If you have been keeping up with the new series, Jersey Shore: Family Vacation, then you may have been expecting this. This break-up is occurring just weeks after the two welcomed their celebrity baby girl, Ariana Sky, into the world. Why did their relationship come to a close? Well, over the weekend, no one could deny the stress they were feeling from witnessing the social media fight that went down between the two. But then, he later apologized for that. We then saw the pair fighting vigorously on Instagram live and Jen even took a swing at Ronnie. We can't deny that sometimes you will get into fights with your partner. But, you don't want your young children to be negatively affected by this. Cupid has some advice:

1. Stray away from social media: Whether your child is old enough to be on social media now or not, whatever you put out there will stay out there. If you are going through struggles with your partner, try your best to keep it between you two and don't impulsively post negativity.

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Ronnie Ortiz-Magro allegedly still loves his celebrity ex Sam Giancola. According to UsMagazine.com, a source stated: "Ronnie still loves Sam. Everyone knows it." This news comes after Ronnie's recent celebrity break-up with Jen Harley, who is pregnant with his first child. The celebrity exes broke up over the weekend via Instagram for all to see, apparently over the lack of faithfulness in the relationship from both sides. On an episode of Jersey Shore Reunion, Ronnie said that he wasn't planning on marrying Harley. The reason seems to be because she just isn't Sam. Ouch! Sammi Sweetheart actually didn't go back to the Jersey Shore house because of Ronnie, and she is currently dating Christian Biscardi. We wonder where this whole situation is headed.

This celebrity news conveys a concept that many of are not foreign to. How do you deal with realizing you are still in love with your ex.

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it takes us longer than others to fall out of love with someone. It can depend on who that ex is, how the relationship was, or how it ended. However, cupid has some love advice on how to deal with still loving your ex:

1. Analyze your feelings and the situation: Be sure of what you feel. Sometimes we think we feel one thing when in reality we actually feel another. We are only human, so we do make mistakes. Also, evaluate the situation, think with your mind and not your heart. Only because you love an ex does not mean that you should be with them, or even have them in your life for that matter. Evaluate everything carefully.

2. Keep busy: Be productive. Keep yourself distracted while bettering yourself, that's the best thing you can do after all. This can also detain you from taking any decisions that you may regret later. Give your mind some time away from your ex and do what you have to do. After giving it some time, take it from there.

3. Get closure: When the time is right that is! Don't move too quickly. Sometimes what we want is to contact an ex, just for the hell of it. If you need closure, get some. Sometimes instead of closure, things may possibly get fixed, but don't go into it with expectations. After giving yourself the adequate amount of time and you're in a place that's as good as it's going to get for the moment, go for it.

Celebrity Interview: Fashion Designer & Beauty Guru Matt Sarafa

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Carly Horowitz

You may have seen fashion designer Matt Sarafa recently on The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills (RHOBH) alongside his godmother, Kyle Richards. However, Sarafa is no newcomer to reality television. He got his start by competing on Lifetime's Project Runway Threads and then went on to compete in Project Runway Junior. Sarafa is also one of the youngest designers to show at both New York and Paris Fashion Week. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Sarafa opens up about the success of his clothing line, "FAKE" and what he has in store for the future.

Celebrity interview with fashion designer and beauty guru Matt Sarafa

Gaining notoriety on reality TV and then skyrocketing to success with a fashion line is no doubt a major accomplishment for a 20-year-old college student."It has been such a crazy, but amazing journey, and I am so grateful for it,” Sarafa said.

Things changed for Sarafa’s “FAKE” design line when his beautiful faux fur coats were featured on an episode of The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills. The combination of his high-end and ready-to-wear street fashion captured the public’s attention so fast that the line sold out immediately. “I was so beyond shocked,” said Sarafa. “I would never in a million years have expected the crazy amount of success after Real Housewives ... I wasn’t expecting anything crazy, but within 24 hours after The Real Housewives episode, I had sold enough faux fur to put me through college for all four years.” The red coat, which our staff completely loves and Kylie wore on the show, was his biggest seller. If you haven’t seen this episode of RHOBH or don’t get BravoTV, you could always go over to BuyTVInternetPhone and see if they have some cable television options that may work within your budget.

For those who missed the episode, the question we really want to know is what inspired Sarafa’s ingenious faux fur designs? He explained that he’s on the red carpet all the time now that he's in the limelight, and when he went shopping to find faux fur to wear to those events, he discovered that the options were all "so tacky and so cheap" looking. He thought, "I'm a fashion designer, so why don't I try to solve this problem?" And solve it he did. "I created these furs that look and feel real, and they give you that same super luxurious feeling of real fur, but without any of the downside," he said. And, for those who think his designs may be a little over-the-top, Sarafa added, "That's just who I am as a person, so that's what I try to translate into my designs."

Over-the-top or not, Sarafa's "FAKE" designs are now worn by a diverse demographic. Prior to when his episode of RHOBH aired, the designer's primary customers were much younger, and many of them were his social media fans. Now, the demographic for Sarafa's coats includes people of any age, size, or location. "It's for the bad bitches of the world, who don't care about what other people think, who want to wear exactly what they want to wear, and who really are just true to themselves." As a result, he's excited to expand his line in the future with new colors, new styles, and new designs.

Speaking of the future, we got the inside scoop on Sarafa's upcoming plans. In addition to completing classes full-time at UCLA, he's working on a new runway show, which he hopes will be featured at either L.A. or New York Fashion Week next season. "I'm just trying to balance everything," he said. "It's very hectic, but I do my best." When asked how he can possibly do all that he does, he said, "The thing with me is that if I care about something enough, I will do everything in my power to get everything that I need to done. I'm a very hard worker, and I'm great at deciding what needs to get done at what time, so I've been powering through."

The emotions that flow through you in the weeks leading up to your wedding day are so wonderful and exciting. But sometimes, some anxiety can creep in. Here are some ways to push those negative emotions aside and focus on the pure happiness that comes with the time leading up to the big day:

1. Eat healthy: This may seem like a weird thing to do in order to help you become less stressed for your wedding day, but think about it...Healthy food helps you to feel more energized while junk food can make you tired, lethargic, and cranky. The more energy you have, the easier it will be to plan those last minute things. Celebrity Break-Up: Anna Faris Learns Important Lesson From Divorcing Chris Pratt

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, Chris Pratt finally broke the silence in regards to his celebrity divorce from Anna Faris. Pratt and Faris announced that they were “legally separating” in August 2017 after eight years of marriage, and they filed for divorce by the end of that year. “Divorce sucks,” Pratt ultimately revealed in an Entertainment Weekly interview this week. He continues to explain that him and Faris are still friends and are kind to one another for the sake of their five-year-old son, Jack. From Faris’ view, she said, “We have a great friendship, we really do and we always have. And it’s always tough to envision your future as one thing, but I think there is a lot of love,” on a SiriusXM’s Hits 1 in Hollywood interview. According to EOnline.com, Faris added, “I think it’s a lesson learned a little bit in terms of keeping relationships a little more private, potentially, even though I pride myself on being a pretty open person. But, I don’t know, it’s tough when you’re under the scrutiny.” In other news, Faris is currently dating Michael Barrett, while Pratt is allegedly still single.

This is the first we are hearing about the opinions of Chris Pratt and Anna Faris since their celebrity break-up. What are some benefits to keeping your post-relationship details on the down-low?

Cupid’s Advice:

It can truly be a tough time in your life after you split from a partner you were together with for so long. You don't need to expose all of the details to every single one of your friends and family if you do not wish to. If you keep to yourself and a few close friends, here is what can happen:

1. You will be able to explore your true self: Without the input from others, you will have the opportunity to really understand what you are feeling. Sometimes, it isn't bad to have input from the ones you trust most, but this can occasionally lead to you thinking that you are feeling one way when you are really not. It is most beneficial to get to know yourself alone during this time.

2. You won't receive as much judgement: This is hard for you as it is, you don't need further scrutiny to just make this situation even worse. When people go through break-ups, it is really difficult for outsiders to truly understand the emotions and feelings that you go through. Therefore, they may judge. You can minimize that by conducting your life in a more private manner.

3. You won't be bombarded: The more details you put out there, the more people will crowd you with questions. "Why did you break-up?" "Was there cheating involved?" "Are you guys still talking at all?" It can become overwhelming. It is okay to just stick to talking to one specific person that you trust most to help get you through this time and then let the magical self-growth occur.

But according to another source, "Khloe wants True to have a father and very much still loves Tristan... Khloe really wants to try and forgive him, and make it work, but doesn't know how she will be able to do that."

It seems like Khloe is having a hard time right now. What are some ways to deal when your relationship is in limbo?

Cupid's Advice:

After a wrongdoing from your partner, you will need to figure things out, which requires a lot of thinking. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to deal:

1. Give yourself space: You need time for yourself. You have a lot of analyzing and evaluating to do, so you need a clear head. Feel free to go out somewhere for some "you time" to breathe in the fresh air and think, like the park for example. Being away from your partner can do you well, not only for thinking, but also for healing.

2. Keep yourself busy: Yes, you need to take time out to think, but you also need a breather. Staying busy will help. Do whatever, just let yourself get flowed away by other things. So, be productive, with plenty of rest time to keep yourself centered and calm.

She was afraid she was gonna get in the house and he would get drunk and spiral and try and get back with her or something.” Arguments about Sam have erupted in the Jersey Shore house regardless of her not being present. The former celebrity couple are a topic of discussion because of their dramatic roller coaster relationship that kept fans watching. Let’s see if Sam decides to make an appearance after all.

In celebrity news, it seems Sam knows what she wants, and she doesn't want to get back with her ex. What are some ways you know you should not get back together with an old flame?

Cupid's Advice:

A lot of the time we think of reasons to get back together with an ex, but neglect to reflect on the reasons we shouldn't. Cupid has some love advice:

1. They're involved with someone else: This is something that may seem obvious. However, there are some people that decide it's time to compete and win their former lover back. This is not the best idea. Once someone is involved with someone else, it will most likely just bring problems into a relationship that you may rekindle. Just remember, if it's meant to happen between you guys, it will.

2. You have not forgiven them: If you have yet to forgive your ex for any wrongdoings, then getting back together won't be the brightest idea. You will just have the same problems all over again, which is something you want to avoid. If you can't forgive, then it's time to move on – avoid yourself all the stress.

3. They're still not trustworthy: If you can't trust them, then why go back to them? You would not want to enter a relationship with distrust, it just won't end well. It would be a different story if you didn't trust them before, but you feel like you can now. Remember, when there is no trust (for a good reason), it's best to keep things pushing.

Cupid's Advice:

Even if you think you and your partner may not be the perfect match, you may not expect to break-up out of the blue. Here are some suggestions on how to cope:

1. Be kind to yourself: Try not to be too hard on yourself. Remind yourself that despite what you are feeling, it is not all your fault. It takes two to be in a relationship and there were probably aspects from both of you that led to it not working out anymore.

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Vanderpump Rules' Star Jax Taylor Explains Why He Broke Up with Brittany Cartwright

By Carly Horowitz

The emotional celebrity break-up of Vanderpump Rules stars Jax Taylor and Brittany Cartwright aired on Monday. Taylor owned up to his shortcomings and suggested that they split because he was not happy with himself. This break-up was filmed in August 2017 and since then, the pair has actually been trying to make their relationship work, according to UsMagazine.com. On Tuesday, Taylor confirmed on Twitter that the two are indeed still a celebrity couple now and he added, "I was a mess but each day has gotten better. I'll never be perfect I know this, but I do know that I have the best partner a guy can ask for, and all I care about is being the best I can for her here on out." Taylor realized during their short split that Cartwright made him want to be a better man and he did not want to lose her. This celebrity relationship has been through many ups and down but right now they seem to be at an up!

This celebrity break-up left us with mixed feelings. How do you know when it's time to break up with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

There are clearly not any tell-tale signs that it is time to break-up with your partner. Jax thought it was the best idea at the time but then he realized he was wrong. Yet, there is not a right or wrong answer to anything. You can only do what feels right in your heart in the moment. But, there are some specific indications that the relationship you are in may not be the best for you right now:

1. You find yourself wanting to do other things than spend time with your partner: If you would seriously rather lay in your bed and watch Netflix alone then go out with your boo, then that may be a problem. It is understandable to want your alone time sometimes, but it should not feel like a chore to go spend time with the one you love.

2. You bicker about everything: It is okay to not agree with your partner all the time, but if it has come to a point where bickering is draining both you and your partner, you need to have a talk. Are you bickering about small things all the time because there is something big that is bothering you both deep down? Be open and honest with each other and try to get your relationship happiness back before it is too late.

3. You constantly think about what else is out there: Is there someone out there who likes painting as much as I do? Do all partners snore so loud? Your loved one's traits should be endearing to you. It definitely may be time for a break-up if you constantly fantasize about if other people may be a better fit for you. Remember that everything is what you make of it. If you find yourself feeling this way but you do want to make it work, you can! You two just have to try together to get back on the right track. But if you find yourself feeling like this and it makes you realize that you really do not see a future with this person, then end it and be confident that your true love is out there and you will find them soon.

Another source added that Kardashian is willing to forgive him because of her unconditional loving nature. Let’s see what’s in store for this celebrity couple.

In celebrity news, Khloe Kardashian may give Tristan Thompson a chance to fix things after his infidelity. What are some things to consider before giving your partner another chance?

Cupid’s Advice:

It can be hard to give someone another chance, but in certain situations we feel like it’s the right thing to do. Cupid has some love advice on what to consider before going back to a partner who committed a transgression:

1. Can you actually forgive them?: Sometimes we jump too quickly back into a relationship when we have not yet forgave our partner. Although the road to forgiveness can be a long one, you should evaluate from now whether you really think you can forgive them. Sometimes all you need is time, and sometimes when it’s over, it’s over. Analyze, evaluate, and decide.

2. Is there a good reason to give them a chance? This is when you have to think of your specific situation and feelings. What is right for you can be different from what you want, so choose wisely. Take the time you need to ponder this.

However, we do not know the reason for their split as of yet. We wish them the best of luck.

In celebrity break-ups, John Cena and Nikki Bella called it quits. What are some reasons to call off your engagement?

Cupid’s Advice:

Calling off an engagement is rough. Nevertheless, it is better to realize now that it's not working out rather than later after you're married. Here are some reasons why you would possibly call off your engagement:

1. You argue all the time and cannot come to an agreement:

Relationships have to consist of good communication between partners. If you argue all the time, that is something you can work through. Now, if you argue all the time and just don't resolve anything, then there is a problem. If this is the case, your issues will likely build up and continue to cause havoc in your relationship.

2. There is no trust: There are times in a relationship where there may be a lack of trust, and many times couples work through it. However, when at the point where you're engaged, trust should be something that is prominently there. There is no reason why you should not trust the person you are going to marry.

3. There are things you cannot get past: If you're marriage is going to work, you need to have moved on from past mistakes your partner has made. Sometimes we remain in relationships without forgiving our partner for a past discretion. When engaged, the slate should be wiped clean in a way. You are about to start a new chapter in your lives, and if you still have past demons knocking on your door, you may already be a step toward divorce without even being married yet.

These celebrity exes might be rekindling their romance. What are some benefits to giving a past relationship a second try?

Cupid’s Advice:

Some past flames are not worth a second chance, but some relationships do end on a note where time can do the pair well. If this is the case for you, here are some benefits as to why giving it a second go is a good idea:

1. You already know one another: Although people sometimes change, you already know things about your partner and the relationship you had. This can give you a sense of comfort and trust. You both hopefully learned the same lesson from the first time as well. It will also be nice to get to know any new sides of them that they developed during your time apart.

2. You know what didn’t work before: So now you can make it better. You will face new problems, just hopefully not the old ones.

3. You have history: This creates a real bond. The fact that you both knew each other a while ago and made tons of memories definitely helps with that bond. This can create a stronger sense of intimacy and will help you connect quickly this time around. It is important however to leave past mistakes behind, but never neglect to take them into account when it comes to bettering your relationship – just don't hold grudges.

Celebrity Baby News: Khloe Kardashian Welcomes Baby Girl Amid Tristan Thompson Cheating Rumors

On Thursday morning, Khloe Kardashian welcomed her new celebrity baby girl into the world with Tristan Thompson! This birth occurred just days after the world saw shocking footage of Khloe's boyfriend, Thompson, kissing another woman at a New York City club and making out with two other women at a hookah bar in October. According to UsMagazine.com, a source says that none of his friends are surprised because they all know he cheats. This celebrity couple began dating in September 2016. Hopefully the two can sort out this situation for the sake of their new baby girl!

This celebrity baby news is somewhat tainted by the cheating allegations that came out about Khloe's man Tristan. What are some ways to shield your child from negative relationship turns?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes unsatisfactory aspects in your relationship can emerge out of the blue. It is important that these negative occurrences don't affect your child in a bad way. It is definitely beneficial for your child to come to terms with life and do realize that everything is not perfect, or else they could become too sheltered. But it could also serve detrimental if they are exposed to too much negativity. Here are some ways to protect your child against negative parental relationship trauma:

1. Never stop showing them love: Depending on how old your child is, they may or may not pick up on the relationship struggles you are going through if you do a good job at keeping it between you and your partner. But nevertheless, never stop showing your child love. Try not to be too over the top lovey dovey towards them because then it may seem like you're trying to compensate, and the love for your child, or anyone, should just be natural.

2. Don't let them in on too many details: Your child has a right to know what's going on in their parents' lives, but of course they don't need to know everything. If you and your partner are going through a relationship struggle, you can let your child in by saying something like "Mommy and Daddy aren't agreeing with each other lately but we are working on it." You don't need to tell them that one of you cheated or that you think you may be falling out of love.

3. Never let them loose sight of the wonderful things in life: You don't necessarily have to 'shield' your child from negative things in order for them to not come emotionally disturbed. You just have to remind them that yes even though these bad things may be happening right now, there are so many other magnificent aspects going on as well. Just look around, look at the beautiful trees, listen to the birds singing, think about the wonderful weekend you have planned to go to the beach or the amusement park!

Cupid’s Advice:

Cupid has some relationship advice for you! Certain things aren’t black and white. There are red flags that can insinuate that your partner may be cheating, but there is no fool proof way of knowing without hard evidence. The important thing is to not jump to conclusions right away. However, there are some things that you just shouldn’t ignore, and here they are:

1. They’re extra secretive with their phone: One thing is wanting to protect your privacy, but it is a whole other thing to guard your phone with your life when around your significant other. If your partner pulls away whenever they’re texting or typing in their phone code, or they take their phone everywhere they go every single time – then this is a red flag. Something may be up.

2. They’ve become distant: When the vibe just isn’t the same anymore, something is up. People don’t just pull away from their loved ones for no reason. The reason may or may not be cheating, but there is definitely something going on that needs attention and should be fixed quick.

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, The Bachelor Winter Games star Lesley Murphy and Dean Unglert have posted on their Instagram accounts in such a way that makes it seem as if they went through a celebrity break-up with each other. The former celebrity couple were spotted together at the Sundance Film Festival in January, and that's when we knew they were dating. Yet, Murphy wrote in an Instagram caption two days ago stating, "All we need is that same energy reciprocated, and despite how open and loving you attempt to be, people can only meet you as deeply as they've met themselves. Don't be afraid to be the one that loved the most and give everything you had, because you've got to find people who love like you do and who are ready." She also goes on to state that she is "out with the old, in with the TRUE." This definitely seems like the two went through a break-up. To add to the speculation, Unglert also wrote on Instagram, "As I've gotten older, I've learned that although everyone DESERVES love, it's not something we're entitled to. Love takes work. Love is compromise. Love is earned. I still have a lot of work to do on myself, a lot to prove to myself, before I'm ready for something like that." To conclude, a source informed EOnline.com that the pair did indeed break up recently. The aspects of distance and traveling are said to have had some effect on their relationship. The two plan to continue as friends.

This Bachelor Winter Games celebrity break-up wasn't really unexpected, but Lesley had some things to say about it. What are some benefits to getting your side of a break-up story out to your family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

When you and your partner break-up, speculation can occur. If you feel comfortable, the best thing to do is get your side of the break-up out to your family and friends. Here is why:

1. They will know the truth: You definitely want your closest friends and family to know the truth about why your break-up occurred. Fill them in on how you feel about it so that they are not left in the dust to wonder how you are doing. Your ex-partner may have a different side of the story, and that is okay. Both of you guys can expose your thoughts and feelings on the matter in order to make for a healthy, transparent split.

2. They will support you: During this time of a break-up, it is usually beneficial to have the support of your friends and family. How are they going to know to support you if you don't let them in on what is going on? Be open with them. This will help to both get your feelings out and inform the ones closest to you.

3. They will try to understand: Even though no one can ever feel the exact same way you do, people can at least try to understand. By doing something like posting an Instagram post detailing your feelings, it helps for your friends and family to see where you are coming from. The more they understand, the easier it is for them to continue to love and support you.

What are some other benefits to getting your side of a break-up story out to your family and friends?
