What are some ways to work on your troubled marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a sad thing when a marriage starts falling apart. When you said those vows, you planned on the relationship lasting a lifetime, and it may seem hard now, but it's not too late! If you want your marriage to work, you need to put in the effort. You loved each other once, and you can learn to do it again:

1. Spend some time alone together. Take time off work, turn off your phones, and go somewhere relatively peaceful. Maybe that's just staying home, or maybe it's going away on vacation. Either way, you need to put off other sources of stress and spend some relaxing, peaceful time as a couple.

2. Take some time to work on yourself. Marriage and time might have changed you, and you're no longer the person you were when you first met your partner. Find out if this change is the reason you're now unhappy in the relationship and whether or not you've changed for the better. Your partner should do the same, but that's their own choice to make.

3. Just talk about it. You've probably heard this a million times before, but it's probably the most important part of any relationship. Talk about what you want out of life, what you want out of your partner, and what you're not getting out of the marriage that you would like to have. There's a reason it's called 'awkward' silence. Nothing gets fixed if you just ignore it.

Cupid's Advice:

Getaways with your honey are well-needed not only during the rough patches, but also just to keep the spark alive or possibly light the fire even more. Cupid has a few other ways a vacation can help strengthen your relationship:

1. Alone time: One of the biggest perks about a vaca is the isolation spent with your partner. The world back at home is cancelled out for that period of time. Your primary focus is having an enjoyable break and giving all of your attention to each other. The four looked to be having great fun as they rode the water by Woods' home in Miami, Florida. But Vonn's family involvement doesn't stop there. According to UsMagazine.com, Vonn has even been seen taking Woods' two kids to school herself. Vonn and Woods first announced their relationship on Facebook in March.

How do you introduce yourself to your partner's kids?

Cupid's Advice:

A new relationship means meeting new family members, so how do you handle meeting your partner's children? Cupid has advice to help you:

1. Introduce yourself gradually: Suddenly appearing in a child's life out of nowhere is a huge change for them. You need to enter their life slowly through events, on neutral ground. Think going to the movies or the zoo. Don't just start hanging out at your partner's home all the time from the get-go.

2. Be honest: Don't pretend to be 'just a friend'. This is a bad way to approach the situation. Once it becomes apparent that you're dating the child's dad or mom, your relationship may create unwanted negativity.

3. Give them space: Now that you are in their lives, make sure you are not always present. It is important that the children still have quality time with their parent. Allow the children to have this opportunity. Don't hover over the family.

Celebrity Couple: Giuliana and Bill Rancic Put Their Marriage First and Child Second

By Meghan Fitzgerald

Celebrity couple Giuliana and Bill Rancic told UsMagazine.com that they “make their relationship a priority, even when there’s their cutest baby ever” around. Similarly, Hollywood Life reported that the twosome believe that the best thing they can do for their son is to have a strong marriage, hence why they put their marriage first and their child second. The couple refers to themselves as husband and wife but also best friends.

What are some ways to work on your marriage when you have children?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you have a child, your marriage will change and may require some extra work. Of course, it’s challenging to focus on your relationship when you have a new baby that requires a lot of attention. Lucky for you, Cupid has some advice to help improve your relationship!

1. Communication: Working on your marriage requires constant communication, especially when you have children. You and your partner must check-in with each other and make sure you're both on the same page. When you have an issue, it's important to confront your significant other. Don't let your emotions build up, as it may drive a wedge between the two of you. Strong communication skills will not only improve your ability to be a good husband or wife but also a good parent.

2. Time: It'll take some time to adjust to having a child; you won't suddenly adapt to a lifestyle full of diapers and lack of sleep. Be patient with yourself and your partner as you get used to being a threesome instead of a twosome.

3. Love: Your marriage will not suffer as much if you remember how much you love your significant other – especially during the most stressful moments. You need to stay fully connected to your partner to maintain a strong relationship and be the best parents possible to your baby.

Denise Richards and Charlie Sheen Bring Kids on a Winter Vacation

Charlie Sheen is spending the holiday season a little differently this year, reports People. The actor and his ex, Denise Richards, are vacationing with their daughters at an unknown tropical location. Sheen posted a photo of the family on the social networking site WhoSay with the caption, "What's better than a modern family vacation!?! love spending winter break w/ @denise_richards & my kids!"

Though having the family together may seem beneficial, there are some downsides to a shared vacation. Here are a few things to consider before vacationing with your ex and the kids:

- 1. Payment: Make sure that you and your ex come to an agreement about the cost of the trip. Decide if the two of you will split the cost of the hotel room, meals and outings ahead of time.
- 2. Living arrangements: Before you invite your ex on vacation, make sure you review your living arrangements. If you are planning on staying in a hotel, make sure your room has enough beds for your whole family to sleep comfortably (and separately).

3. Your feelings: If you and your ex still have a strained relationship, vacationing together is not the best idea. Your kids may love having the family together, but they will not enjoy it if you and your ex spend the getaway bickering.

When you're stressed as a couple, how do you briefly get away?

Cupid's Advice:

Stress can really put a strain on a relationship. Here are some ways to relieve your stress as a couple:

1. Go on a date out of town: Taking a night off in a town you've never visited before can be a great way to relax and let loose. You're not likely to run into anyone you know, and there's a certain excitement involved in exploring a new location.

2. Couples massage: You may not have time to dedicate to getting out of town, but there are spas and/or massage therapists almost everywhere. Make an appointment for a couples massage and let your worries slip away.

3. Let go of responsibility and go out: Sometimes we get so used to our routines that we forget to spice it up every once in a while. Forget about laundry, dishes and paperwork for a night. Get a babysitter if you need one, and hit the town with your partner. Bring it back to the good old days when you didn't have "real life" to worry about as much.
