Apparently kids really do bring people together! LeAnn Rimes and fiancé Eddie Cibrian were seen socializing with Brandi Glanville, Cibrian's ex-wife, for Cibrian and Glanville's son Jake's 4th birthday party at Chuck E. Cheese's over the weekend. According to UsMagazine.com, the three have been rivals ever since Eddie Cibrian cheated on wife, Glanville with Rimes in 2009. That said, last month they decided to call a Twitter truce with Rimes tweeting, "As a collective unit, Brandi and I would like all negativity to cease toward one another. Please for our families' sake stop the hate now and let us live our lives."

What changes do you have to make to put jealousy in the past?

Cupid's Advice:

There comes a time in all of our lives where we have to move on and put certain things behind us. Cupid has some advice on changes to make in your life to put the green-eyed monster in the past:

1. Live in the moment: As hard as it is to forgive and forget, the only way for you to move along with your life is to live for today, and let go of things in the past.

2. Focus on the good: Jealousy comes from our constant need to look at what others in our lives have that we don't. Start focusing on what you do have, and you'll begin to see that there's more to be thankful for than you originally thought.

3. Avoid questions: If you know that you have a tendency to be an envious person, try not to ask about past relationships or things that other people have that may trigger your jealousy.

Rob Pattinson and Kristen Stewart Smooch In New York

PDA alert! Robert

Pattinson and Kristen Stewart were caught smooching in NYC Sunday after the premiere of Pattinson's new movie, Water For Elephants. The couple isn't usually a big fan of public displays of affection, but People reports that Sunday, Stewart was all smiles while getting cozy in a car with Pattinson before eventually speeding off. Although Stewart didn't hit the red carpet with her beau for the premiere, she certainly showed her support with some PDA afterward.

What are ways to show PDA without making other people uncomfortable?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes couples engaging in PDA can make the general public uncomfortable. Here are some guidelines:

1. Be subtle: When in a public place, you never know who may be watching. Your safest bet is to be subtle by not having an all out "romp" in the middle of a restaurant. A little "footsy" under the table will do.

2. Draw the line: When it comes to PDA, you and your significant other should discuss what you feel is appropriate and what's not. Some couples don't mind kissing in public (like Kristen Stewart and Robert Pattinson), while other may be totally fine with it.

3. Hold it in: If you and your partner have the urge for some serious affection while in public, your best wait until you're somewhere a little more private. This way, no one will stare at you like you're an exhibit at a museum or zoo.

Charlie Sheen Seeks Temporary Custody While Brooke Mueller Goes to Rehab

Charlie Sheen may just be “winning” temporary custody of his two boys while Brooke Mueller enters rehab. RadarOnline reports that Sheen’s soon-to-be ex-wife checked in to a facility over the weekend following a crack-cocaine bender, where she sought out drug-free urine as well as refusing to take a court-ordered drug test. “Charlie Sheen has had enough with her excuses, period,” said a source in Sheen’s posse. “Brooke refused to take a random drug test. Charlie’s attorney will use that as evidence that the boys are better off with him than with Brooke.” Mueller’s attorney is expected to argue that the boys should be with their grandmother, a socialite in Palm Beach. Her lawyer added the boys haven’t seen the former star of Two and a Half Men, since he left for his Tornado of Truth tour.

How do you decide if you should give up custody of your kids?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s tough to know when to let go of your children to settle personal matters. Cupid has a few checkpoints to peruse when deciding who gets custody after a separation or divorce:

1. Say “no” to drugs: It’s safe to say that kids should be avoiding illicit things while they’re young, so make sure there isn’t anything morally unfit in your house before welcoming your offspring into it.

2. A foot on the career path: Perhaps after your split you’d like to focus your life on your career, and having children around would only make things more stressful. Consider giving up custody to a more committed parent.

3. A necessary and proper home: The biggest part of your self-test is whether you can provide a proper home and lifestyle for your children to grow. Your child’s welfare needs to be the top priority.

Reese Witherspoon Says Married Life Feels Great

Reese Witherspoon

hit New York City on Sunday for the premiere of her new movie Water For Elephants. The star was all smiles at her first red carpet appearance since tying the knot with CAA agent Jim Toth at her ranch in Ojai, California in late March. When asked how married life is, Witherspoon replied, "It feels great!"

The actress recently got back from her honeymoon in Belize, and life is slowly getting back to normal. Luckily, Witherspoon is able to balance her marriage and her promotional duties just fine, saying that "Everything's just great!" Witherspoon has also added more film premieres in order to get closer to her fans, saying, "This is an opportunity to really connect with the fans. It's a nice opportunity for me to connect with the people who actually go and see the movies."

How does married life feel different than the single life?

Cupid's Advice:

It may seem to you like you're already married before you actually tie the knot, but there are a few key differences in the life of someone who's married and someone who's single.

Cupid has some thoughts:

1. You're never lonely: Once your married, you have your best friend and partner in life. You no longer have to fear being single or alone forever.

2. You have someone to share everything with: When you're married, you have someone to confide in about your secrets, insecurities or even life's excitements. You no longer have to keep a wall up because someone is there to listen to and care about you.

3. You have someone to always have fun with: An important part of any marriage is to keep the spark alive, and the best way to do that is to simply have fun. When you're married you have someone to go to a concert with or with whom to plan the future.

Prince William and Kate Middleton Practice Balcony Kiss

With less than two weeks left until the big royal day, everyone at the Westminster Abbey is buzzing with excitement. UsMagazine.com reports that Prince William and Kate Middleton have rehearsed the entire ceremony, including the 1:25 p.m. balcony kiss. "It's not the actual kiss that needs rehearsing..." an aide told the magazine. "However, the angle that they come in at needs to be correct, otherwise they could block the shot and the world will miss out on that momentous moment."

What kind of kiss should you use at your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

So your wedding day is almost here, and you're still undecided about which wedding kiss to have. No problem! Cupid offers suggestions on how to decide:

- 1. Mutual decision: Speak with your significant other about what kind of wedding kiss you both want. If one of you wants a long intense kiss, but the other wants a short and sweet peck, perhaps you can compromise with something in between.
- 2. Practice: Once you figure out what kiss you both want, practice it. As they say, practice makes perfect.

3. Keep it short: We all understand that it's your wedding day, but try not to make out in front of a crowd. Keep your kiss short, sweet and sincere.

'Teen Mom 2' Star Leah Messer Files for Divorce After 6 Months

Just six months after the wedding of Teen Mom stars Leah Messer and Corey Simms, the two are filing for divorce. According to UsMagazine.com, the couple had just decided that everything was moving way too fast, especially considering their ages (16). Pre-marriage, Messer said, "I didn't want to jump into something else and be like, 'Oh, st! What did we do?'. Three years ago, back before I was pregnant, I never thought I'd be married now. I was scared because a lot of people who marry young end up divorcing within a year." Although the two are now in the middle of their divorce, their friends hope that they can work it out.

How do you know when your relationship is over for good?

Cupid's Advice:

The more in love we are, the more we try not to see the flaws in our relationships. But how do you know when it's really time to call it quits? Cupid has some guidelines:

- 1. Nothing to talk about: If you find yourself scrounging for good conversation with your boyfriend/girlfriend, there may just be nothing left there for the two of you to discuss.
- 2. Butterflies: Of course every couple has their good and bad days, but if you don't feel in love at least every once in a while, that's a bad sign. If that happy/excited feeling is no longer there, it may be time to reevaluate your relationship.
- 3. Fighting: It's human nature to disagree with people at times, but if the two of you not getting along is happening more often than not, it may be time to let it go.

David Arquette Says He Had to Act Childishly After Separation

David Arquette's chaotic months are behind him. Arquette thoroughly explained his new outlook on life to People at Hollywood Bites Back on Saturday. "I went through a really hard time, and my way of dealing with it was just to blow it all up," said Arquette. "I did act childish[ly], but at the same time I had to – I was really hurt. It was hard for me to deal with this, but what I had to do ultimately was step back and take a look at myself." The Scream 4 actor went on to say, "I'm really getting in touch with my feelings, and trying to process them in a more appropriate way."

What are some ways to cope with a separation?

Cupid's Advice:

After a tough breakup, it's all too easy to fall into depression. Here are a few ways to cope:

1. Visit friends and family: Family and friends are the best support system. A few afternoons with the people who care about you most can do wonders for your attitude.

2. Resolve issues: Especially after an emotionally rough split, it's difficult to let the relationship go. If possible, contact your ex and make amends. While your relationship may not be saved, your partner's friendship can be secured.

3. Keep moving forward: Accept the past and move forward with your life by trying new things. Pick up a few new hobbies or pursue an old goal. The refreshing new beginning will help you heal.

Survey Says Americans Would Spend Up to $600 to Attend the Royal Wedding

With the highly anticipated royal wedding on the horizon, there's a lot of buzz surrounding this high profile event. Prince William and fiancée Kate Middleton's glamorous wedding plans fascinate Americans – so much so, that three in five people would pay on average about $600 to get their hands on an invitation to the soiree.

With the media reporting every detail of the event, Americans are speculating about which luxury they would choose to include in their own big day. When polled, 29 percent of women stated that they would choose to distribute personalized gifts to each of their guests. However, 22 percent said they would like to ride in as a couple on a horse-drawn carriage, while 17 percent would wear a couture wedding gown on their special day.

Americans Say "I Do" to Cash: The royal couple is using the union of their love to do some good for mankind. The pair has asked well wishers to donate a gift to one (or all) of their five hand-picked charitable organizations, rather than giving money or gifts to congratulate them. However, when asked, only two percent of Americans would do the same. More than 50 percent say they would like to receive cash as gifts, and 23 percent say they would prefer gifts purchased from a wedding registry.

While the general public will not be invited personally to take part in the couple's nuptials, Americans can tune into NBC on April 29, 2011 at 5:30 AM EST and 2:30 PM PST.

*This survey was conducted by American Express Spending & Saving Tracker and was completed online among a random sample of 2,020 consumers over the age of 18. Roberto Martinez Says Ali Fedotowsky Is Not a Bridezilla

Bachelorette couple

Ali Fedotowsky and Roberto Martinez can't wait to tie the knot. However, according to People, they have yet to announce their wedding date to the public. Lucky for the groom-to-be, the former reality star is no wedding diva. "She's not a bridezilla, thank god," Martinez said. "I'd be scared to death if she was, but no, she's awesome." It looks like the world of reality TV can count on one less bridezilla.

How do you know if your partner is a bridezilla?

Cupid's Advice:

Even the nicest of your friends can turn into a bridezilla when it comes to his or her big day. Here are the signs to look for to see if you have a bridezilla on your hands:

1. Most of the people attending the wedding are bridesmaids: A true bridezilla will start bulking up the troops ASAP. If you're in a wedding where there are 25+ bridesmaids, chances are you're dealing with a bridezilla.

2. The bride begins to speak like a drill sergeant: If the bride is starting to sound more like a general than a blushing bride, she is probably a little too wedding-obsessed.

3. The tears at the wedding aren't tears of joy: Many friendships have died as a result of wedding drama. Don't let your partner's need for a perfect wedding day go too far.

Khloé Kardashian and Lamar Odom Face a Best Friend Issue

Khloe Kardashian and Lamar Odom may be sickeningly cute on their new reality show, but that doesn't mean the two don't have disagreements. E! Online reports that when the couple recently spent some quality time together on a hilltop overlooking Los Angeles, Kardashian brought up her husband's best friend, Jamie. The 26-year-old said she thought Jamie was taking advantage of Odom, who was ignoring it because of their friendship. The NBA pro finally agreed to talk to his pal to sort things out.

What do you do if you have an issue with your partner's best friend?

Cupid's Advice:

When you have a problem with your mate's BFF, you have to walk a fine line and make sure you don't offend your partner or break up their friendship. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make it work: If you don't get along with your partner's pal, keep trying. Don't give up on at least being friendly with the BFF because he's an important person in your mate's life.

2. Be careful: When you have an issue with your significant other's buddy, bring it up delicately. To avoid starting a conflict, don't accuse the friend of anything until you know all of the facts.

3. Have a talk: If there's some bad blood between you and your partner's best bud, talk to him or her to clear things up, and figure out how to improve the relationship for the sake of your significant other.

How will your life change after marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Different people look at marriage various ways. Some people take it lightly and jump into it quickly, while others are more reserved and take things slow. Either way, your life changes when you tie the knot. Cupid's got some of these ways:

1. Financially: When you get married, your money becomes "our" money. You'll have to work together to come up with a budget that covers both of your expenses, and you'll be held accountable for your spending by another person.

2. Commitment: Once you get married, you're done playing the field. There are no more fish in the sea. If your marriage is healthy, this won't be a problem. That said, make sure you trust your partner completely.

3. Decisions: Things you used to decide for yourself now become a mutual decision with your spouse. It's more important that you run things by each other, as a marriage is a union.

How does a relationship survive when you're both workaholics?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships are hard enough without the added stress of a career in the back of your mind. Here are some tips on how you can ease some of that career/relationship tension:

1. Make time for each other: Although this may be difficult to do, it's important to have a date night at least once a week where the two of you put work out of your minds and focus on each other. No cell phones or business calls – just the two of you enjoying each other's company.

2. Video chatting: If the two of you are constantly traveling on business and don't get to see each other often, why not video chat? This allows you to see and talk to one another rather than simply texting or having a phone conversation over the phone. Skype and Oovo are free, easy to use and becoming extremely popular. There are also other available apps, like Face Time for the iPhone.

3. Take a vacation: If both of you can coordinate your vacation time so you can be together, do it! This way, you guys can have a fun, romantic getaway. Forget about work for a couple of days and enjoy each other's company.

Where are some unlikely places to meet a potential partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

There’s an old saying that you’ll meet your lover when you least expect it. Here are some off-the-wall places you could meet your next partner:

1. Public county love library: Most people, when looking for books at the public library, are not finding the Kama Sutra.

2. Go team!: How many of your friends go to professional sporting events looking for a date or a spouse? Then again, a partner who has common interests in sports may lead to a solid foundation.

3. Paper or plastic?: For most guys, shopping trips are in, out and back on in life. Finding a new lover while picking out fresh fruit could make a great love story at a wedding.

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping a balance between your career and your love life is one of the most difficult things to achieve. Though it may seem impossible at times, having a balanced life is possible by managing your time and keeping open lines of communication:

- 2. Set time aside: Time management is the key to solving many of life's problems, and it can significantly help balance your love life with your career.

Michael Douglas' Ex Is Still Going After His Money

Michael Douglas has a lot to be happy about these days, what with beating cancer and enjoying time with his beautiful wife Catherine Zeta-Jones. It seems the only drama plaguing the actor these days is his ex-wife, Diandra, according to E! Online. It seems that she is still going after his money, which in this case means half of his profits from Wall Street: Money Never Sleeps. How is she justifying her case, you ask? Well, apparently Douglas became Gordon Gekko while they were still married, which entitles her to part of the earnings. What won't Diandra do for money?

How do you tell if your partner is only after your money?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the worst things is to fall in love with someone and then realize they're only with you for your bank account.

Cupid's got some advice on how to tell before it's too late:

1. You pay every time: One of the easiest ways to tell if your partner is overly interested in your funds is to pay attention to his or her offers to pay. Do you pay for everything or does your partner share in the expenses?

2. Expensive suggestions: If your partner never seems content just hanging out and always wants to do extravagant things on your dime, that's probably a bad sign. Pay attention to your activities as a couple.

3. Quality time alone: If your mate seems reluctant to hang out with you one-on-one and just doesn't seem too "into" quality time together, it may mean that he or she is interested in something besides your personality ... perhaps your money.

Cupid's Advice:

When you have a baby, you want to make sure he or she is healthy by being healthy yourself. Cupid has some tips on how to make sure your body's ready for a baby:

1. Exercise: Even when you're pregnant or plan on becoming pregnant, you should still try to do some sort of physical activity every day. While you don't have to do cardio dance like Julianne Hough, yoga or walking are other less strenuous options.

2. Eat right: Make sure you are getting all the vitamins and minerals you need by eating plenty of fruits, vegetables, whole grains and lean protein. Once you're pregnant, be sure to keep up with the prenatal vitamins.

1. Enjoy the single life: You may be jealous of your married friend, but the truth is, she’s jealous of you, too. So while you're single, enjoy it by going out, meeting new people and having fun.

2. Don't lose hope: If you want to settle down in the future, just know that your time will come. Remember that you're single because you're picky, but one day the right person will come along.

3. Support your friends: Instead of feeling bitter toward friends who are in love, why not be happy for them? You know if the roles were reversed, they would support you and your relationship.

Prince William and Kate Middleton Invite Exes to Wedding

There will be six (yes, six!) former lovers in attendance for Prince William and Kate Middleton's royal wedding. According to an article on UsMagazine.com, a source leaked the guest list, and it was confirmed by three palace sources. Middleton invited Rupert Finch, her ex from St. Andrews University, and her high school crush Willem Marx. Prince William, on the other hand, invited Arabella Musgrave, from his university days, Rose Farquhar, his first girlfriend, Jecca Craig, who was rumored to be his first love, and Isabella Anstruther-Gough-Galthorpe. What were they thinking?

Are there complications that arise when you invite your ex to your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult to decide whether to invite your former lovers to your wedding. After all, you may still be friends with some of them. Cupid's got some things to consider:

1. 'Graduation Goggles': There is a possibility that you will see your ex at your wedding and remember the "good ol' days" of when you were good as a couple. If there's any chance of that happening, don't invite him or her. You want to be focused on the person you're marrying on your wedding day.

2. 'I, Ross, take you, Rachael': Although it's unlikely that you'll say the wrong name during your vows like Ross did on Friends, your ex may see you and realize what he or she is missing. The last thing you need is drama at your wedding!

3. 'Battle of the Exes': Similar to the old Cheers episode, your future spouse may become jealous if you feel the pull to invite your ex to your wedding. Either convince him that there are no leftover feelings and you only harbor platonic feelings toward your ex, or don't invite him.

What changes do parents go through when they add a third child to the family?

Cupid's Advice:

Tori Spelling and Dean McDermott are proud parents to son Liam, 4 and daughter Stella, 2 1/2, and are excited to add a third member to the family. That said, there's a big difference between raising two and three kids. Cupid's got some things to expect:

1. Middle child situation: With three kids, you naturally have the “forgotten” or middle child, the oldest child that gets all the attention and the youngest child that gets babied. Try your hardest not to let your kids fall into these stereotypes.

2. Jealousy: When you start adding more than one child to your family, jealousy rears its head and the child who used to get all of the attention is all of the sudden forced to share. Make sure you teach your kids that sharing is important from an early age.

3. More expenses: With three kids instead of two, that means more everything. It's means more food, more room, more medical bills and more clothes. Make sure you can afford a third child before you have one.

How do you keep your independence in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It's great to share experiences while you're in a relationship, but at the same time, it's important to keep your independence as well. Cupid's got some tips:

- 1. Slow it down: Don't jump into a relationship, because if you move too quickly then you'll have to meet the commitments that come with it.
- 2. Keep your space: Although it's important to spend quality time with each other while in a serious relationship, it's important to have your own friends and sometimes do things without your partner.

3. Time for you: Try to remember that it's important to take some time for just yourself. Your mate should understand this if you're in a healthy relationship.

Mark Ballas and 'Idol' Contestant Pia Toscano: Dating?

Looks like love may be in the air for Dancing With the Stars pro Mark Ballas and American Idol contestant Pia Toscano. The two were spotted at the Gulfstream restaurant in Century City, according to TMZ, and were reportedly on their first date. Despite being kicked off of American Idol last week, Toscano has been able to pick herself up in search for love. Supposedly the crooner has had a crush on Ballas for quite some time, and their trailers were next to each other on the same studio lot. DWTS pro Chris Jericho, who is credited with helping to facilitate the hook up, said that the two had a “great” first date and plan to go out again soon.

Is it important to have the same talents as your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Both Pia Toscano and Mark Ballas are very talented with music, but it's not necessarily a requirement to have the same talents as your partner. Cupid has some things to consider:

1. Common values: As long as you live by the same morals and values in life, it's not necessarily to have exactly the same interests and talents as your partner. The key is to support each other.

2. Bond: The benefit of having common interests, hobbies and/or talents is that you can spend quality time doing things you both enjoy. It can lead to a better understand of each other.

3. Independence: Having different interests and career goals helps you each evolve as independent people. Although it would be great for Toscano and Ballas to sing duets together, it would be an issue if they didn't have anything else in common. One common talent doesn't a relationship make.
