How can you and your partner incorporate charitable causes into your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

For most of us, extra time and money are hard to come by. This fact makes it difficult for working couples to help charitable organizations. Do not fear! Cupid has some dating and love advice to help you and your partner contribute to those causes that are near and dear to you without making you eat Ramen noodles for the rest of your lives:

1. Donate money: Instead of spending money on that five-star restaurant, you and your partner should consider giving those funds to a charity that means something to both of you, whether it be to an animal rights group or to bring clean drinking water to third world countries. Make it a monthly tradition and pick a new organization each time!

2. Donate time: Instead of spending your day mindlessly sitting around the house or wandering around the mall, make your Saturday useful by volunteering with your partner. There are so many opportunities to help out in even the smallest of communities. Look into local nursing homes, soup kitchens, and animal shelters, just to name a few options. It'll make you feel good to help others in need, and those who you helped will be forever grateful.

By

Courtney Omernick

It was a big weekend for Ariana Grande, who is currently dominating celebrity news! Not only did she perform at the VMA's, but her celebrity relationship with Big Sean has gone public! According to UsMagazine.com, the "Bang Bang" singer and Big Sean were caught holding hands backstage at the award show. Will this famous couple keep the spark alive in their Hollywood relationship? We sure hope so!

Celebrity relationships are often discovered sooner than they're meant to be. Luckily, you have more control! What are three creative ways to announce your love to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Announcing a new relationship is definitely an exciting moment! There are butterflies in your stomach and love in your heart. You probably feel higher than a kite! But with Facebook being a worldwide staple, the “surprise” element of announcing a new relationship has been diminished. So we’ve come up with a few ways that you can take a cue from the hottest celebrity relationships and get creative with your announcement:

1. Utilize the element of surprise: Like Grande and Big Sean, confirm your relationship with a subtle surprise. For example, if the two of you are going out with friends or to dinner with family, you could try walking into the room holding hands to get the conversation started. Or if you’re really daring, plant a quick kiss in front of your loved ones.

2. Take advantage of social media: Ok, so we can’t deny the use of technology to get the message out there! After all, almost everyone is online these days. Posting a picture of you and your new significant other holding hands, kissing, etc. might be the way to go. This way, you’ll be able to acceptably use a ton of hashtags and get the word out to your favorite people in one easy move.

3. Use Snapchat: Like Instagram, Twitter, or Facebook, this is a great way to get the word out quickly! You can take a picture similar to the one mentioned above and come up with a great caption like, “He’s all mine!” The beauty with Snapchat is that it allows you to select which contacts in your phone receive the message, so you can make it as private as you’d like.

Even the most coveted celebrity relationships come to an end! What are some ways to keep things civil post-breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're hurting because of a break-up, it can be hard to think about being nice to your former significant other. But, if you're looking to keep things civil, we have some love advice for you:

1. Give them their space: Breaking up is hard for both parties. If you truly want to keep things on a level playing field, it's best to give them some space right after the break-up occurs. The other individual is going to be much more open to being friendlier if they've had some time to cope with their feelings.

2. Show your support (in moderation): You want the other individual to know that you still value them as a person, and possibly a friend, so it's important to help them understand, through tiny gestures, that you still support them. However, you don't want to constantly bombard them with "Congratulations" and other happy messages because you could be implying something else.

Celebrity Couple Aziz Ansari and Courtney McBroom Step Out Together

By Shannon

Seibert

Aziz Ansari is known for keeping his personal life private, but he's finally given us a glimpse into what makes him happy. According to UsMagazine.com, the comedian has a sincere soft spot for his beautiful girlfriend, Courtney McBroom. Though Ansari, 31, has kept quiet about most aspects of his celebrity relationship, he did slip us a small tidbit about McBroom during a May interview with Billboard Magazine. “I met her years ago when she was seeing someone. I thought she was really cool. Then, I ran into her randomly, and she was single,” he said. “I’ve kind of settled down. I was the guy eating Skittles and having lots of fun, and then I was like, ‘I need a nice nutritious salad’ – she’s the salad.” Things between the celebrity couple are progressing, and sources say that McBroom has moved into the Parks and Recreation actor’s place in Los Angeles. “They’ve been visiting the city the past few days,” sources reveal. “He’s writing a book about relationships as well lately and is on deadline for that.” No doubt that Ansari’s own celebrity love story is one worth reading about!

What are the benefits of settling down like this celebrity couple?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s a rare thing to find someone who can consistently make you happy and make you feel safe. Making a commitment to someone can ease your stress as well as give you a feeling of security. As this celebrity couple now knows, settling down is actually extremely beneficial to the heart, body, and soul. Check out these top three pieces of relationship advice as to why you should snag a piece of man candy:

1. You can stop playing the game: The dating game includes courting, flirting, and guessing your partner’s next move. It creates a lot of unnecessary stress for both parties, and that’s before factoring in other women, other men, differences in opinion, being afraid to voice your feelings, etc. When you settle down, you and your partner are able to retire from the drama and enjoy your time together. In turn, you are also able to experience peace together for the first time. The commitment you make to one another is symbolic of your publicized feelings for one another, and no one can interfere with that unless you let them.

2. You become more focused: The guessing games of the dating world come to a screeching halt when you get serious with someone. This allows you to focus on things that actually matter. When you're in a long-term relationship or married, you find that you have more time to focus on yourself and your love. The two of you will be able to make each other a priority and learn to grow together as a couple. You'll become more goal-oriented and begin to realize what truly matters in life.

3. You always have a support system: Your partner should provide you with a solid shoulder to lean on when things are both good and bad. He will become your best friend as well as life partner. Celebrity Dating Rumors: Gwyneth Paltrow Is Dating 'Glee' Co-Creator Ben Falchuk

By Shannon

Seibert

According to celebrity dating rumors, romance has once again struck on the set of Glee! Gwyneth Paltrow and Ben Falchuk were spotted on a flirty dinner date at East Borough in L.A., according to UsMagazine.com. Paltrow has made five guest appearances on the co-creator's show as Holly Holliday since 2010. Following her celebrity divorce from Chris Martin in March, Paltrow's relationship with Falchuk has progressed from professional to personal over recent months. Falchuk has also recently split from his ex-wife Suzanne of 10 years. Both the actress and the producer share children with their celebrity exes and are seemingly close to their former partners. We're excited to see what Cupid has in store for the new celebrity

couple!

Rumor has it that Paltrow is already part of a new celebrity couple. How do you know when you're ready to move on after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on can sometimes feel like you're climbing a never-ending mountain, but then one day, you finally reach the top, and you realize the view isn't half bad. When you feel that you have closure from your past relationship, the next step is moving forward. If you're wondering whether or not you're up to starting something new, consider these three pieces of love advice:

1. You physically feel better: Sometimes, emotional pain transitions into physical pain. There seems to be a never-ending pit in your stomach that leaves you feeling nauseous. When you've let go of past emotions and memories and accept that he isn't coming back, you feel lighter. The songs on the radio don't "speak" to you anymore; you aren't avoiding certain places you went together; and you find yourself forgetting to think about him from time to time. This weight that lifts is a sign that you don't have to be held back anymore. Paltrow has been able to let go of past grievances after her celebrity divorce, and they've even remained close friends. There is nothing keeping you in the past, so you can create your own future.

2. You've thought about dating again: When you're ready to move on, thoughts of dating cross your mind more frequently, and they usually aren't about your past significant others.

Finding new men to reach out to can help stimulate the healing process and allow you to consider new avenues for finding love. Celebrity couple Paltrow and Falchuk both waited until the right moment to be together.

3. You've had complete closure: Closure is hard to come by, but when you finally have it, everything feels at peace. Though the truth about why things ended may hurt, it also allows you to feel more in tune to your senses. There won't be any more "what ifs" nagging at your mind before you go to sleep each night. You won't be analyzing everything that went wrong, and you'll be able to just have the memories of everything you did right. Use your past relationships and love to help you in the future.

Find Out the Duggar Family's 5 Rules for Relationships and Love

By

Courtney Omernick

In the latest celebrity news, another one of the Duggar children, Jessa, got engaged to Ben Seewald this past week. People.com put together an article summarizing some of the major relationship and love rules that the Duggar family has. The top five are: set boundaries; court, don't date; save the physical relationship for marriage; ask (lots of) questions; and have a weekly date. The soon-to-be married celebrity couple has obviously benefited from the Duggar family's two-cents, so this wholesome love advice is something for the books!

What are some important pieces of love advice for all couples to remember?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to relationships and love, many people have their own rules and requirements, but there are a few rules that should be followed in every romantic partnership. What are they? Cupid has some love advice:

1. Make your relationship top priority: This rule goes for both parties. If one person is putting in 80 percent of the effort, they will become exhausted, and the relationship won't go anywhere. If you're truly committed, make sure that the other person comes first.

2. Honesty is always the best policy: If you feel like you can't be honest with your partner, it's probably best that you two go your separate ways. Trust is the biggest thing in a relationship, and you can't have trust without honesty. It's important that you feel like you can be open at all times with your partner.

David Arquette Says He Doubts He'll Attend Ex Courteney

Cox's Celebrity Wedding

By

Courtney Omernick

Even though David Arquette has remained close with his celebrity ex Courteney Cox, he doubts that he will be attending her upcoming celebrity wedding to Snow Patrol band member, Johnny McDaid. According to UsMagazine.com, Arquette said about his relationship with Cox and her fiancé, "We are all very tight and very close and very supportive of everyone." These two celebrity romances have proven that, even among the stars, friendship with exes is possible!

Celebrity romances don't always end in drama! What are some ways you can also remain supportive of your ex post-split?

Cupid's Advice

It can be challenging to remain close or develop a friendship with your ex post-split, but if you're looking to remain supportive of them, Cupid has you covered! Check out our love advice below:

1. Focus on yourself first: If you want to go back to just being "friends" with your ex, the first thing you need to do is focus on yourself and lose your "couple" identity. Take some time to be away from the person and work on you as an individual. Deal with the break-up in your own way before connecting with the other person again.

Related Link: Courteney Cox's Fiance Johnny McDaid's Mom "Loves" Her

2. Support their milestones: After you've spent time away from the relationship and understand yourself as an individual, you can show the other person your support through simple texts, e-mails, and phone calls. For example, if your ex just finished their first marathon, extending your thoughts through a "congratulations" text can show them that you're still a part of their support system. We're sure that Arquette expressed his happiness about Cox's upcoming celebrity wedding!

3. Be a resource: If you hear that your ex is going through a hard time with a family member or having problems with their computer, make sure they know that they can come to you for advice or help. Assisting them in finding a solution for their problems shows that you still want to remain active in their lives and support them through difficult situations.

The Celebrity Couple to Melt All Hearts: Chloe Grace Moretz and Brooklyn Beckham

By Shannon

Seibert

Like father, like son! Brooklyn Beckham is already stealing hearts. In the latest celebrity news, David and Victoria Beckham's oldest son is dating Chloe Grace Moretz. Moretz, 17, and Beckham, 15, have taken advantage of the time in which Beckham has been in Los Angeles. He has just returned for school in London, but according to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple has gone out on dates with other couples to “see where this is going to go.” The If I Stay star has also talked of taking the aspiring model to her premiere for her newest release. Best of luck to our newest lovebirds!

Celebrity couples have to worry about avoiding magazine covers, but how can you keep your new relationship and love from attracting rumors?

Cupid’s Advice:

No one wants to be on the receiving end of bad gossip, but by word of mouth, rumors travel at lightening speed. And where rumors start, doubt and insecurities seem to follow. You don’t need anyone sticking their nose in your business, so consider this dating advice to keep your relationship and love private!

1. Don’t publicize your concerns in your relationship: In your relationship, there are only two people: you and your partner. That being said, everyone else’s opinions on what may or may not be going on are irrelevant. There is no need for you to be sharing the intimate details of your relationship to anyone else. If something is going on, talk to your partner, not the world.

2. Never argue in front of anyone: In a relationship, you’re supposed to put up a united front. Arguing in public will cause both eyebrows and tensions to raise. So if you and your man ever disagree, wait until you are alone to talk it out.

Couples quarrel – it's natural and human, but you don't need to make it seem like that's all you do or that something is really wrong. If it can't wait until you get home, ask to see your partner in another room to quickly resolve the issue.

Related Link: Source Says Gwyneth Paltrow and Chris Martin Look 'Genuinely Happy' in Hamptons

3. Don't participate in questionable behavior: If you're out with a group of your ladies and you're flirting with another group of guys, this can raise red flags to everyone around you. It's okay to socialize and be friendly...but not too friendly. The last thing you need is for anyone to question your faithfulness. You want your partner – as well as your friends – to think of you as trustworthy.

Andi Dorfman of 'The Bachelorette' Hands Out Final Rose and Confronts Runner-Up

By Laura

Seaman

It's all over, folks! Andi Dorfman of The Bachelorette has made her final decision and is now engaged to... Josh Murray! The famous celebrity couple was cuddling and showing their love for one another on the live post-finale show, according to UsMagazine.com. However, that's only one side of the story. Heartbroken and tossed aside, runner-up Nick Viall had a few things to say on the post-finale sit-down. "If you knew how in love with you I was, why did you make love with me?" he asked Dorfman. This was an awkward and shocking confession, making the rest of the conversation extremely uncomfortable. Luckily things became all love and cuddles once Viall was backstage and Murray took his place with new fiancé Dorfman.

It's not only famous couples who find themselves with one too many dating options. What are some ways to chose between two people you're attracted to?

Cupid's Advice:

Having two people fight for your affections might sound nice at first (it's definitely an ego boost), but be prepared for the extremely stressful task of choosing only one. This means ending any relationship you might have had with one person and committing yourself fully to the other. What makes this a million times harder is when you honestly care for them both! Cupid has some relationship advice to help make the decision easier:

1. Ask yourself which would make the better parent and spouse: If you're looking for a serious commitment, this is a very important question. Maybe the person who's the most fun isn't the one who would make a good spouse. Maybe the one you're most physically attracted to wouldn't make a good parent. These are the things you need to plan for!

Related Link: 'The Bachelorette' Andi Dorfman Brings Two Men to Fantasy Suite

2. Think about the kind of feelings you have: Your relationship with one person might be much more mature than the other, and you have to decide whether you want that mature relationship right now. One relationship might be more formal, whereas the other might be more casual and playful. You need to decide what kind of relationship you want and which partner can give that to you.

3. Look back at your history with each of them. Have you spent more time with one than the other? If both people were to ask you out and made plans for the same night, which one would you be more inclined to turn down? Chances are, you have a gut feeling telling you which one to choose, and it might be a good idea to follow it.

Kendall and Kylie Jenner Make Celebrity Gossip Headlines Cozying Up to Chris Brown and Trey Songz at Party

By Laura

Seaman

In the latest celebrity gossip, Kendall and Kylie Jenner were spotted getting friendly with rappers Chris Brown and Trey Songz. In a photo on Songz's Instagram, the Jenner girls were cozy with the two at a house party. It's a scandalous combination, with the girls being only 16 and 18 and the men being 25 and 29. Not only that, but Brown is a convicted felon who just got out of jail in June after violated his probation in the Rihanna domestic abuse case. According to UsMagazine.com, mother Kris Jenner might not be too happy about her daughters' new friends. Only time will tell if these new celebrity couples are the real deal!

New celebrity couples can be seriously scandalous. What do you do if your friends are dating someone you don't approve of?

Cupid's Advice:

We love our friends, but sometimes, they just make really stupid decisions. They may date absolutely terrible people that we don't approve of, and yet, they insist that we "just don't get it." As much as you just want to knock some sense into these people, hold on and take a step back. Here are some ways to give your friend dating advice if they're seeing someone you don't approve of:

- 1. Gang up on them: Go full-out intervention style and have a group of friends around when you talk about this issue. They're more likely to listen to a group of people than just one person. And if you can't find other people who don't approve of this relationship and love, maybe it's a sign you need to rethink your position.

Related Link: 5 Celebrity Couples Who Started Off as Friends

2. Bring up specific examples: It's really easy to just brush off comments like "he's so rude" or "she's really obnoxious" if you can't name times when these things were true. To drive your point home, name some specific instances when your friend's partner did something you thought was a red flag.

Related Link: Kendall Jenner Says She and Harry Styles Are 'Cool'

3. Give them your support, no matter what: Don't use ultimatums like "either you break up with them, or we're not friends anymore". That just shows a huge lack of support, and you can't guarantee they'll even choose you. Just let your friend know that while you think the relationship is a really bad idea, you'll support them no matter what. It's what a real friend would do.

'The Bachelorette' Andi Dorfman Eliminates Chris Soules After Admitting Her Feelings Aren't as Strong

By Laura

Seaman

In the latest celebrity relationship news, reality TV sensation Andi Dorfman has narrowed it down to two men on The Bachelorette. Chris Soules, a farm boy from Iowa, was eliminated after his date in the Dominican Republic. Soules told Dorfman that he loved her, but according to UsMagazine.com, the reality TV star didn't feel the same way. "I don't think it's fair to make you sit here for days and wait for a rose ceremony," she said. "I just think I'd rather be honest with you and tell you that I'm trying and trying, but it's not there..."

How can you manage your relationship and love when your feelings are different from your partner's?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be extremely awkward when one person's feelings don't quite equal their partner's. If don't think you're quite ready for the level of intensity that your partner is, don't worry. There are plenty of ways to handle this issue in relationships and love, and they don't involve running in the opposite direction:

1. Be honest, and tell them to be patient: Don't just let them continue thinking you're more into them than you really are. It's letting them believe in a lie, and it's no better than just outright lying! The further apart your feelings get, the further apart you will grow as a couple, and if you don't fix it soon, the distance may become too much.

Related Link: Eric Hill's Death Casts a Shadow on 'Bachelorette' Hometown Dates.

2. Ask them to double-check their feelings: Some people might want love so desperately that they trick themselves into feeling it when it's not really there. Make sure you're not a recipient of these fake feelings, and ask your significant other to really think about what they're feeling. This could bring them back to your level and give the relationship a more solid foundation.

Related Link: How Not To Scare a New Man Away

3. Take a step back and start from the beginning. If you've just been going along with their strong feelings, maybe you're taking steps you weren't really ready for. This might mean moving in together, talking about future plans, or just saying things you don't mean. Ask them to take a step back and start again a few steps back.

By Laura

Seaman

True Blood actor Joe Manganiello and Modern Family star Sofia Vergara are the hottest new celebrity couple. The two met at the White House Correspondents Dinner while Vergara's engagement to Nick Loeb was still on. "It's very, very new," an insider tells UsMagazine.com. "They're having fun and getting to know each other." The famous couple made celebrity news after being spotted at a diner in Louisiana in May kissing and taking pictures with fans.

How do you know when you're ready to move on to a new relationship and love?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups can end in many different ways. Some splits are mutual and leave both parties feeling more liberated and happy, like Vergara's break-up from Loeb. Others are messy and leave one or more parties hating love and stuffing their faces with food. Well, no matter which break-up you went through, consider this dating advice to know when you've truly moved on from your ex:

1. You have no problem deleting their number: If you're truly over your ex, you know that there's no chance of them randomly texting or calling and begging to get back together, so you should be fine with deleting their number. It's better to do this so that you don't "accidentally" text them one night.

2. You're not jealous if they're with other people: They're single now, and they should be able to see other people without worrying how you feel. If you're really over them, you shouldn't feel anything more than maybe a short pang of hurt before forgetting about it. Besides, you're single too! Just like Vergara, you can start dating other people when you feel you're ready.

3. You aren't angry about the relationship ending: If your ex was the one to end things, you were probably angry at them for a little while. However, if you're really over them, you shouldn't be angry anymore. After all, it was probably for the better, and you should know that if you're over them.

What are three fun double date ideas?

Cupid's Advice:

Most people gag at the idea of double dating as an adult or instantly have flashbacks of being a teenager. Now that you are older, you have probably adapted to going on single dates and would not mind changing it up for once. Whoever said inviting your friend(s) on a date couldn't make for a great time? Cupid has three thrilling date ideas to consider when planning for a double day/night out:

1. Skating rink: This is the absolute perfect place to regain your mojo that was lost over the years, while having a ton of fun doing so. Lace up your skates and go until your feet become sore. Between the music and multiple falls, laughter is sure to be created among the four of you.

When is it time to start dating again?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it may seem like you'll never get over your breakup, and other times you're just thankful it's over and you want to get right back out and try again. Whatever the case, there are a few things you should be aware of before you put your newly single self back on the market and start the dating game all over again:

1. Make sure you're really over your ex. Just think about it; you wouldn't want to date someone who was still in love with someone else, would you? So don't put others in that situation. When you start dating, you need to be focused on the person you're with in that moment, not the person who left a long time ago.

Related: Going Solo Again: Bold New Beginnings

2. Don't date to get even, date because you want to. Some people seem to think that whoever starts dating first 'wins'. A breakup isn't a game, and there's no winner. You're not proving anything by going on a date, and if it turns out bad because you rushed into it, then you are just in a worse place than before. Start dating when you want to, and for the right reasons.

3. Keep your standards. Just because someone broke up with you, or your relationship didn't work out, doesn't mean that anything is wrong with you. You still deserve a good relationship, and you're not going to find it if you go out with any and every person that offers.

Rumor: Jake Gyllenhaal Dating Rachel McAdams

By Laura

Seaman

Rumor has it that Jake Gyllenhaal dating Rachel McAdams. They have been spotted together once again as they left the Miguel Cotto vs. Sergio Martinez fight on June 9. Rumors have been flying about whether or not these outings means that they are actually dating, but sources tell UsMagazine.com that the two are just friends, and that the reason they're spending so much time together is to prepare for their upcoming movie Southpaw. Not only that, but McAdams is still with Patrick Sambrook, the couple showing some PDA back in May.

How do you know if you should risk your friendship for love?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a situation that has plagued almost everyone at some point, like Jake Gyllenhaal : Should you turn your friendship into a relationship? This often leads to people being 'friend-zoned' and told that the risk isn't worth it, or that they can't be anything more than a friend because the person "just doesn't see them that way". With all of this in mind, sometimes it's worth the risk of asking your friend to be more than your friend.

1. Figure out your feelings. Make sure that you truly want to start dating this person, not because you just got out of a breakup or you suddenly find them attractive, but because you truly care about them more than the normal friend would. If you're risking your friendship, you need to be sure that it's for something you really want.

Related: Five Ways To Get His Undivided Attention

2. Read the signs. As strong as your feelings might be, they won't get you very far if your friend doesn't return them. Look for phrases such as "you're like a brother/sister to me," or conversations about other people they're interested in. If your friend comes to you on dating advice about other men/women, they probably haven't considered dating you.

Related: How to Prevent Yourself from Rushing into a Relationship

3. Make sure they're ready for a relationship. Timing is important, and as a friend you should know better than anyone how they're feeling about love. If your friend just got dumped, or is in a stage of their life where they're just enjoying being single, it's probably not the best time to confess your feelings. You need to be there as a friend, so don't be selfish! Wait until they're ready.

'Pretty Little Liars' Actress

Lucy Hale Dating Joel Crouse

By Sanetra Richards

In actuality, she's no "pretty little liar." According to UsMagazine.com, Lucy Hale is dating country singer Joel Crouse and is not afraid to tell all. "They are seeing each other. He is in L.A. right now to visit," a source reveals.

"It isn't anything serious just yet." The 24-year-old actress and her 21-year-old lover were recently spotted courtside at a Lakers game, in which Hale Instagram'd: "First lakers game. Was really great teaching this one the rules of the game. And seeing him looking like a kid in a candy store @joelcrouse." The two were photographed again on May 8th at LA's restaurant Crave Café.

The Pretty Little Liars star has also dated actors David Henrie, Chris Zylka, Graham Rogers, and The Cab keyboardist Alex Marshall.

In an interview with NYLON in December 2012, Hale made it know that she has “learned something good and positive” throughout all of her relationships. “I’m a woman, but I’m not fully the person that I think I will be. We’re all just trying to figure it out. Some of us just have to do it publicly.”

What are some ways to take your new relationship slow?

Cupid’s Advice:

You are excited about your new relationship and want to shout it out to the world, on top of Mount Everest. You have all of these plans lined up and cannot wait to execute each one of them. However, you have learned from past relationships that this is not always the best idea. Cupid has a few tips to help you take this one slow:

1. First comes love: Then comes marriage. It is perfectly OK to fantasize about a dream future with your significant other—who knows, it could possibly come true! However, do not be so quick to start making wedding plans. Give yourself (and your partner) time to actually be in the relationship before jumping the broom.

2. Hold off the family & friends: You can never be too sure on how long a relationship will last, but you can be careful on what is done throughout that period. Introducing your partner to your family and friends is not always the best idea. Yes, feel free to tell them about the person who has your interest, but save the meeting until a later date.

3. Actually date: A major part of a new relationship is dating. This is the time used to go on dates and getting to know each other while having fun. Take full advantage of these moments and let the relationship take its course, instead of planning everything out.

What are some ways to keep your relationship under wraps?

Cupid’s Advice:

Whilst some choose to announce their new relationship right away, others choose to maintain that bit of mystery for a little while. But exactly how do you manage to keep it under wraps until you are ready to spill the beans? Cupid has some advice:

1. Lips are sealed: Before any other step, you and your new partner must agree to keep it a secret (unless you want to tell a limited number of close family and friends). However, if you really want to keep it all undisclosed, telling absolutely no one is the way to go. It is completely understandable because you and new love are fresh and wanting to see how things go before jinxing the relationship.

2. Avoid PDA: Holding hands and kissing is certainly the way to blow your cover. Everyone knows “just friends” are not that affectionate with each other. Save it for the private areas if you want to keep the whole secrecy mission going.

3. Play it cool: Try not to become too wrapped up in your partner, otherwise, people will notice. Your family and friends will begin to tell if you are becoming distant . . .

and that is when the questions will begin. Balance your time with each until you are ready to announce the big news.

Where are three tropical paradises that make a good wedding venue?

Cupid's Advice:

With a lot of celebrities getting married in remote, tropical locations as opposed to churches and courthouses, your interest in an outdoor, luxurious wedding may have been piqued. Don't worry, we've got you covered! Below are three tropical paradises that make great wedding venues:

1. Aruba: One of the main reasons why this island makes for a great wedding venue is because of its predictable weather. Aruba presents a dry climate and it's outside of the hurricane belt, so you can expect sunshine all year round! Once on the island, specific destinations to consider are the Divi group, which is all-inclusive for families and budget conscious, or the Bucuti and Tara beach resorts for its “adults only” spin.

2. Cancun/Riviera Maya: Because of the ecological diversity in this Mexican region, there are multiple, beautiful locations for weddings beyond the beaches. The historic Mayan ruins and lush rainforests can also create a picturesque ceremony. But, if you're looking for specifics, Dreams Puerto Aventuras is perfect for families, while Secrets Capri Riviera Cancun works wonders for an adult-only, all-inclusive event.

3. The Bahamas: If you're looking for that scenic, tropical spot to exchange nuptials, The Bahamas certainly has enough of those. However, the most popular wedding destination in the Bahamas is on Paradise Island where you can find the famous Atlantis Resort. The Atlantis Resort is known to be the ideal venue for groups and families.
