What are some ways to keep your relationship under wraps in the beginning stages?

Cupid’s Advice:

You shouldn't have to hide your love, but if Romeo and Juliet have taught us anything, it's that stealth and caution are sometimes necessary. Eventually, you'll move past the "secret lovers" phase. In the meantime, this is how you court someone on the sly:

1. Spend time out of the house: Avoid stay-at-home dates. Movies, or listening to music can be great low-key ways to spend time together, but you'll have to explain away your companion during surprise visits from friends. It's true, you could run into someone out of the house too. Though, if you're careful about your location selection, you should avoid any uproars.

2. Discuss the situation with your partner: Most importantly, your date has to know that you're trying to keep this between the two of you. Otherwise, they'll have no reservations telling their friends and introducing themselves as your significant other. There should be a good reason you don't want to sing your love from the mountain tops, tell your partner why this is a bad time for such an announcement.

3. Don't tell people: It seems like pretty obvious. If you don't want people to know, just don't tell them, right? Easier said than done I'm afraid. It can be strenuously tempting to reveal your hidden flame to a close family member, or friend. Make sure to reflect on the consequences before spilling your guts. Loose lips sink ships.

How much is too much when it comes to dating around?

Cupid's Advice:

It's definitely important to date around, especially when you're young and not sure what you are looking for in a relationship. Though, how much is too much? Cupid has some advice:

1. You've dated his friends: You may be cutting it too close when you start going through a circle of guys who are friends. If you've dated him, his friend and his other friend then you may be abusing the idea of dating around.

2. New flavor of the week: If you have a new beau every week, it's time to reevaluate your standards. Why exactly are you going through dates like a diet regime?

3. You forget their names: It's a big no-no to get names mixed up, but if you are doing it regularly it's time to change up your dating tactics. You should not have a different guy for every day of the week.

What do you do if your crush starts dating someone else?

Cupid's Advice:

Better to have loved and lost, there's plenty of fish in the sea, etc. Any phrase really that will convince you to move on and stop wasting your time on a lost cause. You're emotionally vulnerable right now, and you have to protect your feelings by taking time for yourself and getting your mind off the sting of a stolen crush.

1. Don't be desperate: "When it rains, it pours," Tina Fey noticed as Liz Lemon on NBC's 30 Rock. This is a relationship phenomenon that happens because we don't like to see our options dwindle. Rather than giving your crush an ego boost and painful complications by confessing your undying love right after they've been taken off the market, take a step back. One ironclad guarantee is that your passionate declaration will fail if you think this is the time.

2. Don't be sad: Easier said than done, but if you're heading for a rut, make sure you start insulating your heart. Spend lots of time with friends, especially if it involves a night on the town, or new experiences, activities, and people. The fact that you lost your crush doesn't mean you've lost any important emotional connection. Don't let infatuation trick your feelings!

3. Don't second guess your value: When it comes to love and relationships, we are all so easily seduced, tricked, intrigued, hurt, and hopeful for the most ridiculous reasons. Sometimes there is no good reason, or sensible explanation, why events didn't bring you and your crush together, but worrying about these unseen and unmanageable variables can lead to self-deprecation. There's another crush out here, they're way better, and they're crazy about you even if it doesn't make sense!

Emily Maynard Is Spotted Rebounding with Nascar Driver Jason White

By Nicole Weintraub

Bachelorette's Emily Maynard has moved on from her former fiancé Jef Holm with Nascar racer Jason White, according to UsMagazine.com. The single mom has denied her rebound with White, though recent photos have been revealed showing Maynard and White getting cozy. The pair went to a Carrie Underwood concert and then they ventured to a club together. "They were all over each other," said an observer who noticed the two. Maynard has a six-year-old daughter with Ricky Hendrick who was also a Nascar racer, so this is not Maynard's first racing beau. She was also, back in 2006, with Dale Earnhardt Jr.

How do you know if someone you meet right after a relationship ended is a rebound?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be very enticing to start dating right after a relationship ends – especially if you miss being in a relationship period. Here are some ways to know if you are rebounding:

1. Slow it down: There is no need to jump into another relationship after just getting out of one. Take your time before deciding to get involved with another person. You need to get over your past relationship before starting a new one.

2. Get to know each other: When you're rebounding, you want to jump into what you know. Though, before you decide whether or not you truly have feelings for someone, get to know them. Go out as friends for a few times first.

3. Be careful: No one wants to admit when they're rebounding with someone. Just make sure to be honest with yourself. You want to be fair to both your new love interest and yourself.

However, one thing is certain, the source said Olsen “really likes him!”

What are some characteristics to look for when you're first dating someone?

Cupid's Advice:

During the first few dates, it can be a difficult to tell if your potential partner could be the one. After all, everyone has their best foot forward. However, there are moments when he/she will give little clues to his/her true characteristics. Being able to see and understand them quickly will help in deciding whether you want another date. Below are a few positive characteristics that you should keep in mind:

1. Generosity: A person can be generous with their spirit, their time and/or the wallet. The real important thing here is that a generous person freely gives to matters they care about, often forgives and seeks the best in others. When with such a person, your needs may be met before even asking. Generosity in a relationship is a winning deal.

2. Openness: The ability to be naturally open is when your potential mate is able to share genuine thoughts and feelings. Also, he/she is not afraid of whom they are or do not feel the need to hide when emotionally exposed. Being with an open person will allow you to exchange deeper, personal feelings early on with much ease; thus, creating a strong bond.

3. Humor: Potential partners that have a great sense of humor can see the fun in situations and laugh at themselves. In these moments, you two will find yourselves laughing often, relaxing and letting tension go. As a result, this can carry any relationship through the hard times and on to better days.

Host Chris Harrison Says New 'Bachelor' Sean Lowe Is 'So Sincere'

By Jennifer Ross

As ABC's new Bachelor, Sean Lowe is currently shooting their 17th Season, host Chris Harrison reports to UsMagazine.com, "Sean's doing great." Last seen on TV just three months ago when Emily Maynard dumped Lowe on the Bachelorette, this southern man seems to have moved on and recovered quickly. As to whether Lowe's, 28, love choices will be worth watching, Harrison states, "I think people are really going to like him because he's so sincere. He really is looking for that someone and that makes it fun for everyone... when you get to know the guy, he's very well read, very intelligent, a very smart guy." With the show three-quarters of the way finished in filming, it sounds like this season's Bachelor will be a must see for all.

What are some ways to tell the person you're dating is sincere?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating has its challenges and the process in choosing the right person can be endlessly frustrating. However, it doesn't have to be this difficult. While you may not be able to measure their sincerity on the first date, there are ways to see if they are genuinely interested in you. For clues, here are a few things to focus on when meeting up for your next date:

1. First impressions: From the moment you meet up with your potential partner, ask yourself, is he/she dressed well? Also, does he/she have social manners? Not dressing well is a sign that he/she is not interested in your opinion. Lacking social manners, such as talking too much about themselves rather than getting to know you, is a sign that they are self-absorbed. Both issues state you need to look elsewhere for love.

2. Open or closed: When conversing, ask questions about his/her family or personal life. Whether your date is open or closed about the topic says a lot. When your potential mate's personal life and family is a closed subject, he/she is hiding something. Secrets so soon into the relationship only cause obstacles that set you two up for failure.

3. Listening skills: Also as important, does your date listen to you speak when discussing your personal life? If he/she focuses more on the environment and/or your physical features rather than your story of losing your favorite dog as a child, you are more than likely wasting your time. Not being able to find interest in listening to you shows that they genuinely are not interested in you.

Rumor: James Franco and Ashley Benson Are Dating

By Nicole Weintraub

Rumors have been swirling around supposed ladies' man James Franco recently connecting him to Ashley Benson, according to People. The two were spotted in Las Angeles at a Halloween Horror Night getting cozy with one another, though no official announcements have been made linking the two as an official couple. The two are starring in Spring Breakers together and have supposedly been spending a great deal of time together. Aside from Benson, Franco has also been rumored to be dating Kristen Stewart (who recently reunited with Robert Pattinson) and Selena Gomez (who is currently dating Justin Bieber). Regarding these accusations, Franco merely laughed it off claiming he would not mess with Bieber's girls nor has he spoken to Stewart.

How do you keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors, unfortunately, are a part of everyday life. Regardless of how old you are, rumors will encircle you. Here are some ways to keep rumors from affecting your relationship:

1. Rubber and glue: As old fashioned as it sounds, remember the childhood saying regarding rubber and glue? It's completely true though – words are merely words. Whilst they may hurt at first, don't give them another thought because rumors are merely untrue myths.

2. Don't add fuel to the fire: The more you make a big deal out of the rumors, the more your relationship will be affected. If you do not give the rumors a second thought, your partner will follow your lead and do the same.

3. Look the other way: Ignore people who have negative comments about your relationship. As long as you are happy, that is all that matters. If people are spreading rumors about you, then you are better off without their negative energy in your life.

Can you move on, forgive and be happy again with a partner who has cheated?

Cupid's Advice:

You never thought you would be back with him – he lied, cheated and the two of you have long since broken up. But can there be a round two? Cupid has some tips:

1. Forgive, don't forget: We all need to forgive, mostly in order to move on and heal ourselves. If we hold on to a grudge and hold onto anger and resentment, then we are only hurting ourselves in the long run. Though, just because we forgive does not mean that we forget what has been done to us.

2. Think long and hard: Do not jump right in to another relationship, especially with someone who has cheated on you before. Weigh the pros and cons and truly consider whether or not your former beau has changed. Keep in mind the common saying: once a cheater, always a cheater.

3. Take baby steps: Don't rush into anything; take baby steps to see if this is something that you and your partner truly want. Perhaps you have forgiven them, but you cannot trust them. Perhaps you will find you are on two different paths in life.

How do you know when you’ve found “the one”?

Cupid’s Advice:

Dating around can get confusing, and it’s sometimes hard to know when you’ve found the person you’re meant to be with long-term. Cupid has some advice:

1. The spark doesn’t fade: Even after months of dating, you still get butterflies in your stomach when you go to see your partner. That’s a sure sign that the connection you have is likely not to fade for some time.

2. You feel secure: Security is a great thing in a relationship. If you don't feel as if something small could throw your relationship off, it shows that you're committed to making your relationship work far into the future.

3. You trust each other: Part of security means trusting one another. You should have no doubt that your partner will never cheat on you, for one. If you question it, you may want to re-think whether he/she is "the one."

Sources Say Ashton Kutcher 'Always Had a Thing' for Mila Kunis

By Nicole Weintraub

Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher are still going strong after five months, according to UsMagazine.com. The once on-screen lovers in the hit television show That 70's Show have been living together in Brooklyn while Kunis films her latest movie. "He always had a thing for her," says a source, calling their feelings toward one another infatuation. Recently, the two have been photographed together around the New York City area from brunch dates to public displays of affection in Central Park. Kutcher, who is currently separated from Demi Moore, and Mila Kunis, who was once engaged to Macaulay Culkin, seem to have found happiness in each other.

How do you act on a longtime crush?

Cupid's Advice:

We all have crushes; though some may last a mere few weeks while some may last for years. In the case of Kutcher and Kunis, the two have held a torch for one another since their television days. Here are some tips on how to act on that crush:

1. Don't involve others: If your longtime crush currently is in a relationship or is married, then steer clear. Even if they are being flirtatious, it is better to not get involved with someone who is already involved. If someone truly has feelings for you, they will find a way to be with you.

2. Be realistic: If your longtime crush is Johnny Depp, then I would advise you to move on. Is your crush plausible? Does this person live on the other side of the world? Think about the possible problems that you could face if you became involved with this person. Would you be willing to sort through those issues?

3. Make a bold move: The only way you are going to move from the crushing stage to the dating stage is if someone makes a move. Rather than waiting for what may be ages, why don't you

What are some unique ways to find love?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter where you turn, love is all around us. Sooner or later, you will want one of your very own. Sometimes the problem may be which area to begin looking. Therefore, when you cannot decide where to start, we can help with a few ideas:

1. Network: Networking is not only just for your career anymore. Talk to all your friends and acquaintances, asking them if they know of a single man that could be right for you. Also ask them to ask their friends for help. It is one of the best tools to finding a potential love.

2. Visit your local hardware store: Why waste your time searching for men at a club where the men-to-women ratio works against you? Instead, try your local hardware store, computer store, or even a sporting goods store. Make sure to pick a place where the men tend to outnumber the women in order to better your odds.

3. By train or subway: Next time you need to go somewhere, opt for taking a subway or train. Many single men travel this way, and it gives you a moment to start up a conversation. Plus, it literally gives you a way out should you not find any good prospects; you can always change cars or get off at the next stop.

How do you celebrate an achievement with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Your admiration means everything to your partner. Even if it doesn't seem that way, remember that we all want to impress our significant other. It's why boys get into so many fights. Do these things to show how your romance's achievements impress you:

1. Make it a special event: Your partner won't always think to celebrate their own successes with you. By suggesting a special meal, a vacation, or just getting drinks and talking about their achievement, it shows that it matters to you.

2. Build their confidence: Compliment their talents and skills. Find specific details to admire in their success. Ask them about their future plans and goals. Encourage them to speak with ambition and determination about their next step.

3. Admire their effort: Don't focus your flattery solely on their accomplishment. Make sure most of your admiration is on the effort or process that led up to it. By complimenting their labour, you encourage them to keep trying. And maybe next time if they don't meet success, you can still compliment their hard work.

What are some ways to keep your relationship under wraps at first?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, you may want to keep a new relationship away from the public eye. Cupid has some advice on how to keep your relationship under wraps at first:

1. Be discrete: Having a relationship in secret can be hard work, but there are ways to keep it out of the public eye. Meet in private locations, don't act too lovey in front of others and don't talk about your mysterious partner to anyone until you want them to know.

2. Don't ignore your friends: If you are repeatedly busy whenever your friends want to hang out, it will be a huge warning sign. Make sure you leave equal time for your relationship and your family and friends.

3. Be on the same page: in order for any secret to stay a secret, you need to make sure you and your partner both agree. If someone tells one person, who tells another, and so on, the secret is out and it will be too late. Make sure you are both on the same page regarding who to tell and not tell.

How do you know whether to trust an ex-partner again?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes there are mistakes an ex can make that break up the relationship, but are those mistakes so bad that you two cannot reconcile? Here's how to know when your partner may be worth trusting again:

1. They're willing to put in the effort: It may be time to trust your ex again if it's obvious they're putting in a consistent effort to make your relationship work the second time around, like with counseling or therapy.

2. The violation of trust was a one-time thing: If what made you distrust your partner in the first place was a one-time mistake and it hasn't happened since, time may be able to heal the wound.

3. Their sincerity shows through their actions: As the cliché says, "Actions speak louder than words." If what they're doing matches the sincerity in their words, that's a good sign.

What are some things to consider about dating someone older than you?

Cupid’s Advice:

Dating an older person seems very appealing: established, experienced, mature. However, there are some things to consider before dating someone older. Here are some tips on how to decide if dating older is right for you:

1. Big age gap: Dating someone older than you definitely has its perks. The idea of dating someone who is mature, distinguished and experienced is appealing. Though, how old is too old? The more years there are in the age gap between yourself and your potential partner, the more difficult it may be to have things in common.

2. Different places: When trying to decide if dating someone older is right for you, think about where that person is currently in their life. The two of you may be looking for two completely different things. While you may be looking to casually date, they may be looking to settle down within the next year or so.

3. Age or maturity: One of the most alluring ideas of dating someone older is the impression that they will be more mature than people your own age. However, age does not go hand in hand with maturity. Maturity, experience and success differ from person to person. All of these positive traits are not guaranteed with dating someone older than you.

What are three important questions to ask on a first date?

Cupid's Advice:

A first date can be very nerve-wracking for anyone looking for love. Here are a few helpful questions that you should ask on your first date with a potential partner:

1. What type of relationship do you want?: If you are looking for someone to settle down with and the person you are out with is just trying to have some fun, the odds of the relationship working out are extremely slim. You need to know what your partner is looking for in a relationship, so setting some ground rules may be a good idea before getting in too deep.

2. What do you look for in a partner?: Hopefully, the qualities they are looking for are qualities that you possess. This is one surefire way to know if the relationship is set up for disaster. By asking this question, it can give you great insight on the type of person for whom your date is looking.

3. What do you like to do for fun?: This seems like a simple enough question, but it can let you know a lot about the person with whom you are out. If the things that they list are things you also enjoy, then there is a good chance of a connection between the two of you. If not, however, this shows that the two of you probably don't have a lot in common, which would make a relationship difficult.

What are some ways to show your partner you care in public?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're only showing affection toward your partner in private, they may think you're purposely hiding them from the world. To avoid this, show how you care in public using these tips:

1. Harmless cuddling: If you are out in public with your partner and you stop and sit on a park bench, resting your heads on one another and comfortably sitting next to each other can be a respectable public display of affection. Do not go too over the top, and, well, get on top of each other. Find a balance that shows your partner you are thinking about them and long to be near them without overdoing it.

2. Stealing kisses: Note that I said stealing kisses, not making out. Making out in public is too much inappropriate PDA for anyone to handle, but stealing innocent kisses on the forehead, cheek and even a peck on the lips shows your partner you want them but will have to wait 'til your indoors for more action.

3. Holding hands: Holding hands in public is a classic symbol of love and care. Holding hands lets the world know you are taken, and lets your partner know you want to be close to them at all times.

How do you know when it’s time to move on after a divorce?

Cupid’s Advice:

Everyone moves on from heartbreak in his or her own, personal way. It’s a journey that’s difficult and unique to each person, especially someone who’s coming back from a divorce:

1.You’ve had time to heal: Just because you decide you no longer want to feel pain, doesn’t mean that you’ve taken the time to actually feel better. Whether it’s therapy or you’ve seriously worked towards making yourself happy, you may find it easier to begin dating.

2.You’re not still in love: Marriages end for all sorts of reasons but it’s going to be difficult to move on if you’re not over you ex. This may be easier for those who have fell out of love with their significant other before divorce, but in any case, in order to move on it's essential to have let go of your past lover first.

3.You want to be happy: Some take a longer time feeling sorry for themselves than others, so once you decide that you owe it to yourself to be happy again, you know it's time to start dating, slowly of course.

How do you know if age difference is going to be a problem in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a vastly different age than your partner may be difficult in a relationship, but it's not always problematic. Here are some ways to tell if it's going to be a challenge in your love life:

1. You live different lives: If your partner is still in school while you have a full-fledged career, it may be difficult for you to understand each other's goals, needs and desires. Your lives will be paced differently and that may get in the way of love and understanding.

2. Different interests: It's tough to be part of a couple where both people like completely different things. While you may be deeply involved in the latest pop culture crazes, if your sweetheart is older than you, they may not interest them at all. Having such different lifestyles will be a strain on your relationship.

3. No support: While it shouldn't matter if no one approves of your relationship, if you're losing the support of your family and friends, your relationship is definitely going to be harder. If this is happening, then it may be time to reconsider whether this age difference is worth it.
