Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Courtney Shapiro

Kady Krambeer, a model, an artist, and entrepreneur joined the cast of 'Temptation Island' this season to see if her current relationship was end game or if there would be another tempting man in her future. Krambeer started the season off with long-term boyfriend John Thurmond, but as the show progressed, she realized he might not be the one.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat with Krambeer about why she decided to be a part of a reality TV show, what it was like being on 'Temptation Island' as well as advice for other couples faced with the same challenge.

Check out our celebrity interview with Kady Krambeer to hear all about her time on Temptation Island, the latest reality sensation:

1. We know the background about your relationship with John, but what inspired you to do the show and bring it public?

The opportunity came about and we were thinking for a while if we were the one for each other, So, we thought 1. this would be really fun and 2. this will help us find out.

2. Before the show, did you ever have any counseling or did you have any process that you went through to determine if your relationship should end or continue?

No, not any counseling. It was one of those things where we decided we would do it and then life got in the way. But, we were praying about the relationship, talking to friends about it but really we were kind of going through the mundane day to day life and putting it on the back burner.

3. In terms of the show, did you think you were going to find somebody on the show, or were you thinking it would make your relationship stronger with John?

Honestly, I didn't think that I would find anyone that I had strong connection with. In fact, the days leading up to us [John and I] going to the island, and then the first few days of filming, John and I felt like we had actually gotten a lot closer and stronger and we kept making jokes to one another, questioning what we were even doing there. It was like okay, we got our answers we can leave. We are good. We felt really solid and probably more in love than ever. Then at that point it was too late to back out.

Then we were separated and a lot can happen when you are separated. Even if you are not putting other singles into the mix, it a time to self evaluate and reflect. So it takes the comfort out of your normal life. There were no cell phones, and no distractions. It really opens your mind. It was like relationship therapy, especially with the producers asking the tough questions.

4. Tell us how you've personally grown through this experience.

I feel like I'm a completely different person coming off of the island, than when I started the whole experience. I feel like I grew so much. My horizons have been broadened. I was in a bubble and I was really quick to judge people I realized and really quick to make assumptions. It really opened up my eyes to a lot of different possibilities and lifestyles, cultures, and people that really bring perspective. It was really enlightening and it changed me. And then coming to be close with these people and establishing life long friendships makes me forever changed.

Then of course there is the growth that has come just since the show has aired. The fans that have positive and negative things to say. That is really hard to anticipate just how hard it is going to be and how it is going to effect you. That has helped me grow and made me realize that I am stronger than I ever thought I would be.

5. How has the reaction been and how have you handled it?

I mean, it is mixed. I obviously have a lot of haters, but people are only getting a short little sliver and snippets of what is actually going on and there is so much more content that they are not seeing. So, they are making assumptions based off of what they are seeing regarding what type of person I am. Everyone there at the house knows my personality, but the viewers just think that I am awful. So, it has been tough. I try to ignore it, but there is only so much you can ignore and turn the other cheek and wear on your shoulders before that weight gets to you. It has been challenging. I try to rise above it and these people don't know me. It is really what my friends and family think about me that is really all that matters.

6. Is there anything that you said or did that you regret?

Well, there are obviously cringe worthy things that I say. It is so embarrassing. But I think that I was very true to myself. I followed my heart.. to a fault. I was very open to the experience and everything that I was feeling. That is all that I ever wanted, was to stay true to myself. So, no. I don't really have any regrets.

7. I know in one of the episodes you question John's masculinity, and then you met Dr. Johnny, who you described as an alpha guy. What attracted you to Dr. Johnny and what makes him different than John?

Johnny is so charismatic, and he is loud and outgoing. He is so super confident and super assertive. He was kind of like the dad of the household, and he just took care of everyone. You would just walk in the house and feel heard. He would just come in and start making food and be the provider for everyone. He was always making sure that I had something to drink and that I had something to eat. He is really a caretaker and I didn't need to hold his hand and coddle him and tell him how to do stuff. I just loved his assertiveness and take charge attitude and confidence. That is what drew me to him.

8. Can you talk about your relationship with John or Dr. Johnny?

I just know that some big realizations came about on the island. Even after I came to these realizations, some old thoughts came creeping back up and so that is something that I struggle with for the rest of the season. I am kind of going back and forth. I was pretty confident in my decision but I was just back and forth. I kept second guessing myself and the rest of the season is a reflection of that and it shows the journey that I went through.

9. Do you have any guilt from the show?

Yes, I have guilt. I have guilt in respect to my relationship. Regardless of the relationship that was developing with Johnny, I was still ultimately in a relationship with John. It was hard on me to walk that tight rope. It was hard for me to be true to myself and still be respectful to my boyfriend.

10. Would you recommend this show for other couples? If not what would you suggest for other struggling couples?

Absolutely not. I do not recommend this for other couples. I don't think it's a good idea. I would not recommend it. It's harder than people think. No matter how confident you are, you get there and realize how hard it is.

11. What would you recommend couples do if they are faced with the decision of whether they should stay or break off their relationship?

If you are in a place where you question your relationship and you are still in the dating stage, I think time apart is helpful to clear your mind but not on a platform of a reality show. Take some time apart and some time away. Go on vacation, by yourselves, unplugged. Give yourself time and breath, pray and go to counseling if you want to do some traditional things together as a couple.

11. What's life like now that you are back in the real world and people are watching the show?

It's funny because I feel like a normal person in my everyday life until I get online. When I get online that's where things really circulate and that's when I realize that people recognize me. And, online it really hits me that I am on a reality show. I get recognized out in public occasionally. It happens more when the three other girlfriends and I are together. I mean it is a cool feeling, but we are just like, we are just normal people who did this crazy thing.

12. What made you put the necklace around Katherine?

Literally when the girls walked out, she just stuck out to me. There was something about her. I don't know if it was the energy she was putting off. I mean, obviously, she was beautiful. They are all beautiful.

When she made her introduction, she was saying, she is a southern belle. It's funny because what they didn't show was that she messed up her first time coming out and saying her introduction. She actually cursed and had to start over. It was so funny and cute and charming that I thought, okay I like her and I don't want to like her. So, I thought John would like her.

13. Is there anything else you can tell us from the show? Do you still talk to Dr. Johnny or John?

I still talk to everyone from the show. I don't know what I can say right now.

14. Lastly, can you tell us what's next for you?

I don't know. Right now, I'm just focusing on myself and my career. I don't really know. Whatever life throws my way. I'm a pretty spontaneous person and I'm all about seizing opportunities and I want to live life to the fullest. I have no set plans right now. I have a marketing firm that I am slowly getting off the ground. I am focusing on that and having fun.

Celebrity Interview: 'Temptation Island' Star Dr. Johnny Alexander Dishes On What It's Like Being a Reality TV Star

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Courtney Shapiro

Dr. Johnny Alexander is one of the sexy singles living it up in Hawaii on the newly rebooted first season of 'Temptation Island'. Alexander lives in New York where he recently opened his own sports chiropractor office. Since most of his time has been spent focusing on his career, Dr. Johnny has put his love life on the back burner. Now, with a booming business, he's ready to find the woman of his dreams.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we talk with Dr. Alexander about his career as a chiropractor, his time on Temptation Island, and how life has changed after being on a reality show.

Check out our celebrity interview with Dr. Johnny to get an inside look on his experience as a cast member on 'Temptation Island':

1. With such a great career and your own practice, what inspired you to go on Temptation Island?

With my career and running a business, I don't get to travel as much as I'd like to. I've never been to Hawaii before this, so I figured even if I don't find love, at least I'll do a cool trip somewhere and get to see Hawaii for the first time. I guess that was kind of what pushed me to do it. The opportunity came up and they called me and I flew to LA. The casting and interview process was three days and then I flew home on a Sunday and they immediately called me and said we want you to go on the show, we are going to fly you to Hawaii in 10 days. It was a quick turn around.

2. How long were you taping in Hawaii? And, what did your patients think of you being gone?

Yes, I actually made it pretty far on the show. I think that I was gone about a month. It was hard but it was all worth it. I had told patients that I was going to be gone for a week or two, that turned into a month. So they had to call the patients who were already scheduled with me and push their appointments another week or two. So, I definitely had some explaining to do when I got back. But, I had to keep things private until the show got announced.

3. Did you consider how being on a reality television series would impact your business?

Well being on a show, I was definitely worried about how this would impact my business. It could have went bad for me if I was drinking or saying something stupid that could be used in a negative way. I was definitely worried but once I got there, I stayed true to myself. I was a class act professional. I am not thinking for a second about anything that happened in Hawaii as far as my career goes. I thought if anything, it is a good way to get my name out there. New York City is a pretty competitive place to have a business so sometimes it can be good exposure to get your face out there. It could go against you too if you are out there doing things you are not proud of then it can definitely hurt you. It is a 50/50 shot, I figured.

4. How is life different now than before the show aired?

Yesterday, I had a new patient come into the office and we were talking about running. And then during the conversation, she was like I just realized who you are from the show. I was like, is this how I am going to be known from now on? So, instead of being known as the chiropractor that treats a lot of sports injuries, now I am going to be known as the guy from Temptation Island who walks around in a tank top. It is still positive. It's just important that people realize that I'm a chiropractor. I do have a real career and I'm a real person.

5. We watched this love story unfold between you and Kady. What was it about her that interested you and was different than the women you have dated or met in New York?

I know. There are millions of people [in NYC], you are a social guy, you have a lot of friends, how do you not meet girls that you want to date? You know it's tough to meet the right person in a setting where you may not see the same person over and over again. New York is so big, so when I take a break from my career or working and seeing patients, and I try to do something social, you are not going to see the same people like at the gym, or at the bar so you really need to go over to them and be like "Hey, I think you are beautiful, can I get your number." So, it's hard to meet people organically in New York. There are so many people, so many options and so many different crowds. I haven't really met anyone who hits my whole check list yet.

So, with Kady, we clicked off the bat. She was looking for something that she hasn't found at home. We have similar personalities. We are very outgoing. Her and I could walk into a room full of strangers and after an hour we'd know everyone in the room. We confide in each other a little bit. Her situation was definitely unique. It was hard in her position to flirt with somebody and be in a relationship. I didn't want to push boundaries but she did seem pretty open to it. I think it was after our date at the Luau that I realized maybe there was long term potential. So, I wanted to explore what I was feeling with her versus trying to get to know other people. She said that I brought out a side of her that she hasn't felt in a a long time. So, I think we were both just living in the moment and being like you know what lets just see what happens. She still had a lot to figure out with her boyfriend of three years, and I was in NYC so we weren't getting caught up on how to make it work long term. I just figured if it was the right person, then it doesn't matter.

6. You said on one of the episodes, "I feel like I prayed for you every single day." Can you elaborate on this?

Yes, Kady is so fun and down to earth and beautiful. She has this amazing adventure for life that I haven't really found in other girls that I have dated. The girls that I have dated have been traditionally good on paper but after a while it fizzles out. It is tough to find someone who keeps up with me. I have a lot of energy, I'm always going, and finding someone that seems like they are down for the ride, is tough.

7. Watching the show now, what do you think about the way Kady treated John and the things she said about him?

For the record, during our time on Temptation Island she was not saying these things in front of me. But, now that I am seeing it on TV I am like, "Wow, that is a little harsh." I think that John is a good guy and he deserves a woman who is going to be appreciative of him. I don't think they were a good fit. I don't give her props for the way that she kind of badmouthed him, but I do understand where she's coming from. I just feel that they weren't right for each other.

8. Would you ever consider doing the Bachelor?

I would totally do it. I feel like there are a million guys though but I am a yes guy. So, I would do it. But I don't think I would do well because I am too real.

Is there anything you can tell us about the relationship with Kady?

Without giving away too much, when the show ended, we talked pretty much every day. She is in Dallas and I'm in New York. We are really close but there is a lot of stuff that needs to be figured out, if her and I are going to choose to be together. The way that we just kinda left it is that I would let her go back to her situation and figure that out. If I was the next step then that would happen. But this is really tough. This is real life stuff. I think John was going to propose at the end of this if it went well. So, I am not too sure where his head is at.

10. So, what's next for you?

Like I said, I am a "yes" man. I like taking life by the horns. I'm really focused on my practice right now and getting involved with some cross fit gyms. That has really been my passion and my dream. I am a doctor for a couple of different teams and working with these athletes that are really at a high level of performance. That is what my focus is on. In the meantime, if something fun like this were to come my way, I would say "yes" to almost any opportunity.

Celebrity Engagement News: J.Lo & A-Rod Are Officially Engaged!

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity couple and celebrity wedding news, Jennifer Lopez and Alex Rodriguez are engaged! According to UsMagazine.com, the baseball player shared a photo of Lopez's left hand, which had a giant square-cut diamond ring on it. He captioned it with, "she said yes." The two have been dating since 2017. Aww, congrats to them both!

This celebrity engagement was a huge surprise to Jennifer Lopez! What are three fun surprise proposal ideas?

Cupid's Advice:

Proposing should be fun and memorable. While you may not want to get a huge ring for your partner, here are a few ways you can get creative:

1. On a keyboard: Remember those old clacky keyboards that had keys you could remove for cleaning? Some updated gaming desktop keyboards can be used for this, too (fun keyboard lights are sure to be eye-catching). Take the keys and rearrange them to ask your partner to marry you!

2. On the beach: Pop the question on your summer beach vacation! You can do this in a lot of ways: drawing the question in the sand, making a sculpture, or just getting down on your knee with the ring if you don't want to get super fancy.

3. A themed proposal: Probably one of the most fun, choose either your partner's favorite book, show, or movie, and theme your entire proposal around it! Dress like Darcy and Elizabeth from Pride and Prejudice; build some Legos into a Star Wars themed wedding ring proposal, or put the ring in a mini Tardis if you're asking a Whovian to marry you.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Villain Chad Johnson Accuses GF Caitlin Clemmens of Cheating

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, Chad Johnson claimed Caitlin

Clemmens hooked up with someone else right in front of him, according to UsMagazine.com. Chad opened about his celebrity relationship with Clemmens on March 6th for his appearance on The Tomorrow Show With Keven Undergaro. Also according to Johnson, the two had been seeing each other for a steady two months until the end of February. After seeing Clemmens cheat, Johnson left.

In celebrity news, Chad Johnson is publicly accusing his girlfriend of cheating in front of him. What are some ways to handle things when you find out your partner is cheating?

Cupid's Advice:

It can feel like a shot to the gut when you find out your partner has been cheating, especially if you thought you were both somewhere early in the relationship but your partner didn't have the same understanding. Cupid has some advice on how to handle things when you find out your partner has been cheating:

1. Don't publicly blast them: If there is any chance of saving your relationship, publicly announcing your partner's behavior is a sure way to destroy any chance you may have at fixing it. Slip-ups happen. Don't immediately turn them into the bad guy. Plus, it makes you look bad in the process.

2. Try to understand why it happened: Give your partner a chance to explain. Were they caught up in the moment at a party with friends? Did they not understand the grounds of the relationship? Don't let them off the hook too easily, but also don't immediately write them off.

3. Evaluate your options: Are they sorry? Was the cheating enough to make you want to end the relationship, or could you see yourself giving them a second chance? It's okay to take a step back to emotionally distance yourself from the situation until you're ready to make a decision.

Celebrity Interview: 'Bachelor' Alum Ben Higgins to Host "The Wedding Party"

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Courtney Shapiro

Most people know reality television star Ben Higgins from The Bachelor, but this busy entrepreneur has also opened up Generous Coffee Co., which helps those in need, and Ash-Kara, a restaurant in Denver serving up Israeli and middle eastern cuisine. Next on the list, the self-confessed romantic is pairing up up with DiningOut Events to create a large, one of a kind wedding event called, The Wedding Party. If you are newly engaged this could be for you. The Wedding Party is looking for a dozen couples to experience the unique opportunity to have a ceremony and reception with all the fun and none of the headache.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat with Higgins about the creation of the Wedding Party, his entrepreneurial endeavors as well as his current dating life and relationship advice.

Check out our celebrity interview with Ben Higgins to see what the reality star is up to today:

1. Hi Ben, you must be excited about your new endeavor with the Wedding Party. What inspired you to get involved and would you ever consider this type of wedding for yourself?

The Wedding Party is a first-of-its-kind mass wedding ceremony, reception, and festival all rolled into one. I am not aware of another wedding that has ever been quite like this. I am very excited! I've known the founders Jeff Suskin and Shalisa Pouw of DiningOut Events for some time – we are involved in a few projects together. They approached me over coffee with a wild idea and I was immediately hooked. I've always been a romantic at heart, so I didn't need much convincing.

I would consider this type of wedding for myself, but then again, I'm not the only one who would have a say in the matter!

2. If not, what would your dream wedding look like?

I love a big celebration! Whether it be a group wedding like The Wedding Party or a more traditional setting, the celebration and energy of the attendees is what matters. My ideal wedding would be filled with lots of laughter, dancing, smiling, and enjoyment.

3. Can you tell us what your role will be at The Wedding Party and any specific things that you will be doing?

I'm hosting The Wedding Party. The real job is to make sure everyone is enjoying themselves and having a good time. It's going to be a special day for the couples and attendees, and I want to make sure we throw one hell of a celebration!

4. Who else will join you in this process of choosing the couples and what specific characteristics or traits will you be looking for during the selection process?

The couples are chosen by a group of people including myself and the team at DiningOut Events. We are looking for couples from all different backgrounds and love stories. We are looking to bring people up on stage who are all different, all diverse, and all excited about making the commitment! Couples can apply online at <https://www.theweddingparty.love/>.

5. Aside from the cost savings, can you give our visitors 2 to 3 additional reasons why they might want to consider sharing their special day with a bunch of other couples and their families?

The modern wedding experience is very expensive, with tired rituals and too much stress for everyone involved. The Wedding Party is a way for couples to share in the fun and excitement at a blown-out shindig with a couple thousand people there to support them!

6. Let's move on to you. Ben, we hear that you are dating again. We are so happy for you. What can you tell us about this new woman in your life? So many fans want to see you happy!

Jessica and I have been dating for a few months, and it has been great since the beginning. However, the relationship is new and we want to be wise about how much pressure we put on our relationship. Timing is important in any relationship and we both wanted to figure out if this was going to be something that we were going to try and make last before we publicized our relationship.

7. We know that communication is critical in a long distance relationship. Any advice to help our readers who are struggling with dating someone long distance?

Long distance relationships are much harder to maintain, but it can be done. Communication is key! Trust also plays a big role. Face-time is a huge asset to long distance relationships! The best thing about long distance is that you are forced to have intentional conversations and as a result dig into the lives of the person you are pursuing. I encourage anyone out there to write down some questions that you maybe wouldn't ask if you were in person and then ask those while you are on the phone so you can use that time to your benefit.

8. Ben, where do you want to live and start a family? Does Denver have your heart long-term or would you move for someone special?

Denver is an incredible city! I love Denver and do consider it home, but I am not necessarily stuck in Denver. I am open to the discussion but right now Denver is the number one place for me to call home (and ideally I would be in Denver a long time).

9. As the owner of two businesses, have you always been passionate about entrepreneurship? What was the inspiration behind Generous Coffee Company and Ash-Kara?

I've always been passionate about entrepreneurship, especially if there is a purpose behind the business. That's what inspired me about Generous Coffee. The profits are used to fund sustainable, life-changing work around the world. As for Ash-Kara, it was more of me fulfilling my childhood dream! The idea that I can be a part of so many different things that may last beyond my time here on earth is exciting to me. I want to leave a legacy.

10. Is there anything else that you'd like to leave us with or anything else that you are working on that you'd like us to cover?

Currently, my life is fairly consumed in Generous International, Humanity and Hope International, Ash Kara, The “Almost Famous Podcast” with iHeart radio, and The Wedding Party. I do not know what is next, but right now these are the items in this world that bring passion, purpose, and excitement to my life!

Ben Higgins will be hosting The Wedding Party this upcoming September in Denver, CO. You can keep with Ben on Instagram, Twitter, as well as his website.

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping your new relationship secret isn't a bad thing. It gives you and your new partner privacy. And if things don't work out, you won't have to go into a big long explanation on what happened to family and friends. Cupid has some advice on ways to keep your new relationship a secret:

1. Limit social media posts: It's okay to take pictures together when you first start dating after you get serious. It's okay to enjoy dating for a while before you make the big announcement that you're in a new relationship. Save a few fun photos of yourself together and then post them online when you're ready to go public!

2. Make time for friends: Be sure to make time to spend with your friends even though spending all of your time with your partner might be tempting. 3. Pick a neutral spot for dates: Don't go anywhere together where friends or coworkers may recognize you if you aren't ready for them to know about your relationship yet. According to UsMagazine.com, Matt Rife had some advice for Pete Davidson about celebrity ex Kate Beckinsale in celebrity news. "Advice for Pete? Man to man...run," Rife told TMZ. Beckinsale and Rife were first linked in 2017 after her divorce from Len Wiseman. They dated for a year. Beckinsale and Davidson have been in a celebrity relationship for about two months.

In celebrity news, Kate Beckinsale's ex isn't saying good things about his former love. What are some ways to keep your ex from ruining a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When you decide to move on from your former relationship, an ex can get jealous or want to slander your name. Here's some advice from Cupid on how to stop them from ruining your new one:

1. Reassure your current partner: If something your ex says about you makes your new partner question your relationship, reassure them by answering any questions they might have about your past.

2. Don't engage: Getting in contact with your ex after they say something inappropriate might make your new partner suspicious of why you're contacting them in the first place. Not talking to them while they try to cause trouble is the better thing to do.

3. Think of your new partner first: Putting their needs and wants above that of your ex is more important than caring about what the other person says to you. Celebrity Break-Up: Demi Lovato Splits from Fashion Designer Henri Levy

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity break-up news, Demi Lovato has called it quits with fashion designer Henri Levy, according to UsMagazine.com. Both sober, the two met years ago in rehab and became friends. They sparked news of their celebrity relationship after they were spotted in early November 2018 enjoying a dinner date at Matsuhisa restaurant in Beverly Hills. Neither has commented on their split.

This celebrity break-up comes after only four months of dating. What are some ways to know your relationship has long-term potential?

Cupid's Advice:

All new relationships have a honeymoon stage. Whether you decide to stick with your partner after a rough time or not is the true test of a relationship. Cupid has some advice on how to know when a relationship has long-term potential:

1. You feel like yourself with them: You're okay with letting them see you limp in the morning because you tripped while walking the dog. You don't care if your partner sees you with bed-head. You let them see you worrying because your paycheck wasn't as large as you thought it would be. While all of these may be examples, it's important to be yourself around your partner. If you have to fake who you are to impress the person you're with to avoid judgment, then the relationship will not last.

2. You know what your partner needs: They know how you like your coffee, and they can tell when you're about to have an emotional breakdown days before it happens. When your partner instinctively knows what you need, then they just may be the one you're meant to live your life with – and it's not just from their side. When you know that your partner needs something without them saying anything, then it means that you have reached the point where you're both in a solid partnership.

Celebrity Interview: 'Temptation Island' Host Mark Walberg Shares His Secret to a Happy Relationship

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Lauren Burczyk.

Mark Walberg (not to be confused with Mark Wahlberg) is an American actor, television personality and talk show host known for his time on Antiques Roadshow, Russian Roulette, The Moment of Truth, and both the original (Fox Network: 2001) and most recently rebooted (USA Network: 2019), Temptation Island. Walberg's role on Temptation Island is divided between being the host of the show and a relationship expert of sorts who guides confused couples through all types of relationship struggles – stagnant relationships, trust issues, and ultimatums. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Walberg offers our visitors valuable dating advice on how to make a relationship stand the test of time!

Celebrity Interview with Mark Walberg: Temptation Island – Dating Advice, and His Secret to a Long, Healthy Marriage.

Many of us remember Temptation Island from when it first aired on Fox in 2001. Controversial from the start, the show followed four couples who were struggling in their relationships and couldn't decide whether to stick together or call it quits. The premise of the show was to separate these couples on a beautiful island, and surround them by members of the opposite sex for a few weeks.

The first season of the show delivered solid ratings, but the next two seasons did not and unfortunately, Temptation Island was cancelled. Fast forward to 2019 and the current state of digital dating and instant gratification, and Temptation Island is back again, newly rebooted with Walberg as the host for a fourth season. "It feels great to do it [host Temptation Island] again," says the reality tv star and husband of 31 years. "I really had no hesitations. I was pretty sure the show would be relevant today and new audiences would enjoy it!" Walberg couldn't be more right, as Temptation Island was just renewed for a second season.

However, a lot has changed in the world since the show went off the air in 2003 and Walberg's personal life is no exception. "It's the same in that I was married then and married still so my perspective hasn't changed," he explains. "However, I'm more in the 'dad zone' now and I have some years of experience to add."

Despite the potential for a more accepting audience, there are many skeptics of the show and its theme. Some feel that the four couples are willingly putting their relationships in danger by opening their hearts to temptation and dating other people. That being said, it's not out of the question for an experience like this to strengthen a couple's bond. Walberg elaborates, saying, "I wouldn't advise this experience for couples. It's extreme. And it's TV. That said, I am certain that these couples will find the truth about how they feel about one another through this experience. And that knowledge will either make them stronger as a couple or stronger as an individual."

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Ashley Iaconetti and Jared Haibon Talk Wedding Plans and Dating Tips

The current couples on the 2019 reboot of Temptation Island are Karl Collins and Nicole Tutewohl from Chicago, IL, Evan

Smith and Kaci Campbell from Los Angeles, CA, Javen Butler and Shari Ligons from San Francisco, CA, and John Thurmond and Kady Krambeer from Forth Worth, TX.

Mark gave us insight on a few of the couples on the show:

When it comes down to commitment, Evan and Kaci are at odds after being together for several years. "There's no rhyme or reason to why people fall for one another," says Walberg. "I call it the lightning strike. But, ultimatums for marriage are never the way to enter into that commitment."

Contestants John and Kady had their own issues coming into the show, not knowing if they were right for one another. On the show, Kady is tempted by a single man in the house who makes her feel desired and more like herself, Dr. Johnny Alexander. Are they a better couple than John and Kady? "I can't say who's a "better couple," says Walberg. "What matters is that each of them find partners that respect and love them. If that's not there, it's not going to work. If Kady feels safer and more supported with Dr. Johnny, then that's her path. It's actually better for everyone in the end."

Speaking of temptation, contestants Shari and Javen have been together since high school, but Shari has many insecurities because Javen cheated on her while he was in college. You'd think going on a show all about temptation might worsen those insecurities, but Walberg has a different perspective. "Maybe her insecurities will go away altogether," he says. "That's a couple to keep watching..."

Well, as Walberg says, we'll have to keep watching to see what will happen with each couple. "My hope is that they leave the island with the answers they're looking for in the end," he says. "Although, I warned them that their questions will change, there was a lot of personal growth among the cast."

The reality is, not everyone has the opportunity to go on a television show like Temptation Island. So, what can everyday couples do to keep their relationships on track? Walberg, whose long, healthy relationship with his wife makes him the perfect host for Temptation Island, thinks the answer is, "Communicate, compromise, forgive. That's it. Oh...and love one another!" And, there's no one secret for a happy marriage, he says. "I could try to give advice all day, but really it comes down to one thing... my wife and I love each other! That's it!" And, resisting temptation is key as well, of course. "Social media has made it so tempting," Walberg says. "Temptation is at your fingertips. Like advertising! I don't know how to change that except to always remind yourself not to let 'better' be the evil of 'good.' Nothing's perfect, but if you love one another, you can work it out."

This celebrity divorce ended up being a blessing in the end. What do you do if you find yourself in a marriage that’s bad for you?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you’re truly being abused by your partner, the best thing you can do is get out of the relationship. Call this domestic abuse hotline if you ever need it: 1-800-SAFE (7233). Local women’s shelters and community-based services may be able to provide help as well.

When you’re in a bad marriage, it can be a tough call to decide whether you should leave or stay. But, you have to think about yourself and your children (if you have any) before you think about the longevity of your marriage to someone who makes you unhappy. Cupid has some tips:

1. Stop making excuses: It’s easy to make excuses if you’re in an unhealthy marriage. They’re working too hard for you and your family, or they had a bad day at work, so that’s why they insulted you, especially when it happens constantly. Stop this. You’re letting your spouse get away with treating you badly. It’s easy to find yourself in a loop of reasons why it’s okay to let your spouse treat you this way. Remember this: the only person that can get you out of this situation is yourself.

2. Take a good, hard look at your role in the relationship: Does the house fall apart when you aren't home no matter how many times you've asked for help? Do they expect you to hold a full-time job and do all of the housework? Take care of the kids by yourself? If every single thing falls on you and they aren't trying to help, or they try to make you feel awful when you haven't gotten everything done, then it might be time to get out.

3. Reach out to friends and family: It can be easy to lose touch with friends and family when you're busy. This is normal. But one of the first signs of being abused is for the abuser to start isolating their partner so they can't reach out for help. Being in a relationship that requires an occasional venting session with your bestie is one thing, but feeling completely isolated with no way out is another beast entirely.
