Celebrity Exes: Bradley Cooper & Renee Zellweger Reunite at Oscars 2020

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, celebrity exes Bradley Cooper and Renee Zellweger were spotted mingling together at the 2020 Oscars. UsMagazine.com reported that the two were being cordial with one another before taking their seats as the award show started. The pair began dating soon after working together on the thriller Case 29 in 2009. They then split back in 2011.

These celebrity exes kept it cordial and mingled at this year's Oscars. What are some reasons to remain cordial with your ex after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Staying cordial with an ex can sometimes be tricky. If you and your ex ended on less than ideal terms, it can be even trickier to find a medium ground between the two of you. It doesn't help if you have to see each other more often than you would like. If you're having trouble keeping it amicable with an ex, don't worry! Cupid has some relationship advice to help you wade through those waters after a break-up:

1. Let time pass: Sometimes, the best healing agent is the act of absence. Even if you are forced to be at the same functions or events as an ex, it's easier to stay clear of them until both of you are at a point that you can talk to one another cordially. It'll be less stressful and much more rewarding if you keep your distance when you work on interacting publicly.

2. Meet up to discuss problems: If you both are at a place that you can meet and hash out your issues, that would be a great step for forging a cordial relationship with an ex. You guys can get everything out into the open, understand why one of you felt the way you did, and find common ground. Besides, this is a perfect opportunity to get closure if you didn't already have it.

3. Bring friends as support: If you know you're going to have to interact with an ex at a function or event, surround yourself with friends to make sure it all runs smoothly. They won't allow the conversation to go off the rails, and they are a great barrier between any awkward tiffs you and your ex might have if you both were alone.

Celebrity Interview: 'High School Musical: The Musical: The Series' Star Frankie Rodriguez Talks Love and Reboot

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Ellie Rice.

Frankie Rodriguez is a young, rising actor known for his work on the High School Musical reboot, High School Musical: The Musical: The Series, and his guest appearance as Eduardo, on ABC's Modern Family. His groundbreaking role as Carlos on HSMTMTS, as an openly gay choreographer, has led him to center stage and into the hearts of many. A California native, Rodriguez has always had a love for the entertainment industry and a passion for acting. When not on screen, he loves collecting sneakers and interior decorating! In our exclusive celebrity interview, Rodriguez chats about the show and gives our readers some dating advice for those looking to make the first move.

In our celebrity interview with High School Musical: The Musical: The Series star Frankie Rodriguez, we get a glimpse into the world of young Hollywood, some dating tips, and insights on the HSMTMS series!

HSMTMS follows the students of the East High drama club as they are set to put on the school's first production of "High School Musical". Episodes feature musical numbers unique to the reboot, and some of the beloved melodies from the original. Relationships are formed as the students of East High embark on their high school journey.

As a member of such a beloved franchise and one that has been of constant relevance to popular culture, we asked Rodriguez how it felt to be a Wildcat. "I still pinch myself every morning. Getting to be a part of this franchise has been a literal dream come true." Citing Zac Efron and Ashley Tisdale as the only two original cast members he has yet to meet, he claims to be crossing all fingers and toes in hopes for an interaction with the pair!

We asked Rodriguez how he knew that a career in the film industry was where he should be. He explained, "I always loved singing and dancing, so I think a career in entertainment was always in the cards. I remember watching the sunset on my first night living in Los Angeles and thinking this is exactly where I'm supposed to be."

And, with moving to a new city comes new relationships. Viewers watched as Rodriguez' character on the show, Carlos, found love this season after taking that leap of faith, and hopefully inspiring others to do the same. We asked Rodriguez if he had a special someone in his life to which he joked, "Does a cardboard cutout of Zac Efron count? Haha, KIDDING! Yes, there is someone very special. :)"

Diving into a new relationship can be scary, especially if you are unsure of the other person's feelings towards you. But as Rodriguez told us, "Take the chance! If they say 'yes,' AMAZING! But if it doesn't turn out your way, that's okay too! Have your BFF ready with your favorite ice cream and romcom". We think this is some pretty sound advice, as nothing heals a wounded heart quite like your friends and some Ben & Jerry's. Anything can happen, and you won't know until you take that chance, so be brave and bold!

After coming out to his friends and family at fifteen, Rodriguez has been very open about his sexuality. We asked him if he had any advice for teens ready to come out and express their own sexuality. He shared, "Even though coming out can be a little scary, it's so worth it! After coming out, I was able to put aside the fear of what other people would think, and I was able to live for myself. Life is way too short. Be YOU!"

The courage it takes to fully express yourself and be who you truly are is incredibly inspiring. Rodriguez explained that a standout moment during filming for him was the dance scene in the "Homecoming" episode, where he is able to be himself with the boy he likes. "It was such a moment for Carlos and Seb's relationship and history making for Disney. I'm so proud of that episode and to be a part of it". This show serves as a huge step in the direction of inclusion for Disney, as featuring teens from all aspects of life is so important for viewers to see.

So what can we expect from Frankie Rodriguez in the future? With HSMTMTS back for a second season, Carlos and the Wildcats will be tearing up our screens once again. Beyond that, we hope to see this self-described Broadway nerd taking the stage one day! As Rodriguez shared with us, “I’m very inspired by nice people who work incredibly hard. I’ve had so many co-workers (including the cast of HSM) who inspire me to go above and beyond”. An inspiration to so many himself, we can’t wait to see where the future takes him.

According to UsMagazine.com, the pair and their 8-year-old daughter Blue Ivy were seated as the rest of the attendees around them stood. This didn’t affect their spirits later on in the evening, though, as they were seen having a good time for the majority of the National Championship game. They were even photographed smiling and cutting up with the likes of DJ Khalid sometime, throughout.

In celebrity couple news, Beyonce and Jay-Z stood up for what they believe while staying seated during the National Anthem at the Super Bowl. What are some ways of standing up for what you believe together can bring you closer as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Many times it is your beliefs that can be a catalyst for bringing two people together. Those who have a common belief system or are passionate about certain causes can actually have that aspect of their lives bring a solid foundation to a relationship. Standing up for something as a couple is such a powerful feeling. If you are wondering what ways believing in something as a couple can bring you closer with your partner, Cupid has some love advice on the topic:

1. You can go to events/rallies together: If it is a specific cause you and your partner both support, there's a chance that there are countless events, protests, or charity drives that you can go to together. It's such a wonderful thing to be working alongside your significant other on a cause you both believe in. It allows you the opportunity to get closer and feel more solidified as a unit by investing your time and efforts together on the things you are passionate about.

2. You'll have more stimulating conversation: Being able to have a common belief system or passion gives grounds for better conversation between the two of you. You'll be able to bond over the cause and feel better connected to each other going forward as a couple.

3. You'll be able to build a stronger foundation: The most important aspect of standing up for the same cause as a couple is that it further aligns you as a team. A relationship is all about how both players work together as a team, and the more you both rally around one another with common causes or beliefs, the stronger that foundation will be. You'll soon realize that when the relationship gets more serious or leads towards marriage/kids, it is much more vital for you and your partner to have that team dynamic. Standing up for causes together is a sure way of building on that aspect of your relationship.

Cupid's Advice:

Acknowledging that your relationship is over can be difficult, but moving on to something healthier and happier is worth it.

Cupid has some advice for you on when to know when its really over:

1. Your mental health is suffering: If you aren't feeling like yourself anymore, and the relationship is the root cause, it's time to move on. Letting your mental health suffer for the sake of another person isn't healthy or positive. Love the life you live, with confidence and strength!

2. The spark is gone: When your relationship feels more like a friendship, then maybe it's become just that. Relationships evolve over time, sometimes deepening that initial romantic connection and other times shifting into a platonic partnership of comfortability. Recognize this shift and have an honest conversation with your partner. It's not fair to either of you, staying in a romantic relationship that you aren't 100% invested in.

3. The cons outweighs the pros: If you feel like you're fighting about minor or meaningless issues and everything has become a challenge, it's time to analyze your relationship. Bachelor feeling frustrated and confused.

These celebrity exes didn't exactly have an idyllic reunion on The Bachelor recently. What are some factors to consider before getting back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting back together with an ex is a tough decision to make, and you want to make sure you're doing it for the right reasons. Cupid has some factors to consider:

1. Remember why it ended in the first place: Look back at your relationship and think about what went wrong and if those problems can be fixed. Starting from the beginning will allow you to analyze the pros and cons for the future. If the issues that plagued your relationship are hard to come back from, think about whether a second chance is really worth it.

2. Ask yourself the big questions: Has this person really changed? And if they haven't, am I prepared to deal with that? If they aren't ready to commit to you in a way that illustrates growth and understanding, then maybe they aren't the person for you.

3. Take charge: Have a genuine and honest conversation with this person about what you are looking for in this relationship and respectfully allow them to do the same. Acknowledge each other's feelings and desires transparently and realistically. If the two of you aren't on the same page, then maybe it's time to move forward.

In celebrity news, Justin Hartley brought his daughter to an awards show after filing for divorce from Chrishell Stause. What are some ways to lean on family after a break-up?

Cupid’s Advice:

A breakup can leave you emotionally spent. It's difficult to not go through some rough patches when a relationship ends, but the support of family can help you heal and move forward. There's almost nothing a family's love can't fix. If you are going through a split, Cupid has some relationship advice on how to lean on your loved ones during this hard time:

1. Go home: There's something about coming home that soothes all heartbreak and hurt. Being in the presence of family can take you back to beloved nostalgia from your childhood. There's no one who loves you or adores you as much as your family does, and getting lost in that comfort can help you heal after a breakup.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Sources Say Kendall Jenner & Ben Simmons Are Dating Again

2. Let them give you tough love: If there's anything your family is good at, it's not sugar-coating anything. If you're looking for clarity or closure, know that one of your loved ones will be more than happy to give it to you straight. Having these conversations with family can help you see why your relationship might have ended and what you need to do to move on.

3. Have them take your mind off of it: Whether it's attending your nephew's soccer match or getting brunch with your siblings, be open to the idea of being distracted. Giving yourself over to family events/get-togethers can help in keeping your mind off of the breakup. Allow yourself to get lost in their lives for a bit, and you will see how that positively affects your behavior and emotions towards your own lost relationship.

Celebrity Interview: Temptation Island's Gavin Rocker Speaks Out About What Ultimately Ended His Relationship

Cupid's Pulse
★ Celebrities. Love. Opinions. ★

Written by Altina Kamara.

Before arriving to the set of Temptation Island, Gavin Rocker was in 1+ year relationship with then-girlfriend, Esonica Veira. The way they met was like a scene out of a rom-com.

However, their love took a turn as “temptation” ultimately took over with his now-ex. Though he doesn’t regret his time on the show, he wouldn’t recommend it to others.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat with Gavin about his hesitation in relationships, past television appearances and what he learned from being on Temptation Island.

Check out our celebrity interview with Gavin Rucker to hear his thoughts on relationships and Temptation Island:

1. How did you two meet and was there an initial attraction?

We met doing background work for show Love Is (how ironic). I saw Esonica standing near me and she was just so beautiful, so I asked “Hey, what do you do?” She said she was a model. We kept talking and I asked for her number. I didn’t have my phone, so I said, “Tell me your number. I’ll remember it.” She then said, “If you remember my number, I’ll go out with you.” Lol. I remembered her number, called the next day and the rest is history.

2. You two were together for just over a year when you decided to join Temptation Island. Do you think you had enough time together before putting your relationship to the test?

I think we had enough time. Anything longer than that would be a waste to me. I feel like it doesn’t take long to know how you feel about a relationship. Temptation Island was great way to decide whether or not we should move forward or not.

3. What were your first thoughts upon arriving to the set of the show?

My first thought was, "Wow, these single girls are really here for love and they're serious too." I didn't know how to take it at first. It was such a weird experience, so I had to adjust on the fly. No one ever goes through something like that (unless you were part of season 1).

4. Both of you started making connections with two other members of the show pretty quickly. Did you go into this knowing you wanted to find other relationships?

I did not. I wasn't planning on falling in love with anyone. I wanted to show Esonica my loyalty to her and see if she was the right one for me. Being with Esonica was my end goal the entire time.

5. Do you think social media may have had a negative effect on your relationship?

I think so. Not in a big way, but the smallest comment can lead to the biggest argument. Esonica looks deeper into social media than I do. She always knows who I'm talking to. I don't really get into it that much.

6. You have admitted in the past that you are nervous about taking that next step towards marriage. Why do you think you're so hesitant?

I'm hesitant because marriage is a huge step. In society today, marriage is so casual. People kind of just do it because "it's the right thing to do" or "you're at that age." I don't believe in that. I feel like marriage should happen when you're sure about your partner and to me, a year and a half isn't enough time to make that decision.

7. Fans discovered that Temptation Island wasn't your first television appearance. Do you have aspirations of becoming an actor? What else have you been on, if anything?

Temptation Island was my first television appearance, aside from being an extra on TV shows/movies. I'm a former college athlete, so I'm always cast for football movies/commercials. If fans count that, then sure, I've been in other things, but you can't even see my face in stuff like that. If I was a big-time actor, people would see me in the box office.

8. Have you maintained the friendships with anyone on the show? If so, who do you still speak with and how often? (This includes the guys and girls)

All the guys and girls still talk from the guys' villa. We're all cool. We even have a group chat. Lol! That big group chat gets used every now and then, but the rest of the guys and I talk often. Almost daily. We love each other. One big happy family.

9. What have you learned overall from being on the show? Do you think it's something you would ever do again?

I learned that people cope with things differently. It's tough being cut off from the world for 4 weeks and surrounded by strangers. Most people wouldn't find that easy. It showed me how mentally tough I was and how everyone deals with controlled isolation.

I wouldn't do it again, but I'm thankful I did it once.

10. Are you [and Esconica] both still a couple now that the show is over? If not, who are you with? Why did it eventually end?

No, we're not together. I'm not with anyone at the moment. Things ended because, to put it bluntly, Esconica and I aren't compatible. We tried making things work after the show, but that was difficult, and when I found out she slept with Kareem at the reunion after telling me she didn't, I was done. She wanted to be with me still, but I can't go back with someone after lying like that.

11. Would you recommend going on the show to others who are in a relationship that they are not sure about?

I wouldn't recommend it. It's Temptation Island, not "Fall in love" Island. Things are tempting, but none of it really has substance. Granted, people face temptation every day, but doing it on romantic dates in Hawaii is a different story. I'd only recommend it to those couples with trust issues, but usually the person with those issues is the first one to cheat, as we saw with almost every woman this season, so does that really help anything? Be careful.

12. What are the next steps for you now?

The next step for me is just to enjoy my life and focus on me again. I've been working on some music that I plan to release soon, so I'm excited about that. I'm also happy about the new friends I've made from Temptation Island. I love all of those people. We're bonded for life. Hate it or love it, we can't change that!

Temptation Island's Esconica
Veira Shares How She's Moved On With Her Life After The

Show

Written by Altina Kamara.

Esconica Veira, a former pageant model, joined the cast of Temptation Island with her boyfriend, Gavin Rucker, and had doubts from the very beginning. As the show progressed, Esconica began to discover herself more and formed a bond with fellow cast member, Kareem Thomas. Her relationship with Gavin ultimately ended and she shares why it's okay.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, Esconica speaks out about her relationship with Gavin and how it changed her, as well as what's next for her now that temptation is no longer knocking at her door.

Check out our celebrity interview with Esconica Veira to hear about her experience on Temptation Island and the relationship she had with ex, Gavin Rocker.

1. How did you two meet and was there an initial attraction? You two were together for just over a year when you decided to join Temptation Island.

Gavin and I met on set doing background work on the show called Love Is. I thought that was pretty coincidental, and yes, we did have attraction when we first met.

2. Do you think you had enough time together before putting your relationship to the test?

Being in a relationship for just over a year, things should be good. It should be like the honeymoon stage. Looking back at it now, it may have not been enough time for us to put the relationship to the test.

3. What were your first thoughts upon arriving to the set of the show?

My first thought upon arriving to the set of the show was, "What the hell did I get myself into?"

4. Both of you started making connections with two other members of the show pretty quickly. Did you go into this knowing you wanted to find other relationships?

I don't think I found a connection pretty quickly. I was taking my time and honestly doing whatever I could to not make a connection.

5. In an interview with PopCulture.com, you said that your bond with Kareem helped to open you up more.

I did not initially go on the show to find another relationship. In the interview with PopCulture.com, I said Kareem helped me open up more, meaning on Temptation Island, he allowed me to be myself by listening to me and understanding my unique situation.

6. Do you feel that your relationship with Gavin has hindered you? In what ways have you opened up?

I don't necessarily think that the relationship I had with Gavin hindered me, but I do feel like there were some parts of myself I was never really able to explore. I have opened up more by just knowing now what I should accept in a relationship.

7. Do you think social media may have had a negative effect on your relationship?

I do believe that social media can have a negative impact in relationships because everything is in the palm of your hand. It can make everything a bit harder when connecting with your partner and that can cause some disconnect in a relationship. Social media can make things seem very easy to find when in real life, it's not that easy.

8. You're the CEO of your own cosmetics line named Forever Royal Cosmetics. Can you tell us how you got into the beauty industry and what sparked your interest?

I am the CEO of my own cosmetic line named forever Royal Cosmetics. I got into the beauty industry because of pageantry. I've participated in pageantry for my entire life, actually since I was nine years old. What sparked my interest was my platform, which was promoting self-esteem in women. I've always felt like I wanted to be what I never had when I was younger and that was a positive role model that would show me how to accept myself for who I am – Someone to show me how to groom myself into a better version of who I am and to make the best of who I am.

9. Have you maintained the friendships with anyone on the show, and if so, who do you still speak with and how often? (This includes the guys and girls)

I have maintained many relationships with pretty much everyone on the show. I think we speak often enough and that includes the guys and the girls. All of us have been through a once-in-a-lifetime experience and because of that, we will always be connected.

6. What have you learned overall from being on the show? Do you think it's something you would ever do again?

What I've learned overall from being on the show is that it's okay to be me – whatever that is. Is the show something I would ever do again? I've learned to never say never, but right about now, I may have had enough of Temptation Island.

7. Are you [and Gavin] both still a couple now that the show is over? If not, who are you with? Why did it eventually end?

We are no longer a couple now that the show is over. At this time, I am with no one. It eventually ended because we came to a quick realization that both of us wanted two different things and sometimes, that's okay.

8. Would you recommend going on the show to others who are in a relationship that they are not sure about?

I would recommend going on the show to others who are in a relationship and they are not sure about it because it's a fast way to know if this person is the one or isn't, and if you're like me, you don't have much more time to waste.

9. What are the next steps for you now?

The next steps for me now would be to focus on becoming the woman that I want to be. That means excelling in my business, career, love life and the pursuit of my own happiness.

Celebrity Interview: Temptation Island's Ben Knobloch Says He Knows What Women Want In Relationships

Written by Altina Kamara.

Ben Knobloch, a veteran and California-native, decided to take a chance on a unique opportunity to find love on the hit USA Network show, Temptation Island. Though he wasn't originally looking for love, his connection with fellow cast member, Ashley Howland, left fans wanting more.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, Knobloch opens up about his past, his relationship with Ashley after the show, and what he's looking forward to in the future.

Check out our celebrity interview with Ben Knobloch as he spills the tea about his fellow cast members on Temptation Island:

1. What made you go on a reality show to find love?

I wasn't really looking for love. I wasn't looking for anything, really. It was a super unique opportunity that they reached out to me. I was just posting silly Instagram videos and somebody reached out asking about the tv show and I'd never heard of it and it seemed like a really unique thing that no one that I know has ever been on a tv show, so yeah, I decided to go for it and honestly, I didn't even know the premise of the show. I had to do some background research and at least go into it with an open mind, that no matter what happened, whether I was voted off the first night or made it all the way through or found someone to be with, I wouldn't be upset or heartbroken.

2. I read that you have three sisters. Can you tell us, in your own words, how that has affected you or helped you, or maybe even hindered you?

The three sisters, obviously growing up the only guy, was absolute hell. I remember there were times where they would tie me to chairs and put makeup on me. It was so bad, but the silver lining is I learned what not to do as a boyfriend. I'd see them coming home from dates crying and venting to my parents about what this guy did and what he didn't do, so slowly in the back of my head, I guess I was taking notes. That led me to be who I am today, so I appreciate it but obviously there's still some PTSD from wearing makeup when I was 10 years old.

3. You do say that with the three sisters that you know what women want. Can you give us an example of what you think women want?

I think women want a strong partner, whether that's physically or emotionally strong, if they had to, someone they can rely on if they ever felt short or weak because nobody wants to date, male or female, someone who's weak. That is the biggest turn-off. It's not going to last long and if it is going to last long, it's going to be pretty toxic. Imbalance leads to bad things, so you want to balance a strong relationship with someone you can rely on.

4. Knowing what you know, what do think the difference is between you and Casey?

I think Casey is emotionally immature and it's very evident, seeing a few episodes back, where he...and obviously I had a preconceived notion about what I thought he was based on what Ashley told me but I knew that was just one side of the story. I was really looking forward to getting to know his side of the story and who he is as a person. Unfortunately, he never showed up to the reunion, so I never got to really meet the guy. I think Casey just has a lot of growing up to do. He's never really experienced life, he's never traveled outside of the country, Ashley told me he's never been in a massive heartbreak before. I'm a firm believer that you have to have your heart broken at least three times before you find who you want to end up with forever.

5. What's the longest relationship you've been in, to date?

My longest relationship was a year and a half.

6. Can you tell us about you and Ashley and where you are now?

I thought we were on good terms and then every once in a while, I'll get a drunk text or phone call, but I guess there's some drama updates. I was out of cell service for 4 or 5 days backpacking. I come back to my phone and there are missed calls and FaceTimes from different cast members and apparently, after these little Temptation Island get-togethers on the east coast and the west coast, mainly LA and New York, there's bad st going on. Girls are getting drunk and talking st to each other: singles, relationship couples...I'm trying to reach out to the other guys like "What the hell is going on?" And none of the guys have any idea, just the girls, so I'm not entirely sure what's going on. I think Ash and I are okay right now, but we are not dating...maybe friends, but the last couple of days, she has been not happy with me, for some reason, and I don't know why.

7. Did you [and Ashley] date after the show?

We hung out after the show a good amount. She flew out a few times to see me and it was fun, but we did have a hard part, like "Hey, you know, you want to go to LA, I'm staying here in Arizona." I have two years of school left. She has a lot going on with her clothing line, so we figured it was best to separate and still maintain a good, positive relationship without actually being together.

8. Are you dating anybody right now?

I'm not dating anybody right now, no.

9. What qualities do you look for in a woman?

I'm looking for someone who has goals. Someone who aspires to be something in this life, because life is short, and someone who...Someone who's goal-oriented and driven, someone who works out and takes care of themselves because I take care of my body and then how do I expect them to rely on themselves and take care of me if they can't take care of themselves, so that's kind of big in my book. Smart. I like to hold an intellectual conversation, something other than a pretty face. Funny.

10. Do you think you'll do reality tv or television in general ever again? Do you like the business?

Yes, so that was one of the parts that was most exciting for me with getting on a tv show. Everybody has these rumors on what they think reality tv is or how tv works, but it is completely different, like all the moving parts and the pieces and I thought it was such a unique and awesome experience, so I would definitely be down to do another reality tv show, for sure.

11. You made a post on Twitter and it said something like,

“It’s amazing how many snakes come slithering out of the grass as soon as you get on a tv show.” Who are you referring to? Are you referring to people in your life or other people?

I’m referring to every woman who’s ever curved me before I was on tv. They didn’t give me the time of day before I made something of myself. Now that I got on Temptation Island, they’re like “Ooh, I guess he’s doing well for himself. Let’s hit him back up,” but too late. You get one shot.

12. How do you weed through all of that?

I mean, I get it. People change over time, but if they weren’t giving me the time of day before I was on tv, then I just say, “no thanks,” or ignore them completely. Keep them on “read.” That’s the best policy.

13. What did your family think of you going on the show and what do they think now that the show has been on the air?

My mom, she was excited. She’s a huge fan of reality tv, especially Temptation Island. She loves Mark Wahlberg, so that was kind of cool. But my dad was like, “What’s the show called?” And I told him “Temptation Island” and he’s like, “I don’t like the sound of that show,” so there’s kind of both sides playing the field, but they were supportive and they were saying “Have fun, good luck,” and I went on the show and then my mom said it was kind of hard having me not talk to her for 30 days, because we talk regularly, at least weekly. So I get back and let her know how it went and they’re loving it! My family is eating up the show. Every Thursday, I get a phone call from uncles and aunts and cousins like “Aww we saw you, we saw this, did this really happen? Can you talk about that?” So, it’s fun.

14. You’re in Scottsdale? Is that where you grew up and were raised?

No, so I’m actually from Northern California. I was up there until I was 18 and then I spent five years on the east coast following high school and the military and then I got out and was like, "I want to go to school and be a real human again," so I decided to move somewhere new where I didn't know anybody and start fresh in Arizona and here I am.

15. On your Instagram bio, it states that you're a "jack of all trades." Can you give us some examples of the types of things you do?

Yeah, so I've gotten multiple questions about that and it's kind of funny to explain. "Jack of all trades, master of none," is actually something an old, wise delta force guy told me a couple years ago, but they're saying you never want to stick to one thing. You want to diversify your portfolio, in a sense, so any given weekend, I can be found skydiving, scuba diving, hunting, fishing, off-roading, going to the clubs, in a library, just doing whatever I want. I don't have one single hobby. I kind of do everything and I think that's a good way to live because it's never boring and there's always something to do.

16. How do you think your dating life is going to change now that the show is over?

The show was definitely life-changing, but I'm excited to see what happens after because of it, so I would really love to get into acting, but I refuse to move to Hollywood, so that's kind of the predicament. I'm excited for the future. I'm just going to keep doing what I do and see what happens.

Co-parenting isn't always the easiest job, especially when it comes to being at odds with your ex. But, it doesn't have to hinder your child's experience with both of you! If you're having a difficult time figuring out how to be a family together, don't worry! Cupid has some parenting advice to make sure you're being the best co-parent you can be:

1. Find a healthy way to communicate: Co-parenting is hard enough as it is. You don't want to make it even harder by not having a sense of communication with one another. Meet in the middle with your ex, and find a way for both of you to communicate so you can come together for your children and give them the best memories possible.

She’s been flying in to see him whenever she can.”

In celebrity news, Kendall and Ben may be giving their romance another chance. What are some factors to consider before giving your ex a second chance?

Cupid's Advice:

When you break up with someone, it's meant to be a final decision. That said, sometimes things change and there are good reasons to consider giving your ex a second chance. It's important to make sure you're doing it for the right reasons, however. Cupid has factors to consider:

1. Why you broke up in the first place: There's a wild difference between breaking up because your partner cheated on you to splitting because you were both busy with your careers. If a trust issue was at the heart of your issues, it may not make sense to jump back into things. If it was simply a lack of time that led to your break-up, you two could very well be in a different place now, making it okay to give things a second chance.

Related Link: Celebrity Parents: Kendall Jenner Jokes on Social Media About Starting a Family

2. What page you're both on now: It's crucial to have an open and honest conversation about where you both are in your lives right now. If the issues that led to your break-up before are still very real, there's no point in giving it a second shot, hoping for a different outcome. If some key things have changed that will make things easier this time around, that's great!

3. The reasons you want to be in the relationship: When we break up with someone, it leaves a hole in your heart that your partner used to fill. Not only are you missing the romance, but you're missing that person you told everything to and who you spent the most time with. When you're deciding whether to get back together with someone, you need to make sure you aren't just doing it because you're lonely. The only reason to date someone is because you really see yourself with them romantically and they'll add to your life in a positive way.

New Celebrity Couple Demi Lovato & BF Austin Wilson Go to Disneyland

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, newest celebrity couple Demi Lovato and Austin Wilson were spotted enjoying a day at Disneyland. According to EOnline.com, the pair had a great date going on rides like Space Mountain and sharing some sweet PDA. Throughout the date, the lovebirds were given the VIP treatment, being escorted by bodyguards and given their own personal tour.

In celebrity couple news, Demi Lovato puts on a happy face with her boyfriend at Disneyland. What are some ways an amusement park visit can be romantic?

Cupid's Advice:

Some might not think theme parks can be a romantic date location, but there's something about the smell of fried food, goofing off with one another on the attractions, and being surrounded by others who are having just as good a time as you that can actually bring you and your partner closer. Especially if your relationship is fresh, amusement parks are the perfect way to ease into more comfortable territory with one another. If you're looking for more casual places to share some romance, don't worry! Cupid has some relationship advice on how theme parks like Disneyland can bring about love:

1. Ferris wheels are always romantic: Almost every amusement park has some sort of Ferris wheel. A large contraption where you're suspended high up in the air doesn't seem like it would bring sparks, but it can. Being up there with your partner overlooking the skyline is romantic because you're trusting yourself in the hands of your significant other. Besides, sharing a kiss or two at the top is cute and it can feel just like the movies.

2. You can laugh together: If there's one thing that you'll find taking a date to an amusement park it's that you and your partner will be laughing with one another all day. Finding someone that you can goof around with and be comfortable in your own skin is important to every relationship, and if you get along well in this environment, it is pretty telling. Also, the more you laugh around someone the quicker your bond will grow.

3. Firework shows: Like Disneyland, most of these parks have some sort of firework display at the end of every night. The colors lighting up the sky and the surreal vision of the show can stir romance between you and your partner. Hold each other tight as you gaze up at the attraction or even kiss at the fireworks' finale. It's the perfect way to end the night.

loving, long-term relationship with someone. But, anyone who is in one knows that it isn't easy to maintain. You must be willing to put in the work on both sides to make it work. If you're a couple looking for ways to keep your partnership healthy, don't worry! Cupid has some love advice on how to keep a long-term relationship nurtured and healthy:

1. Keep a line of communication open: The most important part of a relationship is always how much communication you have between you as a couple. It's difficult to see a relationship last if neither side knows how to sit down and talk with one another. If you want to see it last, try and keep a door to communication open with your partner at all times.

2. Make time for small reminders of love: Even if it's just remembering to buy groceries, making breakfast for a spouse that always does it for you, or buying small trinkets that remind you of the other person, it can keep a relationship thriving. You never have to wonder how much your partner loves you, and it keeps the relationship romantic and refreshing for as long as possible.

3. Be supportive: Sometimes, it can feel like once you get in a routine of a long-lasting relationship that certain aspects that got you there seem to fade between a couple. to keep the peace with the kids, but it's hard when you and your ex are not seeing eye-to-eye. If you're having trouble keeping the conflict down and putting the children first, don't worry! Cupid has some parenting advice for those struggling to work together:

1. Communicate when you're in a good emotional place: When it comes to tension with an ex, it's important to take time to cool off. Keep calm, and put your emotions by the door. 1. Acknowledge the problem: The first step to solving a problem is admitting that there is a problem. Sit down with your partner, either alone or with a couple’s counselor, and discuss which issue broke the trust amongst the two of you. Listen to your partner as they express their thoughts and pain. While it may be tempting, do not invalidate your partner’s feelings. Especially if you’re trying to rebuild trust.
