

Kristen Stewart Publicly Apologizes for Cheating on Robert Pattinson

Twilight's perfect celebrity couple, Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart, appear to be not so perfect any longer. According to People, although two weeks ago the two were spotted together and seemed happy at a Comic-Con, last week, Stewart's hidden relationship with Snow White and the Huntsman's director Rupert Sanders was revealed to the world. The actress released a public apology for the pain she has caused her boyfriend of three years on Wednesday. She said, "I'm deeply sorry for the hurt and embarrassment I've caused...This momentary indiscretion has jeopardized the most important thing in my life, the person I love and respect the most, Rob.” Stewart apparently had hit it off almost immediately with 41-year old Sanders four years ago when they began filming Twilight. However, now that her relationship to the married director is no longer secret, it seems like her relationship with Pattinson has hit a rocky road.

What are some ways to make a sincere apology to your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Everyone makes mistakes now and then, so it’s important to know how to say you’re sorry. There are certain ways to do so that ensure your partner will know how much you truly care. Here are some ways to make a sincere apology to your loved one:s

1. Write them a letter: Some people are just not good at communicating in person. If that’s the case with you and your beau, try writing a letter. A note can be polished and reworked so you can make sure you are putting in all your effort and saying all the right things.

2. Tell them how much they mean to you: The problem with some relationships is that one person feels unappreciated. Show them how much they mean to you by telling them. Even if you’re sure your partner knows this inside, it’s good to remind them every once in a while.

3. Show your romantic side: Romance doesn’t necessarily have to be a candlelit dinner. Take this time to take your partner to that show they’ve been talking about or on a vacation they’ve been wanting. It will also allow some one-on-one time for you both to talk things out while rekindling the love.

'Beverly Hills Nannies' Star Marika Tsircou Says, "My Baby is My Life"

By Deanna Atkins

ABC Family's new reality series, 'Beverly Hills Nannies,' premiered on Wednesday, July 11th, and although the nannies may run the show, stay-at-home mom Marika Tsircou brings tons of humor and personality to the table. In the pilot, Marika's nanny, Justin, is blown away by Marika's 10-month-old, Xander's, lavish wardrobe – he's asked to iron the baby's Burberry. The 90210 mommy lives fabulously but always puts her son and husband first.

Marika and husband Kyri were married for seven years before bringing their baby into the world. The couple enjoyed a luxurious marriage filled with exclusive events and dinners, travel and friends, which they put the brakes on entirely to be with their little one at every possible moment. The new mom shares, "All that matters is this little baby; newborns need their mommy all of the time, so you have to make sacrifices."

Related: Jessica Simpson Says, "Motherhood is the Best Thing I've Ever Experienced"

Being an attorney, Kyri endures long work days, but Marika tells us that both her and her husband take shifts with Xander during the week and enjoy trips to the park, zoo and Grandma's house on the weekends. Before Kyri starts his work day, he spends time with Xander: they eat breakfast together and play, while Marika jumps at the opportunity of an extra hour of sleep. The two certainly make a good team, which Marika believes is due to their relationship's strong foundation.

"Before having a baby, we actually took the time to be a couple. We'd already gone through everything together, so we knew that we were in it for the long haul," Marika says. She believes that in order to be the best parents you can be, your relationship needs to be at its strongest. She and Kyri weren't used to dirty dishes piling up or the change in their sex drive, but they knew it wouldn't last and, in time, their relationship returned to normal. Most couples have a hard time realizing that because they're not used to things being different or difficult.

Related: Three Tips to Enjoy Marriage Despite the Battles

"We are both very different people, and I think that is what makes us work so well together," reveals the reality star. On the show, Justin claims that Kyri is a lot more laid back than Marika, and she doesn't hesitate to agree. "He's calm, cool and collected, while I'm more artistic and always eager to be the center of attention – which is why we complement each other so well.” The love birds accept and embrace each other's similarities and differences, which truly keeps their union thriving. Because of the success of her own marriage, Marika recommends that people don't look for a mate who's exactly like them.

As a stay-at-home parent, Marika doesn't necessarily need a nanny, but the extra help doesn't hurt. She prefers to be the one to put Xander down for all of his naps, but when she takes some time for herself to paint, it's nice to have someone she can count on to watch her pride and joy for that small portion of the day.

The nannies on the show include the most sought-after sitters in the world, but when choosing the perfect nanny, the Beverly Hills mom shares some universal advice. She explains, “You really need to find someone who is loving, compassionate, educated and well-certified.” She also stresses how important it is to trust the person that cares for your child. “I need to know that they're somebody like me, that they're going to love this baby like there's no tomorrow.”

Related: Best Celebrity Moms \(Who Also Make Great Wives\)

All new mothers can relate to the uneasiness of leaving their child in another person's hands, and that's why, since Xander was born, Marika has only missed putting him to bed at night twice. Everyone takes a different approach to parenting, but these reality show parents appear to be naturals – and we think their happy baby would agree.

Cupid's Advice:

It's easy to be supportive for your friend, but being supportive to your friend's child can be a little more complicated. Here are some ways to show that support with ease:

2. Celebrate the big moments: Like Eva Longoria, celebrate the milestones in your friends' children's lives. Go to their cartoon-themed birthday bashes and share in the excitement when the tooth fairy comes for the first time. Even if you can't make every celebration, send a friendly email or gift.

3. Volunteer to babysit: There's nothing more supportive than babysitting for your friend who desperately needs a date night away from the kids. This will not only help your friend out, but it will allow you to grow closer to your friend's children.

with your sweetheart, and you're willing to move for them, you better be ready to live with them. That's the logical next step, so if you're doubting it, you're probably not ready to move yourself.

2. Vows: This may seem obvious, but not everyone can find the right words when it comes to expressing emotion. Although both Gellar and Prinze have strong backgrounds in entertainment, they have clearly both worked together to make family their biggest priority.

What are some ways to prepare your first child for a new baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Adding to the family is a big step. If you're having your second child, be sure to be as delicate as possible with your firstborn to ensure the most fulfilling experience for everyone:

1. Keep your child involved: A child on the way is exciting news that's bound to consume all of your phone calls and e-mails, and the amount of new things you'll have to do can confuse a young child. Make sure that you and your partner clue your little one in on the new brother or sister that's on the way.

2. Give them responsibilities: Being a big sibling is a big job. Your firstborn will be excited to take on this role, so tell your child that you're going to need their help and cooperation when you bring the little one into the world. Most importantly, be sure to thank them for their help.

When is it time to step out in public as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

You may be happy with your new special someone, but taking it outside of your comfort zone can be bewildering. Doing so too soon can break your already fragile and new relationship, but stepping it up too late can make others question why you kept it a secret for so long. Here's how to find the balance:

1. You've both acknowledged monogamy: Anyone can go on a couple of dates and think they've found "the one," but the truth is: some people are serial daters. If you both agree that it's going to be exclusive, then you can step out as a couple. But, if there's no monogamy, then there should be no publicity.

2. You've been on several dates: One really good date does not ensure a new partner. Get to know the person more by going on more dates to see if you really connect. Also, the more dates you are asked on, the more you know your crush is interested in you.

3. You've shared your feelings: The amount of dates you go on can be an indication of your feelings for one another, but it's better to hear them so you know for sure. If you both admit you're really into each other, it's OK to step out in public. This will allow your relationship to grow.

- 1. Show interest: You don't have to always take part in what your partner enjoys, but show interest every now and then. Try asking them about it at least once a day.
- 2. Show up: Actions speak louder than words. Be your partner's date at important events. Staying at home isn't a supportive decision.

'The Bachelorette' Season 8 Finale: Tips for Lasting Love

By Marni Kinrys, Ultimate Wing Girl

I have to say, I was shocked at 'The Bachelorette' finale. Well, kind-of shocked. For some reason, I knew that Emily was going to pick Jef, but I was still surprised that she didn't choose Arie. It goes to show you that physical chemistry does not equal partnership for life and that you can make the right choice if you take your time and really evaluate what relationship is best for you.

I have to give Emily so much credit for being able to see that difference between her two final suitors. Throughout this season, she has been a strong and steady Bachelorette, working hard to not let her heart solely dictate her decisions. She has been smart about her choices, and when it comes to love, we all know how challenging that can be.

Related: Bachelorette Season 8, Episode 6: The Dos and Don'ts of Trusting Your Gut

Thinking back on past episodes, I remember when I started to see the potential for Emily and Jef to be a successful couple. When they were lying on the floor in Prague, kissing, giggling and talking easily about the future, I knew that Jef had won her heart. They didn't just have chemistry; they had a best friendship. That's the primary distinction between relationships that fizzle and relationships that last forever.

Now that Emily's found love, I want to help all of you do the same! Here are my tips on how to decipher if someone is a good choice for you for the long haul. Ask yourself the following questions:

1. Does this person challenge me in a good way? The best partnerships are with those that help us grow and see the world in new and interesting ways. Yes, it's always great to have a lot in common with a person, but too many similarities can get old and dull pretty quickly. Someone different from you helps you see sides of yourself that you didn't know existed. The saying that "opposites attract" really is true.

2. Does this person turn me on physically and mentally? YES, I know physical compatibility is important, but stimulation of the mind and emotionally understanding each other is equally important.

3. Does this person get me? In relationships, you don't always have to agree with one another, but it's essential to get one another. The couples with the strongest survival rates are the ones where they really work on getting to know one another. You need to understand who your partner is and what he or she is all about – and appreciate him or her because of this uniqueness.

Related: Jef Holm Refuses Fantasy Suite With Emily Maynard on 'The Bachelorette'

4. Does this person have the same values as I do? I know so many people who say that they have the same values as their significant other, but when I ask them what those values are, they draw a blank. Knowing your own core belief system and understanding your partner's morals is so important to a successful marriage. If you want a guide to discovering your values, email me at marni@winggirlmethod.com and let me know that you read this post.

5. Does this person make even the hard times seem fun? If you are going to be with someone the rest of your life, you better be able to have fun with that person. Life will be tough sometimes, and it's important to keep that in mind when selecting a partner.

I think Emily and Jef seem like a great couple. I am so happy for the two of them, and I know that they are going to have a fulfilling relationship based on love, admiration and open communication.

What are some ways that sharing a career can bring you closer as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always good to have some things in common with your partner. If you both share an occupation, there can be plenty of added benefits. Here are a few of the ways that sharing a similar career path as your beau can strengthen your relationship:

1. You can exchange advice: If you both work in the same field, you can easily support each other. Look at where your strengths and weaknesses lie: if you aren't great at something, but your partner is, ask them for advice. Helping each other out to better yourselves will bring you closer as a couple.

2. You understand the ups and downs of the profession: Being able to truly understand the difficulties of a certain line of work will enhance your communication and improve your relationship. If your beau comes home from a hard day at work, you'll be able to sympathize with their grumpy mood and can show them you care.

3. It provides more opportunities to spend time together: There is a reason why both of you chose this career path, so figure out what it is and embrace it. If you're both teachers because you love educating others, volunteer to tutor kids after school. Figuring out hobbies you both enjoy based off your career will enhance your time together.

Supermodel Ines Rivero Says Confidence and Communication Are Important For Finding Love

By Daniela Agurcia

After nearly two decades of walking the runways and posing for photographers, Victoria's Secret Angel Ines Rivero is experiencing the other side of the modeling industry as she sits on the panel of judges for nuvoTV's new reality show 'Model Latina South Beach.' In this exclusive interview, the Argentine supermodel, who has been featured on the cover of renown fashion magazines such as 'Elle' and 'Vogue,' talks about her role on the show as well as her experience as a model, her family and her advice for women everywhere.

Related: 'General Hospital' Star Jen Lilley Says "Confidence is So Sexy"

Being a judge on 'Model Latina South Beach,' which premiered on Monday, May 28, sounds like an easy job. But of course, drama is inevitable when the stakes are so high: ten Latina models will compete for a chance to win $25,000, a position as nuvoTV's spokesperson and a contract with international modeling agency, Q Management. Even so, Rivero enjoys playing judge. For her, the most rewarding part of the experience is being able to pass on the lessons that she's learned as a model and help the young women grow in the industry.

Lesson number one: Rivero stresses that confidence is sexier than physical appearance. Many single women focus on their looks when trying to get a man's attention. Even Rivero was guilty of this mistake, telling us, "I used to be worried about all of the little things wrong with my body, but now I don't care what people think."

It looks like Muriel Villera, 21, of Hialeah, Florida, took Rivero's advice to heart. Last night, she was crowned this season's winner. She believes that her personality played as big of a role in her success as her beautiful face and perfect figure, recently saying, "There is nothing more attractive than ambition and confidence." Next stop for this Latina? A move to New York City to use what she learned on the show and focus on her modeling career.

While Muriel hopes to be a positive example for aspiring models, Rivero believes that women get the wrong impression from this industry, often thinking that they need to be as skinny as them or that they need surgery to look a certain way. She argues that men are generally attracted to women who are natural, so instead of trying to cover up, just be confident with you you are. Recognizing the great influence that models have on women everywhere, she says, "I think we can inspire women by being healthy and in shape and showing off our bodies with confidence."

As for finding that self-confidence, Rivero thinks that "finding a balance," both physically and emotionally, is the most important step. She tells us that she's learned to live her life by being optimistic and trying to find the good in all situations. "Confidence comes from having joy inside you, not necessarily by the way you look in the mirror,” she shares.

Related: Why Amazing Confident Women Remain Single

When asked if husband Jorge Mora is supportive of her career, Rivero says, “Absolutely.” Regardless of how demanding and revealing her career may be, he understands her lifestyle – after all, he is a professional singer and relates to being in the public eye. Despite her hectic schedule, her husband and daughter always remain her top priority, and she supports them both in whatever they do.

As for the secret to her lasting relationship? Communication. Rivero says she and Mora know how to respect each other’s space and to always talk through their issues. “One of the first things we did was learn how to fight effectively, so that helped us through a lot of problems,” she says. “Learning to talk about things is key, and we’re pretty good at it now.”

Jennifer Lopez Isn’t Giving Up on Marriage

Even after three failed marriages, Jennifer Lopez still hasn't given up on the idea on finding Mr. Right. According to People, the star told ABC News's Amy Robach that she would give marriage another try, stating, "For me, the biggest dream is the fairy tale. I will never give up on that dream." Lopez's divorce from Marc Anthony last summer doesn't seem to be keeping her from finding a new man, as she clearly has something going on with her backup dancer, Casper Smart. Lopez would not open up about her love life, but Smart says it was not love at first sight. "It was very natural how it happened," he says. "There was nothing before. No flirting, nothing before. Just natural. It just happened."

How do you decide whether to get married again after a divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult to believe in everlasting love after a messy split. Here are some ways to decide whether to say "I do" to your new man:

1) You've learned from the past: No matter how difficult the divorce was, it's important to at least learn something from your previous marriage. Perhaps you and your ex had poor communication or disagreed on fundamental issues. If you've grown and feel confident that you won't repeat the same mistakes, it may be time to try marriage again.

2) You are over your ex-husband: No matter how many times you might tell others and even yourself that you're over him, only you truly know how you feel. If your mind is constantly bombarded with thoughts of him, hold off on another marriage.

3) You still believe: Do you still have faith that relationships can last forever if they are between the right two people? If you still trust in the power of marriage and are prepared to do the hard work that comes with keeping a relationship strong, you may be ready for another big day.

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping things interesting in a relationship is a lot easier if you have hobbies and interests that you each share. Consider these things to do together in order to strengthen your bond:

1.Exercising: Maybe you're not into hitting the bench at the gym, but you can get in a work out while spending time with your partner by going on long walks at night, taking a jog together or even rollerblading. It's an easy way to keep you both not only healthy, but happy.

2. Gardening: There's more to gardening than just planting flowers. You and your beau can both enjoy the outdoors and get your hands a little dirty by adding new life to the environment around your house. You'll have fun doing it and it's something you both can continue to keep tabs on.

3. Taking a class: Discover new hobbies that you never knew you liked together. Whether it's salsa lessons at an underground club or you each want to give hot yoga a try, the point is that you're attempting new things and spending quality time together.

'L.A. Hair' Reality Star Anthony Pazos Says He'd Ask Khloe Kardashian for Love Advice

By Jessica Nappi

If you haven't heard of celebrity hairstylist Anthony Pazos yet, you'll certainly be familiar with some of his clients. From reality queen Khloé Kardashian to 'Twilight's' Ashley Greene, Pazos is in the fast lane with his star-studded clientele. He's even become a star himself, taking center stage in the reality television show 'L.A. Hair' on WE tv. As fortunate as he's been in his career, it looks like he's even luckier when it comes to love.

Pazos is in a six-year “committed and monogamous” relationship with his partner whom he “loves to death.” Like Pazos, his partner is not shy in front of the camera. Unlike Pazos, whose radiant personality can be seen on reality TV, his partner is an actor who wishes to remain anonymous. But Pazos assured us that we’ve “probably seen him in some stuff.”

Even with his hectic schedule, he says that he always makes time for his one and only. “We both have goals, so we understand that during the day, even if we don’t see each other, we still love each other,” he shares. “Then at night, it’s our chance to reconvene and connect.”

Pazos’ relationship wisdom comes both from his own experiences and the abundance of clients who spill their hearts out to him. His best advice? “Write down what you need in a man, get out there and date. See if all those requirements are being fulfilled by that guy – but just know that nobody’s perfect.”

If Pazos wanted love advice from any of his clients, he said he’d choose Khloé Kardashian. “I’ve seen Khloé and Lamar [Odom’s] relationship first hand, and they are very much in love,” he says with confidence.

Speaking of reality TV, Pazos defends his show, saying, “People think that the show is not real, and I want to make it clear that the show is very real. Everything you’re seeing is really happening – it’s not scripted.” That means that even Pazos insulting Omarosa, the infamous ‘Apprentice’ star, is true: he really did say that she had “camel breath” after she offended him.

Giving us the behind-the-scene dirt on this showdown, Pazos reveals that Omarosa’s people ended up tweeting him. “They wrote, "We don't want you tweeting Omarosa anymore saying that she has camel breath." Pazos stood his ground and did not apologize.

Whether he's planning a date night with his partner or getting into egotistical fights on 'L.A. Hair,' Pazos believes that "love makes the world go round." Given his fast-tracked career and big personality, we are sure that his time in the spotlight is only beginning.

Of course, staying true to his background as a hairstylist, he leaves us with this date night advice, "Never be afraid to pop in some hair extensions!"

Catch Anthony Pazos every Thursday on 'L.A. Hair' at 9/8c on WE tv. You can also check out his Facebook fan page or follow him on Twitter.

What are some ways to make your partner feel special?

Cupid's Advice:

Making your significant other feel special is what a relationship is all about. If your partner feels special, your relationship will thrive. Here are some great ways to show your love just how special they are:

1. One-on-one time: Spending quality time together with your partner is the best way to show you care about your partner. It shows that you cherish every minute with them and that they are more important to you than anyone else.

2. A surprise: A good surprise shows you were thinking of them enough to take action. Flowers, a fancy dinner or even a small gift is more than enough to warm their heart.

3. Write a song or poem: Show your partner how much they mean by writing a poem or song for them. This is one of the sweetest gestures possible, because most people put what's really in their heart into their songs and poems.

How do you bond with your partner's child?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes relationships can get even more complicated by adding a child. Here are some ways to bond with your partner's child and help ease up that often-troubling situation:

1. Be honest with them: Children are curious, so if they're old enough to ask you personal questions, they most likely will. Tell them whatever they want to know about yourself, and be sure to be honest. It's likely to bring you two closer together.

2. Find things in common: Try to pick up on things that the child likes to do, and use that to bond with them. If they like sports or movies, take a day to do those things with them.

3. Include them on some of your couple's activities: Children always enjoy being included in any plans you have with their parent. Bring them along on some of your dates and make them family activities. You'll still have a romantic time while also being able to connect with your partner's child.

Rumor: Is Katie Holmes Planning to Change Suri's Name?

What are some ways to decide what to name your child?

Cupid's Advice: Choosing your baby's name is an incredibly important decision, and everyone has a different way of making a selection. Here are some creative ways on how to finally make a decision:

1. Baby names book: This is probably the least original and easiest way to choose your child's name, but it almost always helps. If you go through a couple of pages of the book every day, you'll eventually find yourself stumbling upon one that you love.

2. Name them after you or your partner: Let your new child carry on your name or your partner's, or at least something similar. You're sure to be proud that they have your name, making this a choice you aren't likely to regret.

3. Name them after someone who you look up to: Choose the name of a figure who has inspired you, whether it's a character in a book or a historical figure. Using this name will carry on a much deeper meaning to you and your child than one that just has a sound you like.
