Many celebrity couples are known for attending philanthropic events. What are a few ways you and your partner can give back to those in need?

Cupid's Advice:

Being a part of a celebrity couple is not a prerequisite for participating in volunteer work with your partner. There are countless ways for you to give back to your community, whether it be a monetary donation, or giving your time to a charity. Check out Cupid's advice for how you can give back to those in need:

1. Donate old clothing to the Salvation Army: Everyone is guilty of having way too many clothes in their closets and drawers. Consider sorting through all your old clothes with your partner, and do the same in his or her closet. Sort clothes into keep and donate piles, making sure to donate clothes that you haven't worn in a year or more. Google your local Salvation Army location and make a trip down there with all of your donated clothes.

Exclusive Celebrity Interview: Kailen Rosenberg Says, “There Is No Such Thing as a Failed Relationship”

By Sarah Batcheller

Kailen Rosenberg is one of the nation's most highly-acclaimed matchmakers. Known as “The Love Architect” and owning a company under the same name, the dating expert helps her clients discover the strong foundation within themselves so that they can then build a lasting relationship and love with their true soul mate. If you were to look at the world through her eyes, “love” would be more than just a four-letter word – it would be a way of life! After reading our exclusive celebrity interview with Rosenberg, you're bound to feel empowered in your search for The One.

Dating Expert Kailen Rosenberg Shares Relationship Advice

Rosenberg's matchmaking services are elite and one-of-a-kind. She gets to a person's core in order to find just the right person to ignite them. The mission of The Love Architects, who have clients ranging from your next-door neighbor to your favorite celebrity, is to help people authentically find love in whatever way, shape, or form they require. "We connect true soul mates who have been waiting forever to finally meet, and we help those who are married and struggling fall madly in love with each other either again – but in a healthier way or even for the very first time," Rosenberg explains. "Every potential client starts with a deep, spiritual, therapeutic, get-to-know-your-true-self assessment."

Those who participate in a "Love Design" session with the relationship expert are first asked to answer a few head-on questions. The matchmaker wants to know "who you are, who you believe you are, and why" before asking why you're ready for love and what kind of partner you desire. Rosenberg continues, "From there, we get to the truth about what has kept them stuck, away from the love that has been waiting for them their entire lives, and then, we go get it!"

Once their clients have completed the first portion of The Love Architect's process, it's time to look for someone special! "Next, a personal love and life blueprint is used as a custom map to build, heal, tear down, or do whatever is necessary to bring the most amazing experience of love into our clients' lives," the love guru divulges.

Exclusive Celebrity Interview With "The Love Architect"

Before you find someone else to love though, the life coach urges you to love yourself. Sharing an important piece of relationship advice, she claims, "If we have no real clue who we are, we then spend our entire lives not really knowing our authentic selves and therefore ending up on a treadmill going nowhere but on a habitual track of unhappy, unsuccessful, unfulfilling relationships. That in turn changes our energy, which in turn affects the planet we live on."

Of course, falling in love isn't always smiles and butterflies; it can lead to heartbreak too. To those who are trying to move on after a rough split, Rosenberg offers the following dating advice: "Realize that your break-up was one of the greatest gifts you could have ever received. It was raw and real. It tugged at your ego and your heart and gave you the chance to see something in yourself you perhaps have never seen or weren't ready to see until now."

Related Link: Dating Expert Kailen Rosenberg Constructs Celebrity Relationships From the Inside Out

In our exclusive celebrity interview, she encourages you to take a look at your value and see what you have allowed into your world that shouldn't be there. "Life is here to love on you, to teach you, and to bring you love, and it won't allow you to be with the wrong person for too long," she adds. "Your most recent break-up leaves you with a wonderful opening for the right person to finally come in."

With the weather finally warming up, it's a popular time of year for "spring flings" – which are one way to get over a broken heart. You may be surprised that Rosenberg says to go for it! “There is no such thing as a failed relationship. Instead, look at it as an in-depth experience with yet another ‘love teacher’ who showed up to teach you about you and about love,” she insists. “So be smart and be a great student of love. Seek to find what more there is to learn about yourself when it comes to love, where your ‘blocks’ still might be, and where you have clearly grown.”

Real love comes in all shapes and sizes, which is why the celebrity matchmaker has partnered with Betsy Broyles Arnold to recognize Alzheimer’s disease caregivers. “I am honored to have been given the opportunity to join forces on such an important and inspiring campaign. As you know, my entire life-work focuses on teaching and bringing genuine love to this world, and we all know that love is far more than hearts and chocolates, so it couldn’t have been a better fit,” she says of the Unconditional Love campaign. “We all want to understand love, and we all know that there will come a time in our lives when love is challenged. Those truly forgotten, unrecognized heroes – the caregivers of those with Alzheimer’s – give every bit of themselves, and that is when love becomes unconditional.”

Honoring these caregivers can be as simple as sending a card to show that you appreciate their work or offering to clean their home or cook them dinner. As Rosenberg explains, “They know in their hearts they have no choice but to be strong for their loved ones, to be present, and to love unconditionally in ways they never thought possible. We need to recognize them for their efforts.”

1. Stay strong: No matter what the situation is, always stay strong and take the high road. Remember there is always light at the end of the tunnel, and you and your partner will get through it! Don’t worry about what people say; all that matters is what you and your partner think and feel!

'American Idol' Contestant Sarina-Joi Crowe on Being Eliminated: "It Motivates Me Even More"

By Jenna Bagcal

Perseverance and determination are two qualities that 19-year-old Sarina-Joi Crowe possess. The Columbia, Tennessee native has auditioned for reality TV show American Idol four times since 2011. This season, she made it to the Top 12, but her journey ended this past Thursday after she received the lowest number of fan votes. She performed Demi Lovato's "Neon Lights" as her save song, but it wasn't enough for the judges to keep her from elimination. While this came as a shock to viewers and fans, the singer isn't done yet: "This is not the end of me. There's definitely more to come!" she assures us in our celebrity interview.

American Idol* Contestant Talks About Elimination and Relationships and Love

Crowe grew up in a small town in Tennessee and worked as a hostess at a restaurant. She learned to sing in church and credits her mother as the driving force behind her tenacity. “She’s always been very big on following our hearts, doing what we want to do, and not letting anyone stop us,” she shares. This attitude is one that Crowe has held on to throughout her life, and it’s what has pushed her to pursue her goals.

While many contestants in the performer’s position would feel disheartened, the veteran says that her elimination from the reality TV show “doesn’t affect her determination” to pursue music as a career. “It actually motivates me even more. At the end of the day, I know everybody wants to go all the way on Idol, and that’s ultimately the goal,” she explains in our celebrity interview. “But if you can go from number 100 to 60 to 48 to 12, then it’s a pretty good sign of what kind of career you’re going to have. You’re always gonna go a little farther; you’re always gonna get a little better. I still have time to grow and do great things.”

Of course, we had to ask Crowe about her relationship status! When she performs romantic songs like “You Really Got a Hold On Me,” she’s not thinking of anyone in particular. “There’s nobody in mind because I’m so single, it should be illegal!” she says with a laugh.

Instead, she thinks of a personal experience or an experience of someone she knows and tries to channel that energy into the song and make the delivery of it convincing. “I try to use past relationships and love as an example, or I try to jump into the shoes of somebody that I think would feel that way,” she explains.

The young singer has also learned a lot about the audition process during her long history with American Idol and has some advice to share for next season's hopefuls. "You should never give up. That's the one thing I want to make known across the nation," she exclaims. "When somebody tells you 'no,' you can't really take that. You have to figure out what to do next and try it again. It's that one 'yes' that's gonna make the difference."

To her fans, Crowe says, "I just want to thank them so much. I love them dearly! I've been reading so many great things on Twitter and Facebook, and it's just really awesome to see a group of people who are so dedicated and loyal. I owe them everything because I wouldn't even be here if not for them."

Famous Couple Sean Lowe and Catherine Giudici Speak Out Against the New 'Bachelorette' Twist

By Meranda Yslas

The latest celebrity news is that two women, Katilyn Bristowe and Britt Nilsson, will be on the upcoming season of The Bachelorette. This announcement has left a lot of people puzzled and some even angry. According to UsMagazine.com, famous couple Sean Lowe and Catherine Giudici, who met on season 17 of The Bachelor, are not happy about this change. Lowe wrote on his personal blog that this decision is “downright degrading for the women” because it “transfers the power back to the men on the show specifically designed for the women.” He feels that the contestants on The Bachelorette shouldn’t be given the authority to choose which woman will stay and which will go.

Sean Lowe is against shifting the power back to the men on The Bachelorette. What are some ways that couples can have equal say in their relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

An important part of any relationship and love is maintaining a balance of power between the couple. One person cannot be over controlling so that their partner resents them and one person cannot be too submissive where they get walked on. Cupid offers some relationship advice on how to find a middle ground:

1. Sharing the bills : Without a doubt, the idea of gender roles are constantly being challenged in our modern generation. No longer is it a 'wife duty' to clean the house, while the husband is the bread giver. Having one partner in charge of the bills will definitely cause some imbalance of power in the relationship. Splitting the bills in half will make sure one person doesn't feel too dependent on the other.

Related Link: 'The Bachelor' Stars Catherine and Sean Lowe on Celebrity Baby Plans: 'Not Anytime Soon'

2. Create an open environment: Sometimes an unequal say in a relationship stems from one person in the couple being too scared or nervous to speak their mind about something. Instead, he/she will keep their mouth close while their mate continues doing something they don't like. Make sure the relationship fosters an open and honest environment so that both people are free to speak their mind.

Related Link: 'The Bachelor' Sean Lowe Writes: 'My Wife Is Hot and I'm in Love'

3. Make decisions together: Making important decisions in a relationship should be the job of both partners, not just one. When deciding on something, like what school to send your kids or what car to buy, make sure this task isn't in one person's hands, but is considered by both people in the relationship.

Reality TV Host Chris Harrison Reveals Twist for Next Season of 'The Bachelorette'

By Emma L. Wells

Fans were shocked last night when Chris Harrison named two women to be the stars of the upcoming season of The Bachelorette. According to the WashingtonPost.com, the producers of the reality TV show were divided on whether to pick Kaitlyn Bristowe or Britt Nilsson, both former contestants from The Bachelor season 19, so they're going to let the men make the decision for them. This has never happened on The Bachelorette before, but it's actually not a first in franchise history: The Bachelor season 6 also began with two potential guys. It's no surprise that Bristowe and Nilsson seemed underwhelmed and unenthused by the announcement, both trying to stay polite during their joint conversation with Harrison.

On the next season of The Bachelorette, Bristowe and Nilsson will again be squaring off on their quest for a relationship and love. How can you use dating competition to your advantage?

Cupid's Advice:

Competition in any area can make you work harder, but it also makes the situation tougher. It all depends on how you play the game! Cupid has some dating advice about how to make competition work for you when it comes to a relationship and love:

- 1. Stand out from the crowd: Normally, it's not very healthy to compare yourself to others. But in this case, you can make it work to your advantage. The key is to embrace and promote the qualities that make you unique. By standing out from the crowd, you'll draw his eyes away from your so-called opponents.

2. Be cool: If you feel you're in a competitive dating environment, the best thing you can do is stay calm. You'll look confident and therefore more attractive if you can appear to be unbothered by any adversaries. Your future beau will notice you and want to know what makes you so self-assured.

3. Embrace your uncompetitive side: Believe it or not, even if you're the type who isn't interested in opposition, competition in dating can still help you, thanks to the process of elimination. By knowing you won't fit well with someone interested in engaging in dating contests, you've saved your own time by excluding those types of people from the running. Think quality over quantity.

Kevin Federline Reminisces About Celebrity Ex Britney Spears

By Maggie Manfredi

If Britney Spears can make it through 2007, you can make it through today. However, according to UsMagazine.com, Spears' celebrity ex-husband Kevin Federline says that mess is behind them. The celebrity exes are making it work and have got their co-parenting down to a science. Federline said, "I had to work this weekend and go to Orange County...so they went to Vegas, and when she has to do something and I need to keep the kids, it just works out well.” Federline and Spears had a short but, dramatic relationship and love life, from a surprise wedding to two baby boys and even a reality television show. Early on, there were intense custody issues between the celebrity exes, which culminated in Britney’s breakdown in 2007. But, the former famous couple are on track now and have a good system where their children always come first.

Celebrity ex or not, it can be tough to look back on your past relationship and love life with fond memories. What three memories are hard to let go when you break up with someone?

Cupid’s Advice:

Cupid knows it can be tricky to cope with a break-up, and sometimes that has to do with lingering memories. Cupid has memories that are particularly hard to let go of post-break-up:

1. Intimacy: Of course, the first thing that comes to mind is letting go of your memories surrounding the intimacy in your past relationship. If you were with someone for a long time, it probably means you were very much attracted to them. Those flashbacks can be tough to release.

2. Special dates: Whether it was an anniversary extravaganza or a surprise birthday bash made for the tabloids, you’ll be hard pressed to forget those good times. They will always remind you of your ex. That being said, don't let them become tainted. Just because you aren't with you ex now, doesn't mean you should regret the whole relationship.

As they say, "Time heals all wounds." This may or may not be true, but hang in there, because things are bound to get better! Memories fade.

Kirk and Laura Knight Prepare For Tonight's Premiere of Bravo's Reality TV Show 'Newlyweds'

By Kirk Knight

Laura and I started our relationship and love just outside of Washington, DC on a true blind date. Normally, neither one of us would entertain the idea of a real blind date – especially without even a social media drive by. Armed with nothing more than each other’s names, we set up a date for afternoon coffee in Bethesda, Maryland. I remember waiting in front of the coffee shop, looking at each woman that walked by worried that a “blind date” may be a really bad idea and a waste of time. Just then, I saw this absolutely beautiful woman walk up to the coffee shop.

The Beginning Of A Relationship and Love

It was Laura, and she made a visual impression that lasts to this day. After sitting down, we started talking about everything. Two and a half hours later, she not only had my attention but my heart. I would say it was love at first sight, but I feel that cheapens what it was. It wasn’t just the sight of her; it was our conversation, her warmth, her heart. She is what I could only describe as the feeling of “coming home.”

I grew up in the DC area, and Laura is from Florida (two completely different cultures). I have two teenage sons and a large and very close family. We quickly learned how much we have in common, how our interests are so similar, and how much we both value family. Six months prior to meeting me, Laura had lost her brother to a drug overdose in an addiction battle that lasted years. She was devastated, but I felt like it brought us closer. It allowed us to share very intimate feelings with one another and bond in ways most people may not get a glimpse of so early in a relationship and love.

Laura was new to the area and mostly stayed busy with her insurance brokerage business, Silver State Law Pro. We both had a lot going on and spent the next few years getting to know each other, traveling, and having the best time of our lives. I knew I wanted to marry Laura from early on, but I really wanted to build on a strong foundation for our love. After three and a half years, I proposed to Laura, and we got married on November 15, 2013 (with a beautiful ceremony, if I do say so myself).

Being on the Reality TV Show Newlyweds

As a married couple, we have been busy merging our lives and trying to juggle 100 things at any given time. I own Knight Investments, a commercial real estate consulting company, and the start-up Internet and mobile app company Razzd.com, which allows people to argue about any topic or headline and have the public vote on who's right and who's wrong. It's a really fun venture, but it takes a lot of my time. We have such a great relationship, but together, we own three companies and film a reality TV show. Plus, I'm launching my start-up. We are facing some major life decisions: Should we have kids? If so, then when? Should we move out of the city? I'm used to our very free life and wonder how we can handle all of the changes and challenges being a married couple brings...

Celebrity Engagement: Chris Soules Proposes to Whitney Bischoff on 'The Bachelor' Season 19 Finale

By Emma L. Wells

After ten weeks of searching on reality TV, Prince Farming has finally found his Princess! On the finale episode of The Bachelor season 19, Chris Soules, armed with a Neil Lane engagement ring, got down on one knee and proposed to Whitney Bischoff, a 29-year-old fertility nurse from Chicago. “Everything about this moment feels right,” he told her. According to ABC News, Bischoff seemed to be the obvious choice after the other contestant, Becca Tilley, confessed that she wasn’t ready to jump into a celebrity engagement and commit to a life in Arlington with Soules. During the “After the Final Rose” special, it was easy to see that the reality TV pair is thrilled to just be a “normal” couple.

This celebrity couple found true love on reality TV, but not all of us have that option. What are some unique ways to meet your soulmate?

Cupid's Advice:

Unlike the lucky celebrity couple from The Bachelor season 19, most of us don't have reality TV producers arranging the perfect circumstances for us to find relationships and love. If we want it, we have to go out and look for it ourselves! It's certainly not easy, but Cupid has some love advice about how to meet your soulmate:

1. Take part in group activities: You'll want to have common interests with your future partner, so why not participate in group activities that relate to your hobbies? Take an Italian cooking class or sign up to learn Spanish. Join an intramural kickball league or a hobby club. It will be easy to strike up a conversation with someone over your shared interests while interacting in this laidback setting.

2. Ask your friends: There's a reason why so many dating websites and apps give you matches based on your Facebook friends: You're more likely to hit it off with someone who your pals already like! If you're looking for a relationship and love, ask your friends for help. They know you well and know what you want in a partner. If you're nervous about a blind date, you can always plan a double or group date instead to ease any awkwardness.

3. Look online: It can be hard to find the time and place to meet someone special. There's nothing wrong with searching through a reputable dating site – it's one of the reasons they were invented! It gives you the opportunity to judge potential matches at your own pace. There's also a lot less pressure if you've talked online before you meet in person.

Lena Dunham Puts Off Celebrity Wedding in Support of Marriage Equality

By Jenna Bagcal

Wedding bells won't be ringing anytime soon for this famous couple. In the latest celebrity news, Girls Lena Dunham and Jack Antonoff from the band Fun have decided to postpone their wedding until, she says, “Everyone can get married in all 50 States.” According to People.com, during her appearance on Ellen, Dunham said that a celebrity marriage would not be taking place until everyone in the United States had marriage equality.

Lena and Jack are holding off on their celebrity wedding. What are three other reasons people delay their big day?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re in love, getting married may be at the top of your list of priorities. But sometimes, like with famous couple Lena and Jack, weddings are postponed for a good reason. Cupid shares three reasons why you might put a hold on upcoming wedding plans:

1. You feel like you don’t fully know your partner: Whether you’ve been in a relationship and love with your partner for nine months or nine years, people say that you’ll know when the right time is for you to get married. While that may be true, and while you may be deeply in love, there are always new things to discover about your significant other. Before you tie the knot, make sure that you have taken a sufficient amount of time to get to know the ins and outs of your partner to ensure that you are prepared for this lifelong commitment.

2. You and your partner are not yet financially stable: Before you get married, making sure that you have enough money saved to build your life together is an important factor to consider. If you find yourself struggling financially and living paycheck to paycheck, you might want to consider postponing your nuptials. Ensuring that you have financial stability will lead to a stable marriage for you and your partner.

3. You and your partner are not on the same page: Before you say “I do,” make sure that you and your significant other are on the same page. That includes topics such as, whether you want children, what your priorities are when it comes to having a career, or where you want to live when starting your lives together. If you and your significant other cannot agree on such serious topics, you two are not on the same page.

Hilary Duff Throws a Celebrity Baby Shower for Sister Haylie Duff

By Jenna Bagcal

You've probably heard the saying, "First comes love, then comes marriage." But what that old adage doesn't include is what comes in between the wedding and having the baby ... a baby shower! In the latest celebrity news from UsMagazine.com, Hilary Duff held a baby shower for her sister Haylie Duff, who announced last December that she and husband Matt Rosenberg are expecting their first celebrity baby. In honor of their child, Hilary threw a beautiful flower-themed baby shower, complete with cute pastel-colored cupcakes and ice cream for the mom-to-be.

We love the idea of a fancy flower-filled celebrity baby celebration! What are some ways to amp up the style at your shower?

Cupid's Advice:

You don't have to be part of a celebrity family to have a stylish baby shower. Listen to Cupid's tips about how to throw a chic baby shower worthy of any celebrity baby:

1. Come up with a theme: Choosing a theme for your baby shower can make the party that much more fun and cohesive. Start on the internet and go to Pinterest to gain some inspiration. Get decorations that go along with that theme, and also come up with a fun color scheme for all the shower decor.

2. Plan fun activities: Having a stylish party does not mean that you can't also have some fun! Plan activities that both you and your guests can enjoy. Decorate some onesies with fabric paint and cool craft supplies, or have your guests write cute and funny messages on your baby's diapers. Don't forget to take lots of pictures to document all the fun.

3. Serve simple, but elegant food: When thinking about the food you want to serve your guests, plan to serve dishes that are both delicious and aesthetically pleasing. You don't want to have messy sloppy joe sandwiches at your stylish affair. Instead, serve up some frozen yogurt cups with an array of toppings, a colorful and vibrant fruit salad, or a tray of delicious pastries.

The relationship between J.P. and Ashley Rosenbaum is a celebrity love story come true. This famous couple met on The Bachelorette season 7, and since then, they've gotten married and welcomed a new addition to their family, son Fordham (Ford) Rhys. The adorable pair, who recently moved to Miami, are getting the hang of being first-time parents and opened up about their experiences as a family of three in our exclusive celebrity interview. Plus, we found out they're a house divided when it comes to this season of The Bachelor!

'Bachelorette' Celebrity Couple Talks About Life as New Parents

Raising a baby – whether it's for the first time or the fifth time – is by no means easy, but for the celebrity couple, Ford has been a blessing. "He's a model angel baby," the proud dad shares. So far, there haven't been any big moments that the duo couldn't handle, but like any first-time parents, J.P. admits that they “just roll with the punches!”

At just five months old, Ford is already making huge progress in his development. “He rolls over and sits up. Of course, we have to put pillows around him, but he can sit up for a pretty extended period of time,” Ashley gushes. “He’s grabbing at things; he’s eating semi-solid foods right now; and he’s taking the packaging, putting it into his mouth, and trying to feed himself. It’s a pretty exciting time right now!”

The celebrity mom has a prediction for an upcoming milestone in her son’s life too: She thinks Ford’s first word will be “Boo.” She elaborates, “That’s our dog’s name, and he’s always hearing us say ‘Boo,’ so we’re pretty sure that’s what he’s going to say first.”

Like most dads, J.P. is excited for his son to follow in his footsteps and play sports someday. “I grew up playing basketball, soccer, lacrosse, and baseball, so we’re going to let him try out everything,” the former Bachelorette contestant shares. Noticing that Ford has been using his left hand more frequently, he adds, “We think he may be a lefty, so he may have an advantage as a pitcher. We’re definitely going to get a baseball in his hand pretty early.”

Now that Ford is a little bit older, the celebrity couple is feeling more comfortable with other people watching him so that they can have some alone time. “Ashley is going back to work soon, and we just hired a nanny about two weeks ago. We’re easing into the ‘leaving him with somebody else’ phase so that we can go on date nights,” J.P. reveals. “We’re almost there!”

A few months before their son was born, the reality TV stars packed their bags and headed south. Fortunately, the move to Florida was a great choice for them. “I don’t see us going back to New York. We’ve only been down here for about eight months, but we love it,” J.P. shares.

Lucky for them, the winter in Miami hasn’t been too severe, but just in case it gets blustery, the famous couple partnered with Puffs to make sure they’re prepared. “We thought it was a cool partnership. We’re just promoting staying healthy and putting your best face forward throughout the winter, Ashley explains in our exclusive celebrity interview. “What we love about Puffs is that it’s a campaign to promote taking care of yourself and providing comfort to you during cold and flu season, especially with such a harsh one this year,”

Being that The Bachelorette season 7 stars have some experience under their belts, talk of another baby has come up. “I had so much fun. I had a great pregnancy. I really, really enjoyed just having a baby and him being born,” the new mom says. “So who knows! Maybe we’ll go for a third, but right now, we’re really thinking two.”

Given their celebrity love story, it’s no surprise that they enjoy watching The Bachelor together. With the finale of Chris Soules’s journey tonight, we had to ask their thoughts on the remaining two ladies. The former Bachelorette is Team Becca. “I love both Whitney and Becca, but personally, I think Becca would be better for Chris,” she reveals. “I feel like she is more genuine. She hasn’t had a lot of love in her life, and she moves a little bit slowly, but I feel like there can potentially be a more real relationship between them.”

J.P. disagrees. “I’m on the other side. I think his relationship with Whitney has progressed so much more than his relationship with Becca. I think he would be leaning more towards Whitney,” he shares.

When it comes to the next season of The Bachelorette, the famous couple agree that ousted contestant Kaitlyn Bristowe is the best pick. “We like Kaitlyn a lot,” Ashley says. “She seems like a cool chick. She’s got a little edge to her, so we like that.”

J.P. adds, “She’s funny too. I think she’d make a good Bachelorette.”

Is Chris Brown a Celebrity Baby Daddy?

By Maggie Manfredi

Not exactly model behavior! According to People.com, the latest celebrity news reports that Chris Brown is a baby daddy to a nine-month-old baby girl. The child's mother is a former model that the singer has known for some time now. Brown's on-and-off-again girlfriend Karrueche Tran is not a fan of the breaking celebrity news. Tran tweeted, "Listen. One can only take so much. The best of luck to Chris and his family. No baby drama for me." However there is no comment from the

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you want things to happen or not, sometimes life intervenes. Cupid has some ways you can prepare for the unforeseen circumstance of being a parent unexpectedly:

1. Get educated: If you find yourself filling a new parent role, one of your first power moves should be to gain some knowledge. There are tons of books out there you can read, or talk to some friends that have parenting experience. This will help you deal with the fear of the unknown.

James Tupper is famously known for his roles on shows like the ABC series Men in Trees and the NBC medical drama Mercy. Most recently, he has played David Clarke on ABC's Revenge. After a month-long hiatus, season four is coming back on Sunday, Mar. 8, so buckle your seat belts for some unexpected twists and turns! In our exclusive celebrity interview, Tupper opens up about his relationship and love with Dig star, Anne Heche, his family life, and his role on Revenge.

James Tupper Shares His Celebrity Love Story and Gives Relationship Advice

It was love at first sight for Tupper and his longtime partner Heche. The celebrity couple met when they worked together on Men in Trees, but it wasn't as easy as you may think. Both stars were married at the time, and although he says that their marriages were dysfunctional, they didn't act on their attraction for each other. "Being married made it a lot worse because, for eight months, we didn't come together," the actor reveals. "But we had this incredible abiding friendship and, out of that loyalty, grew love."

The famous couple isn't married yet, but they do remain eternally engaged. "One of the really fun things we do is every year I ask Anne to marry me. She always says yes, and then we just never pick a date," he says with a laugh.

The Hollywood couple have been happily together for almost eight years and have son Atlas together as well as Heche's son Homer from her previous marriage to cameraman Coleman "Coley" Laffoon. They plan to celebrate Atlas's sixth birthday and Homer's thirteenth birthday this weekend in Beverly Hills with close family and friends. "We're renting a hotel room in Los Angeles and an adjacent hotel room," the actor shares. "Homer is going to have his best buds come, and then Atlas and his best friend's family are renting a room beside us. Our cousins and nephews are all going to come, and we're going to hang out by the pool and celebrate."

You may be wondering how the duo juggles their busy careers with a grounded family life, and you wouldn't be alone. Tupper reveals that it's essential to go after your passions. "Follow your dreams. Just do something little every day that makes you feel full," the star advises. "Anne and I are both people that do that, and when we come home at the end of the day, there's a feeling of fullness, and it makes our partnership stronger."

Doing something that you love and really care about is some of the best dating and relationship advice you can receive. This is especially true when you're in a celebrity relationship with a lot of pressure and scrutiny. "People who are pursuing what they love are providing nourishment for their relationship,” the actor adds.

James Tupper Talks Behind-the-Scenes of Revenge in Exclusive Celebrity Interview

Although Tupper couldn't give us any information on the upcoming episodes during our exclusive celebrity interview (no spoiler alerts here!), he did share a behind-the-scenes secret for fans of the show. As you may know, costars Emily VanCamp, who plays Emily Thorne, and Joshua Bowman, who played Daniel Grayson, are a real life celebrity couple. Although Bowman's character was tragically killed off earlier this season, he still visits the set to see his girlfriend and provide laughs for the cast and crew. “Just the other day, he came to set,” Tupper divulges. “Me, Emily and Nolan Ross were having a scene, and behind us was this large yard. During the scene, he wandered through it, and everybody started busting up laughing. He was like, ‘I'm still alive!’”

Related Link: Rumor: Are 'Revenge' Co-Stars Emily VanCamp and Josh Bowman Dating?

Obviously, the cast and crew enjoy their time together, but as avid viewers of the series know, the show is not always fun and games. Tupper's character was actually presumed to be dead for the first few seasons. The drama only recently revealed that he was alive, providing one of the biggest shockers of the entire series. “Revenge is the only show I've ever worked on where, as soon as I get the script, I go right to the last two pages to see if my character is still talking,” he says with a laugh.

You may have been surprised to find out that David was still alive, but the writers have actually been planning that since the beginning of the show; they just didn't know when it was going to happen. "In the history of television, it's the longest introduction to any character," the actor shares. "I would turn the show on during the second or third season, and in every scene, they'd be saying, 'David Clarke wouldn't have wanted that.' I was like, 'That's crazy – this power that's built around his memory.'"

Tupper says the cast and crew hope to continue for many more seasons. When asked how they keep coming up with story lines for these characters, he says he's wondered the same thing! The writers have assured him that they aren't done yet and have much more up their sleeves. It sounds like season five is just around the corner – stay tuned!

Is Wiz Khalifa Bashing Celebrity Ex Amber Rose in New Song?

By Meranda Yslas

Amber Rose has been in the center of the latest celebrity news, especially in the social media world, and now it seems she's caught the attention of her celebrity ex Wiz Khalifa. According to UsMagazine.com, Khalifa's verse in Juicy J's new song "For Everybody" seems to reference Rose and her previous job as a stripper. Rose filed for a celebrity divorce claiming that Khalifa had cheated on her when they were together. Khalifa denied these claims.

Khalifa and celebrity ex Rose have been going through a heated break-up. What are some ways to use music to cope with your split?

Cupid's Advice:

Although not all break-ups are as bad as the split between celebrity exes Khalifa and Roses, they are still never fun and can leave you feeling down. Thankfully there are some remedies to make this heartache a little easier to handle:

1. Create a playlist that makes you want to dance: Find your favorite upbeat, happy songs that you cannot help but nod your head to or shake your foot when they come on. Putting this playlist on shuffle when you're going about your daily routine like cleaning the house or going to work will help change your mood.

2. Listen to sad break-up songs, but with a friend: Studies have showed that although wallowing in self-pity won't speed up the recovery process, talking about the break-up does. Jamming out to Taylor Swift classics while venting to a friend can lessen the initial sting of the split.
