

Andrea Roth Explains Why She Scrapped Big Wedding Plans

Andrea Roth who is soon to join the cast of Ringer married producer, Todd Biermann, in a smaller than planned wedding. Though the couple was originally looking into a big wedding in the Dominican Republic, their plans changed when the actress' mother was diagnosed with stage four brain cancer and was unable to fly. So the pair, who met on the set of Rescue Me in 2007, quickly changed their wedding plans and decided on a small wedding near the bride's parents' house. According to People, twelve guests attended the ceremony, including their 19-month-old daughter, Ava.

What are some reasons to have a small intimate wedding ceremony?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter if your wedding is big or small, it will probably be one of the best days of your life. Choose the size that is best for you and where you are in your life. Here are some tips:

- 1. Budgets: Don't start out your marriage in debt. If you can't afford a big wedding, have a small one.
- 2. Intimacy: If you want a more intimate experience with those you are closest to, then go for a less massive wedding.
- 3. Location: If your plan is to get married on a beach far away, a small ceremony is to be expected. Most of your guests will most likely not have the time or money to pick up and go to your destination wedding. Plan a party when you get home instead.

Zoe Saldana and Keith Britton Split After 11 Years

relationships can come to an end. Avatar star Zoe Saldana, 33, split from her fiancé, businessman Keith Britton, 35, reports People. “[The couple] have amicably separated after 11 years,” said Saldana’s rep in a statement. The pair will continue their partnership in the website My Fashion Database. “Saldana and Britton remain committed business partners as co-founders of fashion resource MyFDB.com,” said the statement.

How do you rebuild independence after a long relationship ends?

Cupid’s Advice:

When a relationship strengthens over time, so does your dependence on your partner. Here are a few ways to rebuild your independence after a break up:

1. Take control of your money: In long relationships, it’s not uncommon to have shared bank accounts and investments. Separating your funds from your partner’s is one of the quickest ways to reassert your independence.

2. Be wary of mutual friends: After a long time with your partner, the two of you most likely have mutual friends.

Though it can be disheartening, strictly sorting your friends post-breakup will help you move on. Contact with mutual friends will only remind you of your ex.

3. Visit your family: One of the best ways to heal after a break-up is by visiting your friends and family. Those closest to you will help you remember how you were before your relationship and will also help you move forward.

Lauren Conrad Is Caught Kissing Chace Crawford

After Lauren

Conrad's recent break up with Dancing with the Stars pro Derek Hough, she is newly single and ready to get out there and date. The 25-year-old former The Hills reality star and fashion icon isn't wasting any time finding new man. According to UsMagazine.com, Conrad was seen "making out" with Gossip Girl star, Chace Crawford on Oct. 29. The two started their night flirting at L.A.'s Voyeur nightclub and met up again at a party at actor Shawn Pyfrom's house. Although their reps deny a hookup, an insider said, "There's always been an attraction between them. Lauren is just enjoying herself. She's not taking anything too seriously!"

Is it OK to date around?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're young and single, there's no reason to tie yourself down. Cupid has some tips:

1. Explore your options: There's a whole sea of men out there and you need to do some fishing around before you reel one in. Dating around is a great way to meet new people and compare them to past experiences.

2. Figure out what you like: The best way to find personalities you're compatible with is to experience different people. After dating around, you gain a keen sense of your preferences for a partner.

3. Have fun: Dating can be a great experience. You have opportunities to have a great time or a not-so-great time, and you can learn from those situations. You may find that you don't want to pursue a relationship with some of the people you date, but you might make some great friends and connections along the way.

Tori Spelling Says Her New Daughter Enhanced Her Marriage

Tori Spelling's brood has grown larger, reports UsMagazine.com. Hattie Margaret, daughter of Tori Spelling and Dean McDermott, greeted the world on October 10th. With the new baby came many surprises. "[We were] 110 percent sure we were having a boy," said Spelling. Despite the surprises, Spelling feels that her new baby has brought her closer to McDermott. "The baby wasn't planned, but it obviously happened for a reason. Knowing we were bringing a third life into the world just enhanced our relationship. The moment I had her, I looked at Dean and fell in love with him all over again."

How does having a baby bring you closer together as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no doubt that having a child can be overwhelming, but working together to raise your son or daughter can also be a bonding experience. Here's why:

1. Challenge: Raising a child comes with obstacles. Tackling the challenges together will strengthen your relationship, especially when you're successful.

2. New happiness: Children are entertaining, especially when they're young. Your baby will bring even more happiness to your relationship.

3. Stress: Though rewarding, adjusting to life as a parent is difficult. However, the stress and hardships you encounter as a couple will ultimately strengthen your bond when you triumph over them.

According to People, while receiving her award, Lambert proclaimed, “Congrats to my hubby too. It’s gonna be a good night tonight baby! “

How do you share the limelight with your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Everyone wants to be in limelight at least once in while. But, when it comes to sharing it, here are some ways to enjoy your glory together without it getting competitive:

- 1. Smile and relax: Some of us have a very competitive nature. But, it doesn’t have to be that way, especially with someone you love. Take a step back and enjoy this moment together.
- 2. Congratulate them: Let your partner know how proud you are of them, and they’ll do the same for you.

3. Give credit where it's due: Don't try to take credit for everything. Your partner's achievements are just as important as yours.

Michelle Duggar Admits That Lots of Kids Aren't for Everyone

If you thought reality TV's largest family couldn't get any bigger, you thought wrong. The Duggars, stars of TLC's 19 Kids and Counting are expecting another addition to their humongous brood. Following the birth of pre-mature Josie, Michelle Duggar has been taking extreme precautions with this latest pregnancy. "I have been getting counseled from a high-risk pregnancy doctor in Little Rock and taking good care of myself," she tells People. Despite the media's shock, the couple is excited to welcome their 20th child. "We know that having this kids isn't for everyone, but we are open to receive whatever gifts God wants us to have." Guess we'll see how this pregnancy pans out on the next season of 19 (or 20?) Kids and Counting.

How do you know how many kids will work best for you?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to discuss with your partner how many kids you're interested in having before starting a family. As your relationship progresses along with work and other things, you'll know how many children you can handle:

- 1. Babysit: Of course one of the best ways to see how many children you'd want to have is to babysit. Offer to help out with a friend's kids for a weekend just to get some insight into the ups and down of raising a family.
- 2. Know: Know how many kids you and your partner want before having children. Kids need constant attention, so you need to be able to provide financial and emotional support for them.
- 3. Decide if you're ready: A lot of couples plan for a specific time in their relationship to have children for different reasons. Talk to your significant other and see if you're even ready at this moment in time for kids.

Jack Osbourne Admits His Baby-to-Be Wasn't Planned

Despite the surprise factor, 25-year-old Jack Osbourne and fiancée Lisa Stelly are thrilled to be expecting their first child together. Known for his love of extreme sports, Osbourne has no problem curbing these activities once he is a father. He told Britain's Star magazine that he is "excited" for the baby and that he's "really happy about the whole thing." RadarOnline says that along with the excitement of the new baby is the possibility of a reality TV show for the blossoming household, much like The Osbournes, which originally brought Osbourne to fame.

How do you quickly adapt to the idea of having a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancies aren't always planned, so it's often necessary to come to grips with the idea of having a baby quickly. Here are some things to consider:

1. Tell your family: Telling your family about your unplanned pregnancy can be difficult, but there are a myriad of benefits. They can be a valuable source of support when it comes to difficult decisions, can provide financial help, and may even go with you to your appointments.

2. Stay healthy: Be aware of necessary lifestyle changes such as the one Jack Osbourne plans to make for his baby. Make smart diet choices as well as smart physical choices. Avoid alcohol and dangerous movements.

3. Trust the professionals: When in doubt, there is no better advice given than that of your doctor. Make sure to have regular appointments with your doctor, and don't be afraid to ask them any questions you may have.

Rob Pattinson Says He Began Acting to Meet Girls

On Tuesday night, Robert Pattinson revealed on The Late Show with David Letterman that he began acting to meet girls. According to UsMagazine.com, Pattinson's role as Edward Cullen in the Twilight Saga not only attracted girlfriend Kristen Stewart to him, but it also swept many female fans all over the world. "It's not just teenage girls," he told Letterman. "It's older [women] too. The older ones are far more passionate fans."

What are some ways to get out and meet potential partners?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all of us can land a career as an actor, so us "normal" folk have to use other methods. Cupid has some advice:

- 1. Join a class: Enroll in a class that appeals mainly to the opposite sex. For instance, take a cooking class if you're a guy or boxing lessons if you're a woman.
- 2. Online dating: They might not be for everyone, but you'll never know unless you try it. You might even end up finding The One on a dating site.
- 3. Socialize: Attend parties or join an organization. Going out in the world and communicating is the best way to find a partner.

Divorce: Kris Jenner Says Kim Kardashian Needs to 'Cry It Out'

According to Kris Jenner, this past week hasn't been easy for Kim Kardashian as she deals with her divorce from Kris Humphries. Jenner says that her daughter will eventually open up about the issues that led to her decision to file for divorce, but for now she's still trying to sort things out. "She needs to do what she's doing now and cry and figure it out," Jenner tells Extra Magazine. "She's just trying to follow her heart, and she's going to be OK." Recently, Kardashian flew to Minnesota to see Humphries because, "She really needed to talk to him," said Jenner. She was there for less than 24 hours, and the two allegedly met with the pastor who performed their wedding ceremony to discuss what went wrong.

What are some ways to cope in the midst of a stressful divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Going through a divorce can be a hectic and stress-inducing. Here are some ways to make process more relaxing:

- 1. Give yourself a break: Getting a divorce is not an easy task, and it will take a toll on you emotionally and physically. Take the day or a weekend to get away and indulge in some quality 'you' time. Do something that makes you happy.
- 2. Don't isolate yourself: Don't bottle everything up, because you'll inevitably explode. Talk to your friends and family about how you're feeling and what you're going through. Join a support group where you can talk to people going through the same thing. Don't be afraid to get help.
- 3. Remember things will get easier: You may be stressed out now, and things might only seem to be getting worse, but it will get better. Allow yourself to feel the pain you're experiencing so you can get it all out and start fresh.

Alanis Morisette Says She Was Unprepared for Motherhood

Alanis Morisette recently opened up about postpartum and not being prepared for the birth of her 10-month-old son, Ever Imre, with husband Souleye. The singer, who wrote a blog for iVillage.com, said she worried about labor and delivery instead of mentally preparing to become a mother. According to UsMagazine.com, Morisette said she felt like there was no handbook to guide her in raising her son and being a first time mother.

How do you prepare yourself for motherhood?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Talk to the experts: Go beyond getting a pediatrician's advice or reading those expensive baby books, and talk to actual mothers. Don't know any? Try becoming a member of mommy forums online and/or play groups.

2. Talk to your baby: Talking to your baby while they are still in the womb helps build a bond. Once the baby arrives, you will feel more intuned with your child and your role as a mom.

3. Come to terms with not being prepared: We could write a thousand steps on preparing for motherhood, but the truth is that motherhood is taught through experiences. Making mistakes makes you human, and teaching your child how to not make the same mistakes you do, makes you a mother.

If you think you may have postpartum or need someone to talk to, don't be embarrassed, talk to your doctor.

Prince William and Kate Middleton Plan to Move to a Bigger Apartment

Could a royal heir soon be on the way for Prince William and Kate Middleton? According to People, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge are making plans to upgrade from their two-bedroom apartment in Kensington Palace by summer 2013. Queen Elizabeth's late sister Princess Margaret, previously occupied their new apartment that is said to be the size of a small mansion. However, before the royal couple can move into their new digs, much work needs to be done. Asbestos issues along with the heating and hot water systems need to be fixed before it is suitable for royal living. As for their previous Kensington Palace residence, Prince Harry will be moving in.

What are some factors to consider when you're looking for a home with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When you decide to move in with your partner, look for a safe happy home with enough space for both of you. Here are some tips:

1. Be economical: You may have always dreamed of living in that penthouse or having the nicest house on the block, but if you can't afford it yet, don't force the issue. No one wants to end up in foreclosure or not being able to pay the rent.

2. Embrace your space: Living in a studio apartment together may be a big money saver, but when it comes to your personal space, it won't be the best choice. Go for a one bedroom instead where you can still live together, but spend time apart.

3. Safety: Aside from trying to live in a safe area, if you're planning on having children, look for a childproof residence around a good school system.

Rumor: Is Kate Middleton Pregnant?

Kate Middleton

may have some expectant news to share with the world soon, according to UsMagazine.com. Rumors began when the Duchess of Cambridge refused to eat peanut paste, a food meant to be avoided by women who are expecting a baby. Now, the 29-year-old wife of Prince William has been seen holding, patting, rubbing and even cradling her stomach. When visiting a UNICEF distribution center in Copenhagen, Denmark recently, an onlooker described Middleton's actions as "very noticeable" and said, "She continually patted [her stomach] and held her hands against it. She must have been doing it without realizing it." William and Kate do intend to have children in the future, but it looks like the time for them to start a family may be sooner rather than later.

How do you keep your pregnancy a secret until you're ready to reveal it?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're not quite ready to share the joyous news of a pregnancy yet, there are ways to keep it quiet for a while:

1. Resist the hand-on-tummy move: Sometimes expectant mothers unknowingly rest their hands on their stomach, like Kate

Middleton has been seen doing. When trying to hide a pregnancy, be conscious of this action and make an effort to keep your hands on your hips or elsewhere.

2. Dress to hide the bump: No one said that mothers-to-be can't be trendy. Wear clothing that's both in style and flattering to your growing figure, such as empire waist tops or dresses.

3. Look the part: If you don't want people to know you're pregnant, don't look pregnant. This means keeping up with your hair and make-up and avoiding the puffy eyes which can cause a co-worker or friend to ask, "Are you feeling okay?"

Avril Lavigne's Bar Fight Lands BF Brody Jenner In Hospital

A bar fight and a trip to the hospital doesn't exactly make for a romantic Saturday night date. Avril Lavigne and Brody Jenner began the night in a harmless way at Chateau Marmont and then settled in at Hotel Roosevelt's lounge, according to RadarOnline. Unfortunately, Lavigne got into a heated argument with another female toward the end of the evening and Jenner, trying to protect his girlfriend, got a big gash on his head from a thrown bottle. It's probably not the brightest idea to get in the middle of a girl fight!

What are some ways to support your partner when they get into a fight?

Cupid's Advice:

Watching your partner get into a brawl with a stranger can really send you into protective mode. Fighting is the last thing you want to do. Here are some ways to support your partner during a fight, minus a trip to jail or the hospital:

1. Try to calm your partner: Instead of adding to your partner's anger, try to calm them down by talking to them quietly and rationally.

2. Walk away: It may be hard for your partner to walk away once they're already upset. Take the initiative and start to walk away first, while guiding your partner with you to the exit.

3. Let them vent: After a fight or heated argument, listening to your partner complain about the situation will help them begin to forget about retaliation or violence. Venting can really do wonders.

Rumor: Rob Pattinson Is 'Desperate for Affection' From Kristen Stewart

The forbidden love story within the Twilight Saga has become a phenomenon, as audiences watch mortal Bella Swan (Kristen Stewart) fall deeply and helplessly in love with vampire Edward Cullen (Robert Pattinson). There seems to be no limit to the dangers Bella will put herself in as she pursues her relationship with Edward, and her biggest fear is having to live without him. The on-set romance has flourished into a two-and-a-half-year real-life relationship, but when it comes to reality, the movie stars' roles have reversed. Insiders told UsMagazine.com that Pattinson is "desperate for affection" from Stewart. The actor, 25, is eager to settle down, but Stewart, 21, isn't quite ready for him to put a ring on it. "He's always worried about her leaving him. She will blow him off, and it makes him crazy," said the source.

What do you do if your partner doesn't show enough affection?

Cupid's Advice:

Although affection cannot be directly taught, if you're partner was raised in a family that rarely showed affection, then it's up to you to show them how it's done. Here are some tips:

1. Create rituals: If your partner has a hard time expressing their feelings for you, put little signs of affection into your daily routine. Kiss each other hello and goodbye. Whenever you see one another or hang up the phone, say “I love you.” Also, make sure to call each other every day when you both have a break in your schedule.

2. Be respectful: Not everyone is into PDA, so you have to be respectful of your partner’s comfort level. Communicate with each other about what you like and don’t like, and then you’ll have a better understanding of what to expect. Just because you can’t show affection one way doesn’t mean there’s not a better alternative.

3. Take the lead: Maybe your partner is afraid to be affectionate because they lack confidence. Next time you’re walking down the street, take their hand first, kiss them in a public place (keep it classy), or spontaneously tell them you love them. Show your partner that you’re comfortable displaying how much you like them, and hopefully they return the feeling.

Kelly Rowland Accidentally Reveals Sex of Beyonce’s Baby

It's a girl! Or is it? Kelly Rowland kept referring to the newest addition to the Knowles-Carter calm as "she" and her" while answering questions about Beyonce's bundle of joy in London on Thursday. The X-Factor UK judge revealed to UsMagazine.com she was unsure of what to get her new niece for the baby shower. "I don't know, I think her dad is gonna give her everything anyways, all I can give her is love." With a response clearly insinuating the baby will be a girl, the media is buzzing with excitement. Rowland revealed she receives a weekly update from her best friend and former Destiny's Child band mate. So if anyone knows the sex of the baby, it's definitely be Auntie Kelly. Hopefully Beyonce and Jay-Z aren't too upset!

What are the differences in preparing for a baby girl versus a boy?

Cupid's Advice.

Aside from the obvious, there are inherent differences between girls and boys, and it's your job as a parent to be able to develop your child's skills accordingly. Here are some tips:

1. Research: As a new parent, do the proper research to know the ways in which baby boys differ from girls in terms of early childhood development.

2. Your childhood: Ask your family or your partner's family about the habits you each had as a baby. Your bundle of joy will probably have similar traits, and you'll be better equipped to deal with it.

3. Color scheme and theme: Of course you're going to decorate certain ways and purchase specific toys according to your baby's gender. Consider switching it up a bit; instead of pink and blue, go for yellow and green.

Justin Bieber Baby Scandal May Require DNA Test

Justin Bieber might need to offer proof. The teenage popstar, who is currently dating Selena Gomez, may need to take a court-ordered paternity test in light of 20 year-old Mariah Yeater's claims that Bieber fathered her child, reports People. Though Bieber denies ever meeting Yeater, her attorneys assure the court that they have credible evidence proving Bieber's relationship to the child. "The judge has to weigh two things: Bieber's right to privacy versus the child's right to know who the father is," said L.A. family law attorney Steve Mindel. "Unless the judge thinks the woman made everything up, the court will likely order the test as the quickest resolution."

How do you combat false infidelity rumors when you're in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Dealing with false rumors can be difficult and damaging. Here are a few ways to combat the false accusations:

1. Defend yourself: When a false rumor presents itself, deny the rumor. Offer credible evidence in your defense, and prove your innocence.

2. Confront the source: If you know who is spreading the rumors, confront them. Tell the source that you find the remarks hurtful. Many times the people who start rumors do not realize the effect they will have.

3. Stop reacting: If the above steps prove ineffective, then stop reacting to the rumors. Eventually, the source of the rumors will tire and the false claims will subside.

"They started seeing each other after she left Dancing with the Stars," said a source. "She already refers to him as her boyfriend. They're really cute."

How do you know if your new relationship is a rebound?

Cupid's Advice:

It's easy to enter a new relationship before you have recovered from a past breakup. Here are a few ways to tell if you're in a rebound relationship:

- 1. You think about your ex: If you find yourself frequently thinking about your ex instead of your new partner, you probably still have feelings for your former partner.
- 2. You compare your relationships: If you find yourself comparing your current partner to your ex, you need to rethink the relationship. Let your partner be their own person, and don't compare them to your ex.

3. You don't see a future: If you're in a serious relationship, try visualizing a future with your partner. Until you can picture a future with your partner, you will never be completely over your ex.

'Bachelor' Alumna Ann Csincsak and Partner Katie Meyer Open Vintage Sweet & Chic Boutique

By

Lauren

Kochendarfer

Get ready to shop! Ann Csincsak (née Ann Lueders) of 'The Bachelor' Season 13 and her business partner, Katie Meyer will be opening a new clothing boutique in Breckenridge, Colorado called Vintage Sweet & Chic on November 12, 2011.

Although formerly a dream of Katie's, when she met Ann, the two joined forces to get the business off the ground. During a recent interview, both ladies expressed their overwhelming excitement about the venture and emphasized the need for a place on Main Street that carries cute and trendy pieces.

"Breckenridge's staple clothing piece is snowboard pants and tall tees," Ann said. "So unless we wanted to dig through our husband's closets to fit in them, we decided to make a change rather than conform." The ladies also decided to keep the name of the place simple. "Vintage Sweet & Chic, comes from 'Vintage' which speaks for itself, 'Sweet' is the old fashioned candy wall, and 'Chic' defines that it's a totally awesome boutique for the ladies.

Despite the fact that Ann and her husband Jesse Csincsack, the winner of 'Bachelorette' Season 4, are both very busy with their newborn son Noah (the store mascot), Ann does plan on being at the store as much as possible. In fact, for the time being she and Katie will be the only employees. "We are everything from the cleaning crew to the head buyers to the personal stylists of the store," Katie noted. For the single ladies traveling to the area, Ann and Katie say that if you happen to meet someone on the slopes, come by their shop. They will help make sure that your outfit turns that weekend fling into a lifelong romance! Vintage Sweet & Chick inspires great date night clothing pieces and also offers vintage fur coats, an essential winter piece in a chilly place like Breckenridge.

This is one Grand Opening event that you don't want to miss.

In addition to Ann's husband, Jesse, here are a few names of famous reality stars you may see on the red carpet:

Natalie Getz – Bachelor 13 / Bachelor Pad 1 Co Winner
Erica Rose – Bachelor Rome / Bachelor Pad 2 / VH1 Cut off
Jeff Medolla – Wine Maker / Bachelorette 7 = THE MASK
Nikki Kaapke – Bachelor 13 / Bachelor Pad 1
Eliza Orlins – Survivor
Richard Mathy – Bachelorette 4
John Hardesty – Bachelorette 5
Kirsten Pittman – Bachelor 14

Mark Huebner – Bachelorette 5

Suzie Williams – Bachelor 5

Also attending are some ladies from the upcoming season of “The Bachelor” with Ben Flajnik and survivor ‘South Pacific’ contestants. The event is being sponsored by Popchips, Freaky Muscato and Rubywood at Paragon Lodging.

Jessica Simpson Will Wed Eric Johnson After Baby is Born

After months of tabloid rumors about Jessica Simpson’s potential baby bump, she has finally confirmed that she is indeed pregnant with her first child. According to People, the new baby with fiance, Eric Johnson, wasn't exactly planned, but wasn't something they were trying avoid either. The singer/fashion designer and former NFL player are still completely committed to getting married, although it will now probably happen after the baby is born. "It's just going to be at a later date now [because] they really want to enjoy this time in their lives," said a source close to the couple.

What are the advantages to waiting until after your baby is born to tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Since every wedding is unique, there's no perfect formula for a wedding. But, if you're pregnant before the wedding, there are some advantages to waiting until after the baby is born to have the ceremony.

1. Your child can be part of the ceremony: It's both adorable and meaningful to make your child an active part of your wedding. If they're old enough, they can even be the flower girl or ring bearer.

2. The dress is a better fit: It's hard to fit into a wedding dress with a baby bump, but once you get your figure back, you'll look fabulous.

3. A kid-friendly wedding: At most weddings, the kids are left at home. If your child is part of your wedding, however, your guests can bring their kids along, too.

Justin Bieber Denies Fathering a Baby

Baby, baby, baby

noooo way! Justin Bieber recently became the father of his new puppy, Baylor, with girlfriend, singer and actress Selena Gomez, but he denies all accusations that he fathered the (human) child of Mariah Yeater. The 20-year-old Californian told STAR magazine that she and Bieber, 17, had sex backstage at a show in L.A. She gave birth to her son three months ago, and has filed a paternity lawsuit against the young pop sensation. A rep for Bieber told UsMagazine.com, "While we haven't yet seen the lawsuit, it's sad that someone would fabricate, malicious, defamatory AND demonstrably false claims. We will vigorously pursue all available legal remedies to defend and protect Justin against these allegations."

How do you handle others' claims that your partner is cheating?

Cupid's Advice:

Hearing that your partner is cheating on you is humiliating and infuriating. If you're told your partner's been sneaking around, here's some ways to react:

1. Get the facts: Don't believe everything you hear without finding out exactly what people are saying, and who's saying it. Rumors get twisted, but they have to start somewhere. Get your facts and your sources straightened out, and then proceed to deal with the situation.

2. Confront the source: If someone tells you that your partner is cheating, turn around and directly ask your significant other. It might be difficult, but usually that fear comes because we're afraid of their answer. Make sure that you don't back down too easily if they try to persuade you otherwise. They've lost your trust, and they need to win it back by proving themselves.

3. Don't act irrationally: Just because you hear that your partner has cheated, that doesn't mean you should try to even the score by cheating on them. All previous trust within the relationship will vanish, and repair may be impossible, especially if your partner ends up being innocent. Wait until you're positive your partner is cheating, and then handle the situation maturely, whether that's breaking up or choosing to work things out.

Denise Richards and Richie Sambora Are Dating Again

Being reunited must feel good for on-again couple Denise Richards and Richie Sambora. The two were seen together Sunday night at a Japanese restaurant in California, according to E! Online. After a year long relationship in 2007, the couple have decided to try their hand at love together again. In Richard's memoir, she discussed her relationship with Sambora saying, "Richie and I shared an easiness I hadn't before had." She also revealed that since their split, the couple has met up a few times. It's clear that they both still care for each other, and hopefully this time around proves to be more successful.

What do you do when you haven't gotten over your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to give yourself some time after a breakup to focus on yourself. However, if after a while you still have strong feelings for your ex, maybe it's time to explore why you broke up and if there's potential for a reconciliation. Here are some things to consider:

1. The reason you can't move on: Many times it's hard to get over an ex if there was no closure at the end of your relationship. Meet up with your ex and discuss why your relationship ended to help your feelings subside.

2. Learn from your mistakes: In a lot of relationships, both parties feel like the other is at fault for a breakup. Instead of blaming your ex for everything, look at what you both could have done better to make your romance last.

3. Second chances: Sometimes it takes a split and individual growth to realize that your ex is the right person for you. Talk to your former partner and see if there's a potential future still there for you.

Shai LaBeouf's Girlfriend Visits Him on Set

Even though his girlfriend, Karolyn Pho, isn't acting in the new movie The Company You Keep with Shia LaBeouf, she still kept her beau company recently on set. According to People, Pho wore casual clothes and was friendly with crewmembers while visiting. She even shook the hand of director Robert Redford. Later, both LaBeouf and Pho managed to sneak off set and enjoy some alone time at a nearby coffee shop. Then, not quite ready to separate, they strolled arm-in-arm on the way back.

What are some ways to support your partner's career?

Cupid's Advice:

Even if you don't fully understand your significant other's career, it's important to show your support. Cupid has some ways to do just that:

1. Be there: Be aware of your mate's career moves and changes so that you can support and encourage them each step of the way. Pep talks at the right times certainly couldn't hurt.

2. Promote relaxation: Help your partner take their mind off of hectic or stressful times at work by doing something fun. Theme parks, movie theatres, or even a short interlude at a coffee shop like Karolyn Pho and Shia Labeouf work great.

3. Show understanding: If your partner has a chaotic job, they may not always be home on time, or they may have to travel a lot. Be willing to travel with your partner, and if that's not possible, make the time you have with them count. Whatever you do, don't make them feel guilty.

Etiquette Expert Says Kim Kardashian Should Return Wedding Gifts

According to Lizzie Post, an etiquette expert and author of Emily Post's Etiquette 18th Edition, Kim Kardashian's plan to give her wedding gifts to charity following her divorce from Kris Humphries is the wrong decision. Post does stress, however, that she's certainly not against charitable giving, according to People. "I don't want to come across as saying that charity wouldn't be a great way to handle it," she says. "It's just that in that case, you're making a charitable donation on someone else's behalf under your name." She goes on to say that Kardashian would come across as seeming undeservingly "generous" and will get a bit tax write-off because of it. The right way to handle it, she recommends, is returning the gifts to the givers.

If your marriage dissolves quickly, what do you do with the gifts?

Cupid's Advice:

It's an unfortunate circumstance with which to deal, but when your marriage doesn't last past the first few months, it's important to know what to do with the gifts you received at the wedding. Here are some options:

1. Charity: If you think your guests would be offended at getting their gifts back, consider donating them to charity like Kim Kardashian. Just because Lizzie Post doesn't think it's the proper thing to do, doesn't mean it's not the right decision for you.

2. Return to stores: One option is returning the gifts to the stores they came from, and then giving the money back to your former guests. This eliminates the need for them to go through the trouble to return the gifts themselves.

2. Return to guests: If you're lacking time and energy, send each of the gifts back to the respective givers. Make sure to include a note thanking them for their kind thoughts.
