How do you combat destructive rumors about your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No one likes a rumor, especially if it involves your love life. You can't stop them, but you can combat them with these easy steps:

1. Address the rumor: Pretending you've never heard the rumor only lets it grow bigger. Acknowledge the rumor and get to correcting it.

2. Tell it like it is: Don't feel like you don't have to explain yourself to others. Let people know that a rumor about your relationship is not true. Leave the "no comment" cliché to the celebrities.

3. Embrace the rumor: If the rumor continues, embrace it. Look for a positive swing on the rumor. If Jennifer can live with being linked to a hot guy, so can you.

What are some important things to see eye-to-eye on before getting married?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage isn't just about the dress and a reception; it's a union between two people. While it's healthy to have differences of opinion when it comes to the little things, you have to be on the same page when it comes to the fundamentals:

1. Kids: If one of you wants to have children and the other couldn't be less interested in adding children to your lives, you are going to run into problems later. Talk about this in-depth with your partner before taking the next step.

2. Finances: It is always important to be financially responsible. But, that means different things to different people. If you can't come to an agreement on budgeting, consider separate bank accounts.

3. Home: People are often very attached to where they grew up. If the two of you grew up in different places and each want to start a family in your perspective hometowns, this could mark the end of your relationship if you can't compromise.

Justin Bieber Says He Wants to Be Married By 25-Years-Old

Teen sensation

Justin Bieber already has marriage on the mind, reports

People. When asked where he sees himself in five years, the 17-year-old pop singer told Women's Wear Daily, "By 25 or 26, I want to see myself, like, married or start looking for a family. I want to be a young dad. I want to be able to have done what I wanted to do – to be successful, to do a movie or whatever."

Is age a factor when it comes to marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Though the age-old mantra "age is just a number" often holds merit, it's important to take age into consideration when committing to marriage. Here are a few things to consider before making a decision:

1. Future experiences: When you truly love someone, you shouldn't feel like you're giving anything up. When you marry, you potentially forever rule out any future relationships. At a young age, you are giving up a lot of future relationships. Be sure that you don't feel as though you're missing out.

2. Your goals: When you're young, you don't always have your priorities set in stone. You may mature and decide to take your life in a different direction. Be confident with your place in life before marrying.

3. The age of your partner: Though you may be the rare young person who is mentally prepared for a marriage, your partner may not be. Make sure that your partner is as ready as you are for this commitment.

Glanville has a spot on Bravo's 'The Real Housewives of Beverly hills' and has traded her TV actor ex for a movie star. It's not too bad for a girl who got cheated on and dumped.

How do you make it clear to your ex that you've moved on?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to show your ex that you have moved on when a relationship ends. We're not talking about busting his car windows in or posting shameless pictures of you making out with random guys on Facebook. Cupid has some classy ways to go about it:

1. Change your relationship status: If social networking is your thing, than make it known on Facebook or with a quick Twitter post that you are now a single lady. Note: This should be the last post about you and your ex left behind in the cyber world.

2. Take a hint from Brandi Glanville: If you're not ready to date, why not have a little fun? A fling or make out session with a hot guy says you've moved on and are focusing on you.

3. Get a new look: Get a new haircut, wardrobe or hobby; celebrities do it all the time! It's time to let loose and have some fun.

What are ways to bond with your partner on vacation?

Cupid's Advice:

It doesn't matter where you go on vacation, as the most important thing is to spend time with your partner. Here are some suggestions:

- 1. Try something new: Enjoy vacation by doing things you wouldn't normally do. Part of being away is letting go of the daily grind. For example, go skydiving or bungee jumping with your partner.
- 2. Make time for simple pleasures: Do things with your lover you usually don't have time for, such as cuddling in the mornings.

3. No idiot box: Try not to just watch TV together while on a trip. Instead, relight that spark by spending quality time swimming in the pool or cuddling in the hot tub.

Finally, he hung out with married Cougar Town star Busy Philipps, who is a longtime friend and fellow godparent to Matilda Ledger, Heath Ledger and Michelle Williams' daughter. What are things to be cautious of while dating around?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're single, you want to play the field without going overboard. Cupid has some tips on how to be careful, and yet still have fun while dating:

1. Overbooking: Even if you're a heartthrob movie star like Jake Gyllenhaal, more than three dates in a week can be a little overwhelming. It's not like you can't go out with more than one person at a time; just make sure you're giving each of your dates enough attention.

2. Being dishonest: When you're seeing someone new, you should be truthful right away. If you're not looking for a serious relationship, tell them that to avoid any confusion or hurt feelings.

3. Falling into a pattern: If dating bad boys hasn't exactly worked out for you, try changing your habits. By dating outside of your comfort zone, you'll find out what you like and in the process, you may also find "the one."

Edward Bass on the Importance of Relationships – In the Movies and In Real Life

By Whitney Baker and

Lori Bizzoco

The mind of a serial killer is something that is both intriguing, and at the same time, disturbing. With motives that are primarily based on psychological gratification, these types of killers usually have a method to their madness, one that drives their actions and limits their inhibitions. Belle Gunness, America's most prolific female serial killer, is no exception.

Director, writer, producer, and Golden Globe nominee, Edward Bass, is producing a film that captures Belle's story in the most deep, dark, and irresistible way. His past films have all been accepted into major film festivals and have included talents such as Sir Anthony Hopkins, Ashley Judd and Kevin Spacey. His extraordinary yet challenging life contributes to every project that he tackles, adding a complex and unique angle. His directional debut of Belle is sure to reflect his personal history, sharing the story of Belle Gunness and portraying the practice of serial killing more intimately than ever before.

The story came to life for Bass when his friend, actor, and directing coach, Bjorn Johnson, introduced him to novelist Eva Mayer, whose family bought the Gunness estate. "Eva had all this information about the family. She had been working on the story for twenty years. In fact, her great-great uncle was probably one of Belle's victims," he says. Bass spent three years speaking with both serial killers and forensic experts in an effort to try and understand the emotional profile of this character.

The captivating story of Belle examines the life of a woman who kills over 100 men, and eventually falls in love with one of her victims. Bass explains, "All the reasons for a deep, true love are there for her: she likes him because he's good-looking, not very powerful, and younger than her. She can dominate him." Belle's love interest soon realizes that she is a serial killer and obviously wants to leave and call the police. Instead, Belle locks him in her basement and continues to kill older, greedy men. "But, she can't kill him," Bass explains.

It is for this reason that Bass believes Belle is a relationship film. "It's a classic theme about a woman looking for love and never quite finding it," he says. "And when she finally does find love, it eludes her. As they say, you can't live with him, and you can't live without him," Bass jokes, referencing a famous saying. Bass is still in the casting stage of production but hopes to begin shooting the film in early 2012. He has yet to determine who will play Belle, but he has a very clear idea of what type of actress it should be. "It needs to be a strong woman, a woman who can kill men," he explains.

Of course, one cannot help but wonder: Why did Belle do it? And Bass is quick to answer. "She was a nasty pig. She was greedy and killed for money. She got away with it. Maybe she enjoyed it, but it doesn't matter," he explains. "You can have all sorts of urges, but you have to control them."

Belle is a challenging character. She's a woman who kills men, women, and even her own children. Bass describes her as a one-woman crime wave, and the most prolific serial killer in American history. What makes Belle even more interesting is the fact that's she's virtually unknown. Despite her character flaws, he says the audience will feel empathy for her because of the multiple dimensions in which the story is told. As Bass says, "You won't really love her, but you will find her fascinating and hate yourself for it."

When asked if his past influences what he chooses to write and produce, Bass again focuses on the importance of relationships. "I have interesting relationships with people, and I bring them to each film," he says. "I think the most important thing in a relationship – which is the easiest thing to do – is honesty. Most men aren't honest, but you have so much power if you are."

Addressing his rumored dalliances with actresses in past films, he says in jest, "That's not true. Only Anthony Hopkins and I dated, and we were drunk." A little laughter and sarcasm are probably necessary given the darkness of the film. However, to defend the question on a more serious note, he adds, "It's not that I look to date actresses – I really don't. It's just that you spend every day on set, and you become attached to the people that you work with. I think it is proximity and opportunity."

When asked if he learned anything about women through Belle's story, he ironically says, "Women are so much brighter than men in every way. There would be no war if women were in charge.”

‘Friends’ Alum David Schwimmer and Zoe Buckman Renew Wedding Vows

It seems this duo is still 100-percent committed. David Schwimmer and Zoe Buckman renewed their wedding vows recently outside London in a ceremony officiated by actor, Joey Slotnick. According to UsMagazine.com, Schwimmer’s Friends co-star, Matt LeBlanc, was among the 200 guests. The couple’s 4-month-old daughter, Cleo, also took part in the festivities. Other famous guests included Thandie Newton and Oliver Parker.

What are some reasons to renew your wedding vows?

Cupid's Advice:

Besides being madly in love, couples never really need a cause to renew their vows. But, here are some fun reasons to formally profess your adoration to your partner once again:

1. It's an excuse for a vacation: Bruce and Kris Jenner renewed their vows during a family vacation to Bora Bora. If you didn't get the chance to have a destination wedding (or even if you did), renewing your vows on location can be a fun and romantic adventure.

2. You saw a wedding dress you loved: Even if you're already happily married, there's nothing like coming across the perfect wedding dress. Now that you have the right dress, all you will need is a guest list and the perfect venue to renew your vows.

3. Thanking your partner: Years and years of a happy life together are often hard to come by. Saying 'I Do' again is an opportunity to show how thankful you are for the happiness and support your partner provides.

Jon Gosselin Has Life Advice for Ex-Wife Kate

Kate Gosselin spoke out to People expressing concern about her family life after her show Kate Plus 8 was cancelled, and now her ex, Jon Gosselin, has some harsh pieces of advice for her. Speaking to RumorFix.com, Jon said, “Reality TV is not a career. Get back to a normal life – a simple life.” The bitter exes played out the end of their marriage on TV in 2009. Since then, they have quarreled about their kids and the reality TV life they lead. “Things will work out the way they should work out,” said Jon. “Obviously, there are families out there that have several kids – people work normal jobs, and things work out.”

How do you make life normal for kids after a divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes when a divorce is sparked by big differences and involves a lot of bitterness, it can be tough to make life normal for your kids during the process. Cupid has some tips:

1. Establish a routine: One of the best things you can do during your split is to keep a routine for your children. If things are always up in the air and unstable, it'll make them uneasy. Keeping a consistent schedule is reassuring.

2. Be civil to your ex: No matter how bitter your breakup may be, suck it all in while in the presence of your children. It's important to portray a united front no matter the circumstances.

3. Keep your differences quiet: Your child's life won't be normal if he or she has to decide which side of an argument to believe. Keep your fights and disagreements behind closed doors so that your children't aren't forced to pick favorites.

Are Justin Timberlake and Jessica Biel Back Together?

On-again off-again couple Jessica Biel and Justin Timberlake seem to be back together, reports People. The duo were spotted on an outing in Steamboat Springs, Colorado. They attended Biel's friend's wedding, and ended up spending the entire weekend together. Says an onlooker, "There was plenty of P.D.A., and they seemed happy."

How do you know when you should give a relationship another shot?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting back together with your ex is a difficult choice to make, and it can be even further complicated by lingering feelings. Here are a few things to consider before making a decision:

1. Your feelings: After a breakup, you're often so lonely that you return to your ex. It's important to decide whether you're just lonely or if you have actual feelings for your former partner.

2. Reasons for your breakup: Figure out why you called off your relationship in the first place. If the two of you had a trivial fight, it may be something you can overlook. If your partner has serious character flaws or has wronged you in some major way, you may wish to rethink getting back together.

3. Your future happiness: If you feel that your ex will make you truly happy, then go ahead and rekindle the relationship. However, if you feel that there's someone better for you out there, then end your relationship for good and get back onto the dating scene with an open heart.

Fashion's Night Out with Lauren Conrad's New Line, Paper Crown

By Ashley DelBello

Need a new date outfit? As cities around the world participated in Fashion's Night Out on Thursday, September 8, we are reminded about the importance of picking the right outfit to wear when you're dating. Finding something comfortable, yet sexy while allowing your personal style to show through can be a daunting task. In Los Angeles, Cupid's Pulse stopped by Nordstrom at The Grove for the launch of Lauren Conrad's new clothing line, Paper Crown. Conrad was busy signing autographs for her fans, but we were able to walk through the collection with her best friend and co-founder of Paper Crown, Maura McManus, to show us a few great options for a first date.

Pictured here is the Katherine pant in eclipse blue coupled with the Camilla sweater in dark grey – a great outfit for something more casual like a wine tasting, brunch or a simple walk in the park.

If you want something a bit more dressed up and sexy, then McManus says to go with the Lola dress – while flirty and very flattering, the material is quite stretchy allowing you to maintain comfort and is knee-length so you're not exposing too much on that first date!

A fun option that would be great for dinner and drinks is the Piper top paired with the Sophie skirt. Still trendy, yet flowy and comfortable.

Speaking of comfortable, remember while looking fabulous is essential on a first date, what's even more important is that you're comfortable in whatever you wear and that it reflects your own style.

Visit Paper Crown's look book to get inspired for what to wear on your next first date. Paper Crown is available at Nordstrom, Ron Herman, Planet Blue, and several boutiques around the United States.

Prince William and Kate Middleton Re-Gift Land Rover Wedding Present

This royal couple loves to give back. Upon receiving a Mountain Rescue Team Land Rover as a wedding gift, Prince William and Kate Middleton passed it on as charity to the Mountain Rescue England and Wales. After a raffle, it was awarded to the Patterdale team, according to UsMagazine.com. “The vehicle will be greatly appreciated. Our present vehicle only has a shelf life of about six months and we were embarking on a major fundraising exercise to raise more than £45,000 to replace it,” said Keith Montgomery, honorary secretary of Glossop Mountain Rescue Team.

What do you do if you don't like a gift you get at your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting questionable gifts is an inevitable part of getting married. You're not going to like every single gift you receive from your guests. Here are a few ways to deal with that situation:

1. Regardless, send a thank you card: No matter what the gift, you still must send a “thank you” note even if you can't stand what you received. Just because this particular guest may have misread your tastes, that doesn't mean he or she doesn't have the best wishes for you and your marriage.

2. Give back: Chances are you may receive more than one toaster or food processor. Instead of sticking them in a drawer never to be seen again, donate these items to a shelter or group home for children. These types of facilities are not able to afford luxuries, and giving back to them is a great way to bring good karma to your marriage.

3. Use your gift receipt: You can always return the unwanted present to the store and use the cash for something you really wanted. However, if you choose to go this route, don't tell your guest. Although they most likely want you to have what you need, they might be hurt if they find you didn't like their gift.

Zara Phillips Talks Babies and Skipped Honeymoon

It's amazing that Zara Phillips could even fit a wedding into her busy schedule when she says she and her rugby player husband don't have time for a honeymoon. People reports that the equestrian royal, 30, and her new hubby Mike Tindall, 32, haven't had a moment to rest since their wedding in July. "There are always other competitions and other dreams that you want to achieve. Winning Badminton and Burghley, the Olympics, another World Championship," said Phillips, daughter of Princess Anne and Captain Mark Phillips. Focusing on their careers also means putting off having children. "I'd love to have kids, but not at the moment. You know – I'm just happy competing and putting the work in.”

What are the advantages of delaying your honeymoon?

Cupid’s Advice:

While the majority of couples who have honeymoons choose to do so right after their wedding, there are some advantages to putting it off. Cupid has some thoughts:

1. Save money: You’ve probably gone nearly broke financing your wedding or cleaned your parents out of cash. If you wait a little while, you can earn some extra money to make your honeymoon extra special.

2. Take a breath: After the wedding festivities are over, traveling (even to an exotic destination) creates extra stress. When you want a real break, just chill out at home and save the trip for later.

3. Wait for the weather: If you got married in the summer, but really want to go to Aspen for your honeymoon, there’s no harm in waiting a few months until the weather suits you.

He Said/She Said: Natalie Getz and David Good Answer Questions about Bachelor Pad

2 Episode 5

By Jennifer

Harrington

As Labor Day weekend wrapped up, we were all treated to a suspense-filled episode of Bachelor Pad 2! During the episode, viewers witnessed a strategic challenge, romantic fireworks between Michelle and Graham, Erica's over-the-top overtures towards Blake, and a final showdown between Blake/Erica and Kirk/Ella. To make sense of this crazy installment of summer's guiltiest pleasure, we spoke to David Good and Natalie Getz, winners of Bachelor Pad 1.

Michelle and Graham's relationship took a big step forward this week – were you surprised they won the competition, given they have not been together for that long? What did you think about their strategy during the game?

He Said: I think it has been growing; we have just not seen much of them because of the Jake/Vienna/Kasey BS. Best strategy in a game I have seen yet on the Pad!

She Said: Their strategy was genius. David and I had a similar strategy last year. We picked answers that were easy for us to remember, versus the truth. They are going to win, I just know it. Keeping quiet and out of the drama is the best thing you can do in the game. I enjoyed seeing them fall in love this week! If they got married and had children, the kids might actually be too beautiful.

What were you thinking during Erica and Blake's date? Did Erica's aggressive behavior surprise you, and did you agree with how Blake handled the situation?

He Said: It did not, because I know her. She is hilarious, and that is Erica. A different bird for sure, but love her and she is her own person. I respect that. I thought Blake did very well handling the situation.

She Said: Blake handled the situation incredibly well, but Erica is my hero! She is so entertaining to watch and is not afraid to say or do anything on camera. Her behavior didn't surprise me one bit and had Blake not already started a relationship with Holly, Erica would have gotten her way. Trust me!

Why do you think Erica and Blake gave Vienna and Kasey the roses? Why are Vienna and Kasey still around, if everyone supposedly dislikes them so much?

He Said: They are still around because people are scared to go against them. Erica and Blake thought if they teamed up with them, they would be safe. Fail!

She Said: Kasey is great at manipulating people to do what he wants them to do. I am shocked Erica and Blake did that! They could have given the roses to Ella and Kirk and gathered the gang to all vote off Kasey and Vienna! I think people like Vienna and Kasey, but they are just exhausted by their fights. They are both very nice people, but being cooped up in a house definitely tested their relationship! Rest assured, they are still in love.

Ella has been very vocal about her desire to win the money – what's your take on her approach? Is it winning her sympathy votes?

He Said: Of course it is winning votes. Lots of people can relate to that. She has not had an easy life, but in my opinion, the best diamonds form under the most pressure. I don't like the fact that she is saying she needs the money so bad though. There are a lot of single moms making it with way less than what she has. But it would be nice to see someone with a good heart win.

She Said: It's definitely winning her sympathy votes. It's officially saved her twice at this point. I, for one, would never vote her off if I was in the house. As much of it is a game, I have a super soft spot for children and wouldn't be able to vote her off, even if she was my biggest threat! I want her son to have a backyard and a home so bad.

After Holly voted Blake off, do you think there is any chance of them re-kindling their romance post Pad? And, with Blake gone now, how do you think Holly and Michael's relationship will change?

He Said: I think they for sure could see each other after, but don't think it will last long. Just my opinion, which in Bachelor history has been 100 percent accurate so far. I gave Ames and Jackie two weeks; they lasted 5 days I heard. So I was off a little! When Mike watches this show, I hope he realizes he is better without her.

She Said: I think we haven't seen a lot of what's going on in the house. I think Holly and Blake have spent a ton of time together that we aren't seeing and I also think she has spent some quality time with Michael. It hurts to watch because they are both my friends. When Holly called off the engagement, Michael was beyond devastated. When she decided she made a mistake and wanted him back, he couldn't do it and then she was devastated. I'm just glad they can both still love each other as friends! I don't think these two will be getting back together.

Be sure to tune in next Monday night for the next chapter in Bachelor Pad history! And send us your questions for David and Natalie while you're watching!

'Bachelor Pad 2' Couple Michelle and Graham Are Still Talking Every Day

Two stars of Bachelor Pad 2, Michelle Money and Graham Bunn, have managed to keep their relationship going long after the cameras stopped rolling, according to People. Money, who returned to Utah after the show, and Bunn, who now resides in New York, make sure they keep in contact almost every day. How do they do it? Well, it's not visiting each other every weekend or doing "hanky panky" over the phone. The two keep their relationship going strong with communication.

What are some keys to making a long distance relationship work?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be nearly impossible to see your partner every weekend when he or she lives so many miles away, and can even be tough to talk multiple times a day with a hectic schedule. Once you've decided to take on the challenge of a long distance relationship, you're going to have to put in some work! Here are some ways:

1. Skype: This technology is a great way to talk to your significant other face-to-face sans the airline ticket prices and long lines . All you need is a computer and webcam. Also, it's free!

2. Have a Friday night movie date: Movie dates are a dating staple. With Netflix, you can both watch the same movie at the same time in party mode. The Netflix package is available through Xbox live, Playstation, and Nintendo Wii. Plus, what guy doesn't already own an Xbox?

3. Unlimited plan: You're going to be making some expensive phone calls, so make sure your phone plan has the best possible deal you can get.

Oksana Grigorieva Discusses Why She Settled with Mel Gibson

It's official!

Russian musician Oksana Grigorieva accepted last week's truce deal – worth $3 million – with Mel Gibson, RadarOnline.com reports. A forensic accountant analyzed this deal with the $15 million settlement from 2010. "The previous offer was structured in a way that made its value less than $1 million," her lawyer Daniel Horowitz said. "Moreover, it required Oksana to surrender to Gibson all evidence in the criminal case against her, which could have made her subject to criminal charges ranging from bribery to destruction of evidence." Grigorieva's lawyers value the present settlement, which includes 16 years living rent free in a $1.8 million home, $750,000 in periodic payments, payments to attorney fees and rights to her album and videos, “at over $3 million.”

How do you know when to drop an argument in a relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re quarrelling in a relationship, what you want most is to end it. Here are some suggestions on when to drop an argument:

1. Identified main issue: Once you have both figured out what caused the argument and shared how deeply it impacted each other, it’s safe to move on from it.

2. Fixed the issue: When a resolution to the issue has been decided so you can avoid the argument from resurfacing in the future, it’s best to stop discussing it.

3. Apologized: The best ending to an argument is when one or both of you has apologized sincerely.

‘Bachelor Pad 2’ Recap
Episode 5: Vienna and Kasey Start to Crack, Graham and Michelle Hit it Off.

By Steven Zangrillo

The Nearlywed Challenge:

This episode kicked off with Blake and Erica teaming up for the Nearlywed Challenge, an offshoot of the Newlywed Game, despite his real desire to be with Holly. However, Holly had promised Michael that she would stick with him to the end, although her behavior throughout the episode indicated that she might be having second thoughts about that decision.

For the Nearlywed Challenge, couples were paired up and asked questions about their partner. One person would write down the answer and the other person would try to guess what the other person said. If the answers matched up, they would get a point.

Kasey and Vienna, the de facto couple of the house, weren't exactly on point when answering questions (much to the delight of the other housemates). Michelle and Graham, however, used a brilliant strategy of pre-determined answers to steal the game and snag an incredible date. Surprisingly, Blake and Erica took second place and although they didn't get immunity roses, they did earn a date of their own.

Challenge Winners: Michelle and Graham

Immunity and Dates:

Michelle and Graham were the winners and ABC flew them via helicopter to downtown LA where they were dropped off on a rooftop, complete with a pool and private screening of "What's Your Number?", a new comedy starring Anna Faris.

The two newly coupled pair hung out in the pool while the film played, seemingly hitting it off. They even shared a passionate kiss.

Blake and Erica were the runners-up. However, they were granted a one-on-one date at a beautiful Spanish Mission. To say this date was out of the ordinary would be sugar-coating it. First, the couple didn't even want to be paired together. Then, they win the challenge and get a date. They don't have immunity, but there are two long stemmed red roses staring at them over dinner. As it turns out, these flowers were given to them in order to save another couple (who inevitably would save them). Or, if you're Blake you may only care about the rose for the sake of spending more time with Holly because we all know that's really all he cares about at this point anyway. So, the second place non-lovers give the roses to Kasey and Vienna – much to the disgust of the other housemates and unintentionally sealing their bad fate.

What's even funnier is that Erica decides to seduce Blake on the date. It was almost comical, as Blake deftly shot down her advances one after another. At this point, Erica threw a wacked-out and bizarre temper tantrum, accusing Blake of disrespecting her. The best part of all of this, of course, is that Erica was as sober as a bird.

Back at The Pad:

Michael, Holly and Blake:

The drama only continues to heat up between these three. Michael, presumably in the spirit of jealousy, decides to profess his undying love to Holly. Further, he tells her that he will be there waiting for her whenever she wants to come back to him. This prompts Holly to call Michael out on his lack of communication over the previous three months. Mostly, she was upset that he never expressed these feelings when the cameras were off. Needless to say, this soap-opera moment was all for Blake... that is, until he and Erica were sent home.

Ella and Kirk :

Ella, meanwhile, was having serious doubts about her and Kirk's future on the show after they didn't receive Immunity Roses.

Elimination:

Blake and Erica came into this episode like a roller coaster, they poorly managed their opportunities to get ahead. They had no option but to partner up at the end but played the Nearlywed game well enough to gain some leverage. Their lack of love connection probably set them back from staying in the house.

Predictions:

Cupid's Pulse is still spot on with our predictions of Michelle, Michael, and Ella. However, that basically leaves one member of every power couple – except for Vienna and Kasey. Wow, good job we did choosing all of them. But, if we had to pick the last standing couple, we would go with Michelle and Graham. They would win love and money. That would be historical. We can find out next week during the Season Finale, so stay tuned!

In the meantime, if you have questions about the Bachelor Pad 2, send them in. We will have former winners, Natalie Getz and David Good with us all season to answer them.

How do you decide whether to take your partner's last name?

Cupid's Advice:

Many marriages are becoming more and more modern, with many women choosing to keep their last names. Here are a few things to consider before making your decision:

1. Outside pressure: Make sure to recognize any outside influence on your decision. It's your name, so your family's traditions or your friend's ideas should have no major impact.

2. Your ideals: Are you old-fashioned? If so, you may want to take your husband's name. If you're more modern, you should consider keeping your name. You need to be comfortable with your name, so make sure it's something that fits with your goals and values.

3. Compromise: It isn't bad to compromise if you can't make a decision. Try hyphenating your last name or combine your last name with your partner's for something unique and personal.

What are some ways to keep the romance alive when you have a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Just because you have a child, that doesn't mean you can't keep the fire burning in your relationship. Cupid has some ways you and your boo can keep the romance alive even after you have a baby:

1. Include them: What better way to embrace this new found joy in your life than by bringing your child along on date night? Head to a nice dinner or even a movie and show your child and your boo that you can still maintain a great relationship even when they're both there.

2. Make time: Even though you have a new member of the family, that doesn't mean you can't make time for just you and your honey. Plan a date night for just the two of you, and have a family member or sitter watch the baby.

3. Go on a trip: Head on a vacation with your baby so that you can all have new experiences together. Whether it be to a tropical island or simply a weekend getaway, try something new, and create memories you will cherish forever.

What are some ways to remember deceased loved ones at your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

If you have a family member or friend who has passed away that you want to honor at your wedding (without tissue boxes and running mascara), find a way to incorporate the individual into the nuptials without ruining the joyous mood:

1. Favorite song: If your loved one had a song he or she enjoyed, have the DJ dedicate the tune to that person, and get the crowd up and moving. Think “YMCA” or “The Electric Slide.”

2. Memorabilia: Something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue. Carry an item that belonged to the person who’s no longer with you in your bouquet (a picture or jewelry, for example).

3. Wedding program: When you watch a movie or read a book, there’s often closing credits that read, “In Loving Memory.” Well, “In Loving Memory” can be the first words in your ceremony program dedicated to your loved one. Just remember to keep it simple and meaningful.

What are some tell-tale signs that a marriage is nearing the end?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes no matter how hard you try, a marriage simply isn't meant-to-be, and you're better off calling it quits. Here are some signs that you're heading that way:

1. Lack of communication: If you find yourself rarely talking anymore, and you feel indifferent about what your spouse is or isn't doing, that's a very bad sign. It most likely means you've given up on the relationship.

2. Common fights: If your fights are about the same thing over and over again and they never seem to get resolved, it may be time to try a marriage counselor. Continuous fighting can tear a partnership apart.

3. You've moved on: Sometimes you can check out of a marriage before it's actually over. If you already feel a sense of freedom and find yourself doing things alone the majority of the time, it's probably time to rethink your union.

Melissa From 'Bachelor Pad 2' Says She's Not Emotional Off-Camera

queen Melissa Schreiber insists she's not nearly as emotional off-camera as she was on the show, according to People. The reality star, who ended up getting played by Blake on season 2 of the show after falling for him very quickly, says she no longer has feelings for him. "My friends and family have been so supportive. They know that I'm not that emotional outside of the Bachelor world," said Schreiber. "It's so funny. Every episode, I get like 50 text messages saying, 'Who are you? We don't recognize you on TV.' For some reason, when in the Bachelor house, I'm overly emotional."

How do you avoid falling for someone too quickly?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you can mistake lust for love and fall for someone you're interested in too quickly. This can often lead to heartache. Cupid has some advice on how to avoid falling fast:

1. Make personal rules: One of the best ways to keep yourself in check is to make a personal set of rules to follow in the dating world. For instance, make a rule that you won't kiss someone until the second date or you won't go on more than two dates in a week. Sometimes the beginning of a relationship is the most exciting part, so taking things slow will prolong it!

2. Stay logical: This is easier said than done. Sometimes our emotions get the best of it and we follow them with a blind eye ... or head, as the case may be. Make sure to think things through logically before making any drastic decisions or statements.

3. Cover multiple topics: Falling for someone before you actually know him or her well is often a mistake. Prolong the “getting to you know you” process by asking multiple questions and covering many topics.
