

Celebrity Engagement: Justin Bieber 'Needed' This Engagement to Hailey Baldwin

By

Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, Justin Bieber and Hailey Baldwin's engagement seems to be just what this blossoming celebrity relationship needed. According to UsMagazine.com, we know Bieber's stardom came after being adored by the younger generation during his debut. Since then, the pop star hasn't been able to shake this image. The celebrity couple are more than excited for their future. With talks of a celebrity wedding, it looks like our Bieber is growing up.

This celebrity engagement came at a good time in Justin's life. What are some ways to know you're ready for marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Just when you think things can't get any better, BOOM, you're engaged! As exciting and overwhelming as it can be, marriage is a great goal to strive for. Cupid has some advice on ways to know if you are ready for marriage:

1. Slow and steady: Knowing if you are ready for marriage takes sitting down and examining your relationship. Rushing through things can eventually hurt your relationship. Remember, slow and steady wins the race. Take your time and sort things out. No relationship is perfect, but if you have a strong foundation, you may just be ready for marriage. Make sure you are taking enough time to think things over. While you don't want to have the longest engagement like Roy and Pam from The Office, make sure enough time is given to get things in order.

2. Be the bigger person: A big part of being in a relationship, let alone a marriage, is sometimes having to be the bigger person. Compromising is a big part of being in a relationship. Marriage is a lot of work and lots of added stress. Make sure you are able to utilize these important tools. Marriages are two way streets just like any other relationship. Be prepared.

3. Right is right: Make sure you are getting married for the right reasons. Don't get married because your cousin Michele, who is always in competition with you, just got married so now you have to out do her. Marriage is a sacred union and is something to be taken seriously. You are not only bounded together by faith, but by law. Those two words represent a lifetime commitment. If you are in it for the right reasons, then why not?

Bieber & Hailey Baldwin's Engagement

By

Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, Selena Gomez is reportedly unbothered by celebrity couple Justin Bieber and Hailey Baldwin's engagement. According to UsMagazine.com, Gomez was seen on a boat with her friends living her best life when news broke about the engagement. Bieber and Gomez were a couple from 2011 to 2015, on and off. After the celebrity relationship ended for the last time, Gomez and her circle don't speak about Bieber. Apparently in the past, Bieber had a habit of making his relationships very public to upset Gomez. By the looks of it, Gomez is more than okay with this recent development.

In celebrity news, there's no big green monster to be found in Selena Gomez. What are some ways to handle jealousy when your ex moves on with someone new?

Cupid's Advice:

In some cases it's hard to see an ex with someone new. As hard as it can be, you have to keep it together. Cupid has some advice on how to handle jealousy when your ex moves on with someone new:

1. Try not to look!: With social media taking over, it can be hard to avoid finding out about an ex and their new partner. As much as you may have the urge to lurk, don't look. Whether you broke up on good or bad terms, it will hurt the same when you see it. As long as you keep lurking, the more upset and angry you will get. Don't do it to yourself.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Why You Keep Attracting the Same Kind of Men

2. "I don't want to hear it": While your friends may think they are doing you a favor by telling you your ex's every move, you have to tell them that you don't want to hear it. Constantly hearing about your ex won't help you heal and move on. A good idea is to have a conversation with the people closest to you and have a mutual agreement on not bringing up your ex. This combined with fun with your loved ones will help you have a smooth and healthy healing.

3. It's not a competition: When seeing your ex with someone else, your first instinct may be to go out there and just jump into something with someone else. Bad idea! Keep your cool and take your time with getting back on the dating scene. Don't go out and hurt someone else to make your partner jealous. Not only will you hurt someone else, it will only hurt you more. Keep calm and work through it. Sometimes it gets worse before it gets better.

Celebrity Wedding: Surprise! Justin Bieber & Hailey Baldwin Are Engaged

By

Rhodesia Williams

In latest celebrity news, it looks like Justin Bieber and girlfriend Hailey Baldwin are engaged. According to EOnline.com, the on-again-off-again celebrity couple have been dating for three years. Within the last couple of weeks, Bieber and Baldwin started up their celebrity relationship again and have been in love ever since. Sources say the couple are very happy and enjoy each other's company. Who would've thought just a few weeks of a rekindled love would lead to a celebrity wedding?

There's a celebrity wedding in the works for Justin and Hailey. What are some ways to know you've been dating long enough to get engaged?

Cupid's Advice:

As time flies by in a relationship, it's normal to consider marriage. You may ask yourself, "When is the right time?" Cupid has some advice on ways to know you've been dating long enough to get engaged:

1. Are you ready?: Getting engaged is not only telling the world that you are ready to take the next step, but it's also letting each other know. Marriage is a big commitment and takes a lot of work. Although weddings are glorified with all that goes into it, after it's all said and done, you and your partner are now bound together. Have a serious talk with your soon-to-be spouse about the topic. While the amount of time you've spent together is a factor, more important is making sure you are both ready.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Handle Engagement Envy

2. Knowledge is power: When dating, you get to know just about everything you need to know about your partner. Make sure you know, understand and can accept your partner for who they are. It's not uncommon for people to get married and then realize that their partner either changed or started doing things that they've never seen or realized. If you are confident that you know your partner and can accept their flaws, then it sounds like you are just about ready.

3. Timing: Timing is everything when it comes to engagements. While for some, dating for a few months is considered a long time, others need years. If you are still working out important kinks in your relationship, it may be a little early to get engaged. Relationships are constant work but if you feel like you have put the time and effort in and you are ready, than why not? It's kind of like retirement; sometimes you just need the time in order to reap the benefits.

In celebrity news, previously long-time bachelor Hugh Grant wishes he would have tied the knot sooner. What are some benefits to marriage over simply being in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

While some dream of a big wedding, others are content without it. With people often asking about your marriage plans, Cupid has explains some of the benefits to marriage over a relationship:

1. Connections: Not only do you now share the same last name, you now share everything. To the world, no matter what, you two are connected and are seen as a unit. Even when things get tough, this new connection binds you together, forcing you to fix things.

Related Link: Expert Marriage Advice: Your Choice of Mate Can Make or Break Your Career

2. Insurance: While you are probably shocked at this, you shouldn't be. Once you are married, you as a couple can protect each other. God forbid something happens or somebody gets sick; it is important that one of you have insurance. As a married couple, you will be able to help each other as well benefit from other healthcare benefits. When in a regular relationship, you unfortunately can't do anything as a boyfriend or girlfriend but as a wife or husband, you are entitled to so much more.

3. Commitment: Similar to connections, marriages symbolizes the fact that you both are ready for that strong connection. As a couple you are taking vows to be together and work through issues that may arise. Although you are committed when you are in a relationship, the commitment to marriage is a huge step up and should only be taken when ready.

Celebrity Wedding: Cardi B Confirms She Secretly Married Offset in September 2017

By Ha

ley Lerner

In celebrity wedding news, Cardi B confirmed she secretly married fiancé Offset in September 2017. After there were rumors that the “Bodak Yellow” rapper tied the knot with the father of her future child, she addressed the gossip on Twitter. In her post on June 25, Cardi B said, “There are so many moments that I share with the world and there are moments that I want to keep for myself! Getting married was one of those moments! Our relationship was so new breaking up and making up and we had a lot of growing to do but we was so in love we didn't want to lose each other." The star wrote that the two had a low-key ceremony, saying, "We found someone to marry us, and she did, just the two of us and my cousin. I said I do, with no dress, no makeup and no ring!" According to EOnline.com, the couple had a very public celebrity engagement a month after the two actually wed. Offset proposed to Cardi B during Power 99's Powerhouse in Philadelphia with a stunning 8-carat, pear-shaped diamond ring. Cardi B also wrote in her Twitter post, "I appreciate and love my husband so much for still wanting for me have that special moment that every girl dreams of when he got down on his knee and put a ring on my finger and he did that for me!! Well now since you lil nosey f—ks know at least ya can stop saying I had a baby out of wedlock." The married couple now are awaiting the birth of their first child together.

No one knew about this celebrity wedding when it happened. What are some reasons to keep your wedding under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is all about you and your partner, so you should be allowed privacy if you want it. Cupid has some reasons you should keep your wedding on the down-low:

- 1. It's more intimate: Having a very private wedding can actually be super romantic. By only clueing in your closest loved ones about you and your beau tying the knot, you're making the day even more special. A small ceremony and celebration will make your wedding day feel extra special.

Celebrity Wedding: 'Bachelor' Nation's Ashely Iaconetti & Jared Haibon Are Engaged

By

Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, it looks like there will be a Bachelor celebrity wedding. According to UsMagazine.com, this past weekend Jared Haibon proposed to fellow Bachelor Nation star Ashely Iaconetti. The celebrity couple met in 2015 on Bachelor in Paradise and eventually became close friends. Iaconetti, 30, very openly admitted to having a major crush on Haibon, 29, however, he didn't exactly feel the same way. Haibon admitted that he did not feel their relationship was over after the show. "It was a slow build for me" he said.

This celebrity wedding proposal has been a very long time coming, and Bachelor Nation is ecstatic! What are some ways to get a long-time friend to recognize his feelings for you?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be frustrating when you have feelings for a close friend. How do you tell them? What happens if they don't feel the same way? More importantly, how do you end up staying friends? Talk about anxiety! Cupid has some advice on ways to get a long-time friend to recognize their feelings for you:

1. It's the little things: In this case, it's the little things that can take you a long way. Pointing out these things the two of you do for each other may make your friend think. Maybe, you are stuck doing a double shift and your friend brings food without you asking. While that is being a good friend, it is also thoughtful and shows that your friend went out of their way to make sure you were okay. Reminding each other of the little things could help the lightbulb go off.

2. What if?: The easiest thing you can do is the "what if" game. There are so many questions to ask but the obvious one would be, "What if we dated?" Remember, this question could go either way so be prepared. This casual, fun way to bring up a relationship will get you an indication on how your friend feels.

3. Say it!: Flat out asking your friend is a sure way of getting an answer. Sometimes beating around the bush not only can make you even more anxious but can be frustrating if your friend isn't catching on. As scared as you are, telling your friend how you feel will relieve all the built up feelings you have. No matter what, you will always have your friend so just relax and speak your mind.

Aquilino took to social media to express her feelings towards the new celebrity couple. Aquilino posted screenshots of conversations with friends where she pretty much laughs at the new celebrity relationship. I guess Davidson and Grande will have to live without Aquilino's blessing.

In celebrity wedding news, Pete Davidson's ex is seemingly laughing at his engagement to Ariana Grande. What are some ways to keep your ex from affecting your new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When starting a new chapter in your life, make sure you completely finished the previous one. Cupid has some advice on ways to keep your ex from affecting your new relationship.

1. Distance: Make sure you distance yourself from your old life. Sometimes exes have a hard time moving on and if you are constantly in contact with an ex, your new relationship could begin with a rocky start. Bringing your new flame to the restaurant where you and your ex enjoyed your favorite meal could stir up trouble. If you run into your ex, what do you do? It isn't worth the risk. New relationship, new beginnings.

Related Link: Dating Advice: How to Stop Self-Sabotaging in Love

2. Cut communication: Cutting off communication with an ex is an effective measure to take when beginning a new relationship. Whether you are cool with your ex or absolutely cannot stand each other, when starting a new relationship it's never safe to have your ex talk to your new flame. You are better off cutting off communication and moving forward. Some ex's are like guard dogs, they may look friendly but they won't let anyone get too close.

3. Be respectful: Be respectful of your previous break up. Believe it or not, considering your ex's feelings can go a long way. Being respectful and mature about the break up will help with moving forward and for you to enjoy your new relationship. Not suggesting you hide your new relationship, but possibly keeping it on the low for a while will keep your ex away and hopefully focused on what they have going on.

She says she not only wants to be "surprised," but wants Booth to propose when the time is truly right.

In celebrity news, this Bachelorette couple won't be tying the knot anytime soon. What are some ways to know when the right time is to get married?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting engaged can be one of the most exciting and emotional times in your life. You are making a decision on whether or not you would like to spend the rest of your life with your partner. In some cases, you are so overwhelmed that you say “yes,” but when the smoke clears, you start to really think it through. Cupid has some advice on ways to know when it is the right time to get married:

1. Happiness: Are you happy? Think about your relationship from the beginning to now. Forget about wanting to get married or the pressure from others to get married. Can you see yourself marrying this person? Ask yourself if you can live without your partner. As cheesy as it may sound, marriage is serious, and it is important that you are happy with this person. Remember the saying, “happy wife, happy life.”

2. Time: Jumping into marriage never ends well. Look at the time you and your partner have spent together. Whether you were friends for years first or have been together for a couple of years, make sure you truly know your partner. Do you know what makes your partner tick? What are their views on marriage? Spending enough time together will allow you to find the answers you are looking for. While someone can say they want to get married, their actions can tell you otherwise. Remember, with time comes knowledge.

In celebrity news, we can expect a Vanderpump Rules celebrity wedding soon! According to UsMagazine.com, Jax Taylor and Brittany Cartwright are now engaged. Throughout the seasons of the show, Taylor and Cartwright have gone through their ups and downs. Cartwright, originally from Kentucky, moved to L.A. to be with Taylor. Although the celebrity couple have a history of constant fighting and Taylor's indiscretion, Cartwright feels she did the right thing. "I know people are skeptical & think I'm cray for sticking around but I know I did the right thing for me."

The lead-up to this celebrity wedding will no doubt be full of drama, if the past is any indication. What are some ways to make wedding planning less stressful?

Cupid's Advice:

As exciting as weddings are, they are super stressful. Big or small, weddings are not only expensive, but time consuming. Cupid has some advice on how to make planning a wedding less stressful:

1. Set a date: You don't have to set the date the day you get engaged but discussing when you would like to get married helps. If you and your now fiancé want to wait a year or two, it helps you to build a time frame of when to things get done. Knowing the time of year and what year you would like to say "I do," will also help you with figuring out venues, receptions, as well as other arrangements.

2. Start early: Do yourself a favor and start early! While you don't have to start as soon as you get engaged, determining the time of year you would like to have your special day helps. You can start inquiring about different venues or even consult a wedding planner. Either way, make it easier for yourself and start early! Availability and estimates are important so you can piece things together and essentially be able to enjoy your special day the way you want.

3. Have fun: Remember, although you are planning your special day, enjoy yourself while doing it. Make a day where friends come over and help you plan. You don't have to do it alone. Besides, you can't possibly forget to plan the bachelor/bachelorette party! Take a day and check out venues with friends. Having friends and family around while you plan will for the most part keep the stress level down.

Celebrity News: Meghan Markle's Ex-Husband Gets Engaged 2 Weeks After Royal Wedding

By

Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, looks like Meghan Markle's ex, Trevor Engelson, has announced that he is getting married. According to People.com, Engelson, 41, popped the question to his girlfriend, Tracy Kurland, two weeks after the royal wedding of his ex. Engelson and Markle were married for two years before their celebrity divorce. Apparently, the ex celebrity couple agreed to sacrifice being together so Markle could continue her role on Suits. Unfortunately for Engelson, this major sacrifice cost them their celebrity relationship. On the brighter side, Engelson and Kurland can have their own special day. On an Instagram post, Engelson posted a picture of the diamond ring he gave Kurland. He captioned it, "Luckiest guy I know. Get ready to party."

In celebrity news, Meghan Markle's ex isn't about to be overdone! What are some ways to show the world you're over your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes people say they are over their ex when they religiously still check their social media or drive past their ex's house. Whether you miss your former partner or not, Cupid has some advice on some ways to show the world you're over your ex:

1. No pettiness: This is probably the hardest one. While you may or may not be over your ex, either way, the worst thing you can do is be petty and do something out of spite. Cupid believes in karma and that whatever you do can very well come back to bite you in the butt. No matter what kind of emotional pain you are in, it won't be worth going out of your way to do something means-spirited. You can't show the world that you still care. Just remember, they don't say karma is always nice.

2. Go out: Enjoy yourself! Don't worry about jumping into the next relationship or taking the next step because you see an ex doing it. Everything will work out for you; don't worry. Enjoy your "me time" and have fun. Laugh and live more with the people who love you. If your ex is lurking, they will definitely see your glow and feel some type of way. Your smile will be your biggest act of revenge.

3. Love yourself: This is a very important, especially if you are still having a rough time. Splits are never easy and it will get better with time. Until then, you can put all that love you have into yourself. Treat yourself to a spa day, or go hang out with friends. You only need positive vibes around you at this time. Once you are around loved ones, you will feel so much better and you can help use that love to guide you back to loving yourself and begin to heal. Loving yourself is allowing to not only love yourself, but to embrace the love of others.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Prince Harry & Meghan Markle 'Snuck Off' Before Reception Ended

By

Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, hours after the royal couple said, "I do," they were seen leaving their reception early. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple, Meghan Markle and Prince Harry, were exhausted after a long, 17 hour day and left their reception at the Frogmore House before it ended. "They let themselves have a few drinks, then they were ready to get back for some rest," an insider said. Before leaving, the Duke and Duchess enjoyed dancing the evening away with friends and family. The anticipation alone must have made this celebrity wedding tiring.

This royal couple snuck off before the official end of their celebrity wedding. What are some ways to keep fatigue at bay on your big day?

Cupid's Advice:

Preparations alone can leave you tired before your big day. Cupid has some advice on how to keep fatigue at bay on your big day:

1. Rest up: Try to pace yourself the week before your big day. If you get enough rest throughout the week, you should be well rested and ready to enjoy your day. Maybe if you are lucky, you can sneak in a quick nap, but how likely is that?

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Prince Harry & Duchess Meghan Tie the Knot & Release Official Photos

By

Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, the anticipated royal wedding has come and gone. The celebrity couple had their wedding this past weekend as millions tuned in to witness the royal union between Prince Harry and Meghan Markle. According to UsMagazine.com, the portraits of the Prince and Duchess have been released. As anticipated as this wedding was, media outlets are still buzzing about the celebrity wedding.

This royal celebrity wedding was highly anticipated and watched by millions. What are some ways to cope with your anticipation of your big day?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is one of the most anticipated days of your life. Typically people count down from months, to years before their big day. Cupid has some advice to cope with the anticipation of your big day:

1. Celebrate: This is a huge step in your life and is definitely a time to celebrate. With the drama and stress that surrounds weddings, you need time to relax and let loose. Besides the bachelor/bachelorette parties, maybe have a night where everyone can come together and relax together.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Meghan Markle Asks Prince Charles to Walk Her Down the Aisle In Dad's Absence

By

Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, Saturday is the big day for celebrity couple Megan Markle and Prince Harry. According to UsMagazine.com, it looks like the bride to be will be escorting down the aisle by her future father in law, Prince Charles. Just this past week, we have heard stories from her father selling pictures to the tabloids to family members sharing and exposing family issues. Fortunately, since Markle's father will not be in attendance, it seems that she won't have to walk down the aisle by herself. "Ms. Meghan Markle has asked His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales to accompany her down the aisle of the quire of St. George's Chapel on her wedding day." Looks like Prince Charles will save the day for the celebrity wedding!

This royal celebrity drama has been solved by Prince Charles stepping in. What are some ways to keep family drama from affecting your big day?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is the day you will never forget. With that being said, unfortunately, drama is inevitable on the big day. Cupid has some tips to keep family drama from affecting your big day:

1. Remain calm: The most basic yet hardest thing to do. You have to remember that things happen and while it is your day, you cannot control the actions of others. Take this cliché advice because, remember, it is a day you will never forget.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Kensington Palace Releases Statement After Meghan Markle's Father Backs Out of Attending Wedding

By Ha

ley Lerner

In recent celebrity news, Kensington Palace released a statement in response to Meghan Markle's father, Thomas Markle, backing out of attending the royal celebrity wedding.

On behalf of Prince Harry and Meghan Markle, a Kensington Palace spokesman said on Monday, "This is a deeply personal moment for Ms. Markle in the days before her wedding. She and Prince Harry ask again for understanding and respect to be extended to Mr. Markle in this difficult situation." According to EOnline.com, the statement is in response to Markle's father announcing he would no longer be attending the celebrity couple's special day.

Even when it comes to the royal celebrity wedding, family drama happens. What are some ways to keep family drama from affecting your big day?

Cupid's Advice:

Even royals aren't immune to family drama. Cupid has some tips of keeping family drama from affecting your wedding:

1. Establish boundaries: While we know pushy relatives are only trying to get involved in the wedding process because of how much they love you, it's important to make it clear to your family that it's your special day. Talk to your parents, in-laws and everyone else about how all decisions are ultimately up to you and your partner, even though you appreciate their input.

Celebrity Wedding: Prince Harry And Meghan Markle Are Out And Happy One Month Before Wedding

By

Carly Horowitz

There is only one month left until the royal wedding! Prince Harry and Meghan Markle have been spotted conducting their lives cheerfully. On Thursday evening, the celebrity couple attended the Women's Empowerment reception at the Royal Aeronautical Society in London, hosted by the Foreign Secretary, Boris Johnson, according to EOnline.com. The day before, Prince Harry and Meghan attended the Commonwealth Youth Forum together. According to celebrity news, the happy couple's wedding date is May 19. They will be wed at St. George's Chapel at Windsor Castle.

Prince Harry and Meghan Markle seem very joyous and relaxed in the days leading up to their celebrity wedding. How does one stay calm and collected in preparation for their wedding day?

Cupid's Advice:

The emotions that flow through you in the weeks leading up to your wedding day are so wonderful and exciting. But sometimes, some anxiety can creep in. Here are some ways to push those negative emotions aside and focus on the pure happiness that comes with the time leading up to the big day:

1. Eat healthy: This may seem like a weird thing to do in order to help you become less stressed for your wedding day, but think about it...Healthy food helps you to feel more energized while junk food can make you tired, lethargic, and cranky. The more energy you have, the easier it will be to plan those last minute things. Also, eating healthy will make you more happy because it will decrease the stress of you fitting into your wedding day outfit knowing that you are consuming non-fatty foods. It is a win-win situation.

2. Stay busy: Go to the gym, do yoga, have a nice spa day, watch a funny movie with your boo. Try your best to keep your mind occupied with other fun things so that you don't begin to overthink and stress about your wedding day. If you keep yourself occupied, it will help you to resist checking the predicted weather forecast for your wedding day every five minutes.

Celebrity Wedding News: Kaley Cuoco Opens Up About Wedding Planning

By

Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, we hear wedding bells for celebrity couple Kaley Cuoco and Karl Cook – but not just yet. According to UsMagazine.com, Cuoco wants to focus on finishing season 11 of The Big Bang Theory before planning her celebrity wedding. “I’m very excited,” the actress said Wednesday at the CBS sitcom’s 2018 PaleyFest panel at the Paley Center for Media in Los Angeles. “Once this wraps, I’m gonna be a total, typical bride and start planning right away.” How exciting! She also stated that she wants a simple wedding, so no bridezilla here.

In celebrity wedding news, Kaley Cuoco says she isn’t a bridezilla. What are some ways to avoid getting stressed out during wedding planning?

Cupid’s Advice:

We all know wedding planning can be extremely stressful, but as the bride, you should try to be graceful and at ease. Cupid has some ideas on how to avoid stress on your wedding day:

1. Delegate: You're the leader, and your bridesmaids are basically your minions on your big day (no offense). Learn to let go a bit, and give people tasks so that your wedding is executed properly. You should be able to trust friends that you've planned the wedding with because they know and understand your vision. Don't be a control freak. Communicate clearly what you want, need, and expect – and sit back, and watch it get done.

2. Meditate: I know, some would ask who has time to meditate on their wedding day? Well, guess what? You should make time. The breathing techniques done during meditation are very soothing and relaxing, which is what you need on a day causing you so many jitters. Take out the time to meditate for at least five to 10 minutes.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Queen Elizabeth II Gives Formal Consent for Prince Harry & Meghan Markle to Marry

By

Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, the Queen has spoken! According to UsMagazine.com, Queen Elizabeth II gave her formal approval for royal celebrity couple Prince Harry and Meghan Markle to tie the knot. In a formal statement on Wednesday, the Queen said: "I declare my consent to a contract of matrimony between my most dearly beloved grandson Prince Henry Charles Albert David of Wales and Rachel Meghan Markle, which I consent I am causing to be signified under the Great Seal and to be entered in the books of the Privy Council.” So yeah, it’s official! We are as excited as you are about this upcoming celebrity wedding.

It looks like this royal celebrity wedding has been blessed by the Queen! What are some ways to get your family on board with your choice in a partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re serious about your partner, you definitely want your fam’s approval. Cupid has a few ways on how to go about that:

1. Discuss your relationship with them: Communication is always essential in any situation. And it goes both ways. Not only should you speak to your family about your partner, your relationship, and the future, but you should also listen to what they have to say in response. If you want them to consider what you’re saying, then you should do the same. And remember, express yourself as clearly as possible.

2. Avoid being defensive: This isn’t always easy, but not being defensive can help avoid a fight. Remain calm and grounded, even if they are being unreasonable. Why? Because you shouldn’t stoop down to that level – it won’t lead anywhere good. Take deep breaths if necessary. Your family should not be putting you down, and you shouldn’t be putting them down either. Respond to their concerns, and don't make them feel like their opinions aren't valid.

3. Have them spend quality time with your partner: You can all part-take in activities together, especially ones your family loves. Also, make sure your partner understands how important it is for your family and them to get along. The time spent together should be respectful and fun. Give your family the chance to get to know your boyfriend or girlfriend, and vice versa.
