How do you know how much space to give your ex post-split?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups can have different outcomes depending on the couple. Sometimes, it's mutually beneficial and no harm has been done. Other times, one or both members are left feeling many different emotions all at once. So how do you know how much space to give your ex post-split? Cupid has listed some tips below:

1. Assess their emotions: If it was a mutual breakup and the other person also clearly thought that it was for the best, you probably don't have to give them too much space. However, if you both disagreed about the breakup and there are hard feelings, you may want to give your ex more space before you're able to be friends or hang out post-split.

2. Consider how long you've known them: If the two of you have been friends since you were teenagers and you've been dating for the last five years and if the relationship didn't end because of a cheating scandal, you won't have to give the other person too much space. But if you haven't known each other very long and it ended because you both want to go different directions with your lives, you might want to hold off on a lot of contact.

3. Blended friend group: If you've been together for a long time or if you both work at the same office, went to the same school, etc., you might have the same friends, and you may not be able to take a break from each other for long. If this is the case, you should figure out how to behave around each other as friends as quickly as possible.

Breakups are tough, especially when one of the parties airs your dirty laundry. Cupid has some advice on how to keep things civil:

How do you decide how long to make your wedding ceremony?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding ceremony is just that: yours! That being said, timing is a major decision you have to make when confirming the details of your big day. Cupid has some factors to consider:

1. Who will be: Keep in mind the amount of guests when deciding on the ceremony length. If there are a ton of people or a very small group, that may change the way you plan your ceremony. Think about who you want involved with the ceremony too; if you have one speaker versus three, that'll impact the amount of time it takes to say your vows.

2. Where it is: If it's a hot August afternoon or a windy beach day, make sure to take that into account. Having guests who are uncomfortable – or a bride or groom who is uncomfortable, for that matter! – will spoil the mood.

3. What traditions you want to include: If you have plans to do something religious or traditional with your bridal party, don't get caught up on time. This is your one opportunity to have the celebration of love that you want, so do what makes you happy.

They married in England, where same-sex marriage was recently legalized. According to UsMagazine.com, John said, "We'll do it very quietly. But we will do it, and it will be a joyous occasion, and we will have our children [there]. For this legislation to come through is joyous, and we should celebrate it. We shouldn't just say, 'Oh well, we have a civil partnership; we're not going to bother to get married'. We will get married."

How do you incorporate your kids in your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

If you have children, you'll no doubt want to include them in wedding festivities. Cupid has some ideas:

1. Tie the knot with family ties: When tying the knot, it's wonderful to be able to include children in the celebrations! Whether that means your own children or children of family members, it's a beautiful thing. Include the children in the wedding by simply inviting them to all of the events and festivities on the big day as well as the parties leading up to it. They'll simply be happy they're there with the adults.

2. Walk it out: A great way to involve kids in a wedding is by letting them be in the wedding party! Have them walk down the aisle as a flower girl, ring bearer, junior bridesmaid, or junior groomsmen. Let them hold the bride's bouquet during the ceremony or have another kind of task to make them feel important.

‘Vanderpump Rules’ Reality TV Star Katie Maloney Confirms That She and Tom Schwartz Are Still Together!

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Sarah Batcheller.

Katie Maloney is a force to be reckoned with on Bravo's hit reality series Vanderpump Rules, a spinoff of The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills. Maloney's romantic relationship with castmate Tom Schwartz is in the spotlight this season and has made her character very interesting to watch. Intense, drama-filled friendships sum up her social life, and her heated love life is now fodder for celebrity relationship news. CupidsPulse.com had the chance to speak with Maloney about the most recent celebrity cheating rumors on the show as well as her current relationship with Schwartz.

During our exclusive celebrity interview, the reality TV star confirmed that her employment at SUR was not staged for the cameras and that she's actually still working there. She also says that working with Lisa Vanderpump, the show's matriarch and boss, is "exactly what you would expect it to be." She assures us that Vanderpump "has high expectations – she really wants us to respect her and her business," adding, "She's really smart!"

Katie Maloney Discusses Celebrity Scandal on Reality TV Show

The Pucker & Pout style blogger clears the air about her fallout with castmate and ex-best friend Kristen Doute, who slept with their friend Stassi Schroeder's boyfriend, Jax Taylor. "Contrary to what everyone, including Kristen, wants to believe, I didn't end my friendship with her [Doute] because of what she did to Stassi." But Maloney does say it was a contributing factor because Doute's behavior and lies were "disturbing and alarming." Maloney explains, "It opened my eyes to how Kristen is towards her friends. We were best friends for so long, and we had a lot of fun together, but she has some issues that she has to work through. I don't hate her; I just had to move on with my life."

Related Link: Celebrity Couples That Have Bounced Back After Cheating

In regards to her friendship with Schroeder, the SUR employee says, "It's definitely not what it was." Without revealing what happened between them, Maloney says that Schroeder had ulterior motives when it came to helping her through the celebrity scandal and cheating rumors about her boyfriend of four years, Schwartz. Most of Schroeder's motives were fueled by Schroeder's beef with her ex-boyfriend Taylor. "It's a sensitive subject because there are a lot of things I don't understand about it," Maloney admits.

Maloney says she tries to stay out of the drama, but it's hard. "With the kind of people I run around with, it's impossible not to get caught up in things," she confesses. "I've always tried to keep a level head as much as I can and not let emotions run too high. That's always kind of been my M.O. – I think I've done a pretty good job!"

Celebrity Couple Katie Maloney and Tom Schwartz Still Together

If history repeats itself, then viewers predict that another celebrity cheating scandal will occur on season three of the popular show – and that it might be Maloney and her boyfriend who end things next. Thankfully, though, Maloney fondly describes their celebrity relationship, recalling, "We met when he moved here from Florida. Kristen moved in with him, and she kept wanting to introduce me to her roommate, and I was like, 'No, I don't really want to date a model dude. There are plenty of those.' But then finally I met him...and the rest is history!" During our exclusive celebrity interview, she confirms that, even though their relationship has been a bumpy ride, they are still together and going strong.

Maloney did go to her boss Vanderpump for relationship advice as we will see on tonight's episode. "I didn't know anyone else with an unbiased opinion who I could talk to about it," she shares. "Everyone was talking about Tom and me. I didn't know where to go. I didn't know how to be around Jax. Lisa could tell how much I was hurting and pressed for information, and I told her everything that happened. I value her opinion because she has more life experience. She's been married for 30 years, and she's not Jax's ex-girlfriend! It was really nice to go to her."

Since her blog offers beauty and fashion advice, we had to ask Maloney for her best tips on what to wear on a first date. She shares, "It obviously all depends on where you're going, but wear something comfortable. Wear your favorite outfit: your go-to shoes and your go-to dress." If you still can't find something that works, she adds, "A little black dress is always a good option. Just keep it as classic as possible!"

The Pucker & Pout creator believes that her and Schwartz's story "tugs on the heartstrings a little" because it's so relatable to those who have also had to work through tough issues with their partner. Maloney is very firm on the fact that she and her beau have a good relationship and she encourages women to be careful of the pressure you get from friends when it comes to making decisions about your love life!

Keep up with Katie on Twitter @MusicKillsKate, and don't forget to check out her blog Pucker & Pout. Tune in for Vanderpump Rules on Mondays at 9/8c on Bravo!

After Page Six reported that the famous celebrity couple were expecting triplets, Wonder joked, "I got, how many, 22 kids?" before clarifying, "It's not true. The legendary musician is thrilled at the arrival of his celebrity baby girl!

This famous couple is a part of a big family but wants to make each celebrity baby feel special. What are some ways you can do the same?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a big family can be both chaotic and rewarding at the same time. As the parent, it's your job to make sure no one gets lost in the shuffle. Cupid has some tips:

1. Sealed with a kiss: Physical bonding between children and parents throughout life is very important. That can mean hugging, kissing, playing with their hair, high fives, and more. The more your children know you're there for them, the more special they will feel!

2. It's a date: Dates are not strictly reserved for your significant other! Make a date with your children and spend time together. It's important to have a designated opportunity to just listen to them when they speak, learn about what's new in their lives, and be engaged in fun activities together. Nothing makes your child feel more special than having your full attention.

3. Love on them: The most important thing you can do to make your children feel special is to let them know that they are loved! Say "I love you" as many times a day as possible (without embarrassing them). Many professionals feel that, when children consistently hear this, they will repeat the cycle and turn out to be loving people into adulthood.

'Bachelor in Paradise' Lovebirds Cody Sattler and Michelle Money Breakup After Six Months

By Sarah Batcheller

One of the happiest reality television love stories has come to an end. UsMagazine.com revealed that Cody Sattler and Michelle Money, who met on Season 1 of Bachelor in Paradise, have gone their separate ways after a cross-country move and six months of dating. Both stars took to social media to gracefully announce their split, and inform fans that they will remain lifelong friends. The single mom sweetly wrote, "Cody truly has blessed my life and the life of my daughter in more ways than he will ever know. His positive impact on Brielle is something I will forever be grateful for."

How can you properly announce a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

The end of a relationship can be tough not only on you and your ex but on your loved ones as well. After all, they too have grown close to your former partner during your time together. Here are three ways to gracefully share the news of your breakup:

1. Inform family and close friends first: In this case, Money has a young daughter, who spent a lot of time with Sattler. The closest people to you should always hear the news first because it will affect them the most. It's better for those who had some emotional stake in the relationship to be able to process it before everyone else hears about it.

3. Make sure both of you are on the same page: Per the above statements, you want to make sure that you and your ex agree on who to tell and what details to reveal. This celebrity mom has to be creative with her baby to prepare for the day. What are some ways to entertain your child while you get ready?

Cupid's Advice:

A child changes your daily routine in more ways than you could ever imagine. Something as simple as taking a shower or fixing your hair must be carefully planned according to your baby's schedule. Here, Cupid reveals three ways to entertain your kid while you get ready for the day:

1. Keep them busy: It's easy enough to move your baby's toys from the playroom to the kitchen...to the bathroom. Spread out a blanket and grab their favorites books and blocks. As long as they're having fun, they won't care that you're curling your hair or carefully applying your lipstick.

2. Ask for help: If your partner has a flexible work schedule, don't be afraid to ask him to stick around for a few extra minutes in the morning. It'll be a good opportunity for him to bond with his child, and it'll let you have a moment to yourself before your busy day of parenting begins.

Kutcher & Mila Kunis Forego A Nanny

By Katie Gray

Celebrity couple Ashton Kutcher and Mila Kunis have been parents for a few months now to celebrity baby daughter Wyatt Isabelle, and they are completely in love with her. In their latest celebrity baby news update, Kutcher said, “You think you know how much you can love another person, and then you have a child and you realize you didn’t know. It’s infinitely rewarding.” He added, “And I really look at this as the greatest opportunity of my life.” The parents are old school and will not hire a nanny. According to People.com, Kutcher shared, “We want to be the people that know what to do when the baby’s crying to make the baby not cry anymore. We want to know, like, when she makes a little face or something, we want to be emotionally in touch with her. And I think the only way to do that is by being the one who's there."

This celebrity couple is taking care of their celebrity baby without extra help. What are some things to consider when determining your best childcare option?

Cupid's Advice:

There's a lot to plan for when it comes to raising a child, and one of those things includes childcare options. Some parents may choose the same route as this celebrity couple and forego the additional aid. To help you make your decision, Cupid has some advice:

1. Your child's age: The age of your kid definitely plays a role when deciding what childcare option is best. If they are really young, it's important to spend extra time with them. However, some opt to have a baby nurse and/or nanny with them right after childbirth, which can be a nice way to learn what to do. It's important to be there for them during all of the stages in their lives, so choose whatever makes the most sense for you. Hiring a trained nanny when you can't be around is a good idea, as is having your family members and friends babysit when needed.

2. Time away from them: An important aspect in picking childcare is knowing the time frame. How long will you be gone? How often will you need childcare? Do some research! If you only need a babysitter occasionally, then have a few people that you trust on file. If your schedule has a specific time that you'll require childcare consistently, then work that out with a nanny or nursery school program.

3. Your normal routine: Figuring out what kind of job schedule you and your partner have is key. Some jobs have flexible hours, whereas others do not. Work out your hours with your employer and your partner, so that one of you can always be with your kids. Establish some kind of routine that is consistent. Some people opt for working from home in an effort to reduce how much childcare is needed.

How do you establish yourself as an individual after being part of a couple for a long time?

After a breakup though, it's time to rediscover what makes you tick. Here are three ways to establish yourself as an individual after being part of a couple for a long time:

1. Invest in a new hobby: Have you always wanted to learn how to knit? Or do you want to take photography classes at your local arts center? Sign up now! Embrace your newfound independence. Instead of wallowing in your loneliness, take full advantage of your free time and put it to good use.

What are some ways to recover from a breakup after a long-term relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Being heartbroken can make you blind to moving on, so you need to recover a bit and get your life back. Cupid has some tips:

1. Don't act scornfully: Lashing out at your ex via phone call, text, e-mail, etc., will only worsen the hurt you're experiencing. Instead, whenever thoughts of the break-up cross your mind, choose a peaceful thought or action- like meditation, yoga, or talking to your friends- to ease the sting.

2. Stay busy and productive: It has been proven time and time again (by no one but ourselves) that slumping on the couch with a sad movie and ice cream doesn't help. Don't put your life on hold because of a split! Channel the emotions positively and excel at work, school, or your favorite hobbies.
