Celebrity Couple News: Jenni 'JWoww' Farley & Zack Carpinello Are Back Together After Split

By Hope Ankney

In our latest celebrity news, Jenni 'JWoww' Farley and Zack Carpinello are back together! After the celebrity couple split only two weeks ago, it seems like the two have mended their relationship. According to UsMagazine.com, the reality star and wrestler were seen together twice after they announced their break-up. This is when they spent time at Universal Studios in Florida on October 18th, and when Carpinello hung out with Farley's children on October 12th.

In celebrity couple news, this split didn't last! What are some ways to decide whether to get back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting back together with an ex can be a difficult decision. Let's be honest, it's much easier to patch things up with an ex instead of finding someone new because it means we must get to know someone new which, usually, isn't something we want to do. As you've probably broken up for legit reasons, it usually doesn't stop lingering feelings from keeping the flame alive. But, it's important to know when these feelings aren't just the normal process of missing a past relationship. If you're unsure of whether to give your ex another chance, don't worry. Cupid has some relationship advice that can help you decide:

1. Listen to your gut: The first thing you must do when reconsidering an old flame is to listen to what your gut is telling you. A past relationship could've ended because you chose to ignore major red flags or never followed what your gut felt. If you're choosing to give this person a second chance, make sure you're willing and able to trust your instincts if things start to slide back into the same territory.

Related Link: Celebrity News: JWoww Is 'Hurt' After Boyfriend Makes a Move on Angelina Pivarnick

2. Address what ended the relationship: Sometimes, partners like to jump back together without discussing what made them split in the first place. But, those issues seem to always creep back into a relationship if they're not dealt with properly. It's important for a couple to build on their new relationship by learning from the problems that occurred in the past that led to their break-up. It'll help you both to understand each other's perspective on the situation, and it will stop similar issues from arising in the future.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Source Says Kylie Jenner Left Travis Scott Over Lifestyle Differences

3. Time has passed: Time heals all wounds, right? Or, so they say. It's possible that your relationship ended because both of you just needed some time apart from one another.

Sometimes, one needs to go soul-searching. Sometimes, both of you just need to learn to live life without one another to see if the relationship is right. It's often that when time passes, you have matured and grown as people. So, when you do find your way back together, it's like your relationship has recharged, and you've realized that you'd rather be with no one else.

Though the couple is taking time for themselves after the split, there seems to be no bad blood between the pair. Cupid has some relationship advice to help you navigate your life after the end of a long-term relationship:

1. Take time for yourself: Just like Hendricks and Arend, the best thing to do after a break-up is to take a moment for yourself. Take this time to understand how you are feeling and what you want and deserve. The end of a long-term relationship can be devastating, so allow yourself to feel all of the emotions that come with a break-up. Manage those emotions in a healthy way as the first step to getting over a break-up.

sharing relationship details on social media?

Cupid's Advice:

Making a break-up known can be hard. Whether it not to rip off the band aid and share it on social media is a tough decision. Cupid has some advice on how to post the ending of your relationship online:

1. Are you ready to admit that it is over?: Your feelings matter. How you move forward with the way you tell people about your ex is your decision. You don't owe anyone any explanations. Also, if it wasn't clear to you if you can rekindle this relationship, talk to your ex about it. Don't say anything until you're positive that it is truly over.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Approach Social Media Post-Breakup

2. If your ex is ready to share: Believe it or not some people would rather keep every detail of their life private. A breakup is no different. You both should agree on the way that you want to tell others that you are no longer together.

Related Link: Why Fans Think Lady Gaga Is Defending Bradley Cooper After Celebrity Break-Up

3. How will you tell the whole world?: You don't want to air your dirty laundry on social media. Try to do this from a professional standpoint. This is easier said than done, but using words like "we have come to a mutual agreement" or "we value each other and always will, but..." This shows maturity and will not make either party a target for trolls.

Celebrity News: Miley Cyrus Reacts to Comparisons of Her Recent Romances

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus is definitely throwing that wrecking ball all over the place after changing her celebrity relationship status for the third time. The former Hannah Montana star confirmed that she and her former girlfriend, Kaitlynn Carter, split in late September. Shortly after, Cyrus announced that she and Cody Simpson are now a celebrity couple. On October 3rd, the singer tweeted to her fans, “Get used to me dating- this is where I am at! #HotGirlFall.” The new duo are very comfortable with each other each other, displaying PDA and sharing a history. According to UsMagazine.com, Simpson says that the two met at the wrong time originally. “We had a lot of fun then ... but now we’ve found each other in a space where we’re not partying, working real hard and just like [to] keep things healthy,” she said.

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus is seemingly not amused with comparisons being done on her relationships. What are some ways to keep your past relationship from affecting your current relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Even though it is not traditional to jump from relationship to relationship, Miley is showing us that there is nothing wrong with doing so. Being a #HotGirl is a trending hashtag that is boosting everyone’s confidence. This was made in the hopes that women would feel more comfortable in themselves and moving on from broken relationships. Cupid has some advice on how to use that hot girl energy when dating someone new:

1. Don’t compare: Ladies, we all do this! However, if you are trying to move on with your new boo, don’t compare the two! Try to look for similar qualities like chivalry and taste in music. Don’t make your new bae your ex bae 2.0.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Working Through Your Heartbreak

2. Do new things: Try not to relive the past through this person. Take them to new places, so you can make new memories. Show them your playful side! Jump out of a plane together, or get tickets for a concert of a band you've never seen live. Keep things new and fresh.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 7 Effective Ways Out of a Breakup

3. Be open to change: While you look for similarities between you and your new partner, also look for differences. They might not be your "usual" type of partner, but don't give up on them too easily. Try to compromise. If they are more introverted, plan your dates at a more personal level. Taking a walk while holding hands or baking a cake together are two low-key ideas. If they are more extroverted, then you won't have any problems finding out what they want to do. If they tell you what they want to do that's outside of your comfort zone, consider doing it anyway!

This new celebrity couple seems to be hitting it off. What are some ways to know your new relationship is strong?

Cupid's Advice:

When you get into a new relationship, it can sometimes seem like everything is going so fast. There's the whirlwind romance, the attraction of everything that is fresh and new, and learning everything there is to know about this person. It can be fun and exciting, but it can also be difficult to know when a new relationship is becoming more than just a casual date. Fortunately, Cupid has some love advice on a few ways to know when your new relationship is going strong:

1. You're happy: This might seem obvious, but you'd be surprised how many people aren't genuinely happy with the one they're dating. Strong and healthy relationships should be full of as much fun and laughter as possible. We're not saying that every single moment of each other's relationship should be nothing but joy, but it should outweigh a lot of other emotions that make you both well... not happy.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Miley Cyrus Appears to Shade Exes Kaitlynn Carter & Liam Hemsworth in Post About Love

2. There's trust: Strong relationships cannot be built unless they have a sturdy foundation of trust. Communication and openness are a big key to having a successful bond with your significant other.

Knowing that you have a sense of comfort and safety within another person is one of the best signs of knowing if your relationship is going strong. Your significant other should be a safety net to you when you need them. They should provide you with a stable home and a sense of calm when you need it. If you don't feel safe within your relationship, maybe you shouldn't still be with that person.

Celebrity News: Matthew Koma Calls Hilary Duff 'Wife' Sparking Marriage Rumors

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Matthew Koma has, seemingly, sparked rumors that he and Hilary Duff have secretly tied the knot. According to UsMagazine.com, the musician referred to Duff as his “wife” in an Instagram post shared on Saturday night. In the photo, you can see the actress mid-laugh as she’s dressed to the nines. Many fans began speculating about a possible wedding ceremony, but neither party responded. Instead, Duff posted a photo to her own Instagram the same night of the two, detailing that they were attending the AdoptTogether’s 2019 Baby Ball in Los Angeles.

In celebrity news, is it possible that Hilary Duff and Matthew Koma tied the knot in secret? What are some benefits to keeping your nuptials on the down-low?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s not uncommon for celebrity couples to secretly get married. Their entire lives are handed to the public on a silver platter. Privacy is something they don’t take for granted, so it’s understandable that there are some aspects of their world that they would like to keep separate. But, this isn’t just helpful for celebrity relationships. It can be just as beneficial for anyone to keep their private life... well, private. Here are some of Cupid’s best relationship advice on why getting married on the down-low can actually be a good thing:

- 1. Filtered social media: The advancements in the visual aspect of social media has changed how we get attention from our peers. However, if you become obsessed with recognition and likes, it can negatively affect your relationship. It begins to blossom when a couple notices that they’re more in love with the idea of their relationship being flaunted online than they actually are being in the relationship. Keeping your marriage private can help in keeping both of your motivations pure as you step into the next part of your lives together. It's important to note when you're in a partnership with another because you have a genuine bond versus when you love the views that social media gives you for that partnership.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Country Singers Carly Pearce & Michael Ray Marry After 1 Year of Dating

2. Fewer riffs due to privacy: When you share almost every waking moment of your marriage online or with others, it hinders the relationship from having a bond that should be shared only with each other. Most spouses aren't exactly excited to know that the majority of their relationship is exposed to third parties. This can cause drama and unnecessary issues in your marriage when others know about problems or complications that are normally kept quiet.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Justin Bieber & Hailey Baldwin Tie the Knot for the Second Time

3. Less opportunity for exes to meddle: No matter what, it seems like some exes just don't allow you to ever be happy. The only thing worse than friends or family being in your marriage's business is if an ex is meddling in it as well. This can damage your relationship if your marriage isn't built on the strongest of foundations. Disclosing information to your ex or those who know your ex can be harmful, and it should be something that isn't taken lightly. Don't allow yourself to be vulnerable, and always be wise.

What are some ways that you've found being private with your marriage has been beneficial? Let us know down below!

This conflict is bound to end in flames that the celebrity couple may not survive. Cupid has some relationship advice to help you deal with an unfaithful partner:

1. Talk it out: Communication is an invaluable aspect of a healthy relationship. The most effective way to avoid drama and solve a relationship problem is to respectfully tell your partner how you're feeling. If your partner doesn't respond well in both words and actions to the flirting allegations, you should consider an alternate method.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Prince Harry & Duchess Meghan Are Considering Moving to Canada

2. Answer necessary questions: Sometimes it's difficult to keep a meaningful relationship hidden from those who you love and care about. ## Celebrity Interview: Leanne

Ford Talks Interior Design Advice and Upcoming Projects

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Meghan Khameraj.

Leanne Ford took the interior design world by storm and made a name for herself with a now-famous 1907 schoolhouse renovation in Pittsburgh, her hometown. The home which is referred to as The Schoolhouse Project was featured in Country Living Magazine, and helped cement her career. Since then, Ford, whose designs are best described as modern, yet lived-in, continues to build a following with her signature “white on white” aesthetic. She leads design projects in Pennsylvania, New York, and Los Angeles and is a published author and HGTV staple on top of it all.

In our celebrity interview, Leanne Ford gives us valuable interior design advice and insight into her upcoming projects.

In a recent celebrity interview with CupidsPulse.com, Ford gives interior design advice and discusses her busy schedule full of new projects. She even gets personal and reveals some design details in her child's nursery.

Related Link: Celebrity Chef Interview: Chef Byron Talbott Talks Lunch Food & Date Night Desserts

The house and specifically the bathroom, that solidified Leanne Ford's reputation was The Schoolhouse Project. This project recognized her white and minimalist aesthetic, as the walls of the main living area were painted white, but the floor was left black for the perfect contrasting touch. In the bathroom, she knocked out the crawl space to create room for the bathtub. Though Ford's style was unique and grabbed the attention of the design world, when asked about the biggest risk she's ever taken, this was not one she would count in that category. "Honestly, everything is a risk in some form," the designer says. "If you're not making yourself nervous, you aren't doing anything special."

In addition to the time she spends on interior design projects, Ford and her brother Steve can be seen renovating old homes on their HGTV hit show, Restored By The Fords which is slated to come back for Season 3 early next year. She also recently appeared on A Very Brady Renovation and the new competition show, Rock The Block.

On A Very Brady Renovation, which premiered September 9th, the six surviving members of The Brady Bunch cast came together with current HGTV stars to renovate the San Fernando Valley house used in exterior shots on the series. Ford says, "We just knew we had to get it right...we were not accepting anything less than perfect on that place." As for Rock The Block, which premieres on October 21st, four of HGTV's brightest stars, including Leanne Ford, square off in a home renovation showdown. Ironically, Ford admits that she's "the least competitive person, probably, like ever." However, she did mention that there is a healthy competition among the other women on the show.

Although she is kept extremely busy on professional projects, Ford and her husband are focused on their family. In March they welcomed their first daughter, Ever Allen Ford. When asked if there was anything special about the baby's nursery design, Ford says that she didn't have a pre-determined vision. However, she tells us that the baby has a "Love Wall," going on to explain that this is a wall of "love letters and sweet things" that she and her husband have given to each other over the years.

Design ideas like sentimental additions to her daughter's nursery seem to come naturally for the HGTV reality star. However, to some couples, a redesign could destroy a marriage or relationship. When it comes to working through how your home will look when you are a couple, Ford gives us some healthy relationship advice, explaining how two people can come to an agreement on differing design opinions and the risks of making a big change in your home. She says compromise is the best way to keep the peace at home. It sounds like picking your battle is important. To reduce nerves when it comes to a big home renovation she says, "It doesn't mean that everything has to go away...if you want to do it, you're going to love it!"

A busy schedule won't stop Leanne Ford! On top of her numerous design gigs and being a mother, Ford has no plans to slow down anytime soon. Check out Leanne Ford on Rock the Block, premiering October 21st on HGTV.

In celebrity news, Kelly Ripa tells Ryan Seacrest he should elope. What are the benefits of eloping instead of having a big wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone wants a big wedding extravaganza. Eloping is an ongoing trend that started with rebellious teenagers and made its way to becoming more popular among all ages. Cupid has some tips and tricks you can use to make your mini wedding one to remember:

1. Take a trip somewhere: Inviting everyone to a vacation spot is not always realistic. It can be costly for your guests, and many of them won't be able to swing it. However, a destination wedding is a great idea if you're eloping. It'll allow you to combine your wedding and honeymoon and spend quality alone time with your partner.

included as well. Don't forget to order the cake!

Celebrity News: Source Says Kylie Jenner Left Travis Scott Over Lifestyle Differences

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, businesswoman Kylie Jenner had more than just infidelity issues on her mind with rapper Travis Scott. The celebrity couple have reportedly parted ways as a result of Jenner wanting another celebrity baby as well as differing lifestyles. According to UsMagazine.com, a source said, “They are very, very in love, but she’s 22, and her whole life is Stormi and her business and her family. She’s not wanting to be a normal rapper’s wife. He’s still young and at the recording studio late. She usually goes to bed early. They have different lifestyles.” The “Antidote” singer and Jenner do not live at the same residence and have been living independently.

In celebrity news, Kylie Jenner and Travis Scott split because of their differences in lifestyle. How can you approach a partner that has a conflicting schedule?

Cupid’s Advice:

Relationships can be hard when you both don’t get to spend alone time together, Your conflicts can become bigger ones if you don’t talk about your issues face-to-face. Cupid has some tips and tricks on how to handle time management with your love:

1. Don’t accuse them of anything: If your partner is spending a lot of hours at work, you may start to think something is going on outside of that. Instead of accusing your partner of infidelity, ask them why they’ve been spending so much time at work lately. If your partner has a demanding job, it could be perfectly innocent. It’s best to never jump to conclusions.

Celebrity Interview: Sophia Bush, The Activism Behind the Acting

By Hope Ankney

Sophia Bush is an American actress, director, and producer, but she's most well-known for starring as Brooke Davis in the hit CW drama series One Tree Hill.

Although she has been a part of the entertainment industry for years and has been featured in many TV series and films, she has an undying passion for activism. Working to use her platform to raise awareness for certain causes, she has been part of many campaigns and groups like *F*ck Cancer*, Run for the Gulf, Humans Rights, and Do Something. Recently, she has been very vocal about women's rights and the feminist movement, joining organizations and using her credibility to make a stand against misogyny.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat with the inspiring actress about her newest project with Always to #EndPeriodPoverty, her efforts to support the Times Up movement, her newest film, Hard Luck Love Song, and what she loves about her podcast Work in Progress!

In our celebrity interview with Sophia Bush, she talks about making the leap from the big screen to the activist scene.

1. Can you tell us about your latest campaign with Always?

I'm so proud to be working with Always on this important mission to help #EndPeriodPoverty. Last year, we were able to donate 20 million period products in the U.S. This year we're donating millions of additional products via Always' longstanding partner, Feeding America, and local Period Heroes who are already working to #EndPeriodPoverty for school-aged students in their communities! We are asking everyone to join us. Talking about the issue in your circles and on your social channels – tagging @always_brand using #EndPeriodPoverty – will help raise awareness and inspire action! If you want to do, even more, you can purchase period protection products and support local Period Heroes in your community by donating them to your local school or shelter. Any donation could go a long way in making a difference for someone in need. Visit <https://always.com/en-us/about-us/end-period-poverty> to learn more about how you can get involved.

2. What made you want to join the campaign?

I was honestly shocked and disheartened when going over the data that shows that nearly 1 in 5 girls in the U.S. have either missed school entirely or left school early because they lacked access to basic period products. Here in the Los Angeles area alone, 88,000 students have missed school because of period poverty. That's why I'm honored to team up with Always to help raise awareness of this issue and make a difference. We cannot begin to tackle an issue if no one knows about it, so breaking the taboo and having the conversation is an important first step!

3. Another campaign you have been a part of and helped found is the Times' Up movement. How has this movement affected your life? Your dating life?

Well, I find it sad that there's some sort of fear that women speaking up for themselves – and their friends and coworkers – would somehow shrink their dating options. Or, that it's part of the consideration in the conversation around equity and eradicating sexual harassment in the workplace. I want to be clear- pursuing someone romantically and harassing someone in the workplace do not, ever, overlap or intersect. Nor should they. My understanding of that reality hasn't made men run away from me. And if it did, trust me they wouldn't be the right men for me or for any of us. Times' Up has been a long time coming. As has the general conversation about treatment in the workplace. Women deserve to go to work and just do their jobs, the way men get to. The considerations and practices women have had to think about, just to avoid mistreatment while working, are an unfair amount of emotional labor, period. I'm glad we are in an era where we are talking about these things. I'll be even more glad when we see substantive, structural change taking place across industries. The conversation is certainly the first step, the awareness aspect is integral, but we need to see action taken as well. In my own life, I feel much safer and freer to be creative on sets where respect for everyone present has been clearly expressed. Where performers and crew alike are assured that they are supported. It matters.

4. Time's Up was founded by a number of other talented women. What are some lessons/ advice you have learned from the women you have campaigned with?

There are strength and safety in numbers, that's for sure. Whether it's the famous faces who have been able to garner global attention for the cause, those who champion behind the scenes, brilliant legal minds running the defense arm of the organization, I am in awe of how a committed group of women who are relentless in their pursuit of justice can effect change.

5. Along with being an activist, you are an actress who has starred in many popular shows/films. How do you use your platform as an actress to advocate for issues in the world or issues you are advocating?

My platform is the blessing of my career. I get to use it as a great big highlighter, a megaphone if you will, to draw attention to causes that need support. While I don't expect everyone to feel the way I do, I couldn't imagine having the ability to talk to millions of people every day and not pay that forward for great causes! I also happen to be a giant research nerd, so it excites me to do deep-dives on important subjects, from politics to philanthropy, and be able to share findings with my audience at large. It's the perfect marriage of the personal and professional, for me.

My acting career is something I love very much. I'm grateful that my professional work is something I deeply enjoy. My activism, advocacy, political work, and volunteering are what truly fuel me as an individual, on a personal level. That's where I can truly serve. It has been a privilege to be able to use my platform and my social channels to share my dedication to causes that I'm passionate about. I'm grateful every day for the incredible community we've been able to build together, filled with people who continue to support these important causes along with me.

6. You have an upcoming film, Hard Luck Love Song. Is there anything you can tell us about it?

It's such a beautiful, tragic, messy love story. I was so struck by the cast of characters in this movie, each trying to do their best in their complicated circumstances. Working with Michael Dorman was a dream. He's a fantastic friend and collaborator!

7. Will you have any love interests in this movie?

Michael and I play used-to-be sweethearts who can't quite let each other go. It's a relationship that once held a lot of love, but also a lot of pain, and over the course of the film, our characters will have to see if they can start over.

8. How do you prepare for a love interest in a new movie?

I don't prepare for the love interest part so much as I prepare my own character and her experiences that have led her to the place where the audience meets her, the first time she appears on the screen.

Related Link: Exclusive Celebrity Interview: Celebrity Fashion

9. Is there anything you are excited to work on next?

I've been loving working on my new podcast, Work In Progress! It's been so fulfilling and fun. I get to have these deep, funny, curious conversations with unbelievable people. The other day someone called it the "'Fleabag' of podcasts," and considering "Fleabag" is one of my favorite shows of all time, I just about fainted. That kind of raw honesty is exactly what I'm looking to cultivate, and I'm so thrilled that our listeners feel it. Plus, getting to interview everyone from Gloria Steinem to Whitney Cummings has been such a joy!

What can't Sophia Bush do? With her platform and determination to make a change, be on the lookout for this actress and her continued efforts through activism. Whether it's filming a movie, using her voice, or actively participating as a woman's activist, know that she'll be a force to be reckoned with for years to come. And, if you want to get involved with any of the campaigns that Bush is apart of, herself, reach out to the organizations featured and make your own difference!

This couple didn't waste much time just dating before their celebrity wedding. How do you know you're ready to marry your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

But, knowing when you're ready to walk down the aisle is an important decision for every couple. If you've been with someone for a while, and you're wondering if you're both ready to dive headfirst into marriage, fortunately, Cupid has some love advice on signs you should look out for:

1. You recognize that effort is necessary: There's a certain stereotype that claims when you find the right one, everything will be easy. But, that isn't the case. In fact, every relationship has hardship and takes two people coming together to make an effort to keep their love alive. If you or your partner hasn't realized that being in this marriage is a long-term commitment to making an effort with one another, then maybe you're not ready to say "I do."

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Justin Bieber & Hailey Baldwin Tie the Knot for the Second Time

2. You make long-term plans together: If you're in it for the long haul, chances are both you and your partner have talked about your future together. Making serious life plans with your significant other is a big sign that you're ready for marriage. You've talked about your hopes and dreams, and you've supported one another when discussing them. Never plan a wedding if your future doesn't feature your partner as being apart of it.

Related Link: Royal Celebrity Wedding: Princess Beatrice Is Engaged to Property Tycoon Edoardo Mapelli Mozzi

3. You've done your fair share of soul-searching: Before you commit to someone else, you first must commit to yourself. The most important step of being in healthy relationships is to know your worth and love every aspect of who you are. If you're expecting your partner to love you, you've got to invest in loving yourself, too. You've got to be willing, to be honest with yourself and to know every facet of who you are under different circumstances. Soul-searching is a hard part of life, and it can be very uncomfortable. But, when you've found peace and love inside yourself, you're more than ready to be married to someone who feels the same.

Celebrity Break-Up: Kenya Moore's Husband Marc Daly Reportedly Had Multiple Affairs Before Split

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, former Real Housewives of Atlanta star, Kenya Moore, is filing for a celebrity divorce from her husband Marc Daly. The celebrity couple has been married since June 2017 and share their 11-month old daughter, Brooklyn. According to sources from UsMagazine.com, the divorce filing comes after an alleged extramarital affair involving Moore's husband. Daly reportedly got very upset when discussing a possible prenup, saying, "You can take everything, I'll build it again!" Moore has requested her privacy at this time, while her soon-to-be celebrity ex husband has not commented.

In celebrity break-up news, Kenya Moore's estranged husband may have cheated on her with multiple people. What do you do if you find # out your partner is cheating?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a hard pill to swallow when you find out that your partner has been having an affair with another person. It's even harder to accept the fact that you have been "replaced". Being upset is a normal emotion to feel at a time like this. However, how do you deal with this realistically? Cupid has some advice on how to deal with your lover's cheating ways:

1. Talk about it: Now, this is easier said than done. If you haven't given your partner a chance to explain him or herself, then you won't really know what's happening. Nobody likes hearing the potential unfaithful person's perspective, but it's important to talk to your partner before you take any further action. It is also important to point out any noticed changes in your love life. Tell your partner that you've notice the change in behavior. This will let them know that you are still paying close attention to them.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Signs Your Partner May Be Cheating

2. Go to therapy sessions: If a conversation is not obtainable, please seek professional help. Tell the therapist what's happening and how you feel about this. Your partner should also be willing to attend sessions to take steps to repair your relationship, if that's something you're willing to do. Try to let them tell their side of the story without interrupting. This will be the only way to get them to open up. Also, try to talk about how things were prior to the infidelity. This will help target a sequence of events and a timeline.

Related Link: Celebrity Divorce: Why Liam Hemsworth Quickly Filed for Divorce from Miley Cyrus

3. Don't rush a decision: If you have children, this may affect them as well. Consider them as well when you're deciding how to move forward with your partner. Don't make any hasty decisions. As much as you may want to leave, take some time to think. Your partner's actions may not be justifiable, but choosing a plan of action in the heat of the moment is not a good move. Distance yourself and talk about the important things that involve your children or your household. If there's no repairable solution to fix your relationship, and they are living a separate life, take steps to tell your children what's going on and start filing for a divorce.

Cupid’s Advice:

Planning a wedding is one of the most stressful events to pull off. By the time the day comes, it goes by in such a whirlwind that it's hard to keep up with everyone and everything. But, sometimes family can help in easing the chaos you might feel as everything comes together for the big day. By incorporating your family into your wedding celebration, it can feel more personal and even reduce stress or wedding jitters. Cupid has some relationship tips for both you and your partner for incorporating your family before you walk down the aisle:

1. Unique walks down the aisle: The famous Office scene where the entire cast dances down the aisle in Jim and Pam's wedding is one that has been cemented in iconic television history. Everyone has seen that clip or even other ceremonies that implemented this idea. It's a fun and easy way to incorporate your family and friends into a part of your wedding that'll be incredibly memorable. You can have one song that is playing as everyone jigs down the aisle or you can try different songs for different groups. You can give the bridesmaids and grooms a song, the parents a song, and the flower girls and ring bearer a song. It'll liven up the ceremony and make everyone feel included.

3. Honoring the deceased: It's always a very personal and touching part of a wedding if the bride and groom take time to honor family members and loved ones that are no longer with them. There are many ways to do this. You can ask for a moment of silence for the departed. You can have family members come light a candle out of remembrance. Or, my personal favorite, is for a tree to be planted in honor of those that have been lost. Make it an uplifting part of your ceremony where it seems like they're celebrating alongside you.

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus might've just indirectly shaded both of her celebrity exes. On Sunday, Cyrus took to Instagram to post about love and loyalty that could be pointed at Liam Hemsworth and Kaitlynn Carter. According to UsMagazine.com, her Instagram story showed her in bed surrounded by her pups. The caption of the stories read, "Happy Sunday from me & 2 stinky dogs! waking up surrounded by animals is my favorite way to start a morning. I am immediately reminded about LOVE without conditions.... the best part about animals is that they are careless about the details. They live by the golden rule ... Love & Be Loved. Nothing in between. No questions regarding wealth, career, talents, race, age sex .... They love back 100X ... all they ask is to be cared for in exchange for loyalty, reliability, and faithfulness. (reminds me of someone)."

Instagram. What are some ways social media can help you cope with feelings?

Cupid's Advice:

Even celebrities air their dirty laundry on social media from time to time. It's hard not to, especially when you're trying to handle your feelings that can be difficult to ignore. But, it can get messy if you throw your feelings out on your social platforms without thinking it through. If you're having a hard time coping with feelings by yourself, don't worry! Cupid has relationship advice on how using social media, in a healthy way, can help you sort through your feelings:

1. Private Instagrams: Something I'm sure you've heard before, but FINSTAS (or fake Instas) are accounts that are private for you to vent and cope over your feelings in a space that only a few people have access to. By creating a private IG, you're allowing yourself a place to comfortably discuss and post about things you're having a hard time dealing with. It's therapeutic to have a sense of freedom when it comes to not censoring yourself online, and accounts like these can act as a personal diary.

2. Private Twitters: Another way to cope on social media is through something similar to the FINSTAS- a private twitter. Private Twitter accounts are something that, from personal experience, has been even better at coping with feelings because of the format of the platform. Instead of having to post photos and write captions underneath to vent, Twitter allows you to simply post a tweet and even write threads that hold all your thoughts together in a cohesive manner. This type of account feels most like a diary because it's like you're writing down excerpts from your day. You can also quote tweet others without them seeing it, so that can also help to vent if you're sorting through feelings about a certain person.

3. The 'close friends' option: Lastly, with the progress in certain social media to include options that allow you to post without others seeing, the Close Friends option allows someone to post their feelings on their own account, like their Instagram Story, without having to create a whole private account just to do so. This is much more accessible to the average person, and it can feel even more liberating to do it on your main account. The only issue here is to be sure you're careful in how you word things or choose to vent because even though things seem to be private, you must be observant which accounts on your main are allowed to see these stories. Trusting some friends to not share things you post in confidence might not be the best idea.
