

Kendra Wilkinson Says Her Plans for Second Child Keep Changing

Having a child is an extremely difficult decision to make, and it's one that Kendra Wilkinson is facing right now. The reality starlet already has one child, Hank IV, with her husband, Hank Baskett, but is unsure about having a second. After having Hank IV, the couple was ready to have another right away, but now Wilkinson is not quite sure. One day her friend visited with her newborn son and Wilkinson told People, "I just got an instant baby phobia. I looked at Hank behind my best friend's back, and I shook my head, 'No.'" Baskett, however, still really wants another child.

How do you know when you're ready to have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Kendra Wilkinson and Hank Baskett are having trouble deciding on whether to have a second child. Here are some things to consider when you and your man are thinking of starting a family:

1. You're doing it for the right reasons: Having a baby should not be about you, but rather the child. If you're unhappy or lonely and think a child would solve these problems; hold out. The decision to get pregnant should be because you want to offer someone else the opportunity for a great life, not just improve your own.

2. Both you and your man are on the same page: Just because one of you is ready to start a family doesn't mean the other is ready. Make sure the two of you have talked about the consequences of having a baby and feel equally excited to embark on this journey.

3. You understand it will be a challenge: While starting a family is an extremely exciting experience, it can also be quite stressful. Make sure you and your man are able to dedicate your time to a child and are ready to take on the financial obligation. You both must be ready to go from selfishness to selflessness.

What are some ways to announce your pregnancy to your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

2. Decorate: Before your man gets home, decorate the place with pink and blue flowers, streamers and balloons. Surprise him with the great news when he walks in the door.

3. Photo evidence: Take a cue from Mowry-Housley and snap a picture of your sonogram or pregnancy test, and text it to your man. If you'd rather be there to see his reaction, print the pictures and put them in an envelope. Address the envelope to him with the return address saying something cute like, "Stork." Find Out Why Bobbi Kristina Skipped Dad Bobby Brown's Wedding

Bobby Brown and Alicia Etheridge celebrated their nuptials on June 18 in Hawaii and surrounded by friends and family, including Brown's three eldest children. However, Brown's only child with the late Whitney Houston, Bobbi Kristina, did not show up. Bobbi Kristina's refusal to attend the wedding made the occasion a little less joyous. "Bobby Brown was desperate for her to go to his recent wedding, but she would not return his calls," a source tells UsMagazine.com. Brown's troubled relationship with Houston that ended in their 2007 divorce made for a rocky relationship between him and his daughter, and his marriage to Etheridge has not helped matters. Hopefully their relationship will have a happy ending, just as Brown's love life did.

How do you involve your children in a second marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

A second marriage can be bittersweet. It's a new love for you, but a potential heartache for your children. Here are some ways to ease the strain between you and your children if you're planning on marrying again:

1. Spend time with your kids and your fiancé together: You can't force your children to like anyone, but you can make sure they get to know the person who will soon be your partner. Whenever your children are with you, have your fiancé around. This ensures that your children get a chance to spend time and connect with both of you. When the wedding comes, it won't be a stranger kissing their parent.

2. Make sure they have a major role in the nuptials: Sitting on the benches during your wedding can make your children feel like they're taking a backseat position in your life. The last thing you want to do is make your new marriage seem distant and unfamiliar to your kids, so involve them in the ceremony. Make your daughter the flower girl and your son the best man, letting them feel like they are a part of your new marriage and life.

3. Involve your children in the wedding plans: Children are creative, and even your older kids will want a say in your wedding plans. The best way to get your kids to be excited for your second marriage is to let them decorate. From the color scheme to the type of flowers, little decisions can allow your kids to feel comfortable with the wedding and bond with your new partner.

How do you keep your independence while in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes when you're in a relationship, it can be hard to keep yourself from getting completely wrapped up in your partner. Here are a few ways to stay independent:

1. Make sure to keep your friends: A relationship can be time consuming, because you always want to spent time with each other. The most important things are to keep your friends and to continue living your life normally. Once you lose your friends, you rely on solely each other for happiness and completely lose that independence.

2. Reserve at least one night a week with your friends: Have one night of the week which remains a guys/girls night out without each other. This will make sure you're still doing stuff for yourselves.

3. Don't change your dreams for anyone: If there is something you've wanted to do your entire life, don't let anyone change that. You shouldn't have to give something up that once meant so much to you just because you're in a relationship.

What are some ways to personalize your wedding invitation?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is all about you and your honey, so your invitations should be, too. Here are some ways to make your wedding invitation personal:

1. Cater to your interests: Theme your invitations around something you and your fiancée both love. Big sci-fi fans? Do a photo shoot with lightsabers. Do you both love to cook? Include your favorite recipes on the invite and ask for recipes in return.

2. Bring out your personalities: Is your significant other quiet while you're a chatterbox? Showcase your personalities with battling typefaces next to a telling photo. Fonts that range in size and style layered over one another will look perfect next to a photo of you shouting while your love covers their mouth.

3. Do something different: Bring out your creative side. Instead of paper invitations, try a photo collage or scrapbook, a video or even a musical invitation. Showcase your talents and show who you two are as a couple.

‘The Bachelorette’ Season 8, Episode 7: How to Express Your Love, Bachelorette Style

By Marni Kinrys, of winggirlmethod.com

That's it! I've decided that, if things don't work out with my husband and if I ever have to look for love again, I'm going to have a baby first. There must be some hormone that's released when you have a child that allows you to be more open, real and honest. It's amazing how I continue to be impressed by Emily Maynard. She definitely knows how to date and make sure she's getting what she wants.

Her final four bachelors are truly a solid group of men. They definitely proved themselves last night with their ability to express themselves and communicate with Emily, something that is essential to any great relationship. As I always say, in order to get what you want, you have to ask for it – and last night, the guys asked for it!

Hopefully, you have heard of The 5 Love Languages, an amazing book that everyone should read, especially if you are looking for a relationship. The book says that there are five ways for humans to express their love: words of affirmation, quality time, receiving gifts, acts of service and physical touch.

Once an individual understands their love language, it makes relationships easier for them because they know what is needed for them to feel loved and appreciated.

Related: Bachelorette Season 8, Episode 6: The Dos and Don'ts of Trusting Your Gut

It's always interesting to see which language people use most often. For example, Arie is definitely about physical touch. Whether it's a hug or something more subtle, he is always trying to get close to Emily. For him, touch re-connects him to her – and based on her attraction to him, it's definitely working. I'm a touch girl myself, so any touch that Arie gives literally makes me feel warm inside.

Sean, on the other hand, is all about quality time. He makes a point to pull Emily away and ensures that they have good quality time together. His sub-languages (those languages that he uses less often) may be physical touch and words of affirmation.

The surprise of the night for me was Jef. I was having trouble getting a read on this guy, and last night, I suddenly felt excited and gushy for his relationship with Emily. Jef's love language is a combination of receiving gifts and words of affirmation. I think words dominate for him because, once he got that verbal affirmation from Emily, he immediately loosened up and was able to give her what she needed. So cute! I want to hug him.

Knowing how to express your love is so important, both in the real world and on television. Hopefully, every man who was forced to watch last night's episode learned a valuable lesson: do NOT hold back when it comes to expressing yourself. If you really feel it, express it!

Josh Henderson Reveals His Dating Deal Breakers

Dallas star Josh Henderson has a trick or two up his sleeve in order to land the girl of his dreams: saying that he isn't looking so that he can find the one. The 30-year old opened up to US Weekly last week at Riff Raff's signing party at Blok in Hollywood to share his major 'do's and don'ts' when it comes to the romancing the ladies. For example, Henderson said, "I want to find someone who likes who I am as a person and not what I do for a living. I almost find it very attractive when a woman has no idea who I am." With that said, the actor just may be looking to switch things up from his history of dating other gorgeous, young celebrities in Hollywood which include Ashlee Simpson, Brittany Snow and Paris Hilton.

What are the three biggest dating deal breakers?

Cupid's Advice:

The dating world is very tough to navigate through, but red flags tend to make the elimination process much easier. Here are some huge deal breakers to help you find the right one for you:

1. Religion: If religion is important in your life, it has the potential to be one of the biggest deal breakers. Find out the beliefs of the person you're dating early on to avoid future complications.

2. Bad relationship with mom: Ladies, if the guy you're dating can't seem to get along with his mother, leave him behind. The way a man treats his mom is a good reflection of how he'll treat you.

3. Codependence: If the one you're dating seems to rely on you too much, it may be time to call it quits. Codependence often leads to clinginess and jealousy, both of which should be avoided.

What are some ways to tell if your relationship is worth fighting for?

Cupid's Advice:

Every relationship has some troubles now and then. Sometimes, these problems can be worked through, though other times it's best just to put an end to the partnership. Here are some things to consider when trying to see if your relationship is worth saving:

1. Dependability: Do you still feel like you can depend on your partner to be there for you both physically and emotionally? It's important for them to support you when you need it. If you don't feel like they've been making an effort, it's time to move on.

2. Respect: All relationships are built on mutual respect. Partners who don't treat you fairly or appropriately aren't worth staying with.

3. Openness: Your beau needs to be able to talk to you about your problems, including how you feel about your relationship. If you're concerned about your relationship's stability, try telling your partner about how you feel.

How Snooki Knew Jionni LaValle Was 'The One'

Nicole “Snooki” Polizzi and Jionni LaValle are expecting their first child together come September, but before the baby came love. The soon-to-be parents have had their good times and bad times, as seen on Jersey Shore, but they have overcome it all because Polizzi believes LaValle is “the one.” She tells People, “When people find the one they love, they feel like their spouse is their best friend and their lover. That’s how you know you’ve found your soul-mate, and I’ve never had that with anyone except Jionni, so I put two and two together and figured he’s definitely the one.” Although the couple is starting a family a bit before they expected, they are overjoyed to be having a baby boy and look forward to eventually being married.

How do you know when you’ve found “the one”?

Cupid’s Advice:

Finding love doesn’t necessarily mean finding “the one,” or else we all would have married our high school sweethearts. Here are some ways to tell the difference between your right now and your forever:

1. You are best friends: Sure, you have your girlfriends and he has his guy friends, but there should be a special place in your heart for your partner as not only a lover, but a friend. If your partner is “the one,” you should be able to tell them your deepest darkest secrets and let yourself feel vulnerable.

2. You can be yourself: There is nothing worse than pretending to be someone you’re not, or your partner expecting you to be something you are not. If you feel comfortable around your partner, can let loose and share your most embarrassing moments with them and still feel the utmost love for one another, you are most likely meant to be.

3. You both want the same things: If you think you have found “the one,” but then cannot agree on whether you want kids or not, you may want to rethink your relationship. Find someone who shares your dreams, or at the very least, understands your dreams and wants you to follow them.

EXCLUSIVE: Bachelor Contestants Ann and Jesse Csincsak Defend Their Family By Appearing on Discovery Channel’s ‘American Guns’

By Whitney Baker

According to recent polls, twenty-three percent of females now own a gun – up from thirteen percent in 2005. However, plenty of women are still fearful of this powerful weapon. Ann Csincsak, 'The Bachelor' Season 13 contestant and wife of 'The Bachelorette' season 4 winner Jesse Csincsak, knows this feeling all too well.

"I grew up in a 'no gun home,'" Ann says. "We strongly believed in the right to own firearms but never did so ourselves. Until my late twenties, I had never even touched a gun."

This all changed when the couple faced a string of robberies in their neighborhood. Ann and Jesse agreed that with a sixteen-month-old son at home, it was time to decide how they would best defend their family but the happy couple disagreed about keeping a gun in their home. That was until they met up with Rich Wyatt, owner of Gunsmoke and star of the Discovery Channel series 'American Guns,' who lives near the Csincsak's in Wheat Ridge, Colorado. Ann and Jesse opted to take Wyatt's three-day self-defense course, which was filmed for the reality show.

Related: 'American Guns' Meets 'The Bachelor'

As viewers will see on this week's episode, Ann was hesitant about buying a pair of handguns when they arrived at Wyatt's store. But, her hesitancy soon turned to confidence when she ended up with the fastest draw time in the class. Not only that, but despite her fear of guns, Ann even beat out Jesse in a shooting competition.

"Because of this experience, I now understand the importance of being able to protect yourself," Ann says. "Women are more vulnerable to attacks, so you have to be prepared to take care of yourself and your children, no matter what the cost."

Related: Bachelorette Episode 6: The Dos and Dont's of Trusting Your Gut

Knowing how to handle a gun with confidence is a valuable skill to have, especially for single women who may live alone or be looking for love in today's digital dating world. Of course, facing your fear is only the first step. To combat any uncertainty, Ann strongly recommends taking a gun education class.

"Carrying a gun or even just owning one will always make me a little uncomfortable, but the benefit of having one far outweighs the fear," she says.

Watch 'American Guns' this Wednesday at 10 PM/9 PM CT on the Discovery Channel to see what happens when Ann and Jesse meet Rich and his family at Gunsmoke.

Anne Hathaway's Convict Ex

Raffael Follieri Speaks Out

Relationships end for countless reasons. Unfortunately for Anne Hathaway, her four-year relationship with Raffaello Follieri was over once he was arrested in 2008. It couldn't have been easy for the actor to find out her Italian suitor was being placed behind bars for wire fraud, conspiracy and money laundering, especially when the two "were talking about marriage," Follieri told People. Their situation left their romance without much of a chance. However, aside from the unfortunate circumstances, they were still in love, making it difficult for each of them to let go of each other.

What are some ways to get over an ex you're still in love with?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups would be so much easier if we could simultaneously relinquish both our feelings and our significant other, but that's not usually realistic. It takes a long time to get over an ex, especially when you really loved them, but these tips could help ease the process:

1. Be honest with yourself: Oftentimes, both men and women try to put on a front for the world and say, "I'm fine," which isn't always true. Take the time you need to heal and don't feel like you have to instantly be over your ex. It's rarely that easy, but no one expects it to be.

2. Start something new: Always wanted to take some kickboxing classes? Here's your chance. Put effort into a new hobby or interest not only to distract you, but in an effort to love something new. It's a healthy way to keep busy and make yourself happy.

3. Remove the reminders: You don't have to erase this person from your memory completely—after all, you did at one point love them. However, it's important to take down the pictures of you two together and ditch the keepsakes that are keeping you emotionally connected to your ex.

EXCLUSIVE: 'Teen Mom' Farrah Abraham Says "I Want a Man

Who is the Guy Version of Me”

By Sarah Ribeiro

In the final season of 'Teen Mom,' which premiered on Tuesday, June 12, we are going to see Farrah Abraham as more than just a teen mom. In the premiere, she makes the decision to move from Iowa to Florida with her daughter Sophia, now three-years-old, to study culinary management and begin her life as an adult.

After reaching fame on the hit MTV series '16 and Pregnant,' she showcased her struggles as a single mother in 'Teen Mom.' Furthering her success, she recently announced her partnership with LA modeling agency Models International as well as the release of her first book, 'My Teenage Dream Ended,' which is due later this summer.

However, she says she won't let her fame get in the way of her relationship with her daughter. "Nothing hinders me from being a great mother," she says. "I will always use my accomplishments to help others and to find more worthwhile projects for myself."

Related: 'Teen Mom' Star Farrah Abraham Thinks About Giving Up Modeling for Daughter

The "Momtrepreneur," as she calls herself, has reached many achievements outside of her life as a reality television star. She has created her own brand of Italian Hot Pepper Sauce, appropriately named 'Mom & Me.' Her motivation, she says, always comes from within: "If you have drive to make a comfortable life for yourself and your family, make no excuses and take action."

In light of her success, Abraham is focusing on her goals rather than romance. In a touching scene in the 'Teen Mom' premiere, she visits the grave of Derek Underwood, Sophia's father, on what would be his twenty-first birthday. Holding back tears, she recalls her time with Derek and wishes he were there to help her raise Sophia. Despite this lament, she is happy on her own.

Abraham doesn't want to force herself into finding love and tries to think it through before she says yes to a date. She explains, "Now, I only go on dates if I really like someone, rather than going on dates just because."

Of course, she has certain criteria that she looks for in a man. It's important for her to find someone who works well with her hectic life as an entrepreneur and a single mother. "If a guy cannot fit in my life naturally, then I don't know how he can ever really be a part of it," she says.

Even so, she emphasizes that her success won't get in the way of dating. "I want someone who is basically the guy version of me," she reveals. "He needs to work hard and have a good sense of humor. It's important that he is intelligent, friendly and family-oriented too."

Related: Five Top Tips On How To Find "The One"

Dating as a single mother is challenging but Abraham says that honesty makes it easier. "I've learned from other dates that it's best to say you have a child up front, she says. "Guys look at me differently when they think I'm single and twenty-one."

For single parents looking to date, her advice is "Stay true to who you are!" And for those people dating a single parent, she begs that they "be understanding of the time the parent needs to spend with their child."

Although she knows what she wants when it comes to finding the right man, she reveals that we won't see much of her dating on this season of 'Teen Mom.' Instead, she deals with living on her own, raising Sophia, being a student and finding success through her ventures in modeling and writing.

Given her time in the spotlight, Abraham feels like a role model for other single mothers. She encourages them to stay strong and motivated and to find their own happiness. She explains, "Look at me and other single moms who you respect. Try to be a hard-working, Momtrepreneur like them!"

While she's ready for whatever comes next, Abraham is thankful for the hardships she faced during previous seasons of 'Teen Mom' and believes that they've helped her make it this far. "It has inspired me and shown me that no obstacle is too great, that nothing can get in the way of making my wishes and goals come true," she shares. "Everything is at your fingertips – you just have to put your best effort forward to make it happen."

You can catch Abraham on season four of 'Teen Mom,' which airs on Tuesdays at 10/9CT on MTV. You can also follow her on How can owning a pet together help you bond as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

There are many ways to bond with your loved one, and owning a pet together is a perfect option. Here are some ways that owning a pet can help you and your partner bond together:

1. It's a forecast for the future: If you and your partner are getting serious and talking marriage, owning a pet will give you a sense of what a child would be like. A pet takes a lot of care, so you both have that responsibility to share with each other.

2. You share something together: When you are sharing something as important as a pet, it means something. You and your partner took on that responsibility together, and that's a good thing. You're getting serious and don't have a problem settling long term.

3. You spend more time together: A pet can allow you and your couple to spend more time together, like shopping for supplies and taking it on walks together.

How do you know when it's "meant to be"?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you've been with someone for a while, or you've fallen head over heels right away, you may start wondering if he is "the one." Here are some signs that you and your partner could be in for a lifetime of romance:

1. You support each other: It's important to be with someone who will constantly empower you to be your best self. If he encourages you to go after your goals and recognize your own greatness, this may just be a sure thing!

2. You communicate well: Just because the two of you work well together doesn't mean you won't hit some speed bumps. If you can get through your arguments by speaking your part while still listening to and appreciating his, it shows how much you care, even if you disagree on certain points.

3. You're genuinely happy: The emotions and energy you have when you're with your significant other are the best way to tell if he's right for you. If you feel great about yourself and he makes you want to be a better person, stick with it! If you feel fearful or put down, it's time to let him go.

How do you save your relationship when it’s headed downhill?

Cupid’s Advice:

It takes a great deal of work to keep a relationship strong and healthy. When it seems that you and your man are headed in the wrong direction, here are some ways to reconnect and salvage the loving relationship you once had:

1. Get intimate: Actions say a lot more than words. Remind each other how comforting it is just to be touched or kissed. When you're not sure what to say, at least remind the other that you're there by offering a back massage or engaging in a passionate kiss.

2. Remember why you fell for each other: Do the things you used to do together. Go out to eat at that restaurant you had your first date. Take a walk through the park where he first kissed you. Bringing up old memories and reminding yourselves of the good times will help you rekindle your romance.

3. Get professional help: If you have tried communicating, but are not getting through to each other, seek out a professional. People don't like admitting they need help and therefore, relationship counselors get a negative connotation. However, therapy can be extremely helpful for the both of you as she or he is coming from an unbiased standpoint with the ability to see what you cannot.

Giuliana and Bill Rancic Surprise Guests with a Baby Shower Surprise

This weekend, Style Network stars, spouses and parents-to-be Giuliana and Bill Rancic hosted a baby shower—appropriately on Father’s Day. After months of trying to conceive, the couple is finally expecting their first child via a surrogate mother. They surprised their friends and family by revealing the sex of their baby by releasing blue balloons from a box, according to Celebuzz.

What are some ways to reveal the sex of your baby to friends and family?

Cupid’s Advice: Having a baby is an exciting moment for you and your partner, as well as for your other loved ones. Revealing the baby’s sex can be just as thrilling as revealing that you’re having a baby in the first place. Here are some tips to share that surprise with your friends and family:

1. Send the sonogram: There’s no better way to share the joy of revealing your child’s gender than by letting everyone see for themselves. Send out a copy of the sonogram with a message saying “It’s a boy!” or “It’s a girl!” and your loved ones can have a memento of this incredibly special time.

2. Throw an “unrelated” color party: Throw a dinner party that seems to be themeless, but cater it to the sex of your baby through your outfits, decorations and refreshments. You and your significant other can be decked out in pink or blue while everyone else wears white. At the end of the night, tell everyone what the real theme is!

3. Make it a competition: Invite your friends and family over for a little competition. Have them cast votes as to the gender, then present a cake frosted in neutral colors. When you and your honey cut into it, the pink or blue cake inside will tell everyone what you’re having!

Bobby Brown Ties the Knot with Alicia Etheredge

On Monday, R&B star Bobby Brown tied the knot to manager Alicia Etheridge while visiting Hawaii to perform a New Edition concert. The recent groom originally popped the question to the new Mrs. Bobby Brown in 2010 during a sold-out concert, just three years after his divorce from the late Whitney Houston. He later opened up to People, saying “I got my passion back for music and for loving myself because of her.” Family and friends were in attendance to support the couple, but Brown’s daughter with Houston, Bobbi Kristina Brown, was absent because of her poor relationship with her father. Unfortunately, the newlyweds will not be spending their honeymoon in Hawaii due to forthcoming tour dates, but will at least continue traveling side-by-side.

What do you do if you don’t have time for a honeymoon after your wedding?

Cupid’s Advice:

A honeymoon allows newlyweds to embrace the beginning of their new long-lasting marriage, but it’s not always possible to spend the time or money to have one right away. Here are some great alternatives that will let you celebrate your new marriage even if a traditional honeymoon isn't an option:

1. Bring the honeymoon to you: A honeymoon's significance isn't the location, but the meaning behind it. You can have relaxing days together and romantic dinners wherever you are.

2. Daring adventure: Try a new activity that you might do on a honeymoon. For example, skydiving or swimming with sharks is a memory that you'll always share as something you did as a couple, even if you do it close to home.

3. Honeymoon suite: Rent the honeymoon suite at a fancy hotel in the same area as your wedding. If you can't honeymoon for an extended period of time, you can at least get the honeymoon experience for one special night.
