In celebrity news, is it possible that Hilary Duff and Matthew Koma tied the knot in secret? What are some benefits to keeping your nuptials on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not uncommon for celebrity couples to secretly get married. Their entire lives are handed to the public on a silver platter. Privacy is something they don't take for granted, so it's understandable that there are some aspects of their world that they would like to keep separate. But, this isn't just helpful for celebrity relationships. It can be just as beneficial for anyone to keep their private life... well, private. Here are some of Cupid's best relationship advice on why getting married on the down-low can actually be a good thing:

1. Filtered social media: The advancements in the visual aspect of social media has changed how we get attention from our peers. However, if you become obsessed with recognition and likes, it can negatively affect your relationship. It begins to blossom when a couple notices that they're more in love with the idea of their relationship being flaunted online than they actually are being in the relationship. Keeping your marriage private can help in keeping both of your motivations pure as you step into the next part of your lives together. It's important to note when you're in a partnership with another because you have a genuine bond versus when you love the views that social media gives you for that partnership.

2. Fewer riffs due to privacy: When you share almost every waking moment of your marriage online or with others, it hinders the relationship from having a bond that should be shared only with each other. Most spouses aren't exactly excited to know that the majority of their relationship is exposed to third parties. This can cause drama and unnecessary issues in your marriage when others know about problems or complications that are normally kept quiet.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Justin Bieber & Hailey Baldwin Tie the Knot for the Second Time

3. Less opportunity for exes to meddle: No matter what, it seems like some exes just don't allow you to ever be happy. The only thing worse than friends or family being in your marriage's business is if an ex is meddling in it as well. This can damage your relationship if your marriage isn't built on the strongest of foundations. Disclosing information to your ex or those who know your ex can be harmful, and it should be something that isn't taken lightly. Don't allow yourself to be vulnerable, and always be wise.

Not everyone wants a big wedding extravaganza. Eloping is an ongoing trend that started with rebellious teenagers and made its way to becoming more popular among all ages. Cupid has some tips and tricks you can use to make your mini wedding one to remember:

1. Take a trip somewhere: Inviting everyone to a vacation spot is not always realistic. It can be costly for your guests, and many of them won’t be able to swing it. It's even better if the loved one has created their own, personalized song for the occasion. It proves to be very intimate, and it can give the family member such honor to perform at your ceremony.

3. Honoring the deceased: It's always a very personal and touching part of a wedding if the bride and groom take time to honor family members and loved ones that are no longer with them. There are many ways to do this. You can ask for a moment of silence for the departed. You can have family members come light a candle out of remembrance. Or, my personal favorite, is for a tree to be planted in honor of those that have been lost. Make it an uplifting part of your ceremony where it seems like they're celebrating alongside you.

We share so many similar interests and values and we know this will stand us in great stead for the years ahead, full of love and happiness.”

There’s another royal celebrity wedding in the works! How do you know your partner wants to marry you for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a beautiful thing, but knowing when a long-term partner is wanting to marry you for the right reasons can be harder to decipher than one might think. Walking down the aisle is a big commitment, and it's important to know that your significant other is in it for the same reasons you are. If you're thinking about marriage, but you don't know exactly how to tell if your partner is sincere, don't fret! Luckily, Cupid has some love advice that will help you know if your partner is the real deal or not:

1. They make future plans with you in them: Let's be honest, most people don't talk about things they would rather not entertain. But, if your partner has been making plans about their future and you're apart of it, this could be a great way to know that they're marrying you for the right reasons. Bringing up future plans, in general, is a good sign in knowing how much they trust you, as well. They're opening their thoughts to your opinion about something important to them because they value it that much!

2. Other people tell you that they brag about how great you are when you're not around: An important part of a relationship is in how that person treats you when you're not there. How do they talk about you? How do they discuss your relationship? If friends, coworkers, and family alike speak up about how highly they praise you outside of being together, it's a sign that they're in the relationship for the right reasons. Your spouse should be one of your favorite people, so make sure they're just as great without you as they are with you before saying "I do."

3. They don't run when things get tough: All relationships have their ups-and-downs. It's just in how you handle them that tells how healthy your relationship is. Challenges never fully disappear, and the longer you're together, the more challenges you'll face together. During these trying times, if your partner is determined to stay by your side and stick it through, that's a great indication that they're marrying you for the right reasons. Never commit yourself to anyone who runs when things get tough.

This celebrity wedding was a very Hawaiian affair! What are some themes to consider for your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Decorating isn't always the best part of planning for a wedding, but hosting a theme can really liven up the occasion. Themed weddings are always fun as they allow a couple to really express their style and creativity. It proves to be much more immersive as the theme can tie into invitations, hashtags, wedding cake, and more! Here are Cupid's suggestions of fun themes to consider for your wedding:

1. Under-the-sea wedding: A personal favorite is a wedding that has an underwater theme because it is a fun and unique way to entertain your guests! You can get crazy with table decorations by incorporating brightly colored fish into the centerpieces, print off aquatic invitations, and you can even set-up a photobooth station with a sea-life backdrop for everyone to take fun photos in front of. The color palette for this theme is so varied, you don't even have to worry about colors clashing. And, if you're invested enough, you might even be able to host your reception at a real aquarium!

2. Halloween wedding: A Halloween-themed wedding is one that never fails to be a memorable event. If you enjoy the holiday and love to dress up, consider this idea as one to plan your wedding around! Guests could come dressed up to the ceremony or reception in any costume they pleased as the decorations and meal revolve around the spooky day. There's not a shortage of inspiration for ideas to really get into the Halloween spirit. Besides, who wouldn't want to come to a wedding that doubles as a costume party?

mothers of dragons, iron thrones, and medieval undertones? Celebrity News: Orlando Bloom Reveals How Past Divorce Affects Katy Perry Relationship

Once married to Miranda Kerr, Bloom learned the importance of growing with a partner and laying down a foundation for commitment, according to EOnline.com. In celebrity news, Orlando Bloom opened up about how his past divorce impacts his relationship with Katy Perry. What are some ways your past relationship can affect your new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Don't let the ghost of relationships past haunt your new romance. Learn from the mistakes from your ex and bring new perspective into your next relationship:

1. Intimacy: There's a lot from a past relationship that can cause anxiety in future partnerships. For example, being cheating on may make you jealous and paranoid as a future partner. This is a normal reaction, but it's something to learn from. Take your trauma and turn it into intimacy by confiding in your new significant other about your concerns.

3. It's a part of you: your past relationships are your history. You're bound to feel nostalgic or sentimental about your past at some point in this new relationship. Take a breath and realize you can miss what you once had with someone without wanting it back.

Perhaps there will be a celebrity wedding on the horizon finally for this Bachelorette couple. What are some ways to make your partner feel special during a long engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Wedding bells are in your future, but the road to the chapel is a long one. Fear not! Long engagements are challenging, but there are ways to reassure your partner and reaffirm your love during the process.:

1. Remember the date: Commit to small gestures that remind your partner you are excited for your nuptials, however far down the line they may be. Write the date with doodled hearts on your fridge's whiteboard, or leave your partner a sticky note reading "one year to go!" However you remind your significant other of your excitement, make it a fun, any day surprise.

2. Keep the romance going: Wedding planning can throw your brain into overdrive. Find a balance between excitement for your wedding and commitment to your love life by scheduling date nights where wedding talk is off the table.

Celebrity Wedding: Dwayne 'The Rock' Johnson Secretly Marries Lauren Hashian in Hawaii

By Ashley Johnson

In celebrity wedding news, Dwayne “The Rock” Johnson and Lauren Hashian tied the knot! The movie star may have been calling the Garcia Companies CEO his wife for years, but it was not until Sunday, August 18th the two made it official in true celebrity style. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple had a secret Hawaiian wedding, accompanied by traditional leis and a classic sunset. The wedding was picture-perfect, as the newlyweds posed in front of the waterfront after their nuptials and posted to Instagram, which caught the attention of many other celebrities, such as Tom Brady and Kevin Hart.

This celebrity wedding was a big surprise! What are some benefits to keeping your wedding under wraps?

Cupid’s Advice:

Getting married can be one of your most special moments in life, and you can feel very pressured in making sure that your big day is perfect for you and your partner. That being said, sometimes big life moments do not have to be such an event, but rather the moment itself is special enough. Sometimes getting carried away with a big guest list and making excessive plans can ruin the special moment, so Cupid has some advice on the benefits of keeping your wedding under wraps:

1. Fewer opinions: When fewer people know about your wedding or are invited to your wedding, it can put a lot less pressure on you and your partner. Everyone is going to have an opinion on something: the dress you are wearing, the food being served, the music being played at the wedding, etc., so it is best that you focus on yourself and your partner's needs/wants rather than those of numerous guests. It is yours and your partner's special day, and no one else's!

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: 'DWTS' Cheryl Burke and Matthew Lawrence Marry in San Diego

2. Less money: If you are keeping the big day just between you and your partner then you certainly have no one but yourselves to impress. You are free to make whatever arrangements you want to for your wedding and do not have to worry about it being so extravagant for a big group of people. Anything like food, drinks, or seating will be completely up to you, as there will be very few or no guests in attendance.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding News: Zoe Kravitz & Karl Glusman Secretly Married

3. More special: Your wedding could be a whole lot more special with just your dearest friends and family. Big extravaganzas can be fun, but they will not be as intimate as a small wedding with a select guest list. When your closest loved ones are there to watch you and your partner make vows to each other it can make the moment feel a lot more special, as opposed to inviting a list of guests you have no direct relationship with.

Celebrity Wedding: Fans Think Kylie Jenner Is Getting Married Soon

By Ashley Johnson

Keeping Up With the Kardashians star Kylie Jenner has recently been seen wearing a whole lot of new bling, including a weighty diamond ring. According to EOnline.com, she and boyfriend Travis Scott have also recently been spotted boarding a private plane while a white feathered dress was being loaded onto it, sparking wedding rumors.

In celebrity wedding news, there may be another Kardashian/Jenner celebrity wedding in the works! What are some ways to make your wedding unique?

Cupid's Advice:

If Jenner's wedding is anything like her birthday parties or occasional themed parties, it is sure to be extravagant and planned in true celebrity fashion. Weddings can be an overwhelming event to plan for even celebrity couples, but Cupid has some advice on some ways to make your wedding unique:

1. Greenery: The Bohemian bride look and greenery are in! Instead of having a traditional flower bouquet, try making a greenery hoop bouquet, which can include willow branches, eucalyptus, and an assortment of any other plants/flowers of your choosing. Instead of saying your vows under a traditional wooden arch, you can also look into having a plant-based circular wedding arch for that special moment.

2. Llamas: Many people include their own pets in their wedding, but there is a new trend in which people are now including llamas and alpacas. You can pet them, take photos with them, and even dress them up in bridal gear or groom suits for the occasion. A fun and furry wedding will definitely be a wedding to remember!

3. Destination: If you and your guests have the expenses to do so, traveling for nuptial can be fun and exciting! There are so many places to choose from for a romantic getaway, but try to choose a place that really resonates with you and your fiancé. Also, don't feel pressured to have your destination wedding somewhere tropical (and typical) like Hawaii or Florida Keys. You can plan to have it in the Catskills or Greenland if a winter wonderland wedding is what you wish to have!

will be heading down the aisle! What are some important things to remember when everyone around you is getting married and having babies?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a fact of life. Friends get married and then, eventually, have babies. Even if you aren't attached to someone yet, you don't need to rush to get married and have babies of your own. Cupid has a few ideas on what to remember when everyone around you is getting married and having babies:

1. Don't rush: You'll have marriage and babies when you are ready for it. Even if you're single, you don't need to put pressure on yourself to meet "the one". Rushing can lead to a lot of mistakes you'll regret later, like marrying the wrong person, and will make your life more difficult once children are involved.

2. You're not selfish: So what if your career is more important than marriage and kids right now? It's okay to focus on the things you want to do while you're still young. Write that novel, take that trip to Scotland for an Outlander tour, or soak up the sun in the Bahamas on a mini-vacay.

3. Your time will come: Nothing is more agitating than having your baby fever kick because of your first meeting your friend's cute new baby and you haven't met someone you're happy with yet. Take the time to enjoy being single. Date and find the right person.

Celebrity Wedding: 'Vanderpump Rules' Stars Tom Schwartz & Katie Maloney Get Official Marriage License in Vegas 2 Years After Wedding

By Katie Sotack

Vanderpump Rules stars Katie Maloney and Tom Schwartz will be making their celebrity wedding official! Two years after their big wedding celebration, which was televised on their reality show, 'N Sync's Lance Bass revealed that the marriage did not have an official license. According to EOnline.com, the couple failed to properly fill out the required paperwork. In celebrity wedding news, it looks like Tom and Katie will be officially tying the knot, as it was recently revealed that they didn't file appropriate paperwork after their wedding two years ago. What are some must-do's before your wedding day?

Cupid's Advice:

Congrats, you're engaged! Among the excitement as you rush to the alter, planning every last detail can feel like a juggling act. Here are some must haves before you say 'I do'.

1. The License: Learn your lesson from Tom and Katie and get a license. This is perhaps the most essential piece to a successful wedding, considering it confirms the actual marriage. If you don't know where to start, call or visit your local county clerk's office. Remember that the license will take some time to be processed.

2. Meet the officiant: Prior to the wedding, plan a meeting with your officiant. This will give you time to go over the ceremony and inform the officiant of your desires. The added benefit of meeting beforehand is that if your officiant is a regular at performing weddings (ie: priest, rabbi, officer of the court) they'll know the official documents you'll need to send in as well.

Celebrity Engagement: Bindi Irwin Is Engaged to Long-Time Boyfriend Chandler Powell

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Bindi Irwin and her long-time boyfriend, Chandler Powell, of six years are engaged. The celebrity couple got engaged on Irwin's birthday, July 24th, according to an Instagram post by Irwin. The couple did not rush into this engagement, dating for six years beforehand. According to UsMagazine.com, Irwin previously said that she and Powell were “enjoying their lives together.” Now that the time has come where the couple has taken that next step, it seems that Irwin is excited to marry the love of her life.

This celebrity engagement has been a long time coming! How do you know when you're ready for marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity couple took their time falling in love and enjoying their lives together before deciding to get engaged. There are no rules that say that you have to get engaged or married at a certain point in a relationship. Maybe you just want to enjoy your lives together without the pressure of what society thinks you should do like Irwin and Powell, or maybe you just want to take your time before making a lifetime commitment. Cupid has some advice to help you know when you're ready for marriage:

1. You know yourself: Before you tie yourself to another person for life it's important to be confident in the person you are. According to MyDomaine.com, therapist Kimberly Hershenson, LMSW, says, “A successful marriage is more likely if both partners feel secure independently and are able to work as a team moving forward.” One way to help you learn yourself is to experience independence. That may mean being single a while, living on your own, or being financially independent.

2. You include your partner in future plans: When you think about your future do you automatically envision your partner there with you? If so then you might be ready for marriage. It doesn't mean that you want or need your partner/spouse present at every social event in your life. It does, however, mean you consider them when you're thinking about or planning the important, meaningful events in your future.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Karlie Kloss & Joshua Kushner Celebrate Marriage with Star-Studded Party

3. You are okay with the fact it won't just be about you anymore: As an adult, you might be set in your ways. Maybe you like the house organized a certain way, want to eat dinner at a specific time every night, or have big dreams. When you find a partner and you know you're ready to get married you will understand that you must learn to put their wants and needs ahead of your own at times. You may have to compromise on things you've gotten used to on your own, but you are okay with that because you want a life with your partner.
