

Cheryl Burke and Maksim Chmerkovskiy: Not Dating

Dancing with the Stars castmates Cheryl Burke and Maksim Chmerkovskiy are at the center of many relationship rumors, nearly all of which are not true, reports People. The rumors surrounding the two good friends heightened recently after Burke's wild birthday celebration at Palazzo Las Vegas's Azure Luxury Pool. However, Burke adamantly denies the rumors. "We have a good time," said Burke. "We've known each other since we were kids. We have that brother and sister relationship."

How do you know if he can be more than a friend?

Cupid's Advice:

Making the jump from 'just friends' to 'more than friends' is difficult, even without the added burden of confusion. Here are a few ways to tell if your friend could be a potential mate:

1. Personal contact: Hugging your friends when greeting him and bidding him goodbye is commonplace, but more frequent contact may not be. If he's particularly 'touchy-feely', it may be because he has feelings for you.

2. You think about him: If you find yourself thinking about your 'friend' more frequently than your other friends, then you probably have some feelings for him. Try to find a subtle way of finding out how he feels about you.

3. Ask him out: While indirect flirting may eventually serve its purpose, honesty really is the best policy. Be upright and forthcoming about your feelings for him, and ask him straight out if he feels the same way.

'Bachelor Pad 2' Cast Is Full of Feuding Exes

In order to create reality show drama of epic proportions, the cast of the Bachelor Pad 2 includes exes who are anything, but on good terms, such as Jake Pavelka and Vienna Girardi. So much for a relaxing summer! Pavelka will be spending it watching his ex get chummy with her current boyfriend, Kasey Kahl. According to Associated Content, reality villains Justin Rego and Michelle Money have also joined this very turbulent cast.

How can you handle seeing your ex with someone new?

Cupid's Advice:

Seeing your ex with someone new is never easy, but it's a reality you'll probably have to face in life. Your best course of action is to accept it and move on:

1. Look the other way: Believe it or not, there are more important things going on around you than who your ex is dating. Find something else to focus your energy on.

2. Try online dating: If your ex has moved on, chances are that you should, too. If you can't find any suitable dating choices in your current social circles, look online.

3. Be happy for them: Even though it didn't work out between you and your ex, it's no reason to hate him or her. Be the bigger person and be happy for him or her instead.

Kate Gosselin Says She Wants An Older Man

Kate Gosselin may have finally found peace with her estranged ex, Jon Gosselin. The star of Kate Plus 8 told People, "It's just naturally gotten more peaceful, which is good." While Kate, 36, said she's not dating at the moment, she already has a checklist for her future mate. "I want somebody who is older, at least in their 40s. I can't be bothered with these little boys." She added, "I want someone who is strong and smart and driven. I think those are the best qualities."

What are the benefits of dating an older man?

Cupid's Advice:

They say age is nothing but a number, but sometimes there are advantages to being with someone older. Cupid has some ideas on why you should consider dating outside your age bracket:

1. Maturity: With age comes wisdom, and if you're sick of dating people with the maturity level of a five-year-old, try going out with someone older.

2. Stability: Older people often have a more stable financial situation and are looking to settle down. If you're looking for something permanent and secure, having an older partner may be perfect for you.

3. Children: If you have children like Kate Gosselin does and are looking for someone strong and reliable to be in your children's lives, being with someone older might be a good idea.

Kim Kardashian Sends Public Statement to Crush Cheating Rumors

At

CupidsPulse.com, we love when celebrities set the record straight about their love lives. We've been seeing this more and more, and the Kardashians are no exception. Khloe made a public apology about her nip slip on Fox and Friends, and now Kim took charge and crushed In Touch Weekly's false cheating rumors. Good thing Kris Humphries has nothing to worry about – his fiancée is a fighter! Or is this simply fodder and PR for the season premiere of Keeping Up With The Kardashians on Sunday, June 12? Regardless, we'll be watching.

Here's the statement that was sent to us yesterday:

"I knew when I got engaged that rumors and false stories were going to start, but this is RIDICULOUS!!!! In Touch Magazine are claiming that I had a five-month secret relationship with this guy... a guy I've never met, spoken to, texted, called or even heard of!

"This guy should be ashamed of himself. Calling up a magazine and making up an entirely fake story in a sad attempt to ruin my relationship!?!?! It's just shameful and this guy should feel ashamed and humiliated. Is this your pathetic attempt for attention? I'll be damned if anyone, especially some loser I've never even met, is going to try to come between Kris and I. My friend Lauren London has never even met this guy, so to say she was the one who set us up is totally untrue. I find it so sad that a magazine will take the word of a stranger and try to pass their story off as true. And what's even more odd is that this guy would carry on a "relationship," yet never speak on the phone or see me in person! Makes no sense!

"The text messages the magazine claims I sent this guy are pathetic. 'Why don't you put in effort to try and make me your girlfriend doll?' I would never talk like that to a guy. They just threw in the word "doll" a few times and tried to make it sound like me. I talk like that to my girl friends, not to my man. It makes me sick to my stomach that anyone can call up a magazine, tell an entirely fake story, provide fake proof, and the magazine will go ahead and run it... just to sell copies!!! What a crazy world.

"I've said it before, and I'll say it again... don't believe everything you read. The tabloids and weekly magazines will do ANYTHING to sell copies, and in this case they decided to run a false story, knowing they had absolutely no proof that it was real. It's disgusting, and I will be taking legal action against In Touch magazine and Bret Lockett."

New Couple Alert: Jessica Biel and Gerard Butler?

Could Jessica Biel have found herself another man already? The actress took a ride on the back of Gerard Butler's Harley Davidson motorcycle last Thursday, according to UsMagazine.com. The two established a close friendship while filming Playing the Field in Louisiana in March. Although Butler's rep reports, "They're just friends!," an onlooker said Butler "was really flirting with her" during a cast and crew bash at a local eatery March 15. Butler is known as a notorious ladies' man around Hollywood.

How do you know if your guy is a bad boy?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating a bad boy isn't a bad thing. After all, they're not really bad. They're decent guys, just a bit more daring than others. So how do you know if your man is a bad boy? Here are some hints:

- 1. Flings: He'll tell you that he's not ready for a relationship yet, but having a fling is completely fine with him.
- 2. Just friends: You both might've expressed mutual feelings and are currently dating. However, he still introduces you as his friend to other people.

3. Unreliable: You can't always rely on him, and he makes last minute plans with you. There's something to be said for spontaneity!

Cameron Diaz and Alex Rodriguez: Still Together

They haven't struck out yet. New York Yankees' third baseman Alex Rodriguez is still together with Bad Teacher star Cameron Diaz despite rumors, according to UsMagazine.com. The duo stood together, held hands and were affectionate during an MTV Movie Awards after party in SoHo. The night before, the couple went out to the LA sports bar Goals to catch the NBA Finals game together.

How do you keep rumors from ruining your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

How you handle rumors can make or break a relationship. Cupid has some tips on how to deal:

1. Hold strong: The best thing to do in a situation is to not let things get under your skin, no matter how severe they are. Rumors are meant to hurt you, and by defying the odds, you show those gossipers out there that they can't affect you and your relationship.

2. Preventative measures: Be careful who you talk to about your relationship. Sometimes it just takes one person to misinterpret something to start a rumor.

3. Address the situation: The best thing to do as a couple is to talk about each rumor that comes up and trust what your partner is saying. Without trust, the rumors will destroy you as a couple.

Khloe Kardashian: Please Excuse My Nip Slip...

Looks like one of the Kardashian sisters are again at the center of attention. Khloe Kardashian had a wardrobe malfunction on Fox and Friends while promoting the upcoming season of Keeping Up with the Kardashians. Going bra-less and wearing a sheer top, the reality TV star showed a bit more skin than she intended to during the interview. Oops!

The View co-host Sherri Shepherd spoke with HollywoodLife.com hours after Khloe's nip slip and said, "When Khloe came on The View their nipples were so hard I was like girl you want to cover them? And she was like, 'no'. I think Lamar Odom tells his wife 'I want to see you ... I want to see a little headlights.' Six minutes and nobody told her?"

If that's true, we definitely wonder what her hubby had to say about her on-screen embarrassment. Although she doesn't regret the incident, she did apologize to those who were offended in a statement she released on her site yesterday, highlighting the fact that she admires the freeness of European women when it comes to their bodies.

Take a look at what Khloe had to say:

"As I'm sure you've all heard (or seen), I had a bit of a nip slip this morning on Fox & Friends! Whoops!!! My stylist Monica Rose DID tell me to wear a bra with that sheer top but being the naughty girl that I am I disobeyed and went bra-less. I have a nipple obsession and personally love when women show their nipples – perhaps I was a member of a nudist colony in my last life.

"On a more serious note though, to those who I offended, I am very sorry. It truly was an accident, but I would be lying if I said I thought this was a big deal. I love how free European women are when it comes to nudity – they embrace their bodies and are proud of what God gave them. I love that mindset and way of life, which is why I am not embarrassed about what happened this morning. We ALL have nipples!

"Monica of course had a little something to say about this... head over to monicarose.blogspot.com to hear her thoughts. I've also included more pics from outside of Fox & Friends – click through the gallery to see ☺ xoxoxo

"P.S. I am wearing a Givenchy Top, a Herve Leger skirt, Christian Louboutin shoes, a Givenchy bag and Loren Jewels."

Twilight's Nikki Reed and Idol's Paul McDonald Are Engaged

star Nikki Reed and former American Idol contestant Paul McDonald are engaged after a whirlwind romance, reports People. The pair hit it off after meeting in March, and have been extremely happy together since. Reed showed off her ring at the MTV Movie Awards on Sunday, where she told reporters, "He's the one. I've never met anyone like him. I've never met anyone who has such a good solid heart and comes from such a good solid family and is just a genuine person. We have the exact same sense of humor. I've never laughed so much with anyone as I do with him."

What are some things to be careful of in a whirlwind romance?

Cupid's Advice:

The swept-off-your feet feeling is highly coveted in a relationship. However, it's important to step back every once in a while. Here are a few things to be careful of in a whirlwind relationship:

1. Taking the right steps: It's fine to have a quick courtship, but make sure you are taking the right steps. For example, try giving your beau a key to your home or apartment before moving in together. Slowing down your relationship, even a little bit, will pay off in the end.

2. Discussing your goals: While you may only be concerned with your love for your partner, it's important to discuss future goals before taking the next big step. If the two of you want different things in life, your relationship may face struggles down the road.

3. Setting boundaries: Make sure the relationship is moving at a pace that's comfortable for both of you. Don't allow your partner to persuade you to take the next step if you don't feel ready. Make sure that you know how far you are willing to take the relationship, and stick to your convictions.

'True Grit' Star Hailee Steinfeld Worries Guys Date

Her For Wrong Reason

Hailee Steinfeld, who was nominated for an Oscar this year for her role in True Grit, told People that despite her newfound fame, she's not dating right now. The 14-year-old actress says she's afraid that boys will want to go out with her for the wrong reasons. "I feel like I can have crushes on guys, but I'm always worried they may only feel a certain way because of who I am." But Steinfeld says that she's okay with being single. "I don't feel like I need to be with anybody in that way right now. My guy friends are like my brothers."

What are ways to tell your partner is dating you for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

When you reach some kind of status, whether it be earning a lot of money or becoming famous, sometimes people will ask you out for selfish reasons. Cupid has some tips on how to spot these types of people:

1. Beware of gold diggers: If you could never get a date before and all of the sudden people from your past are coming out of the woodwork, they may be interested in something other than your personality.

2. Standing by you from the start: If your partner has been there from the beginning: before you lost the weight, got the great job, etc., then you know he or she is dating you for the right reasons.

3. And until the end: On the other hand, if you go from riches to rags and lose it all and your mate sticks by your side, then you have yourself a keeper.

Mila Kunis and Justin Timberlake Talk Romance Rumors

Mila Kunis and Justin Timberlake stirred up some controversy at the MTV Movie Awards Sunday night when they decided to grope each other on stage in order to drive home the point that they're "just friends". According to People, the two were addressing rumors that they are romantically involved. "Even though we're in the movie Friends With Benefits, Mila and I have never dated," Timberlake said. Kunis said that she and Timberlake are more like brother and sister than anything else. Looks like there isn't love in the air for these two celebrities, but there's definitely a great friendship!

How do you prove you're nothing more than friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Dealing with supposed romance rumors isn't easy, especially if you're just friends with the person in question. Cupid has some tips:

- 1. Be honest: Just be honest and tell your friends, family or any one who may ask that you're just friends nothing more. Sometimes it's best to hear it straight from the person the rumors are about.

2. Go on dates: If you're going on dates with other people, it should squelch any romance rumors between you and your friend. If you're serious about someone, your most certainly not going out on dates with other people.

3. Act like brother and sister: When you two go out, joke around like you're brother and sister instead of lovers. This will show everyone that you just have innocent fun together, and it's not anything more than that.

Piers Morgan and Wife Are Expecting First Child Together

This just in: CNN anchor Piers Morgan and his wife Celia Walden are expecting their first child together, according to UsMagazine.com. “It’s the best news ever,” said a source close to the couple. Walden, a British columnist, is approximately four months along, according to the U.K.’s Daily Mail. For the America’s Got Talent judge, this will be child number four, as he has three sons from his first marriage.

How does your lifestyle change when you have your first child?

Cupid’s Advice:

Your child’s needs must come first, and it can be difficult to navigate the changes that come as a result of that. Here are some suggestions:

- 1. Tone it down: Some things you’re used to doing may not be fit to do around a child, so everything you and your partner do is going to have to come into question.
- 2. Lack of sleep: Children require a lot of attention and you’re going to have to sacrifice a lot of precious hours of sleep early on.

3. Home improvement: The room that was going to become your work-out room is going to have to become your baby's bedroom. Deal with it!

Cupid Exclusive: Behind the Scenes Opinions from Jesse Csincsak

If you watched season 7 of ABC's The Bachelorette last night and it left you feeling angry at Bentley, confused about William and sad about the show's intentions, we may have just the fix you need.

Each week, CupidsPulse.com will bring you an inside look behind the cameras as we gather opinions about the show from season 4 Bachelorette winner, professional snowboarder and our very own candid-commentator, Jesse Csincsak. Jesse will be with us exclusively each week to answer questions about the show. If you have a question for Jesse, you can send it straight to Cupid. Here are his thoughts from last night's dramatic episode:

1. Why don't the producers show Ashley footage of what Bentley said?

If the producers showed Ashley what was going on, that wouldn't make for good TV! Television shows are all about money. The cast is expendable. It's sad, but that's the truth.

2. Jesse, do you think Chris Harrison should have told Ashley the whole truth about Bentley during his pep talk?

Chris Harrison was playing the role of host. He was mentally escorting Ashley to her new relationship. Chris gets paid to be the host so he needs to do what he is being paid to do.

3. You said it was enough already with the mask when you spoke on the Bachelorette Beatdown. Do you think that Jeff revealing his face hurt his chances? Maybe the expectation was too high and it became a letdown?

Wearing the mask is playing a character. For instance, Wes Hayden played the musician and he backed it up by throwing his bachelorette a concert. Jeff wore the mask and kinda talked it up, but when the big reveal came, he seemed to be shooting duds. So yes, I think the mask got him sent home in the long run.

4. Why would the producers let Bentley go through with the game he played?

Wouldn't you say, the producers played Ashley just as much as Bentley?

The producers totally played her and it's sad that TV has come to this. This girl just wants to fall in love. If you couldn't see that after last night's episode, then you never will. I feel bad for her that she was put in that situation.

5. Why do you think Bentley used his daughter as an excuse to go home?

Given he was so honest with the cameras, were you at all surprised he didn't reveal his true colors to Ashley?

Guys like Bentley are HUGE SISSYS in real life. This guy obviously has never had a good ol' fashioned ass woopin' or he wouldn't be treating women like this!

6. Bentley's attitude has been horrible. Last night, he said, "This is fun and games to me," and his honesty made us question the competitive spirit of the show. How many bachelors/bachelorette contestants do you think stay just to "win" and how many stay to "win love"?

For this question I will have to go to my panel on the Bachelorette Beatdown from last week. I think we all agreed that out of every season there are two people on each show that are there for the right reasons.

7. Did Ashley find out about Bentley prior to the show airing or does she see the episode basically at the same time as all of us?

I get to see the show one to two days early so I am sure Ashley does as well.

8. Given what happened in this episode (the drama of the group date, and Bentley's decision to leave), do you think Ashley will be able to recover and find a husband this season?

I would venture to say all this drama will lead into a way bigger and better relationship. That's part of the fun of watching!

You can catch Jesse tonight on RTVZone.com at 6 PM PST as he hosts the first ever Bachelor/ette video recap with Ashley Spivey, Marissa May, Natalie Getz, David Good, Wes Hayden, Jesse Kovacs and Eliza Orlins from Survivor. They will be discussing King Tool (Bentley) and Jeff, aka, The Mask. Tune in – you don't want to miss it!

Cameron Diaz Discusses Her Break-Up Style: Break Up And Move On

They say breaking up is hard to do, but that certainly isn't the case for 'Bad Teacher' star Cameron Diaz. Diaz told UK's 'News Of The World', "We break up, we move on," in response to recent reports that she split from baseball hottie A-Rod, according to RadarOnline. Diaz's new movie 'Bad Teacher' in which she plays a raunchy, go-for-broke educator is set for release June 24th, and her character in the movie isn't far off from who she is in real life. When Diaz appeared on Jimmy Kimmel in February, she proclaimed, "I love porn" and told a British newspaper that sex is her favorite sport. Seems like a break up is the last thing the actress is concerned about!

What are some ways to quickly move on from a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not always easy to get over a break up, but Cupid has some advice on how to quickly move on from a break up:

1. Just accept it and move on: Take a tip from Cameron Diaz and simply accept that people break up and move on. Clearly it's working for her!

2. Put it out of your mind: Distract yourself with work and friends so that you don't even think about your split.

3. Focus on yourself: Try a new activity, hit the gym or read a book; focusing on yourself is the best way to get over a break up while helping yourself feel empowered.

'The Bachelorette' Season 7, Episode 3: Bentley Goes In For the Kill

By Jennifer

Harrington

It's week 3 of ABC's The Bachelorette and leading up to the episode, we were promised that self-proclaimed front-runner Bentley would become the biggest villain in Bachelorette history and bring heartbreak to Ashley. In case you missed out on the action, here's what left our dentist in distress questioning if she'd ever find her Prince Charming:

The first date of the week was a one-on-one with Ben C., where the duo learned a hip-hop dance and performed with a flash mob in a park later that day! Ashley seemed happy to "flash" with this Louisiana lawyer and loved his dancing skills. Though he thought it was the "most ridiculous first date," he was an amazingly good sport about it. Their afternoon ended with a special performance by Far East Movement and the pair shared their first kiss. At dinner, Ben revealed his true romantic colors, stating that he's "always fantasized about a dream love," and Ashley couldn't help but give him a rose!

Next, was the group date. In the moments leading up to it, was the moment we've all been (im)patiently waiting to see...the unmasking of the long-lost brother of Zorro! Unfortunately for Ashley (and us), Jeff's reveal fell flat. He didn't have that unforgettable face that made you melt (like we all had desperately hoped for). With Jeff's face finally revealed to an unimpressed Ashley and his fellow contestants, the worst idea in Bachelorette history for a group date began: a bachelor "roast" a la Comedy Central of the woman whose heart they were trying to win.

Most men (wisely) played it safe, choosing to roast the other guys in the house. But William, the funniest contestant who had a magical time with Ashley last week in Vegas, gave her the most brutal roast of all. William said he signed up for the show when he thought the bachelorette would be Emily or Chantal, and even made inappropriate remarks about Ashley's body. Imagine her surprise! His comments pierced the insecure bachelorette who was always concerned that the guys were disappointed she was chosen for season 7. Later, at a subdued after-party, William apologized to Ashley and then decided to leave – the damage was already done. A vulnerable Ashley turned to Bentley for comfort and their alone time turned into a discussion about the warnings she's heard. Though Bentley had the opportunity to tell Ashley the truth, he denied the rumors and proclaimed he was on the "same page" as her.

After her cozy time with this season's bad boy, the group date rose went to Ryan. An outraged Bentley declared not getting the rose justified his decision to "check out" of the journey with Ashley. While he packed his bags he said, "Ashley is digging what I'm putting out, so I'm going in for the kill now." Blaming his decision to go home on his young daughter (though we all know he hoped the Bachelorette was Emily instead of "ugly duckling" Ashley), Bentley said his goodbyes. Spending her final moments with Bentley crying, it's obvious how quickly and deeply her feelings had developed.

Though William's roast and Bentley's departure were understandably difficult, Ashley still had to navigate her one-on-one date with JP. They shared a quiet night at home and JP did his best to reassure Ashley that she was amazing. JP was given a rose, and the couple shared a romantic kiss by the fire, which Ashley declared was better than her kisses with Bentley!

An emotionally drained Ashley decided to forego the cocktail party. Since Ben C., JP, and Ryan were all safe, the remaining roses went to: Constantine, Mickey, Ben F., Blake, Nick, Ames, Lucas, and (shockingly!) William. Chris D. and Jeff were sent home. The closing minutes of the episode included Jeff burning his mask, and a preview of next week's show in Thailand, where it looks like the guys have turned against Ryan.

Before we give you next week's preview clip, let us know what you think: Do you think Ashley can recover losing Bentley? Is Bentley the biggest villain The Bachelorette has ever seen?

Scott Disick Questions Kourtney Kardashian's Interior Design Choices

Kourtney

Kardashian's latest obsession is redecorating her new home that she shares with longtime boyfriend, Scott Disick. However, according to People, Disick is a little creeped out by his other half's over the top design choices and her uncanny love for checkered patterns. "Our house looks like it's out of Beetlejuice," commented Scott Disick on their $1.7 Million home in Los Angeles. So far, he's gone along with Kardashian's unique decorating ideas. "If she's into it, let her have her fun," he said. "I hang out in the garage."

How do you compromise on design choices as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Though a couple may be very much in love, they may also have very different tastes when it comes to interior decorating. Considering how much time we spend at home, this could become a serious issue in your relationship. Cupid has some tips:

1. Go with it: In every relationship you have to pick your battles. If in the end, the decor really isn't that big a deal to you or is something you could get used to, it may not be worth it to pick a fight, especially if designing makes your partner happy.

2. Compromise: If one person chooses the sofa and the other picks out the coffee table, both of you can be happy.

3. Get a man/woman cave: Establishing a part of the house that is all your own can actually strengthen your relationship and satisfy your decorating needs.

Blake Lively Says Breakups Are Never Dramatic For Her

According to

Blake Lively, things are OK between her and Gossip Girl costar and ex-beau Penn Badgley. “Every relationship you have, you’re learning and growing and taking something from that,” she said in the most recent Us Weekly. “So for me, it’s never been too dramatic of a thing when something ends.” She added that she doesn’t let public opinion influence her decisions, whether that means talk about her split from Badgley or her European excursion with actor Leonardo DiCaprio. “I have a strong sense of myself,” Lively said. “That gives me a sense of security, you know? If I define myself by things that are always changing, like the public’s opinion, or what I’m wearing, or what job I’m doing, there’s no stability in that.”

How do you assure that your breakup is drama-free?

Cupid’s Advice:

Ending a relationship doesn’t always have to be messy, so Cupid has a few suggestions to keep the drama-levels low:

- 1. Clean-cut: When it’s time to throw in the towel, it’s very important that the two of you get some separation for a while.
- 2. Time heals all wounds: It’s extremely difficult to go from a relationship to “staying friends.” It’s best to give it some time and then eventually try to be friends.
- 3. Independence Day: Similar to Blake Lively, it’s important to have a strong foundation of self-confidence. After a break-up, take some time for yourself and don’t go jumping into another affair.

Jennifer Aniston Introduces New Beau Justin Theroux to Pals

Things have been heating up between Jennifer Aniston and her new man, actor/screenwriter, Justin Theroux. According to People, Aniston recently introduced her new love interest to her nearest and dearest by throwing a small get-together attended by some of the actress' closest friends, including Chelsea Handler and Courtney Cox. What are some ways to tell if your relationship is a rebound romance?

Cupid's Advice:

Jumping into a new romance right after ending a long-term relationship can be considered a rebound. Cupid has some questions you may want to ask yourself:

1. How much time has passed?: If you just broke up with someone and are already seeing someone new, you're probably in a rebound relationship. It's important to realize that these flings usually aren't permanent.

2. Do you still have feelings for your ex?: So you've started dating a new person, but everything they do reminds you of your ex. If this is the case, you might consider taking some time alone to heal and move past the breakup.

3. Is the new romance serious?: After ending a serious relationship, it's usually difficult to feel strongly for someone new right away. So if you find that your feelings aren't nearly as intense for your new partner, maybe you're still on the rebound.

How does your relationship grow after you have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Children are supposed to bring joy to your life, but really they can either solidify or destroy a relationship. Cupid has some way your relationship can grow after having kids:

1. Quality time: You're working more closely together now and are taking turns with the children. This can help enhance communication, and it's something you handle as a team. Also, those times you do get to relax, it's nice to have your partner there to cuddle.

2. Support system: Both of you will be stressed out at first, especially if it's your first child. A baby is a big adjustment, and you both need to make sacrifices. Vent to each other and reassure your partner that you're in this together.

3. Family matters: After marriage, this is a tremendous factor in your relationship. Not only are you spending the rest of your life together, but now you're raising a family. Do what Brad and Angelina do-include the kids whenever possible, but admire and take advantage of the alone time you guys get.
