

Celebrity Break-Up: Pete Davidson Breaks Silence About Ariana Grande Break-Up

By Co

urtney Shapiro

In celebrity news, Pete Davidson spoke out about his recent break-up from pop singer, Ariana Grande. The celebrity couple had called off their engagement following their quick summer romance. Davidson made his first stage appearance since the split where he was able to jokingly ask for a roommate as he now is living with some family. EOnline.com reported that the SNL star has been covering up tattoos related to the split. "Um, I've been covering a bunch of tattoos, that's fun," Davidson told his audience. "I'm f—king 0 for 2 in the tattoo [department]. Yeah, I'm afraid to get my mom tattooed on me, that's how bad it is." The pair is taking time for themselves to heal and move on from the break-up.

The topic of this celebrity break-up is no longer under wraps for Pete Davidson. What are some ways to come to terms with your split publicly?

Cupid's Advice:

How can you come to terms with a public split? Cupid has some thoughts:

1. Put on a positive face: For most people their lives still have to continue after a break up. It can be hard to erase the break-up, but it'll get easier if you stay positive. Keep a positive attitude in the workplace or out with friends, and the hurt of the relationship will go away with time.

Celebrity Wedding: Karlie Kloss Marries Joshua Kushner Three Months After Engagement

By

Ivana Jarmon

Wedding bells are ringing for supermodel Karlie Kloss! In celebrity news, Kloss tied the knot to her businessman boyfriend Jared Kushner. According to sources, the celebrity couple tied the knot in an intimate Jewish ceremony held in upstate New York. Kloss confirmed her engagement via Instagram, saying, "I love you more than I have words to express. Josh, you're my best friend and my soulmate. I can't wait for forever together." The couple got engaged three months ago, and the proposal came during a trip to upstate New York, EOnline.com reports.

This celebrity wedding must not have taken long to plan! What are some benefits of a quick engagement??

Cupid's Advice:

Long engagements are the norm when it comes to getting married, but short engagements are the new trend. Cupid has some benefits of a quick engagement:

1. You get married sooner: By having a short engagement you get to marry the person you love faster. If you truly love your partner, what's the point of delaying something truly beautiful?

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Gwyneth Paltrow Gushes Over Newlywed Like with Brad Falchuk

2. Less time to quibble over decision making: With a short engagement, you are limited, which isn't necessarily a bad thing. What that means is that your options are limited on vendors, dates etc. When you have less options, it makes it easier to make a decision. It also means less time to battle over every pro and con on your wedding.

3. Back to real life faster: Adjusting to real life may be smoother with a short engagement. Having a long engagement forces you to stay in the same position with your partner for another year instead of taking the next step.

Celebrity Break-Up: Pete Davidson & Ariana Grande's Relationship Was Strained After Mac Miller's Death

By

Ivana Jarmon

In celebrity news, after the recent split from celebrity ex, Ariana Grande, Peter Davidson “does not blame himself for his split,” a source close to Davidson told UsMagazine.com. The source continued on to say, “He’s really sad about this split, and he only wishes the best for Ariana, but their relationship was really complicated with the passing of Mac Miller. It put a tremendous amount of strain on their relationship.” Grande dated Miller for nearly two years before their breakup in May. Miller died at the age of 26 after an accidental overdose in early September. Grande announced during that time that she would be taking a break to take the time to heal and mend.

In celebrity break-up news, speculation continues about the cause for Ariana and Pete’s split.

What are some ways to keep the details of your split from becoming gossip?

Cupid's Advice:

Splitting up with someone is hard, but having your breakup become a hot topic can be even worse. Cupid has some tips on ways to keep the details of your split from becoming gossip:

1. No social media: During a break-up, social media can be your worst enemy. By putting your business out in the public, you give people power to gossip about your existing or non-existing relationship. But by keeping your relationship out of the public eye, no one can say anything if they don't know anything.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Ariana Grande & Pete Davidson Break Up & Call Off Engagement

2. Avoid gossiping: It's easy to want to talk badly about an ex when someone asks what happened, its best to be the bigger person and walk away from it. An easy way to deal with someone who asks you what happened is to just simply say it's a personal matter or change the subject.

By Co

In celebrity news, Gwyneth Paltrow tied the knot two weeks ago with Brad Falchuk. The actress is currently taking in the joy associated with being a newlywed. The celebrity relationship bloomed nicely, and the pair got married nine months after becoming engaged. Paltrow discusses her happiness in the October 2018 digital issue of Glamour U.K. According to E! Online, the Goop owner told Glamour, “It’s fantastic. I feel so lucky, and I am so grateful. It’s different to be in your mid-40s; do it again and bring all your experience, your pain, your happiness, suffering—everything. It’s actually very heartening. I feel very optimistic!” Paltrow and Falchuk got married in the Hampton’s with plenty of friends and family in tow.

In celebrity couple news, Gwyneth Paltrow is loving being married. What are some ways to cherish being newlyweds?

Cupid’s Advice:

How can you cherish the newlywed lifestyle? Cupid has some tips:

1. Talk about it: Your friends might get sick of hearing all about the married life, but it’s something that you’re excited about. If it’s something that makes you happy, feel free to share your bliss with others in your life.

Celebrity Break-Up: Ariana Grande Calls Split from Pete Davidson 'Very Sad' and Takes Off Ring

By Co

In celebrity news, singer Ariana Grande has decided to take some time off from the internet. Grande made this decision on October 16, shortly after the news came out about her split from Pete Davidson. The celebrity couple split and called off their engagement just months after becoming engaged. The pop singer also taped a performance for the upcoming NBC special A Very Wicked Halloween where her makeup artist shared a post in which she was no longer wearing her engagement ring. According to UsMagazine.com, Grande posted in a now-deleted Instagram story, stating, "it's hard not to bump news n stuff that i'm not tryna see rn. it's very sad and we're all tryin very hard to keep goin. love u. and thank u for bein here always." The singer has returned to work, but the SNL star is still taking time for himself.

This celebrity break-up came on just as quick on the engagement did. What are some ways to cope with a sudden split?

Cupid's Advice:

How can you cope with a sudden split? Cupid has some advice:

1. Obsess over it: It is okay to give yourself the time to ask all of the questions and find out where the break-up came from. Go through all of your history and let yourself think about it. Once you've thought through the scenarios enough, you might be able to move forward from the relationship.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Ariana Grande & Pete Davidson Break Up & Call Off Engagement

2. Don't reach out to the other person: The relationship may have ended with no form of closure, and you might just be stuck with your questions. Trying to contact the other person won't help you move on. If you get to the place where you can friends, then you've probably allowed yourself to stop thinking about the closure you never got.

Celebrity Break-Up: Ariana Grande & Pete Davidson Break Up & Call Off Engagement

By Co

urtney Shapiro

In celebrity news, singer Ariana Grande and SNL star Pete Davidson have split and called off their engagement. The celebrity relationship was a quick romance which turned into an engagement in June. Grande and Davidson told TMZ that it was not the right time for their relationship to take off. The couple's split follows the death of Grande's ex, Mac Miller. According to EOnline.com, Grande needs some time. Her team says, "Given the events of the past couple of years, Ariana is going to take some much needed time to heal and mend.” The romance moved pretty fast, and now Grande and Davidson are taking time for themselves.

This celebrity break-up comes after a whirlwind romance and engagement. What are some things to consider when it comes to timing in a relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

What should you consider in regards to timing in a relationship? Cupid shares some tips:

1. Getting to know the person: It can take a while to truly get to know a person. If you’re planning on spending the rest of your life with someone, it is important to really understand that person, and it can be difficult if the relationship is fast paced.

2. Where you and your partner are at in your lives: If neither of you are in a good place, getting into a relationship may not be the best idea. That person may be a good support system, but if you’re struggling with something personal, it can be hard to rush into a relationship.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Busy Philipps Accuses ‘Freaks & Geeks’ Costar James Franco of Assault

3. Age is a factor: Most people will argue that this is just a number, but if you act differently than your age, you might not be ready for a relationship. You and your partner should be on the same page, and age could put a wall between you and your partner.

Celebrity Interview: TV Heartthrob Sterling Sulieman on New ABC Drama 'Station 19'

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Courtney Shapiro

One of the hottest actors on television right now is heartthrob Sterling Sulieman. Sulieman is one of the cast members of the new drama, Station 19, where he plays Grant. A spin-off of Grey's Anatomy and produced by no other than the brilliant Shonda Rhimes, the series centers around firefighters who put their lives and hearts on the line for others. And of course, Sulieman's character Grant is a firefighter.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we talk to Sulieman about his current role on Station 19 and the path he took to get where he is today.

Celebrity Interview with Sterling Sulieman: Acting as a Career

When asked if he knew anything about firefighters, Sulieman acknowledged that he didn't know too much or have any friends who fought fires when he was growing up. In fact, he says that stepping into this role helped him understand their day-to-day life much better. "It's so interesting, but most of us don't realize the ins and outs of what they [firefighters] do," the actor says. "They do so much more than we know and they risk their lives." He says that this role has been a very eye-opening experience for him.

While talking about his career, the 34-year-old explains that there are many ways an actor can connect to their character. He said when you're preparing for a part, you always look for similarities between you and the person you are playing. "It really makes you examine yourself," Sulieman told us. "I do share some of the same qualities as Grant."

However, Station 19 was not Sulieman's first encounter with the inspirational Shondaland TV production company. He also starred in their television series, Still Star-Crossed as the power-hungry Prince Escalus. When Cupid's Pulse asked Sulieman what he's learned from working with the Rhimes productions he said, "I've learned a lot from exploring the characters they've given me because they are so three-dimensional," he confessed. "I really have to figure out where they are coming from, and what they do, and it makes me think about my life." After getting offered the role in Station 19, the Still Star-Crossed alum jumped at the opportunity to work with the renowned producer again.

Many people find their passion by experimenting with different hobbies and interests or they explore what they like and eliminate aspects that aren't as fun or interesting. Sulieman chose acting after trying many different interests. He said that he's had a love for theater and performing arts since the age of seven. "I knew that I wanted to act at a very young age," the Oahu native explained. "I played sports and took art classes, but it eventually came back to acting."

Sulieman has faced his share of challenges while being an actor. There is always the possibility of rejection or not being successful, but he says that hasn't stopped him from doing what he loves. His advice for people who are starting out in this career is to stay focused on why you love what you do. "Create opportunities for yourself, and it will fall into place," he says.

Before finishing our interview with Sulieman, we had to ask him about his dating life and whether or not he would date another actor. He shared, that he was "single as can be" and dating another actor was very complicated, but admitted, "You never know." Sulieman also explains that dating a non-actor presents difficulties too since non-actors have a hard time watching their significant other kissing someone else on the screen. Well, whatever the future holds in love or career, one thing is for sure, Sulieman is following his passion!

Celebrity News: Busy Philipps Accuses 'Freaks & Geeks' Costar James Franco of Assault

By

Ivana Jarmon

Busy Philipps is calling James Franco out. In celebrity news, Philipps spoke out against costar Franco for assault, according to Radar Online. Philipps claimed Franco got physical with her while filming a scene for a recent movie. She said she was directed to gently hit her costar in the chest. After she delivered her line, Philipps says Franco broke character, screamed in her face and shoved her to the ground. Philipps and Franco played love interests Kim Kelly and Daniel Desario in the first season of NBC sitcom Freaks and Geeks. According to UsMagazine.com, Philipps also recently opened up about details of a personal sexual assault at the tender age of 14 that led to self-harm. The actress is now married to producer Marc Silverstein, and they are celebrity parents to two daughters Birdie and Cricket.

In celebrity news, Busy Philipps is calling out James Franco for assault. If you've been a victim of assault, what are three things you should do?

Cupid's Advice:

Assault of all kinds is no laughing matter, millions of women and men experience it every day. Cupid has some tips on what to do if you've been a victim of assault:

1. Talk to someone: It doesn't matter who it is, your parent, a friend, a counselor. Just get what's happened to you off your chest. It will be scary and painful, but you will feel better, even if it's just a little bit. Holding on to what happened to you is not good for you. Talk about it when you're ready, but know there is someone who wants to listen to you.

Related Link: Celebrity Parents: Busy Philipps Says Husband 'Didn't Try' to Be a Dad Initially

2. It's not your fault: You didn't do anything to deserve this. Don't blame yourself for someone's actions. Nothing excuses assault. Assault happens to people of all races, gender, ages and sexual orientations. Nothing about who you are or what you did caused your assault. It may get worse before it gets better, but there is a light at the end of the tunnel. You will heal.

3. You are not alone: There are people who care about you. There are people who want to listen to you and help you. There are service providers who will be able to support you as you heal from the experience. The support you need is out there.

4. You have rights: You have every right to decide how you respond to what happened. You can report with law enforcement, or not. If it's a sexual assault you can get an exam completed, or not. You can have medical care, such as receive treatment and prevention of STD's, HIV and Pregnancy or not. Its your decision, just know that you have that right.

Celebrity News : Khloe

Kardashian Says She Is 'Brutally Broken' After Acting 'Gentle to Others'

By

Courtney Shapiro

In celebrity news, Khloe Kardashian recently mentioned how important it is to be kind to others even though things may not be great in life. The reality star shared the note after social media trolls attacked her for her personal choices. Kardashian's messages were cryptic, and it is unknown whether they are about her celebrity relationship with Tristan Thompson or another aspect of her life. According to UsMagazine.com, the 34-year-old posted an inspirational quote on her Instagram story that said, "If you've been brutally broken but still have the courage to be gentle to other living beings, then you're a bad-ass with a heart of an angel." Kardashian is trying to spread kindness to others, even though she currently feels broken.

In celebrity news, Khloe may or may not be talking about her relationship, but we've all found ourselves broken. What are some ways to heal your heart after it's broken?

Cupid's Advice:

How can you heal after you've been heartbroken? Cupid shares some advice:

1. Let all of your feelings out: After being heartbroken, it is expected that your emotions will be all over the place. It isn't going to help you heal if you keep everything inside, and let it build up. Allow yourself to feel whatever you're feeling in the moment instead.

The actress and host of E!'s Busy Tonight opened up about her 11-year marriage to producer husband Marc Silverstein and how he wasn't the most supportive parent after the birth of their first child, Birdie Leigh, now 10. According to People.com, Philipps recalled, "He was not understanding how to be a dad and, in fact, didn't try. I was parenting by myself. When I told him, I wanted to have a second child, he said, 'Fine, but it's all on you.' That was so heartbreaking." She continued, "Marriage is always hard, but especially when you have kids...You're going to go through periods when you're not into it, but there always has to be one person willing to fight. I went to Marc several times and said, 'I cannot do this anymore. Something has to change, and it's you.' The celebrity parents had a lot of serious discussions and counseling. Since the conversation, the couple has welcomed their second child Cricket Pearl, now 5. The celebrity parent says, "He's incredibly participatory now in a way I don't think he could've imagined before. We're a work in progress but trying our best."

In celebrity parent news, Busy Philipps got real about parenting and marriage. What are some ways to encourage positive communication with your partner regarding parenting?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage and parenthood bring many struggles! Cupid has some tips to encourage positive communication with your partner regarding parenting:

1. Be open and honest: This involves communicating with your partner. The both of you have to ask yourselves when you two got together, is this what you wanted out of the relationship? Were kids part of the mix? And if you already have kid,s how can you make this work? What can you change to be better partners and parents? Be honest with yourselves and with each other!

2. Learn to take a step back and compromise: Parenting is hard enough, but co-parenting is a whole different ball game. When parenting, you learn and make mistakes and initially find your own way to raise your child. With a partner, your styles may not be the same, so you have to step back and let them do their own thing. But, also learn from each other. Like a marriage, you must compromise when it comes co-parenting.

3. Just talk to each other: Communication is the first step you take in any relationship. It's how marriage and children are created. Start a conversation about your wants, needs, and desires. Just talk to each other, remember you two love each other and saw a future for yourselves beyond the first date. The worst thing you can do is not talk to each other. Talking is how you resolve problems and heal. So just talk!

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to love you have to give it your all even if it's the end! Cupid has 3 last-ditch efforts that could save your relationship:

1. Take the b-word off the table: You don't want a possible break-up to be hanging over your heads. So, take it off the table, because in order to make the relationship work, you must create a safe space. This means no ultimatums and no threats of any kind. This also includes planning, thinking about breaking up or pursuing other relationship as if you're going to break up. This is serious, as using the b-word creates uncertainty and pressure in a relationship. You have to completely remove breaking up from the table.

2. Opportunity to evolve: In order for a relationship to heal, vulnerability has to be reintroduced to the relationship. This means giving your partner another chance to evolve and to change in order to be a better partner. This gives them and you another chance to respond differently to your needs and to look at love differently.

3. Work on yourself: The most important relationship you can ever be in and improve upon is the one you have with yourself.

By fixing yourself, you change the way you see and react to others – your partner included. This may mean they will change the way they respond to you. To save your relationship, work on yourself!

Who hasn't heard of Dance Moms? Virtually nobody. So you've most likely seen dancing legend Ava Cota, but did you know just how much this young starlet has accomplished? At just 16 years old, Cota is not only a professional dancer and reality star, but she recently added model and media influencer to her repertoire, with the goal of spreading positivity. Cota started dancing at a young age and was trained at a studio founded by her mother. She says that this inspired her to become the dancer she is today. Realizing she had a passion for dance, Cota wanted to dance professionally and has certainly succeeded in her dream. In our celebrity interview, we talk to Cota about her dancing life and what she dreams of next.

Celebrity Interview with Ava Cota: Spreading Positivity

While discussing competitive dancing, Cota explains that dance competitions aren't about who wins or comes in first. She says it is about being on stage and performing. "It's easy to get caught up in the competition aspect of it," Cota tells us but cautions that a little bit of rejection is not a bad thing. Cota says that she loves all forms of dance but if she had to choose a favorite, it would currently be contemporary.

Dancing wasn't always an easy journey for this six foot tall teenager. "It was a challenge," she explained. "But dancing through constant growth spurts helped me with my balance and coordination." Cota tells us that her growth made her develop extra muscles, giving her awareness and confidence of her body. "Dancing is very different for tall girls, so I had additional learning to do,"

Dancing has had its advantages, this past fall Cota was in New York City for Fashion Week and had the opportunity to walk the runway, sporting looks from numerous designers. With long legs and a perfect posture, modeling could be a natural calling for this dancer turned model. Cota mentioned during our interview that she recently partnered with a designer to start her own clothing line. "My style has a casual feel, but with the ability to dress it up if you'd like," she said, "It has the vibe of Pretty Little Liars meets New York City."

With a busy schedule, she says that there is no time to be a normal teenager! Cupid's Pulse asked Cota how she finds ways to relax with her friends and feel normal while juggling all of the demands of fame. She said, "I was never that kid that wanted the normal." She's never had a normal life and, at the moment, she isn't really looking to create one. When asked about the all-important love life teenagers typically chase, Cota said she doesn't have time for boyfriends. We can understand why!

At only 16 years old, Cota has developed a network and presence of influence and she is passionate about using her platform to spread positivity. Her motto is, "Self love creates self happiness," and she shares this with those around her. This is such a powerful statement in a world built around technology; growing up with social media can be hard on those who don't have self confidence. But Cota is trying to break through that tough barrier and spread messages on body positivity and self happiness. The world needs more uplifting spirits like Cota.

Before we wrapped our interview, we had to ask Cota about her future goals. For someone so young, she has accomplished so much already. But the one thing she remains constant about is this: "I want to use my platform as an influencer to share my message and spread positivity."
