

Source Says Zoe Saldana is Pregnant

By Laura Seaman

An inside source tells UsMagazine.com that Zoe Saldana is pregnant! The actress and her husband Marco Perego, married last year in secret, are expecting their first child together. While Saldana has not announced this herself, the insider says that she is three months along. The star had just thrown a baby shower for her sister Mariel Saldana Webb earlier in the month.

What are some things to keep in mind for a dual baby shower?

Cupid's Advice:

Dual baby showers can be a lot of fun, especially when the moms-to-be are close to each other. It's celebrating an important step in life that you're both taking together. It also cuts down on costs and lets mutual friends and family celebrate two babies with one party instead of planning and taking time to plan a celebration for both. However, a baby shower is important to a mother and dual showers have to be planned so that both mothers feel equally special.

1. Consult both mothers on every decision. This means the food, venue, and games. If one mother makes more decisions than the other, it may feel like the party is more for one woman than the other. This can create bad feeling between moms and guests, or just make things a bit more awkward, and nobody wants that!

2. Do activities together yet separately. This sounds confusing, but it's very easy. To avoid making guests choose which mother to focus on, have them play games, open gifts, and cut cake together. However, each mother needs to feel like she is special. Don't have them open gifts at exactly the same time, but have them take turns each time they open a gift. Get two cakes, or have one mother cut each end of the cake.

3. Prepare for more guests. There are more mothers, so there are going to be more guests. Even if the mothers-to-be know each other, they are bound to have some friends or family that the other doesn't. Keeping this in mind, plan for more people when thinking of games and food. You don't want to have a game meant for a small gathering being played by a huge group. Stock up on everything!

How do you have fun with your partner on vacation?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you’re on vacation with your partner, you’re bound to have fun no matter what you’re doing. However, there are some ways to have fun on vacation that you may not have thought about! Here are some great activities to make your romantic getaway even better:

1. Get out of the tourist area and see the local shops. If you’re feeling adventurous and have a reliable map, look around the more local places that most vacationers don’t see. Visit that cozy little café, or explore the rustic antique shop outside the city. There are plenty of great places that so many tourists pass up just because they aren’t in the travel brochure.

3. Spend a day just relaxing. Many people think that when you’re on vacation you have to get going and do everything you can in the time you’re there. But you’re there to have fun! You can’t have as much fun if you’re exhausted. Sometime in the middle of your getaway, just spend a day relaxing at the hotel. Spend some time at the pool, watching movies while snuggling in bed, and just take the day to enjoy your down time together.

What are some fashion must-brings for your honeymoon?

If anything it gives you more of a reason to look stunning and show your man just how lucky he is to have you as his own. Here are some ways to look amazing on your honeymoon:

1. Bring a new, body-flattering bikini. If you’re going somewhere tropical for your honeymoon, you can bet that you’ll want to spend some time at the beach or by the pool. Show off your beach body with a bikini that flatters your shape and lets everyone know that just because you’re married doesn’t mean you’re boring.

Find Out About Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo's Wedding Reception

By Laura Seaman

Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo's wedding reception was one for the history books as guests raved about the party to People.com. "Everyone was having so much fun," one source said. "Adam and Behati couldn't stop smiling the entire night.” The reception, held at Flora Farms in Los Cabos, Mexico, included musical performances from Stevie Nicks, Maroon 5, Sublime, and bride Prinsloo herself. The food was all organic and the speeches “had guests laughing”.

How do you make your reception memorable?

Cupid’s Advice:

While the wedding itself is important, the reception is what everyone really looks forward to. It included everyone, and usually it’s a lot of fun. Many receptions follow the same basic structure including a toast by the best man and maid of honor, the first dance as man and wife, and then an open dance floor. These are great traditions, but there are many ways to spice it up and make your reception something special:

1. Have the wedding party do a special dance. Coordinated wedding party dances are becoming very popular. They’re fun, unique, and encourage others to get up and dance. If your wedding party is up to it, treat your guests to a fun and entertaining routine.

2. Include guest activities like a photo booth. Party games and activities let guests enjoy themselves even if they don’t like dancing. These fun events can be a number of things, and they’re bound to be a hit if you put enough creativity and effort into them. These activities can even lead to great reception memories like photos or take-home crafts.

3. Do a bit of couple karaoke. Use Levine and Prinsloo’s wedding as an example! Have the bride, groom, or both sing a song that means a lot to them. Even if the singer doesn’t have a particularly great voice, the crowd will still support them.

After all, it's their wedding day!

Jessica Simpson Gushes About New Husband Eric Johnson

By Shannon Seibert

Happily in love, Jessica Simpson and Eric Johnson are not the couple to shy away from bragging about the love of their life. Having recently exchanged vows on Independence Day weekend, the Johnsons According to UsMagazine.com, Simpson recent posted a photo to Instagram gushing about her man, captioning the image: "I love this man, our marriage, and everything in between."

What are some ways to keep the spark alive after marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is comforting because it has a form of security that no other relationship does. But in this security couples can get too comfortable with one another to the point to where they stop trying to attract one another. Consider these pointers when trying to keep the sparks flying between you and your man.

1. Keep courting your partner: Although technically you have won the game, you have to keep playing. In a strong marriage both people make an effort to continue to date each other. The flirting, date nights, and romantic gestures all seem to dwindle over time, but they are just as meaningful. Even if you are just posting a photo to Instagram like Jessica Simpson about her new hubby Eric Johnson, the gesture is still endearing and it reassures your partner that you're still attracted to them in every way that you were before.

2. Spend time away from each other: It sounds odd at first, but if you think about it, when you aren't all wrapped up in each other, there gives you time for you to miss the person you love. Even if it's just for a few hours a day, take time for yourself. The honeymoon phase of marriage doesn't last long, don't let Jessica Simpson and Eric Johnson fool you, but you can recreate the feelings of attraction just by going back to the basics. Plus, in doing so you'll also have new answers for each other when you ask your love about their day.

3. Be adventurous in the bedroom: Routine relationship can lead to routine sex. This man is here to love you forever, so you might as well get inventive in the ways he can love you. Try out some new moves, buy some new lingerie to feel sexy in, embrace your inner sex goddess. Nothing is sexier than a woman who knows what she wants so let your hubby know exactly what you want.

Adam Levine Marries Behati Prinsloo in Mexico

By Shannon Seibert

Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo are officially married. The couple tied the knot in a glamorous tent at Flora Farms in Los Cabos, Mexico on Saturday, July 19. About 300 guests joined them in the tropical paradise, bringing with them charitable donations instead of wedding gifts. The star-studded wedding was filled with many of Prinsloo's fellow Victoria's Secret Angels, Levine's band members, and other celebrity guests. The beautiful pair will be spending their honeymoon in the terrain of South Africa, according to UsMagazine.com.

Where are three unique tropical wedding destinations?

Cupid's Advice:

Tropical paradises are wonderful havens for romantic destination weddings. The crystal clear water, the island breeze, and the unique landscapes all create the picture-perfect venue for an island wedding. Just as it did for Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo, tropical scenery can only spice up your love. We've researched and have found these three unique tropical destination sites that could be the perfect place to host your special day:

1. Aruba: Is one of the smallest islands on the map and it encompasses a ton of island-based activities. Cliff jumping, cave dwelling, and concentrated waterfalls are all beautiful sites to see and things to do on the minuscule piece of paradise. Aruba also has multi-colored villages, spreading over areas lighting the scenery with brightly painted homes, shops, and other buildings, rendering it perfect wedding material.

2. Santorini: Grecian paradise straight out of a movie scene, Santorini hosts a lot of tourism and large events. It is a popular destination due to its beautiful white buildings, white beaches, and white towers. In Santorini there are also tons of wineries that could be beautiful spots to host an outside ceremony, or a bachelorette wine tasting. There is a beautiful view at every corner and is said to have some of the most beautiful sunrises and sunsets across the globe.

3. Tahiti: White beaches surrounded by dramatic mountain peaks sounds like a perfect wedding photo opportunity. Tahiti is remote in destination and is secluded enough for a tropical getaway without the burden of tourism. The islands of Tahiti are a great source of relaxation, with limited technology and lavish resorts, Tahiti could even be the destination for your honeymoon.

Sarah Hyland Says Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello Would Make 'Hot Babies'

By Shannon Seibert

'Modern Family' star Sofia Vergara is in all of the latest headlines for her new, sizzling relationship with Joe Manganiello. Her costar, Sarah Hyland, plays her niece Haley on the show, and she recently opened up to UsMagazine.com about Vergara's relationship. Hyland said Vergara and Manganiello looked really hot together. "They'd make really hot babies," added Hyland.

How do you know if steamy attraction is blinding your good judgment?

Cupid's Advice:

When a woman is asked to describe their perfect man the words "handsome" or "attractive" are usually some of the first words to come to mind. Looks are a vital point in chemistry between two people, but they aren't everything. When in a relationship with an extremely attractive partner, be sure to not let his steamy appearance cloud your judgement. Ask yourself these three questions to ensure you aren't allowing your vision to be skewed.

1. What else do you like about him? If your first thoughts on your man jump to the way his abs are chiseled, you may have to take a step back and get ahold of yourself. Yes, we all love a good washboard but what about your man's heart? If it isn't in the right place this relationship may just remain stagnant until one or both of you find someone to move forward with.

Related: 'Bachelorette' Andi Dorfman Brings Two Men to Fantasy Suite

2. Do you let him get away with more than you should? Say you're out on a date and as you're ordering your chicken marsala he starts talking up your waitress. Normally this isn't okay by any standard. You're starving but he can't help it, right? It's not his fault that he's so attractive. So you let him get away with it. This is an example of thinking with organs other than your brain, it's not just men who do it. Be sure to keep yourself from letting him walk all over you, or lead you to want to walk away.

3. You find your insecurities becoming more present: When you're dating an extremely attractive person, it's normal to feel insecure. In relationships, couples become hyper-aware of interactions between their mate and the opposite sex. You may fear that he will cross the line but remember that he chose you to be with. You're just as much of a goddess as he appears to be a god to you. Simmer down and cage the jealous green monster.

What are three factors to consider before getting engaged?

Cupid's Advice:

"Here comes the bride..." Not yet! You have wedding bells on your mind, but are not quite sure if it is the right time. After all, timing is truly everything. You and your partner have discussed taking the relationship further. Unfortunately, hesitation gets the best of both of you for various reasons. Cupid has some things to think about before agreeing to become one:

1. Compatibility: Can you see yourself with this person until the end of time? The attraction should be apparent and undeniable. After all, if you do indeed say "yes" or your partner does, you are planning to spend every day with them through the good and the bad. If you cannot envision yourself with anyone else, and they are your soul mate . . . it may be time for that life changing step.

2. Finances (of course): Not to say it all revolves around money, but it is a key factor to consider before making marriage plans. The two of you should keep in mind your financial stability. Avoid depending on each other for that security. Marriage comes with expenses.

3: Family: Be sure to talk with your significant other about building a family and the connection each of you have with each others' families. Do you want kids? What are some ways to capture romantic memories outside of pictures?

Cupid's Advice:

For decades, pictures have been one of the most common ways to have an actual tangible memory. Lately, you have been wanting to think outside of the box when it comes to capturing those special times with your partner, but nothing is coming to mind. Well, Cupid has some romantic ways to capture those sweet, precious memories other than by using photographs:

1. Love letters: Express your affection through a letter. May seem old-fashioned, but it takes time and thought to actually compose a few sentences in which you are telling your inner most feeling, AKA pouring your heart out on a piece of paper that can last a lifetime. Those words will leave an everlasting memory on your partner.

2. Video footage: Use the camera for something else, like capturing a video. Your love can be shown for seconds, minutes, even hours if need be. Your significant other will also have this to look back at if they are ever missing your face AND voice. Record one of your silly moments together, for those times when they may need a good laugh. Record a time during one of your weekend dates, for those times when you want to reminisce. Cute idea, right?

3. Small tokens: Give your partner a gift that will spark a memory you shared together, such as, a chocolate they may have fallen in love with while you two were at a candy factory. It does not have to be an extravagant gift, just something to let them know you haven't forgotten the little things. . . and neither will they.

Report: Scott Disick Was Hospitalized for Alcohol Poisoning

By Sanetra Richards

Blame it on the alcohol. Scott Disick can owe it all to exactly that for his recent hospital stay. According to UsMagazine.com, the reality star was reportedly hospitalized for alcohol poisoning during his belated birthday bash on June 22nd. Kourtney Kardashian's longtime love and father of two, partied and had several drinks at the Hamptons nightclub 10ak before being treated at Southampton Hospital. A source stated Disick "went through a dark place" after losing both parents within the past year, but, "is doing great now."

What do you do if you think your partner drinks too much?

Cupid's Advice:

You have been noticing something strange going on with your partner lately . . . they have been looking to a bottle for an answer and comfort. You want to tell them, however, there is no easy way to go about it. One wrong thing could trigger an uproar. Cupid has some tips to get you there properly:

1. Be honest: Inform your partner of your realization, but be very careful with your approach. Avoid being offensive. Maybe comment on their lack of activity lately by saying you have not seen them doing their favorite hobby since they have started heavily drinking. Maybe even let them know you are concerned about their health. The main goal is to be empathetic at all times.

2. Console them: Behind it all, there is a reason why they constantly seek to drink. It comforts them for the time being. Pregnant Mila Kunis Goes On Burger Date with Ashton Kutcher

By Sanetra Richards

Mila Kunis is comfortably eating for two. The 30-year-old actress was spotted out in a nice black tank top and blue jeans with fiancé Ashton Kutcher as they finished grabbing a bite to eat at The Counter, a burger restaurant located in Studio City. The former costars announced a couple of months ago that they are expecting their first baby together. In the photo, Kutcher was seen opening the car door for the mommy-to-be. It's no surprise that Kunis has been dining out as of lately – she is indeed a growing woman. According to UsMagazine.com, a source said the Jupiter star enjoyed a meal with her mom at Blu Jam Cafe in Sherman Oaks, as the two watched the final World Cup game. “I eat sauerkraut all day long,” the actress spilled about her cravings in an interview with Ellen DeGeneres. “[It's] the worst craving to have because sauerkraut smells and so every time you open up a jar, it just reeks in the whole kitchen...It's not like ice cream where everything smells lovely.”

What are some ways to make a mundane date special?

Cupid's Advice:

When going on dates becomes a regular thing and the excitement begins to slowly fade away, a problem has surely presented itself. If you sort of shrug your shoulders at those “regular” dates, it is time to put the spark back into it. Cupid has some ways to turn your boring dates into what they used to be:

1. It's not all about the location: It's more so about who you are with. The date can be at burger shack (like Ashton and Mila), or it can be at a five star restaurant. No matter which end of the scale, the date can go either two ways: really good or really bad. The five star restaurant can be a disaster. The burger shack date can leave you with butterflies and a lifetime memory. It is indeed all up to you and your date to make worth each other's while. (Who wouldn't smile at a heart made of fries?)

Related: Mila Kunis Enjoys Her Sweet Pregnancy Cravings

2. Have a little life in you: Do not be the person who is equivalent to a brick wall during conversation. If the dialogue does not just flow like in some instances, find topics to talk about. Seem intrigued! Ask them about their day, or what is it they may like about the location of the date . . . something. Show that you are made up of emotions, one being excitement. Also, remember your inner child – act a little silly every now and again. You will keep things interesting.

Related: Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher Go On Movie Date

3. Spice it up: Even if you are going to that burger shack as mentioned before, maybe dig out an outfit from the back of your closet, spray on your once in a lifetime perfume, and apply your favorite lipstick. The date will take you back to your first, and you and your partner may even spend a few moments reminiscing on the past.

George Clooney and Amal Alamuddin Attend Her Cousin's Wedding

By Sanetra Richards

Aside from planning their own, George Clooney and fiancée Amal Alamuddin attended a wedding last Thursday, July 10th. According to UsMagazine.com, the bride-to-be was actually the officiant of her cousin, Tarek Miknas' nuptials, which took place in Chianti, a region known for its wine making outside of Florence, Italy. The 36-year-old attorney was dressed in a gorgeous purple gown as she officiated the nuptials at the Villa Mangiacane. The ceremony's location was designed with sweeping views, giving a beautiful sight of 600 acres of vineyards and olive groves. A guest also commented on Clooney's character, saying the actor "was affable and polite with those he met and made a big impression on those involved in the wedding." After the wedding, the soon-to-be married couple took a few photos with the bride and groom. So, when will be expecting the wedding for the future Mr. and Mrs. Clooney? A source says Clooney would "marry her today . . . but he wants to give her a dream wedding."

What are some advantages to marrying at a place with sweeping views?

Cupid's Advice:

When planning a wedding, the location is definitely key. Not only do you want the place to be memorable, but you also want it to be mesmerizing and close to breathtaking. If you are looking for both of these qualities in a venue, a setting with sweeping views will definitely do the trick. Cupid has some pros to choosing a place with a stunning view:

1. Amazing outlook: No need to fret, the attention will still be on you during the ceremony. However in the meantime, give the guests something to admire while waiting for you to grace the aisle. They will be in complete awe at the surrounding scenery – whether that may be the beautiful nature or antique buildings.

Related: George Clooney is Granted Protection Laws in Lake Como Pre-Wedding

2. Less time on decorations: Although you will have to add a special touch to the venue, a backdrop provides great detail to the place. With an outdoor wedding, the sweeping view is a part of the decoration. Focus on how to bring that out more so than the actual decorations surrounding the guests.

3. Sweet serenity: Admit it, the thought of marrying your love in a stunning venue with a nice background has you on the verge of tears. If not, by the end of ceremony you will be. Not only will the emotion piled up from the nuptials wet your eyes, but also knowing you are marrying the love of your life in such a remarkable place will also do the trick (and make for great pictures).

By Sanetra Richards

Two of the most talked about names in pop culture are definitely giving us something else to talk about. Kim Kardashian and Kate Middleton have a babies on their brains. According to UsMagazine.com, the ladies are planning for a baby number two in the near future. Both Kardashian and Middleton were due last July for their first bundles of joy, and from the looks of it, they may be pregnant again around the same time. The 33-year-old reality star gave birth to daughter North West on June 15th of last year, whilst the 32-year-old Duchess followed shortly after, giving birth to Prince George on July 22nd. Now the mommies are ready to add another to their families. “Kanye wants a boy!” says source of the Kardashian clan. Although Kardashian is no stranger to the limelight, she intends on keeping the next pregnancy under wraps for as long as possible (thanks to the criticism and backlash received in the past). “Kim won’t tell anyone until she’s five months along,” the source says. “She doesn’t want people scrutinizing her body.” The royal on the other hand, has her fingers crossed on being pregnant “by Christmas,” the Royals’ source told Us. “Will and Kate have siblings similar in age, and they want the same for George. They’re ready!”

How do you decide how many children to have?

Cupid’s Advice:

Building a family is definitely one of the most common, as well as important, conversations to have with your partner. Whether to have a small or big family, and in some cases no family at all. You may want 3 children, and your partner may only want one. So, how do you exactly decide on the number? Cupid has a few tips:

1. Agree on a good number: As mentioned earlier, if you and your partner are stuck on the size of a family to have, find a good number that you both can agree on. If you want three and they want one, maybe agree on two, instead. A little bit of compromise can go a long way.

2. Think of your finances: Are you both ready to take on your first child or possibly even more? Will you be able to provide, and maybe even go beyond that? Ask each other these questions. Your family size should be based on what you all can afford. If one baby is putting a dent in your pockets, consider waiting until the timing is absolutely right and you are financially ready.

3. Consider each other's wants: If your partner truly only wants a certain number of kids, take this into deep consideration. Just brushing it off can cause a lot of damage in the relationship. Your partner may even begin to resent you or you may notice an attitude change over time. Talk it out and come to a common ground. If more children are going to be added, set up a timeline. If not, keep it in the back of your mind as a possibility.

What are some ways to support your pregnant partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy is a unique, magical experience. However, sometimes it can feel less than magical to the mother. Some tasks are harder and everything seems to drain your energy a little faster than usual. That's why it's so important to have a supportive partner around! Here are some ways to support your partner during their pregnancy:

1. Take the time to be there. If you want to show that you'll be a supportive parent after the child is born, show your support for your partner by being there here and now. Take some days off work, put your phone aside, and spend quality time with your partner. Talk about what they're feeling, what you're feeling, and what you can do to help them out on a day to day basis.

2. Read the books and go to the classes. Preparing for a child, especially if it's your first, can mean reading a lot of pregnancy and parenting books or going to birthing and parenting classes. It shows dedication if you actively take part in these prepping activities and your efforts won't go unnoticed.

3. Do some extra work around the house. Even if it's the seemingly small task of dusting a room, cooking a meal, or getting some beautiful flowers to put on the kitchen table, these are small things your partner doesn't have to do and will thank you for noticing. Parenting means teamwork, and this is an amazing start for you.

Donald Faison Says Jessica

Simpsons Wedding Was a 'Major Dance Party'

By Laura Seaman

Jessica Simpson's wedding, which took place on July 5, was big and beautiful, as anyone can see from the massive media coverage. The reception that followed, according to one of Simpson's good friends actor Donald Faison, was "awesome". Faison's wife told UsMagazine.com that they had a wonderful time. Faison added, "We danced the night away!"

What are some unique ways to incorporate dancing into your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

For some people, dancing is awkward. For others it's a passion, maybe even a career. But to many of us, it's just plain fun and to be expected at any good wedding reception. Some people might have a hard time getting over the initial nervousness of actually walking onto the dance floor, so here are some tips to get your gets out of the seats and onto their feet:

1. Play songs that encourage group dancing. It might sound cheesy, and initially they might make you go "uugh", but songs like the Cha Cha Slide, the Cupid Shuffle, and the Wobble are all hits that many people recognize and know how to dance to. Even if they don't know at first, the steps are pretty easy to learn.

2. Coordinate a dance with the wedding party. It's becoming more and more popular for wedding parties to put together a choreographed dance for the guests at their reception. It doesn't have to be a work of art, or even super rehearsed. If your guests see the wedding party putting it all out there on the dance floor, they'll be more comfortable doing it, too!

3. Do a dollar dance! This is a tradition done by some couples at some point during the reception. The bride and groom go out on the dance floor and the wedding guests can come up and pay a dollar (or any amount really) to dance with either the bride or groom. The dance will usually last just a minute or two, as a line will begin to form eventually. Not only will it fill the dance floor, but it will help you get more money to spend on your honeymoon!

'The Bachelorette' Andi Dorfman Eliminates Chris Soules After Admitting Her Feelings Aren't as Strong

By Laura Seaman

In the latest celebrity relationship news, reality TV sensation Andi Dorfman has narrowed it down to two men on

The Bachelorette. Chris Soules, a farm boy from Iowa, was eliminated after his date in the Dominican Republic. Soules told Dorfman that he loved her, but according to UsMagazine.com, the reality TV star didn't feel the same way. "I don't think it's fair to make you sit here for days and wait for a rose ceremony," she said. "I just think I'd rather be honest with you and tell you that I'm trying and trying, but it's not there..."

How can you manage your relationship and love when your feelings are different from your partner's?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be extremely awkward when one person's feelings don't quite equal their partner's. If don't think you're quite ready for the level of intensity that your partner is, don't worry. There are plenty of ways to handle this issue in relationships and love, and they don't involve running in the opposite direction:

1. Be honest, and tell them to be patient: Don't just let them continue thinking you're more into them than you really are. It's letting them believe in a lie, and it's no better than just outright lying! The further apart your feelings get, the further apart you will grow as a couple, and if you don't fix it soon, the distance may become too much.

2. Ask them to double-check their feelings: Some people might want love so desperately that they trick themselves into feeling it when it's not really there. Make sure you're not a recipient of these fake feelings, and ask your significant other to really think about what they're feeling. This could bring them back to your level and give the relationship a more solid foundation.

3. Take a step back and start from the beginning. If you've just been going along with their strong feelings, maybe you're taking steps you weren't really ready for. This might mean moving in together, talking about future plans, or just saying things you don't mean. Ask them to take a step back and start again a few steps back.

By Laura Seaman

Penn Badgley and girlfriend Domino Kirke had a date night in New York City with both wearing casual jean shorts. The couple went for an evening walk around the city and grabbed a bite to eat while just sitting on a city bench. The two have been an item for a while, according to UsMagazine.com and have quite a few mutual friends.

What are some ways to influence your partner's style?

Cupid's Advice:

Nothing says 'cute couple' like coordinating outfits. As Badgley and Kirke have shown, even the most casual of matching outfits can look adorable. If you want your partner to start showing how stylish they can be, here are some tips to let them know without being obvious:

1. Go shopping with them and lend your opinion. If you're with your partner at the mall or at the store, point out pieces of clothing that you like and encourage them to try it on. Tell them how great certain clothes would look on them and encourage them to let you buy it for them, or to buy it themselves.

Say you were thinking of them when you saw it, and you just had to get it for them. Just remember to keep the receipt!

How can pets bring you closer as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting a pet is a huge decision to make as a couple. It's a living, breathing creature that needs your dedication and teamwork to be happy. It needs love, attention, and basic caretaking. It's not a child, but after a while you might come to love it like one. Here are some ways a pet can make you fall in love and make your love for your partner even stronger:

1. A pet is a shared interest. At this point it should be clear that you both want a pet, and that's one thing on a long list of traits you most likely share. However, this interest is more than a hobby. It's the desire to take care of an animal, and that's a very strong common trait to have. Not only does it mean you love animals, but it means you're willing to be responsible.

2. Your teamwork will be stronger. As long as you both put in the work, this pet will bring you closer as a team. Maybe you haven't worked on many projects together, but this pet is a project that you're responsible for. As it grows and becomes a part of the family, you and your partner can see just how great your work together can be.

3. It's a step in commitment. A pet is usually one of the first steps in creating a family. It's sort of a pre-child test. After all, if you can't take care of a dog, how can you take care of a person? This pet adds a sense of permanence to the relationship as well. The pet is something you both own and can call 'yours' not just 'his' or 'hers'.

Jenni 'JWoww' Farley Welcomes Daughter Meilani Alexandra

Mathews

By Shannon Seibert

This past Sunday Jenni 'JWoww' Farley gave birth to her first born child and daughter Meilani Alexandra Mathews. Farley and fiancé Roger Mathews welcomed their happy and healthy baby girl into the world after many long months of waiting. Farley had recently posted her final picture of her baby bump, commenting on how excited she was to see her daughter. According to UsMagazine.com, the former Jersey Shore reality star initially didn't take well to pregnancy, but was overjoyed to meet her daughter.

How do you support your partner through the final days of pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Just as Roger Mathews supported his fiancé Jenni Farley, a man can help make his partner's pregnancy more comfortable during its' final days. With the end in sight, each day seems to drag on, delaying the delivery of your little miracle into the world. In this crucial time it is imperative that each partner reaches out to each other for support in order to be fully prepared to make this wonderful addition to your family.

1. Have the birthing plan ready: Though sometimes things don't go according to plan, it's always best to be ready for anything. Pack the hospital bag, make the necessary arrangements, and have your list of people to call at hand so you can be out the door at a moment's notice. This will be one more thing you can check off your to-do list, and it never hurts to pack things ahead of time.

2. Get plenty of rest: The best thing you can do for your partner is to be fully rested and functional for when the special day comes. No one wants to be half-asleep or at 50% the day their child is born. This also limits the amount of stress you may be feeling with the approaching due-date. A minimum of eight hours a night may seem impossible, but for the sanity of you and your partner, and for the health of your baby, sleep is absolutely necessary.

3. Be there emotionally for each other: The thought of bringing a baby into the world can be terrifying at times. You're about to be legally and morally responsible for another human being. Not only will you love and cherish your child, but you'll constantly be worried about whether or not you're doing what's best for them. In these last few days of pregnancy emotions are at an ultimate high, so be there to calm each other down and support one another as your due-date approaches.

Victoria's Secret Model Lindsay Ellingson Marries Fiance Sean Clayton

By Shannon Seibert

Congratulations to the Claytons! Lindsay Ellingson married her fiancé Sean Clayton this past Saturday in South Carolina. The pair got engaged last Thanksgiving after Clayton's beautiful snow-proposal, adorning his bride-to-be with a custom oval diamond. The couple decided to have an intimate ceremony at The Inn at Palmetto Bluff exchanging "I dos" in front of less than 100 guests. The Victoria's Secret model gushed to UsMagazine.com about her man having "the biggest heart" and how she is ecstatic to be married to her best friend.

What are some ways to determine the location of your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Location, location, location! The venue of your wedding has a lot to say about you and your partner as a couple. Whether it's inside, outside, in a garden, or in a church, each wedding is unique to the couple that is being wed. You want to select a place that is special to you as well as your relationship. When selecting the location of your special day to take place, here are three things you should consider.

1. Consider the size of your guest book: You don't want to be cramming over 100 people into a small garden, or sharing an intimate wedding in a large church. When deciding where your wedding will take place you want the size of your venue to match the size of your attending guests. This way you can fit your guests comfortably, and you won't have to worry about overcrowding or spacing out.

2. Consider the weather that time of year: If you are planning a summer wedding things can get a bit hairy if you want the ceremony to be outdoors. Select a flexible venue so if the skies launch into a torrential downpour, you're prepared to relocate inside. Same thing for a fall or winter wedding. You don't want your guests to freeze, so an indoor wedding may be more optimal. This day is all about what you want your wedding to be, so time of year and weather are definitely factors to consider.

3. Pick a place of significance: For some a wedding venue is just a place, but for most their wedding venue holds a significant memory for the couple. It can be a beautiful church they visited in their days of dating, a lovely landscape that lies behind a family home, or a fairytale-esque ballroom that they've found after several months of searching. No matter the place, after the wedding this place will be a haven for memories for the bride and groom, so make it count.

Lea Michele Posts Touching Picture on Anniversary of Cory Monteith's Death

By Shannon Seibert

This past Sunday marked the year anniversary since the death of Cory Monteith who died of heroin and alcohol overdose at the age of 31. Former girlfriend, Lea Michele had been dating Monteith for almost a year and a half before his untimely death in 2013. Michele honored her love's memory by posting a touching photo on Twitter. The Glee actress tweeted: "We hold you in our hearts today, and every day we remember your smile. We will love you and miss you always," according to UsMagazine.com.

How do you honor the memory of a loved one who passed away?

Cupid's Advice:

Memories are some of the best gifts that life can give. Though our loved ones may leave us before we are ready, they give us something to hold on to for when times get tough. Honoring your passed loved ones may require more strength and acceptance than you're ready to give, but giving tribute to people who have touched your heart can give you a peace of mind.

1. Host an event: If your loved one has passed away from an unfortunate circumstance you can raise awareness about the issue by reaching out to your community. Start up an annual 5k for breast cancer awareness, or host a reach-out event for those who have lost family members and friends to suicide. In doing so you can educate your community on what you've learned through your experiences, and learn from those around you.

2. Go talk with them: It may sound odd, but by having a conversation with a passed loved one can make you feel closer to them again. Go to their grave site, or visit a place the two of you shared many memories at, and just talk. Tell them about your day, talk about memories, ask them for advice. By keeping them in your mind you'll never lose them in your heart.

3. Accomplish what you said you were going to do together: When you're with someone it is easy to make plans for the future, but when someone leaves unexpectedly it is even easier to want to forget those plans. Honor your loved one by taking the trips you said you'd take together. Be the person you told them you wanted to be. See the sights they wanted to see. By following through you'll feel closer to your loved one and you'll be able to do the things they cannot. This gesture to them is meaningful and shows the love you'll always have for them.
