Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone can afford to fly to another country for an anniversary, but just because your plans might not cost you thousands doesn't mean it can't be special. Cupid has some tips:

1. A trip down memory lane: Flip through wedding photos, press "play" on your wedding video, and remember your special day together. Dig up old cards and letters you've written to each other and re-read them. Spend your anniversary looking back on the years that you've spent together, and the experiences that have gotten you where you are as a couple. Surprise your mate with simple memories.

2. Date scavenger hunt: Write your partner a series of clues that will lead them to locations where you've gone on dates before. Spend the day having a series of mini dates at those same locations. Instead of a single dinner or movie for your anniversary, this scavenger hunt sets your anniversary apart from a run-of-the-mill date night.

3. Milestone reminder: If it is a milestone anniversary of 10,

15, or 25 years, consider renewing your vows for your anniversary. This can be unique for every couple and taken to varying degrees of extravagance. Take a trip and renew your vows with your closest family, or do it in a small ceremony at home in your backyard. Tailor it to your style.
