

Modern Family's Jesse Tyler Ferguson Goes Public with New Boyfriend

Modern Family cutie, Jesse Tyler Ferguson, made his first public appearance with new boyfriend, 35-year-old lawyer, Justin Mikita on Thursday night at the ELLE Women in TV event in Hollywood. According to Access Hollywood, although Ferguson has yet to make an official comment about his budding romance, he did announce his date via Twitter, saying “So @justinmikita and I are at the Elle Women in TV party,” and then adding a picture of two nameplates that read “Jesse Tyler Ferguson” and “Guest of Jesse Tyler Ferguson.”

How do you know when to go public with your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

- 1. You feel comfortable: A relationship is about you and the other person. Don't worry about everyone else, and let them know when the both of you are ready:
 - 2. You think it's going to last: The older we get, the more serious our relationships tend to be. There's no sense in alerting the masses if you think it's just a fling.
 - 3. You're starting to deny: Once people are starting to figure things out, you're just wasting your energy hiding something that is going to come out sooner or later.

Michael Bublé to Make Proper Home with Wife in England

Singing sensation Michael Bublé may have found his dream home. According to The Sun, Bublé announced he plans to live in Surrey, England, with his bride-to-be Luisana Lopilato. The couple will wed in April, and Bublé says he wants his £3 million, or $4.5 million Purley estate to be “a proper home,” according to Digital Spy. A source elaborated, saying, “Michael’s bought a really smart house. He’s getting married this year to Argentine actress Luisana Lopilato and hopes to spend six months a year here. He wants it to be a proper home.”

What constitutes a 'proper home' for you and your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

The term "proper," although ambiguous in nature, can be resolved for both Buble and your future family. Cupid has some suggestions for you to keep in mind when its time to build your nest:

1. Keep it clean: A spotless home might be in order if you want to keep things proper for you and your family. An hour or two a week is all it takes to make your home dirt-free. Plus, your friends and family will enjoy visiting a lot more!

2. Keep things family-oriented: Be mindful of what is said between you and your partner, especially if kids are present. There's a Jamaican saying that goes, "monkey see monkey do." In order to keep your home "proper," adult issues should stay in a private room.

3. Keep the little things in mind: Remember that when you live with someone, the little things you do such as saying "I love you" and "thank you" are important. Plus, they keep a healthy and happy atmosphere in your now "proper" home.

Denise Richards Protects Children From Charlie Sheen

It's no secret that Charlie Sheen has constantly been in and out of rehab, but now it's affecting his children. As a result of the media frenzy surrounding the actor's rambunctious behavior, according to People, ex-wife Denise Richards has been trying her hardest to protect their daughters Sam, 6 and Lola, 5. With new drama about the Two and a Half Men star in the news every day, shielding the kids is getting to be a full-time job for Richards, who has said she still cares about her ex a great deal. The actor also has 2-year-old twins with ex-wife, Brooke Mueller.

When should you protect your children from your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It's the parents' job to protect and shelter their children for as long as possible. In certain cases, that responsibility extends to protecting them from your ex. Here are some of those cases:

1. When drugs or alcohol are involved: Until your partner or ex-partner can sober up, he or she should not be allowed around the kids.

2. When they are abusive: If your mate is physically or emotionally abusive to you or the kids, cut off all contact. Protect your kids by telling them that they are safe and that abuse is not acceptable behavior.

3. Mental or physical illness: Though it may not be your partner's fault that they are ill, children need to be protected from the pain serious illness can cause. At least shelter them from some of the gruesome details.

'Idol' Contestant Chris Medina Shares Story of Fiancee's Brain Injury

How much would you sacrifice if your partner got ill? The millions of people watching American Idol Wednesday night had to consider that question after watching Chris Medina's touching story. People reports that when 26-year-old Medina auditioned for the judges in Milwaukee, he told the story of how he and the love of his life, Juliana, dated for six years and got engaged. Then two months before the wedding, everything changed when Juliana got in an accident that left her with a traumatic brain injury. "I was about to make vows just two months from the accident – through thick and thin, 'til death do us part, for better or worse," he said. "What kind of guy would I be if I walked out when she needed me the most?"

Should you sacrifice aspects of your life for your partner's illness?

Cupid's Advice:

An illness or injury will test even the strongest relationship. Cupid has some advice on how much you should sacrifice when your partner goes through a trauma:

1. Respect the vows: Like Chris Medina said, when you get married, you make a vow to be there for each other “in sickness and in health, ‘til death do us part.” Your partner’s illness gives you an opportunity to show how much those vows mean to you.

2. Get help: Don’t go through this experience alone. If your mate needs care, make sure you ask for help from family, friends and professionals instead of taking it all on yourself.

3. Don’t sacrifice everything: Your partner would probably want you to go out and enjoy life instead of worrying about him or her constantly. Take time for yourself once in awhile.

Kate Hudson Talks Pregnancy and Engagement Rumors

Actress Kate Hudson's pregnancy is igniting many rumors, most of which are absurdly untrue, reports UsMagazine.com. While on the England-based talk show The Graham Norton Show, Hudson effectively debunked several rumors. She revealed that while she is pregnant with boyfriend Matt Bellamy's child, she's not engaged to him. When asked about the possibility of a marriage, she replied, "I don't like putting that sort of pressure on it and I don't feel it necessary to get married." The actress went on to explain, "I just want to be happy."

Is getting married unnecessary pressure to a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Many feel that a relationship is only worthwhile if it results in marriage. However, more and more people are finding this untrue. Before you begin to stress over a dead-end relationship, consider the following factors:

1. Don't rush: Your relationship will pan out in its own time. Even if it seems to have a long way to go before marriage enters into the equation, have no fear.

2. Think things through: Before you sprint to the altar, think about the reasoning behind your decision. Do you want to marry to please others, or is it really what you want? Marriage is life-changing, so take it seriously.

3. Your happiness: Ultimately, the point of marriage is for the couple in love to be happy together. If you and your partner are happy already and you don't think marriage will enhance it, it's totally fine to keep things the way they are.

Bride-to-Be Reese Witherspoon Focuses on Upcoming Wedding

Wedding bells are ringing for Reese Witherspoon! After a divorce from her ex-husband, Ryan Phillippe, the actress is now engaged to Hollywood agent, Jim Toth. In fact, she recently went wedding shopping in Paris with three of her girlfriends and a source says that she's thrilled about starting a new life with her fiancé. "He's a grown-up who's really ready to take the next step," says Witherspoon's friend. "He's a family-oriented guy, and that's all she ever wanted."

How do you know if your partner is family-oriented?

Cupid's Advice:

Now that you've fallen in love, you're ready to settle down. But how do you know your partner is family-oriented? Cupid has some telling signs:

- 1. Family time: Your future spouse has a close relationship with his or her family and enjoys spending quality time with yours.
 - 2. Interactive: Does your fiancé like interacting with children? If so, this is an indication that your significant other more than likely has a soft spot for children and may want some of his or her own.
 - 3. Children: He or she has openly talked about having children and building a family with you.

Are Scarlett Johansson and Jason Sudeikis Dating?

Actress Scarlett Johansson and SNL's Jason Sudeikis are not dating, People reports. The two were spotted at dinner together along with Sudeikis's former SNL cast-mate, Will Forte. The duo claims the dinner was just friendly and not romantic. Johansson recently separated from her husband of two years, Ryan Reynolds and filed for divorce shortly after. Her rep says that she is not dating Sudeikis, or anyone else for that matter.

Is it truly possible to be "just friends"?

Cupid's Advice:

Why is it okay to have boy-friends as a kid, but it's considered weird as an adult? Cupid thinks you can be just friends with someone of the opposite sex:

1. If it starts at work: If you meet someone of the opposite sex at work, it's a lot easier to keep it on the friend level. There's no expectation to take the relationship past being friendly, because a work environment keeps romance out of the equation.

2. If you grow up together: If you've been friends with him or her from the time you were little, it's easy to stick with your close friendship. When you meet someone at a bar, it's tough to start a friendship, as there are expectations of making it more. Knowing someone from back in the day takes away that expectation.

3. It just happens: Some people simply have an easier time making friends with the opposite sex and connecting with them on a friendly level than they do with someone of their own gender. No one goes out in hopes of landing themselves a great friend of the opposite sex. It's something that happens without even realizing it.

Will Kelsey Grammer Beat His Daughter to the Altar?

Kelsey Grammer's eldest daughter, Spencer Grammer, recently announced her engagement to longtime boyfriend James Hesketh, but will she have to pick out a dress for her dad's wedding before her own wedding dress? Kelsey plans on marrying girlfriend Kayte Williams in February, even though his divorce from his wife Camille is not yet final. Thanks to California divorce law, if a judge agrees to "bifurcate" the proceedings, he will be able to remarry while continuing to battle over the assets. According to RadarOnline, Spencer has yet to pick a date to walk down the aisle.

Why should you get married sooner rather than later?

Cupid's Advice:

Some couples spend years getting to know each other before walking down the aisle, while others wait only months. Cupid thought of a few situations where it's good to get married sooner rather than later:

1. If you're older: As the years go on, the dating rules change a bit. We're more comfortable with who we are and what we like. As we get older, the rest of our lives seem less intimidating! If you find true love later in life, don't waste any time!

2. If you're divorced: After being married once or twice, you know the ropes. So maybe you weren't with the right person, but now that you're alone it's difficult to be single again. If you find someone who makes you feel that puppy love you missed so much and you know what mistakes to avoid this time around, don't procrastinate with the "I do's!"

3. If you're widowed: Losing a spouse is incredibly painful. Lying in bed with nothing next to you, but an empty space will constantly remind you of the empty space left in your heart. If you're lucky enough to find someone that truly makes you happy, let him or her help fill those spaces right away.

Jaime Pressly Splits with Husband Simran Singh After 16

Months

Jamie Pressly and Simran Singh have decided to call it quits, according to UsMagazine.com. It doesn't seem to be a good year for Pressly, as she was also recently arrested on suspicion of a DUI. An insider says of the split, "It's over. I don't think they have officially filed anything yet though." The source added, "I think it comes down to she married this guy too fast. He seemed like a good guy but he is super full of himself and puts her down for everything. He picks fights with her for any little thing."

How do you avoid unnecessary arguments?

Cupid's Advice:

Every relationship has its ups and downs, but some fights are more avoidable than others. Cupid has some tips on how to avoid unnecessary arguments:

1. See the other side: It's easy to see things from your perspective. Take a minute to put yourself in your partner's shoes. Understanding is key.

2. Avoid sensitive topics: The closer we are to people, the more we know what buttons to push. If you a particular topic is sensitive, try to avoid it. If it's absolutely necessary, approach it with caution.

3. Ponder it first: Make sure you filter your thoughts before saying them out loud. If you're upset about something your partner did, make sure it's really worth an argument. The best way to do that is to keep it to yourself for a few hours or days. If you still think you need to bring it up, at least you know it's worth it.

Jennifer Love Hewitt Picks Out Three Wedding Rings

Jennifer Love Hewitt is making it really easy for her boyfriend to propose by picking out three engagement rings for him to choose from. The 31-year-old actress has been dating Chicago actor and director Alex Beh for seven months, and things must be going well for the couple. Hewitt told Ellen Degeneres that she found the rings at Tiffany's, according to People. "I feel like I'm doing the guy a favor. I don't want to be upset if he picks a bad ring, so I feel like having three picked out and saying, 'Look! Look at this plethora of things you can choose from!'"

What are ways to make sure your groom-to-be picks out the right ring?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting engaged is exciting, but getting engaged with the right ring? Perfect. Cupid has some tips on how to make sure your mate proposes with the right rock:

1. Drop hints: If you want him to shop at a certain store, get him on the mailing list or rip out ads from the store and put them where he'll find them. He should get the hint eventually.

2. Use a celebrity example: Pick up a copy of People and point out a particular celebrity's engagement ring as beautiful. Giving him an idea of the style and design you want will help guide him when picking out a ring.

3. Have breakfast at Tiffany's: If you are really picky and know exactly the ring you want, tell your man that when he proposes, you'd love to be able to pick out the ring yourself. Being proposed to in Tiffany's with your choice of ring is also very romantic (see: Sweet Home Alabama).

Is Bristol Palin Dating a Pipeline Worker?

Dancing with the Stars alum Bristol Palin has a new man in her life, but she isn't revealing much, according to Digital Spy. During an interview that aired on an Alaska radio station, all Palin would do is go along with the radio announcers assessment: "I'm seeing a guy and he's really great and [son] Tripp loves him and we're having a really good time and we're really good friends. Let's go with that." In response, Palin agreed, saying, "Yeah, we can go with that. I'm thrilled."

What aspects of your relationship should you keep secret?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships have both a public and a private side. It's up to the couple in question to decide what goes public and what remains under wraps. Here are some details you should probably keep to yourself:

- 1. Personal finances: Whether you as a couple are low on money or rolling in dough, your financial situation is no one else's business.
- 2. Your sex life: When it comes to being intimate, keep it in between the sheets ... or at least don't over-share.

3. Deep issues: Your partner may share with you sad truths about his or her family dynamics or about other things that hurt him in the past. Don't spread it around.

Jewel and Husband Ty Murray Are Having a Boy

Jewel and Ty Murray have finally found out the sex of their baby. It's a boy! The couple is very excited to finally be able to get the ball rolling on decorating the nursery. "We would have been happy either way, of course, but we are so excited to be having a little boy,” Jewel, 36, tells People. Murray agrees, saying, “I have to admit, I was doing a little dance on our way out of the doctor’s office when we found out!”

How do you prepare for a baby boy versus a girl? Cupid’s Advice: Although any baby is a blessing, the way you prepare for each one can vary. Cupid has some tips on how to prepare for a baby boy versus a girl:

1. Blues and greens: Now that you know you’re having a little boy, ditch the pinks and stock up on the typical boy colors. Even though people say yellow is neutral, it’s cute to pair it with blues and greens as well.

2. Baby boy themes: You want to design the nursery with your new baby boy in mind. Trucks, airplanes and trains are always safe picks for boy nursery decor. Dinosaurs and farm animals are also great choices.

3. Plan of action: Before your baby is born, make sure to discuss how you want to raise him. Put together a plan for how you’re going to instill values (like how to treat women) in him.

Kim Kardashian Flirts with Kanye West

On the Sunday night premiere of Kourtney and Kim Take New York, viewers got an up-close and personal look at Kim Kardashian's love life. The one-minute clip shown on UsMagazine.com shows a playful Kim showing singer Kanye West the new Dash boutique located in the SoHo neighborhood in New York City. Shortly after, West and Kim were caught having a giggly conversation about Las Vegas, and sister Kourtney explained. "Kim is single now, and she is the most boy crazy girl I've ever seen. She just loves to flirt."

What are some flirting rules to keep in mind?

Cupid's Advice:

Flirting is fun, and nearly everybody is guilty of it. However, there are a few rules you should always keep in mind:

- 1. Less is more: When it comes to flirting, don't over-do it. Excessive flirting may cause you to seem like a woman with little class, and you may give guys the wrong idea. Desperation isn't attractive!
- 2. Know when to stop: The best way to make an impression is to mix flirting with some actual conversation. Flirt and joke with each other for a while, and then share your opinions and connect on a more personal level.

3. Don't be too physical: It's perfectly fine to flirt with a guy, but unless you're looking for a fling, be sure not to make too much physical contact. It's astonishingly easy for potential dates to misinterpret your flirting.

Jessica Simpson Talks Up Eric Johnson's 'Perfect Tush'

Jessica Simpson isn't shy about letting her fans in on the details to what she finds attractive in her fiancé, Eric Johnson, according to UsMagazine.com. In fact, Simpson tweeted on Saturday, "Saying my prayers before bedtime...Thank you Lord for blessing me with a Man that has the perfect Tush." This isn't the first time Simpson has made a public declaration about her love and attraction to free agent Johnson. The duo have been captured in the past locking lips in Italy as well as licking frosting off of each other's faces.

Are physical attributes important in a partner?

Cupid's Advice:

The rules of attraction are vague, as people have their own preferences. Sometimes we don't like to admit that our boyfriends won us over initially with their looks (and then later his personality), but there may be more to it than just an easy pair of eyes:

1. It's all science: While we may swoon for a man with a strong jaw, what our subconscious is seeing is a man with good genes who is a potential mate. Even though we think we're choosing our partners, our primal instincts may really be running the show.

2. It's not just looks: Sometimes after you've been in a relationship for awhile you sit and joke with your girlfriends about how you landed your flame. Pheromones, or a subtle scent that every person emits like a perfume, can attract you to your match more than looks alone.

3. Physical attraction is important: No matter the reason, there's no denying that you need to be physically attracted to your partner in order to be in a successful relationship. As long as you like him for more than his good looks, that's all that matters. That said, there's nothing wrong with appreciating his assets!

George Clooney Says 'No' to Another Wedding

Will reporters ever stop asking George Clooney if he's getting married? Probably not, and according to People, Piers Morgan had a shot at asking last week when Clooney appeared on his CNN show, Piers Morgan Tonight. "I hate to blow your whole news story, but I was married," Clooney told Morgan. Nick Clooney, George's father, appeared on the show with his son and used his own 51-year marriage to George's mom Nina as an example of why he should reconsider. However, George, who was wed to actress Talia Balsam from 1989 to 1993, believes once is enough. He added, "I've proven how good I was at it, and I just. ... I'm allowed one."

After divorce, should you give marriage another shot?

Cupid's Advice:

After a marriage dissolves, you may feel like you never want to get married again. Cupid has some ideas on whether to tie the knot a second time:

1. Second time's a charm: If you've found someone and want to get married again, why not walk down the aisle a second time?

Just because it didn't work the first time doesn't mean it won't work the second time with the right person.

2. Don't blame marriage: So you never want to say "I do" again. But remember that the marriage ended because you were with the wrong person: you shouldn't blame the institution.

3. Marriage isn't for everyone: If you feel like you're just not the marrying type, let any future partners know that while you're interested in commitment, you're just not willing to tie the knot.

Jason Mraz Won't Marry Until Gay Marriage is Legal

Singer Jason Mraz may have proposed to his fiancée, Tristan Prettyman, in December, but he doesn't see a marriage in the new future, according to UsMagazine.com. At Elton John's Concert to Benefit the American Foundation for Equal Rights, Mraz explained the reason for his long engagement. "The wedding would be nice for our family, our friends, our community – our moms especially – and so it puts us in the fight," said Mraz. "We can't get married until [gay] marriage is legal and equal...I think giving people the right to marry will be a huge movement in civil rights."

What are some reasons to prolong your engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

It's perfectly acceptable to delay your rush to the altar. If a too-soon marriage is causing strife, then consider a long engagement. Here are a few reasons to prolong your engagement:

1. Career issues: Planning a wedding is a lot of work. If you or your partner are facing a stressful time at work, then consider waiting for your careers to settle down before tying the knot.

2. Last minute details: In many relationships, especially long-distance relationships, there are many final details to work out. Living arrangements, career changes and relocation are only a few of the issues facing engaged couples.

3. Not being ready: There's no room for second thoughts. If you're not sure you're prepared to make it official, there's no harm in waiting. You've already found 'the one,' so the pressure's off.

'The Bachelor' Season 15, Episode 4: One Black Eye, Two Nutty Women and Three More Say Goodbye

By Krissy Dolor

This week's episode of ABC's The Bachelor began with Michelle and her mysterious black eye. "Who wakes up with a black eye?" she asked. An attention-hoarder, that's who. And because of this, Michelle's automatically entitled to a one-on-one date with Brad Womack, right?

Yes, apparently. But we'll get to her later.

"How deep is your love?" read the first solo date card, which went to none other than Chantal O., Michelle's in-house rival. Brad, who likes Chantal's confident vibe, picked her up in a helicopter and flew her to Catalina Island. With its European-esque backdrop, the setting was the perfect place for a romantic dip – or a stroll along the sea floor – in the Pacific Ocean. Chantal overcame her deep (pun intended) fear of being underwater, showing Brad how much she trusted him.

Later, the two shared a candlelit dinner on the beach. While I initially questioned their chemistry, as I couldn't see an immediate spark between them, like with Emily or Ashley S., Brad explained their connection: "It feels like I've been with someone I've known for years." With his comfort levels high and her playfulness putting him at ease, Brad offered her the first rose of the week.

The next day, nine bachelorettes spent some time with radio hosts Mike and Dr. Drew on their love and dating talk show, "The Loveline." They started off with easy questions ("Are you guys all physically attracted to Brad?") and eventually moved onto the tough ones, like, "Who's cheated?" Of course, this was right after Brad revealed that he's never cheated on anyone, and all 12 sets of eyes darted around the room to see who would be the first to admit infidelity. Stacey raised her hand (she was a college cheater) and Brad later told her that he appreciated her honesty (better to get it out of the way, right?). Brad hoped this group date would get these women to open to up to him, as his mantra, "give me a chance," was echoed repeatedly during their session. Well – he got what he asked for.

Later that night, everyone clawed at each other, hoping to get a piece of Brad. And one by one, each woman interrupted each other. Ashley H.'s crazy began to show as she cursed and and cried herself into hysteria in the hot tub over everyone's connection with Brad. So what does she do? She crept over to Britt and Brad during their make-out session – Michelle-style – and stole him for herself. Ashley H. then pulls a Madison (miss you, girl!), explaining her doubts and said she was pulling away. "Don't second guess this," Brad told her, as we all know he just wants everyone to give him a chance. And just as Brad's about to give out the second rose, presumably to Ashley, she freaked out in front of everyone, causing him to change his mind right on the spot. And the rose went to Britt.

The Ashley H. drama even carried on into the next morning, as Brad pulled her away from the group right before his date with Michelle – not that I was complaining. Needless to say, Michelle was pissed. Her pissy mood finally lifted when she saw that Brad took her to his home, where there was (another) helicopter waiting for them. They flew to downtown L.A. and landed on a very tall (and extremely scary-looking) skyscraper, and Michelle learned the details of the most daunting Bachelor date yet – rappelling off the side of that building. But Michelle wasn't the only nervous one. Brad wanted to face both his and her fear together. "This is definitely, definitely, a leap of faith for love," said Michelle. And while I didn't think Michelle would be able to pull through, she did – it must be her ballsy attitude!

While I'd like to think that Michelle's days are numbered, her alone time with Brad shows that he's clearly under her spell. He asked about her divorce, and even goes as far as to ask if he could meet her daughter Brielle, a huge step in any man's book. At that point, it's clear she's getting the third rose of the night, which according to Brad, was "an easy one." Well, anything compared to scaling down the side of a huge building is easy.

But last night's true scene-stealer was Emily. In fact, since she was dateless that week, Brad pulled her away during the cocktail party with a basket of pillows, blankets and wine, hoping to recreate their vineyard night. Um, swoon much? His move solidified the other bachelorette's beliefs that Emily is the top contender, and most of the women, including Chantal, whose own spot was already secured, got upset.

And so we said goodbye to three more – Lindsay, Stacey (the cheater) and Meghan, who I was really pulling for after last night. I'm not entirely sure why Lisa and Marissa are still in the running as we haven't seen enough of them yet, and I hope they get one-on-one dates next week. And it looks like Emily will have to face the worst thing ever, as next week's preview showed Brad and the remaining bachelorettes at a NASCAR race track. ABC might be pushing it too far with this one, but I'm probably just be biased.

Until next week, let's keep speculating on who gave Michelle that black eye. My guess? She did it to herself. Let me know what you think in your comments below!

True Blood's Joe Manganiello Will Invite Cast to Wedding

Joe Manganiello and fiancé Audra Marie won't be leaving anyone out of their wedding festivities, including the entire cast of True Blood, according to People. Manganiello, who plays a werewolf on HBO's hit vampire series, is engaged to model/actress Audra Marie. After announcing his intentions to invite each True Blood cast member at the PGA Awards in Beverly Hills, he said, "I love them. They're like my family."

He also credits the show for making the wedding proposal possible, as he used his first check as a series regular to purchase a ring for his lovely bride-to-be. With vampires and werewolves in the same room, this should be an interesting wedding.

Who should you invite to your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

The bride and groom are always faced with the burden and privilege of making a guest list for the big day. Since it isn't always possible to invite everyone you know, it's necessary pick and choose. Keep these people in mind:

1. Family, and friends that are like family: Start with the people closest to you such as immediate family members and other people you care the most about.

2. People from work: You spend 40+ hours a week with your co-workers. Therefore, you should consider bringing them along for the ride. If inviting everyone from work is not in the budget, then just invite your boss. Who knows? They could have so much fun at the reception that it could lead to a promotion.

3. Parents' friends: Friends of your parents have watched you grow up and would love to see you get married. Invite the select few that you remember seeing often as a child.

Miranda Kerr and Orlando Bloom Welcome a Son

Orlando Bloom is no longer the only man in the house! According to People, Bloom and wife Miranda Kerr welcomed their son Flynn on January 6th. “I gave birth to him naturally; without any pain medication and it was a long, arduous and difficult labor, but Orlando was with me the whole time supporting and guiding me through it. I could not have done it without him,” the model said on her Kora Organics Web site on Tuesday. “We are so happy and are enjoying our time together as a family. He is our little ray of sunshine. Thank you everyone for your beautiful well wishes and your lovely thoughts.”

How can you support each other during the birthing process?

Cupid's Advice:

It's no secret that having a child is a difficult process, but with a little help from your spouse, it doesn't have to be a nightmare. Cupid has a few ways you and your partner can support one another:

- 1. Learn together: It's important that you and your spouse are familiar and comfortable with the process before it happens. Attend birthing classes together. You have to learn about effective ways to support each other before you can actually do it.
- 2. Communicate: It's not easy to support your partner if you're not sure how to help. Keep the line of communication open about the experience and how it's affecting the both of you. Always remind each other that you're in this together!
- 3. Have a plan: The worst time to panic is when the baby is on his or her way. Have a solid plan in place ahead of time so that when the time does come, all you have to worry about is being there for each other.

Pregnant Kate Hudson Will Not Marry Matt Bellamy Anytime Soon

Kate Hudson may be three months pregnant, but she has no immediate plans to marry the father of her child, Muse musician Matt Bellamy, according to UsMagazine.com. The actress, 31, has a previous child with rocker Chris Robinson; her son, Ryder, is now 6. “[Hudson] wanted Ryder to have a sibling, and Matt happened to be her boyfriend,” explained a source. “[Bellamy] went along with it.”

Should you marry the father of your child?

Cupid’s Advice:

Single mothers are becoming more and more common. Before committing to the father of your child, you should consider a few of the following:

- 1. The baby: Make sure that you are marrying your partner for the right reasons. If you’re only tying the knot because of your pregnancy, take your beliefs and values into question. Having a child together may not be good enough of a reason to commit to each other for life.
- 2. Your financial future: Don’t get married for financial reasons. Money is one of the key factors that can ruin a relationship. There's always child support if you'd rather not tie the knot with the father of your child.

3. Your feelings: Analyze your relationship with the father of your child. If you're in love, and you feel that a life with him would make you happy, then go for it! Having a traditional family arrangement is just an added bonus.

'The Bachelor' Season 15: And Then There's MICHELLE!

By Krissy Dolor

Normally I try to come up with more original titles, but the one from ABC's preview of tonight's episode of The Bachelor is perfect. Michelle's crazy eyes are all aglow and she's got Brad Womack in her grasp, but the remaining 13 bachelorettes are banding together to show the bachelor her true colors. But who gave Michelle that black eye? A part of me thinks that Michelle did it to herself so she can continue playing the victim card. Guess we have to wait until tonight at 8 PM/7 PM Central Time to find out! Happy watching, and don't forget to stop by tomorrow for our recap of the episode!

Rob Pattinson and Kristen Stewart Shoot Provocative Scene for New Twilight Movie

It looks like Twilight lovers Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart will be getting hot and heavy in the third installment of the popular sci-fi movies, according to Digital Spy. The duo, who also spend quality time together as a couple off-screen, were caught in a compromising position in the most recently released photo from the film. Pattinson and Stewart met on the set of the first installment of Twilight and have been keeping their relationship under wraps ever since.

Despite their professional partnership, the two seem to be in it for the long haul. Is it OK to work professionally with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

There's a commonly held belief that people should keep their personal and professional lives completely separate. Cupid has some reasons it might actually be a good idea to work with your partner:

1. You know each other: Chances are that you know your partner better than almost anyone else in your life. In a work environment, you can achieve efficiency easier with your partner because you're able to see eye-to-eye on things.

2. Motivations are the same: In a professional setting, you often start to question your co-workers' motivations and wonder if they match your own. Especially if you're married, you and your partner's motivations are pretty much guaranteed to be the same. You're working for a common cause.

3. Enables understanding: The best thing about working with your partner is that it allows you to better understand each other. Instead of having a big portion of your life off-limits, your mate knows exactly where you've been all day and exactly what you've achieved. There's no mystery!
