

Jonah Hill and Longtime Girlfriend Split

High school

sweethearts, Jonah Hill and Jordan Klein, recently broke up. Coincidence or not, Hill had recently lost 40 pounds. According to UsMagazine.com, the actor was spotted hanging out with a different girl just a few weeks after the split. According to a source, Klein seemed really happy and there were no signs of a breakup. Traveling and time apart could be the culprit for the bad news. Following a job offer, Klein could no longer travel in order to spend time with her boyfriend.

How do you define yourself independently after a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Ending a relationship can leave you lonely and without an identity. Sometimes being in a long term relationship means falling into a routine or doing almost everything with your partner. Being single means being your own person, again:

1. Get rid of the past: Give or throw away presents, borrowed items or anything else that reminds you of your old flame. Replace old pictures of you and your ex with pictures of your family and friends.

2. Go out: No need to make bad decisions, but do go out and spend time with someone who loves you and can support you through this tough time.

3. Think about it: Figure out whether you want to stay single for a while or start dating again right away. Whatever it is, take the time to find out what makes you happy.

Tough Love Miami: Steve Ward Talks About A “FunSexyCool” Way To Find Love In The Digital Age

By Andrew Pryor

Simply put, Steve Ward knows his way around the human heart so well it's a wonder he's not a cardiologist in his spare time.

Having joined the family matchmaking business straight out of Drexel University, he's currently the CEO of Master Matchmakers, working alongside his mother, JoAnn Ward. They also co-host the breakout VH1 series Tough Love, now in its fourth season.

Being a co-host of Tough Love helped Steve share his relationship expertise with a much wider audience, and the show itself provided VH1 with a reprieve from the stigma of past shows like Flavor of Love and Rock of Love. “The executives over at VH1 were looking for more transformative programming,” says Steve, “so that was kind of our hook.” And that “hook” turned into a successful program that brought him and his mother into the limelight.

So what's a big part of their success, both on-and-off-camera?

Well, in Steve's opinion, a lot of it has to do with the way their business melds hands-on relationship advice with new technological developments. “I really enjoy being on the cutting edge of technology, especially when it comes to the dating world,” he says. “We just have to keep up with the times. Dating and mating are evolving faster than we are.”

This particular subject made its way onto a recent episode of Tough Love, where the women were taught how to text responsibly and were ambushed during dates with photos from their Facebook pages.

And Steve's newest innovation: a smartphone app named FunSexyCool. It combines technology and matchmaking in a way that's accessible and fun to use. It's an app that let's you upload a photo of yourself, look at the photos of other users, and rate them as Fun, Sexy, or Cool, hence the name. It's also one of the few social romance networks that actually rewards you for being active—the more pictures you rate, the more conversations you can have with other members of the site. It also includes a feature where you can contact a user in your general vicinity and chat with them.

“Me and a couple of tech developers I know were talking about how people seemed frustrated with the options that were out there for finding love, so we worked together to come up with something new,” he says.

Interested daters can sign up for the app at funsexycool.com.

And for those who want more of Steve Ward, visit MasterMatchmakers.com or watch Tough Love at 8 ET/7 CT.

Steve may be a practitioner of tough love, but it's definitely not difficult for people to fall in love with all that he's done to better people's lives.

Are Scarlett Johansson and Joseph Gordon-Levitt Dating?

Scarlett Johansson and Joseph Gordon-Levitt may be a new couple, reports UsMagazine.com. together. However, another source testified, “[Johansson and Gordon-Levitt] first met about a film they wanted to do together, but it’s gone beyond that now.”

What are some ways to take a new relationship slowly?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re excited about a new relationship, it’s easy to get carried away. Here are a few ways to take things slowly:

1. Plan infrequent dates: Even if you aren’t busy, you should still avoid planning dates too frequently. Keep your outings few and far between at the beginning of the relationship so that you get to know each other gradually.

2. Limit your affection: Kissing your partner speeds up a relationship. To take things slowly, try waiting until the second or third date to show physical affection.

3. Wait on an introduction: It’s okay to tell your friends and family about your new relationship, but don’t allow them to meet your new partner until the two of you have dated for a while. Waiting on an introduction will limit your partner’s influence in your life.

Demi Moore Hits the Red Carpet Alone, But With

Wedding Ring

So far, both Demi Moore and Ashton Kutcher have kept quiet about their supposed marital woes, despite being constantly hounded by the tabloids. Although reports have recently surfaced that Kutcher cheated on Moore on their sixth wedding anniversary, the actress was still spotted on the red carpet with her wedding ring firmly in place. E! Online reports that Moore was not hurting for male companionship though, as she was surrounded by men at the NYC premiere of her latest film, Margin Call.

Although men including Simon Baker, Paul Bettany, Penn Badgley and Zachary Quinto shared the red carpet with Moore, the actress did choose to attend the premiere without a very obvious date.

What are some ways to keep your marital woes from prying eyes?

Cupid's Advice:

Every marriage has its issues, but it's how you handle them that counts. Cupid has some ways to keep your problems from curious outsiders:

1. Discuss in private: Although you may have the urge to talk to you partner about an issue you're having immediately, do all that you can to keep it inside until the timing is right to discuss it ... which is when you're not in public.

2. Don't spill to friends: When you're angry with your mate, it can be tempting to run to your friends to complain. This will only serve to make things worse. Make sure to confront your significant other before confiding in your pals.

3. Interact in public minimally: If the problems in your marriage are big, it's probably best to stay out of the public eye together. The temptation to fight despite the fact that you're in front of people can sometimes be too great when your issues are major. Practice some independence from each other during this time.

Kellan Lutz Says Past Girlfriends Have Made the First Moves

hunk Kellan Lutz can stop speculating. Like many other male celebrities, Lutz has fallen victim to gay rumors. However, he assures his fans they are not true and that only insecure girls believe such nonsense. “Most of the girlfriends I’ve had have come after me. So it’s really funny when girls get offended because I don’t hit on them. They’ll transform their insecurity into ‘Oh that makes sense because I heard you’re into guys and have a boyfriend’...” The star has a lot of love for the LGBT community, despite the rumors. RadarOnline reports that he even prefers gay men as roommates because they’re typically cleaner. So ladies, if you ever want to approach Kellan Lutz, remember to be bold and secure with your tactics.

As a woman, what are some appropriate ways to make the first move?

Cupid’s Advice:

Making the first move is a bold approach. Remember to look your best and be confident in your choice of words and actions:

1. Buy them a drink: Some guys may try to flip the script and buy you a drink, but stand your ground. This shows you’re a person of interest and that you're independent and can hold your own.

2. Compliments: A good way to break the ice is to compliment them. Whether it's their clothes, shoes, or eyes, this helps to get the conversation flowing.

3 Ask them to dance: Although this is a little risky because not everyone likes to dance , it does show that you want to have fun, which is an attractive characteristic. If the guy you choose can't dance, hit them with some old school dances and make everyone laugh.

Amy Smart and Carter Oosterhouse's Wedding Was Eco-Friendly

It stands to reason that Amy Smart and Carter Oosterhouse would have the ultimate green wedding, as the pair initially met on a project they did for the Environmental Media Awards. “We got assigned to adopt a school garden together,” said Smart at the 2011 EMA’s in Burbank, Calif. “We met, and we were both in relationships, so we just remained friends. Now, that’s impressive!

Cupid’s Advice:

What are some ways to keep your wedding green?

There’s no doubt that having a lot of people in one place can generate a lot of waste. Weddings are one of those occasions where masses of people get together to celebrate. Here are some ways to keep your wedding eco-friendly:

1. Use recycled and re-purposed decorations: Instead of investing in brand new decorations you’ll never use again (and will most likely throw away), either use decorations you’ve utilized at past occasions or buy decorations made out of recycled materials.

2. Send out electronic invitations: You waste a lot of precious materials by sending out paper invitations, and they're almost always thrown out after the fact. Send out e-mail notifications instead.

3. Cut down on trash: Follow in Amy Smart and Carter Oosterhouse's steps and cut down on waste you produce at your ceremony and reception. Use plates, glasses and silverware that can be washed and used again. Request that your guests don't wrap your gifts. Say "no" to paper or plastic decorations that will simply be tossed after your big day is over.

2. Stay close: Standing closer together or sitting near each other at a table is an easy way to show your partner your affection without being obvious.

3. Keep it short: If you do want to kiss or hug your partner in public, keep it short. People passing by will not notice a quick smooch, but they will notice a prolonged kiss.

What are some unique events you can attend as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

NBC 'Chuck' Star Vik Sahay

Shares 10 Love Lessons for Men (Lester Patel Style)

By Whitney Baker

With the fifth and final season of NBC's television series, 'Chuck', set to premiere this month, fans of the show are anxiously awaiting its return. When we last left the gang, Chuck (Zachary Levi) had to lead a team to fight against a deadly plot by Vivian Volkoff (Lauren Cohan) to save his bride, Sarah (Yvonne Strahovski) – all the while planning the beginning stages of his freelance spy agency.

Canadian actor, Vik Sahay, who has been a series regular since the second season, plays Lester Patel, a "Nerd Herd" member and vocalist of Buy More's resident rock band, Jeffster. When asked about his relationships for the upcoming season, he reveals that he wants his character to find the right girl, and “to be made a better man by a big, bad love.” Of course, it’ll take more than your average woman to capture Lester’s heart. “She must be beautiful, smart, daring, and powerful,” explains Sahay. “I don’t think he’d settle for anyone who didn’t scare him a little.”

Before diving into his personal perspective on romance, Sahay gives us a peek into the inner thoughts of his character. Here are a few lessons in love according to Lester:

1. Don’t ask her to pick you up. If you can’t get your hands on a car, spring for a cab.
2. No arm wrestling.
3. Don’t take calls from your mother at the table.
4. Beer is not a good kissing drink. Vodka is.
5. Smile. No frowning, grimacing, or raging.
6. Laugh at her jokes.
7. Know her name. Remember it throughout the night. Sprinkle it in conversation liberally, but not aggressively.
8. Don’t expect a woman to pay for your dinner.
9. If you intend to bring her back to your place, pack up any cosmetics, including hair products, moisturizers, and fake eyelashes. A woman does not want to know you have more beauty products than her.
10. Music is great for setting the mood...on a stereo. Save the serenades for anniversaries down the road, if you can get there.

Related Link: What Your Favorite Summer Song Says About Your Relationship

For Sahay, there is one piece of romantic advice that rises above the rest: be funny. “There are well-sculpted hunks of male beef in gyms all over the planet. You look good, so then what?” he says. “Laughter is sexy and emotional. It gets you in your body and opens your heart. I can’t think of anything more conducive to falling in love.”

Fortunately, Sahay’s relationship history has yet to mirror Lester’s romantic troubles – although he adds, “I have been told that my energy can be exhausting, as I’m sure his would be.”

Even so, dating in Hollywood comes with its own unique challenges. According to Sahay, the most challenging part is “the fact that everyone is constantly ‘on’ in this town – constantly working, constantly career-building, etc.” He expands, “Plus, with distances across the city (and insane working hours), it’s a major commitment to hook up for a drink, making it tough to be casual about it.”

That’s not to say that it doesn’t have its benefits too. The biggest perk? Sahay says, “Many romantic restaurants have patios year-round. Coming from Toronto, that’s a major plus.”

And if humor and romantic restaurants fail to impress a date, Sahay has one more trick up his sleeve: dancing. When asked if he’s ever used his dancing skills to win over a woman, he responds, “Oh yes. Many a move has been busted on dates.”

Tune into the season premiere of Chuck on NBC on Friday, October 28 at 8/7 c.

affair is behind him, Bones star David Boreanaz is speaking out about the power of positive thinking, according to UsMagazine.com. The actor says that after he cheated on his wife Rachel Uchitel, it ended up being a “bonding experience.”

He explains, saying, “In a sacred ground like marriage, you find yourself out of it at certain times for reasons unknown that can be destructive. There could be a demon that kind of comes out and overtakes you.” Although his infidelity was no doubt a rocky point in his marriage, he also says, “Do I believe in giving up? No, I don’t. I’m a fighter. I’m a lover.”

How do you overcome cheating in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

It can be difficult to surpass unfaithfulness in a relationship, but it’s not impossible. Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Couples counseling: The most important thing you can do is hire a third party to listen to you air your grievances. A counselor will keep you “in check” so to speak, and you’ll have a safe place to share all of your feelings with your partner in order to potentially work them out.

2. Open communication: Instead of cowering away from each other, keep the lines of communication completely clear and in the open. Be brutally honest about everything in order to avoid any further suspicion.

3. Time: If you're truly dedicated to your relationship, it's going to take time to overcome the break in trust that cheating creates. The best thing you can do is to stick with it, and work at it.

The Footloose star admits that she didn’t expect her beau to hit the dance floor. “It’s like really awkward, but really cute,” she said of Seacrest’s skills. “My brother Derek does a better impression.”

How do you know when your partner really cares about you?

Cupid’s Advice:

It can be difficult to read the signs when it comes to deciphering whether your partner truly cares about you. Here are some ways to tell:

1. Outside of comfort zone: If your significant other steps outside their comfort zone and does something for you that he or she would not normally do, it’s a safe bet that they care about you. Ryan Seacrest did just that by dancing with girlfriend Julianne Hough.

2. It's the little things: When your partner buys you flowers "just because" and picks up small things here and there that remind them of you, that's a great sign. It means you're constantly playing a part in his or her life.

3. Show off: When your mate shows you off to his or her friends, it means they're not ashamed of you and, in fact, are proud to be with you.

When you're stressed as a couple, how do you briefly get away?

Cupid's Advice:

Stress can really put a strain on a relationship. Here are some ways to relieve your stress as a couple:

1. Go on a date out of town: Taking a night off in a town you've never visited before can be a great way to relax and let loose. You're not likely to run into anyone you know, and there's a certain excitement involved in exploring a new location.

2. Couples massage: You may not have time to dedicate to getting out of town, but there are spas and/or massage therapists almost everywhere. Make an appointment for a couples massage and let your worries slip away.

3. Let go of responsibility and go out: Sometimes we get so used to our routines that we forget to spice it up every once in a while. Forget about laundry, dishes and paperwork for a night. Get a babysitter if you need one, and hit the town with your partner. Bring it back to the good old days when you didn't have "real life" to worry about as much.
