Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby is so exciting! Cupid has a few tips on things to consider when having a baby girl:

1. What color do you want to use?: Do you want to go with pink or go neutral with white or yellow? Consider colors for your baby's clothes and for the nursery. Even for the baby shower. Most people like to take the sex of the baby into consideration when it comes to these decisions. But either way is fine. Just as long as your bundle of joy is a happy one.

Expert Dating Advice: How to Handle Heartbreak

By Megan Weks

Arie Luyendyk Jr.'s point of view on negative commentary regarding his experience on The Bachelor holds a life lesson we may all be able to benefit from, especially related to finding The One. With regard to facing a backlash from viewers, the reality TV star tells E! News, “It’s all about the ending, and finding that person for yourself. That’s the important part.” The takeaway, then, is that, even though he had to endure hardship, he knew it was all part of the journey to finding his soulmate. This thought process can offer us an intelligent and healthy way to approach heartbreak.

Dating Advice for Dealing with a Broken Heart

Related Link: Checklist for Dating from Different Decades: Get Love Advice from ‘The Bachelor’

It seems as though Luyendyk will be seriously breaking some hearts this season, especially since he destroyed the “I love you” rule by saying that powerful phrase to two women. Still, the expert dating advice here is that you must take a risk to get the big reward in life.

In Luyendyk’s case, he risked facing all sorts of negative commentary by living the public lifestyle that is on reality TV. Going on The Bachelor was, for him, the ultimate matchmaking experience. He had twenty-nine handpicked women there, all pre-screened to match his criteria. It’s a big risk, but if we look at the results, there are a lot of successful love stories created through this process. Choosing the right woman certainly was a tough choice for him, though...

The women were less fortunate, as only one out of those twenty-nine would end up not feeling disappointed. A couple of them would be severely heartbroken. And one of them might feel badly embarrassed (spoiler alert!). When we face these devastating moments in our lives, how can we handle them? What can we do to keep our sanity?

The key is to look at heartbreak as a beginning and not an ending. The more we fight the flow of life, the more pain we will endure. Look for the opportunity in everything. If you were not someone's choice, there is a better choice out there for you.

A couple of months ago, a woman approached me for help with news of a devastating break-up. Upon working together, she decided that it could be an opportunity for her to go out and get everything she had been dreaming of in a relationship. She wasted no time in her decision to adopt the Manfunnel Method of dating: She quickly put herself back out there and reported back in exactly one month's time that she had met an incredible man. They are now planning their summer trip together with her family. She knew what she wanted and took the action to make it happen.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: How I Used a Manfunnel to Meet My Dream Husband

If you're not looking to date right away, that's okay too. What can you do to take even better care of yourself? Perhaps you commit to your yoga mat, get into that infrared sauna, and spend extra time in the steam room. Fill your body with the highest-quality foods. Take time to sort through what might have gone wrong on your end. If you sit still, reflect, and grow from your experiences, you will eventually attract higher-quality people into your world because of your heightened level of awareness.

Your break-up is an opportunity. It happened for a reason. Soon, you will find out the reason. You may end up being delighted and thankful. So for now, just allow everything to unfold as it is meant to.

Celebrity Break-Up: Did Miranda Lambert and Anderson East Split?

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity gossip, rumors have been circulating about Miranda Lambert and Anderson East's celebrity relationship. According to UsMagazine.com, East has not posted any photos on Instagram with Lambert since November, and he hasn't liked any of her photos since December. Since these rumors have been present, the public has also noticed that East does not follow Lambert on Instagram. But, we are not sure if he ever did. It may be a large leap to judge a celebrity break-up by mere social media, but East performed on Bobby Bones' syndicated radio show on Wednesday, February 28, and sang a song about heartbreak: "If You Keep Leaving Me." We are not jumping to conclusions, but hopefully Anderson and East will comment on these celebrity break-up rumors soon!

Rumors are stirring about a potential celebrity break-up. What are some ways to decrease break-up speculation?

Cupid's Advice:

People have a tendency to be nosy. They may begin to assume things in regards to your relationship if there are notable changes on social media, or in person. Whether these changes have any truth to them, it can be annoying to have people constantly discussing these rumors. Luckily, Cupid is here with some advice on how to decrease this talk:

1. Be honest: If you don't mind people knowing the truth, then share your break-up right after it occurs. This will stop people from formulating their own conclusions as to if you and your partner have broken up and why. Let people know about your break-up, and give them an explanation to the extent at which you feel comfortable so that further rumors don't begin to arise regarding the reasons why.

2. Delete social media: After your break-up, you may want to take a break from social media anyway. Also, if you temporarily delete your social media during this time, it will decrease speculation that can form from people analyzing who you are following, who is liking your pictures, and such. Sometimes it's nice to take a break from it all.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Jennifer Aniston & Justin Theroux Announce Separation

3. Be yourself: The number one reason why break-up speculation arises is because people notice changes in individual's personalities. If you and your partner actually did not break-up but you are just going through some other personal changes, let your friends and family know so that they don't assume otherwise. If you and your partner did break-up but you don't want people to know yet, try your best to still act like yourself so speculation doesn't occur.

Celebrity News: Kelly Ripa Addresses Ryan Seacrest Sexual Misconduct Allegations

By Jessica Gomez

According to UsMagazine.com, TV show host Kelly Ripa is standing by Ryan Seacrest. "I just want you to know you are a privilege to work with, and I adore you, and I am speaking on behalf of all of us here. I know what an easy, professional, great person you are and I feel very, very lucky to work with you each and every day," Ripa said to Ryan Seacrest on Thursday while on air during their show Live With Kelly and Ryan. This heartwarming statement came after the sexual misconduct allegations against Seacrest from one of his former stylists. Seacrest has denied the accusations multiple times.

In celebrity news, Ryan Seacrest is up against some serious sexual misconduct accusations. What are some ways to support your partner when he/she is being accused of something they did not do?

Cupid's Advice:

Trust is a big thing, and it's what keeps us standing by our partners when accusations arise. Cupid has some relationship advice on ways to support your other half if a tough time like this comes up:

- 1. Be their shoulder to lean on: Be there for them. Be there to listen to them. If your partner is being accused of something they didn't do, they will most likely be under some real stress, so they need a support system. You must be mindful of their emotions. Just make sure they know you have their back.

2. Be positive: Talk to them, offer words of encouragement. Don't criticize. Depending on the accusation, this can be a dark time. Try to be the light in the darkness for them. Obviously, don't try to downplay what's going on, but try to have them see that things will get better. Hope is sometimes one of the things we need the most.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Meghan Markle & Prince Harry to Face Danger on Their Wedding Day

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, royal celebrity couple Meghan Markle and Prince Harry face a potential danger: being a target. According to EOnline.com, former Head of Royal Protection and Chief Superintendent of the Metropolitan Police Service Dai Davies said: "History has a habit of repeating itself. In the last thousand years, there hasn't been a King or Queen that someone hasn't tried to murder." In addition, it cost $33 million to protect Prince William and Kate Middleton at their celebrity wedding in 2011 – one of the most pricey security operations. Undercover police, investigations to avoid terrorist attacks, snipers, and an extensive search for explosives hiding in any place you can think of were all part of that price. Harry and Meghan's protection plan for their big day could possibly cost more than William and Kate's – yikes! What makes them a bigger target is Harry's active military status in Afghanistan, plus the hate letter containing anthrax (an infectious disease caused by the bacteria Bacillus anthracis) aimed at Meghan. As we can see, the royal fam needs all that protection. We wish this beautiful couple the best of luck!

Royals have a dangerous element to their celebrity weddings. What are some ways to keep drama from infecting your wedding day?

Cupid's Advice:

We all want our wedding day to be perfect, or at least close enough to it. We plan ahead to try to create this perfect day, but there's more to it. Cupid has some ideas on how to keep your wedding day as stress and drama free as possible.

1. Stay organized and delegate when needed: If you plan ahead, like most of us do for our wedding day, then you're off to a good start. But maintaining everything organized is the tough part if things don't go accordingly. And let's face it, many times things don't go according to plan. And don't be a total control freak either. It is your wedding day, but you need to learn to pass down tasks when necessary. Communicate properly and trust in your close friends and family to help you get the wedding you deserve.

2. Adjust your guest list and seating arrangements properly: This may not be the case for everyone, but sometimes we need to take more consideration in who will be on the guest list and who will be seated with who for more than just the typical reasons. Do certain people not get along or have drama with one another? Then make sure they are seated far away from each other! And take any other actions necessary to keep drama from going down on your big day.

3. Meditate: On your wedding day, you should meditate. It's an exciting day, but also stressful because you obviously want it to be magical. Try meditating one to three times that day to keep you calm and grounded. We know you don't have tons of time, so five to 10 minutes each time should do the trick. It's worth it!

Cupid's Advice:

Regardless what others may say, getting back with an ex is not always a bad idea. Sometimes time apart is what's needed to grow stronger. Cupid weighs in:

1. It's all on the table: If you're thinking about getting back together with an ex, the most important thing you must do is talk with each other. If there is any unfinished business or unresolved resentment, you must lay it all on the line. Once all the feelings are accounted for, be sure to set clear guidelines before jumping back in.

2. You've forgiven: Forgiveness isn't easy, but it is possible! Contrary to popular belief, forgiveness does not weaken your character: it shows you have the strength to accept the past, look beyond the mistakes, and move on. If you have come to terms with an ex who may have hurt you, but genuinely want to give them another chance, that shows a maturity toward both parties involved.

3. You're both in better headspaces: Break-ups usually happen because two people are unable to be on the same page. The time spent as a single person is pivotal in personal development. If you and your ex have given each other enough time and space apart, allowing each other to grow, then getting back together might be worth a shot. Though you already know each other, and the relationship is by no means "new," it is exciting to begin a new chapter and get to know each other's newfound headspaces.

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Star Bekah Martinez Says She's More Ready for Marriage Than Arie

By Karley Kemble

Bekah Martinez is one of the most talked about contestants on this season of The Bachelor, not because she caused drama, but because of her age! Though she just turned 23, this season's Bachelor, Arie Luyendyk, Jr., is 36, and he (along with many women on the show) felt Martinez was not ready to settle down. However, in the latest celebrity news, Martinez claims Luyendyk Jr. is the one who's not ready for marriage. In a recent interview with Entertainment Tonight, the reality TV star stated, "I think I'm more ready for marriage than Arie is, quite honestly. I don't think Arie knows what he wants, and I don't think he's serious about being with one person for the rest of his life," reports UsMagazine.com. Though she was mum about why she felt that way, Martinez assured all our questions will be answered during next week's finale. Sounds juicy!

In celebrity news, Bekah M. was accused of not being ready for marriage on The Bachelor. How do you know if you're ready for marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Age and marriage don't always coincide. When you're ready for marriage and to settle down, you'll know. Check out these tips from Cupid:

- 1. You're ready to commit: Marriage should be a natural progression in your relationship. In fact, it's better to begin any relationship with marriage on the back burner. Instead of pursuing a relationship with marriage on your mind, focus on being present in the now. As time passes and your love grows, the progression and desire to take the next step will be a fluid change

Related Link: Celebrity News: Arie Tells Two Women He Loves Them Ahead of 'The Bachelor' Finale

2. You aren't trying to fix or save them: All too often, people enter relationships and try to be the heroic figure. In these situations, the underlying thought is that the flaws or challenges the partner is facing will be fixed over time with careful guidance from the other partner. This is never a good idea, as it ultimately is romanticizing challenges and causes you to think things will work out eventually. It's better to find a partner that you see eye-to-eye with, and to keep your mind and heart in-sync with each other.

3. You know it won't be easy: The honeymoon phase of your relationship will come to an end, and finding romance will not always be a walk in the park. You and your partner will certainly have your fair share of struggles to keep the romance alive. If you are accepting of this, and feel ready to face the challenges that will arise, that is a good sign. Always be sure to grow together, because the only other option is growing apart.

This long-time pair are calling it quits with a celebrity break-up. What are some solid reasons to separate after a long-term relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Even if you have been with someone for a long time, sometimes you realize that you may be better off as friends. It can take a lot of time to truly get to know someone. It is not a waste if you realize that the person you have been with for so long is actually not the one for you. Cherish the moments that you did get to share together and be thankful for that wonderful time. Here are some common reasons that a pair may separate after being together for a long time:

1. Not enough in common: It takes time, and living together, to really realize how well you and your partner fit together. Sometimes it even takes raising a child together to actually find out that your relationship isn't the best suited. At first, you may have just been so in love that you did not realize the gaps in your relationship.

2. It's just not there anymore: As sad as it is to say, sometimes people can fall out of love. That's not a bad thing though. Celebrity Exes Demi Lovato & Wilmer Valderrama Reunite for Lunch Date

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, celebrity exes Demi Lovato and Wilmer Valderrama were spotted having a lunch date at Sol Y Luna in Los Angeles, according to UsMagazine.com. The former celebrity couple dated for six years, and their celebrity break-up occurred in the summer of 2016. However, Lovato and Valderrama sparked rumors last year when they were spotted together in multiple places. Could these two be reconciling their celebrity relationship or are they just good friends? We'll have to be on the look out!

These celebrity exes are either on good terms as friends or may be giving their relationship another try. What are some benefits to remaining friends with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes break-ups don't end badly, and in those times you may want to stay friends with your ex. Cupid has some advice on the benefits to staying friends with an ex:

1. They know you: If you guys end on a good note and stay cool with one another, then they can give you advice. The people we date get to know us in ways others don't. This comes in handy when it comes to your new relationship, because your ex can give you advice based on your past experiences and the fact that he indeed knows you in that way. Just make sure you are not dealing with a bitter or spiteful ex – you would not want to take the wrong advice.

2. You've got history: It's a shame to let all that history go to waste if you are both decent people that get along well after the break-up. Just because your romantic relationship didn't work out doesn't necessarily mean that a friendship won't work. You never know – maybe you were not compatible as lovers, but you make great friends, and the history can make the friendly bond stronger.

3. You get closure: Becoming friends with an ex can be a path into getting over them, but only as long as you're both ready and willing to actually be friends. If you're friends, then you obviously should have let go of any resentment between the both of you. The past is in the past, and now you've got a friendship. You didn't have to lose a good person just because it didn't work out.

Celebrity Break-Up: Cheating Didn't Play a Role in Jennifer Aniston & Justin Theroux's Split

By Carly Horowitz

The Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux celebrity break-up has been the latest celebrity gossip in everyone's ears the past few days. According to UsMagazine.com, in order to decrease speculation, a source explained that cheating didn't play a role in the celebrity break-up between Aniston and Theroux. "The split is very mutual. They truly want each other to be happy and wish the best for one another," the source said. "Cheating is not the reason for the split and did not happen."

A source also said that even though cheating did not play a role in this split, distance may have.

This celebrity break-up didn't involve a cheating scandal. What are some ways to know if your partner is cheating?

Cupid's Advice:

It is definitely not beneficial to be on guard all the time about if your partner is cheating on you, but it isn't bad to be aware that it could happen. Here are some signs that may indicate that there is some infidelity occurring in your relationship:

1. Less time together: If your partner randomly begins to have less time for you, they may be spending time with someone else. Obviously if your partner just got a new job or is dealing with some occurrence, they might have less time to spend with you because of that. Talk to your partner and ask why your time together has decreased.

2. Emotional distance: You may begin to notice that something in your relationship just doesn't feel the same. You're not connecting on that emotional level anymore. That may just be because you have gotten very comfortable in your relationship, or it may indicate that the emotional energy that your partner used to put into you is now going towards someone else. Be open and bring this emotional distance to your partner's attention.

3. They guard their phone: Your partner should be relatively open with their phones around you if they have nothing to hide. If out of the blue your partner starts making sure you cannot view their phone, that may not be a good sign. Overall, you can't be sure of anything unless you have proof and you don't want to go out searching for signs of cheating. Just live happily in your relationship and if you really do feel like something may be up, talk to your partner. Hopefully they will be honest with you.

Celebrity Baby News: Rachel McAdams Is Pregnant With Her First Child

By Jessica Gomez

Multiple sources say that Rachel McAdams is pregnant, according to EOnline.com. The alleged mother-to-be has not said a word on it and neither have any of her representatives. McAdams has always been pretty private about her life. The last time she was photographed was in Toronto where she was wearing a jacket that could have been hiding her celebrity baby bump. She's also been keeping a low profile in the last few months. We don't know much as of yet, but let's hope we soon will!

This celebrity baby news hasn't been confirmed by McAdams herself, but we're happy for her! What are some reasons to keep your pregnancy under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether to announce your pregnancy or not is the mother-to-be's choice. Cupid has some reasons why you may not want to break the news just yet:

1. To avoid stress: Pregnancy is a sensitive time when your health and the one of your baby depends on you taking it easy. If we feel like outside factors can cause us stress during a critical time, then as mothers-to be we must cut out those things. Sometimes people can become over bearing when it comes to receiving baby news – so if you're around those kind of people, then momentarily hiding your pregnancy is an option. Do what's best for you and your bundle of joy.

2. Judgy peers: Whether these peers are at school or work, or are your neighbors, friends, or fam, sometimes they're just not the easiest people to deal with. At times, we may be surrounded by people who judge and/or gossip, and that can lead to you wanting to keep your pregnancy low-key. During pregnancy, drama should be avoided, so there's no shame in doing what you have to do. Do what you have to do for yourself, forget about others. You and your baby are most important.

3. You don't want to jinx it: Some of us are superstitious and believe in the ability to jinx things. This may not be logical to everyone, but if it's logical to the mother-to be, then that's enough. It's your body and your baby. Sometimes certain people find reassurance and comfort in not telling people right away due to fear of something wrong, like a miscarriage for example. At the end of the day, as long as the baby news is delivered later rather than never, it should be fine.

Celebrity News: Would Jennifer Aniston Get Back Together With Brad Pitt?

By Jessica Gomez

Former celebrity couple Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux's split is raising a certain question: will celebrity exes Aniston and Brad Pitt be getting back together now that they're both single? According to UsMagazine.com, Aniston and Pitt will not be rekindling their celebrity relationship after all. "Jen wouldn't consider being with Brad in a romantic way," a friend of Aniston's said. "But there is always a spot in her heart for him.” As for Pitt, a source said, “Brad is sad to hear about Jen’s divorce. He only wishes the best for her. However, Brad hasn’t reached out to Jen, and has no plans to do so at this point.”

In this celebrity news, fans are speculating about Jennifer Aniston and Brad Pitt now that both have gone through splits. What are some things to consider before getting back together with an ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Whether or not to get back with an ex is an important decision. It isn’t always an easy one either. Cupid has some things to consider before making the choice:

1. Have you both moved on from the reason you both broke up?: Think about the reason why you both broke up in the first place. Was it for a good reason or was it circumstantial? Then, also think about whether you both have forgiven each other completely for past mistakes. If you have, then that can be a good sign – if not, then not so much. If you feel like you haven’t forgiven your ex for something, then that problem will probably constantly arise during your reconciled relationship.

2. Do you see a future with your ex?: Why go back to an ex if you don’t think it’s going to be serious and no good future ahead? Think about this thoroughly – sometimes we see a future with someone, but that future comes with unnecessary obstacles and negativity. If this is the case, then it may be a sign that your ex is meant to stay an ex. Think about this while spending some time apart – it's something big to ponder.

3. What are reasons to get back together and not get back together?: Pro and con lists are good ones to make. Be fair and think about why you should get back together with your ex and why you shouldn't. Then, weigh it all. Certain things weigh more than others, so be honest and just with yourself when considering all the information. Making a list with a friend can help, as long as that friend isn't necessarily biased.
