

Khloe Kardashian and French Montana Go Public with New Relationship

By Louisa Gonzales

Khloe Kardashian and French Montana officially make their public debut as a couple! According to UsMagazine.com, the duo spotted out in public together on Friday, April 18 at the Lobster House for lunch. The rapper, who has 4-year-old son, Kruz, with his ex-wife Deen Kharbouch made sure to keep close to the TV starlet, while they indulged in some lunch, but showed minimal PDA. Reportedly the pair started dating following The Keeping Up With The Kardashians star, divorce filings from Lamar Odom. Even though the lovebirds seem to be both moving forward with each other, not everyone approves of their union, including Khloe's mother Kris Jenner according to sources.

How do you know when to debut your relationship to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Romantic relationship can be tricky things because they are constantly evolving and changing. It can be hard sometimes to tell the people closest to you when you're seeing someone new, especially when you want them to approve and like the person you're with. Cupid has some advice on how you can know when to debut your relationship to family and friends:

1. You're in a good place: When you feel like shouting your love from the rooftops, that's when you know you're ready to reveal your couple status. When you're happy in your relationship and feel secure, it means you have a good thing going with each other. It's important for you to feel in a good place in your relationship before you say anything because it will make it easier for you and the people you care about.

2. Your both on the same page: Every relationship has its own significance or meaning to a person. For couples to work they need to be on the same wavelength on what they want in terms of where their relationship is headed and what it means to them. It's important that you both are on the same page when it comes to being comfortable enough to share your relationship news to family and friends.

3. See a future together: If you find yourself thinking about your future together or planning for possible future events it means you can see the thing you got going on as more than just a fling. When you're thinking long-term with your partner, it's about time to start telling your family and friend. It's good to be able to share someone important to you with family and friends, especially when that person is someone you might possibly want to become a part of your family someday.

Taylor Swift Cuts Off Selena Gomez Post-Reunion With Justin Bieber

By Sanetra Richards

Taylor Swift is far from believing Justin Bieber is a good luck charm. According to UsMagazine.com, the 24-year-old songstress has dropped Selena Gomez as a friend after the Disney starlet rekindled things with Bieber. The “I Knew You Were Trouble” singer is disgusted by their relationship. During the summer, tweeted a birthday post to Selena, referencing her as “the closest thing I’ve ever had to a sister.” However, this is not the first strike. The source also claimed that Gomez used Swift’s good friend Ed Sheeran as a rebound last June to ruffle Bieber’s feathers. “After Selena pulled that move, Taylor started distancing herself,” said the source.

What are some ways to help your friend make good relationship decisions?

Cupid’s Advice:

No one ever said being a friend is easy, especially when it is time to pitch in decision advice about relationships. The conversation can go either two ways, good or bad. Here are some ways to help your friend out without being offensive:

1. Remain courteous: Take into consideration your friend’s feelings at all times. There is a way to be honest without delivering a harsh tone. Let him or her know of the signs in their relationship that may concern you, but do not repeatedly bring up this conversation. Your friend is completely aware of your possible worry. It is up to them to try to ease your apprehension.

Rihanna and Drake Party Post-Concert in Paris

By Brittany Stubbs

Nothing like a romantic city to bring two pals together. Rihanna attended Drake's concert at the Palais Omnisport de Bercy in Paris on Monday, Feb. 24. After the show, she was photographed meeting the rapper at Club 77. "She didn't want to be seen at all," an onlooker reported to UsMagazine.com. "She kept her head down and charged through the back of the club with her friends." The eyewitness then added, "Drake looked very tired, but he was smiling around Rihanna. They chatted, danced a little, and seemed close.” The two had also been spotted grabbing dinner together the night before. Although they’ve never come out as a couple, there have been rumors about Drake and Rihanna dating on-and-off for two years now.

How do you keep rumors from affecting your budding relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

There’s nothing that stirs up trouble at the beginning of a relationship like gossip. Cupid has some tips:

1. Establish trust: Trust might be the most sacred part of a relationship. Make a commitment early on that you will both be open and honest with one another, and hold to it.

Celebrity Couple Marc Anthony & Chloë Green Get Affectionate at Grammy's

By Louisa Gonzales

Marc Anthony and much younger girlfriend Chloë Green were seen cuddled up together at the Grammy's, inside the Staples Center auditorium, Sunday January 26th. Anthony, 45, and Green, 22, aren't shy about showing their affection in public as they generously posed in front of the cameras before the awards show. The beaming couple showed up hand in hand on the red carpet and were spotted wrapped around each other throughout the night. The romantic pair appears to be as strong as ever, and Green has even become a part of Anthony and ex Jennifer Lopez' twins, Max and Emme, 5, lives. According to UsMagazine.com, the lovebirds were spotted last February, riding rides and bonding together at Disneyland in Anaheim, California.

What are some ways to show your affection toward your partner in public?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the greatest things about dating is having someone there for you who you can count on. Being affectionate with your significant other is a way to show that you care. Cupid has some advice on ways to show affection toward your partner:

1. Find ways to touch each other: One of the greatest forms of affection is through physical contact. Skin to skin contact is good for your relationship as it shows you care, are passionate and attracted to your partner. Physical contact has been proven to sometimes help people in pain, with stress as well as increase sexual attraction. Touch your mate and get them to touch you. Start off with simple gestures like taking hold of their hand, embracing, or giving them a quick kiss as it will help them become more comfortable with showing physical signs of affection in public.

2. Do activities together outside your homes: Show your affection by going out on dates together to public places. It's not about showing off your relationship to anyone it's about letting them know you are not afraid to be seen with them. It helps your lover feel more secure and confident about your relationship. Being able to take your lovebird out and about it a great way to show you care and you are fine with showing people you are a couple.

Bradley Cooper and Girlfriend Suki Waterhouse Go Public at Sundanace

By April Littleton

According to People, Bradley Cooper and girlfriend Suki Waterhouse have finally gone public with their romance. The lovebirds attended the Sundance Film Festival together in Park City, Utah. They were spotted strolling down the street, while holding hands.

When is it the right time to go public with a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Love is in the air. This may be true indeed, but sometimes, you just don't feel like sharing all of your happiness with everyone else. Keeping a new relationship under wraps for awhile is perfectly acceptable, but eventually you'll have to spill the beans to someone. Cupid has some tips:

1. You've dated long enough: If you've dated your partner for longer than five months, then it's definitely time to let the world know about your new romance. Everyone deserves their privacy and you don't have to give away every single detail about your relationship, but wouldn't you like to spill a little gossip to your best friend? Being able to confide in someone about your new honey will eventually be a necessity when you least expect it.

What are some ways to introduce your new beau to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Beginning a new relationship is an exciting feeling, but the one thing that can be a little stressful is when it's time for your new boo to meet all of your loved ones. Cupid is here to help:

1. Start small: Introduce your new partner to only a select few of your loved ones when you're first starting out. You and your significant other will already be nervous enough. There's no need to bombard your honey's personal space with all of your family and friends all at once.

Related: Demi Moore Tweets Cryptic Messages

2. Get together: Plan a small outing for some of your friends and family to go to. Maybe an outdoor barbeque or a nice dinner party. Keep your plans low-key so your partner doesn't feel too overwhelmed with all of the new people he/she is bound to meet.

How do you introduce your new partner to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Introducing your new boyfriend/girlfriend is a big step in your relationship. Having the person you're dating meet all of your loved ones can be stressful and nerve-racking, especially if you don't set up the meeting in the right way. Don't worry, Cupid is here to help:

1. Baby steps: Don't overwhelm your significant other by introducing them to all of your friends and family at one time. Take it slow. Your new honey will already be pretty nervous as it is. Start off by meeting up with one or two of your closest friends for a nice lunch or dinner. If your partner gets along well with them, introduce him/her to a few of your family members.

What are some ways to announce your new relationship to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

As easy as it is these days to put yourself “in a relationship” on Facebook and upload some pictures of your significant other, there are more personal ways to introduce and officially announce your new romance to your loved ones:

1. Dinner and drinks: Why not get your family and friends together for dinner to meet your significant other? This way you not only have the opportunity to officially announce you’re dating, but you also give everyone an opportunity to get to know him or her. They’ll share in the joy of your new relationship just as much as you have.

Britney Spears' Ex Jason

Trawick is Dating 'Hunger Games' Star

By Brittany Stubbs

Britney Spears' former agent and fiancé Jason Trawick, has moved on to actress Leven Rambin. Sources exclusively confirm to UsMagazine.com that Trawick and the Hunger Games actress are "hooking up and dating." After Trawick ended his two year engagement with Spears in January 2013, the pop star moved on shortly after with David Lucado and has been with him ever since.

How do you know when you're ready to move on after a break up?

Cupid's Advice:

Break ups can be difficult and healing takes time (and sometimes a tub of cookie dough). It's important to allow yourself an adjustment period to recover before jumping back out there:

1. You're emotionally stable: Break ups are often roller coasters when it comes to your emotions. One moment you're balling your eyes out in the bathtub, the next you're enraged and cutting up every photo you have of the two of you. When you've finally gotten to a point where you feel secure someone could mention his name or you could even run into him in public and not be tempted to have a dramatic meltdown in anyway, you've come a long way.

Related: Britney Spears and Jason Trawick Call Off Their Engagement

2. You no longer talk about them: It's normal for everyone to get in the habit of constantly mentioning their ex, whether you're going on rants about how poorly they treated you or just finding little opportunities to bring up their name. This usually means they're still on your mind and you're still pretty attached. But if you get to a point where you can pass by their work or hear their favorite song and not feel the need to bring it up to your friend, you've gotten over him.

3. You're done cyberstalking him: We've all been guilty of it before – constantly refreshing his Facebook page, seeing if he's Tweeted lately, etc. But if you find yourself getting online and no longer have the urge to check if he's been tagged in any recent photos with someone new, it's a good sign you're ready to move on.

Justin Bieber's Brazilian Girl Tati Neves Speaks Out About Night with Singer

By April Littleton

According to UsMagazine.com, the Brazilian bodybuilder Tatiana Neves Barbosa isn't keeping quiet about her night with Justin Bieber. In an interview with Globo TV's Fantastico program Neves dropped clues on what happened between the two. "What do you think, if I was sleeping in the bedroom, just me and him?" she said. The 26-year-old also claimed to have recorded a video of the Boyfriend singer the morning after the night they spent together. "I was sleeping, and woke up," Neves told Fantastico. "He was sleeping and I was speaking with a girlfriend."

What are the advantages to not rushing your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Your relationship could end faster than you expect it to if you're moving too fast too soon. Love doesn't happen overnight. Both parties involved need to take the necessary steps in order to have a successful commitment. Cupid has some tips:

1. Get to know each other better: Unless it's someone you've known for a while before you started dating, you're not going to really know the person you're getting into a relationship with. Slow things down and feel each other out before you decide to commit to each other.

Related: Selena Gomez Pulls Plug on Live Interview After Justin Bieber Question

2. No pressure: Rather than feeling like you have to get to know your significant other instantly, take your time with the relationship and let things fall into place naturally. Don't worry about who your friends are dating and/or how long they've been dating their companions. Love shouldn't be a competition. All of your focus should be going into this newfound romance and seeing how things go with this special individual.

Related: Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber Split

3. You'll know what to expect: When you rush into a relationship, you don't know if the person you're dating is expecting a long-term commitment or something that's purely physical. Before you officially call your new honey "yours," ask him/her what they're looking for. What you're hoping for versus what they want can be entirely two different things.

Will Smith and Jada Pinkett Smith's Marriage is Still Going Strong Despite Cheating Rumors

By Gabby Robles

Rumors can't stop Will and Jada! Will Smith and Jada Pinkett Smith marriage is still going strong despite cheating rumors. According to UsMagazine.com, photos that have been released of Will Smith and Focus costar Margot Robbie recently led to rumors that the two were getting a little too close. A source claims that the pictures were all in good, clean fun and that nothing is happening between the costars. Jada Pinkett Smith had previously stated, "What is the thing that Will could do to make me not love him?... I can't think of one. I'm sorry. Except if he did something bad to the kids – now we've got a problem."

How do you keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Unfortunately, some people seek out every reason to make a mountain out of a molehill. You have to keep your head up with a strong sense of positivity as a couple, and know that you won't let anyone knock that down from you. If you and your significant other are facing some rumors and not sure what to do about it, have no fear – Cupid is here!

1. Keep strong as a couple: You and your significant other can silence the rumors and not let it bother you. People might have bad things to say, but it is none of their business – and definitely not their relationship! Ignore those who bring you negative energy or who want to see you fail.

2. Work together: Rumors can really take their toll on a situation – don't let them! Talk about the situation with your significant other and make sure that you both are on the same page. Be there to listen to each other if it starts to get to you and always be each other's rock.

3. Keep your heads up: Don't let people bring you down. If you are both happy, you know your relationship is working out. If your relationship is flourishing and is bringing you happiness and everything you want, so don't let anyone try to knock you down.

TLC's Chilli Says Usher Was Her First 'Real Love'

By Kerri Sheehan

Rozonda “Chilli” Thomas of the girl group TLC revealed that her two-year relationship with R&B singer Usher was not what inspired his 2004 album Confessions. In an interview with UsMagazine.com Thomas said, “We were together when he recorded that album. All of those songs on Confessions, that was about Jermaine Dupri’s situation. Usher was just singing it. But people kind of bought into it, it was just the timing of our breakup when the album came out.” She also said that the two broke up because it was just the time, but he was her first real adult love. She affirmed that she would always love Usher despite that the two broke up in 2003.

What are some surefire signs that you’re in love?

Cupid’s Advice:

What are some ways to keep your relationship under wraps at first?

Cupid's Advice:

If you are in a new relationship and trying to keep it on the down low there are a few things you can do so people don't question your relationship. So what are some ways you can keep your new relationship under wraps? Cupid has some advice for you:

1. No PDA: If people see you holding hands, hugging and kissing in public there is no fooling anyone. If you are trying to keep your relationship under wraps at first try steering away from excessive PDA.

2. Spend time apart: It's definitely okay to spend time with your new partner, but also remember to spend time with friends and family. If people start seeing you two together more often than not people are going to start thinking that things are getting more serious than just being friends.

3. Hang out in groups: Hanging out with your new partner with your other friends or with your family is a good way to take the attention off of you and your relationship. Hanging out with your new partner in a group setting will make it harder for people to suggest that you are dating each other.

How do you know when to go public with your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

You've been dating someone for awhile and you think it's time to let everyone you care about know about your new relationship. Before you do, there's a few things you need to think about first. Cupid has some tips:

1. Timing: Take into consideration how long the two of you have been dating. If the relationship is still fairly new, then maybe you should wait a little while longer – at least until you and your new boo are sure things are headed in the right direction.

2. Feels right: If you're comfortable in the situation you're in and your partner is OK with the decision to go public, then go for it. Don't feel like you have to tell your friends and family what's going on in your love life if you're unsure if the person you're dating is the one for you. Be sure what you have with that special individual isn't just some fling before you start spreading the news.

3. You talked about it: You're not the only one who gets to decide when to go public with your relationship. Your partner needs to be in on the decision as well. If you're thinking it's time to let your loved ones know who that special someone is in your life, you should have a conversation with your honey about your plans to announce the exciting news first.

Michael Sheen Moves On from Rachel McAdams with Carrie Keagan

By Gabriela Robles

According to UsMagazine.com, Michael Sheen can be seen with his new girlfriend Carrie Keagan. Last February, Sheen and his Midnight in Paris costar Rachel McAdams ended their almost-two year relationship. A source has revealed, “They have know each other for a really long time – but have been spending more time together recently.”

How do you know when you’re ready to move on after a breakup?

Cupid’s Advice:

People tend to move on too quickly after they break things off with their ex. Some jump into relationships to feel better about how things ended. Doing this isn’t healthy and in fact, it doesn’t make you feel better at all. So how do you know when you’re really ready to move on? Well, Cupid has some ideas:

1. When you stop thinking about them: If you’ve stopped thinking about your ex completely, you’re ready. That may sound obvious, but most people let their exes linger in their minds. Don’t do that. Wait till you move on internally completely. Only then should you move on externally.

2. The new person you want to date isn’t only a distraction: You want to make sure your next partner is not only there to distract you from your old feelings. He should be your date because you genuinely like to spend time with him. If you jump into a relationship with someone and you aren't over your ex, you will only end up hurting your new boo as well as yourself.

3. You feel better about everything: When things start to appear sunny and every step you take is like a breath of fresh air, that's when you've moved on. You feel good about yourself, your ex, and are looking forward to your future and the things that you hold in front of you. This is essential to being ready to move on.

How do you balance your career with your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be tough to make a relationship work when both individuals involved have busy careers. How can you maintain a healthy romance while still keeping up with your job? Cupid has a few tips for you:

1. Make time for each other: The only way your relationship will thrive is if you spend time together. It's that simple. Even if that means penciling each other into your schedules, make it a point to do something together. Have dinner with each other. Go see a matinee movie once a week. Do something together that both of you will enjoy doing.

2. Support each other: When your partner comes home from a long day's work, ask them about their day. This may not seem like much, but showing some interest in your significant other's job will work in your favor. If you show you care, they'll be sure to reciprocate those feelings toward your career.

3. Make some rules: Setting up boundaries will make situations a little more easier to handle. If you're living with your honey, set up a chore chart. You take out the trash one week, while your partner handles the dishes. Turn off cellphones after 8:00 p.m. for family time and make sure to have at least one day off together.

What are some ways to move on after a bitter breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups are hard, especially if your ex moves on quicker than you do. Sometimes people need a distraction for themselves get away from the hurt that they feel because of the split. Other times, the guy's just a jerk. It might be difficult to get through this time and still remain positive. Cupid has some advice:

1. Do for yourself: You need to focus on yourself now. Don't worry about who hurt you. Don't question yourself. Work hard to make yourself better, not for him but for you. Once you start taking care of yourself in all aspects of life, you'll attract the people that will make you happier and more successful.

2. Keep your head up: Know that you're a catch, even if you don't feel like one. Remind yourself that you're a hard-worker, a gorgeous person, and have big things ahead of you. If you keep this in mind, you won't worry about what anyone else thinks – especially not your ex.

3. Take your time: Don't jump into a relationship to get back at you ex. Using someone isn't a good idea because not only do you hurt the person your distracting yourself with, but you're hurting your ego. This is the time to gather yourself and work inward before you can start moving outward.

How do you know if your partner is a good influence?

Cupid's Advice:

Starting a new relationship can have its concerns. So how do you know if your partner is a good influence? Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Honesty: If your partner is honest with then he or she will most likely be a good influence on you. You will be more honest with yourself and with other people. Keep your partner around if they're honest with you it will only make you a better person.

2. They treat you right: If your partner doesn't treat you respect then its safe to say they will probably be a bad influence. Being treated poorly makes you act out in ways that you normally wouldn't. Make sure you are with someone who treats you with respect.

3. Supports you: If your partner supports you and helps you get through the tough time, he is a keeper. Having someone who will be there for you when you need them the most is a good sign of a partner who will positively influence you.

Jason Kennedy Says He's 'Trying to Look Cool' Around Lauren Scruggs

By April Littleton

Jason Kennedy and Lauren Scruggs haven't been dating for that long, but they already can't get enough of each other! The couple recently spent some time together at the Villa del

Palmar in Mexico, where they went kayaking and paddleboarding. "I am probably the least adventurous person, but I'm trying," he told People. "I'm trying to look really cool around her, letting her know that I'm trying new things in life. I'm down to do whatever."

What are some ways to impress your partner while being yourself?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone wants to impress the person they're dating. They want their significant other to know they're in a relationship with someone who is comfortable in their own skin. Impressing your partner isn't just about how much money you can spend on them. To truly be impressive, you have to do a little work on yourself. Cupid has some advice:

1. Be confident: If you really want to impress your significant other, all you have to do is show a little confidence. Don't be ashamed of who you are! Grace your date with your best smile and make plenty of eye contact. Everyone has flaws, but it's how you deal with them that matters. If you're comfortable being yourself, your partner will be relaxed around you as well.

2. Dress the part: If you feel confident, you have to look the part too. Get a new wardrobe that shows off your personality. Keep your hair and nails trimmed and clean and grab that new cologne/perfume you've been eyeing at the store. Keeping your hygiene well maintained and your appearance up will prove to do wonders for your relationship.

3. Take an interest in their hobbies: Your honey will be pleased with you if you take an interest in some of the things they like to do. Remember, your partner is a part of your life now, so it's only natural to incorporate some of their daily activities with yours. You might be a homebody, while your significant other is an adrenaline junkie. Doing a few things that will take you out of your comfort zone will show your love you're willing to be open-minded and try new hobbies.

Amanda Seyfried and Justin Long Bond Over Her Dog

By Kristyn Schwiep

Justin Long and Amanda Seyfried bonded over her dog. The new couple, who announced they were dating earlier this month, took her Australian shepherd, Finn, on a walk. According to UsMagazine.com, the new couple took her dog to a nearby park, where they relaxed on a blanket and let Finn play. "They recently started hanging out more, going on date-like activities. They're both busy...but they're seeing where it goes," said a source.

How do you incorporate pets into your dates?

Cupid's Advice:

Taking pets on your dates is a cute way to spend time with both your pet and your partner. So what are some dates you can go on with both your partner and your pet? Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Picnic: Going on a picnic is a romantic and classic date. You can also bring your pet with you. This is the perfect simple and sweet date for both you, your partner, and your pet. While you and your partner are enjoying your picnic your pet can be playing with their favorite toy.

2. Hiking: If you and your partner like exercising, hiking is the perfect date for you. You and your partner will get your exercise in for the day, you get to spend time alone, and you can bring your pet along too. It's the perfect date.

3. The beach: Take your pet and partner to the beach. You can enjoy the sand and water with your partner and let your pet splash in the waves, fetch frisbees, and roll around in the sand.

How do you keep the status of a new relationship under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it's best to keep your relationship quiet for a while before announcing it to friends and family. But how do you do this without outright lying? Cupid has some ideas:

1. Keep off social media: It's astonishing how many people fail to understand that when you tweet something or post something on Facebook, everyone can see it. So, make sure to keep your relationship OFF-line.

2. Avoid groups: You and your partner will probably find it difficult to conceal your relationship if you two are hanging out in a group of mutual friends. Doing so will also require active deception which will lead to hurt feelings when you eventually announce your relationship to your social circle.

3. Home dates: Keeping a relationship under wraps doesn't mean that you have to put romance on hold- you just have to keep such activities away from the public eye. Movie night, romantic dinners, snuggle time and ... other activities can (and sometimes should) all take place behind closed doors.

How do you go public with a new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

You've just started seeing someone and you think you're ready to go public with the romance. Dating someone new is always fun and exciting, but you don't want to introduce your significant other to the people you love unless you're absolutely sure he/she will be around for awhile. Cupid is here to help:

1. Talk to your partner first: You need to have "the talk" with your new love before you make any plans to go public. Ask your companion how they feel about making the relationship known to some of your friends and family. If he/she is unsure about their commitment to you or they're just not ready to meet your loved ones yet, give them a little more time.

2. Let your family know: If your significant other is OK with taking your relationship to the next level, give your family the heads up first. Tell your family and friends about your partner before you introduce them to one another.

3. Make sure you're ready: Really think about what you're about to get yourself into. Are you sure you're ready to let the family meet your honey? Hold off on any meeting plans if you feel even the slightest bit of hesitation. The person you're dating might not even be the right one to meet your loved ones.
