Sometimes the hardest thing about breaking-up is breaking the news to your friends and family that have rooted you on all this time. Fortunately, it is your closest friends and family, so they will understand that this is the right decision for you and respect that. Here are some ways to break the break-up news:

1. Social media: If the majority of your friends and family use social media on a daily basis, this may be the quickest, most efficient way to get the word out. You can do something similarly to what Channing and Jenna did and thoroughly explain that there are no hard feelings in order to decrease the potential spreading of rumors.

There’s no truth to these celebrity divorce rumors! What are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes it is beyond our control when negative rumors start to arise in regards to your own relationship. The most important thing to do is stay calm and laugh at the silliness of these rumors. Although, it is important to make sure that this gossip doesn’t get into you and your partners heads. Here are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship:

- 1. Show affection: Make sure your partner knows that there is no truth to these rumors. If there is a rumor going around that you and your partner are going to split, your partner may think that you might have told people that you want to break-up and that is why these rumors are going around. Although, that is probably not the case. Ensure that your partner feels secure despite these unsatisfactory lies that are stirring. Show them that you love them so much and all that matters is that you two know the truth.

2. Be open and honest: As we know, communication is key. Respond quickly. Before the rumors get to a very negative point, communicate the truth to the people you associate with. If you are open and honest in the first place, hopefully rumors won't even begin to occur. Sometimes though, people just honestly enjoy making up stuff. You can only do so much to prevent them.

3. Take the higher moral ground: Even though you and your partner may be upset about these rumors being spread, don't stoop to their level. It may be tempting to begin spreading other rumors because you feel upset that there are rumors being spread about you. This will just create more chaos and strain on your relationship and life in general. We cannot control what others do, but we can control our reactions. Be positive and remember that everything is going to be okay. As long as you and your partner love and support each other, these rumors should not be detrimental to your relationship.

Living situations change, oftentimes with financial hardship amongst the legalities of the split. While your divorce may not be the latest celebrity news, Cupid's relationship advice will help you navigate those choppy divorce waters in order for a more amicable split:

1. Evaluate your goals: Within any action, there is a primary end result that we would like to see. In a divorce, it may be that you want to keep the house or the kids, that you want shared custody or holiday visitation rights. Recognizing what it is that you want most out of a divorce will help alleviate the minute details. There will be enough stress already, so choose what's worth fighting for.

2. Evaluate your priorities: Similar to knowing what you want, you need to evaluate what really matters. Like Matt Lauer, is public appeal worth costing your family more stress? In emotionally-intense situations, it's easy to lose sight of your priorities. Remind yourself what matters, and fight for whatever that may be.

3. Respect your family: Lauer and Roque were married for 19 years, and now their familiar family structure is crumbling. No matter the length of time you and your spouse spent together, at some point, it was built on mutual love and respect. It's much harder to see this amidst a divorce, but realizing that you once loved your ex and still love the children you raised together means that you should be willing to make sacrifices for the greater good of everyone involved.

It’s not an easy time for her,” according to Grisham. Are we sensing a celebrity divorce coming, or is Melania Trump going to tough it out? We’ll keep you posted!

In celebrity news, it looks like the First Lady isn’t very happy with her life at the moment. What are some ways to communicate that you are unhappy to your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Effective communication is essential in all relationships. When you’re unhappy, you must talk to your partner in order for you both to move forward. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. Speak in person: Do not talk about something this serious over text message or on the phone. If you have no other choice, then talk on the phone. The reason why speaking in person is better is not only because it’s intimate, but also because you get to see their face while hearing their tone at the same time. Speaking on the phone, and texting especially, can cause miscommunication.

2. Choose the right time and go for it: Don’t beat around the bush. You have to say how you feel, and try to choose the right time. A time when neither of you are in a bad mood works best because the conversation will most likely be productive. Also, you have to make sure that there is enough time to have a discussion. When it comes to a problem like being unhappy, that is no 10-minute conversation.

3. Don't sugar coat: You have to be straight up if you intend on getting anywhere. If you try to make things nicer and sweeter than they really are, you'll just be misleading your partner. You need them to understand exactly how you feel if there's going to be any chance of you both fixing the issue at hand. Don't be aggressive and mean either. Just find a good in between and go for it. Don't be scared or shy.

In other celebrity news, Spears' father is making moves on ending the court-approved conservatorship. This has been in effect since 2008 after Spears had her public mental breakdown. Best of luck to them in this process!

In celebrity news, this child support battle is definitely not resolved yet. What are some ways to keep your children happy during a custody or child support disagreement?

Cupid's Advice:

When going through legal disagreements with your ex-partner, it is important to still keep your children's best interests in mind. It is easy to become consumed in all of the stress that is being caused by things that are over their head. Hopefully these tips will serve well in keeping your children happy during these taxing times:

1. Get your feelings out somewhere else: It is perfectly normal to be upset and angry when disagreements are occurring. You don't have to completely shut down your feelings because you want to look put-together in front of your kids. Rather, get your feelings out to a therapist or close friend so that you don't feel the need to vent to your children.

2. Apologize if you do slip up: We are not asking you to be perfect. You may have a slip up in front of your children which may cause them to be upset. Just apologize! This will also teach your children how to deal with conflict and demonstrate that if they mess up, they should apologize. After that, continue to give them the love that they need right now during this time.

3. Give genuine care: A common mistake in situations like this is giving your children material items in hopes that this will make them happy. It may make them joyful for a short period of time, but what really counts is the actual love that you give them. Try not to fill that void by buying your children multiple items. Instead, take them for a walk on the beach and just enjoy this world with them by your side.

5 Things We Can Learn from Justin Bieber & Selena Gomez's Rocky Relationship

By Ashton Dixey

There are a lot of beautiful celebrity couples out there, but there is one in particular that we've all come to admire and treasure: Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez. Society has perhaps learned more from observing their dating story than we could from reading a relationship book! Although they're currently on a break right now, that doesn't mean that we can't learn from this super cute couple.

Read on to learn more about the five things that celebrity couple Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez taught us about relationships:

1. First loves are the hardest to get over: Justin Bieber was only 16 and Selena Gomez was 18 when they both started dating each other. Fresh faced and in love, these two went everywhere together and were spotted packing on the PDA in full swing.

Fast forward eight years later (past all of the drama) and these two are still in touch trying to make things work. It seemed like Bieber never fully recovered once Gomez and him broke-up. Gomez even wrote a song about it called "The Heart Wants What It Wants." Be careful who you fall in love with for the first time because that first break-up is the toughest to recover from.

2. Learn to be okay alone: It seemed as if these two kind-of lost their balance when they had their celebrity break-up. One ended up in rehab and the other was caught peeing in random wash buckets in California. Be sure you are okay with who you are as a person inside so you can move on without racking up 20 tattoos on your neck to try and burn away the pain. One month shortly after the break-up, Justin ended up driving drunk without a license, running from the cops, and even egging his neighbor's house. When you go through a break-up, don't lose touch with yourself. Now is the perfect time to rediscover the greatness within you. Stay in touch with friends and family that truly support you so you can talk through your emotions instead of acting impulsively.

3. Keep a cool head after a break-up: Sometimes it feels really good to go on social media and unfollow your ex-boyfriend or girlfriend. Or, it might be fun to go out with a random person for the night and post pictures of yourself and them kissing. Although this may relieve the pain for a bit, it is not the best idea. Bieber put fuel on the Jelena rumor fires when he unfollowed Gomez and started posting steamy pictures of himself and other girls on Instagram. There was somewhat of an Instagram war occurring between the two. Try your best to keep a cool head after you break-up and don't do anything you'll regret. If you do end up back together at some point, you don't want to do anything that might spoil the relationship for the future. Collect yourself, you got this!

4. Rebounds don't work: If you're trying to get over an ex, it can be tempting to find someone that's available and willing to jump into a relationship with you. But when your heart is still reeling from wanting to be with your ex-lover, this can be a very bad decision. Instead of facing the pain, you're pouring it into a new relationship and settling to boot. Gomez ended up dating The Weeknd for about eight months before she ended up back in Bieber's arms after a sweet bicycle trip that turned out to be an awesome date idea. As much as you try to forget that person that you're still in love with, it won't be easy, and it certainly won't be fair for the person who's serving as your rebound.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Has Justin Bieber Moved On from Selena Gomez With Baskin Champion?

5. If at first you don't succeed, try try again: Throughout Bieber and Gomez's rocky relationship, it seems that Bieber had tried to win Gomez back many times. From serenading her at a hotel in Beverly Hills, to posting photos complimenting Gomez on his Instagram, he tried and tried again to win her back. After several years of trying, it worked! They got officially back together and even made it Instagram official this month. If there's anything to learn here it's that true love never dies and that if there's someone you know you're supposed to be with, it makes sense to fight for their love. Bieber did it for Gomez and even though they are on a break right now, true love is always worth fighting for.

Best wishes to her during this time.

In this celebrity baby news, Khloe Kardashian has some wishes for her soon-to-be born baby. What are some ways to keep expectations from affecting your children?

Cupid's Advice:

It is so fun to fantasize about which specific aspects your child will inherit from both you and your partner. Although, you should not let that overtake the beauty of nature. Your child is going to be so beautiful and will inherit great aspects from you and your partner. It may not be exactly what you hoped for, but you will end up finding it to be perfect anyway. It may be hard sometimes, both before your child is born and much later down the line, to keep your expectations from affecting your children. Fortunately, Cupid is here with some tips on how to help:

1. Let go of timelines: Children are supposed to walking by the time they are one and be potty trained by two, right? No, not necessarily. Don't place such high standards on your child meeting the typical deadlines of when they are going to accomplish these 'firsts'. Every child is different and runs on different schedules. Don't worry, they will eventually take their first steps and be potty trained when the time is right for them. Just enjoy the moments you have together because when they are older and out of the house, you're going to wish you could still be changing their diapers!

2. Let them know they are enough: It is unrealistic to say that you won't have any specific expectations for your children. Even if you do, let your kid know that they are perfect just the way they are. You can encourage them to be the best they can be, but try not to expect so much that you end up getting let down, or worse, your child feels as if they let you down. Shower your child with love and appreciation.

3. Support: One of the greatest things you can do as a parent is show support for your child's interests. Maybe you wanted your child to be a star soccer player like you, but they seem to be more interested in swimming. Great for them! Even if it is not what you originally expected, be happy that they are showing interest in something and support them. Remember, your child is not just a younger replica you, they are a different version of you so let their own light shine!

Celebrity News: Bella Thorne & Patrick Schwarzenegger Dish on Relationship Deal Breakers

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Bella Thorne and Patrick Schwarzenegger shared their thoughts on what makes and breaks a relationship, and it's good advice! Thorne and Schwarzenegger, who star in Midnight Sun which premiered on Friday, opened up about how their first crushes were the ones that taught them about their relationship wants and deal breakers. According to UsMagazine.com, Thorne said: "If you're dating someone that's not going to motivate you or encourage you, don't date them. You should straight up just be out of the relationship right then and there. I dated somebody and sent him a song that I recorded and he was like, 'This is honestly not very good at all. I'm sorry. I kind of hate this song. You sound awful.' I was like, 'That feels like s-t. That hurts on the inside, man.'" "It's the worst thing when you're dating somebody who is just like, 'You're sh-t.'" Schwarzenegger agrees. "I think that having a significant other is meant to make you a better person and bring out the best in you and you bring out the best in them, he explains. "It's about surrounding yourself with people that root for you and expect more from you. I think those are the types of people you want to surround yourself with.” Yep, that is good love advice!

In celebrity news, ‘Midnight Sun’ actors Bella and Patrick talk things that make or break relationships. What are three things that can be considered a relationship deal breaker?

Cupid’s Advice:

Many things can break a relationship, here are three we think are on the top of the list:

1. Cheating: Infidelity is a big one. It is a big betrayal, and it is deceitful as well. It ruins trusts, too. However, some couples are able to work through an indiscretion like cheating – but then again, many others can’t. Cheating is a big deal breaker that many of us choose to not deal with.

2. Lack of trust: Cheating is not the only thing that can break trust. And sometimes, trust is just not there from the beginning either. In any relationship, it is important to have trust, if there isn’t any you’re headed for an extremely rocky road. Do yourself a favor, and work on this big issue before it gets worse, because it can definitely be a deal breaker.

3. No common ground: In a romantic relationship, you need to have things in common. No, you do not need to have everything or even most things in common, but you do need a base for the foundation you're building. It's okay to have differences, but after everything, you should have things in common to keep the relationship going. There isn't a choice for "inconsolable differences" on divorce papers for nothing!

1. Know that you are sure about the divorce: Sometimes love can blind us, but it is important to know the reason for the divorce and that it is in fact the right decision. Try your best to skip any denial stage to make it easier for yourself. Think things through, analyze and examine your situation. 2. Think of the positive outcome: It is hard to see the light during a time as dark as going through a divorce – but it is essential that you do find it. Things can look hopeless and that can drag you into a downward spiral. It is important to find the good in all the bad situations we're in, no matter how small it may be. Just know that you are going through a hard time right now that will make you stronger, and the future holds something much better. Positive thinking goes a long way.

"Justin has been hanging out with Baskin," a source said, adding that after the show Bieber and Champion went back to his house. "Justin had friends with him but they all left and Justin and Baskin were alone together for the night." We wonder what Gomez has to say about this. Was their break an actual celebrity break-up?

In celebrity news, we're wondering if Jelena is old news. What are some ways to know you're ready to move on after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on from a past relationship can be hard. However, when it's done, it's done, and you have to move on. Cupid has some ideas on how to know when it's time to not look back and carry on from a former relationship:

1. There is no future with the relationship: If you no longer see a future with an ex flame, it's time to ditch them and move on. If you know this valuable piece of information, then you're just waiting for the inevitable at this point. Why waste more time on the relationship when you can spend that time moving on and actually doing things that will benefit the future you have without that person?

Related Link: Cameron Diaz 'Has Become a New Person' with Husband Benji Madden

2. The other person has moved on: If your ex has moved on, then it is probably safe to say that you should too. It may hurt to see them with someone else, but things happen for a reason. Don't let seeing them with someone else throw you into a jealous fit. Instead, take it with a grain of salt, and move on.

3. You're worn out: Relationships can be tiresome. However, if you feel absolutely drained, this could be a sign that it's time to move on. You can only try so hard and oh so much. If you gave it your best shot, that's what matters. If your relationship still doesn't work after all your efforts, you may be seeing a dead end, and so it is time to carry on without your ex.
