

Shia LaBeouf Speaks Out About New Girlfriend Karolyn Pho

Shia LaBeouf's young relationship is already starting to blossom. UsMagazine.com reports that the Transformers star is beginning to expand his horizons thanks to his five-month relationship with girlfriend Karolyn Pho. "A cheese plate? That's a very 25-year-old deal," LaBeouf said in an interview with the Los Angeles Times. "I can get down with some fig jelly and some cheese on a cracker... [Karolyn's] having me try different things. I was scared of fish, 'cause of my upbringing, being Jewish. Gefilte can ruin your entire seafood life." Aside from broadening his eating horizons, the actor now admits his sprawl in February wasn't the most mature move. "I have no excuses. I'm not happy with it, but I don't think it's a calamity," he said.

What are some signs that your partner is beginning to mature?

Cupid's Advice:

A maturing partner is a good sign that your serious relationship is heading down the right path. Here are some telling signs that your partner is maturing:

1. Pleading guilty: It takes a bigger person to admit that he or she has made a mistake without trying to cover it up. If your partner does this, then that's a good sign.

2. Open communication: A good sign of a healthy partnership is how well you two can talk – whether it's about the weather, what you ate for lunch or personal issues. If it seems that no topic is off-limits, your partner is certainly maturing.

3. Family reunions: If your lover wants to show you off in front of his or her family, then there's a good possibility he or she is serious about you and the relationship, or at the minimum, they see a future.

Kellie Pickler Says She's In No Rush To Have Children

Kelly Pickler, who has been married to Kyle Jacobs since New Year's, isn't in any hurry to have children. "I don't know what's gotten into these kids where they feel like they have got to have a baby because their friend has one or whatever," said Pickler, according to People. The 25-year-old star realizes that she and her partner are in a stable relationship and that being a parent is a big responsibility. At the moment, the couple simply aren't ready to take that next step.

How do you handle the pressure of having children right after you get married?

Cupid's Advice:

Being a parent is probably one of the most demanding jobs out there and can be especially tough if you're a newlywed. Cupid has some tips of how to lessen the pressure:

- 1. Be patient: Yes, parenting can be very stressful, but refrain from that urge to take your anger out on your partner. Remind yourself that you can complete that seemingly never-ending list of tasks, as long as you take everything step-by-step.
- 2. Keep up the romance: Having a baby means being more responsible, but it surely doesn't mean you have to be serious all the time. Keep those rosy-colored glasses out and sustain your romantic life by continuing to go on dates with your partner and having fun as a couple.

3. Relax: Don't be afraid to indulge in some alone time and do whatever makes you feel good, whether that's reading your favorite magazine, taking a bubble bath or taking a yoga class. It's important that you take the time to regain your energy if you want to be at the top of your game.

Aniston was seen in downtown NYC on Saturday, enjoying a dinner at II Cantinori with her new found beau Justin Theroux ... but they weren't alone, according to People. The fresh Hollywood couple was accompanied by Aniston's Horrible Bosses co-star Jason Bateman and his wife, actress Amanda Anka. Their meals came with a free show of Theroux's torso, which is decorated with a tattoo. Even the waiter had a compliment ready! The group enjoyed cool sorbets before their double date ended, and Aniston and Theroux headed towards 10th avenue together.

What are some fun and creative double date ideas?

Cupid's Advice:

- 1. I remember that!: Memories can often lead to great conversation, especially if they're hilarious. Play a game of "who has the funniest memory?", in which each of you brings up something humorous that happened in the past with your significant other. Just try not to make it too embarrassing!
- 2. Ready...set...go: Competition can be a great way to spend a double date. Go to a miniature golf course or jump into some go-carts. Or, even take a bartending class as couples together, and see which pair of you can make the best cocktail when all is said and done.

3. Get in the car: Take your convertible for a spin, and if you don't have one, borrow or rent one! Driving at a cool speed with the wind blowing through your hair good music blasting is such a pleasure.

something that's nearly impossible in Hollywood, according to People. Only four people had the privilege of witnessing this special occasion – Daniel's daughter, Ella, 18, Weisz's son, 4, and two friends.

How do you make your relationship a personal experience?

Cupid's Advice:

You and your soul mate must develop and nurture a special intimacy. Cupid has some tips:

- 1. In the beginning: Make sure you completely know your partner, flaws and all, and love him or her in every respect.
- 2. Midway through: Let your significant other know that you are ready to make your relationship last a lifetime. Explain that nobody else has to know why you feel this way.
- 3. This is it: In the very moment you're about to marry your honey, bring up key moments that played a major role in where you are today. Make him or her a priority.

If Hugh Hefner is still hurting from his breakup with fiancée Crystal Harris, he sure isn't showing it. People reports that a week after the split, the 85-year-old Playboy founder has already moved onto a new bunny: Anna Sophia Berglund. Hefner tweeted, "With Crystal gone, Anna is my best girl... Anna is really one in a million." When asked if the new couple is official, Hefner's ex, Crystal Harris, tweeted, "Nope! She's just over there regulating, making sure Hef ends up w a good girl."

How do you know it's too soon to move on from your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

After you break up, jumping back into the dating pool right away may be a bad idea. Cupid has some tips on when is too soon to start seeing someone new:

- 1. Replacing your ex: If you're seeing someone who reminds you a lot of your ex, you're probably just looking for a replacement. Wait a little longer to start dating again.
- 2. Trying to get over it: Right after breaking up, you're probably hurting and want some kind of comfort. If you look for a new flame during that time, you're moving on too soon.

3. Waiting a week: While everyone needs a different amount of time to get over a breakup, a week is too soon. For example, Hugh Hefner is probably still reeling from his week-old split.

Cupid Exclusive: Former Bachelorette Winner Jesse Csincsak Gives His Take on Ashley Hebert's Hong Kong Action

As we all saw last night on The Bachelorette, it was an emotional evening for Ashley. She put a “period” on her “dot dot dot” relationship with Bentley and had to confess her secret meeting (and feelings) for the bad boy to the remaining bachelors. Here’s what our resident Bachelorette expert Jesse Csincsak had to say about the episode:

We’ve been waiting for Bentley to return for weeks. When Ashley spoke with him in Hong Kong, were you surprised by anything he said to her?

Bentley is so used to talking to girls until they are totally confused, and then they just do exactly what he wants. Nothing Bentley said to Ashley last night made any sense!

We all know Bentley was never truly interested in Ashley. So why do you think he kept saying things like if things didn’t work out with her and the guys, she had the option of looking him up in Salt Lake City?

He figured worst case scenario, “we can hook up”! That’s it.

It was good to see Ashley finally get mad at Bentley. What do you think happened for her to see the light and realize he was a jerk?

You have to remember a lot happens in the editing room. There could have been hours of conversation we didn’t see, so there is no telling what set her off. It could have been as simple as the producers telling her about his antics; who knows!

Ames surprised Ashley with the kiss in the elevator. What were your thoughts during the steamy elevator smooch?

I think Ames kissed her in the elevator because the producers got him drunk and told him to do it. That was not an Ames move! An Ames move would have been reciting her poetry in a foreign language!

We’ve heard many times that the other guys don’t like Ryan. Do you think he acts different around Ashley, and do you see a spark between them?

I think Ryan is being kept there by producers. He is getting roses because it creates drama, which is great TV. There is no real connection there in my book.

Ashley confided in J.P. during their one-on-one date. This was a brave move – do you think she did it because she feels J.P. may be “the one” she selects for the final rose, and she wants a clear conscience as she moves forward in the journey with him?

ABC is trying to sell us J.P. as the winner. I think J.P. is getting way too much camera time to be the winner; usually the winner is a sleeper that doesn't get a lot of camera time. I could see Mickey coming back during the Exotic Dates and becoming one of the final two. With that being said, I think Ashley telling J.P. was all produced!

Some of the guys had pretty strong reactions when they found out Ashley had seen Bentley again. Did you expect the response from the guys, and which guy's reaction surprised you the most?

I wasn't surprised by the reactions at all. I loved that Mickey went home; that's an Ohio boy for you! I would have done the same thing. Mickey – I got nothing but love for you, bro!

Blake was the guy to go home this week. Why do you think Ashley sent him home?

I think Blake got sent home simply because he called Ashley out.

Ashley was extremely emotional this week. Even though the “dot dot dot” with Bentley is over, do you think Ashley is in the right frame of mind to fall in love?

I think Ashley knows exactly what she wants. I think that the production end of the show is just slowing the process down. She needs to just do whatever it is that she would normally do and not try to please producers. The show would come across a lot better!

‘The Bachelorette’ Season 7, Episode 6: Closure in Hong Kong

By Jennifer

Harrington

After Ashley Hebert's confession to host Chris Harrison last week in Thailand and sneak peeks from ABC, it was no surprise that this week's drama would center around Bentley Williams. Before the dates could start in Hong Kong, our bachelorette was treated to a private meeting with the bad boy. In the privacy of Williams's hotel room, the pair had an honest conversation about Hebert's feelings about their "dot dot dot" romance. After the villain said, "I feel like where you're at in this process and journey, we should call it a period," the bachelorette finally seemed to see his true colors. As she walked away from his room, she called him a "player" and shared that she felt "liberated" to move forward in her relationships and love with the remaining bachelors. With that chaos in the past, this week's reality TV episode would feature two one-on-one dates as well as a group date.

Recap of Episode 6 of The Bachelorette Season 7

First up was a one-on-one date with Lucas Daniels. Daniels, who had three hopes for the date (a kiss, a dance, and a rose) was treated to a day of exploring Hong Kong and a romantic sail around the harbor. All of his hopes for the evening were fulfilled, as he went home that evening with a rose after enjoying a slow dance and his first kiss with Miss Hebert. She expressed her delight in the evening by sharing that he makes her “feel protected.”

Next up was the group date, which included Ryan Park, Constantine Tzortzis, Ben Flajnik, Mickey McLean, Ames Brown, and Blake Julian. This date card sparked controversy because it meant that both Park and Julian still had not gone on one-on-one dates with the bachelorette, while J.P. Rosenbaum would be going on his second one-on-one date. The group date activity centered around the local pastime of dragonboat racing, where the guys were paired off and given the task of finding locals to fill their boats for the race. After Team McLean and Brown won the race, the gang hung out at an after-party. During the party, Hebert was treated to lots of kisses from her handsome men – including a smooch from Brown in the elevator and a steamy kiss from Flajnik on the rooftop! To the shock of all the guys, the group date rose went to Park.

The final date was for Rosenbaum, and the date card suggested the lovebirds would take “a peek into the future.” Last night's episode certainly made it look like the two would be paired in the future! The bachelorette confided in him about her conversation with Williams, and the hunky construction manager was supportive of his lady, noting “tonight has been so perfect.” Of course, he was given a rose.

Fresh off of her confession with Rosebaum, Hebert decided to update the rest of the guys about Williams at the rose ceremony. Given Rosenbaum had taken it so well, I guess she thought the others would too. She was surprised, as most of the remaining bachelors were quite upset by her announcement. The worst reactions came from Daniels, McLean, and Julian.

McLean, who felt the bachelorette was dishonest, asked her to send him home and ended up leaving on his own before the rose ceremony. With only one person remaining now to send home, the unlucky fellow was Julian.

Melissa Rycroft Says Date Night Is Weird Post-Baby

5 months after having baby Ava, Melissa Rycroft and hubby Tye Strickland still feel 'weird' having date nights without their little bundle of joy. Rycroft told UsMagazine.com that, "It's weird that we're having a date night out and we don't have our daughter with us." When spotted at the HTC EVO 3D launch party in West Hollywood, the two said that they know their daughter is in really good hands. According to Rycroft, if you and your significant other are able to survive a newborn, you're able to survive pretty much anything!

How can you make date night special after you have a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Life is definitely different after bringing a newborn baby into the world. It affects your marriage in many ways, one of them being your dating life. Cupid has some tips on how you can make date night special even after you have a baby:

1. Include your child: Having a child is a new step in both you and your significant other's lives, so why not embrace this change by including your child on date night? Maybe the night won't be as romantic, but it sure will be fun going out with your little angel and experiencing the world as they see it.

2. Embrace parenthood: Instead of going to dinner and a movie, why not check out some places you would like to bring your baby, like a park, zoo or aquarium.

3. Reminisce: Head out for a romantic night on the town and relive your newlywed days by appreciating the love and passion the two of you have for each other. Just because there's a new baby in your lives doesn't mean you have to forget who you are as husband and wife.

'Hills' Alum Lauren Conrad and Kyle Howard Split

Reality star Lauren

Conrad has officially split from actor Kyle Howard. According to People, unlike the rest of Conrad's former relationships, this Hollywood romance was not highly publicized. Though the former couple have been seen out together since 2008, cameras were usually kept far away from this romance. On Valentine's Day, Conrad gushed about Howard, saying, "I don't think you need a specific day to celebrate your love for someone. I think it can be a Tuesday. It's an everyday thing." It looks like this Hills alum is on the prowl again!

What are the benefits of keeping your relationship private?

Cupid's Advice:

Though having your relationship out in the open is usually the healthiest route, if you're in the public eye or just got out of a serious relationship, keeping a relationship private may be the way to go. Here are some of the benefits:

1. It keeps the romance alive: When you don't have to worry about third parties interfering with your relationship, you can focus more on each other.

2. Less pressure: If the relationship doesn't work out, very few people will ask you to talk about the gory details, because they didn't know you were seeing anyone in the first place.

3. Excitement: It can be exciting to have a special secret between you and your partner. It keeps things interesting!

Emma Stone Is Dating Spider-Man Co-Star Andrew Garfield

It looks like these co-workers have no problem dating! The Amazing Spider-Man movie brought together an “amazing” spark between co-stars Emma Stone and Andrew Garfield, according to UsMagazine.com. “They got close during filming and have been hooking up,” said an anonymous source. However, the two seem to want to keep their relationship private. It turns out that Garfield’s recent three-year relationship with actress Shannon Woodward is still a fresh wound. Why not avoid drama if at all possible?

What are the benefits of keeping your new relationship from your ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Though the “oo’s” and “aww’s” can be flattering when you and your partner happily expose your relationship to the public, timing is key. Cupid has some thoughts on why keeping your relationship from your ex may be the best thing for now:

- 1. Army material: Your ex may be ready for a fight. That is, he or she might not be afraid to lash out at your newest love interest. Keep that from happening at all costs.
- 2. Secrets: We all have secrets, even though sometimes we’d like to forget some of them. Your ex-partner might be feeling bitter and vengeful after your breakup. To keep him or her from being tempted to let loose all of your secrets to your new flame, keep the news of the relationship to yourself for a while.

3. Trust: Building trust is easier for your partner if no worrying is necessary. If your past relationship remains history, there's no point in discussing it in too great detail. Keeping your ex at bay will certainly convince your current partner that your past relationship is over.

Rumor: Reggie Bush and Kim Kardashian Look-Alike Are Hanging Out

Breaking up is tough to do, but moving on to someone who looks exactly like your ex probably won't make it any easier. Rumors are flying that Reggie Bush is dating a Kim Kardashian look-alike. Kardashian's clone, Melissa Molinaro, is an actress/model known for appearing in an Old Navy commercial. E! Online confirmed that the rumors are actually true when they found a twitpic of Bush attending Molinaro's birthday party in Los Angeles.

How do you know if your current partner is just a replacement for your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes when you think you've moved on after a relationship, you may be holding yourself back by dating someone who is just a replacement for your ex. Cupid has some tips on how know if you're still living in the past:

- 1. Similarities: If the your current partner's similar appearance or personality to your ex is what attracted you to him or her in the first place, you're not really moving on.
- 2. Reminders: When you find that your new mate constantly reminds you of your old boyfriend or girlfriend, it may be a sign that you subconsciously replaced him or her.

3. Making them jealous: Dating someone just to get back at your ex may be fun at first, but it's also unhealthy. Don't just look for someone to take the place of your old flame; find someone new, different and better.

Cameron Diaz Confesses Her Love for A-Rod

The funny and intimate moment that couple Cameron Diaz and Alex Rodriguez shared at the Super Bowl this past February is finally being explained! The normally private duo was caught on camera feeding each other popcorn in the stands. Diaz finally took the time to explain the moment on Monday, during her appearance on Late Night with David Letterman, reports People. “We were watching the game, and I was eating, and I was getting down to, like, the last couple pieces of popcorn,” Diaz recalled. “And all of a sudden, I see [Alex’s] hand coming in,” said Diaz. “Anybody who knows me does not put their hand in my food, especially when it’s close to my mouth. I said, ‘What are you. . . ?’ And then I went, ‘You know what? I love you too much, I’m going to give it to you. You deserve it.’”

What things do you sacrifice by being in a relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Being in a happy relationship is one of the best possible feelings. However, it’s not without sacrifice:

- 1. Alone time: When you’re in a relationship, especially a serious one, it may be difficult for you to get some alone time. Taking a bubble bath is not nearly as soothing with your bored partner watching a TV show in the next room.
- 2. Time with your friends: While those who truly care won’t mind the strain on your friendships, you may find yourself aggravated that you can’t spend as much time with them. It is important not to spend all of your time with your partner, and to also make time for other people in your life.
- 3. Your privacy: Perhaps the most essential thing you sacrifice in a relationship is privacy, especially in cases where you and your partner live together. While over time the lack of privacy may not bother you, it takes some time to come to terms with it.

What have you had to sacrifice in your relationships? Feel free to leave a comment below!

Prince William and Princess Kate to Face Off In Dragonboat Race

It looks like a little friendly competition doesn't get in the way of Prince William and Kate Middleton's love for one another! North America is in great anticipation of the royal couple's tour, and a private secretary for the couple announced that the couple will be facing off in a Canadian dragonboat race on July 4th. The couple will have a race to Canada's Prince Edward Island where they will participate in some competitive sports with young fans and try out different delicacies, according to People. After the couple's visit to Canada, they are reportedly heading to California for further engagements.

What are the benefits of healthy competition in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There's nothing wrong with a little healthy competition in your relationship. Here's why:

1. Fun: Having a little competition in a relationship, whether it's with sports or even a board game, brings you both back to a time when things weren't so seriously in your life. And guys, don't let the girls win on purpose! It's so much more fun to truly compete.

2. Keeps you on your toes: Competition can spice things up a bit. It adds some excitement to the boring routine of going on romantic dates and allows the two of you to interact in a new way.

3. Shows a different side: When people are participating in a game, sport or contest, they tend to act differently than when they are in a relaxed environment on a date. It's nice to see a different side of the person you're involved with, whether it's true passion or simply getting into the spirit of competition.

Ashlee Simpson Is Spotted

With a New Man

Rumor has it that Ashlee Simpson may have found herself a new love. According to People, Simpson was seen kissing and strolling with Boardwalk Empire star Vincent Piazza on June 15. This isn't the first time she's been spotted with a man following her February divorce from Pete Wentz. A month after her official split from Wentz, rumors were reported that Simpson was involved with musician Craig Owens. Those reports were quickly shot down, but Simpson is certainly wasting no time getting out and about after her break-up.

What are ways to handle your ex dating someone new?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on after a break-up is not an easy task, but there are some things you can do to make it easier. Cupid's got some suggestions:

1. Don't contact your ex: Seeing your ex with his or her new partner could be quite a blow, so until you're fully over the break-up, avoid seeing him or her. Stay away from places he or she is likely to frequent in order to prevent running into each other.

2. Bond with your friends: Instead of playing the victim card, get out there and have a good time. Supportive friends are the best psychologists. Nothing is as therapeutic and rewarding as a good laugh with your besties!

3. Start dating: Don't think that you're unlikeable. There are plenty of people who would be glad to date you. Nothing comes of being depressed and negative about relationships after a split.

Lamar Odom Says Khloe Kardashian Has Maternal Instincts

It's usually Mommy's maternal clock that ticks at a certain age, but that's not the case with Khloe Kardashian and NBA star husband, Lamar Odom.

This time, it's Daddy who's itching for a baby. Odom believes Kardashian would make a great mother to their potential child, and he should know; he's her test drive! "She takes care of me, and I'm a pretty big baby," the 31 year-old Lakers star told People. Aside from Odom, however, Kardashian has had a bit of child mothering experience in the past. "It's her natural instinct," said Odom. "She used to take care of her two younger sisters. She's gonna be great.

I can't wait until the day when we can share that moment when she gives birth to our child.”

How do you know if your partner is cut out to be a parent?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes, when caught up in love, we think our partners are perfect for everything, even parenting. But how can you tell if your mate will be a phenomenal parent? Cupid has some quick tips:

1. Surrounding relationships: Chances are that how your partner treats you, his or her siblings, and his or her parents is an almost accurate representation of how your partner will treat your child. Keep an eye out for these things.

2. Responsibility, responsibility, responsibility: Make sure that before you make any baby plans, you see a consistent sense of responsibility coming from almost all of your partner’s actions. It’s by far the most important quality for a potential parent to possess.

3. Is money a sticky situation?: If your partner is always carelessly spending money, or is the opposite and is severely frugal, take that into account when you’re thinking about having kids. Children need stable incomes.

What are some potential parenting traits you look out for in your partner? Share your ideas below.

No one saw it coming: Paris Hilton and boyfriend Cy Waits have split. Just a week ago, Hilton told People of her relationship with the former nightclub owner. “We’re just really happy where we are right now,” she said. “We’re good.” Then, on Tuesday night, Hilton changed her tune when she told George Lopez on Lopez Tonight, “We’re not together anymore... I feel like the relationship ran its course and we’ll see what happens.” According to a friend, the 30-year-old socialite was not ready for the next step in the relationship, but still wants to remain friends with Waits.

How do you know if you’re on the same page as your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

One day you can be really happy with your relationship, and the next day it can fall apart. Cupid has some tips on how to know whether you and your mate are in the same place:

1. Communication: The key to any relationship, constant communication is important if you want to stay on the same page. Talk about where you feel the relationship is headed.

2. Signs: If you feel your partner getting more distant, it may be a sign that he or she is checking out of the relationship. Watch out for signals that your partner may be trying to send you.

3. Fighting: When you find yourself bickering with your significant other more often, it may be because you two aren't on the same wavelength.

Royal Wedding: Prince William's Cousin Zara Is Engaged

Another royal wedding is just around the corner. Zara Phillips, Prince William's cousin, is set to marry fiancé Mike Tindall on July 30th, reports People. Tindall, a 32 year-old professional rugby player, told Mail on Sunday's Live Magazine how he proposed. "She was on the sofa, so that made it easier," said Tindall. "She was completely in shock and when she stopped laughing, she said, 'Yes.' " The couple confirmed they will not have a honeymoon, but say that their home life is plenty fun for the both of them. "Saturday night, on the sofa with the dogs, watching X-Men. That's pretty much what our life is like," said Tindall. "Rock 'n' roll, baby."

What are some unique ways to propose?

Cupid's Advice:

It's relatively easy to plan a romantic proposal. It's very difficult, however, to plan a unique one. Here are a few suggestions:

1. Factor in your personalities: Marriage proposals that have a special meaning to the both of you seldom go wrong. For example, if your partner were an animal lover, you could get a tag with the words "Marry me?" inscribed onto it. Slip the tag onto your pet's collar for your partner to find later.

2. Recollect the past: Try proposing at the site of your first date, or at the site of a date that had special significance to the pair of you. Even if the venue isn't particularly romantic, your partner will appreciate the symbolism behind it.

3. Make your own adjustments: Try putting a twist on the typical romantic dinner. Play your partner's favorite music, and eat your favorite foods. With these unique touches, the occasion will seem less cliché and more personal.

The longtime duo went on a special date on Monday at de Mondion restaurant at the Xara Palace hotel in Malta's walled medieval city of Mdina, reports UsMagazine.com. The couple was spotted walking in hand-in-hand and choosing an outdoor table. An observer at the restaurant said, "They were very, very romantic ... Like a couple in love." Despite the love in display, Pitt not only dined at the exact restaurant with his ex-wife, Jennifer Aniston, in 2003, but they also sat in the same outdoor area. Before leaving, the then-couple signed the guest book. "Thanks for the great escape. Much love, Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston."

How do you avoid making your new partner feel like a replacement for your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

You might've finally moved on to a new relationship, but to keep your new sweetheart and avoid making him or her feel like a replacement for your ex, there are a few things to keep in mind:

1. Don't speak about the ex too much: Avoid over-mentioning your ex to your new partner. If you can't stop talking about your ex, that means you aren't ready to move on to a new relationship.

2. New activities: Try new activities instead of making your partner participate in the ones you and your ex favored together. You might even discover new talents and interests.

3. New places: Taking him or her to the exact restaurant or trip you enjoyed with your ex is okay, but it's more exciting when you take your significant other to areas you've both never visited. It's a more unique and special experience.

Crystal Harris Attends Vegas Pool Party Instead of Marrying Hugh Hefner

After calling off her wedding to Hugh Hefner, Crystal Harris is determined to move on with her life. According to People, the runaway bride spent the day of the would-be wedding at a poolside bash at Las Vegas' Wet Republic. Instead of a honeymoon suite, she spent Saturday in a VIP cabana surrounded by a small group of friends. "I just had to get away. Today is the day and I just had to get away," said Harris. In spite of a rumored new romance with Dr. Phil's son, Jordan McGraw, who the 25-year-old playmate identifies as only a friend, Harris and Hefner remain close friends and speak often. "I wasn't the only woman in Hef's life and it wasn't going to stay that way after the marriage," said Harris.

What are ways to be considerate of your former partner after a broken engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

It's okay to call off a wedding, but do so with class and consideration. Cupid has some tips:

1. Don't trash your former partner: Even if the marriage wasn't meant to be, that doesn't mean that you or your ex partner did anything wrong. If anyone asks you about your ex or why you called off the wedding, simply say that you wish your ex the best.

2. Don't start dating openly right away: If there 's someone else in the picture already, try to keep it under wraps for a while in order to be sensitive to your ex-fiancé's feelings.

3. Get away for a while: Big and sudden changes in your life can be difficult for everyone involved. Don't be afraid to take a vacation from real life in order to think and get back on track.

How do you know when to forgive and forget in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes the best thing you can do in a relationship is to forget past faults and just push on. That said, sometimes something so bad has happened that it's just not possible. Cupid has some tips:

1. Trust: When something has happened in your relationship that causes you to lose trust in your partner, it can be tricky to know whether to move on alone or with your untrustworthy mate. At the very least, be skeptical. If your trust has been violated beyond repair, call it quits.

2. Minor fights: Most couples tend to get in the same fights about the same minor things over and over again. These are the types of arguments that you should forgive and the promptly forget. Decide whether the issue you're arguing about really makes or breaks your relationship. If it's not important, don't dwell on it.

3. Work it out: Just because you're offended by a fight that you got into with your partner, that doesn't mean it's cause for a split. If you're willing to talk things out (with or without a therapist), it's the logical first step. If you love your mate, it may be worth it to stick with the relationship to see where it can lead.

Paris Hilton Says Love Made Her Gain and Lose Weight

After fluctuating between 105 and 125 pounds, Paris Hilton has settled for 115, taking her body off of a weight rollercoaster. Boyfriend Cy Waits encourages her to change her lifestyle and teaches her healthy habits. Hilton told People, "Now I only eat organic foods when we're at home. He makes me watch documentaries on food, like Fast Food Nation, and he makes me aware of what things are good for your body because he's very into that."

What are some ways to be healthy as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Who says bonding with your partner and taking care of your body can't go together? We can all learn something from Paris Hilton and Cy Waits. Cupid's got some suggestions:

1. Educate yourselves: Education is always the first ingredient. There are plenty of movies and books that can teach you about what goes into the foods we eat, and you can devour the literature with your partner. You may also want to consult a dietician together.

2. Have a cooking date: Food is such an important part of your health. Instead of going out to a restaurant on Friday night, why not try making a romantic evening out of preparing a homemade meal with your partner? Incorporate fresh, organic ingredients and sprinkle some love into your diet.

3. Work-out together: Fitness is a must when it comes to your health. Exercising together can be very motivating, so make your partner your gym buddy and start rocking that treadmill. You can use tandem machines, jog outdoors side-by-side or give ballroom dancing a shot. The important thing is to have someone pushing you to try your hardest.

Exclusive Celebrity Interview with The Bachelorette's Jesse Csincsak

The date ideas seem to be more extreme this season. Why do you think we're seeing so many dates designed with disaster potential?

To be honest, this show isn't about Ashley. It's about money and ratings. They will chew up and spit out anyone to get both of these things.

Hebert's Hometown Dates

Ames Brown had a really tough time on the group date, but he did his best to show he was a good sport by coming to the after-party despite his concussion. Did you think Hebert was going to give him the group rose date for his efforts?

I think Ames is still there simply because he's a nice guy and makes her laugh. Other than that, I don't see a huge connection between them. So Blake getting the group date rose was no surprise to me.

Hebert listened to William's analysis of Ben C. and said "adios" to the Louisiana lawyer without a second thought. Should she have give him a chance to explain?

The fact that Ashley listened to pinhead William without question and didn't listen to Michelle Money about Bentley absolutely blows my mind. These are 15-year-old girl actions in my book!

What was your take on her decision to send William home?

I think Ashley was totally right to send him home. There was no spark between them, and I was glad she sent him home. His exit speech was pitiful!

Chris Harrison promised to "make something happen" for Ashley with Bentley. Knowing what she knows now, do you think Ashley has good reason to be upset with Chris and/or the producers for encouraging the drama?

I'm sure Ashley is cursing herself for taking the money and signing that stupid contract. She now sees how crooked the whole thing really is!

What about Bentley do you think intrigues Ashley the most?

Everyone wants what they can't have; she can't have Bentley, so she naturally wants him!

We all know Bentley's not interested in her. What's his motivation for flying to the other side of the world to visit Ashley next week?

Everyone comes to Hollywood for one of two reasons: money or fame. I'm assuming Bentley originally came on for fame, and now he's probably getting paid to come back.

There are a few guys we haven't seen much of yet this season, specifically Mickey and Lucas. Is there a possible love connection with either of these guys?

I've always said the winner doesn't get much camera time until the end, so who knows – they might both go very far. Right now, I see a huge connection between J.P. and Ashley, but because he has gotten so much camera time so far, I don't think he will be the final man...unless we're being tricked.

Justin Bieber Tells Selena Gomez She's 'Very Beautiful'

While Canadians rioted over losing the Stanley Cup last week, American girls continue to riot over losing Justin Bieber to Selena Gomez. UsMagazine.com reports that the 17-year-old pop sensation, who tied for Best International Video by a Canadian with Drake at the Much Music Awards, went up to receive his award from no other than his girlfriend. He then proceeded to fake a kiss, and instead, went for a hug. "Selena, nice to meet you. My name is Justin," he said in a fake introduction. "You're very beautiful. Maybe we can go out sometime!"

What are the best ways to flatter in public?

Cupid's Advice:

Flattery is a great way to show affection for your partner. Cupid has a few pointers for some great ways to do so in public:

- 1. Poke war: This doesn't have to be limited to Facebook poking! Expand your touchy-feely ways between yourself and your guy with a game of footsie under the table.
- 2. Fake intro: Similar to what Bieber did to Gomez, 'randomly' meet your partner while out and strike up a conversation, reintroducing yourself. It's a cute way to spice things up in your relationship.

3. Flash mob: Flash mobs, where random people seemingly come out of nowhere and start to synchronize dance in public spaces, is becoming ever more popular. Take a cue from this bold gesture and get some of your friends to 'flash' your love while at the mall or beach. While it may sound silly, it definitely shows your other half – as well your friends and tons of innocent bystanders – how much he or she means to you.
