How do you pick and choose a mate when there are a lot of options?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a variety of options to choose from is rarely a bad thing, except maybe when you're choosing your significant other. Whether you're looking for your lifelong partner or wanting to take things slow, choosing can be difficult. Cupid has some advice:

1. Figure out similarities: This is probably one of the most important factors to determine when looking for a mate. Of course you would want to spend a lot of your time with a person who has similar interests with you; so select someone who enjoys watching Star Wars movies just as much as you do.

2. Consider attraction: Granted, looks aren't everything, but you definitely have to be attracted to your potential partner. While she or he may not be dubbed as Maxim's 'hottest person of the year,' as long as they look good to you, then that should be all that matters.

3. Introduce to your loved ones: While your partner may be the most gorgeous person your eyes have witnessed, if they don't get along with those closest to you, that may create an issue for you and your relationship, resulting in an uncomfortable situation.

An unexpected pregnancy can be an alarming experience, but if you stay clam, it should all work out. Here's how:

- 1. Be honest: Don't hide your condition from your partner even for a short period of time.
- 2. Talk it out: Take the time to form a plan of action with your partner. Ask for his or her opinion.

3. Tell your friends and family: Now that you've told and talked it out with your partner, it's time to tell everyone else in your life that you're expecting. You'll probably end up needing the added support.

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s hard to see an ex struggling through a tough time without lending them a hand. Here are a few things to consider before reaching out:

If you’re with someone almost all the time, you can’t help but interfere with parts of their life. But sometimes, it gets to be a little too much interfering. How do you get your partner to back off a little? Here are some tips:

1. Have a talk with them: You can first start the nice way by simply sitting them down and explaining to them that you need to do some things your own way. They should be understanding and respectful that you approached them the way you did.

2. Leave them hanging: If you slowly stop telling them your daily plans, they’ll feel know something’s up. They’ll ask what’s wrong, and you can tell them why you don’t want them to know what you’re doing, because they’ll get in the middle of it.

3. Do it right back: If nothing else has worked, try the Odom method and do what they’re doing to you right back to them. Your significant other will see how annoying it is to be meddling all the time that they’ll get the picture and eventually stop.

Honeymoon in St. Lucia with Fiancé Blake Julian

By Lori Bizzoco

This summer, former Bachelor Pad reality stars Holly Durst and Blake Julian will have an intimate wedding in South Carolina and set off to the beautiful Caribbean island of St. Lucia for a romantic, one-week honeymoon.

“Blake is everything I’ve been looking for,” Holly gushed. “I liked him from the moment that I met him and I couldn’t deny that. We have the best chemistry together.”

As many fans know, Holly and Blake’s path to wedded bliss was all but easy for fans who watched it unfold on national television. Holly and her ex-fiance, Season 5 Bachelorette contestant, Michael Stagliano both appeared on the spinoff series, Bachelor Pad 2 last summer. Although the two weren't together romantically, they partnered as a team, and split the grand prize of $250,000 dollars. But, for Holly money wasn't all that she won. It was on that show that she met her future husband, Greenville, South Carolina Dentist, Blake Julian.

When asked if she watches the current episode of The Bachelor, Holly says she "keeps up" with her reality TV Alma Mater, but says that Blake likes it more than she does. "He likes Ben a lot, they were buddies on their season together."

Ben and most of their fellow contestants from Bachelor Pad 2 will be invited to their June 2 wedding in South Carolina.

"Invitations are almost ready to go out," she laughs. "We had a little envelope emergency and the stamps wouldn't stick on the finish of the envelopes so we spread them all over the apartment to get the stamps to stick and dry." Holly says that's the only snafu they've faced, everything else has been easy sailing.

The wedding will take place June 2nd (one day before Blake's 29th birthday) and they are estimating about 150 guests to attend the southern affair that will be decorated in a neutral tone of white. "I wanted a color that wouldn't date the photos. But, there will be a hint of pink throughout, because I love pink so much." Holly chose Alfred Angelo for her dress and pink for her six bridesmaids, all of whom are close friends and family.

I am the opposite of Bridezilla, she said. "I'm just going to show up the day of the wedding and say alright that's good, thanks."

In addition to planning the wedding, this month Holly is launching her first children's book. "I have been writing for about six years and I have several children's books and a novel in the works." Holly says that she always wanted to write a book that inspired kids that they could be and do anything that they wanted to in life. "I wanted to encourage other kids growing up not to be afraid of anything and to follow their dreams." The result of this passion is "Chocolate Socks," a book about taking what you love and doing whatever you want with it. Holly has always had a love for children, and even went to school to be a teacher before deciding that writing children's books was her calling.

When asked about having kids of her own, she said we aren't planning for it but if it happens it happens. "Blake wants two kids, and I want two or three, preferably twins!" Dating Michael who was a twin wasn't what convinced her, she has eight sets of twins in her own family lineage.

Holly certainly keeps herself busy, dental assistant, children's author and soon-to-be wife. But, regardless of her hectic life, she is still booming with happiness about finally becoming Blake's wife.

The wedding festivities are set to begin this month with Blake's ski-themed bachelor party taking place this month in Colorado and Holly's bachelorette party in LA in May.

Robertson was quick to pull Flajnik for some one-on-one time in Switzerland to explain herself. In high hopes of gaining his full trust back, she desperately told him, "I'd say something and they'd jump on me. I had my guard up." Little does Flajnik know, there's a lot more she said to her cast members that he wouldn't be so happy about.

What do you do if you don't get along with your partner's friends?

Cupid's Advice:

There are times where you just can't get along with your partner's friends, but they have a problem with that. Not sure how to fix this problem? Here are some tips:

1. Give it another shot: Maybe there are certain friends of your significant other's who you don't get along with, but there has to be someone you can manage to have a conversation with. Try not to be close-minded, and try giving his or her friends another chance.

2. Bring a friend with you: Whenever you both go out with a bunch of friends, bring yours along, too. It's much easier to loosen up and be cool when you have your best friends along with you.

3. Have them over your place: If you all get together at your place, you'll feel comfortable and there will be less tension. Also, since it is your pad, their friends will most likely be extra nice to you.

Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck Welcome a Baby Son

For the third time, Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck are proud parents. According to People, their new son was welcomed in Santa Monica. After announcing they were expecting in August, but not sharing the sex of the baby, their new son joins big sisters, Seraphina, 3, and Violet, 6. “It would be so weird to have a boy,” Garner told Ellen DeGeneres, also saying that the experience would be “cool and different.” However, in 2010, Affleck said, “The three-against-one-female-to-male ratio in his house leaves me significantly outnumbered.” Garner and Affleck are happy together. “Honestly, I would do anything for that man, because I know it’s not taken for granted,” said Garner.

Cupid’s Advice:

After having a house full of estrogen, adding another man to the mix will no doubt bring changes. Cupid has a few:

- 1. Dad relaxes: This may not happen right away, but with time, the man of the house will have another guy on his team. That’s one more person to fight for the game to be on TV on Monday nights rather than The Bachelor, or someone to help cut the grass.
- 2. The last name carries on: Your family name may make it another generation. Having a son join the mix allows the opportunity for your last name to live on.

3. Male bonding: Father-daughter dates are very crucial, but there's nothing quite like father-son bonding. Going fishing, playing ice hockey and building tree houses are all things many sons experience with their fathers. So ladies, step aside and let boys be boys.

What are some ways to introduce your new partner to friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Introducing your new lover to your friends can go great or horribly wrong. Cupid has some tips to make sure it goes smoothly:

1. Prep: Tell your new man about your friends, and dish to your friends about your new man. A surprise meet and greet will be awkward for everyone. If you forewarn your man about your goofy friend who laughs when she meets new people, he won't feel like she is laughing at him and the process will be effortless.

2. Neutral location: Don't show up at your girlfriend's house, which is like your second home, with your new boyfriend. It will surely be uncomfortable for him. Try having a group of friends meet at a bar or bowling alley. That way, you can all mingle and everyone meets your new beau in one shot.

3. Be proud: Have confidence when you introduce your sweetheart to your friends. If they think you're embarrassed of him, they are going to assume something's wrong. The last thing you want is friends who disapprove of your new man and a boyfriend who feels insecure about your relationship.

"It's hard for me to get that out of my head." Ben explained that he felt he was protecting Kacie by ending things when he did. She replied with a final piece of advice about Courtney.

"I feel like if you were to choose Courtney you would get your heart broken. It seems like she's in it to win it... It makes me sick to think that you could be hurt again."

Disregarding Kacie's advice, Flajnik gave roses to Courtney and Lindzi. "I just hope you're making the right decision,"

Nicki told Ben, who said, "Believe me, I do too."

What do you do if you see your friend making relationship mistakes?

Cupid's Advice:

Watching your friend make mistakes is hard, but so is trying to intervene with his or her relationship. Here are some friendly ways to have your pal's back:

1. Get your facts straight: Before taking your referee skills center court, be sure you know what you are breaking up. For all you know, your friend could be giving you one-sided stories and their partner is completely guilt-free. Observe as a separate third party to be sure your assistance is necessary.

2. Approach your friend: When you are positive there's an issue, point it out to your friend. She may not even be aware that her boyfriend is sounding like her father. Once his flaws are showing, your friend will hopefully clear things up on her own.

3. Offer advice: If your gal pal doesn't help herself, it's time to step in and try to make some changes. Give her some advice; tell her how you would handle the situation. Don't tell her exactly what to do, though, because that could just cause problems within your friendship.

What are some ways to become friends with your ex after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

So you and your ex didn't make it to the altar like you thought would, but that doesn't mean the two of you still can't be friends. Don't know how to get over the awkwardness ? Cupid has some tips:

1. Give yourself some time: You may not be ready to immediately come face-to-face after your relationship ends, which is understandable. Allow yourself time to heal after splitting, especially if it ended on bad terms.

2. Get over the grudge: The breakup might not have ended so well, but if it's been years since then, you shouldn't hold onto a grudge forever. Sometimes, not holding a grudge with your former flame can be what you need to move on to the next best thing.

3. Be friendly: If you have the same friends, you might run into each other often. When this happens, smile and make small talk. This may not reignite the spark in your old relationship, but it may lead into becoming friends again.

What do you do if your partner gets involved with the law?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting in trouble with the law is not fun, especially when it involves your lover. While it all depends on the situation and how you choose to handle it, Cupid has some advice to help:

1. Be their support system: "Through sickness and health, and 'til death do us part..." Getting involved in the law can fall somewhere in between those two. Having your significant other in trouble with the law can be a stressful situation for the both of you, but try to be there through the difficult time.

2. Ignore the negative feedback: In this situation, there's always going to be at least one person who's going to degrade your decision to stand by your mate. While the backlash may get to you, develop thick skin and try to remain positive about the circumstances.

3. Move along: If your partner is in serious trouble with the law and it gets to the point to where you no longer have the patience to deal with it, then it may be best for you to move on and live your life.

How do you know when it's time to reveal your pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Once you find out you're going to have a baby, it can seem impossible to think about anything else, and there's no best time to make the announcement. There are, however, advantages and disadvantages to telling people early or waiting to share.

Cupid has some things to keep in mind:

1. Advice: If family and friends know from the get-go of your pregnancy, they may have some useful advice throughout. If they try to cram it all into a short period of time, however, it might become overwhelming.

2. Support: Having support through all the stages of your pregnancy may prove very helpful emotionally and psychically, but if too many people know, the outpouring of support may end up stressing you out.

3. Miscarriage: You should definitely wait until you're at least 8 weeks pregnant to start spreading the announcement. It might be nice to have the support from family and friends if things go wrong, but taking back the announcement will force you to relive the thought and moment constantly.

Planning your wedding can be a stressful time, and adding in the time element just increases one's worries. Cupid shares some tips on how you can plan a wedding quickly:

1. Location: Some places offer last-minute discounts. Try to schedule your wedding and reception at the same location. Also, be flexible on the exact date and time.

2. The dress: If your wedding is in three months or less, it's unlikely that you'll be able to custom design a dress. That doesn't mean you can't find your dream dress. Check out boutiques which have wedding gowns in a variety of sizes so that you're able to find the perfect outfit for this important date.

3. Invitations: Take care of invitations first. It's important to give guests at least six weeks notice, so sit down with your partner and decide on a guest list. Doing this will ensure that those you love most will be there to see you tie the knot.

Kate Upton Responds to Victoria's Secret Snub

The modeling industry is full of critics, but the cover girl for Sport's Illustrated Swimsuit's 2012, Kate Upton, showed she can handle the competition and criticism with as much beauty as she exudes in her photos. Recently, Victoria's Secret casting director, Sophia Neophitou, said Upton would never walk down the catwalk for the famous lingerie company. According to UsMagazine.com, Neophitou said that Upton was "like a Page 3 girl," and added, "She's like a footballer's wife, with the too-blond hair and that kind of face that anyone with enough money can go out and buy." Even though the comments were harsh, Neophitou's words didn't seem to phase the model, and she politely responded to the slams by saying, "I'm doing fine in my career, I don't need to walk down their runway so it's all good. She can think that, and I can think whatever I want about her."

What are some positive ways to deal with negative comments?

Cupid's Advice:

Being able to take criticism and negative comments gracefully without getting caught up in drama is a great trait to possess. Cupid has some tips to help you be the bigger person in a bad situation:

1. Confidence: Anyone who's trying to break you down with negative comments doesn't deserve to see you act vulnerably, so stay confident. Stand up for yourself without criticizing the other person, and you'll win the battle.

2. Class: Perhaps the worst thing you can do is to give in to the teasing, and join in by firing back with more negativity. Nothing good can come out of it, and you'll leave feeling defeated and frustrated. Instead, ignore their comments or use the criticism constructively to better yourself.

3. Turn the tables: No matter what age you are, you're going to come across bullies. If someone starts bothering on you, calmly and curiously ask them, "Why do you feel the need to pick on me? What did I do to you?" Often, they're not going to have a justified reason, and it has a lot to do with their own insecurities.

'The Bachelor' Season 16 Episode 9: Ann and Jesse Csincsak Discuss Ben's Final Dates in Switzerland

By Lori Bizzoco

On this week's episode of The Bachelor, it was time for Ben Flajnik to narrow the girls down to two. The scene for the infamous one-on-one fantasy suite dates was set in Switzerland where Nicki, Lindzi and Courtney had the opportunity to get some alone time with Ben. In the middle of it all, was an unexpected twist. Kacie B. decided to return. She timidly knocked on Ben's hotel room door and wanted him to give her a reason why he let her go. His reasoning being simply because they were "world's apart." Personally, we didn't think he could muster up the courage to say that her parents were too old-fashioned for his taste (e.g., they were opposed to having their daughter move in with him before she was married).

Kacie then continued the conversation by letting Ben know that Courtney was up to no good and could break his heart.

This all happened directly following Ben's one-on-one talk with Courtney about this very issue. Nevertheless, when it came to the final rose ceremony it wasn't Courtney being sent home; it was Nicki. Sometimes, a man has to do, what a man has to do. And, then there were two! As if we didn't know who was "winning!" Here's a look at the weekly Q&A from your resident Bachelor Couple, Ann and Jesse Csincsak:

1. Overall, what did you think of tonight's episode? What was your favorite part?

Jesse: It's was very uneventful! I was glad to see Kacie come back; it made it a little more interesting.

Ann: I enjoy watching the show more towards the end because you're a little more invested in the girls and who goes home and who stays. In the beginning, I don't care as much about who gets cut!

2. Ben seems extremely confused (for good reason), is there anyone he can call or talk to about his feelings or is it all on him?

Jesse: Nope! He's all alone on this one. He really isn't even supposed to talk to his family.

Ann: No, the producers are not the ones to talk to because to be honest they are probably the CEO's and Board of directors for Team Courtney, THEY want him to pick her.

3. That scene where Ben and Nicki were dropped off on the cliff by helicopter, how long do they leave them there in the middle of nowhere?

Jesse: A couple of hours they just film a couple of shots and all the producers and camera men are there.

Ann: I would say they were up there long enough to get a good shot and kiss and that's about it. It just made for good TV because it was so dramatic to be standing on a cliff.

4. Why do they keep making Lindzi do these daring dates instead of giving her a romantic one-on-one? Do you think these type of dates work for or against someone?

Jesse: She told producers she was afraid of heights so they play on that. I think he likes her at this point so the dates are just for show.

Ann: They have her do it 1) because she is afraid of heights. 2) He is probably not as romantically interested in her. They just have a really good time together. I think in the begging these stunts work well for women because it shows a sense of adventure in them but towards the end it just feels like a repeat of the daring ones from the beginning.

5. What's really going on in the fantasy suite?

Jesse: Exactly what you think happens in the fantasy suite happens in the fantasy suite.

Ann: N/A

6. Do you think Courtney was sincere in apologizing? Do you think she really likes Ben?

Jesse: Yes and no. I think she's sorry she is getting flack but not sorry she's gotten so much attention.

Ann: I think she likes the idea of ben and WINNING! That's it.

7. What did you think of Kacie B's return? Was that done by the producers to position her as the next Bachelorette like we've seen many times before?

Jesse: Totally produced! I don't think she'll be the Bachelorette but you'll see her again on the pad.

Ann: I think she will be forgotten by the time the next Bachelorette (after Emily) comes around, so no. But it was producer planned and it made for a few minutes of excitement. I kept thinking he would let her come back.

8. What would you do if you were Ben and everyone kept warning you about someone you had strong feelings for?

Jesse: Ignore it! People do what they want in the end.

Ann: It would depend on how I felt for that person. There are plenty of people my friends have dated that were bad news and me telling my friend made no difference to them. Maybe it gets someone thinking but in the end people have to decide for themselves.

9. Anything you hope to hear or see on the tell-all next week?

Jesse: A whole bunch of drama! Haha! They are gonna destroy Courtney and she can't even defend herself. Oh well!

How do you make the relationship work the second time around?

Cupid's Advice:

The best part about giving your relationship a second shot is that you know what not to do. Don't continue to do the things that tore your relationship apart the first time. Here are some ways to make it work the second time around:

- 1. Trust each other: A successful relationship is built around trusting one another. You can't be happy with someone if you can't rely on them.
- 2. Start new: You're giving your relationship another chance for a reason. If you both keep digging up old dirt then there's no way you will be able to move forward to a fresh start.

3. Spend some time alone: Try to rekindle the love you once had by doing the things you did together when you were both happy. Sometimes all you both need is some one-on-one time to get back to that happy place.

What do you do if your partner and sibling don’t get along?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s not uncommon to have a partner who doesn’t get along with a sibling. But, if you’re in this relationship for the long haul, they need to come to some sort of an acceptance for one another. Here are some ways for the two to come to a truce:

- 1. Say what they mean to you: Make sure both your partner and your sibling know how much it means to you to have them in your life and how much it would mean to you for them to get along with someone who is equally important in your life.
- 2. Encourage them to start over: If a certain incident occurred that caused them to dislike one another, tell them to put it aside and start fresh.
- 3. Arrange an intervention: If nothing else seems to work, arrange for them to spend the day together where they can’t back out of doing so.

What are some ways to make it up to your partner when you have to cancel plans?

Cupid's Advice:

Canceling plans can put you and your partner in a tight spot. Here are a few ways to make it up to your partner when you're forced to bail:

1. Make new plans: After canceling, take it upon yourself to plan something for the next time you and your partner are both available. With a little effort, you will be able to show your partner exactly how much they mean to you.

2. Change plans: If you don't have time for a movie, you may have time for a quick ice cream run later in the evening. Offering other suggestions that work will let your partner know how much your time together means to you.

3. Be tactful: If you're tactful and polite when you cancel the plans, you may not need to do as much damage control. Be sure to give your mate valid reasons as to why you're bailing, and apologize for not being able to follow through.
