

Robin Williams Dies From Suspected Suicide; Wife Releases Statement

By Laura Seaman

On August 11, 2014, the world lost beloved actor and comedian Robin Williams. He was known for legendary roles in movies such as Dead Poets Society, Mrs. Doubtfire, Jumanji, and many others. The star died at age 63 and left behind a wife and three children from previous marriages. His third and current wife, Susan Schneider, told UsMagazine.com, "This morning, I lost my husband and my best friend, while the world lost one of its more beloved artists and beautiful human beings. I am utterly heartbroken. On behalf of Robin's family, we are asking for privacy during our time of profound grief. As he is remembered, it is our hope that the focus will not be on Robin's death, but on the countless moments of joy and laughter he gave to millions." Rest in peace, Robin Williams.

What are some ways to deal with the loss of a loved one?

Cupid's Advice:

Death is a topic everyone tries to avoid, and yet it's something everyone has to deal with in their lifetime. It's a big, permanent change for those who were close to the deceased. It's having to know that someone who was once a part of your everyday life is no longer around, and they never will be again. This is a stressful time, and understandably so. You don't have to go through it alone, and there are plenty of ways to try and cope with the pain:

1. Remember the good times. Death is a sad occasion, but it is still possible to be happy. After all, your loved one wouldn't want you to suffer. Remember their lifetime instead of dwelling on their death, and keep those memories alive. Put together a scrapbook, or take a day to sit with friends or family and go through all of your memories of being with your loved one and how great it was having them around.

2. Surround yourself with caring people. Chances are you're not the only one dealing with the death of your loved one. Find others who were affected and come together to give each other support. It's better to remind yourself that you're not alone in this situation and to use this time to help others who are also hurting.

3. Do what feels right to you. Everyone handles death differently. Your friend might cope by keeping busy and moving on right away, while you might need to take some time to adjust to this loss. And that's okay! Cope with this the way you feel comfortable with, and don't pressure yourself to act differently or move on faster than you're ready to.

Daniel Radcliffe Says Girlfriend Erin Darke Is "Definitely" His Best Friend

By Ann Luther

Daniel Radcliffe seems to have it all these days. In addition to a booming career, including a stint on Broadway, he's happily in love with girlfriend of two years, Erin Darke. The couple met in 2012 while filming the movie Kill Your Darlings and have been together ever since. In a recent interview, Radcliffe even told UsMagazine.com that Darke is "absolutely" his best friend. "I think that's the kind of relationship I always aspire to have with someone I'm in a relationship with. You want that person to be your best friend," he candidly shared. "In the case of Erin, we definitely are."

What are some advantages of your partner being your best friend?

Cupid's Advice:

Having your partner be your best friend can create a sense of ease and comfort in your life that is unimaginably good. So what are a few of the benefits of this two-in-one relationship?

1. There is no such thing as “too much information”: When there is a strong foundation of friendship supporting the romance, there is more trust. If you and your partner start as friends, you can break down more barriers, which leads to more honest communication. There are no secrets because you do not fear judgment or betrayal from someone who is already your best friend.

2. Activities are more fun: In a typical romantic partnership, there is a ton of fun, but you probably find the need for a night out with your buddies to get into some different antics that you wouldn’t embrace with your significant other around. However, if your beau is your best friend, you’ll probably feel comfortable including each other in your friends-only activities, which leads us into our final point...

3. There is no need to keep your friends separate: Chances are, your sweetheart is already in your group of close friends. That means no neglecting your pals for your partner or vice versa. It also means that, when you’re just hanging out, you get to be surrounded by everyone you love, not just your love. Of course, when the night is over, your best friend turns back into your other half, and the fun continues with the two of you alone!

'Hunger Games' Star Leven Rambin and 'True Blood' Alum Jim Parrack Are Engaged

By Ann Luther

We all saw True Blood alum Jim Parrack's heartbreak when he ended his marriage to his wife of six years, Ciera Parrack. However, he quickly moved on, proposing to Hunger Games star, Leven Rambin, after only a few months of dating. According to UsMagazine.com, they even made their big news official on Facebook: Parrack changed his relationship status to Engaged over the weekend. The new couple does, in fact, seem very happy in this Instagram video they posted announcing their hiatus from social media. Best of luck to the adorable pair!

How do you know when you're ready to move on post-divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorce is one of the most difficult things a person can go through in life. It is the end of something that was supposed to last forever. It's hard to believe that you'll someday move on – and maybe even find love again – when you feel so wrought with despair. However, know that you will feel closure and happiness again...eventually. So how do you know when the time is right to open up your heart to someone new?

1. You're going out with your friends: If you can go out with your friends, you can go out on a date. Put a little extra effort into your beauty routine to make yourself feel your best. Even if you're not ready to get into a serious relationship, going on a date is a simple step in the right direction.

2. You miss what you had but not your ex: There is a big difference between missing a person and missing a feeling. When you lose a partner, it's almost always best to leave that person where they belong: in the past. A feeling, however, can always be found again. It may not be the same feeling you had with your ex, but it will be extraordinary because that is what love is. The important thing to remember is that you will have many loves in your life. Don't give up!

3. You're okay with being alone: Something we all struggle with is recognizing the difference between being alone and feeling lonely. Being alone is a part of life, even when you're married. You should be at peace with your thoughts, your choices, and your life. There is nothing scary about being alone. You are free in so many wonderful ways!

Celebrity Interview with 'True Blood' Star Jamie Gray Hyder: "It's Nice to Be With Somebody Who Can Take Care of You"

By Sarah Batcheller

Jamie Gray Hyder is a young, energetic actress currently starring as Lucia, the sultry sister of a drug lord on USA'S Graceland. Video gamers may also recognize her as Echo in PS4's Killzone Shadow Fall. Hailing from the Washington D.C. area and being a proud University of Georgia alumnae, she stuns audiences across the nation with her exceptionally sexy and adventure-seeking characters, but she may be best known for her role as Danielle, the spunky, tenacious werewolf on HBO's True Blood. Of the show's epic final season, she says in our celebrity interview, "It's already been pretty intense, and I think we're going to see a lot of the same – I think we're going to lose a lot more people we've come to love!"

Celebrity Interview with True Blood Actress

The Virginia native is spending much of her summer on the set of Graceland. In fact, she was gearing up to film the two-hour finale episode when we spoke with her. For fans anxiously waiting to find out what happens next, she shares, “You can see a lot of things starting to brew, so you can expect the more recent plotlines that have been introduced to really start to develop and play out. You’re going to see a lot more happen between Johnny, Carlito and Lucia!”

Hyder has a firm grasp in her newfound stardom and certainly hasn’t let fame change her approach to love – not that she has much time for romance right now. “I’m in a relationship with whatever show I’m on at the time,” she says with a laugh. Now, that’s true dedication!

Related Link: Courtney Robertson Tells All In New Book: “I Really Didn’t Hold Back!”

Still, she’s got some very focused opinions on what she wants in a guy. She’s looking for a man who is comfortable with himself and capable of taking the reins in their relationship and love. “I can be stubborn, and I can be sort of like a manager,” she admits. “I want someone who puts me at ease, so I don’t feel the need to be that way. Plus, it’d be nice to be with somebody who can take care of me occasionally.”

Not surprisingly, the actress acknowledges that dating in the spotlight can be tough, particularly because people aren’t always interested in you for respectable reasons. “You’re going to get those guys who really appreciate you for you and a sea of others who are only interested because of what you’ve done or where they see you going.”

Jamie Gray Hyder Shares Dating Advice

Regardless of what kind of man eventually captures her heart, she believes that communication is most important in any partnership. “You have to be able to talk to each other about whatever it is that needs to be discussed,” she explains in our celebrity interview. “If your partner is going to be defensive or disrespectful, it makes it really hard to have a conversation. Good, open communication can really be helpful to any problem you may face.”

Of course, if you can't work through certain issues, the sensible star encourages girls to recognize that truth and move on, no matter how hard it may be to say goodbye. Sharing her best dating advice, she says, “You're supposed to be with more than one person in order to figure out who's right for you. A relationship and love that doesn't go as planned or ends in heartbreak shouldn't really feel like a failure because it's just part of the process. You need that step to get to the right guy.”

Related Link: ‘Bachelorette’ Star Desiree Hartsock Says Confidence is Key to Finding Mr. Right

Hyder was rash and real while discussing the “friend zone,” an area that many women feel stuck in when it comes to their relationship with their crush. If someone's been lingering in that place with their love interest for too long, “it's indicative that you make better friends than romantic partners – otherwise, something would have already progressed. It's harsh, but it's honest!”

In the spirit of her own shining entry into Hollywood, she details her thoughts on how a busy, career-focused woman could better balance her professional goals with her relationship hopes. She remarks that it's important to know why both are big parts of your life, rationalizing, “If I weren't able to focus on my career and do a good job at my work, I wouldn't be a happy person or a suitable partner. So I know that my work is important for me to be a whole person, which is good in a relationship.”

After a little thought, she adds, “Having that warm human interaction and affection of a relationship and love, someone's who just there for you, is equally important too."

Taylor Swift References "Dramatic" Ex-Boyfriends at Teen Choice Awards

By Laura Seaman

Taylor Swift struck again as she made a clever comment about her ex-boyfriends at the Teen Choice Awards, according to UsMagazine.com. The country star was presenting the award for Choice Actor in a Drama Movie when she made the comment, "I was excited when they asked me to come and present this award, because no one knows more about dramatic males than I do." One of her exes, Harry Styles, won multiple awards with his band One Direction that night, and he ended up beating Swift for the Choice Smile award.

What are some ways to deal with dramatic exes?

Cupid's Advice:

Most people try to avoid drama, and for good reason. It's immature, annoying, and can seriously mess up relationships. It's hard enough to date a dramatic person, but sometimes it's even more difficult to deal with a dramatic ex. They can't seem to just move on, and they want everyone to know about it. Here are some tips to deal with that ex who doesn't know when to end the drama:

1. Unfriend and unfollow them on social media. Passive aggressive Facebook statuses and mopey song lyrics on Twitter can get really old really fast. If you really want to get rid of this annoying virtual drama, the solution is simple: get rid of that person on your social media. No more notifications from them!

2. Avoid places where they might be. Dealing with a dramatic ex is even worse when it's in person, so while it might be a bit inconvenient at times, it's worth it to avoid the award staring, whispering behind your back, or even a scene if your ex is super dramatic. If you know your ex is going to be somewhere, do your best to avoid that place at all costs! It's not cowardly, it's smart.

3. Don't give in to the drama. Sometimes your ex will try to drag you into the drama and try their best to make you respond. Whatever you do, don't give them the satisfaction of reacting! Ignore them and don't let their words get to you. Maintain your composure and let them make a fool of themselves without you. Sometimes it might be tempting to shout back and put them in their place, but this is what they want and will only make things worse!

'Bachelor In Paradise' Star Chris Bukowski on Celebrity Romance with Elise Mosca: Dates Were "Spectacular"

Interview by Whitney Johnson. Written by Sarah Batcheller and Shannon Seibert.

Bartlett, Illinois native Chris Bukowski was the fourth runner-up on Emily Maynard's season of The Bachelorette and was seen as a main competitor on season 3 of the Bachelor Pad. Since his initial reality TV appearance, he has molded himself into quite the entrepreneur as the owner of The Bracket Room, a sports bar and lounge in Arlington, Virginia. Earlier this summer though, Bukowski put his business on the back burner and returned to the small screen with the hope of finding a celebrity romance on Bachelor in Paradise (fourth time's a charm, right?).

Chris Bukowski on Looking for Relationship and Love on Reality TV

Related Link: 'Bachelorette' Star Marcus Grodd Is Engaged to 'Bachelor in Paradise' Costar

He recently created quite a media frenzy when he "crashed" the premiere episode of Andi Dorfman's season of The Bachelorette.

We saw on the Men Tell All episode that host Chris Harrison wouldn't let Bukowski come to the stage and meet her. "I was totally thrown off-guard when Chris said something to me – I wasn't miked or anything. He kind of bombarded me!" he shares in our exclusive celebrity interview. Still, he says that final pick Josh Murray "seems like a good guy for Andi."

When he got the call for Bachelor in Paradise, it was no surprise that he was open to the experience. "The producers approached me about it, and I figured, 'Why not?' I was able to take time off from the restaurant, so it worked out really well in that sense. When you have an opportunity to be on reality TV, it's hard to say no!"

Bukowski shows up on the island in tonight's episode and is immediately surrounded by familiar faces, including AshLee Frazier. Although he and Frazier were friends prior to the show, he says she was too busy with Graham Bunn to spend any time with him. "I knew almost everyone there, which made it a little hard to find a relationship and love. Obviously, if something was going to happen, it would've already."

Bachelor in Paradise* Celebrity Romance and Fling

Still, that didn't stop him from having a celebrity fling. The restaurant owner had a brief "showmance" with castmate Elise Mosca and gushes that their dates were "simple but at the same time spectacular – not your normal, real world dates." He also states that their celebrity romance is "too good to spoil" for Bachelor in Paradise fans, refusing to share any of the hot details.

Evidently, a happy ending isn't in the cards for this entrepreneur, though. Sources close to us reveal that Bukowski only stays in paradise for two episodes, sending himself home next week. Still, he doesn't blame the show's format for his failure to meet someone special. "I've seen it work on reality TV before, so it was worth a shot. Plus, it's really hard to find a relationship and love in the real world! At the end of the day, I just wanted to have a good time – and I did."

In regard to the Jesse Kovacs drama that audiences are wildly anticipating later this season, the blue-eyed contestant admits, "I'm definitely caught up in some of my own controversy on tonight's episode, but I'm not around when Jesse gets there, so I'm not sure what kind of trouble he got into." Well, now we're awaiting two scandals! Make that three gossip-worthy moments as we watch ousted Michelle Kujawa's love life unravel...

Another source shares that Bukowski and fellow Bachelor in Paradise contestant Christy Hansen (who hasn't shown up in Tulum, Mexico yet) became good friends prior to the show after meeting in Chicago. Unfortunately, Hansen arrives in paradise after Bukowski is gone, so audiences won't get to see them together. While the hopeless romantic clarifies that they're not dating, he won't confirm whether or not he's single.

Related Link: New Beginnings for Old Flames on 'Bachelor in Paradise'

Back in the real world, Bukowski maintains his determination to find love, as many of his fans witnessed during his recent search for "Deerfield Abby." The Bachelorette veteran describes how he and fashion blogger Dana Weiss of Possessionista tracked her down: "Dana saw that I posted on Facebook that I was looking for someone in Deerfield, Illinois. Once Dana and I connected, it turned into quite the extensive search and got way bigger than I thought it would."

Dana is amazing, and she definitely helped find the Abby I was looking for, but it turns out that Abby has a boyfriend, which is why her friend was so mad about Dana's post. At the end of the day, it was settling to be able to find her even though nothing happened from it – except for now I have about 15 new friends named Abby.”

As his time on Bachelor in Paradise comes to an end (for now, at least), his business continues to flourish. “We just signed a deal that will open two more Bracket Room's,” he says enthusiastically. “We'll have one at Reagan National Airport and Dulles International Airport, both in Washington, DC.” He's also launching a cold-pressed juice brand this December in Chicago. “I'm not releasing the name for another couple of weeks though.”

Keep up with Chris on Twitter @ChrisJBukowski. Be sure to tune in to Bachelor in Paradise on Monday nights at 8/7c on ABC!

David Arquette Says He Doubts He'll Attend Ex Courteney Cox's Celebrity Wedding

By Courtney Omernick

Even though David Arquette has remained close with his celebrity ex Courteney Cox, he doubts that he will be attending her upcoming celebrity wedding to Snow Patrol band member, Johnny McDaid. According to UsMagazine.com, Arquette said about his relationship with Cox and her fiancé, “We are all very tight and very close and very supportive of everyone.” These two celebrity romances have proven that, even among the stars, friendship with exes is possible!

Celebrity romances don't always end in drama! What are some ways you can also remain supportive of your ex post-split?

Cupid's Advice

It can be challenging to remain close or develop a friendship with your ex post-split, but if you're looking to remain supportive of them, Cupid has you covered! Check out our love advice below:

1. Focus on yourself first: If you want to go back to just being “friends” with your ex, the first thing you need to do is focus on yourself and lose your “couple” identity. Take some time to be away from the person and work on you as an individual. Deal with the break-up in your own way before connecting with the other person again.

Related Link: Courteney Cox's Fiance Johnny McDaid's Mom "Loves" Her

2. Support their milestones: After you've spent time away from the relationship and understand yourself as an individual, you can show the other person your support through simple texts, e-mails, and phone calls. For example, if your ex just finished their first marathon, extending your thoughts through a “congratulations” text can show them that you're still a part of their support system. We're sure that Arquette expressed his happiness about Cox's upcoming celebrity wedding!

3. Be a resource: If you hear that your ex is going through a hard time with a family member or having problems with their computer, make sure they know that they can come to you for advice or help. Assisting them in finding a solution for their problems shows that you still want to remain active in their lives and support them through difficult situations.

Kendra Wilkinson Wears Telling T-Shirt Post-Divorce Lawyer Meeting

By Courtney Omernick

It looks like Kendra Wilkinson is letting her clothes do the talking. According to UsMagazine.com, Kendra Wilkinson stepped out of her divorce lawyer's office on August 8 wearing a shirt that said, "I'm Not Sorry." As previously reported, Wilkinson's husband, Hank Baskett, cheated on her with a transgender YouTube model named Ava Sabrina London back in April.

What are some ways to cope with the divorce process?

Cupid's Advice:

When you get married, the last thing you want to think about is the possibility of divorce. But, unfortunately, divorce is more common than we'd like to believe. So, if you find yourself going through this painful time, what are some ways you can cope with the process? Cupid has provided some tips below:

1. Recognize that it's ok to have different feelings: One moment, you may feel relief that your marriage is coming to an end, and the next, you might become extremely frustrated with what's going on. It's normal to have a number of different emotions during this time. Leaving your past behind and exploring a new future is an emotional journey for anyone!

2. Give yourself a break: As if you're life wasn't busy enough before the divorce process started, now you're dealing with paperwork, custody battles, and mixed emotions. It may seem weird to suggest a break during this hectic time, but don't be afraid of not giving it your all on the job or your fullest attention to your friend's needs. This process and how you handle it comes first.

Jason Aldean Defends Relationship with Former Mistress

By Jessica DeRubbo

Jason Aldean is speaking up for his new girlfriend and former mistress Brittany Kerr, according to UsMagazine.com. The country singer recently posted on Instagram, and the caption says, "So sick of people judging me and @brittanylkerr over things they know nothing about. I have made mistakes but i am a better person because of it, and wouldnt change a thing. Im happier than i have ever been, so thank u to all the people who support us. We are happy and life goes on. Its time to move on people.” The duo has been together since Aldean filed for divorce from his wife of nearly 12 years, Jessica Ussery, in 2013. They went public with their relationship in April 2014 while walking the red carpet together at the 2014 CMT Music Awards.

What are some reasons to defend your relationship to family and friends?

Cupid’s Advice:

Defending your relationship is never something you want to have to do, but some situations simply call for it. Cupid has some scenarios in which it might be not only okay, but necessary, to step up to the plate to defend the one you love:

1. Inaccurate accusations designed to hurt: Some rumors aren’t worth addressing, but when an accusation or assumption is hurting your significant other, it’s time to take action.

Related: Jason Aldean Is Dating Mistress Brittany Kerr Post-Divorce

2. When you need to set the truth free: Sometimes family and friends get the wrong idea and believe your relationship is something it’s not. It’s time to set the record straight, especially if you can see your relationship being long-term.

Related: Jason Aldean Walks First Red Carpet with Brittany Kerr

3. Control is now out of the question: If you can no longer keep tabs on a situation and it seems to be spiraling out of control, it’s time to defend your relationship. If you let things go too far, there may be lasting emotional damage.

What are some other instances in which you should step in to defend your relationship? Share your thoughts below.

'The Bachelorette' Star J.P. Rosenbaum Talks Celebrity Baby News, "Dad-chelor" Party, and Moving to Miami!

By Lori Bizzoco

Long Island native J.P. Rosenbaum won Ashley Hebert's heart (along with the rest of the women in America) when he proposed to her on Season 7 of The Bachelorette. The fairy tale-esque celebrity couple married a year later and are now happily preparing for more marital bliss as they welcome the birth of their son this October, otherwise known as Baby R. We had the chance to ask the 37-year-old construction manager some questions about the upcoming arrival of “Rosenbump,” as he likes to refer to the little guy on Twitter, as well as the reality TV couple’s move to Miami a few weeks ago and tonight’s “dad-chelor” party.

The Bachelorette* Winner Opens Up About Celebrity Baby News

When it comes to his celebrity baby news and becoming a father, the Hot Skates lover tells us, “I think I’m probably most nervous about the unknown. There’s only so much information you read about on the Internet or that’s told to you by friends and family.” He gives us an example by saying, “I’m not looking forward to the time where I’m sitting there with my son and not having a clue in the world what to do.”

Understandable, given that the proud parents-to-be are choosing to “go at it alone” when it comes to taking care of the baby. The DIY dad tells us that they have a good support system in Miami and they will have family visiting in the beginning. “Ashley’s mom will be coming down for two weeks after the baby is born, and my parents will also be around for at least a week.”

Rosenbaum confirms that the Miami locals will follow some of the Jewish traditions when it comes to the birth. “We’ve already decided to give the baby a middle name using the initial of a family member who has passed,” he says in our exclusive celebrity interview. The reality TV star also tells us that they will definitely be having a Bris. “Chris Harrison is gonna be our moyel,” Rosenbaum half-jokes. Given that the Bachelor host officiated their wedding, one never knows if he's kidding or not!

But there was no joking around when it came to keeping tight-lipped on possible names for Baby R. "Ash has her favorite, and I have mine," the dad-to-be shares. "I'm pretty sure her choice is going to beat out mine. At least I'll get dibs on picking the Hebrew name!"

In celebration of their celebrity baby news and to help calm Rosenbaum's nerves a little, Mike's Hard Lemonade is throwing the reality star a "Dad-chelor" party tonight on a gorgeous rooftop in NY. "This is my first Dad-chelor party experience, and I'm excited to get together with everyone for an evening of poker," the Herricks alum says. "We've got our own dealer, lots of food, and of course, Mike's Hard Lemonade, for a night of male bonding."

J.P. Rosenbaum will celebrate his Dad-chelor party with Mike's Hard Lemonade.

Rosenbaum will be celebrating the evening with his father, brother, and a few close friends, including Mikey McLean, who is also from The Bachelorette Season 7. He adds, “It’s more than just a last night out – it’s a way to celebrate my entry into parenthood.”

Reality TV Star Shares Relationship Advice for Son

The well-known romantic hopes his son will pick up a few key pointers from him when it comes to the ladies. “Always treat a woman with respect. I grew up in a household where my mother was put up on a pedestal – and rightfully so,” he shares of his best relationship advice. “I have always tried to do that with Ashley and will certainly pass that along to my son.” (Can we clone this guy?)

With so much going on, we couldn't help but ask how Boo was adjusting to all of the changes. "Boo is livin' it up!," Rosenbaum laughs.

Celebrity Interview: Katherine Heigl Says "Family Comes First"

By Shannon Seibert

Katherine Heigl has become the ultimate celebrity mom since adopting her two beautiful daughters, Naleigh, 5, and Adalaide, 2. This September, the actress graces the cover of Good Housekeeping and opens up about living in Utah with her husband Josh Kelley and their kids. Heigl recently opened up to Celebrity Baby Scoop in a celebrity interview about her experiences with each of her daughters and the pleasures of being a mother.

What was it like starring on Grey's Anatomy after adopting Naleigh in 2009?

KH: "I would come home angry and frustrated that I'd missed everything with my kid that day. I didn't get to wake her up from her nap or do bath time or bedtime. I'd have to sneak into her room and kiss her when she was sleeping, hoping not to wake her up. I felt like my priorities were messed up. I was putting so much time and energy into just my work, but I was raised [to believe] that family comes first.”

How is living in Utah?

KH: “We had big dreams of expanding our family, moving to the mountains, and having a quieter life. Utah is spectacularly beautiful; the people are wonderful and kind; it’s an easy commute from L.A. – and there’s no traffic!”

KH: “We brought her home, and right away, Naleigh was like a little mommy. She’d say, ‘No, no. You’re not holding her right.’ Or ‘She needs to eat again.’ I’d be like, ‘Would you back off? Just give me a minute!’ Naleigh would go off to her ballet classes and other stuff, and I would sit with the baby at home. I would read, and she would lie on my chest, and we’d lie on the couch with, like, four dogs and watch Friday Night Lights.”

Impressing the parents is quite the feat, but Courteney Cox has certainly mastered the art of making a lasting impression. Cox's fiancé Johnny McDaid's mother Pauline McDaid gushed about her daughter-in-law to be. Pauline shared that the Cougar Town star is extremely empathetic and that she feels like a part of the family. According to UsMagazine.com Pauline said the pair are happily in love, and can't wait to be married.

What are some ways to impress your partner's parents?

Cupid's Advice:

Meeting the family is a huge deal. First impressions say a lot about people, but you do want to make a lasting impression. The best way to impress his parents is to not try to be overly impressive. just be yourself and take these subtle suggestions into consideration for when you're with his family:

1. Remember stuff about them: It sounds simple enough, right? Remembering her favorite recipes, their hobbies, his favorite place to go fishing. All of the little things accumulate over time. His parents will feel appreciated that you would take the time to get to know them and want to learn about them. Ask them questions about how they met, funny memories, and what your partner was like growing up. They'll enjoy the conversation and you'll get to know them through the way they talk about him.

2. Not being afraid to be yourself: Your partner's parents are going to be looking for a good match for their son. They will value your honesty over everything else. Don't shy away from talking about your goals, plans, and what has made you who you are. If they can't appreciate you, then it's a good thing you're dating your partner and not his parents.

3. Be inclusive: There is nothing more exciting to parents than being included in their children's life. Be the one to reach out and invite them over for a barbecue, get your nails done with his mother, play a family game of poker, anything to interact with them. This way you won't just be the woman steering their son away, you'll be a part of their family too.

Kendra Wilkinson Is Meeting With Divorce Lawyers Post-Scandal

By Shannon Seibert

This could be the end for yet another Hollywood couple. Kendra Wilkinson is weighing out her options after her husband Hank Baskett's shocking cheating scandal with transgender model Ava Sabrina London. The beautiful blonde just recently welcomed her second child with the ex-NFL star into the world, her daughter Alijah. According to UsMagazine.com Wilkinson is definitely considering filing, but she wants to review her options before she makes the decision to call it quits with her marriage.

How do you decide whether or not to call it quits on your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

You thought this man was your forever, and now you're having doubts. Don't fear, it's normal for people to gal apart over the years, but it is a huge decision to separate completely. You don't want to stay with someone who can't make you happy, and you don't want to make someone stay 'for the kids' or any other reason that they would feel pressured to. Take these criteria into your decision making before you decide what is best for both of you:

1. There is no love left: There is a difference between loving someone and being in love with someone, but you have to be smart enough to know the difference. Once you have been married to someone for a period of time, the butterflies, the heightened emotions may diminish but this is the person you chose to be with forever. If you cannot remember who that person was, then there is nothing left for you to build on.

2. The trust is gone: You cannot be with someone who you cannot trust to make the right choices. If he's keeping secrets, lying, or going behind your back, that is not fair to either of you. Same goes for yourself. If you cannot allow yourself to be fully open in your marriage, than you probably shouldn't be in one. This is a partnership where both partners have to come together under a united front, and you can't stand together when you keep trying to stand alone.

Related: Megan Fox: "It's So Hard To Be A Working Mom"

3. You've exhausted every other option: Therapy didn't work, reaching out to loved ones, trying time a part, none of it helped. This is probably because you're at the stage when your hearts have already given up on one another. Once this happens, no matter what you try, you won't succeed because deep down, you don't want to. You want out, and maybe you're just not brave enough to say it.

George Clooney and Amal Alamuddin Get Marriage License in London

By Shannon Seibert

The wedding bells are ringing! George Clooney and Amal Alamuddin snagged their marriage license in London at Chelsea Town Hall. The pair has been engaged since April and the actor and lawyer power couple is planning their wedding for this fall. According to UsMagazine.com, a source says that this is the happiest relationship that Clooney has been in, and the pair have a healthy, and wonderful love.

What are some ways to know you're ready for marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is THE commitment. This isn't something you do just for fun, because your parents want you to, or because you're feeling pressured to. This is all about you and your man, so you want to make sure this is the right man going into it. Take these thoughts into consideration before you say "I do":

1. There is nothing holding you back emotionally: It is only normal for everyone to come with some sort of emotional baggage from past relationships. Before heading toward the altar, take a moment to breathe. If you don't find yourself drowning in other entanglements, secrets, or reservations, it's safe to say you can take this step forward with your love.

2. It's not about the wedding, it's about being married: As we grow up we are instructed about how our lives are supposed to go. You go from being a child to being in school, then graduating, getting married, and having children. This is supposed to be sufficient by societal standards but this is the person who is going to stand by your side forever. If you're just looking forward to wearing a white gown and the honeymoon, then marriage isn't for you. This is going to be hard work on both ends, and nothing will be easy from this point forward.

3. You're 100 % sure about your partner: If you can say wholeheartedly that you trust your partner with your life, then you're in safe hands. He's your knight in shining armor, who has been there for you through your ups and downs, has seen you in both positive and negative lights, and still finds you wonderful. You deserve eternal happiness, and you have to find that with someone who makes you feel good about yourself. There is no room left for doubt within a marriage, so don't take any into it.

Kim Kardashian Legally Changes Name to Kim West

By Laura Seaman

It's not Kim Kardashian anymore, it's Kim West! This reality TV star has officially changed her surname from that of her famous family's to her famous rapper husband's. With a new passport photo to go with her new name, she recently took to Twitter to announce her new name with the hashtag #Mrs.West. According to People, the former Kardashian has been a West on the social media site for a few months, and it was only a matter of time until she made it official.

How do you know whether to change your name post-marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

It's tradition for the bride to change her surname to that of her new husband's, but recently more and more women have been keeping their own names instead. It's a decision that takes a lot of thought, as changing your name is like changing part of who you are. It's a commitment that fits the importance of marriage, and if your marriage doesn't make it, your name will have to change yet again. It's a very public way of announcing that you're hitched, so there are a few things to think about before you make the choice:

1. Think of which name you will be using in your career. Many women might keep their own last names because it is the name that their clients and coworkers know them by. It would take a while for everyone in the workplace to get used to the new name, and you'd have to change things like your business cards, signature lines, and maybe even your email address if they contain your last name.

Related: Kim Kardashian Says She and Kanye Will 'Always Be in the Honeymoon Phase'

2. Consider how important it is to the groom. True, it's your name that's changing, but it's his name you're changing it to. Some grooms might not care whether or not you take their name, but others may feel strongly about the issue. It's something you should probably talk about before getting married, but something you should definitely discuss if you're not sure either way.

Related: Kanye West Shows Off His Wedding Ring

3. Ask yourself why you wouldn't. Yes, changing your name is a huge step, but it's a step you should be willing to take if you're serious about your marriage. If you can't commit to changing your last name, how can you commit to living your life with this person until death do you part? Maybe you have your own personal reasons, but make sure lack of commitment isn't one of them.

Justin Verlander Tosses Baseball to Girlfriend Kate Upton During Game

By Laura Seaman

Even celebrities have their little 'aww' moments together.

Model Kate Upton and her Detroit pitcher boyfriend Justin Verlander had their own cute couple moment at the Tigers and Yankees game on August 4. The baseball player tossed a baseball over the dugout and right to Upton as she caught it and gave an adorable grin. According to UsMagazine.com, the two started dating in 2012 but had a short split during that time. All was well again as they got back together and took a trip to the Bahamas. Now they seem happy as ever, enjoying each other's presence and sharing their little moments with the world.

What are three spontaneous romantic gestures to make for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Your partner knows you love them, but sometimes it's nice to remind them in a special way. Take the time to do something special and surprise them with a romantic gesture. It doesn't have to cost a lot of money or require a lot of planning. Small and sweet things are just as good as the big and grand. Even Justin Verlander knows that! Here are some great little romantic gestures to let your partner know that you care:

1. Leave a little love note for them. Even if it's just a simple 'I love you' written on a post-it note, these little handwritten notes can brighten up anybody's day. It means that you took a little bit of time to write down how you feel and do something nice for your partner. They can keep it and look at it whenever they want to cheer up.

2. Buy their favorite snack food while you're at the store. If your partner really likes a certain brand of cookies, or is absolutely loves some special type of chips, remember to pick some up the next time you're at the store. It might not seem like much, but it lets your partner know that you're paying attention and that you think of them even when they're not around.

3. Visit them at work and bring them lunch. Depending on your partner's job, maybe you could stop by the office and drop off some lunch for them. Sometimes work can be stressful, and seeing your face and knowing that you thought of them is a great way to put anyone in a better mood. Just make sure it's at the proper time so you're not interrupting anything!

Beyonce and Jay-Z Continue to Avoid Each Other on Tour

By Laura Seaman

All the signs point to trouble in paradise for Beyonce and Jay Z. The couple is currently on tour together, appearing to be fine working together on stage. However, a source tells UsMagazine.com, "They stayed separately in both New York and L.A. for several nights." Another source reported that Beyonce was seen looking at apartments by herself in New York City. There are multiple predictions that the couple will officially split after their tour, but an insider close to Beyonce insists that they are fine. "They have issues, like every other couple," the source said.

How do you keep your troubled marriage under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriages go through rough patches, but that doesn't mean anyone else has to know about it. Sometimes it can be embarrassing, and maybe once others find out they might start trying to 'fix' things or telling you that it was never going to work in the first place and encouraging a split. Here are some ways to keep your marriage troubles a secret:

1. Avoid going to events by yourself. You can probably get away with saying that your partner is busy during one family event, but when you start showing up everywhere without your significant other, things start to look suspicious. This is when you need to talk to your partner about working together to keep up appearances or just announcing a split.

Related: Beyonce and Jay-Z Share Wedding Video on Tour

2. Show a little PDA. If you're still going places together, that's a good step! However, it won't help much if you're sitting far apart and refuse to even touch each other. Try holding hands or sharing a kiss every once in a while. Tension can be easy to see, but affection is a great way to settle any doubts. And who knows, maybe it can help you feel closer as a couple and work on settling your issues!

Related: Beyonce's Sister Solange Attacks Jay-Z

3. Keep your fights between yourselves. This can mean two different things. First, don't have fights when you're with friends or family, even if they're tiny little snide remarks back and forth. These people know you, and they'll pick up on it. Second, don't talk about your fights with others. It's probably tempting to rant about a fight to your friends, but unless it's only one friend that you are absolutely sure can keep a secret, try to keep it to yourself.

Former 'Bachelorette' Desiree Hartstock Celebrates Upcoming Wedding with Bridal Shower

By Laura Seaman

Desiree Hartstock of the Bachelorette is celebrating her wedding, the date still undecided, with a bridal shower. The star had her shower with a group of her girlfriends, which included other former Bachelor contestants such as Ali Fedotowsky, Daniella McBride, and Jackie Parr. Hartstock's shower was at the Lombardi House and was posted all over social media in photos and tweets such as "BEST bridal shower anyone could ask for!!" According to People the couple now lives in Seattle had an engagement party back in February.

What are some ways to personalize your bridal shower?

Cupid's Advice:

A bridal shower is a great way to celebrate your upcoming wedding with girlfriends and family members. It showers the bride with love and affection, which is definitely needed to calm the wedding nerves and the stress of planning everything. If you want your bridal shower to be something special, make it unique to you! Every marriage is different, and of course every bride is different, so why not have a different bridal shower? Cupid has some advice:

1. Have a theme. Theme weddings don't always work, so maybe you could try to take it down a notch and still give the bride what she wants by doing a bridal shower theme. All of the guests should show up in the proper attire, the venue should be decked out appropriately, and the activities should be fun but with the theme. It's a great way to have fun and go all-out without having to go through the complications of a theme wedding.

Related: Sia Married Filmmaker Erik Anders

2. Play some games! This is a great way to have fun at any shower, and plenty of games revolve around the bride, so it's easy to personalize them. Trivia about the bride, Bridal Bingo, The (Almost) Newlywed Game, and Memory Lane are all examples of games where the guests get to know a little more about the bride while having fun at the same time.

Related: Avril Lavigne Receives 17-Carat Ring for Wedding Anniversary

3. Serve the bride's favorite food. Even if it doesn't fit the theme or is a bit weird for the occasion, the party is about the bride, so she should be able to enjoy her favorite food. This could be something completely casual like burgers or chicken wings, or it could be more elaborate like a three course meal. Either way, the meal should reflect the bride's taste. Literally.

Adam Levine Shares First Post-Wedding Pic with Wife Behati Prinsloo

By Laura Seaman

Newlyweds Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo were showing off their serious sides in a selfie that Levine posted on Instagram. The couple wore sunglasses and emotionless expressions as they posed at the camera. The two were married on July 19 in Mexico and had their 300 party guests gushing about how amazing the occasion was. "Adam and Behati set out to make this the most fun wedding that anybody has ever experienced and they truly did just that," a source told UsMagazine.com. Well it looks like the fun didn't end there for the couple, as they continue to post pictures on Instagram documenting their new lives as husband and wife.

What are three exciting things to do right after tying the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding is supposed to be one of the best days of your life, but that doesn't mean you can't have amazing fun afterwards! Most couples go on their honeymoon soon after their wedding, but maybe you want to take it a step further and kick it up a notch. These ideas will help you keep that giddy newlywed feeling alive long after you've said 'I do':

1. Go on a cross-country road trip. Instead of going the traditional route and going to the beach for your honeymoon, take some extra time to explore the entire country! Start in your hometown and make your way around until you've come full circle. You'll get a variety of exciting experiences, and you'll get to share them all with your new spouse. Not to mention this is a great opportunity to take tons of cool pictures together like Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo.

2. Take a mission trip together. Share your happiness with the people of the world and use your honeymoon time and money to help those who have less. Travel as a couple to a place where you can (safely) do charity work and immerse yourself in a foreign culture. It's an experience you can tell your children about and remember as a couple for many years to come.

3. Work on a big-time project. This could be a number of things, whether it's building your dream house or writing a book together. The process will let you become closer as a couple and the result is a testimony of how much you can accomplish together. Imagine how proud you'll feel when you can tell your friends and family "we built this together".

Megan Fox: "It's So Hard To Be A Working Mom"

By Shannon Seibert

Hot momma Megan Fox gave birth to her second son Bodhi just five months ago, and she's already set to hit the big screen on August 8th in Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles. The actress, 28, is also the mother to 22-month old son Noah and wife to Brian Austin Green. Fox recently caught up with Celebrity Baby Scoop to talk all things motherhood, expressing her joy on being a parent.

CBS: Do you feel like a mom?

MF: "I'll have these moments like the other day – three days ago actually – I was holding Bodhi, and Noah was running around. I was trying to manage both of them because my husband wasn't feeling well. My sister was with me, and we were talking. We were having some sort of theological discussion and Bodhi peed through his diaper and onto me. I was so exhausted that I didn't even bother looking for a wipe to clean me up. I was soaking wet, but I just let it air dry. I was too tired to be bothered with cleaning up my clothes or even my hands. My priority is making sure he's fine, and if he's fine, then whatever. That's sort of one of those moments when you realize how much your life has changed – especially for me because, once upon a time, I was a germaphobe! The idea of that would have like sent me hiding under the covers. Now I just embrace it and wear it, and it is what it is.”

Related Link: Daniel Radcliffe Says He Loves the ‘Idea of Lots of Kids’

CBS: How has motherhood changed you?

MF: “From the moment I gave birth and when I was in the hospital with him, even when he would sleep, I wouldn’t sleep. I would wake up every 10 minutes and look at him just to make sure he was still breathing. I think that was the first time I was just like, I love something so much that I will never be the same again. I will never be relaxed again because I will always be worried about him and hoping he’s OK and safe and happy.”

CBS: How exactly do you juggle work and motherhood?

MF: “I’ve never been an extraordinarily ambitious girl or career-oriented but – especially when I got pregnant with my first son and now my second – it’s so hard to be a working mom, especially when your heart is not in your work, when your heart is with your family. I have to work sometimes! I have to make at least one movie a year because I have to have a future and I have to be able to pay their way through college and be able to provide for them whatever they need in the future. I do need to work, and I do need to leave them. What that comes down to in terms of making movies is I’m looking for movies that shoot in Los Angeles – there are very few of them. I’m looking for movies or projects where I’m part of the ensemble so I can shoot in and out in 10 to 20 days. It’s all about time and trying to spend as little time away from my kids as possible.”

Related Link: Alicia Keys Is Pregnant With Second Child

What's it like having two kids under 2?

MF: "It's total chaos, obviously! Before you have kids, you really do not understand how much work it is and how consuming it is. Then you have one and you're like, my baby is my whole world – especially if you're trying to do it yourself. Every moment of the day is dedicated to this one baby. And then all of a sudden, you have two babies. What they need is so different. When I'm alone with them, it's really hard to manage because I also don't let them watch TV. It's not like I'm going to set Noah in front of the television so I can take care of Bodhi. I have to figure out how to incorporate Noah into the process and have him help me take care of Bodhi, and make sure he doesn't get jealous, and nobody's neglected, and everybody's needs are being met! It's difficult to manage that way, but also emotionally, I think for me at least as a mom, it's hard because I don't feel like I'm ever giving either one of them 100 percent of my attention or 100 percent of myself, so I carry a lot of guilt. Do they each understand how special they are and how much I love them and are they understanding that they're unique? It's hard to make each one feel like an individual when you have to raise them together and manage them together all the time."

What are three deal breakers in every relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone has their own personal conditions and deal breakers when it comes to relationships, but there are a few relationship roadblocks that most relationships can't get past. These are the offenses that end relationships and cause heartbreak faster than any others, and you had better watch out if they happen to you:

1. Infidelity. This is, of course, one of the biggest deal breakers in any relationship. Once a cheater always a cheater, and the minute you find out your partner is being unfaithful, it's time to kick them to the curb. Cheating is one of the most hurtful things a partner can do, and if they're going to carelessly hurt you like that, they aren't worth it.

Related: Audrina Patridge and Corey Bohan Split After Five Years Together

2. Disrespect. Teasing is one thing, but constantly putting your partner down and making them feel worthless is another. Any relationship should be an equal partnership, and if your significant other doesn't treat you as their equal, maybe they're not as great as you thought. Not only could this mean disrespecting you, but it could mean they disrespect your family and friends, who are important to you. If they really want it to work, they will have respect for everything you care about. Including yourself.

Related: Rob Pattinson Comments on Ex Kristen Stewart's Cheating

3. Failure to communicate. This one isn't so plain to see, but it tears down relationships just as quickly as the previous deal breakers. If you and your partner can't communicate, there is something seriously wrong. This could lead to huge fights and secrets that could tear apart your future, such as a sudden job promotion that requires moving far away or a past financial situation preventing you from buying that house you always wanted. You need to talk about everything, even if it makes you uncomfortable. If you don't, you might find yourself newly single thanks to this relationship deal breaker.

What are some ways vacation can bring you closer together as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

The perfect getaway can spice up your love life. A tropical paradise, a cozy cabin in the woods, or even the right mountain can spark a flame that you cannot at home. Vacations are an easy way to break free of the everyday work routine. You have no other choice but to focus on the person your with, which is why these three elements of a vacation are so crucial:

1. It creates a feeling of seclusion and intimacy: Vacations are perfect because they're all about escaping reality for a short while. When you and your honey travel together, there is an aura of seclusion that engulfs you. It's exciting to think that for miles the both of you only know each other. Nothing is familiar, so you make this place your own.

2. It allows you to have deeper conversations: When you're away from the hustle and bustle of your home life, you're able to find yourself focusing on topics of conversation that you may not have been able otherwise. The beach breeze coaxes deeper thoughts out of your mind that will flow freely like the waves of the sea. Relax and enjoy exploring the mind of your significant other.

3. Time isn't an issue: Vacations don't typically have set schedules, therefore you and your partner are able to move through activities at your own leisure. This way you and your man can discover fun activities that you both agree on, which can give you new experiences to build on. You may not be able to climb a mountain at home but here you can build some muscle, as well as solidarity within your relationship.

Like father, like son! Brooklyn Beckham is already stealing hearts. In the latest celebrity news, David and Victoria Beckham's oldest son is dating Chloe Grace Moretz. Moretz, 17, and Beckham, 15, have taken advantage of the time in which Beckham has been in Los Angeles. He has just returned for school in London, but according to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple has gone out on dates with other couples to "see where this is going to go." The If I Stay star has also talked of taking the aspiring model to her premiere for her newest release. Best of luck to our newest lovebirds!

Celebrity couples have to worry about avoiding magazine covers, but how can you keep your new relationship and love from attracting rumors?

Cupid's Advice:

No one wants to be on the receiving end of bad gossip, but by word of mouth, rumors travel at lightening speed. And where rumors start, doubt and insecurities seem to follow. You don't need anyone sticking their nose in your business, so consider this dating advice to keep your relationship and love private!

1. Don't publicize your concerns in your relationship: In your relationship, there are only two people: you and your partner. That being said, everyone else's opinions on what may or may not be going on are irrelevant. There is no need for you to be sharing the intimate details of your relationship to anyone else. If something is going on, talk to your partner, not the world.

2. Never argue in front of anyone: In a relationship, you're supposed to put up a united front. Arguing in public will cause both eyebrows and tensions to raise. So if you and your man ever disagree, wait until you are alone to talk it out. Couples quarrel – it's natural and human, but you don't need to make it seem like that's all you do or that something is really wrong. If it can't wait until you get home, ask to see your partner in another room to quickly resolve the issue.

3. Don't participate in questionable behavior: If you're out with a group of your ladies and you're flirting with another group of guys, this can raise red flags to everyone around you. It's okay to socialize and be friendly...but not too friendly. The last thing you need is for anyone to question your faithfulness. You want your partner – as well as your friends – to think of you as trustworthy.

What are some ways to keep your demanding work schedule from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Careers are important, especially when women have worked so hard over the years to earn them. But on the other hand, love is just as important in creating your happiness. Don't spend your days glued to a desk when you could have your lips glued to his. Learn to balance your demanding work schedule with these three tips below:

1. Prioritize your work-availability: Sometimes in the office you can create a set schedule for days in which you work, and in which you have off. With this, there will be no surprise on the days in which you work and do not work, so you won't have to anticipate any curve-balls. You will also be able to let your man know when your office hours are so you can set up time together accordingly. This type of block-scheduling can help you find a balance between working and spending time with your man.

2. Utilize the time you do have: One mistake every couple makes is thinking that there always has to be a plan. Some of the best dates and adventures spur from spontaneity. Don't waste your time sitting around trying to come up with something to do. Go for a walk until you think of something, hold hands, kiss a lot, and eventually you'll both be able to find happiness from just being in each other's company.

3. Schedule time off together: It's okay, you can actually step out of the office and enjoy time off every now and again. Schedule a couple of days each month for you and your love to retreat together. Go on a small trip, to a bed and breakfast, or even just lock yourselves indoors together. Anticipation will build about your time together and will only make your feelings stronger, such as Sia anticipating her wedding day.
