

This former celebrity couple is obviously seeking some privacy. What are some ways to keep your break-up details on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is definitely hard to do, but sometimes keeping things under wraps can give you that personal space to keep the peace and a clear mind. Here are some helpful tips to keep your break-up private:

1. Don't be hasty: During a break-up, it can be easy to make rash decisions or statements, but give yourself some time to breathe and recollect your thoughts before making any moves.
