By

Maggie Manfredi

We hear wedding bells in Hollywood! According to UsMagazine.com, Twilight star Peter Facinelli proposed to Thor starlet Jaimie Alexander. The couple started dating in November of 2012, eight months after Facinelli's divorce from Jennie Garth. 1. Stay strong: No matter what the situation is, always stay strong and take the high road. Remember there is always light at the end of the tunnel, and you and your partner will get through it! Don’t worry about what people say; all that matters is what you and your partner think and feel!

Celebrity Engagement: Chris

Soules Proposes to Whitney Bischoff on 'The Bachelor' Season 19 Finale

By

Emma L. Wells

After ten weeks of searching on reality TV, Prince Farming has finally found his Princess! On the finale episode of The Bachelor season 19, Chris Soules, armed with a Neil Lane engagement ring, got down on one knee and proposed to Whitney Bischoff, a 29-year-old fertility nurse from Chicago. "Everything about this moment feels right," he told her. According to ABC News, Bischoff seemed to be the obvious choice after the other contestant, Becca Tilley, confessed that she wasn't ready to jump into a celebrity engagement and commit to a life in Arlington with Soules. During the "After the Final Rose” special, it was easy to see that the reality TV pair is thrilled to just be a “normal” couple.

This celebrity couple found true love on reality TV, but not all of us have that option. What are some unique ways to meet your soulmate?

Cupid's Advice:

Unlike the lucky celebrity couple from The Bachelor season 19, most of us don't have reality TV producers arranging the perfect circumstances for us to find relationships and love. If we want it, we have to go out and look for it ourselves! It's certainly not easy, but Cupid has some love advice about how to meet your soulmate:

1. Take part in group activities: You'll want to have common interests with your future partner, so why not participate in group activities that relate to your hobbies? Take an Italian cooking class or sign up to learn Spanish. Join an intramural kickball league or a hobby club. It will be easy to strike up a conversation with someone over your shared interests while interacting in this laidback setting.

2. Ask your friends: There's a reason why so many dating websites and apps give you matches based on your Facebook friends: You're more likely to hit it off with someone who your pals already like! If you're looking for a relationship and love, ask your friends for help. They know you well and know what you want in a partner. If you're nervous about a blind date, you can always plan a double or group date instead to ease any awkwardness.

3. Look online: It can be hard to find the time and place to meet someone special. There's nothing wrong with searching through a reputable dating site – it's one of the reasons they were invented! It gives you the opportunity to judge potential matches at your own pace. There's also a lot less pressure if you've talked online before you meet in person.

Lena Dunham Puts Off Celebrity Wedding in Support of Marriage Equality

By

Jenna Bagcal

Wedding bells won't be ringing anytime soon for this famous couple. In the latest celebrity news, Girls Lena Dunham and Jack Antonoff from the band Fun have decided to postpone their wedding until, she says, "Everyone can get married in all 50 States." According to People.com, during her appearance on Ellen, Dunham said that a celebrity marriage would not be taking place until everyone in the United States had marriage equality.

Lena and Jack are holding off on their celebrity wedding. What are three other reasons people delay their big day?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're in love, getting married may be at the top of your list of priorities. But sometimes, like with famous couple Lena and Jack, weddings are postponed for a good reason. Cupid shares three reasons why you might put a hold on upcoming wedding plans:

1. You feel like you don't fully know your partner: Whether you've been in a relationship and love with your partner for nine months or nine years, people say that you'll know when the right time is for you to get married. While that may be true, and while you may be deeply in love, there are always new things to discover about your significant other. Before you tie the knot, make sure that you have taken a sufficient amount of time to get to know the ins and outs of your partner to ensure that you are prepared for this lifelong commitment.

2. You and your partner are not yet financially stable: Before you get married, making sure that you have enough money saved to build your life together is an important factor to consider. If you find yourself struggling financially and living paycheck to paycheck, you might want to consider postponing your nuptials. Ensuring that you have financial stability will lead to a stable marriage for you and your partner.

3. You and your partner are not on the same page: Before you say "I do," make sure that you and your significant other are on the same page. That includes topics such as, whether you want children, what your priorities are when it comes to having a career, or where you want to live when starting your lives together. If you and your significant other cannot agree on such serious topics, you two are not on the same page.

Former 'Bachelor' Jason Mesnick Surprises Celebrity Love Molly Malaney for Fifth Wedding Anniversary

By

Emma L. Wells

It has always been a tradition for celebrated jeweler Neil Lane to offer a selection of engagement rings before the finale of The Bachelor. Jason Mesnick and celebrity love Molly Malaney met during season 13 of the reality TV show, but Malaney never received one of these coveted rings because she was technically the runner-up. Now that this famous couple has been married for five years, Mesnick wanted to rectify the situation by giving his wife a new engagement ring for their anniversary. Malaney told People.com, “The past five years have been the most amazing years of my life because of Jason. Our relationship and love started all because of The Bachelor franchise, and Neil has been such a meaningful person within the franchise, so I am so honored to have a piece of that relationship...This is the most amazing gift I’ve ever received!”

This reality TV star gave his celebrity love a beautiful ring for their recent anniversary. What are some ways you can make sure your romantic surprise goes off without a hitch?

Cupid's Advice:

While diamonds are always a great way to show you care, little romantic surprises are also beneficial for relationships and love. Cupid has some relationship advice to help you pull them off without any issues:

1. Be unexpected: Thoughtful presents are a wonderful way to demonstrate that you’ve been listening to your partner. Give them something they want but aren’t expecting. If you pay attention, they are bound to mention something you can keep in mind!

celebrity love had it made especially for her. Go the extra mile and give your significant other something unique and just for them. Even if it's homemade, they'll surely appreciate the effort.

3. Ask for help: Surprises can be very hard to pull off, especially when you're excited about them. It doesn't hurt to ask a few friends to help you succeed. Also, make sure your plans aren't too elaborate. Chances are, if you follow these guidelines, your surprise will be a success!

Portwood and Baier are happy to announce their celebrity engagement, and sources say Portwood has changed a lot since the last time she was on TV. How do you know you're in a good place emotionally to get married?

Cupid's Advice:

Taking the next step in a relationship and love can be scary if you aren't sure you're ready. Jumping into a marriage too quickly and without confidence can lead to a nasty break-up. Here's Cupid advice on what to check for to see if you're ready to walk down the aisle:

1. You don't always put your needs first: You are now able to recognize that in order for this partnership to work, compromises need to be made. Relationships, especially marriages, are a constant give and take, and finding a balance between the two will help ensure no one's feelings are pushed aside.

3. Trust issues have disappeared: If your partner goes out with some friends for a few drinks, you don't feel the need to constantly check up on them and see what they are doing. You trust them and don't need an alibi when they get home.

She thought I was going to propose on national TV in front of one billion people.” Although they agree right now would be too soon to tie the knot, a celebrity engagement for the lovely duo is likely in the future.

Celebrity engagements can be over-the-top! What are three ways to make your proposal memorable?

Cupid's Advice:

People will ask your partner about his or her marriage proposal for years to come, so it's best to make it unforgettable. Cupid has some tips:

1. Spontaneity: What is a whirlwind romance without being spontaneous at times? A great way to make a proposal special is by shocking your partner and taking their breath away. Sure, you may have discussed marriage and having children, but that doesn't mean your partner needs to know exactly when you will pop the question! Think about what you want to tell them, choose the perfect atmosphere, get down on one knee and bask in the happiness!

2. A picture is worth a thousand words: Capture your special moment on camera! It is something that you will remember and treasure for the rest of your lives together. You could have a photographer/videographer there to capture the moment for life, as well as having family and friends join you afterwards to make it special and announce it to your loved ones.

3. Detail oriented: The details of the proposal are important. What matters most, though, is the love you and your partner feel. Including significant details will only make the proposal that much more personal and memorable. It will show that you truly know your partner and the history that you have created together. Include their favorite flowers, ask their father for permission the old school way, choose a location that has meaning to the both of you, and plan the events before and after the proposal.

Former ‘Bachelorette’ Desiree Hartsock Shares Celebrity Wedding Photos

By

Emma L. Wells

There's another name to add to the list of successful love stories stemming from The Bachelorette! Former reality TV star Desiree Hartsock tied the knot with Chris Siegfried on Sunday, Jan. 18. While the church ceremony wasn't televised, they released exclusive photos of their celebrity wedding to UsMagazine.com earlier this week. They shared more than two dozen pictures from their special day, including the pretty invitations, the bridal party, and the salted caramel and Oreo cake (yum!). "In a relationship, you're always learning about someone, trying to figure out how they love, how they feel, how they think," Hartsock said following their big day. "I think it's the same with marriage. You continue getting stronger and growing with each other."

You don't have to be a reality TV star like this former Bachelorette to have photographs fit for a celebrity wedding. What are some ways to up the ante for your own wedding album?

Cupid's Advice:

You want to capture all the details of your wedding – from the dress to your first kiss as a married couple to the dancing. After all, these are memories you'll want to cherish and display forever! If you want a unique and special wedding album but don't have the budget of a celebrity wedding, Cupid has some tips:

1. Use disposable cameras: Add throwaway cameras as a part of your centerpieces and invite guests to get in touch with their inner amateur photographer. You can even buy customizable ones, so they match your color scheme and have your names and wedding date on them. Your loved ones will get involved and interact with each other while snapping candid photos all evening long. Not all of them will be Annie Leibovitz-impressive, but you'll end up with some really fun pictures for your album.

Related Link: 'The Bachelor' Runner-Up Lindsay Yenter Is Engaged

2. Rent a photo booth: Photo booths are becoming a really big trend at weddings: They're a great way to capture photos of all of your guests, and the strip of photos can be your wedding favor. You can rent one for the reception, or go the DIY route by hanging a black sheet for a backdrop, finding a friend whose willing to snap pics throughout party, and buying a travel printer. To make photos you'll still enjoy looking at in 20 years, hit a thrift store or costume store and pick up some fun accessories for your guests to wear while they pose.

3. Create your own hashtag: Getting your friends and family involved is a sure-fire way for you to see all of the special photos of your big day. Pick an event hashtag for your wedding; be creative and come up with a cute couple nickname or keep it simple with just your married last name and the year. Make sure it's not a popular hashtag though, or it will be harder to collect all of your photos. Post the hashtag somewhere in venue – like above the bar or on the cocktail napkins – and ask your attendees to use it whenever they Instagram, Facebook, or Tweet throughout the day.

Lakers game. This was the pair's first post-wedding public appearance and their faces lit up as they noticed they'd been singled out at the game. They giggled and shared a tender kiss, showing off their celebrity love.

Cameron Diaz is in a permanent state of happiness after her extravagant celebrity wedding and honeymoon with husband Benji Madden. What are three ways you can keep your relationship exciting when the wedding festivities are over?

Cupid's Advice:

Some of the excitement in a relationship and love can die down after an exhilarating couple of months of being engaged and then having a beautiful ceremony, celebrity wedding or not. Keep in mind that your relationship needs nurturing, so make things exciting after the festivities are over:

1. Little rituals: Small, little rituals like making coffee for each other in the morning or going out to a game together every now and then like Diaz and Madden do, can keep your partner on their toes and excited. Consider leaving random gifts around the house for your spouse to find or having small gifts to delivered to him or her at work.

Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello Reveal Fall Celebrity Wedding Plans

By

Rebecca White

Another celebrity wedding is underway. Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello recently revealed that they will tie the knot this coming fall. The famous couple got engaged over the holidays after only six months of dating and the marriage plans are not moving much slower. According to UsMagazine.com, although the Hollywood couple are still finalizing the wedding date, one thing they do know is that their celebrity wedding will be huge. "It's going to be big," Vergara said. "We started off with 20 [on the guest list], and now there's like pages and pages."

Whether it's a celebrity wedding or not, timing is crucial. What are some ways to decide when to have your wedding like this famous couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Setting the date of your wedding is one of the hardest decisions to make after getting engaged. Should you go for a long engagement or a short one? Should you follow the love advice of your family and friends, or follow your heart? Cupid has some tips:

1. Choose your season: First, let's start broad and then narrow our way to the perfect date. Choosing the season you want to get married comes first. Do you want summer beach pictures? Would you prefer pictures with the leaves changing color in the fall? Think of what season makes for the best pictures.

Related Link: Sofia Vergara Is Engaged to Joe Manganiello After Only Six Months of Dating

2. Choose your price: The budget can actually decide when the ceremony will take place. For example, June, July, August, and September are the most popular times to marry, so the prices during these months will be higher. Also, deciding to marry on a weekday instead of the weekend can save money, as Saturday night weddings carry a hefty price tag.

Related Link: Sofia Vergara Speaks Out About New Boyfriend Joe

Manganiello

3. Keep in mind the no-no days: After choosing what season, what month, and whether or not it will be a weekend or weekday, then you have to keep in mind specific days. For example, take a poll of the most important people who have to be there and block off their no-no days. Keep in mind various religious holidays, crunch time at work, and any other plans that may come in the way. Choosing your no-no days will narrow down your options once again, and then you're ready to decide!

Engaged!

By

Katie Gray

After a whirlwind romance, Dylan McDermott and Maggie Q are engaged! This celebrity engagement is taking the entertainment industry by storm. According to UsMagazine.com, McDermott actually proposed to Maggie Q months ago but only recently presented her with a ring while spending time together during a celebrity getaway to Hawaii.

Celebrity engagements are announced all over the tabloids, but the rest of us need to make such an announcement ourselves. What are three creative ways to share that you're preparing to tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Announcing your engagement can be as straightforward or creative as you want it to be. That being said, why not make it fun? Cupid has some love advice:

1. Take engagement photos: At some point during your engagement, you may want to have special photos taken. It's always sweet to send them out to your loved ones and post them on social media. Get really creative with it by doing something unique and personalized to who you are as a couple. Use props like chalkboards or wooden signs with your wedding date or monogram on them.

2. Make a clever announcement: During this special moment in your life, you may want to announce your big news in a witty and cute manner. Consider recreating a film poster like Mr. & Mrs. Smith starring Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie or The Notebook starring former famous couple Ryan Gosling and Rachel McAdams. Or put together a fake tabloid magazine cover using your own pictures. Celebrity engagement announcements will have nothing on you!

3. Use humor: As with any other point in your life, it's good to have a sense of humor. Think about creating a funny card.

There are some that say things like, “Keep Calm. He Put A Ring On It.” Another idea is that you and your partner could write a poem or a jingle together and then perform it for the people you want to tell via video or in person. The key is to be creative and think outside the box.

Jennifer Aniston Says Justin Theroux Gave Her “A Rock”

By

Sarah Batcheller

A celebrity engagement is everyone's favorite vicarious event. Taking a look at UsMagazine.com, you can get a close-up of the enormous engagement ring that Jennifer Aniston is sporting. According to the latest celebrity gossip, the actress says of the impeccable rock that her fiancé and Wanderlust costar Justin Theroux gave to her, "He rocked it up...It took me a while to get used to it. I'm not a diamond girl. I'm more Indian jewelry and stuff." The celebrity couple has been together since 2012.

Whether or not you're inspired by a celebrity engagement, how can you find out what type of ring your partner wants?

Cupid's Advice:

Asking too many questions will give away the big surprise, so here's Cupid's advice on how to stealthily pick out a diamond worthy of a celebrity engagement:

1. Log in: You say: "Hey babe, I'm going to use your laptop to check my e-mail really quick!" What you mean is: "Hey babe, I'm going to open up your Pinterest account because I know that you've been pinning images of vintage-style diamond rings that appeal to you!"

2. Listen to their style opinions: If you're a guy, it's hard to listen to everything your partner says about fashion, but if you do, you can use these comments as clues as to what kind of rock they would like. Is your significant other's style more classic than trendy? She may want a round diamond. Is she super girly? Perhaps something extra sparkly will catch her eye.

3. Ask their friends: Easy as 1,2,3! Ask your honey's friends what kind of ring they want. If you have known for a while that marriage is in your future, it's inevitable that your partner has discussed every detail with their pals. Just make sure these friends can keep it hush-hush until the proposal!

What are some perks of having your wedding at home?

Cupid's Advice:

If a big wedding at a fancy venue isn't your style, why not consider getting hitched in your own backyard? Here are some perks of having your wedding at home:

1. It's easy to plan: Getting married at your house eliminates the need to search for the perfect spot to say your vows. Sure, you'll still need to find a caterer and other vendors, but securing the location is always step one! Plus, you don't have to worry about your favorite locale being booked on the date you want.

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Secretly Marries Girlfriend Tasha McCauley

By

Whitney Johnson

There's no doubt that Joseph Gordon-Levitt's Don Jon character would be disappointed: The actor is now a married man! According to UsMagazine.com, he secretly wed girlfriend Tasha McCauley on Dec. 20 at their home. The star, who is known for keeping his private life to himself, opened to Howard Stern about his relationship, saying "I think I'm a pretty good person and a good boyfriend. Yeah, I just wouldn't want to be with someone who was disrespectful to me."

What are some benefits of keeping your nuptials under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Not every bride and groom dreams of a big wedding with extravagant bouquets, a five-course meal, and a guest list that includes everyone they've ever met. Some, like Gordon-Levitt and his new wife, prefer to keep their special day more low-key. Here are three benefits to keeping your nuptials under wraps:

1. You can make it personal: It's easy to get caught up in the festivities and start worrying about making your future mother-in-law or grandmother happy instead of focusing on what makes you and your partner happy. By keeping your big news to yourself, you'll be able to do what you want and just enjoy your time together as newlyweds.

2. You can save money: If you're trying to stick to a strict budget, remember that each additional guest costs more money. The smaller your wedding, the more you can save! Plus, with less people in attendance, you'll feel less pressure to fill the space with gorgeous (and expensive) flowers, candles, and other decor.

3. You can settle into life as husband and wife: Even if you've been together for a few years or already share a home, your relationship will inevitably change after you tie the knot. If you keep your big news private, you'll have a chance to get used to your new roles as spouses without your loved ones sharing their best pieces of (unsolicited) advice or nagging you about your thank you notes.

How do you decide how long to make your wedding ceremony?

Cupid’s Advice:

Your wedding ceremony is just that: yours! That being said, timing is a major decision you have to make when confirming the details of your big day. Cupid has some factors to consider:

1. Who will be: Keep in mind the amount of guests when deciding on the ceremony length. If there are a ton of people or a very small group, that may change the way you plan your ceremony. Think about who you want involved with the ceremony too; if you have one speaker versus three, that’ll impact the amount of time it takes to say your vows.

2. Where it is: If it's a hot August afternoon or a windy beach day, make sure to take that into account. Having guests who are uncomfortable – or a bride or groom who is uncomfortable, for that matter! – will spoil the mood.

3. What traditions you want to include: If you have plans to do something religious or traditional with your bridal party, don't get caught up on time. This is your one opportunity to have the celebration of love that you want, so do what makes you happy.

Elton John and Partner David Furnish Marry in England

By

Katie Gray

Music legend and superstar, Elton John, tied the knot this weekend with his longtime partner, David Furnish! The duo got a civil partnership in 2005 and have been together for 21 years. They married in England, where same-sex marriage was recently legalized. According to UsMagazine.com, John said, “We’ll do it very quietly. But we will do it, and it will be a joyous occasion, and we will have our children [there]. For this legislation to come through is joyous, and we should celebrate it. We shouldn’t just say, ‘Oh well, we have a civil partnership; we’re not going to bother to get married’. We will get married.”

How do you incorporate your kids in your wedding?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you have children, you’ll no doubt want to include them in wedding festivities. Cupid has some ideas:

1. Tie the knot with family ties: When tying the knot, it’s wonderful to be able to include children in the celebrations!

Whether that means your own children or children of family members, it's a beautiful thing. Include the children in the wedding by simply inviting them to all of the events and festivities on the big day as well as the parties leading up to it. They'll simply be happy they're there with the adults.

2. Walk it out: A great way to involve kids in a wedding is by letting them be in the wedding party! Have them walk down the aisle as a flower girl, ring bearer, junior bridesmaid, or junior groomsmen. Let them hold the bride's bouquet during the ceremony or have another kind of task to make them feel important.

3. Put on a show: Consider allowing the children to sing a song or have a musical solo during the wedding reception. Let them entertain you and put on a nice show for your guests to enjoy. It will no doubt showcase the love in the room.
