of her six children with Brad Pitt after their celebrity divorce. In a court document filed August 7 by Jolie's legal team, Jolie claimed Pitt "has paid no meaningful child support" in the 23 months since their separation. According to UsMagazine.com, sources say the reason Jolie is revving up the custody battle is because, "She sees the writing on the wall: Joint custody is a done deal, and there is nothing she can do to stop it." Pitt was the subject of a child services investigation immediately following Jolie's divorce filing, but he was cleared of any wrongdoing. Though Jolie has held primary custody of the kids, Pitt has been granted increased visitation rights. In June, Pitt was granted temporary shared custody for the summer by an L.A. judge. An insider said, "Brad is done playing doormat to Angie, hoping that would tamp down her anger. He is going to trust his lawyers and inner circle of friends to continue to be there for him – and get him joint custody of the kids."

According to UsMagazine.com, celebrity couple Carrie Underwood and Mike Fisher are excited to welcome their child, but also have plans to potentially adopt in the future. It looks like this family just keeps getting bigger and bigger.

In celebrity baby news, Carrie Underwood and Mike Fischer are expecting their second child. What are some ways to prepare differently for a second child versus for your first?

Cupid's Advice:

As exciting as it can be having a second child, it is a little more calming. There are things you did with your first child that you probably won't do with your second. Cupid has some ways to prepare differently for your second child versus your first:

1. The registry: Whether you planned on having a second baby or not, carefully choose the items on your registry. If you have anything left over from your first child, it doesn't hurt to use it again. When making up the registry, pick the items you know you will use and/or need. Adding different items you didn't really use with your first baby will probably go unused with your second. This will save you money in the long run and you will have everything that you will need. You can never have too many diapers and wipes.

2. Make room: Time to make room for your new bundle of joy. It doesn't hurt to get a head start on arranging the sleeping arrangements. Planning ahead makes things so much easier rather than just waiting for the baby to come. Also with that, you can pretty much know what to expect in terms of where things will go. As exciting as it is to have a new baby, save some money on building a new room. Depending on the arrangements made, it may just be easier to keep the kids together.

3. Get some sleep: After your first child, you pick up on when you can get some rest. While with your first child, you probably ran every time you heard a coo or a cry, this time is different. Knowing what you know now will prepare you to be able to finally get some rest. Granted you will have two kids, but your other child will already have a set routine which helps.

going tit for tat and it doesn't seem like it will end any time soon.

This celebrity parent is battling to parent in private. What are some ways to keep your custody battle out of the limelight?

Cupid's Advice:

When you break up or go through a divorce, fighting can be inevitable. Although fighting is never good, it is much better to argue in private rather than cause a show for people to watch. Cupid has some advice on ways to keep your custody battle out of the limelight:

1. Agree on privacy: If you can't agree on anything else, try to agree on keeping things between the two of you. When going through a sensitive time, keeping things private allow you and your ex to face the issues at hand without interference. Not only that, as heated as arguments get, people won't see how "heated" you can really get. We all do things out of anger so why advertise it just to regret it later.

2. Keep it short and sweet: Think about it. When someone asks about your current situation with your ex and you calmly say you aren't seeing eye to eye, they won't know what to say. Usually people rant and rave and tell people details and sometimes, that's just what people are looking for. While I'm sure you have one or two people you can trust to keep quiet, going into details with other's is an invitation to have your business spread.

3. Keep Calm: Sometimes you just want to break your ex's windows or bleach their clothes. Well, don't. Keeping calm during this time will just let people assume everything is fine, which isn't a bad thing. Reframe from doing anything that will cause attention because it will do just that, not cause any attention. Attention will bring more confusion and during a sensitive time like this, you don't need that. As upset as you are, you don't want people or your children to see it. Children repeat everything and all you need is for them to repeat something.

In celebrity news, Jack Osbourne apparently isn't a fan of his estranged wife's new beau. What are some ways to handle jealousy coming from an ex moving on?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on after a break up is always hard. Some take it better than others, so it is important to consider your ex partner's feelings. Cupid has some advice on how to handle jealousy from an ex:

1. Stay away: The easiest and safest way to handle a jealous ex is to stay away! While you don't have to hide like you're in the Witness Protection Program, keeping your distance may be best. Everyone is different, so you can't know for sure how your ex feels. Running when you see them is a bit too much but if you deliberately go looking to see your ex, just be prepared for anything that may happen. If you are seeing someone else, please heed this warning. You know what they say... "If you knock on the Devil's door, he will answer." Be smart and be safe.

2. Respect the break up: For whatever reason, your relationship unfortunately ended. For you and your partner, it is important to respect your break up. Showing respect towards your ex could ease the tension and may help your partner to move on. Parading a new flame around too soon may egg your ex on and cause a huge, unnecessary commotion. Keep the peace and have respect.

3. Stay quiet: If your ex is acting out, sometimes the best response is no response. Not every action deserves a reaction. Whether your ex is genuinely upset or purposely trying to hurt you, keep calm and continue on. Eventually, your ex will get tired of not being answered and will hopefully work on healing themselves. Silence is the loudest answer you can give.

Why Celebrity Couple Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Are Ignoring Royal Rules

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, royal celebrity couple Prince Harry and Meghan Markle are apparently ignoring some big royal rules. A source told People that Meghan “has found certain rules in the royal household difficult to understand, like the fact that the Queen prefers women in dresses or skirts rather than trouser suits, and is often asking Harry why things have to be done a certain way. I think she finds it a little frustrating at times, but this is her new life, and she has to deal with it." It appears Meghan is willing to challenge some of the rules of the monarchy, such as public displays of affection. According to EOnline.com, Meghan held on tightly to Harry when they made their first public appearance at the 2017 Invictus Games. Meghan has also made it clear she's not afraid to voice her political opinions, proclaiming that she is proud to be a woman and a feminist on her page of the official British monarchy website. She also voiced her opinions at the first-ever Royal Foundation Forum this past winter, "I hear a lot of people speaking about girls' empowerment and women's empowerment; you will hear people saying they are helping women find their voices. I fundamentally disagree with that because women don't need to find their voices, they need to be empowered to use it and people need to be urged to listen. I think right now in the climate we're seeing with so many campaigns, with #MeToo and Time's Up, there's no better time than to really continue to shine a light on women feeling empowered and people really helping to support them—men included in that." Meghan also hasn't shied away from more modest clothing, opting to bear a sliver of her shoulder at her Trooping of Colour debut in June and often wearing suits instead of only wearing the traditional attire of a skirt or dress. Meghan and Harry also chose to make personal decisions regarding their wedding in May. The couple personalized their wedding vows, had a lemon elderflower cake instead of a traditional fruitcake and chose Reverend Michael Bruce Curry, a Chicago native and the first black presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church, to deliver a sermon on their special day.

This royal celebrity couple isn't all about the royal rules. What are some ways to define your own path as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Want to define your own path as a couple with your partner? Cupid has some tips on how to do it:

1. Stick to your morals: Just like Meghan, it's important that you hold on to your morals even while being in a relationship with someone. Don't be afraid to voice your opinions and be proud of what you value.

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity couple news, Mila Kunis dished the details of her nightmare honeymoon with Ashton Kutcher following their secret wedding in 2015. On an appearance on The Tonight Show on July 30, Kunis told host Jimmy Fallon that she got Kutcher an RV for his birthday and decided to put it to use for their honeymoon. But, Kunis described the celebrity vacation as “a real-life national Lampoon honeymoon” and it seems the trip did not go as planned. The Spy Who Dumped Me star stated her in-laws came on the trip and told Fallon, “So we’re in our, like, little tin can on wheels and my in-laws are in what my husband coined as like, 'the Taj Mahal' of RVs. It is like a double pop out, it's got jacuzzis. Like everything. We, again, with our 10-month-old are in a tin can on wheels. That's how it starts." Kunis added, "Eight hours into our RV trip ... our air conditioner breaks in Bakersfield in 110 degree weather. We almost died on the side of the road when Apple Maps took us on a road ... It was a fire road on the side of a mountain. We all had to jump out of the vehicle and walk like, three miles while my father-in-law drove the van and Ashton navigated him over massive boulders because there had just been a massive flood. Guys, this was like, day two." Kunis then went on to say that she eventually gave up on the disastrous honeymoon, saying, "Long story short, my wonderful, beautiful mother-in-law picked the RV parks that we were staying in, but she didn't use the internet. She used books. She's like, 'We'll end in Napa, it'll be beautiful,' and I was like, 'You know what, what can go wrong?' Let me tell you. An RV park not in Napa, but an hour outside of Napa with two prisons, OK ... and my husband looked at me and goes, 'I quit,' and I'm like, 'Me too.'"

In this celebrity couple news, things didn't exactly go according to plan on Mila and Ashton's honeymoon. What are some ways travel issues can bring you closer as a couple?

Celebrity Break-Up: Nikki

Bella & John Cena Split Again Two Months After Reconciling

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity break up news, Nikki Bella and John Cena have split again only two months after reconciling and resuming their celebrity engagement. Bella told EOnline.com in a statement, "After I called off the engagement, we tried to work on our relationship to get back to where it was, and in order to move forward with our wedding. After much time and soul-searching alone and together, we have decided to officially part ways. I had a beautiful and loving 6-year relationship with a wonderful man. I have the utmost respect for John, but I know what is best for me." A source said Bella is doing well and moving on with her life after the breakup.

But, Cena has yet to publicly comment on the breakup. This news comes after Bella's representative said she and Cena were "working on their relationship" after the two initially called off their engagement just over three months ago. The couple began dating in 2012 and their relationship has been documented on Total Divas and Total Bellas.

It looks like John and Nikki are experiencing a celebrity break-up yet again. What are some factors to consider before reconciling with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Are you feeling like you might want to reconcile with an ex? Cupid has some factors for you to consider:

1. Will it last?: Before getting back together with an ex, you want to make sure that the reconciliation will actually last. For Bella and Cena, their reunion was short-lived. Getting back together just to break up again shortly after can cause you more pain than the initial break up did. If you reunite with your ex, make sure you are completely committed to doing so and you are sure things will last for the long term.

2. Have things changed?: You shouldn't get back together with someone if all the problems that made you two break up are still there. If you choose to reconcile with your ex, all former arguments should be quelled and you two need to have worked through your problems. If a past issue is still present, it's likely to cause more trouble for you further on in your relationship.

3. Are you ready?: It's important you make sure that you are emotionally ready to be in a relationship again after already getting your heartbroken before. You need to make sure prior to reconciling with your ex that you are confident in yourself and are ready for what could happen if the relationship fails again. Don't get back with your ex if you think you won't be able to handle a potential negative outcome from it.

be exploring the waters of a relationship. What are some signs that you should move your casual relationship to more of a serious thing?

Cupid's Advice:

This potential new celebrity couple hit the town for a movie date night over the weekend, but the relationship is likely still casual. Cupid has some advice on when it's time to move your casual relationship to something more serious:

1. You've had enough time to get to know each other: It may seem obvious, but you don't want to get too serious about someone until you truly know them. The "getting to know you" process can take a long time, sometimes even years, but the initial phase of it should be complete before you invest too much in the relationship. Make sure you spend quality time with your potential partner and share the things that are important to you.

2. You've gotten over any past relationship hang-ups: It's important that you're fully over your ex before you move on to something serious with someone else. It's okay to casually date if you're still getting over someone (sometimes it even helps you move on), but don't get too close to someone before you're sure he/she isn't a rebound.

3. You've decided it's worth it: Don't just get serious about someone because you want to be in a relationship and it's convenient. Make sure that the person you're considering getting close with has long-term potential. Otherwise, it's simply not worth it!

They share three children together; however, Garner has her reasons for not wanting Shookus around her children.

In celebrity news, Jennifer Garner is doing well post-split from Ben Affleck, but she doesn't want her kids around his new girlfriend. What are some ways to handle introducing your kids to your new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Introducing your children to a new partner can be difficult. Often times, your ex may have some requests and, to keep the peace, honoring them is a good idea. Cupid has some ideas on how to introduce your new partner to your kids:

1. Who wants ice cream?: Naturally, most kids love ice cream. A good ice breaker is taking the kids and your new partner out for ice cream. It is important to have the kids in an environment where they are comfortable and feel safe. While you may think they are focused on their sundaes, they will remember the outing and it will help associate your partner with a happy memory.

2. Introduce the idea: Sometimes the "what if" game helps. Slightly introducing the idea will help in finding out if your kids are okay with you having a new partner. Kids often object to their parent being with someone new because they want to see their biological parents together. Over time, suggesting that you may have a new partner will plant the seed needed and will help introduce your new partner.

3. Make it a party: If you and your ex are on good terms, it's a good idea for all adults involved to introduce your new partner. Your children seeing that you all are getting along and can co-exist will ease their minds. Naturally kids don't want to see their parents apart, so when introducing a new partner, you want your kids to feel comfortable. Having your ex back you up can only help the situation.

Celebrity Interview: Entrepreneur and Football Wife Candice Romo

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Haley Lerner.

Candice Romo is an entrepreneur, a mother of three, and a football wife. She grew up in Dallas, Texas with her mother, father and actor brother Chace Crawford. Candice won the title of Miss Missouri USA in 2008 and made the Top 10 for Miss USA 2008. She attended the University of Missouri and graduated with a degree in journalism and a minor in business. During college, Candice worked as a sports anchor and spent her summers interning for the Dallas Cowboys, which is how she met her husband, quarterback Tony Romo. Tony proposed on her 24th birthday and the two were married in May 2011. Now, the couple has three young boys Hawkins, Rivers and Jones. In our exclusive celebrity interview, we talk to Candice about her family life and she fills us in on what it's like to take a celebrity vacation.

Celebrity interview with Candice

Romo

In April 2017, Tony retired from the NFL after 14 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys and now has a broadcasting career working for CBS Sports for the NFL telecasts. Since his retirement, Candice said that she gets to enjoy more time with her hubby at home. When asked how she balances everything, Candice says, "It takes a village," mentioning that her parents live close by and they are active with the Romo children. "Now that Tony is not playing football anymore, he's home a lot. He's been really helpful and I surround myself with other mom friends and we can all help each other out with carpooling and things," she adds.

Candice opens up that Tony no longer being in the NFL has made her life much less stressful. "Being in the NFL is kind of like being on a reality show every week. You're living and dying by these wins and losses, and then of course injuries come into play and you're stressed every game," Candice says. There was always the worry, Candice explains, that Tony would get hurt during a game and how that injury would affect his life at home. "When he was done playing [football]," Candice admits, "there was this underlying weight that I didn't even know was there that was totally lifted. Of course, we will miss being a part of the NFL family." Being a part of something larger is "so meaningful and special and we're always going to miss those times." However, the Romo couple seems to appreciate their new lifestyle. "Tony is an analyst and is enjoying his new job. I can watch football now like a fan and be entertained and not feel like the whole time I'm stressed out."

When asked what her family's favorite way to vacation is, Candice says that she and Tony love traveling in large groups and bringing their extended family along. As expected, it's challenging to find somewhere for the whole family to enjoy. "We love being able to go to a place like Kalahari Resorts where it's kind of like a cruise ship on land. It's an all-in-one location and for me, that is huge because I'm already packing for five people and I just want to get there and be there and not have to leave." Candice adds that she loves that there are activities for all family members at the Kalahari Resorts. "The kids can do the waterslides while our grandparents do the lazy river and I can go to the spa while Tony goes to the gym. Then we all reconvene back for dinner. Everyone can go do their own thing and then we can all come back together."
