Cupid's Advice:

Taking the next step in a relationship and love can be scary if you aren't sure you're ready. Jumping into a marriage too quickly and without confidence can lead to a nasty break-up. Here's Cupid advice on what to check for to see if you're ready to walk down the aisle:

1. You don't always put your needs first: You are now able to recognize that in order for this partnership to work, compromises need to be made. Relationships, especially marriages, are a constant give and take, and finding a balance between the two will help ensure no one's feelings are pushed aside.

2. Accepting the little things: A fight used to erupt when your partner left the toilet seat up or forgot to mention that there is no more orange juice, but now you let those silly things go. You are understanding that not everything needs to be an argument.

3. Trust issues have disappeared: If your partner goes out with some friends for a few drinks, you don't feel the need to constantly check up on them and see what they are doing. You trust them and don't need an alibi when they get home.

Famous Couple Kristen Bell and Dax Shepard Plan Date Nights Mathematically

By Maggie Manfredi

Cute parents alert! According to UsMagazine.com, famous couple Dax Shepard and Kristen Bell have a family calendar in place to keep their life organized. The movie star mama said, "In truth, there's no trick to balancing it. If you look at the calendar and you've seen you've gone ten days without a date night, you know you need to prioritize more. That's how we work – we're very mathematical about our relationship!" The two make time for their relationship and love while raising their beautiful 21-month-old daughter and eldest son while continuing to work.

Famous couples like Kristen Bell and Dax Shepard are just like the rest of us when it comes to the difficulty in finding time for date night. What are some things to keep in mind when it comes to planning quality time with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

As partners, it takes work to have jobs and also be full-time parents like famous couple Kristen Bell and Dax Shepard. On top of that, you have to keep the spark alive! Cupid has some tips on how to make time for love:

1. Element of surprise: As a relationship and love matures and there are added pressures and obligations, there is a definite pressure to keep the spark alive. One way to do this is to continue to surprise each other. This could be with little gifts for no reason or cooking your partner's favorite dish just because.

'The Bachelor' Season 19 Contestants Rehash Old Feuds During "The Women Tell All" Episode

By Emma L. Wells

The Bachelor season 19 “The Women Tell All” special brought all the women back together to reminisce about their time on the reality TV show and clear the air. They had many grievances with each other – and many more with The Bachelor himself, Chris Soules. Kelsey came under attack from all the contestants (yet again) for being conniving and fake. After taking the hot seat, Britt Nilsson immediately called out Carly for being a bad friend. Additionally, both Jade Roper and Kaitlyn Bristowe confronted Soules about why he rejected a relationship and love with them. He assured Roper that it was not because of her Playboy spread. Bristol, unfortunately, received a less clear answer. USAToday.com reported that Soules said, “I apologize...In that moment, I did the best I could and that’s all I know.” We can’t wait to see how The Bachelor season 19 will end next week!

When it comes to past relationships and love, how can you get over old disputes and move forward? The ladies from The Bachelor season 19 need to listen to this dating advice!

Cupid’s Advice:

Holding on to old grievances isn’t good for you. Why should you dwell on the past when you can move on and find happiness again? This dating advice applies to friendships as well as relationships and love:

1. Reach an understanding: Kaitlyn made the right choice to confront Soules about her hurt feelings. It’s hard to move on when you don't understand what really happened. The best way to do so is to have an open conversation – preferably not on reality TV! – with the person without being accusatory. Let them explain their actions in their own words. You might not get a satisfying answer, but it will help you to talk it through.

2. Look inward: In most cases, while you may be hurt, you're probably not blameless. It's equally important to understand what you did wrong and could have done better. Ask your ex about your behavior or just put yourself in their shoes and examine the situation. Either action will help you ensure that the same mistakes aren't made again.

Related Link: ‘The Bachelor: Women Tell All’ Recap: Old Catfights Resume and Michelle’s Redemption

3. Forgive and forget: Just because you're at a place where you're ready to move on doesn't mean the other person is, so don't expect an apology or forgiveness. The best thing you can do is say your peace, move on, and hope that, someday soon, they will be able to do the same.

Terri Seymour is famously known for dating Simon Cowell for six years before their celebrity break-up in 2008. However, the Extra correspondent has moved on since then: She announced her celebrity pregnancy with boyfriend Clark Mallon in September and is excited to welcome their daughter into the world later this week. In our exclusive celebrity interview, the TV host opens up about her relationship with her ex and her celebrity baby news.

Terri Seymour Talks About Celebrity Ex Simon Cowell

As fate would have it, Seymour is due around the same time that Cowell celebrates his son Eric's first birthday. The celebrity exes have remained close friends since their split, and the actress is even Eric's godmother. Of course, the possibility of these two celebrity kids falling in love has been discussed among their closest friends. "Simon's joked about that. He's told me they will date, so we'll see what happens,” she says with a laugh. “Eric is the most adorable, well-behaved little baby, so I’m sure he’ll grow up to be a lovely young man.”

It’s no surprise that she often wonders how Cowell ended up with such a sweet baby. “I’ve said to Simon before, ‘I can’t believe he’s your child!’ because he’s been so good since he was born,” the star gushes. For her daughter’s sake, she adds that they’ll “just have to make sure he doesn’t get on the naughty side!”

Clearly, the celebrity exes have maintained a close friendship, despite their relationship and love life not working out so many years ago. “I think sometimes, when you’re in a relationship with somebody and you become such good friends, if you don’t have a terrible break-up, it makes it easier to remain friends,” Seymour shares in our celebrity interview. “If you have a terrible split, then that’s probably not going to happen.”

Cowell has even said that he will be the godfather of Seymour’s baby girl, although the TV host has yet to confirm.

TV Host Reveals Difficulties During Her Celebrity Pregnancy

A pregnancy can be hard on anyone, even more so if you have systemic lupus like Seymour does. “I had a lot of sickness in the first seven months – I felt sick the whole time basically,” she divulges. “Now, I’m just feeling very tired and getting ready for the big day.”

While her lupus had nothing to do with the sickness she felt, her doctors are still monitoring her and the baby closely.

“They won’t let me go past my due date because of it,” the actress says. “They’re talking about maybe inducing me a little bit early.”

While preparing for a baby is a great bonding experience for a couple, it can also test their partnership. “Pregnancy is really hard on a relationship and love. I think it can be very stressful,” Seymour explains. “It can be hard for the guy, I think, when his wife, partner, girlfriend, whoever, is going crazy with all these hormone changes. We can be quite testy on them, like I’ve been for the last couple months! Towards the end, though, it just brings you even closer together.”

Now that they’re in the homestretch, the famous couple is focusing on getting their daughter’s bedroom ready. “The nursery is really cute with a little bit of pink,” the celebrity mom-to-be says. “It’s got this very light-colored and fluffy cloud-like rug. We’re just doing the accessories now, like pillows, baskets, and toys. We’re trying to make it all cozy.”

It’s easy to see that the Extra correspondent and her celebrity love can’t wait to become parents. “I’m definitely most excited about meeting our daughter for the first time,” she reveals. “By the time you come to the end of your pregnancy, it feels like it’s been going on forever, so you just want to meet your healthy, beautiful, new baby. I’m excited about becoming a mom. It’s going to be life-changing.”

Still, the host isn’t going to let parenthood slow her down. In fact, she’s already got a new project in the works: “I’m designing a diaper bag because I’ve had terrible trouble finding a beautiful, cool bag,” she explains. “I’m really excited about that. I’m hoping it’s going to be ready when I have the baby because I still don’t have one!”

Mother to singer and actress Christina, hairstylist Danielle (who just announced that her third celebrity baby is on the way!), and chef Lizzy, the family matriarch has a lot of fame on her plate, as seen on the hit reality TV show Christina Milian Turned Up. Milian is not only a successful businesswoman; she happily raised her three equally-successful daughters following her divorce. In this exclusive celebrity interview, the celebrity mom describes life and love under her roof.

Exclusive Celebrity Interview with Reality TV Star Carmen Milian

Milian reveals that filming their reality TV show was a good experience for her family. “It actually brought us closer,” she explains. “We worked out some underlying issues throughout filming that we were able to resolve, and I think we came out better in the end by finally dealing with them.”

The mother of three also had a lot of favorite moments, but unfortunately, many of them won't be seen by audiences. “There were a lot of beautiful scenes that we shot that they didn't use. The footage showed us joking around and being silly or even a lot more lovable. I wish people could have seen that,” she says. “We also filmed an episode for Viva Diva Wines, which Christina and I own along with our partner Robyn Santiago. It was a charity event that we supported, and our wines were such a great hit!”

The entrepreneur likes to add a familial aspect to everything she does. Even while working, her children and grandchildren are at the forefront of her mind. Making it sound easy, she divulges her secret to balancing it all: “My grandkids are team players. They know that sometimes they have to be quiet while I’m on a business call, but they don’t mind because those calls usually come while I’m in Toys “R” Us, at the park, or at Chuck E. Cheese. I spoil them plenty, so they are fine with me working while we play. I try not to text or email during my time with them though because I don’t want them to feel ignored. “

Celebrity Mom Shares Dating and Relationship Advice

Milian is looking forward to this year, as she intends to make it a noteworthy one in terms of her relationship and love life. She believes that this is her time, saying, “The truth is that I used to date back in the day after my divorce, but it’s been a while. Dating is the one thing I wish I would’ve taken more time for in the past, but it’s never too late, and that is my intention in 2015.”

The celebrity couple seems to be enjoying their engagement and embracing the love from friends and family.

Like Lady Gaga and Taylor Kinney, it's important to celebrate your engagement in style! What are some ways to have a celebrity-style engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

A celebrity-style engagement can seem like a daunting task, especially when you look at Lady Gaga with her heart shaped rock and gorgeous TV star fiance. But not to worry lovebirds; Cupid has some ideas on how to make your engagement A-list worthy:

1. Have a party: The first rule of a celeb engagement is to throw a party for yourself; or if you are lucky, someone will host a party in your honor. If you don't like either of these options, show up to another event looking downright fabulous, and don't be afraid to show off the ring.

Famous Couple Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Show PDA After Brit Awards

By Maggie Manfredi

"No Kanye; you're awesome!" According to UsMagazine.com, famous couple Kim Kardashian and Kanye West were not shy when it came to public displays of affection at the Brit Awards on Wednesday. Mrs. West posted a picture with her hubby on Twitter the night of the awards showing her licking Kanye's face! This was one of many posts from the celebrity couple. The Keeping Up With The Kardashians starlet introduced Kanye's performance at the awards and thoroughly enjoyed herself with other A-listers throughout the night. The Hollywood couple was seen in photos with Taylor Swift and Sam Smith during the event, and had nothing but love for each other.

Famous couples can't show PDA without the whole world knowing, but that's the point, right? What are some ways to show your partner you care in public?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA: Public display of affection. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West do it, so why can't you? Cupid says you can, but there are some guidelines to showing your lover you care in public:

1. Keep it simple: Kim Kardashian made a bold move with the tongue to cheek PDA action. If you want to show your partner you care in public, it's probably best to keep it simpler than Kimye's celebrity love, and there are plenty of ways to do so. Holding hands, hugs, or a hand on the knee are all options. Cupid advises you keep your tongue out of it when it comes to public affection.

2. Be comfortable: Opinions are all over the board when it comes to PDA, so don't be afraid to talk about it with your partner. Some people are bold, like celebrity couple Kim and Kanye, while others don't even want to touch in public. Make sure you are both comfortable with how you display affection in public so that it is mutually enjoyable.

3. Feel the room: Not every place is appropriate for affection. A bench to yourselves in a public park is okay for a little light canoodling, whereas a packed public train would be inappropriate and most likely inconsiderate. Cupid is happy you cannot keep your hands off of each other, but affection is usually best shared in private.

The latest celebrity baby news has us all excited, but preparing for your newborn will take some work. Here are three ways to prepare for the arrival of your little one:

1. Talk to other moms: There are many things about childbirth and infant care that only a veteran mom would know, so make sure you ask a friend or family member what to expect and how to prepare. They'll have recommendations for everything from what kind of crib to buy to what kind of bottles work best and can share tips on how to keep your marriage strong post-baby.

2. Prepare the nursery: Make sure that you are ready to bring your new baby into your home. Have the crib, changing table, and glider set-up before your little one arrives. Ask for suggestions from your OB/GYN or your nearby friends and family. This way, you'll be ready when that first cough comes up!

1. Bring a friend: In the first few years after the relationship ends, it may be smart to bring a friend with you when you know you're going to interact with your ex. Having a wing woman or wing man will help you refocus the conversation if things turn sour.

2. Don't compete: After a break-up, people often feel the need to compete with one another, bringing dates to parties and going places just to show your ex how happy you are. Don't use your relationship and love life as a competition; it will only leave you feeling upset and emotionally exhausted.

Former 'Bachelorette' Reality TV Star Desiree Hartsock Jokes About Being A 'Mama in Training'

By Emma L. Wells

The Bachelorette famous couple Desiree Hartsock and Chris Siegfried celebrated their celebrity wedding in January of this year, and they already have babies on the brain! Earlier this week, an Instagram photo sent rumors flying that the brunette beauty is on her way to becoming a celebrity mom. Inquisitr.com shared a photo of the reality TV star happily holding a baby with the caption: "Mama in training with @floridaray18 baby Jax. He's so precious I couldn't put him down!" Baby Jax belongs to new celebrity mom Renee Oteri Maynard, who is a former contestant from The Bachelor and good friends with Hartsock. Both Hartsock and Siegfried have talked about wanting to add kids to their relationship and love, but the newlywed quickly squashed the rumors by commenting in the thread that she's not currently expecting.

Desiree Hartsock isn't pregnant, but it looks like she's ready to become a celebrity mom! What are some signs that you're ready to have a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby is one of the biggest decisions you can ever make, and there are many factors you should consider before taking that step. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to tell if the timing is right for you and your beau:

1. You have a strong partnership: Having a baby puts a strain on your relationship and love in many ways and for many reasons. If your partnership is already a little rocky, it might be a good idea to wait until you two are on more stable ground before embarking on this journey. You should be sure that you and your significant other can support each other throughout parenthood. After all, once you're a parent, you're a parent for the rest of your life! Be sure that's a commitment that both of you can make.

2. Your finances are in order: Everyone knows kids aren't cheap! Recent estimates put the average cost of raising a child in middle-income America until they are 18 at 241,080 dollars, and those numbers are quickly rising. It can cost thousands of dollars during the pregnancy alone. Make sure you have a financial plan in place before getting pregnant.

3. It's for the right reasons: There are many reasons to have a child, and some make more sense than others. For instance, don't have a baby just because you think they're cute or because it's what people expect from you after marriage. It may be helpful for you and your partner to each make a list of why you want a baby and why you want one now. If your reasons are good and your lists match up, then it's a good sign the timing is right!

Some of the hardest moments in life include a large amount of heartache. But like Lea Michele, you will be able to move on and still honor your past relationships. Cupid has some advice on how to handle a loved one who has passed away:

1. Take the time you need: When tragedy strikes, it can be a full body experience. The three are set for an epic finish in Bali and are already well on their way to finding love. Who will be our Bachelor's leading lady?

We can't all date with the level of style that The Bachelor contestants do, but we can still make it special. What are three ways to date in style?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating is a fun step toward finding your soul mate. Although we can't all date like Chris Soules, Cupid does have some attainable tips on how to date in style:

1. Experience new things: The best way to make dating more exciting is to try new things together. Whether it be a big move like skydiving or a smaller treat like trying a foreign food, be bold and enjoy every adventure.

2. Take advantage of free stuff: It is okay to be a dater on a budget, but that doesn't mean you have to sit at home every night and watch television. Take this dating advice to heart: Get online and look into what your city has to offer for free. You would be surprised by the amount of coffee shop concerts, museums, and festivals that take place all year long for no charge! With a little bit of research, you can have a great date on a budget.

Whitney from 'The Bachelor' Season 19 Says She'd Move to Arlington, Iowa for Chris Soules

By Emma L. Wells

From day one, The Bachelor season 19 star Chris Soules has said that a relationship and love with him means moving to his (very small) hometown of Arlington, Iowa. After asking potential celebrity love Whitney if she would be able to leave her life in Chicago for him, she gave him exactly the answer he was looking for. According to People.com, she said that, while she loves her job as a nurse, she would have “no hesitation” about moving to Arlington and “having babies” as her career. The Bachelor season 19 frontrunner continued, “I firmly believe that life takes you places, and it’s not where you are; it’s who you’re with.”

The Bachelor season 19 contestant Whitney is willing to move to Iowa for her celebrity love. How do you know if that’s the right decision for your relationship and love?

Cupid’s Advice:

We sometimes fall for people who aren’t perfect for us in a geographic sense. Long-distance dating can’t go on forever, and eventually, you’re left with two choices: break-up or move. Cupid has some dating advice on how to tell what move (no pun intended) is right for you:

1. Consider all the factors: Realty TV star Whitney told her celebrity love that it doesn’t matter where she is because it’s who she’s with that’s important. While there is a lot of truth to her statement, you should examine your specific situation first. Think about what you need in order to be happy; that may include your career, your friends and family, or something as seemingly small as your kickball team or local library. What would you have to give up when you move to be closer to your partner? More importantly, can you live without it?

Related Link: QuickieChick’s Video Dating Tips: Is He “The One” or Just Another Someone?

2. Look to the future: After you've made your mental list of things you can't live without, ask yourself how that list will change in the next five, ten, or twenty years. Moving might not suit your needs this year, but maybe that's where you see yourself long-term. In this case, the question changes from "if" to "when." Tell your significant other that you're willing to move but need a little more time before you're ready. If your relationship and love is as important to them as it is to you, then they will understand.

Related Link: ‘The Bachelor’ Season 19 Contestants Treat a Relationship and Love with Chris Soules Like a Game

3. Be on the same page: Make sure you understand why your beau wants you to move; that will ensure that you two have similar expectations. Are their reasons valid? Does it make more sense for you to move to them or vice versa? It's equally important for them to understand your reasons as well. Having a discussion about how this move will change your relationship is the best place to start.

Celebrity

Interview: Karina Smirnoff and Lindsay Rielly Share Dating Advice In 'We're Just Not That Into You'

Interview by Sarah Batcheller. Written by Jenna Bagcal

We've all been on dates that have flopped miserably. Maybe they've even made us think, "What did I do wrong?" or "Why wasn't he into me?" In this exclusive celebrity interview, Dancing with the Stars (DWTS) professional dancer Karina Smirnoff and her best friend and manager Lindsay Rielly remind readers that these dating disasters happen to the best of us. In their new book We're Just Not That Into You: Dating Disasters From the Trenches, which came out on Feb. 10, these ladies, along with some of their famous friends, share their perspective about relationships and love and prove that what seems like a bad date now may turn into a hilarious story that you'll learn from later on.

Karina Smirnoff and Lindsay Rielly Share Dating Advice and Disasters

Sure, Smirnoff is well-known for her moves on the dance floor, but even winning the mirror ball trophy doesn't make you immune to heartbreak – which is why she decided to share the good, the bad, and the ugly in her new book. According to Rielly, the title of the book is a tongue-in-cheek reminder to women that “it's not that he's not into us. It's a mutual thing!” Their main goal was to remind people that “dating is ultimately fun, not something that you have to dread because of your previous experiences.”

Embodying this mindset, these two women have not let dating flops get in the way of their positive outlook on relationships and love. Smirnoff's best piece of dating advice is simple: “Open your mind and your heart. Instead of thinking, ‘Oh my god, I gotta go on another date,’ go with good energy. Great things might come out of it! And the least you're gonna do is enjoy yourself.”

The best friends ultimately describe the writing process as “fun” with intense and challenging moments at times. “To be honest, I loved every second of it! It was a lot of work though,” Smirnoff says in our exclusive celebrity interview. “Once we started remembering the dates and the details, we looked like Bruce Almighty. Remember when he was God and he was answering emails to everyone? At the end, I just wanted to say yes to all! But writing a book is very liberating and empowering too – I didn't expect to feel that way.”

In addition to dating stories from Smirnoff and Rielly, We're Just Not That Into You includes contributions from their girlfriends and other celebrities, including DWTS contestants Leah Thompson, Maria Menounos, and Ralph Macchio as well as fellow professional dancer Cheryl Burke.

Why Men Will Enjoy This Book About Relationships and Love

While the book is geared towards women, Smirnoff and Rielly share that men may also enjoy reading it. “Our publishers read the book, not expecting to love it, and said that neither of them could put it down. It's the type of book that, if their wives had it, they would steal and read in private,” they explain.

No need to worry, guys: You're not to blame for every dating disaster. “There are stories where we laugh at our own behavior,” Smirnoff says. “There were definite situations where we were the catalyst of our own downfall. But that's the whole point: It's not like all guys are bad and all girls are good. We're all good, and we're all bad...sometimes at the same time.”

Of course, the authors have their fingers crossed that some of their exes check out their new book about love. “I'm personally hoping that at least one specific person reads it. I think that he might learn something about his love life by reading his story,” says Rielly.

“I just hope someone picks it up and asks, ‘Why were you talking about me?'" Smirnoff adds with a laugh.

Professional Dancer Shares What's Next for Her in Exclusive Celebrity Interview

With her new book being released and other secret projects in the works, Smirnoff will not be returning for the next season of DWTS. After being on the show for "an incredible decade of her life," the dancer says that she felt it was time to move on and explore new opportunities. "There are a lot of exciting things coming up!" she shares.

Some of her favorite memories from the show are the relationships that she formed with other professional dancers and her celebrity partners. "I developed real friendships – friendships where you call each other, where you see each other whenever you're in town," she reveals. "I still have that relationship with a lot of my partners, including Ralph Macchio, Jacoby Jones, and J.R. Martinez."

Speaking of Martinez, one of her favorite seasons was season 13 when she was partnered with the former U.S. Army soldier and actor. She explains, "I love the military. Being partnered with J.R. was very powerful for me because I got to experience some of his world firsthand. I got to experience his story – what he went through and how he came out of it. That was a very important season for me personally."
