Sometimes, we get comfort out of our day-to-day relationship routine. However, in order to keep things fresh, it’s important to take relationship risks. Below are a few pieces of relationship advice regarding ways you can take your relationship to the next level by taking risks:

1. Disagree with their opinion: Obviously, you don't want to disagree with everything your partner has to say. But, if you don't have the same view as they do on a big topic like politics, speak up. Nobody wants a partner that says "yes" all the time.

2. Do you own thing: When you're in a relationship, it may be hard to pull away from the other person and spend time on your own. However, make sure that you do make time for yourself outside of the relationship. This can help you strengthen your independence, and if you're not spending every waking hour with your partner, you'll have time to miss them.

3. Bring forward relationship issues: A lot of people think it's best to keep quiet and "pick and choose their battles" when it comes to relationship arguments. Bachelorette* stars Kaitlyn Bristowe and Britt Nilsson will have their

Cupid's Advice:

There are many factors to consider when deciding whether someone is a good romantic match for you. While you might be inclined to think that occupation isn't important Cupid has some love advice on why this factor shouldn't be ignored:

1. Time is money: Can your significant other give you the time commitment you're looking for? If you're new beau has a high-powered career that probably means long hours and less time with you. If you're looking for a serious relationship, then this probably isn't an ideal situation.

2. Get down to business: No matter what the fairy tales say research shows that relationships between people with similar education levels usually have a higher rate of success. While there are always exceptions to the rule it can be prudent to look for a partner who has had a similar education and work path as you. This way you'll automatically have a better understanding of each other's situations.

3. Work hard, play hard: Knowing a potential suitor's career ambitions can be very important. Are they up for a promotion that's going to take them to an office out of state? Are they looking for a job where they have to travel consistently? If you're looking to stay put then this isn't an ideal match. Minimize the possibility for heartbreak by making sure you and soon-to-be sweetheart have similar life goals and plans.

New Photos: The Countdown to 'The Bachelorette' Begins With Britt and Kaitlyn

By

Emma L. Wells

The countdown begins for The Bachelorette season 11 premiere and in order to get us even more pumped up for the reality TV show ABC released some stunning photos from a shoot with the two Bachelorettes, Kaitlyn Bristowe and Britt Nilsson. People.com reports that Bristowe and Nilsson have ditched the usually colorful gowns we're accustomed to seeing on Bachelorettes and opted for some silvery grey numbers which fit the season's tagline, '50 Shades of Cray.' The two girls, who battled for Chris Soules on season 19 of The Bachelor, will once again face off for relationships and love in a two part premiere on May 18th.

Britt Nilsson and Kaitlyn Bristowe let their personalities shine through their grey dresses for 'The Bachelorette' promo shoot. How can you make a good impression and pick the perfect first date outfit?

Cupid's Advice:

Most people don't like to admit it but we often judge others based on their appearance the first time we meet them. That's why a first date outfit can have a big impact on whether or not someone asks you out again. Have no fear, here is some love advice on how to put together the right ensemble...

1. Be appropriate: The first thing you should consider when picking your first date outfit is what you're going to be doing on the date. Different outfits are more appropriate for dinner and a movie versus a hike and a picnic. You may have a great pair of sparkly stilettos but you probably shouldn't wear them if you and your date are headed to a street fair. If you don't know where you're going then try to pick a neutral outfit such as a loose dress or jeans and a nice top.

2. Be yourself: If you're the type of girl who wears jeans and a t-shirt 99% of the time, you'll give the wrong impression of yourself if you show up to your date wearing your roommate's body-con dress. When you're picking your outfit select something that represents the "real" you. If the date you're going on doesn't really allow you to dress like yourself, consider asking him nicely if you can do possibly do something else.

Be on time: Being fashionably late is acceptable for a large party but not for a one-on-one date. It's easy to overthink a decision like this. Don't get anxious and wrapped up in your head. If you can't find the perfect first date outfit don't worry, just be sure to wow him with your personality!

Even Harris looked intrigued and took a peek to see what was going on.

To be or not to be a Hollywood couple? What are some ways to decide whether you should date someone?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it can be difficult to decide whether to move forward with a relationship and love. Cupid has some tips:

1. You can't picture life without them: If you can't imagine living in the world without them by your side, then it's definitely a good idea to date them. If you can't picture yourself dating anyone else either, then you absolutely should date them. If it's obvious that you both like each other and want to see how things will work out, go for it! What have you got to lose?

2. They make you happy: If your significant other brings you great happiness and you share strong feelings for them – date them. What is the harm in giving it a whirl? Eventually you will move on past the 'just hanging out' phase and want to establish something more serious with them. This is why you should establish some sort of commitment, whatever you and your partner agree upon and choose that suits you both. You should go with what makes you both comfortable and happy.

3. You see a bright future with them: If the future looks bright with your partner, then follow your instincts. If you can picture yourself growing old with your partner, then pay attention to how your heart feels and follow that. If you want to marry or have children with this person, then you know you want something serious and should start dating them officially. Establish an exclusive type of relationship with your significant other. The important thing is to be on the same page and keep evolving together!

By

A source close to the Hunger Games star reveals that “dating could definitely happen.” Cyrus recently broke up with Patrick Schwarzenegger, who she had been dating for five months. The two went through a celebrity break-up after Schwarzenegger was caught flirting and doing body shots off another girl in Mexico.

It looks like these celebrity exes are amicable! What are some factors to consider before seeking comfort from your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

After experiencing a break-up, it can be hard trying to figure out where you stand with your ex. Are you two able to be friends again or has that relationship been deemed irreconcilable? Just like Cyrus has confided in her celebrity ex, here are a few tips to consider before reaching out to a past lover:

1. Possibility of platonic: Before you begin any type of relationship with your ex, you must be prepared for it to only amount to a friendship-nothing more. That way you won't get your hopes up if a romantic relationship isn't a possibility.

2. Time: Make sure enough time has past between the rekindling of the relationship and the break-up. If it was a particularly nasty break-up, more time is probably needed for wounds to heal.

3. Start off slow: Before you pick up or phone and give your former mate a call, understand that your relationship isn't going to be exactly the same as it was before. Start off the conversation casual and friendly to test the waters before diving into heavy or serious topics.

New Celebrity Couple? Reality TV Stars Josh Murray and Ashley Iaconetti Party Together in NYC

By

Emma L. Wells

Last Monday, The Bachelorette season 10 winner Josh Murray and The Bachelor season 19 contestant Ashley Iaconetti were seen with a large group partying in New York City, prompting rumors that these reality TV stars are a new celebrity couple. Murray posted a picture of the mostly gal group on his Instagram, saying, “Had a great time, NYC, it’s always nice meeting new friends.” Only Iaconetti and one other woman were tagged in the shot of 13 party-goers. People.com reported that Murray was in New York working for fitness and nutrition brand AdvoCare. Despite sitting close and looking like a cute famous couple, both Murray and Iaconetti insist they aren’t dating.

These two reality TV stars have denied being a celebrity couple, but given their similar experiences, we think they'd be a good pair! Find out how a common background can help your relationship and love be a success.

Cupid's Advice:

We've all heard that opposites attract. While a little disparity in a relationship can add some spice, being with someone who shares a similar history is a strong foundation for a new relationship and love. Cupid explains why below:

1. You have a better understanding: People are a product of their experiences. Understanding someone's experiences firsthand will help you better understand them and their intentions. Being on a reality TV dating show is not something a lot of people can relate to, which is one reason why Murray and Iaconetti could potentially match well as a celebrity couple.

2. You share a common perspective: In most cases, having a similar background means that you will also have a similar perspective on certain issues. Whether it be politics, religion, finances, or family, when you share the same opinions, you'll be able to communicate better. These types of discussions can be difficult to have, but if you're of the same mind, you'll come to an agreement much easier.

3. There's an easier learning curve: If you are from different ways of life (religiously, culturally, socio-economically, etc.), it doesn't mean your relationship and love won't succeed, but it does mean that you'll have to take more time and effort to learn about your beau's background. When you date someone who has shared experiences, you get to skip that step.

This celebrity couple is keeping things casual. Why is it smart to keep a relationship low-key at first?

Cupid's Advice:

A reason relationships and love sometimes fail is because things are rushed. Keeping a relationship casual – like this celebrity couple – can be a fantastic idea, especially when it's new. Cupid has some love advice to consider:

1. No pressure: When people are dating, they often feel unnecessary pressure from their partner, their family and friends, and even themselves. There is no need to rush into marriage though; you should go at your own pace!

3. No strings attached: One of the best things about keeping things casual in a relationship is that there are no strings attached. You and your partner get to create your own rules and guidelines. This takes away the unnecessary stress that relationships tend to have when things get too serious, too soon. Go at your own pace, and decide how you want things to be!

Cupid's Advice:

Moving onto a new relationship and love is exciting! However, if you find yourself constantly thinking about your ex, maybe you're not quite ready to start something new. If you need some reassurance that you're over your old fling, here are some signs:

1. Thinking of the future: What do you imagine your life being like in the next three months? Year? Five Years? If in these fantasies and future goals, your ex partner isn't in them, it's safe to say that you've moved on from him.
