

Gia Allemand and Wes Hayden's 'Bachelor Pad' Romance

They're together! Gia Allemand and Wes Hayden confirmed that they are, in fact, a couple this week on the finale of the Bachelor Pad. Although the pair were flirtatious on the show, nothing had previously happened between them because Gia had a boyfriend back home. However, the pair sealed the deal on the finale with a much-anticipated kiss. "It's about time that that happened!" coed co-host Melissa Rycroft, according to US Weekly.

Can you emotionally cheat on someone?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Secrecy: Being open and honest with your partner is the most important thing. If you find yourself spending time with a friend of the opposite sex and keeping it a secret from your mate, that is probably the first sign of emotional infidelity.

2. Ex alert: There's nothing wrong with staying friendly with an ex-beau. However, don't let those relationships become too involved, as emotional cheating can often spring from old flames. Live in the present, not the past.

3. Discussing your relationship: It can be relieving to confide in your friends, but discussing your relationship problems with a friend of the opposite sex can make for an awkward situation. It can create intimacy, which can easily turn into emotional cheating.

Ryan Reynolds Wants a Private Relationship

Ryan Reynolds may be happy with his marriage to Scarlett Johansson, but he isn't a fan of his relationship being dissected by the tabloids. In a recent interview with GQ, Reynolds discussed his views on marriage and privacy. The actor, who married Johansson two years ago, explained, "Things change when you get married in general. But in terms of being a couple that's in a public situation and speculated about and all that nonsense, it's changed a little bit. I'm a little more guarded, I think. I'm a little bit more wary of having my relationship turning into a soap opera. I've just unilaterally not addressed it. That's kind of been the fail-safe for me ... I choose to remain as private as possible without being secretive." Reynolds went on to say that though he and his wife deal with many rumors, marriage is still "the best part of [his] life."What things should be kept private in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Personal information: You and your loved one undoubtedly know each other well, but this familiarity requires respect. Sharing personal secrets can hurt your partner. Don't air your dirty laundry in public, and consider not airing it at all if you think it could bring hurt feelings to your relationship.

2. Disagreements: After a fight, you may want to run to your nearest friend and share all the details. While this may relieve some of your stress, sharing unresolved conflicts can cause your friends to form negative opinions of your beau. Wait until the conflict is resolved, and then decide if you need to share it.

3. Level of seriousness: When you're in a promising relationship, you may feel the urge to tell the world that you have finally found "the one." This divulgence, if premature, may make your beau wary. Keep your intense feelings private for the time being, and he will probably feel more comfortable.

Ashley Tisdale Dishes About Dating for More Than Looks

Actress-singer Ashley Tisdale recently spoke out about one of the most asked questions of the dating game: is it really all about looks? According to People, as far as Tisdale is concerned, the answer is definitely “no.” Although she admits that, in high school, dating centered a lot more on superficial qualities. Now, Tisdale says, “ I am more into a guy’s personality. I like someone I can have fun with and who can be more laid-back than I am, because it calms me down.”What are the most important characteristics to look for in a potential partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Physical attraction plays a key part in a successful relationship. However, in the end, lasting romance is made of much more than good looks. Cupid has some advice on the qualities that really matter when it comes to picking a partner:

1. Sense of humor: Laughter is essential in keeping romance alive. If someone helps you loosen up and have some fun, then they are someone who’ll really brighten up your life. It’ll be a joy to be with them and around them!

2. Mutual respect: Look for a partner who treats you right. Your partner should respect who you are as a person. Being with someone who undermines you or makes you feel inferior is unhealthy. Also, it's important to look for a mate who respects himself, takes care of himself and has confidence.

3. Determination: Look for a partner who has some sort of direction in life. When you begin a relationship with someone, it's important that you help each other grow as individuals. Determination and motivation are important in that process. Without goals, people tend to get stagnant in their lives.

Brittani Senser Impressed by New Beau Levi Johnston

Bristol Palin's ex-flame Levi Johnston has managed to impress at least one person: his new girlfriend, singer Brittani Sener. Sener revealed in an interview with RadarOnline that Johnston is a "really great guy." The two met while on the set of Sener's new music video for the song "After Love." "It was like we knew each other even though we had just met," said Sener. While on the set, the pair got along effortlessly. After Johnston's second engagement to Palin was broken off, the two began to date. Sener noted, "Now dating, I'm finding that he is really a sensitive, caring person. Very bright; he's funny. He's a great dad; he's a natural." Should you judge your partner by his past?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Get the facts: Before you judge your partner by his past, you need to analyze the situation. If your boyfriend has a history involving law-breaking, it may be more serious than a boyfriend who's had several girlfriends. Be sure to collect all of the facts before making a sound judgement.

2. Make sure his past is really the past: A boyfriend with a history of partying too much who still parties too much has obviously not left his past behind him. Try to determine whether your partner is still clinging to the past or if he's truly trying to break free.

3. Look at the bigger picture: Try asking yourself, does it really matter? If you and your mate are happy with living in the moment, then don't trouble yourself by digging through his past. If he's let his past go, then you should follow his lead and also let the subject drop.

Liam Neeson is Dating Again

ter the tragic death of his wife Natasha Richardson last year, Liam Neeson has finally found love again. Starpulse reports that the actor was spotted leaving Nobu restaurant in London holding hands with British businesswoman Freya St. Johnston. Neeson and his children were devastated when Richardson passed away in March 2009 from a brain injury caused by a skiing accident. Johnston is the first woman to be seen with Neeson since his wife's death, but she has refused to confirm or deny the relationship, stating, "I am not saying anything whatsoever." How soon should you date after the death of a spouse?

Cupid's Advice:

The death of a spouse is one of the most difficult experiences to deal with, but it is possible to survive it and love again. Cupid has some ideas on how and when to date again after the death of a spouse:

1. Take your time: Jumping into a new relationship immediately after the death of a spouse is often times a bad idea. While it may feel like the only way to heal after a break-up, it's better to spend time alone to grieve a spouse's death. Lean on your friends and family when you need support.

2. Keep your children in the loop: Once you have allowed enough time to grieve and feel ready to date again, make sure to talk to your children. Let them know that no one can replace their mother or father, but that you are ready to move on.

3. Start fresh: Dating again should not be a way to replace your spouse or to find a new parent for your children. Realize that there will never be another person like your husband or wife, and keep an open mind as you continue your journey to happiness once again.

Jennifer Aniston's "Cougar Town" Courting

Actress Jennifer Aniston has reportedly been enjoying some perks from her guest appearance on gal pal Courteney Cox's TV series Cougar Town. Recently, Aniston enjoyed a long candlelit dinner with fellow Cougar Town actor Josh Hopkins, according to People. "She seemed very excited about her date," said an eyewitness. "She and Josh sat at a more private table and they seemed to get along great...there was a flirty energy between them, and Jen looked very happy." How do you stay optimistic in the dating world?

Cupid's Advice:

In today's fast-paced bustling world, the prospects of cultivating a new relationship can be hard to handle. Cupid has a few suggestions on how to stay strong with a single status:

1. Remember Carrie: When single and in doubt, just remember one of womankind's most beloved protagonists, Carrie Bradshaw of Sex and the City. Never forget that there is something captivating about a strong, confident and independent woman. If you can rock your single status, chances are you won't be unattached for long.

2. Put yourself out there: Being a single lady in the tumultuous sea can be intimidating. Be brave. The more you explore and let yourself be open to experiencing new things, the more fun the dating world will be.

3. Your man is out there somewhere: Don't let the single life get you down. Remember that there are thousands of potential partners out there, and being single is just another way of saying you're waiting for the right one. Don't settle just so you can change your relationship status on Facebook. With patience and confidence, the perfect person will undoubtedly come along.

Jessica Simpson Thrilled With Beau Eric Johnson

ice of Beauty star Jessica Simpson feels she has finally struck gold with her new beau, ex-NFL player Eric Johnson. Simpson and Johnson started dating nearly twelve weeks ago. Since then, the couple has been taking it slow, but things seem promising, and Simpson is glowing, reports Us Weekly. “I met a wonderful man,” said Simpson on her twitter account. “Damn I’m lucky!” The relationship also has Simpson’s family excited. Little sis Ashlee Simpson-Wentz said, “She is happy, so we are all really happy. Her happiness is the most important thing to me.” How do you know when you’ve found “the one”?

Cupid’s Advice:

1. You can talk (or sit in silence) for hours: While ample conversation will make for easy communication in later life, easy-going silence is a tell-tale sign of whether or not you’ve found the one. Comfortable silence shows that you are truly compatible together.

2. Similar goals: When you both have the same goals in life (like a house in the suburbs or a life full of traveling), it is easier and more likely to be a lasting couple. Love is only half the battle.

3. Unmatched feelings: You can honestly say that you have never felt the same way before. You appreciate your beau for all of his flaws, and can't wait to spend time with him. You lose sense of all logic and reason.

Kate Hudson Muses About New Beau

Kate Hudson has finally broken the silence about her new boyfriend, Muse singer Matt Bellamy. Hudson calls Bellamy, “lovely” in the new issue of Elle UK. She says, “Matt and I are just learning about each other and it’s wonderful.” Hudson has a long history of heartache, including ex-husband Chris Robinson and former flames Alex Rodriguez, Owen Wilson and Lance Armstrong. But Hudson hasn’t let her romantic past cloud her future. Us Weekly reports that although she’s not looking to marry again, she is still open to a new relationship. “I think a lot of times people are terrified of love and stop themselves from experiencing it. I don’t ever want to get that jaded. I do believe in love.” How do you avoid being jaded by past relationships?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s easy to feel like giving up and turning into a reclusive cat lady when you look back on your history of failed affairs. Cupid has some ideas about how to stay open to new relationships:

- 1. Gain perspective: Don’t assume that just because your relationship's ended, you failed. Remember that every partner teaches you something about yourself and what you want, so that next time, maybe you can make it work.

2. Don't let your past dictate your future: Just because your past boyfriends were jerks, doesn't mean the next one will be. It's up to you to make sure history doesn't repeat itself.

3. Be optimistic: Kate had every reason to give up on finding the right man. But by staying open-minded and never losing her faith in love, she eventually found someone "lovely."

Miranda Lambert & Blake Shelton to Compete at CMAs

Singer Miranda Lambert cleaned up this year with nine nods for the Country Music Awards, including one for Entertainer of the Year. In fact, Lambert's number one competition is herself, as two of her songs both received nominations for Music Video, Single and Song of the Year, reports E! News. Despite competing with herself, however, her toughest competition may go to her soon-to-be husband, singer Blake Shelton, who's up against her in three categories. We'll have to wait until the CMAs air live on Nov. 10 to see who comes out victorious!Is competition in a relationship a good or bad thing?

Cupid's Advice:

In a long-term relationship, it's easy to start obsessing over the little things, and it's especially simple to turn everything into a competition. A little competitive spirit is healthy for a relationship, but it can get out of hand quickly. Cupid has some tips for keeping your competitive nature in check:

1. Throw away the tally sheet: One of the worst things you can do in a relationship is to keep score. Most of us are guilty of keeping a mental checklist of all the things we have done so we can prove to our partners how little they have contributed. It's best to accept that relationships are never perfect, and focus on the positive aspects.

2. Start relating: Competing with your mate can be a way to avoid relating to him. A relationship built solely on competition isn't healthy, so your time is better spent trying to truly get to know your partner. Your relationship will be more meaningful, and you'll understand each other better.

3. Establish self-confidence: Competitive relationships are often sparked by low self-esteem. Because low self-esteem is characterized by irrational thoughts and actions, you can lose yourself in a relationship and therefore lose control. Make sure you focus on yourself before you bring someone else into the picture. Having self-confidence will allow you to have a healthy and happy relationship.

Sofia Vergara Misses Hospitalized Boyfriend at Emmys

After an exciting night at the Emmys, Modern Family star Sofia Vergara had every reason to celebrate. Her show won three awards including Outstanding Comedy Series, and her family flew all the way from Colombia to be with her on her special night. But for Vergara, the night was incomplete without her leading man, Nick Loeb, a businessman and former Florida Senate candidate. Access Hollywood reports that Loeb has been hospitalized since last week after he was involved in a serious car accident. "He's not going to be good to go for a long time, but I miss him," said Vergara. What should you do if your partner is sick?

Cupid's Advice:

While it can be scary when a partner gets sick or injured, it is also the perfect opportunity to show him how much he means to you. Cupid has some ideas on what to do if your partner is sick:

- 1. Help him heal: When a partner gets sick, whether it's a cold or something more serious, it can help you realize how important he is to you. Show him how much you care by taking steps to help him get better. Stop by the pharmacy, make him soup, and drive him to the doctor's office. Helping him through a tough time will make your bond even stronger.

2. It's the thought that counts: It's easy to feel helpless when a partner is sick, especially when you've already done everything you can to ease his suffering. Do something thoughtful for him, even if it doesn't help even if it doesn't technically stop a runny nose or soothe a sore throat. Try watching his favorite movie with him (even if you hate it) to make him feel better.

3. You're not alone: If your partner has a serious illness or injury, let other people help. Friends and family can take lessen your burden by helping to care for your mate and by giving you much-needed emotional support.

Kristen Bell Gets Advice From Betty White

Kristen Bell recently got some age-old relationship advice from fellow actress Betty White, according to RadarOnline. Bell, whose new movie You Again hits theaters September 24, said that although White is “not super maternal,” she heard the Golden Girls actress offer an important tip. “I did hear her say [something] at one point about keeping a relationship fresh: when she would hear her husband coming home she would go put on a clean blouse or a dab of perfume. I thought that was really sweet and a wonderful way to impress your husband.” How can you keep your relationship fresh?

Cupid’s Advice:

- 1. Be spontaneous: Surprise your partner with tickets to see his favorite band, or spend a day at the beach building sand castles instead of lying under beach umbrellas. Don’t be too predictable.
- 2. Put in the effort: When you’ve been with your guy for a long time, you feel comfortable around him. While your partner may think you’re beautiful in sweats and a t-shirt, that shouldn’t stop you from dressing up every now and then.

Put some effort into your look. Wear a skirt and heels one night for a change.

3. Get some laughs: The best way to stop boredom in its tracks is with laughter. Crack a joke, or watch a funny movie. Laughing is scientifically proven to be healthy for the body, but it is also healthy for relationships. Keep some conversations light and playful. Laughter will follow.

Kim Kardashian and Miles Austin Dine at Chili's

m Kardashian and new boyfriend, Dallas Cowboys wide receiver, Miles Austin recently enjoyed the two for $20 dinner special at Chili's Restaurant. Kardashian had been visiting Austin in Oxnard, CA, where the Cowboys were at summer training camp. As an eyewitness told RadarOnline, "I can't believe it. Kim Kardashian eating at Chili's. It was just funny seeing her get out of her big Bentley and walk into Chili's."

Do dates have to be expensive to be meaningful?

Cupid's Advice:

Spending a fortune on a date does not guarantee priceless memories or even a second date. The five-star experience is great, but you can't buy love. Cupid has some things to consider when it comes to spending money on a date:

- 1. Love is priceless: It's not about the money you spend on someone, but the connection you make with them.
 - 2. Finding love can be free: Many happy couples have gotten to know each other by taking a walk together or watching television at home. You don't have to spend money to have a wonderful time with your mate.
 - 3. Make dating a treat: Once you've made the connection and have money to spend, there's nothing wrong with doing something extravagant. Be a big spender once in a while, but know that how much you spend on someone has nothing to do with the quality of your time together.

Dianna Agron Introduces New Beau to Pals

ee actress Dianna Agron just tackled an overwhelming task: introducing her guy to her pals. Agron and beau, British actor Alex Pettyfer, stopped by the Glee set, reports People. Pettyfer instantly bonded with Jayma Mays' husband, Alex Campbell. Mays explained, "[Alex] came on set, and my husband was there that day, so we introduced the Brit to the Brit. Brits hang tight. That's how they are." Pettyfer succeeded in charming all of Agron's costars and friends. "He seems like a really nice guy. He's really cute and she's beautiful," said Mays.

What's the best way to introduce your partner to your friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Introducing your new beau to the important people in your life can be nerve-wracking. Cupid has some suggestions to make the introductions less painful:

1. Set limits: Don't introduce your partner to all of your pals at once. Try introducing him to only a few of them at first. A week or so later, have him meet some other friends. Take it slow, so you don't overwhelm him (or your nerves).

2. Pick and choose: Try having your most friendly pals meet your mate first. Pick outgoing friends that you're sure will strive to include him in conversation. When your man is up to the challenge, bring in the friends that are harder to impress.

3. Relax: It's hard not to get nervous, but remind yourself that your partner is probably as nervous as you are. Try to be confident, and he'll be less nervous as well.

Former Bachelor Finds a New Girlfriend!

Former Bachelor, Charlie O'Connell, is smitten with a new beauty, spa director Courtney Buntin Victor. The couple met at a party in San Antonio about two months ago and ended up talking the night away. Although the relationship is long distance (he lives in NYC and she's in Savannah, GA), O'Connell seems very content. "It's going great. It's refreshing to be dating again," he tells US Magazine. So what did Victor have that won over this hunk? "Her personality!" O'Connell gushes. "She's fun to be around and everyone likes her. She's real sweet, she talks to everyone."

How can you get a made-to-impress personality?

Cupid's Advice:

Beauty may fade, but personality stays! If you can't enjoy being around your mate, then what's the point? Cupid shows you how to fight lust and get love:

1. Play it cool: Sometimes we get so caught up in being around our crushes that our personalities take a back seat, and we look like a love-struck puppies. Keep first time conversations short. You want to pique his interest in you, not tell him your life story. This gives you time to warm up and become comfortable around your partner.

2. Next batta batta!: Stick to “three strikes and you’re out.”

Give yourself a mental deadline (that’s non-negotiable). When you “accidentally” bump into your squeeze three times at the local coffee shop, you can bow out knowing you gave it your best shot. After three shots, you run the risk of looking like a stalker.

3. Be yourself: The most important thing you can do is avoid acting like someone you’re not. If you’re looking for a longterm relationship, then there’s no point in misleading your potential mate. You want someone who will appreciate and love you for who you are. Don’t compromise!

John Mayer and Michelle Trachtenberg?

Known playboy John Mayer, who has dated the likes of Jessica Simpson and Jennifer Aniston, has recently been linked to Gossip Girl actress Michelle Trachtenberg. Rumors say that the pair were seen getting cozy at Soho House in Los Angeles recently. Though reports say the two seem “smitten,” Trachtenberg’s rep adamantly denied all claims they are more than just friends. The spokesperson maintains that they chatted together for a few minutes. Trachtenberg’s rep told the New York Post, “They’ve known each other for years.” How can you get a bad boy to settle down?

Cupid’s Advice:

- 1. Don’t always cooperate: Constantly rearranging your day to meet his schedule is not going to pique his interest. Make him come to you. Your unavailability will make him more eager to see you.
- 2. Give him free reign: Be independent. Let him know that you don’t need him, and that it is up to him to really get the relationship going. Your apparent disinterest will make you seem less desperate and more mysterious, which will interest him.

3. What are you willing to tolerate?: Taming a bad boy is a near impossible task. You need to ask yourself what you are willing to put up with in a relationship. If you are not willing to give him free reign, then your relationship with a bad boy will probably not end happily.

Kate Winslet Back On the Dating Scene

Kate Winslet appears to be taking a page from Marilyn Monroe's book with a case of the seven-year itch. According to Us

Magazine, the actress is going public with her new relationship with British model Louis Dowler, after announcing in March that she and director Sam Mendes had split after nearly seven years of marriage. “Kate certainly seems smitten,” a source familiar with the couple told the UK’s The Mirror. “Who wouldn’t be?... They’ve really got something special.”

What’s the best way to jump into a new relationship after severing a long-term one?

Cupid’s Advice:

Getting back into the dating scene after a divorce or breakup can be awkward. Cupid has some advice to make sure you make the most of it:

- 1. Time for a makeover: When you look your best, you will most likely feel your best. Break away from the old you and do something to make yourself feel great before venturing back into the dating game.
- 2. No time for a do-over: Take the time to figure out what went wrong with your last relationship, and determine what the essential qualities you are looking for in another person. The last thing you want to do is find yourself getting involved in a similar situation, which will most likely end badly.
- 3. All the single ladies! (and men): Though it might be difficult, don’t go on the date with thoughts of your last relationship. Leave your troubles at home or in the therapist’s office. Think of this as an opportunity to be yourself, be single, and start fresh.

There is no timeframe for starting to date once again. Everyone is different. When you feel ready, go for it and have fun.

Kim Kardashian's New Flame

A little over two months after her breakup with longtime boyfriend Reggie Bush, Kim Kardashian has her eyes on yet another football star – The Dallas Cowboy's Miles Austin. After meeting at an L.A. restaurant, the two have kept in touch, and have even gone on a few dates. An insider told People, "It's going really well." While they aren't officially dating, the relationship seems promising. The two are reportedly "taking it slow." A friend of the couple said that Kardashian "thinks he's a really good guy. He's really sweet to her... He thinks Kim is his dream girl." Is it wise to date the same type?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it's easy to find yourself frequently drawn to the same kind of man. Before entering a relationship with yet another "type" of guy, consider Cupid's suggestions:

1. Are you hurt? If you constantly date the same type of man and find yourself hurt at the end of a relationship, then it's time for something new. On the other hand, if your relationships are healthy and usually end with some kind of mutual agreement, then your choice in men is fine the way it is.

2. Do you ever wish for more? Similar men typically have similar shortcomings. If your current relationship does not offer all you wish for, chances are, your typecast guy will leave you with the same feelings. Make a change if you're unhappy.

3. Step out of your comfort zone: If you've been dating the same kind of guy since high school and find yourself hurt and unhappy in relationships, then you need something different. It may be difficult at first, but putting yourself out there and dating people that you would normally pass by or disregard could prove to be rewarding.

For more info on types of partners, check out Cupid's interview with Andrea Syrtash's, author of He's Just Not Your Type (and that's a good thing).

Katie Holmes & Tom Cruise

Still in Love

No one can forget the time Tom Cruise jumped up onto Oprah's couch professing his love for then-girlfriend Katie Holmes. Now the two are married, with 4-year-old daughter, Suri, and are still head over heels in love. As reported this week in People, Holmes still sees her husband as the leading man he is on the silver screen. Years down the road, how do you keep the fire burning in your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone has come into contact with that inspiring older couple that still looks at each other the same way they did when they fell in love. Cupid has some suggestions on how to reach this relationship ideal:

1. Pick the right one: People who marry just for looks or money always tend to end up unhappy. Don't choose a partner for merely superficial reasons. Spend your life with someone you can't live without.

2. Never stop dating: Even though you now have kids and a mortgage doesn't mean you don't have time for dinner and a movie once in while. Making time for dates can make a big difference.

3. Be spontaneous: Planning dates and vacations in advance is great. However, the element of spontaneity can keep you feeling like a honeymooner for years to come.

Twilight Co-Stars Caught in the Act

Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart have been trying to keep their rumored relationship on the down-low, but they were recently caught snuggling in Montreal on the set of Stewart's new movie, On The Road, People reported this week. The duo, who co-star together in the Twilight series, are also set to heat up the big screen with steamy scenes as they begin filming Breaking Dawn. How much affection should a couple show in public?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA is always a controversial topic. Some people think it's borderline tacky, and others think it's perfectly acceptable.

Cupid has some suggestions on how to gauge what is right for you and your partner:

1. Hold hands: In public, hand holding is a safe way to show affection. It shows you both care without offending those around you.

2. A quick peck: A speedy kiss on the cheek, or even the lips is nothing be ashamed of, and shouldn't make anyone around you think twice. It's a fast way to show that you not only care, but that you are attracted to your partner.

3. Do what feels comfortable for you: Sometimes it's best to just do what is right for you. The fact is, public displays of affection are not a crime. If what you are doing doesn't bother you, and you're fairly sure it's not making others around you uncomfortable, go for it!

Drew Barrymore Loves Working with Justin Long!

Spotted! At a red carpet event in celebration of her Nylon cover, E! News interviewed Drew Barrymore about her costar Justin Long. “He, by the way, is the most wonderful person to work with” the star gushes. Barrymore and Long have been in an on-again, off-again relationship for awhile, and although she refused to comment on their current status, the two have teamed up for the new movie, Going the Distance. While rocking a vintage dress, Barrymore added, “I’m so excited about this movie. As a girl, I relate to this movie and the boy in me loves the comedy in this movie. It is a very good date movie!”

Is it a good idea to work with your significant other?

Cupid’s Advice:

Being in a relationship with a co-worker can lead to office gossip and the possibility of blending business with pleasure. Cupid has some ways to keep things from overlapping and work alongside your partner:

- 1. Alone time: Being together for most of the day can cause some tension. Find some type of outlet that will get you away for a couple of hours a day, like a separate group of friends or a hobby.
- 2. Less arguing: Keep an open line of communication, and listen to your partner’s feelings. You can minimize fights by frequently checking in with each other to see how their professional and personal lives are doing. This will also lessen the chances of blending the two.
- 3. Limit convos: Don’t let work take over your personal life. If you notice that all you talk about at home is the office, then bring up new subjects, like vacation ideas, what to do this weekend, or even the weather, as long as it gets you out of that same-old topic of conversation. This applies vice-versa as well. Don’t bring arguments or discussions from home into the workplace.

Julianne Hough Handles Ryan Seacrest's Fame

They usually try to keep a low profile, but Ryan Seacrest and Julianne Hough went out in public over the weekend, cruising around Los Angeles in Seacrest's convertible Aston Martin, and enjoyed brunch at the Four Seasons poolside restaurant, Cabana, People reported this week. Despite both wearing hats, Seacrest was recognized and approached by fans...and Hough wasn't. However, she played it cool, waiting by his side while Seacrest greeted them.

How should you act if people want to talk to your partner, but not you?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be awkward when you're out with your other half and people only talk to him or her. Here are some of Cupid's tips on playing it cool while you wait it out:

1. Stand by: Even if you might feel silly just standing there while your significant other fields questions and chats away, standing by and being patient shows your support.

2. Smile: If it turns out to be a more than a quick question or chat, smiling will assure your partner and whoever he or she is talking to that you're not grumpy about the situation, even though you may be.

3. Don't create a scene: If the conversation veers away from friendly to flirty, and people start hitting on your partner, don't step in or get mean. Your mate is with you for a reason, and since you're standing right there, you have no reason to worry about anything.

It's Serious Between George Clooney & Elisabetta Canalis

De spite rumors from an Italian newspaper that the couple had separated, George Clooney and Elisabetta Canalis are still going strong. Canalis opened up to Vanity Fair's Italian edition, dismissing any rumors that they have split as jealousy, People reported this week. In fact, she told the magazine, "Those who criticize or invent stories about us are just jealous."

What should you do when people try to meddle with your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding love can be like winning the lotto! However, one's happiness and luck can often lead to jealousy from the outside world. Read on for Cupid's tips on how to deal with this situation:

1. Don't fuel the fire: Jealousy can harm a relationship, even if it comes from the outside. The best thing anyone can do is to not repeat the rumors you hear. Most of the time, like in Clooney and Canalis' case, rumors are false.

2. Be happy: Jealousy and rumors can only harm a relationship if those involved let it. As Canalis said, "the best revenge over these jealous people is to be happy."

3. Time cures all wounds: In the end, rumors don't last long. The more untrue they are, the less time it takes for them to fizzle away all together.

Renee Zellweger & Bradley Cooper Get Fit Together

Exercise for two? We'll take it! Renee Zellweger and Bradley Cooper recently signed up for short-term memberships at The Aquatics Fitness Club in Cooper's hometown (Abington, Pa.), the New York Post reported last week.

What are some easy ways you can stay fit with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Trying to balance work, home, and exercise can be a workout all on its own. Read on for Cupid's easy ways to spend quality time with your lover while also getting in a workout:

1. Plan for it: Sit down each week with your planners in front of you and find free time during your lunch break to take a bike ride through the park together. If the weather's being uncooperative, find a place where you can exercise in a fun and unique way, such as trying your luck at indoor rock climbing.

2. Make it a date: If you only have early or late hours free to work out together, check your area for 24 Hour Fitness Centers or similar businesses that offer round-the-clock fitness, or extended hours for night owls.

3. Take the plunge: Water sports are great for enjoying time together by providing closeness you just can't get from lifting weights! Venture outside the local pool and find places that offer outdoor water sports.

Eddie Cibrian & LeAnn Rimes Play House

Le Ann Rimes is becoming a family woman. According to several news outlets, Rimes' flame, Eddie Cibrian, and his two children, are moving into her Hidden Hills home in Calabasas.

A source tells E! News, “Eddie and the kids are moving in with Leann to save money since Eddie lost his CSI job.” Rimes purchased the home shortly after the two went public with their relationship last year. Another source tells People, “They’re just enjoying the moment and are hopeful about their future together.” Rimes finalized her divorce from chef Dean Sheremet (who recently made a big move of his own) in June, and Cibrian’s divorce from model Brandi Glanville is pending.

When’s the best time and the best way to move in with your flame?

Cupid’s Advice:

For many couples, making the move to cohabitation is big. But is it the best option? Cupid is here with some advice before you start making up a new set of keys:

1. Look to the future: If both of you feel the time is right to make the move, go for it. However, make sure you’re equally committed to the relationship, and that moving in together isn’t just out of convenience.

2. Whose roof are you living under?: Whether you’re renting, buying, or one partner is moving into the other’s home, make sure the living arrangements are clear. For example, are both names on the lease? Who is responsible for what expenses? Take a look at some key money rules for moving in together.

3. Don’t confuse the kids: As is the case with Cibrian and Rimes, there are children involved. Before you uproot the family, consider the kids. Will they be in the same school district? Will they leave friends behind? Age also matters. Teens may be mature enough to understand what is going on and the reasons behind the move, but younger children will most likely be confused, and will come to you for explanations.
