

Jack Osbourne Announces Engagement and Soon-to-Be Fatherhood

Newly engaged Jack Osbourne, son of Ozzy and Sharon Osbourne, is about to be a father. Osbourne shared the news less than two weeks after he confirmed his engagement to actress Lisa Stelly, reports People. “I’m excited,” said Osbourne on Piers Morgan Tonight. “I’m a little nervous.”

How do you balance an impending marriage and soon-to-be parenthood?

Cupid’s Advice:

Though both wedding planning and pregnancy are exhausting, it is possible to balance both. Here are a few suggestions:

1. Enlist help: Planning a wedding is difficult even for people who aren't pregnant. If a wedding planner is outside the budget, rely on your bridesmaids or phone a close friend for some extra help.

2. Remember your schedule: If you're planning on getting married while pregnant, make sure to keep your biological calendar in mind. For example, don't buy a wedding dress that will soon be too small.

3. Take it one step at a time: If planning the wedding is too stressful or if you're having a rough pregnancy, it's okay to put the wedding on hold. Extend your engagement and wait for a time when you're feeling up to the task.

- 1. More chores: Having three children means there will be more things to work on: cleaning, feeding and even shopping for them.

Paul McCartney Ties the Knot with Nancy Shevell

Singer Paul McCartney has said “I do” for the third time with New York businesswoman Nancy Shevell, according to People. The duo exchanged vows in London over the weekend in an afternoon ceremony. They had been dating since 2007 and were greeted with cheers as they arrived at the Old Marylebone Town Hall, which was closed especially for the event. McCartney joked with the mass of photographers standing by, saying, "What's going on? What are you all doing here?" Shevell has also been married before and is celebrating her second marriage.

If your partner has been married before, what are some things of which to be cautious?

Cupid's Advice:

Having been married and divorced once before isn't necessarily a bad thing, but there are certain things you need to consider before entering into a marriage with someone who has experienced a union like this before. Cupid has some advice:

1. Being hasty: If your partner seems in a rush to tie the knot, you may want to put on the brakes for a while and take things slowly. You need to make sure the marriage is going to last before you jump into it.

2. Commitment: Make sure your significant other is completely committed and ready to be in a marriage for the long haul. Let him or her know that divorce is not an easy out in your view.

3. Prior obligations: Be aware of the obligations your potential new spouse has to his or her former partner. If they had kids, then they may have financial responsibilities. Get the facts before you tie the knot.

What are some special preparations to make for a baby born in the winter?

Cupid's Advice:

Congratulations! Whether you'll be a first-time mom or not, it's important to know that there are some special preparations to make for a baby's arrival in winter compared to those who are born during warmer months. Here's some advice:

1. Clothing: Since it'll be cold, your baby will need a snowsuit and a thick warm sleep suit. Don't forget fleece blankets and hats that will cover their ears.

2. Bathing: To avoid exposure to the cold, be certain the room is warm and comfortable. This means that you're not in a position to skimp on your heating bill this winter.

3. Car seats: Since it's winter, don't worry about buying a stroller. Instead, purchase a car seat.

Kim Kardashian Says She'll Start Thinking About Having Kids in a Year

Happy newlyweds Kim Kardashian and Kris Humphries are thinking about having babies in a year, according to People. Kardashian told Ryan Seacrest on his radio show that children are in the couple's future once they settle down in a particular location. Kardashian says that when Humphries figures out for what team he will be playing, they'll get to working on expanding their family.

What are the benefits of waiting to have kids after you get married?

Cupid's Advice:

Being a newlywed comes with a lot of new responsibilities. Before adding raising a child to your list, it's important to spend time together as a couple:

- 1. Getting to know your better half: Everyone takes on a new personality once you live with them. For most newlyweds, living together might be a new step and getting used to your partner's habits will take some time.
- 2. Save: Waiting on a baby helps the two of you to save for the expense of having children. A lot of couples divorce because of money, so don't be the statistic.

3. Grow together: Waiting on having a child means that you can both accomplish career goals and other aspirations together before bringing a baby in the mix.

'Bachelor Pad 2' Winner: Michael Stagliano says "I've Never Been Happier"

By Lori Bizzoco and Melissa Caballero

It was exactly one month ago today that Michael Stagliano and his ex-fiance, Holly Durst had their victory win on the season finale of ABC's 'Bachelor Pad 2.' Despite the uncomfortable (and surprising) public announcement on the show that Holly was engaged to contestant Blake Julian, Michael took the high road and chose to share the winnings with her. But now, that's all behind him and it's his turn to smile. "Right now my job, my music and my life outside the Bachelor Pad are good. I've never been happier," he says.

Grabbing life by the reigns, this Bachelor Pad 2 winner is keeping his chin up and learning from his past experiences. When it comes to finding love, Michael is definitely an optimist. "I am so ridiculously in love with love. I'm such a lover. Don't get me wrong, I was down and out for a bit. But, I'm back!" he says.

Yes, single ladies you heard that correctly: Michael Stagliano is on the prowl. "I like the hunt. I love the idea of finding love naturally; in the grocery store or just walking down the street." And, it's safe to say that if you do see this talented musician strolling around town or parading in the produce aisle, his mind is grooving to the beat of a song, preferably one of his own.

This former break-dance instructor is taking his energy and passion and putting it straight into singing and song writing.

"I can talk about my music for days and days. I think there's nothing in the world like music," he says.

Related Link: What Your Favorite Summer Song Says About Your Relationship Style

Michael has always been in love with music and emphasizes the importance of his lyrics. When asked where he finds his inspiration, he says, "I think what I appreciate the most about my songwriting is that it comes from everywhere. I literally try to use everything. It sounds broad, but I mean it specifically. It's events, it's things in life, it's things I see and things I hear. I feel that songs write me rather than me writing songs."

For example, he tells us the story of how he recently bumped into his ex-girlfriend from college and there was a rush of nostalgia so big that he wrote his newest single, 'College Love,' on the car ride home. Michael's other two songs, 'Everything You Do' and 'Take Me To Her' were inspired by his relationship with Holly and a quote that his grandmother once said to him: "I lived my life. Now go live yours." As if there wasn't reason enough to fall in love with this former Bachelorette contestant, add "soulfully romantic musician" to the list.

Speaking of falling in love, when we asked Michael to name his celebrity crush, he didn't hesitate. "Rachel McAdams. So hot.

Call me!" he chuckled.

If you're not Rachel McAdams, there's still hope. We asked Michael what he looks for in a woman, and he kindly shared his top three (more like 15) list of qualities and features:

1. Physical characteristics: He says this one is the most fun to talk about, but not the most important. "I'm a sucker for blondes. Always have been, always will be. Not Playboy bunny blonde; naturally blonde. I like shorter girls, 5'2 to 5'7. And, blue or green eyes, that would be great," he adds.

2. Showing love: "I really have that down. I know how to treat a woman, but still be the man. I know how to make them feel special and let them know that I'm not looking at anybody else. I just want someone who reciprocates that. I haven't had that yet."

3. Fruits of the Spirit: Michael says there's nine qualities he looks for that come from the biblical term called, 'Fruits of the Spirit.' "I'm totally going to misquote this, but basically I mean patience, kind, caring, forgiving, someone who is slow to anger and quick to forgive," he says. For those of you who are unfamiliar we thought we'd help out. The nine fruits are love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.

Open and honest, you have to admire this reality star's take on life and love. After such a painful public experience, it's nice to see a renewed man coming out on top. We have a feeling that this hopeless romantic will meet someone very special and that his music will be around for a long time.

What are some factors to consider when becoming a single parent?

Cupid's Advice:

Being a single parent doesn't have to be as challenging as it seems. Here are a few things to consider before making the commitment:

1. Your time: Single parents are almost always pressed for time. Balancing work and your child will be tough. If juggling your time becomes too difficult, you may need to hire a nanny to help out.

2. Financial support: It is difficult to raise a child on a single salary. Before becoming a solo parent, make sure that you're able to support your child. If you can rely on child support, be sure to make arrangements to receive a sufficient amount.

3. Child's happiness: Your child will inevitably ask why you're a single parent and why the other parent isn't in the picture. There is no shame in honestly answering the questions, but you need to be sure that your child doesn't feel that they're missing out on anything.

Ashton Kutcher and Demi Moore Are Spotted at Religious Services

After recently being slammed with rumors of turmoil in their marriage, Ashton Kutcher and Demi Moore were seen together attending religious services at the Kabbalah Centre. According to People, the two sat on separate sides of the aisle as is customary in Kabbalah. After the service, Kutcher greeted Moore with a hug and the couple walked out with their arms wrapped around each other's waists.

What do you do if you hold different religious beliefs than your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

The laws of church and state don't just apply to the government; they can also often times apply to relationships. Find a happy medium by agreeing to disagree:

1. Focus on what you have in common: Chances are you have something in common with your partner, even if it's just your love for one another. Keep your focus on what you can agree on.

2. Learn more about your partner's faith: Take this opportunity to learn more about your partner's beliefs and why they are important to him or her. Chances are that they will want to learn more about yours in return. You may find more commonalities than differences.

3. Don't bring it up: Make it clear to your family and friends that when your partner is around, religion isn't to be a topic of discussion.

David Arquette Says That He's Entered Friend Zone With Courteney Cox

Although rumors of a possible rekindled romance between David Arquette and Courteney Cox have hit the tabloids recently, Arquette insists that he has now entered the “friend zone” with his estranged wife. Cox has been seen supporting her ex at Dancing With the Stars the last few weeks with the duo’s daughter, Coco, according to UsMagazine.com. Arquette, who is currently dating Entertainment Tonight’s Christina McLarty, says, “We’re pretty much in the friend zone. Though we love each other and we love to laugh and have a great time, it’s difficult.”

How do you know when you’ve permanently entered the friend zone with someone?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes, no matter how romance you once were with someone, the “friend zone” is an inevitable situation. Here are some signs you’re in it:

1. Distance: If there’s always a good amount of physical distance between the two of you and he or she makes no effort to close that, it's a sign that you may be destined to just be friends.

2. One of the boys: If he invites you out to watch the football game with a group of his guy friends and claps you on the back after each touchdown, you're probably not his romantic interest.

3. Lack of moves: The thing is, if he's really into you, he'll eventually make a move in that direction even if he's shy. If it's been weeks and you're still not feeling a spark, you probably never will.

Hair Battle Spectacular's Blondie Talks Hair Tips for Dating

By Melissa Tierney

Picture yourself getting ready for that big first date. You've picked a cute outfit, shoes and bag to match. You searched high and low for that great bracelet to go with it. You're finally getting ready to do your hair and make up when crisis strikes. Hair catastrophes are unique for everyone, which makes Oxygen's Hair Battle Spectacular such a compelling show.

Hair Battle Spectacular, hosted by Eva Marcille, pits up-and-coming fantasy hair stylists against each other for the top $100,000 prize.

Ashley Stone, better known as Blondie, left an indelible mark on audiences, judges, and fellow contestants alike. Not only did she win the big challenge of the first episode with her Nicki Minaj-inspired hairpiece, but she also made it to the final four. Despite running her own salon and business for the better part of a decade, Blondie was new to avant-garde and fantasy looks. However, she hit the ground running and has catapulted herself to the forefront of the competition.

Blondie recently talked to us about her experience on the show, giving us some behind-the-scenes insight. She also shared a bit of hairstyle advice when it comes to date night or a break-up as well as what hair trends to expect this fall.

What influenced you to leave your salon to compete on the show?

The girls I worked with. They are all younger than me and kept pushing me to do it. They thought it would be a great experience, which it was. As a business owner, you must be able to take risks and know when to take them, and I felt this was the right time.

Was the show what you expected it would be?

I didn't know what to expect before I went on. It taped in six weeks, and I was only allowed to make one phone call home per week for just five minutes, so that was hard since I was away from my husband and son.

Why did you decide to do "show" hair when so many stylists shy away from doing up-dos, let alone extravagant hairdos like you do on the show?

I never really decided to do "fantasy" hair. I'm a colorist now, but I started my business by doing bridal parties and going on-site for big events. I love up-dos, but I never had experience with fantasy hair, so it was completely new to me. Other contestants knew how to use materials and techniques that I didn't, but I learned things along the way and got the hang of it.

How did it feel being in the final four?

I had mixed emotions. At that point, I was very homesick. If I had to go home, I wouldn't have minded, and I would have been happy knowing I tried my best. But I wasn't surprised I made it (not to sound over-confident). I just feel that I'm a great hairdresser, and I was confident in my abilities even though I didn't have as much experience as the other contestants.

Do you have any regrets about doing the show or anything that may have happened on or off the screen?

No, I don't. I didn't like a few people on the show, but I also ended up making some friends from the show, so it went both ways. I don't like the drama, and certain contestants were all about that. A few of them liked to play mind games, and I'm so not about getting into people's heads.

Since we are a love and relationship advice site, what tips would you give the single ladies out there for a perfect first date hairdo?

It's very simple. If you're going from work to a date, just leave your hair straight during the day, and when you get home, curl some pieces of your hair with a curling iron and pin them back into a little up-do. It's the perfect date look and only takes ten minutes to do.

Any advice for women who just ended a relationship? Should they do a completely drastic change – color, cut, etc.?

I would say a change is definitely in order but I wouldn't recommend something too drastic. If there's something women should change when they are going through different stages in life, it would be their hair color. Color can always be fixed, while a cut cannot. If you chop it all off, it will cost a pretty penny to get extensions to try and mend the situation.

A different color will give you that instant boost after a break-up. You can change the base color, do a glaze or add some highlights, and it's a great pick-me-up.

Are there any tricks of the trade you can share with us to help women out there look fabulous even if they can't hit the salon as often as they wish?

I'd suggest women allow their hair to air dry the night before and then go over it with a round brush and blow dryer in the morning. It will be easier to blow out and isn't as bad as when your hair is soaking wet.

What major trends are you seeing this fall?

I'm seeing a lot of women dye their hair red – either a copper red, a violet red or a bright red, anything on that spectrum. When it comes to how women are wearing their hair, it's either beach waves or silky smooth and straight thanks to Keratin treatments.

And finally, how would you describe your own hairstyle? How did you get your nickname "Blondie"?

I've always been a blonde, and I've tried every shade of blonde out there. I typically keep my hair straight, but occasionally, I curl it.

I got my nickname from my sister-in-law; she always calls me "Blondie." Also, I feel I've always been a blonde in a sea of brunettes.

Jennifer Aniston Says She's Not Desperate to Have a Baby

Many of Hollywood's top leading ladies have opened up to ELLE addressing all of the secrets and rumors everyone wants to know. On talk of being desperate to have a child, Friends alum Jennifer Aniston set the record straight by saying, "If it's meant to be, it's meant to be. I'm at peace with whatever the plan is. But will you hate me if I say I don't want to talk about my relationship?" Though she remained private about her new beau Justin Theroux, according to People, Aniston did reveal that she once threw a chair at a director because of how he was treating the script supervisor.

How do you keep desperation out of your desire to have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

There are beautiful things about having children, but there are also benefits to not doing so. The answer is to be happy with what you have. Cupid has some advice:

1. Take it day by day: Don't obsess over not having kids at this very moment. Things can always change quickly, and it's best to be happy with what you do have in the present.

2. Focus on what you have: Focus on your family, friends and career. If you're too obsessed with having children, you can miss what's going on right in front of you.

3. Consider your options: If you really want to try to have children, look into adoption and fertility treatments, and find out what's the best option for you.

Kim Kardashian Talks Babies with Kris Humphries

It looks like Kim Kardashian is being confronted with the baby question yet again post-marriage to NBA player Kris Humphries.

In fact, E! News got an exclusive interview with the diva and her man after they appeared on the Tonight Show together.

Although rumors have been surfacing that speculate about a possible pregnancy, Kardashian insists they simply aren't true, according to HollyScoop. "I think we would wait like a year before we really start trying to have kids," said the reality star. "I think we want to figure out where he is gonna play and figure out like his career and like if we have to pack up and move somewhere, like the Midwest. Who knows?"

Despite their uncertain plan, they do know one thing, and it involves having "lots of kids."

What role does your career play when you're deciding whether to have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Many factors in life determine whether you're ready to have children, and your career is a pretty big one. Here are some things to consider:

1. Hours: If your job is demanding and you're rarely home long enough to scarf down some food and get a few hours sleep, you may not be prepared to have a child unless you can tone down your career.

2. Position: Make sure your career pays well enough to support a family. Babies cost money ... for at least 18 years of your life. You also need to decide whether one of you is going to be able to stay home with the new child or whether you're going to need to consider daycare.

3. Maternity leave: It may seem obvious, but it's important to research your company's policies on maternity (and paternity) leave for when the baby comes. If your job doesn't allow for such things, it's definitely a factor to consider.

What factors did you consider about your job pre-baby? Share your experiences below.

New Couple: Lauren Conrad and Derek Hough

The Hills star Lauren Conrad and Dancing With the Stars pro Derek Hough have gone public with their romance, reports UsMagazine.com. The duo visited Sayer's Club in LA together on September 29th. "They were very flirty," said an eyewitness. "They were dancing and holding hands!" Conrad, who recently split from long-time beau Kyle Howard, finally appears to be ready for a new love. "Derek has been sweet," said an insider. "They are having fun and seeing where it goes."

What are some ways to "play it cool" in a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're exceptionally excited about a new partner, it's hard not to let too much of your excitement show. Here are a few ways to "play it cool":

1. Keep dates simple: When planning dates, don't put in too much effort. A simple outing to the park or a trip to the nearest ice cream parlor is a great way to casually ease into a more serious relationship.

2. Limit your contact: To keep your cool, try limiting the contact you have with your new significant other. Don't text or call too frequently. You'll pique their interest by remaining mysterious.

3. Don't overdo it: While being too excited about a new relationship can be a turn-off, appearing too disinterested can be just as bad. Make sure your new love interest knows how much you value your new relationship.

Cupid's Advice:

When you're making changes to your partner's home, make sure that whatever you do is a reflection of both of you.

Don't completely take over. Here are some tips:

1. Couple's shopping: Although your significant other may be opposed, urge them to go home shopping with you so that you can get a sense of their style.

2. Sorting: It's important to sort through both of your things to find out what to keep and what to throw away. Clearing out clutter gives you and your partner a fresh start as a couple.

Blake Lively and Leonardo DiCaprio Call It Quits

It's official: Blake Lively and Leonardo DiCaprio are no longer a couple. Their romance may have sizzled this summer, but a source told People that the two are now just good friends. After Lively flew to Australia in August to visit DiCaprio while he filmed The Great Gatsby, we all thought their long distance relationship would work out. Unfortunately, DiCaprio's work commitments and distance proved to be too much of a hassle to make the relationship work.

What are some ways to make a long distance relationship work?

Cupid's Advice:

A long distance relationship is a tough commitment, but it's not impossible. With trust, understanding, and communication, your relationship will last longer than the miles between the you:

1. Make your partner your first commitment: With all of your own commitments, being in a long distance relationship is a big decision. Make sure you're willing to make your partner your first priority, even if it's from afar.

2. Keep contact: Communication is important, and it doesn't always have to mean face-to-face time. Utilize social media, Skype and telephones. Take it easy on texts, as they can easily be read the wrong way.

3. Be understanding: In a long distance relationship, you're not going to see your partner all that much, and you need to be aware and understanding about your partner's schedule.

Although Stewart is very into all things Twilight, she reveals her boyfriend does not have the same appreciation. "Me and Taylor [Lautner] are actual Twilight fans, so we can sit there and be so totally into it! Whereas I sit there with Rob...He likes it, but he has just such a different energy."

How do you know when you're settling for a mediocre relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When settling in a relationship, you mind may be saying, "yes," but your heart is definitely saying, "no". Be sure to take notice of the signs that you're not happy in your relationship:

- 1. No conversation: Communication is key in every relationship. If you and your partner's conversations are rare, take this as a warning that maybe you aren't clicking like you should be.
- 2. People take notice: If others can see the tension and awkwardness in your relationship, then you probably should take some time to analyze your connection.

Cupid's Advice:

Supporting your partner shows that you care. Knowing that your mate is there for you and vice versa can ensure a long and happy relationship.

1. Show a little love: It doesn't take much to show support. Sometimes just lending an ear is all your partner needs to know that you care.

2. Show up: Take the time to attend big events that are important to your partner. Your significant other knows you could be at home watching TV instead, so simply being there is a big deal.

3. Show you've been paying attention: Ask your partner how things are going with their endeavors from time to time and give some advice on how they can improve. Remember, be supportive and not judgemental.

- 1. Express your feelings: It will give you an opportunity to put a voice to your heart and make promises to your spouse.
- 2. Originality: When writing your own instead of reciting traditional wedding vows, your friends and family will get a feel for how much you love your partner.
- 3. Behavior changes: Traditional wedding vows have been heard so many times that the meaning behind them isn't quite there. By reciting original vows, your behavior will convey how much you want to marry your significant other.

Hugh Jackman's Wife Doesn't Like Her Man Too Buff

There's no denying that Hugh Jackman is in good shape, but this X-Men star's wife isn't all for her man being buff.

According to UsMagazine.com, Deborah-Lee Furness thinks her hubby's job is to do the opposite and stay out of shape for her. "My wife is always upset with me if I'm in really good shape," says Jackman, who has been married to Furness for 15 years. "'Overall, Deb would say to me my job is to be out of shape so that she can look as good as possible.'"

What do you do if your man becomes obsessed with working out?

Cupid's Advice:

Staying healthy and in shape is almost always a good thing, but when working out becomes an obsession and begins becoming a problem in your relationship, it may be time to search out ways to deal. Cupid has some ideas:

1. Make plans in advance: Purposely make plans at a time when you know your partner has planned to work out. Stress that it's very important to you that you keep the plans you have, and begin weening him out of his obsessive ways one interruption at a time.

2. Tell him how you feel: Sometimes men can get frustrated when women tell them how they feel in detail, so keep it short and to the point. Tell him that when he works out instead of spending quality time with you, it hurts your feelings.

3. Show him it doesn't matter: The best way to get your beau to quit working out non-stop is to show him that you're attracted to him even when he's not super buff. Make it known that you would actually prefer some less substantial physique.

With an asteroid supposedly speeding towards earth, I jumped on the red carpet to ask Ice-T, his wife Coco and two Mob Wives how and with whom they would spend their last days. "A pool boy and some Pina Coladas," said Renee Graziano, Mob Wives star. Ice-T, whose memoir was just released, had some more positive things to say about romance. Ice and Coco just renewed their vows, after eloping ten years ago. "He told me five, but I had to wait ten years," Coco laughed. On whether they will still be together when the asteroid hits, Ice explained "Ass-gravity" to the Onion News Network's Brooke Alvarez in a private taping. According to Ice, Coco's luscious behind has its own gravitational pull and can re-direct any incoming asteroids, saving us all and keeping their marriage strong. The loving and hilarious couple will also be burning the midnight oil when we all go up in flames. When asked how they'd spend their final hours, Coco smiled sweetly, "Jungle sex." The planet goes KA-BOOM! tonight at 10pm, with exclusive coverage from ONN on IFC.

Anna Faris and Chris Pratt Say They Want a Family

"We want a family for sure," said Faris. "Chris wants a big family. We would love to have kids someday." However, the couple agrees that their plans for children will have to be put on hold. "It's timing," said Faris. "It's so hard in this industry."

How do you know when the time is right to have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding when to have kids is a life-altering choice. Here are a few things to consider before starting a family:

1. Finances: Raising children is becoming more and more expensive. Though your child may not be too much of a financial burden at first, in a matter of years you'll be paying for things like your child's college tuition. Be sure that you and your partner have stable salaries before settling down.

2. Your goals: Though kids make your life happier, they can also limit you. It is difficult to travel the world while caring for a baby. Make sure that you have experienced what you want to experience before starting a family.

3. Outside pressure: With advancements in technology, women can have children later and later in life. Don't let your biological clock or your friends pressure you into having children. The option will most likely remain open for quite a while.
